Nominations Asked For Citizen Of The Year Award Made By The News-WFUL

The year 1957 has neatly been tucked into the pages of history and as the events of the year just passed are recorded for posterity the Fulton County News and Radio Station WFUL pause to reflect the accomplishments of its citizens and the contributions they have made to the community during the past year.

What Fultonian (including South Fulton) or Fulton Countian for that matter, has made the greatest imprint on the life of this area during the year just passed? What citizen, through his or her efforts has made the greatest contribution to this area, as a result of his or her individual activities. You are asked to help select the Citizen of the Year.

For those efforts the Fulton County News and Radio Station WFUL each year have paid a small tribute to some outstanding citizen and designates them as the CITIZEN OF THE YEAR. This is the seventh annual observance of this event sponsored by the newspaper and radio station. Prior to 1956 the event was sponsored solely by the Fulton County News.

Within recent years the title of the award has been changed to the CITIZEN OF THE YEAR, instead of the MAN OF THE YEAR.

Jo's
Note Book

Hello there... long time no talk with you. Actually my most important New Year's resolution was to visit with you every week, come what may. As a matter of fact I was so busy making this New Year's resolution I didn't have time to write the column.

But don't worry I have been keeping up with all of you, even though by remote control. I was out of town for three days, combining pleasure with business when I visited in Louisville on Saturday, January 4, to attend the lovely wedding of Susanne Wetherby to Warner Hines. In my customary rush I almost missed the wedding at the church because I didn't figure that the church was in St. Matthews, some five miles out of Louisville. I got there just as former Governor Wetherby was nearing the altar with his eldest daughter. If I had opened the door of the church three minutes sooner I would have almost stepped on Susanne's veil as she started that trek down the middle aisle.

We left Fulton at four-thirty a. m. on Saturday and it took some fast driving to get there to be at the wedding at one o'clock sharp. But we made it.

I stayed over in Louisville for two extra days on business and certainly hated to miss the first meeting of the new Fulton City Council. From what I can understand it was a rather interesting meeting with new Mayor Nelson Tripp having to break two tie votes on perhaps two of the most important items of business that ever come before the council.

Breaking a tie on a new council when the members involved are men with somewhat strong opinions does not make the Mayor a strong candidate for a popularity contest. However Mayor Tripp told us that he made the decisions according to the dictates of his conscience and I suppose we can expect no fairer decision than that.

One thing we hope more than anything else however and that is that the new council, all men of wide business experience, will not have set a pattern in the three and three decisions. In discussing the matter with some of the Councilmen individually we learned that generally all of them are in complete agreement that many worthwhile projects are in store for the City of Fulton under their administration.

While we don't think it appropriate to discuss any of these progressive ideas at this time we believe that when the new ideas are put into effect that Fulton will be a better city for having adopted these new ideas.

There can be no doubt about it... that the affairs of the YEAR, as it was previously called. This change was made necessary when Mrs. Ward Bushart was named to the annual honor bestowed by the newspaper and radio station. Mrs. Bushart, an outstanding and prominent Fulton and Kentucky civic leader, is the first and only woman ever awarded the local tribute.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westpheling, who own and operate both the Fulton County News and Radio Station WFUL are seeking the help of its readers and listeners in asking for nominations to be considered for the title of Citizen of the Year.

In sending in a nomination it is requested that a resume be made of the nominee's activities for the year 1957. If a nominee's activities cover more than one year, it is requested that the various contributions over the years be listed and the reasons enumerated why you think this person should be selected as the CITIZEN OF THE YEAR.

The names of persons submitted will be examined by a secret committee appointed by the newspaper and radio station and the decision will be kept secret until the night of the annual CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD dinner, at which time a program, designed along TV's "This is your Life" will be depicted.

During 1957 several Fultonians have figured in State and National news and by their efforts have made outstanding contributions to Fulton's well being. If in your estimation these persons should be so honored you are asked to send in that nomination and your reasons for making them the CITIZEN OF THE YEAR.

Previous citizens of the year are: W. L. Holland, superintendent of Fulton City Schools; E. E. Williamson, general manager of Browder Milling Company; Sebra Evans, trainmaster of the Illinois Central Railroad; Mrs. Ward Bushart, civic leader and State President of the Kentucky State Medical Society Auxiliary; Dr. J. L. Jones, a long-time and beloved Fulton physician and last year Smith Atkins, banker, city official, civic leader and all-around prominent citizen.

Fulton Police Chief Warns Of Coming Drive Against Traffic Violations

Fulton Police Chief "Rex" Ruddle, speaking before the local Rotary Club Tuesday noon, warned of an impending "tightening up" of local traffic rules and regulations in Fulton, stating that Police are going to conduct a strong drive to stop various violations of city laws.

Ruddle specifically mentioned eight categories of law violations. These are:

- 1.) Speeding by juveniles on streets, and "drag races" among juveniles that have been reported principally on East State Line and West State Line.
- 2.) The use of loud mufflers on vehicles, including the "Hollywood muffler"; also the use of motorcycles and motorbikes without proper mufflers. Loud mufflers are prohibited by city ordinance.
- 3.) The wanton disregard of stop signs, practiced by young and old drivers alike.
- 4.) Double-parking, especially on Lake Street.
- 5.) Overtime violations on city parking meters. The Chief of Police meters. The Chief of 6.) The observance of a complete stop at the 4-way stop intersections adjacent to city schools.

7.) Minors driving without an operator's license. It was pointed out that minors cannot lawfully drive a vehicle in Kentucky until they are 16 years of age, and only then can they obtain a permit with the consent of their parents.

8.) Parking on the left side of the street. This practice is unlawful as well as hazardous.

Chief Ruddle also told his audience that Police intend to "tighten down" on the speed laws of the community, which are 20 m. p. h. on business streets and 30 m. p. h. in residential areas. Chief Ruddle was introduced to the Club by Rotarian "Happy" Hogan, whose program was on "Traffic safety".

Both men will be honored at the 46th annual Farm and Home Week program Jan. 28-31, 1958. They will receive watches and certificates for their accomplishment.

Chafin's top one-acre plot used 400 pounds of 5-10-5 fertilizer, he disked in 100 pounds of ammonium nitrate and also side-dressed later with 100 pounds of ammonium nitrate, and used a half load of manure. He turned under vetch cover at planting time, planted May 18 and used a commercial hybrid for his crop. He cultivated twice and contended with "too little rain during the growing season."

Reed had grass on his land in 1954 and 1955 and corn in 1955. He used 200 pounds per acre of 0-30-30 fertilizer and used five tons of poultry manure as a supplement. He planted on May 15, 1957, and cultivated twice. He also used a commercial hybrid. He added two tons of limestone per acre before planting the crop.

Go to Church Sunday

Senator Freeman Introduces A Long-Needed Bill

Kentucky has never been noted for good roads; it has been noted for a lack of them. It is an unfortunate circumstance that we live in a state with probably one of the worst highway networks in the nation.

Why? We have had good governors who have tried to spend road money wisely, and we have had poor governors who have squandered road money to suit their political whims, and putting all of them together we have had no decent, constructive, long-administered, political-minimized highway program since the motor car came into general being. And that's what it takes for good highways. They aren't planned and built in one administration.

This, a relatively-poor State that can ill-afford to waste money on willy-nilly road planning, has wasted it by the millions.

Don't take our word for it. Look at the highways around you, in Kentucky; then travel their extensions through neighboring States and look at the difference in improvement. The worst stretch in the 500-mile trip between Fulton and Kansas City is 40 miles of US 51 from Fulton to Cairo, with not a curve straightened, not an alteration made to it since it was laid down 20 years ago.

During the past year a considerable amount of wasted highway money has been exposed in Kentucky highway department finagling. We learn that the Federal Government is about to refuse any more funds for Federal road improvement in the State unless the Department is operated properly and can build okayed roads within proper cost limits. Then we get a new Highway Commissioner. Then the Federal government announces a new super-highway through Western Kentucky, from Cairo to Nashville that will, among other things, "open up" our otherwise-isolated lake vacation land. Then the Great Commonwealth of Kentucky, through its Frankfort representatives, disclaims anything to do with the new super-road.

What kind of shenanigans are all these? Why do the people of this State put up with all of this stuff? "Grin and bear it," some say — "that's Kentucky politics".

There are enough thinking people in Kentucky who know how to do better.

This week, for instance, Senator Wayne Freeman, Mayfield, has introduced a bill in the legislature that is intended to bring about a long-needed reformation of the Highway Department by removing the Department from politics, and permitting it to plan and carry out a long-range, politically-free program of improvement. The bill would create a civil-service system for State highway employees; it would provide that the Commissioner of Highways be confirmed by the Senate for his four-year term; it would prohibit any State highway employee from having any interest in any construction contract.

It may not be the best bill in the world, and it may take some revising before it is passed, but it is certainly thinking in the right direction, and if Happy and Harry Lee seek to improve the State (as they maintain) and not their personal welfare (as their record to date would indicate) they will agree with it and help it through.

Good highway systems are planned and built over many years, with an over-all good judgement that rests in competent engineering hands through many administrations. Alert States around us (Tennessee for one), are geared, organized and rolling along with the new Federal program while Kentucky piddles, fiddles and mires-down in political stupidity.

The intent of Senator Freeman's bill has our 100% endorsement, and we will follow its course with interest, as we are sure will many thinking taxpayers and well-meaning highway engineers and employees who wish to the Lord someone would steer a continuous program for them that makes sense.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK Roundtable On Marriage

By John C. Knott

COUNTLESS marriages exist today that are not happy. What can be done about them?

A few years ago couples began to get together just to talk about happiness in marriage. And before they knew it, a movement was started. This movement has taken the name of the Cana Conference.

THE NAME CANA recalls, of course, the marriage feast at Cana of Galilee at which Christ worked His first miracle and evidenced His concern for the happiness of married couples. The Cana Conferences take varied forms, but in general they can be described as a movement which has as its purpose the indoctrinating of married couples with the Christian ideals of marriage.

While the Conferences discuss the meaning of marriage and the problems of family life, emphasis is rather placed on the Christianizing of marital and parental attitudes than on the here and now solution of a particular problem of a particular married couple.

meeting is one of marked informality. Husbands and wives sit side by side. Where possible, comfortable chairs are provided and smoking is permitted. Questions are invited by the speaker. All types of couples of varied educational and economic background participate.

A characteristic note of Cana is that it is a couple movement. It is not a husband movement, nor is it a wife movement. It is a married couple movement designed to benefit the spiritual and temporal welfare of both parties as a unit.

SINCE ITS beginning, Cana has enjoyed a spontaneous growth throughout the country. The response from couples has been instantaneous and enthusiastic. It has effected a unity, a joy, and a love in the husband and wife relationship which has shaken many couples out of the dull, jog-trot routine in which they may have become ensnared.

The wife sees that she has a husband who is not only an economic man, but a man standing in the place of God to her, complementing and perfecting her and in turn being completed by her.

The husband begins to see marriage as a tremendous vocation of love to which he and his wife are called. In it they continue God's creation by making of each other better lovers of Him and giving to God more lovers of Him in their children.

CANA IS NOT a cure-all for the problems affecting modern marriage and family life. It is, however, a positive attempt to help couples find in marriage the satisfaction and joy that Christian marriage, lived according to the pattern of Christ, can give. For this reason, it is hoped sincerely that its influence will soon be extended to many more couples to help them achieve the full potentialities of married life.

Some women think they are doing all they can to reduce if they read an occasional article on the subject.

An Irish lady was reading an article to her husband on 'Nature's Law of Compensation' which went on to say that if a person lost the sight of one eye, the sight in the other became stronger; if he lost the hearing in one ear, the hearing in the other became more acute; and if he lost one hand, he became more agile with the other. The husband then said: 'I guess that is right; I have always noticed that when a man has one short leg, the other is longer.'

"For years and years idealists have been telling the world that people are eager to be saved if someone will show them the way. The inference is that editors and teachers are lax in performing their duty."

"At the moment they are buying 60,000,000 comic books a month, notwithstanding that few newspapers print less than a page of comics daily. After the war when the British newspapers were given a larger ration of paper, they immediately resumed the printing of comics because they knew that the paper with the most comics would get the most readers."

"The best-selling living author is Erle Stanley Gardner, author of dozens of crime novels one of which, The Case of the Lucky Legs, sold 2,000,000 copies."

With a sudden spring balmy-ness in the air early this week, Wade Furniture Company and Grisham-Butterworth got to work on some "early spring" house-work and repainted the store interiors. Congratulations on some early pace-setting of what (we hope) will be a big "spruce-up" year for downtown Fulton!

Ex-Fulton-bananaman Johnny Morgan, permanently (he says) tucked away in comfort at Tarpon Springs, Florida, is still having a whale of a time fishing. A letter to old buddy Elvis Babb at the Coffee Shop last week stated that he has made a total of 19 fishing trips out of Tarpon Springs since last May with the local commercial fishing boat, and had returned with a total of 45,416 pounds of fish weighed in. And, Johnny adds, there were never more than three fishermen on any trip.

Johnny, as his friends know, was also a great hand at waging on catches, which he apparently has continued, with success, in his new locality. He reports a total of $324.50 picked up by this little sporting sideline in 1957, as follows: February $22; March $88; April $78; May $6; June $21; July $73.50; October $8; November $14; and December $14.

All we can say is that his earnings are diminishing as word gets around about his ability. Here's to many years of good fishing for a fine old fellow!

However, Nelson, you didn't have troubles. Consider the new Mayor and Council at Hickman, which met on the same night. The meeting not only lasted until midnight, it also "deadlocked" on the selection of a police chief, fire chief, patrolmen and city attorney. At fifteen minutes before midnight it adjourned to meet again last Monday, January 13.

As one Fulton ex-councilman put it last week, Nelson Tripp "really ran into his job as Mayor head-first" last week at the first council meeting, having to cast

But Why Don't YOU Pray To The Saints?

Praying to the Saints, we know, is almost solely a Catholic practice.

Many other people, it seems, regard the practice as silly, futile and even idolatrous. They imagine that all prayers must be addressed directly to God, and that there is no need for such intercessors and mediators as Saints. Some seem to think Catholic veneration of the Saints is in opposition to the doctrine that Christ is the one Mediator between God and man.

If it is hard for others to understand why Catholics pray to the Saints, it is equally hard for Catholics to understand why other Christians do not so pray. It is a custom which has been observed in the Church since the time of the Apostles. Its merits are clearly indicated in both the Old Testament and the New, and Catholics the world over can testify that God does, indeed, listen with special favor to the prayers addressed to Him in our behalf by the Saints.

It sounds illogical to Catholics to recite in the Apostles' Creed, "I believe in... the Communion of Saints..." and then to scoff at prayer to the Saints. The difficulty, it seems to us, is that there is confusion concerning just what the Saints are. There is certainly confusion concerning the Catholic attitude toward Saints, and Catholic customs with respect to them.

Belief in the Saints depends upon the conviction that we can help one another with our prayers. Catholics have no doubt about this. We read, for example, in Genesis, God's instructions to Abimelech to ask Abraham to pray for him: "He shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live" (Genesis 20: 7, 17).

God had mercy on the children of Israel because Moses prayed for them. At another time God said

"...and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him I will accept" (Job 42:8). The new Testament contains equally convincing testimony. St. Paul asks repeatedly for the prayers of the faithful. In the Epistle of St. James, we find: "And pray one for another, that ye may be healed" (James 5:16).

If God hears the prayers offered by sinful mortals in behalf of one another, how much more surely will he listen to his friends, the Saints in Heaven, who are in a position to know the needs expressed in our prayers to them? If the individual appeal "of one for another" is heard in Heaven, how much more certainly will God hearken to the swelling chorus of prayer rising up from the "communion of the faithful" in Heaven and on earth? And if the Saints in Heaven are not concerned for us, why should there "be joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth" (Luke 15:10)?

If you want to know more about the Saints and how they can help you, write today for our Free Pamphlet entitled: "But Why Don't YOU Pray To The Saints?" It will be mailed in a plain wrapper. Nobody will call on you. Write today—ask for Pamphlet No. KC-47.

SUCCESSFUL HOMEMAKING

By Marie Holland
Home Demonstrator, Kentucky Utilities

Chances are that lots of you homemakers received a washer, dryer or ironer for Christmas. But you have not completed your laundry unless you have all three.

No woman can know the real complete satisfaction of getting her washing done easily and economically until she puts all three of these appliances to work for her and for her family.

It is more economical to own and use a washer, dryer and ironer than it is to try to get along without them.

There can be no good reason for doing the drying or the ironing by tiring, tedious efforts, and especially in any home where a washer already gives an encouraging hint of the east with which every bit of the home laundering can be handled.

Almost any woman will agree that hanging out a washing and bringing it back to the house again is hard work. It takes up a great deal of time too. In many instances it is not good for the health of the woman who has to do it.

Drying washing out-doors is bad for the washing too. The washing is at the mercy of the weather, so is the woman who has to watch over it.

When it comes to ironing, by hand, many women look upon it as sheer drudgery. Ironer ironing, is better ironing than any which can be done by hand. Pressure is greater, for one thing, but with no exertion by the woman using the ironer. Clothes have a better finish, and the ironer never tires it irons last pieces as good as the first. You can sit down and relax to do all of your ironing.

When a woman begins to use all three of these appliances, than she begins to save money in three worthwhile ways.

It is so convenient and easy to use a washer, dryer and ironer that I hope if you only received one of the appliances you will soon invest in all three.

Editors, THE NEWS:

My apologies, and thanks for reminding me of my subscription renewal. Fact is, the wife and I spent Christmas with our daughter, Jane Jennings and family in Albuquerque, New Mexico—The Land of Enchantment—the pleasure of which is strong enough to lend dignity even to a Republican.

Then on December 27 we left for California with son, Fred. Since arrival we have visited San Francisco and seen many interesting sights. We are still much in circulation and enjoying our visit with son, Fred, to the fullest. Fred has many more places of interest to take us, including Long Beach, Oakland, San Diego and other places.

So, with all this "going" in mind, I hope you can see why and forgive my overlooking my subscription payment until now!

Sincerely,
George Winter

Diary of Doin's

By Mary Nelle Wright

Hear Mary-Nelle's program, "My Fair Lady" every day on WFUL at 9:30 a.m., Monday through Friday.

No word of a SPARKLING nature doth come from the PEN of Your Diarist—only lines from ALICE, such as "You are OLD—Father William—" AND—just between ME and THEE—'tis NOT the time in life to be reminded, since it's JANUARY—the month of your poor scribe's birthday!

But ALONG with the sadness of ANOTHER year being ADDED to this life—comes the JOY of being REMEMBERED; And when I think of the much ADO involved in finding a TIME for the GALS to SURPRISE me—then I bow my head—in HUMILITY—as I give a HEARTY "THANK YOU" to some of my DEAREST friends who MANEUVERED to have me at the Derby for lunch—and who gave me a gold bracelet that I have "DROOLED" over—for the past SIX months!

Yep—that nice gesture—PLUS the lovely gift and the JOY of being thought added a GLITTER—to ANOTHER year!

Louise and Bob Binford were so happy to have their son, Charles, and friends from Memphis as their weekend guests! Charles, a sophomore down at Memphis State brought a fraternity brother, Bob Canfield, and Sue Ellen Farrell came to be the guest of Betty Gregory who also attends the Tennessee university. All of the group went over to Murray Saturday night to see the Murray-Memphis State basketball game. 'Twas a gay weekend for the foursome—and the Gregorys and Binfords! The students returned to Memphis late Sunday afternoon.

As this paper goes to press—one of Fulton's OWN will be wending her way homeward for a visit for a month—or so—Mary Davis Weeks Dicken, who saw her Lieut John off on a plane to New York where he will fly—by JET—to his new duty station at Stangdahlen (maybe that's the way to spell it) Germany with the U. S. Air Force. And 'we're keeping our fingers crossed—because Mary had a letter from Susan and Billy Murphy, who live in Bitburg, who think that the Dickens just MAY be able to rent an apartment in the SAME building with them! Small world—and how wonderful for BOTH families. (Look for some FOUR-LEAF clovers, Mary.).

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

In 63-80% of cases in doctors' tests
If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life"—you may be suffering unnecessarily!

For... in tests by doctors... Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering as 83% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action... has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

So... get Lydia K. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's own glands to relieve distress of these awful "hot waves!"

THESE WOMEN!

By d'Alessio

"None of your faster-than-sound planes, mind you! We have a lot of talking to do!"

'Twas a HAPPY Christmas for Mrs. E. H. Knighton—because she was with her daughter, Ruth, and son-in-law, J. C. Jones, and little son, Michael Patrick, at their home in Oklahoma City. In fact, the past three months were happy ones for both families as Mrs. Knighton has been with the Jones since October. "Gannie" was quite busy devoting most of her time to her little grandson—but there still was time to see some ball games—in fact, they saw the Hilltoppers from Bowling Green when they played Niagara, and you may well know that they found time to see a BALLET—as that will always be one of Ruth's FIRST loves. How well WE remember times we have seen Ruth appear in dance recitals here in Fulton—where she was ALWAYS one of the most outstanding dancers.

Mrs. Knighton returned to her home in Fulton on December 31st. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Croft of Mayfield Highway enjoyed a family reunion during the holidays when his son, W. D. Croft and wife, Gladys, of Memphis, Mrs. Mary Croft Hamack and family of Lyndon, Ky. and Mrs. Croft's son, Roy Darnall and daughter, Donna, of New York were their guests. Completing their happiness were the two telephone calls that came from Ralph Croft of Los Angeles and Mary Croft of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hainline of Fulton Route 3, entertained with a family reunion recently. A delicious dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Croft, Darlene and Dale of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. Willie Croft, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Roberts and Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. Homer McClain, Mr. and Mrs. O. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Seay, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClain, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Vincent, Terry and Debbie, Mrs. Marguerite Stephens and Gary.

Climaxing a series of pre-nuptial parties given in honor of Patsy Ruty Workman, whose marriage to George H. Mayo was solemnized Sunday afternoon in the chapel of the First Baptist Church, was a lovely rehearsal dinner given by her aunt, Mrs. Ruth Copeland, Friday evening at her home on State Line. The dining room table was draped in a lovely white cutwork cloth and the centerpiece was of white mums with crystal candlesticks holding lighted white candles. Guests attending were Miss Workman, Mr. Mayo, the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Virginia Workman, the parents of the groom-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Hobson Mayo of Dresden, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Workman, Mr. and Mrs. James Butts of Dresden, John Smith of Dresden, Mrs. E. R. McMahon of Chicago and the Rev. and Mrs. John Laidla.

Mr. and Mrs. Birl Cummings, Jr. of Baton Rouge, Louisiana were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Birl Cummings, at their home on Fourth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wilkerson have returned to their home on College Street after a nice vacation trip to points of interest in Florida and other southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Brown returned home last week after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Ethylene Thompson, who is a patient in the Bethesda General Hospital. Mrs. Thompson is reported to be improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Carlisle and sons, Richard and Bobby, of Memphis spent the weekend in Fulton with her father, Jack Black and Mrs. Black. Robert L. Halley has returned to his work in Washington, D. C. after visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Halley on Route 2 and his brother, Edward R. Halley, and family on Route 5.

Ann Whitnel is spending a lovely vacation in the sunny Florida clime where she is a guest of her brother, Edwin.

City of Fulton have grown immeasurably even in the ten years that we have been here. And with the new plans and projects on the agenda of the new council it will grow in structure that much more.

In this respect we think it only fair that we stand squarely behind the council in their endeavors. Let's not forget that all six councilmen on the Fulton City Council and on the South Fulton City Council are businessmen who are serving in their capacities unselfishly and for the good of the community and it behooves all of us to show them some appreciation for their oftentimes thankless service.

It is only natural that at some time or another there will be differences of opinion among the councilmen in both cities, and often as not those differences will cause disagreements among the people they serve. And that goes for us too.

But as long as those disagreements are fair and honest and above board, we can do nothing more than to say good luck to the members of the council in Fulton and South Fulton and may these disagreements reflect the opinions of men with vision and opinions who live in a community hell-bent on progress.

UTMB Enrollment Sets New Record

Enrollment at UTMB, Martin, Tenn., set an all-time record for a winter quarter, official college figures show. The totals were compiled by the office of the registrar.

With a few latecomers still expected, registration has reached 850. This is more than 100 over the previous all-time winter quarter high set last year. Of the total, 626 are men and 224 are women.

Indicating the heavy enrollment the college may expect in coming years is the very large freshman class. The freshman students total 418. There are also 303 sophomores, 90 juniors, and 39 seniors.

Aliens Must Register By January 31st

The United States Immigration and Naturalization Service reminded all aliens in Kentucky today that only two weeks remain in which non-citizens must file their annual address report as required by law.

Officer in charge, H. J. Boulton, pointed out that address report forms are available at the nearest Immigration Service office or Post Office for the convenience of non-citizens required to report their address to the Government each January under a provision of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952.

Mr. Boulton said the only non-citizens not required to report their addresses are persons in diplomatic status, foreign representatives of certain international organizations, and persons admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers.

West Kentucky Farm Bureau Leaders Kick-Off '58 Campaign At Kenlake

Farm Bureau leaders and workers from 22 counties in West Kentucky will converge on Kentucky Dam Village on January 24 to kick off the 1958 membership campaign in this area.

Willard Carroll, West Paducah, has announced an outstanding program for this fourth annual Membership Jamboree. Woodrow Luttrell, organization director for the Southern Region of the American Farm Bureau Federation will head an imposing list of prominent speakers. Others on the program include Burl S. St. Clair, Fall of Rough, president of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation; John W. Koon, Louisville, executive secretary of the state organization; I. S. Wood,

State Farm Bureau organization director, and Mrs. Thomas E. Roberts, director of Kentucky Farm Bureau Women.

Some 200 county Farm Bureau membership committee members, presidents, and other leaders are expected for this outstanding event. Last year, the 22 counties in this area had a combined membership of 18,140 members. This year, a goal of 18,250 members has been set. That would be about one-fourth of the total Kentucky Farm Bureau membership of 77,752 in 1957.

Koon's speech will be devoted to an up-to-minute report on the State Legislature in session at Frankfort, and Farm Bureau's action there in behalf of farmers.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(All the following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Kenton area):

ACREAGE SIGN-UP IS NOW OPEN

The sign-up period for the 1958 Acreage Reserve program will open on January 13 and close March 7, according to Mr. C. C. Vaughn, Chairman, Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Mr. Vaughn points out that a Soil Bank base for each farm must be established before a 1958 Acreage Reserve Agreement can be signed. Soil Bank bases already established are to be used for 1958 agreements on spring-planted crops. He advises farmers who plan to put land in the 1958 Acreage Reserve program to bring their farm records for 1956 and 1957 into the County ASC Office as they will be needed to set up the farm's Soil Bank base. The Soil Bank base, roughly, is the average acreage of Soil Bank base crops on the farm for the past two years. Such crops generally include all crops produced for harvest on the farm, except hay crops.

HIGHER PAYMENTS

Payment rates per acre for the 1958 Acreage Reserve are somewhat higher for wheat, corn, cotton, and rice than those which were in effect for 1957, according to Mr. C. C. Vaughn, Chairman, Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Changes in the 1958 national average per-acre rates are due to adjustments because of trends in crop yields, the Chairman explained. According to the latest reports, slightly over 3.9 million acres of winter wheat were signed up for the 1958 Acreage Reserve.

There is a payment limit of $3,000 on the total Acreage Reserve payment which can be made to any one producer on any one farm. This limit applies to each producer with regard to each farm he operates or in which he has an interest or share in the crop. An owner of two farms will have a limit of $3,000 for each farm.

Total funds available for the 1958 Acreage Reserve program amount to $500 million.

County Chairman Vaughn suggests that with the sign-up for Acreage Reserve agreements beginning January 13 and closing March 7, that farmers planning to put land in the Acreage Reserve should bring the 1956 and 1957 records of their farms into the County Office where a Soil Bank base will be established. The establishment of the Soil Bank base must be made before the agreement may be signed unless such a base has already been established for the farm.

CONSERVATION RESERVE BID PROGRAM

The Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office is ready to talk to farmers any time now about participation in the 1958 Conservation Reserve Program—either the new "bid" procedure or the regular program—Chairman Vaughn announced today.

Under the trial "bid" program, which is available only in Tennessee and 3 other States, farmers make their own offer of the amount of money per-acre they will accept for putting all cropland on their farms in the Conservation Reserve. They must offer to put all of the cropland on the farm in the program for at least 5 and up to 10 years. In addition to the annual per-acre payment they bid—if it is accepted, of course—they also will get a practice payment of up to 80 percent of the cost of putting their "reserve" land into a conservation use. Bids can be filed at the County ASC office through January 31.

The regular 1958 Conservation Reserve is similar to programs in effect the past 2 years. Under it, the County ASC office sets a rate per-acre for annual payments, based on land value, rentals, productivity and other factors, for the area in which a farm is located. The regular practice payment—up to 80 percent of cost—also is available. Farmers have until April 15 to put land into the Conservation Reserve under the regular procedure with contracts of 3, 5 or 10 years.

Farmers may find it to their benefit to investigate both programs, Chairman Vaughn said. He pointed out that if a farmer's "bid" for annual payments under the trial program is not accepted—and the Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids—the same farmer can still come in under the regular program. In this connection, he stressed that only "realistic" bids would be accepted; that farmers cannot expect any "windfall" type of payments under the bid procedure. Since the offers accepted will be on the basis of the lowest bids made, each farmer is competing with other farmers who file offers under the program.

Farmers have from now until January 31 to file competitive bids under the new trial procedure in which they specify the rate per-acre of annual payment which they will accept for putting all cropland on their farms in the Conservation Reserve, Mr. C. C. Vaughn, Chairman, Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

All details of procedure and regulations are now available in the County ASC office and the personnel is prepared to explain the application of the program to interested farmers, Mr. Vaughn said.

Under the competitive "bid" procedure, which is available only in Tennessee and three other States, farmers make their own offers of the amount of money per-acre that they will accept for putting all eligible land on their farms in the program for at least 5 and up to 10 years. If their bids are accepted and the Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids—they also will be eligible for a practice payment of up to 80 percent of the cost of putting the "reserve" land into a conservation use.

The regular Conservation Reserve, under which the ASC office sets the annual per-acre payment rate on the basis of land value, rentals, productivity and other factors in the area in which a farm is located, also is available, Chairman Vaughn added. He urged interested farmers to investigate the advantages of both programs.

ALL FARMERS REQUESTED TO GET THEIR FARMS PROPERLY CONSTITUTED FOR 1958

S. E. Holly, Office Manager for Fulton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee requested all farmers who have sold, bought or traded any land which would change their 1958 farming operations over that of 1957 to report same to the County ASC Office immediately in order that their farm might properly be constituted for 1958. He stated that this was very important especially if the farmer was expecting to participate in the Soil Bank Program.

Reconstitution of farms in most cases will change acreage allotments and soil bank bases, and many times the payment rate per acre for each commodity. Farms cannot be reconstituted after a Soil Bank Agreement is signed as a reconstitution voids all previous agreements on the farm. March 7 is the final date for placing cotton and corn acreage allotment in the soil bank. Reconstituted farms must be approved by the State Office and this requires some time to get final approval. Farmers are requested to file by February 1st if possible.

With the sign-up period for the Soil Bank's 1958 Acreage Reserve opening January 13, Obion County farmers are asking about the $3,000 payment limit, C. C. Vaughn, Chairman of the Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, advised.

Mr. Vaughn explained that the $3,000 limitation on payments under the 1958 Acreage Reserve of the Soil Bank will be applied to each producer with regard to each farm in which he has an interest, rather than as a ceiling on the amount paid him for all farms in which he has an interest.

This means, for example, that a farmer who owns two separate farms, one of which he farms himself and the second one he leases to a tenant, may be eligible for a limit of $3,000 in Acreage Reserve payments on each farm. The tenant on the farm would also be eligible for a limit of $3,000. In other words, on the second farm, both owner and tenant could each receive payments up to $3,000.

The Chairman also pointed out that the payment limitation applied to the total payments for all the crops put in the 1958 Acreage Reserve on an individual farm.

The County ASC Chairman advised farmers who plan on putting acreage under the 1958 Acreage Reserve, and who do not already have a Soil Bank base established for their farms, to bring their 1956-57 farm records to the county office. These acreage records are necessary to establish the "Soil Bank base" for their farms. The establishment of the Soil Bank base is now necessary before a producer may sign a 1958 Acreage Reserve agreement.

Mr. Vaughn pointed out that the Soil Bank base is the same as that which has been in effect for the Conservation Reserve.

Farmer in Obion County might well benefit from opportunities offered through the Soil Bank's Acreage Reserve Program for spring-planted crops, C. C. Vaughn, Chairman of the Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee advised today.

Any farmer who has an "old farm" acreage allotment for corn, upland cotton, and tobacco can put any part of these "allotment" acres in the program, Chairman Vaughn explained. Farmers who have acreage allotments for the first time in 1958—so-called new-farm allotments—are not eligible to participate.

Farmers who want to take part in the program—under which they withhold allotment acres from production in return for a payment designed to maintain net farm income on that land—have to sign an agreement with their county ASC Committee specifically designating the land on their farm to be put in the Acreage Reserve. Land designated for the program must be cropland that could produce in 1958 the eligible crop for which allotment acreage is put in the program and it must have produced a crop during one of the past 5 years.

The Acreage Reserve sign-up for spring-planted crops closes March 7, 1958, Mr. Vaughn said.

Dear Miss Latane,

I have heard so much about your column in the paper, I would like very much for you to answer some questions for me. This is my first time to write.

There is a certain party that says I owe them some money and they have been talking it around that they are going to sue me and I don't owe them anything and I have the evidence to prove I don't. Will they bring suit or not? It might cause me some trouble with my work if they do.

Please answer in your next writing if you can at all.

Thank you,

Worried,

Dear Worried:

No, you aren't going to be sued, it is all talk trying to worry and scare you.

Dear Pat:

I have been reading your column in the Fulton News each week. And enjoy it very much. I would like for you to help me with my problems.

First, I would like to go to another factory to work. Do you think I should? Will this factory stay here?

A little friend of mine has lost his glasses, could you tell us where we can find them?

Thanks,

Pud.

Dear Pud:

Jobs are few and far between, my advice to you is if you have one to hang on to it, I do not think the factory is going to move.

Tell your friend to ask at the picture show about his glasses that is where he left them.

Dear Pat,

This is my first time to write and I hope it will escape the waste basket. I read your column every week I have an opportunity to do so. I enjoy it very much.

I have a couple of questions to ask. First, will my wife regain her health, and lose the extra weight she is trying to lose? Second, will I get the Civil Service job I am trying for? I hope to get an answer in this week's issue of the News.

Signed,

Tiddle-de-winks

Dear Tiddle-De-Winks:

Yes, your wife will regain her health, and in due time will lose the weight. Yes, you will get the civil service job you are trying for, but not at the time you are thinking about as it will be open again in the very near future.

Dear Pat,

Could you please tell me what I did with my wrist watch? Did someone take it? If so, could you give me the initials? Also give the initials of the person who took the ten dollars from me.

Thank you,

S. L. R.

Dear S. L. R.

The same person got them both, its a girl and supposed to be a real close friend.

Dear Pat,

I enjoy reading your column. Please answer a few questions for me this week. I have written you before, but I mailed it to the wrong place.

Where are my other children now? Where is my husband? When shall I go to see my children? Did my husband really believe all the false things he accused me of? Did he love me? When will I see him? Will I get aid from the welfare? When? How long will I have to work? Will I do all right? Please

AN OLD IDEA

Contact lenses are far from a recent development, according to the Murine Company feature service. A similar idea was first recorded in 1508 by Leonardo da Vinci; and in 1887 a German, F. E. Mueller, and a Swiss, Dr. A. E. Fick, both had contact lenses made of blown glass.

V. B. M.

Anxious and worried.

Dear V. B. M.

Your other children are with your husband, and they are in St. Louis. You will go to see your children in the spring. I can't say if he will harm you or not, but he will threaten you with a knife. No, you will never get all your children. Yes, your husband believed the things he accused you of as part of them were told to him by your children. Yes, he did love you, it will be some time before you see him. No, you will not get any aid from welfare for some time yet. You will have to work for the rest of your life. You will make a living, you won't get rich.

Dear Pat,

I would like for you to answer some questions for me. First, I want to know if you know how many children I have?

My husband some times has mad fits and no one can get alone with him. Should I leave him before he and the children get mad enough to hurt each other or will he do better? Has he ever stepped out on me? Please answer in next weeks paper. I read the paper every week.

Your friend,

W. W.

Dear W. W.

Your writing shows you have 7 children. If he is making you a living you had better stay with him, he's not going to hurt the children and they aren't him; he only wants them to mind, and you don't care, and I will agree with your husband to make them mind. No, he hasn't stepped out on you, but you have on him more times than you can remember.

Prospective Medical Students Who Need Financial Help Can Get It

Prospective freshmen medical students who plan to enter medical school this fall and expect to practice in rural Kentucky communities, but need additional financial assistance, may find the answer in the Rural Kentucky Medical Scholarship Fund.

According to C. C. Howard, M. D., Glasgow, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Fund, in order to be eligible for a loan, applicants must first be accepted by a Class A Medical School. Students accepting a loan under the basic plan, agree to practice a year for each year a loan is obtained in a rural community acceptable to the Fund. Interest rate and repayment plan are liberal.

Kentucky Farm Outlook Stated As "About Same" For 1957, Barring Economic Nosedive

Farm income in 1958 "probably will be much the same as in 1957 unless the business recession is more severe than anticipated," says the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station economics department.

The economists made their 1958 forecast this week, covering virtually every phase of farm life. They foresee a downward trend the first half of 1958 in general business activity, and some increase in unemployment; "the decline probably will level off

A second plan, made possible through the support of Governor A. B. Chandler and the 1956 State Legislature, is now in effect. Under this new plan, any beneficiary of the Fund who agrees to practice in one of ten Kentucky counties most in need of a physician will have one year of his loan cancelled for each year he practices in this county, Dr. Howard said.

The Fund is not only designed to assist worthy students, but also to help provide adequate medical care in rural Kentucky counties. For additional information, prospective applicants for loans should contact the Executive Secretary of the Fund, J. P. Sanford, 1169 Eastern Parkway, Louisville 17, Kentucky.

Explorer Scouts Have New Emergency Squad

Clinton Kentucky's Explorer post 35 is now equipped to assist with rescue and first aid work, if called in an emergency.

The post last week was assigned a pickup, tarp covered truck by the Four Rivers Council of the Boy Scouts to use in the work. The truck is equipped with a resuscitator and other first aid and fire fighting equipment.

The local Explorer post is the first in the council to qualify for the equipment, which will be used also in assisting in civil defense work when called upon.
