IN "HEIFER CASE"

THREE INDICTMENTS DO NOT STAND.

Prosecution Is Dismissed Against Supt. Board And Commissioners Bush And Smith.

(Special to New Era.)
FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 13.—Records on file here show that Dr. W. A. Luckey was removed from the office of first assistant physician at the Western asylum, near Hopkinsville, and that his resignation was not accepted.

On motion of Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith, the indictments returned by the grand jury against Superintendent Milton Board and Commissioners C. H. Bush and David Smith in connection with the presentation by the asylum board of two heifers to Senator Gus Richardson were dismissed, the reason being set forth in the following indorsement on the back of the bill:

REASONS TO DISMISS.

From the record of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, the following is taken, namely:

"The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane was held on the asylum premises Tuesday, March 1, 1904. The Hon. F. M. Quarles called the meeting to order and directed the Secretary to call the roll, and upon the calling of said roll the following commissioners were found to be present: Messrs. Carroll, Chilton, Hill, Johnson, Jones, Quarles and Layne. Messrs. Bush and Smith were found to be absent. Mr. Commissioner Jones moved that the Steward be instructed to send Senator Gus Richardson, of Breckinridge county, two nice Jersey heifers, expense charges of same to be prepaid, seconded by Commissioner Layne and carried unanimously." From this record it appears that Judge Charles H. Bush and Mr. David Smith, were not present when the above order was made.

In section 219, Kentucky statutes 1903, defining the powers of the commissioners of asylums is found this language: "They shall have the general management and control of all land, buildings, funds, books, papers and other effects and property of their respective institution."

In section 243 Kentucky statutes, is found this language: "The medical superintendent shall have the general management, supervision and control of the patients subject to the regulations of the board of commissioners and shall devote his entire time thereto."

From the record of the board of commissioners it seems that Dr. Milton Board, the superintendent, had no connection in fact with the giving of said heifers to Senator Richardson and in law he has no power or authority over any property of the asylum.

For the reasons stated this prosecution is hereby dismissed as to Dr. Milton Board, Judge C. H. Bush and David Smith.

DENNY P. SMITH,
Commonwealth's Attorney.

Judge Bush had taken steps to have this case against him tried on the 28th day of the present term of court. Concerning the other indictment, he states that it has always been the custom for attorneys on the board to be employed in legal business for the asylum and denies that his acceptance of a fee as one of the attorneys in the Williamson case, a $25,000 damage suit, which the asylum won, was ground for indictment.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR

POPULAR COUPLE FLIGHT THEIR TROTH

Mr. Nelson and Miss Buckner Were Married Wednesday Evening.

Mr. B. Gordon Nelson and Miss Annie Woodridge Buckner were united in matrimony Wednesday evening at the handsome country home of the bride, near New Providence, Tenn.

The beautiful ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. George C. Abbott, rector of Grace church, of this city, and took place shortly after seven o'clock in the drawing room of the residence which trailing vines, fresh blowsoes and potted plants had transformed into a bower of floral loveliness. While the witnesses were limited to the relatives and close friends of the popular couple, the hospitable home was well filled with guests who were rejoiced to extend cordial congratulations and good wishes. Among the Hopkinsville people present were: Mesdames John Y. Owsley and Harry B. Montgomery; Miss Eloise Nelson; Messrs. M. H. Nelson, S. U. Woodridge, Hugh Nelson, Warner Thomas and Robt. M. Woodridge; Mr. and Mrs. Upshaw Buckner and Misses Sarah Gordon and Bettie Buckner.

The marriage, which was the happy culmination of an ideal courtship, brings in closer association the high society circles of Clarksville and Hopkinsville in which, at their respective homes, the beautiful bride and her gallant husband are prime favorites. The Tennessee city has had no lovelier belle than the charming young woman whose hand and heart Mr. Nelson has been fortunate enough to win. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buckner, who are themselves members of an old Christian county family, and she is as much loved and admired in Hopkinsville, where she has frequently visited her relatives and friends, as she is in Clarksville. Mr. Nelson is one of Hopkinsville's most popular gentlemen. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nelson, Sr., and stands as high in business circles as he does socially. His fine ability, integrity and enterprise have won for him a reputation any one might envy, and as Hopkinsville manager of the great Imperial Tobacco Company he has achieved a remarkable commercial success.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, together with the Hopkinsville party who attended the nuptials, returned to the city Wednesday night. They will make their home at the suburban residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nelson.

AT HOWELL

Next Meeting of Teachers Will Be Held.

The next meeting of the Christian County Teachers' association will be held at Howell on Friday, Oct. 21, 1904, beginning at ten o'clock, a. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. An interesting program is being prepared and a pleasant day is anticipated.

The last meeting was held at the Walker school and was largely attended by the hospitable people of the neighborhood as well as by the teachers. We are very grateful to these good people for their kindness on this occasion. An unusually good record has been made by the teachers so far in regard to these meetings; only one has been absent and it was unavoidable. Every one has taken the part assigned and fine meetings have been the result.

On account of holding these meetings on Friday this fall, which is done at the urgent request of the teachers, I will be in my office every Saturday and not on Monday as heretofore, until I have finished visiting the schools. However, I shall always be found in the office on the first Monday in the month. Trustees and others who may have business with me will please take notice of this.

Yours truly,

Katie McDaniel, County Supt.

A Remedy That No One Is Afraid To Take.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has been used in thousands of homes for fifty-two years with perfect confidence and the most remarkable results.

The great success of this remedy is due to the fact that its formula (which consists of Buchu, Hydrangea, Marsh-mallows, Yellow Dock, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Gentian, Senna and Iodide of Potassium) has been freely published.

Doctors and Druggists everywhere do not hesitate to recommend a preparation which they know contains the best-known remedies for correcting all irregularities of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood, and the diseases caused by the failure of these functions to perform their proper work.

Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters that others might profit by their experience.

ROCKFORD, ILL., Nov. 15, 1902. I was suffering terribly with indigestion and kidney trouble and sent to my druggist for something to relieve me.

An agent sent me a package of Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. I concluded to try it, and now I am deeply grateful to my druggist as well as to you.

I had been a sufferer from these things and a general run-down condition for ten years, and had only received temporary relief from other medicines. But after using not quite two packages of your Liver and Blood Syrup I feel as good and hearty as I ever did in my life, and I am satisfied that I am entirely cured. I feel as vigorous whatever of kidney trouble, and my digestion is as good as any living man's. I feel now as I never did before.

I never had any remedy give me such quick and permanent relief, and I can not put a correct estimate on the value your medicine has been to me. I would not take any amount of money for it. Very gratefully yours, J. C. BROWN.

If you need a medicine write today for a free sample bottle and "Dr. Thacher's Health Book." Give particulars for advice. We simply ask you to try it at our expense. We know that it will do you good. Sold by all Druggists—two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

WITH MOP HANDLE

NEGRO LUNATIC KILLS ANOTHER AT ASYLUM.

Deed Was First Time He Had Shown Any Homocidal Tendency.

(From Friday's Daily)

James Boyd, a colored patient at the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, was killed this morning by another negro. The tragedy occurred in the hallway of the building occupied by negro lunatics. John Richardson, who was sent to the institution from Davies county, and who had never manifested any homicidal tendency, was engaged in the work of mopping the floor. Boyd, who was a victim of melancholia, was seated near him. Suddenly, not a word having been passed, and without a second's warning, Richardson struck Boyd a terrific blow on the head with the handle of the mop, fracturing the negro's skull. Richardson was taken in charge by attendants and removed to violent ward. Prompt aid was administered to Boyd, but his injuries were mortal and he died within two hours after he was assaulted. Boyd's home was in Hopkinsville.

It does not seem possible that I am the same woman that I was a year ago. Then I suffered with my head all the time, had so much gas on my stomach that I could hardly endure it and was always troubled with a bad taste in my mouth and a coated tongue and was so bloated that at times I could not fasten my clothes. I was unable to do my work, but after taking one box of Mi-o-n-a, nature's cure for dyspepsia, I am a well woman and can do my work as well as ever."

CHOKING CATARRH CURED.

Mr. Caswell Says, "Hymel Cured Me."—Your Money Back if It Does Not Cure You.

"Use Hymel and be cured of catarrh," is what all who have tried it for that disease say to their friends. O. S. Caswell of North Middleboro, Mass., writes: "Hymel has relieved me from a choking catarrhal trouble and cleared my head. I am glad to recommend it to my friends."

It is the easiest thing in the world to stop catarrh or a catarrhal cold at its beginning if you use Hymel. Just breathe the health-giving, balsamic air for a few minutes and your catarrh will be cured.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They Say About It in Hopkinsville and it is Therefore Reliable.

Another proof, some more evidence. Hopkinsville testimony to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

M. W. Davis, of Eades & Davis, dealers in coal on East Seventh st., at the L. & N. E. R., and who lives at 508 North Main street, says: I advise the use of Doan's Kidney Pills in all cases similar to that of my son who for some time complained of backache and was troubled with a kidney weakness which was very annoying at night. We tried many different remedies and he was treated by the family physician but nothing seemed to do him much good. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Johnson's drug store. He used them and there was a noticeable improvement in a short time. After he had taken all of the contents the trouble which had proven such an annoyance was entirely relieved. # ITCHING ECZEMA

In July, 1883, I began to break out with Eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and tried various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever, so I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried.

During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acids thrown off by the blood that cause the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. The acids must be neutralized and the system cleansed of all humors and poisons before the cure is permanent. S. S. S. is guaranteed entirely free of Potash, Arsenic and other minerals. Book on the skin and its diseases sent free. Medical advice furnished free.

MR. BEECHER'S LECTURE ON THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Let another man praise thee, not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.—Prov. xxvii, 2.

If any man, however, deserving, begins to show off and brag, speaking often of his past record and public services, he makes himself offensive.

But when a general gives credit to his brother generals and ascribes victory to their wisdom and valor of the army, then all are pleased. Such words are twice useful—they profit him that speaks, and them of whom they are spoken.

In something the same way, we are offended when we hear or read the words which churchmen speak, in praise each of his own church or denomination. They seem conceited, arrogant, offensive. They promote vain glory at home and ill will abroad.

But it has seemed to me that Christian pastors and prelates might be at least as courteous one to another as army officers are! And if we would note and praise the beauty of our sister churches more, and silence our own boastfulness, there might come to pass among Christian people a smiling, charity and peaceful rejoicing.

I invite you, therefore, this evening, to view the beauty, the uses and the truth that belong to those Christians among us who are popularly called

EPISCOPALIANS.

In this city there are four kinds of churches that have Bishops, and therefore may call themselves Episcopal.

Roman Episcopal.
Protestant Episcopal.
Methodist Episcopal.
American Methodist Episcopal Zion.

But only one of these is generally known as the Episcopal church, viz: the P. E. Church, represented in this city by two parishes and a mission.

This Episcopal church in America is in fact a continuation of the Church of England. Gardeners lay down a branch of a vine and stake it fast and cover it till it takes root, and then cut it off and leave it to grow by its own roots, so the Episcopal church in this land was a branch of the Church of England, which was laid down and rooted; and by our Revolutionary war, was cut off to grow ever since with roots of its own.

The Church in America differs from the Church of England in those matters chiefly that must needs have been changed because these States ceased to be colonies and became a nation with differing political constitution. Instead of King, the churchman in America says President; for Parliament, Congress; he needs a prayer quite new for his Legislature, and Governor, for in England there were none such. But he drops all mention of the gunpowder plot, the martyrdom of Charles I., the accession and happy reign of our Sovereign lady, Queen Victoria, and all other strictly English events. The American church omits, too, the Athanasian creed, which is long and true, but has a dry and funny rattle to it that makes irreverent people smile.

Of all Protestant churches the Episcopal best deserves the name reformed. She preserves so many of the usages and excellencies of the Roman Church, and so few of her errors, that it is quite easy to perceive that she is a Reformed Church. All other Protestant churches seem revolutionary rather than reformed.

The reformation in England was more than two hundred years long. There were no volcanic convulsions; no one brilliant Fourth of July day, in which the great reform was proclaimed. Nor was the reformation purely and disinterestedly religious.

When the Pope (Urban V, 1365) demanded large sums of money, the payment of tribute long in arrears, Parliament gave willing ear to the reformer Wickliffe, who denied the authority of Rome, and so executed the nation from paying its debt. Afterwards (1380) this great man finished a translation of the Latin Bible into English! He wrote tracts for the people. He revived preaching to the people. His disciples went diligently up and down the land, teaching and preaching the truth and the authority of Holy Scripture.

Thus, one hundred and fifty years before Luther was heard of as a revolutionary reformer, (1518) the leaven of Bible reading and private thinking was at work among the English people.

But the Church in England was still Roman Catholic, notwithstanding the work that was going on among the people. The followers of Wickliffe, known in history as Lollards, have furnished thousands of names to the Bishops' list of heretics, elsewhere known as the noble army of martyrs.

During the reign of Henry VIII. (1534) the church in England was declared independent of Rome. This was perhaps the crisis of the English Reformation. King Henry was a man not unlike the famous King David, in his love for women, his tempestuous piety and intermittent conscientiousness.—He was a many sided, large patterned man; a riddle to all small-eyed writers of history.

This curious King, having married his brother's widow by special permission of the church, by and by, applied to that same church to declare the marriage unlawful; and when the Bishop of Rome would not grant this required divorce, Henry, the headstrong and hearty, declared it himself, married again, laughed at his own excommunication, caused himself to be proclaimed supreme head of the Church of England, and to prove that in all these steps he was quite right, he cut off any man's head who should dispute or deny the same.—Sir Thomas Moore, (1534).

Thus, then, we come to a Church independent of Rome, but not yet reformed.—The Bible was in many churches. Yet men, not a few, were slain for reading it and talking it. Among these, William Tyndale, deserves our mention; for he translated the New Testament into felicitous English and established much wise doctrine, in consequence of which he was duly strangled and burned.

The King multiplied Bibles but cut off Bible readers.

After Henry and his stormy ways came pious and gentle Edward VI. to the throne, and at once the flower of reform began to blossom, and the Church to show the features which she wears today.

The English Bible was read by lessons at morning and evening service as now. The Liturgy was translated and said in English. The Creed of the Church was packed in Forty-two Articles, afterwards reduced to the famous Thirty-nine. Accordingly both the bread and wine were given to the common people at the sacrament. And other reforms and purifications were set afoot.

Edward's reign was a short one, (1547-53); long enough to introduce these changes, yet short enough to keep the Protestants from getting too much headway.

After him came the pious but gloomy and unhappy Queen Mary, who strove to bring the realm of England back to Rome. She caused persuasive fires to be kindled for the good of dissenting souls. She did what she could, but she could not undo the Reformation. Parliament and the people were too much for her. But her opposition kept the reformers from running into extravagance and cruelty.

After Mary came Elizabeth, who caused Roman Catholics at one extreme and Puritans, at the other to feel her scorn and suffer fines, imprisonment and death.

Then came James I. of England, by whose order our present Bible was prepared and printed and authorized.

And thus from reign to reign the Church of England came down, acquiring little by little her present shape, and laying off the corruption and unreason of the Roman Church as then existing and administered in that rude age.

The Prayer-Book may be called substantially complete as we now have it, in the seventh century (1661). Thus reformed Church of England filled up nearly three hundred years in her work of purifying and simplifying. And of all Protestant Churches, therefore she best deserves the name Reformed.

In this country the first parish of this Church was probably that in Jamestown, Va., 1606-8. Down to the Revolutionary War, the Church in this land was under the care of the Bishops of London.

Shortly after the Revolution an application was made to Parliament to allow an American Bishop to be consecrated. But the Puritans and Presbyterians opposed the proposition, and so Mr. Seabury the candidate, had to put up with a second rate consecration at the hands of certain Scotch Bishops. But at last, in 1787, Parliament allowed the Archbishop of Canterbury to consecrate three regular, first class Bishops for New York, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, respectively. Since then the holy union has not been allowed to fall.

With pious care, it has been propagated. And the Episcopal Church in these United States stands, today as truly and regularly in the line of Apostolic Succession as the Church of England herself.

After this mere outline of her history, it remains that I note some of her excellent uses and beauties.

1. The Episcopal Church offers for our use the most venerable liturgy in the English tongue. The devotional treasures of the Roman Catholic Church are embalmed and buried in Latin. But in English, there are no lessons, gospels, psalms, collects, confessions, thanksgivings, prayers—in one word, no religious Form Book that can stand a moment in comparison with the Prayer Book of the Episcopal Church in the two fold quality of richness and age.

The proper name, because truly descriptive, for this Church, would be the Church of the Prayer Book. As is the way with all other Churches, so here, the Church champions and leaders have many wise things to say about the Church and her prerogative. But the pious multitude that frequent her courts are drawn thither mostly by love of the prayers and praises, the litanies and lessons of the Prayer Book.

And, brethren of every name, I certify you that you rarely hear in any church a prayer spoken in English, that is not indebted to the Prayer Book for some of its choicest periods.

And further, I doubt whether life has in store for any of you an uplift so high, or downfall so deep, but that you can find company for your soul and fitting words for your lips among the treasures of this Book of Common Prayer.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our prosperity; in the hour of death and in the Day of Judgment; Good Lord, deliver us.

As a consequence of the Prayer Book and its use I note:

2. The Episcopal Church preserves a very high grade of dignity, decency, propriety and permanence in all her public offices.

In nearly every newspaper you may read some funny story based upon the ignorance or eccentricity or blasphemous familiarity of some extemporizing prayer-maker. All of you here present have been at some time shocked or bored by public devotional performances. Nothing of this sort ever occurs in the Episcopal church. All things are done and spoken decently and in order.

And so, too, of permanence and its accumulating worth of holy association—no transient observer can adequately value this treasure of a birth-right Churchman.

To be using today the selfsame words that have through the centuries declared the faith or made known the prayer of that mighty multitude, who being now delivered from the burdens of the flesh are in joy and felicity.

To be baptized in infancy, and never to know a time when we were not recognized and welcome among the millions who have entered at the same door.

To be confirmed in due time in a faith that has sustained a noble army of confessors, approving its worth through persecutions and prosperities, a strength to the tried and a chastening to the worldly-minded.

To be married by an authority before which Kings and peasants bow alike, asking benediction upon the covenant that without respect of persons binds by the words of duty, the highest and the lowest.

To bring our new-born children as we were brought, to begin where we began, to grow up and fill our places.

To die in the faith and almost hear the gospel words soon to be spoken over one's own grave as over the thousand times ten thousand of them who have slept in Jesus.

In short, to be a devout and constant Churchman, bring a man through a life fragrant with holy association, and accompanied by a long procession of the good, chanting as they march a unison of piety and hope until they come to the holy place where shining saints sing the new song of the redeemed. And they sing with them.

Another excellence I note:

3. The Episcopal church furnishes (to all who need such comfort) the assurance of an organic and unbroken unity and succession from Jesus Christ through the Apostles by a line of authentic Bishops down to Bishop Huntington, of this diocese.

King Henry VIII. and Queen Elizabeth, with their proclamations and Parliaments, are so conspicuous and fill so much space in the merely political history of the English Church, that many able writers deny that the river of apostolic succession so dammed by them, could ever get around the dam and flow along again pure and uncontaminated. I cannot decide this question absolutely.

What I say is this: The Apostolic Succession in the Episcopal Church can be traced back so many hundred years in the dim past that it is no shame to any man to say, "I believe it to extend back to Peter, Paul and John;" and he who verily believes that the ordaining or confirming hand of the Bishop of this Diocese, is electric with the spiritual life that proceeds from Jesus of Galilee, will find it a hand of virtue and worth. He who doubts will find it a hand of form and ceremony.

And so without stopping to decide the question whether our Bishop is really a successor of Paul or John, I say that the Episcopal church affords so much evidence that she has in her Episcopate the true succession, that it is no shame to any common man to believe her. And if a man believes in his Bishop he will get from him all the benefits that come from Bishops.

Brethren, many needy souls are not able to lay hold upon God one by one. They cannot appropriate a gospel promise to themselves. Like Job of old they say: "If I had called and he had answered me, yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice!"—viii, 18.

Such extreme and exemplary humility asks for and needs a Church ark, and the humble place and privilege of a private passenger. The ark of God that shall outlive the Deluge, The Church of Christ, in which is found salvation.

I say then that the claims of the Episcopal church to be such an ark of God, or Church of Christ endowed with sacraments, absolutions and profitable authority are for all practical purposes valid.

I leave historians and ecclesiasts to their endless words, and assert that the poor in spirit who seek comfort and salvation through the offices of the Episcopal church, are as well off in her as they can be in any church. And since many are profoundly prejudiced against the Church of Rome, I am happy to point all such to a sure welcome in the Episcopal church, with sacraments, successions and authority as good as the best.

4. The Episcopal Church is excellent in her provisions for Christian education and pious drill.

Churches that avowedly receive very young infants as members must necessarily provide education for these accepted children. Accordingly the Episcopal Church is characterized by a Church for the training of children, just as some sister Churches are characteristically revival Churches for the conversion of grown folk.

In the Prayer Book and Church Almanac you find the Christian year divided into periods separated by high-days—monuments and memorials of Christian story. This Christian calendar agrees very nearly with that of the Roman church. And he is an unusually well-informed Christian who can read over this catalogue of days, and in few words tell the story that each day celebrates! But a birthright Churchman who has been quietly trained in a Church home for fifteen years, will need very little teaching.

In connection with this calendar is a system of lessons in following which, the reader is led through the entire Bible each year, and through its more profitable parts, inouthly or oftener.

He, who for years has been a Churchman, and yet remains ill-grounded in Scripture, shows himself an unworthy son of a very faithful mother.

By the Lessons, Gospels, Epistles—Psalms, and Collects appointed for special fast or feast days, the events commemorated by that day are wrought into the memory of every worshipper. And by seasons longer or shorter of special religious effort and observance, this Church satisfies the want which other Churches satisfy by weeks of prayer, protracted meetings and long revivals.

A good school is a dull place to any visitor who rushes in to find sensation and excitement. He will call it dry, poky, stupid. In like manner many religious sensation makers vote the Church calendar and all its smooth machinery of pious drill, a very dull substitute for a regular, rousing revival. But, in the long run, the Church that steadily trains and teaches will outlive the Church that only arouses and startles. "If ye continue in My word, then ye are My disciples indeed."

5. This Church makes a distinction between her Creed as a Church, which all her officers must subscribe, and that much shorter declaration of faith which she expects from her children.

This Church never vexes her converts with profound questions in theology. Of those who would receive the Lord's Supper she requires that they repent freely of their former sins; steadfastly purposing to lead a new life. Thus they have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, and a thankful remembrance of his death, and they be in charity with all men.

To any and to all such, asking no further questions, this catholic and most generous Church approaches and by the hand of her priest gives the consecrated bread with benediction. "The body of our Lord Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee; feed on Him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving." And with like words the consecrated wine: "Drink this in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee—and be thankful."

Citizens and Christians, all! Because this Episcopal Church is a reformed Church and no revolutionary; because her Book of Prayer is rich and venerable above all in the English tongue; because her ritual promotes decency, dignity, prosperity and permanence; because her historic union through the Apostles with Christ comforts and satisfies so many souls; because she adopts her infant children and provides for them education and drill; and because with large hospitality she proffers her sacrament to all true believers of every name; therefore from her own Pastor let us take the words wherewith to bless her: "They shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and plenteous within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes I will wish thee prosperity. Yes, because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek to do the good."

FARMERS WERE IN SESSION TO ORGANIZE FOR THEIR PROTECTION.

WILL AID IN THE FIGHT AGAINST TRUST.

HUNDREDS WERE HERE

The Tobacco Growers Show They Are in Earnest and Mean Business.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Hundreds of Christian county farmers were assembled at the courthouse this afternoon for the purpose of organizing on the plan adopted by the Dark Tobacco Growers' association to resist the encroachments of the trust that has been mercilessly robbing them of their tobacco crops. Every section of the county was represented, and the enthusiasm and interest manifested prove their earnestness and their intention to fight to a finish for reasonable prices and the general betterment of their condition.

Dr. John D. Clardy, chairman pro tem., called the meeting to order and read the constitution adopted by the Dark Tobacco District Association at the Guthrie meeting a short time ago. He explained that England and Germany were the only foreign countries which are open to American tobacco at all, the other countries having their tobacco purchased through syndicates. He stated that the best way, in his opinion, to remedy this was by laws preventing these countries from selling their products here unless they allow our tobacco to be sold there, of course, bearing a reasonable tariff. He also explained the arrangement already made with banks whereby money was to be advanced on tobacco when it was stored in a suitable warehouse where it could be protected, identified and insured and the profitable disposal of the crop negotiated.

He explained that the executive committee, composed of a member from each of the counties in the Dark tobacco district, would have entire control of the tobacco of the organization to either sell or reject bids on the tobacco, thereby compelling purchasers to give a fair and satisfactory price. All expenses, he said, were to be met by pro rata charge to be paid from proceeds of crop when sold.

Mr. Chas. Barker, who was elected vice president of the organization at Guthrie, spoke of the lack of knowledge generally of the farmer himself, even of the grades and value of tobacco and showed how an executive committee who was kept advised of the markets and grades of tobacco could make more for the farmers.

In the election of the county committee, a member from each magisterial district was selected as follows by farmers living in the respective districts:

$20,000 BUILDING

WILL BE ERECTED ON WEST SEVENTH STREET

Question of Taxing Meat Peddlers Is Debated Before Council.

The city council met in regular session last night with Mayor Henry and all the councilmen present. After the reading of the minutes the reports of the city judge, city treasurer, chief of police and cemetery sexton were filed and approved.

Judge Joe McCarroll, representing the school board, appeared before the council and asked for an ordinance to be passed allowing the school board to incur an indebtedness not to exceed $20,000 for the erection of a school building on their lot on West Seventh street and an ordinance was passed in compliance with the request.

The proprietors of several meat shops were present and Mr. F. L. Wilkerson appeared in their behalf with a request for an ordinance to be passed fixing a license of $50 per year for meat peddlers. The meat shop men claimed that as tax payers they should have some protection. Mr. J. F. Rogers made a speech opposing the amount of the desired license, claiming it was exorbitant. No action was taken on the matter.

Following the action of the city council in reference to the new public school building, the board of school trustees met last night and considered plans and specifications for the building and contractors' bids. It was decided to erect a building similar to the one on Virginia street, which is regarded as a model school building in every respect. The contract was let today to the Forbes Manufacturing company for $19,000.

Saved His Life.
J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Ray & Fowler's.

The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by R. C. ### CLAIMS HELD UP

IN MATTER OF VACCINATING THE POOR.

Hereafter County Judge Will Designate Who Shall be Vaccinated.

At the recent session of the fiscal court several physicians of Hopkinsville and other points in the county filed accounts for various amounts for services rendered in vaccinating persons who claimed they were unable to pay for this service themselves. Filed with these claims were lists of the persons who the physicians claimed to have vaccinated. All these accounts were held up by the court on the grounds that numbers of the persons whose names were on the lists were amply able to pay for their own vaccination while in many other instances it was thought the vaccination had not proven successful. In order to cover the case in the future the following order was made:

"Ordered, that hereafter, when in the opinion of the judge of the Christian county court, it is necessary for certain persons to be vaccinated, and who are not financially able to pay the expense of same, this court will designate and appoint a competent physician to do said work."

The matter stands now on this basis and it is not yet known what disposition will finally be made of the claims.

STREAM OF TICKETS

IS POURING INTO THE NEW ERA'S WHEEL.

Read The List of Valuable Premiums in this Issue of the Paper.

Taking the old adage that "Nothing succeeds like success" as authority, the great Gift Distribution now being advertised by the New Era Co., will be the biggest success of the season. The offer has been open only a few weeks and has hardly had time to become thoroughly advertised, but notwithstanding this fact the big wheel in the office already contains several hundred tickets and more are being added each day.

The plan upon which the distribution will be conducted appeals to all, no matter whether they live in Hopkinsville and Christian county or at the farthest boundary of the country. The premiums are numbered from one to twenty-seven. When a person pays fifty cents on subscription to either the Daily or Weekly Kentucky New Era, either in advance or on arrears, a blank ticket is issued on which the name and postoffice address of the person paying is written. When the wheel is opened the tickets will be drawn out one at a time, and the premium numbered one, which is a barrel of patent flour, as will be seen by reference to the full premium list published elsewhere in this paper, goes to the person whose name is on the first ticket drawn, the second premium to the second ticket, and so on throughout the list. When remittances are sent in from a distance the tickets are always placed in the wheel for the party making the remittance, no matter whether the writer requests this to be done or not. This assures all who pay on their subscriptions that they will have a chance no matter where they may live. Full information concerning this Gift Distribution, as well as the list of gifts can be found in this impression of the New Era. If you are not fully conversant with the conditions be sure and carefully read it over, for you are sure to find something which will appeal to you personally.

ONLY EYE WITNESS

TO MANNINGTON TRAGEDY IS DEAD.

Killing Of Carnie May Give Young Wilbert His Liberty.

By the death of Frank Carnie, a negro who, as stated in special despatches to the New Era, was shot and killed by his wife in Madisonville last Friday night, Louis Wilbert, the white boy in jail for the murder of Gus McIntosh, may get his liberty.

The killing of McIntosh, it will be remembered, occurred at Mannington, a town of which half lies in Christian county and half in Hopkins. The killing was just across the line in Hopkins county. The death of Carnie, according to the Hustler, in all probability means that young Wilbert will leave the courthouse a free man this week. One of the chief hopes for conviction on the part of the commonwealth was in the testimony of Carnie, who was the only person, it is alleged, that saw McIntosh die. At least, the death of the negro means that the punishment given the boy murderer will be a great deal lighter than had been expected.

JURY FINDS VERDICT IN THE JACKSON CASE.

A Suit Against Former Policeman Is Now Being Tried.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The jury in the case of W. F. Winfree administrator of Elijah Jackson, against the Empire Coal & Mining company for $15,000 damages yesterday, returned a verdict in favor of the coal company. Jackson was killed by falling slate while working in the mines and the suit was brought by his administrator, the claim being made that the accident was due to the carelessness of the employees of the company in not seeing that the roof was properly braced.

The suit brought in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the use and benefit of R. L. Butler against former policeman Lee Morris and his surety, is being heard in Circuit court today. The suit was brought for damages, Butler alleging that Morris cruelly and unnecessarily clubbed him last October while making an arrest. This case is being tried by only eleven jurors. S. T. Myers was accepted as juror in this case but was taken sick and was excused, and both sides agreed to try the case with eleven men.

Voters Do Not Have to Give Up Certificates.

An important question has been decided by the attorney general of the state. Some of the county clerks claimed that the registration certificates when presented by voters at the November election should be taken up by the election officers and preserved by the county clerk. The attorney general, to whom the question was referred, has decided that the certificates are property of the voter and are to be retained by him, which means that when a certificate is displayed to the election officers it must be returned to the voter, to be used in subsequent elections before the next registration.

PRESIDENT COMMERCIAL CLUB,

OF LOUISIANA SAYS:
"THERE IS NO FINER MEDICINE THAN PE-RU-NA."

W. W. WASHBURN
PRESIDENT LOUISIANA COMMERCIAL CLUB

Suffered With Kidney and Liver Trouble for Twelve Years—Peruna Cured Him—Feels Better Than for Twenty Years.

Hon. William Watson Washburn, President of the Louisiana Commercial Club, and a very well known man of New Orleans, La., writes from 637 Canal street:

"I am satisfied that there is not a finer medicine placed before the public to-day than Peruna. I have been troubled for nearly twelve years with kidney and liver trouble, and at times I have been a pretty sick man, unable to attend to my duties. I had about made up my mind that no medicine could help me, when one of your booklets was brought to my office which I read in a leisure hour. I then decided to give Peruna a trial and found that I had at last secured the right medicine for me. For two months I used it faithfully and then felt so well I was like a young man once more. This was over a year ago and I have not had any trouble since. Although I am in the seventies I feel better and more active than I did thirty years ago."

W. W. Washburn.

Most derangements of the kidneys are due to catarrh of the kidneys. Peruna is a catarrh remedy. This explains why it is that Peruna cures a great number of kidney diseases in which the usual remedies fail.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

ROY SALMON SENDS A BULLET CRASHING THROUGH HIS BRAIN

FORMER CITIZEN OF HOPKINSVILLE

CAUSE OF ACT UNKNOWN

Prominent Hopkins County Attorney Committed Suicide in His Office.

(Special to New Era.)
MADISONVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—Roy Salmon, a prominent lawyer and Democratic politician, committed suicide in his office here yesterday afternoon by blowing out his brains with a revolver.

No cause for the act is known other than that he had not been in very good health for some months and had for the past week been partially confined to his room with chills.

Circuit court is in session, and Mr. Salmon had been in the court room most of the day attending to legal duties. He left about four o'clock and held a lengthy conversation with his brother, R. M. Salmon, president of the Crabtree Coal company, of Illinois, on the street, and seemed to be in the best of spirits.

A few moments later he remarked to a friend that he was going to end his life, but was not taken seriously.

He then went alone to his office and shortly afterward inmates of other offices located on the same floor were alarmed by the report of a pistol.

Forcing their way into his quarters they found him in a dying condition with a bullet hole through his head. He succumbed in a few minutes.

Mr. Salmon served four years as county attorney of this county and has held many important places within his party.

Last winter he was given an office under Auditor Hager at Frankfort, but resigned after serving a short time to resume the practice of his profession.

He was forty-four years of age and leaves a wife and two children. He was a member of the local lodge of Elks.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The grand jury returned a large batch of indictments this afternoon. Among the lot was a joint indictment of Superintendent Milton Board and all of the commissioners of the Western asylum, except W. T. Tandy, for "giving away public property" in presenting a heifer and calf to Hon. Gus Richardson, of Meade county.

Judge C. H. Bush, a commissioner, is indicted for accepting a fee in a law case in the asylum's interest.

John Chilton, a commissioner, is indicted for holding a position as farm superintendent, at a salary of $1,000.

Commissioner M. H. Carroll and F. M. Quarles are indicted for having sold corn and hay to the institution, and Commissioner M. W. Johnson is indicted for selling beef cattle.

Treasurer L. H. Davis is indicted for making a contract with the asylum for stone work.

Secretary J. C. Buckner is indicted for having a contract to sell coal to the asylum.

Dr. W. A. Lackey, who recently resigned his position as first assistant physician, after the superintendent and commissioners had signed a petition to Governor Beckham requesting his removal, and whose efforts, it is said, caused the foregoing indictments to be returned, was himself indicted for assault and battery upon Spegal Bourland, a patient, while the physician was acting as superintendent.

Mrs. Wells Death.

SECRETARY SHAW'S PAT STAND.

Secretary Shaw is the high roller of the Roosevelt administration. His contact with the millions that the United States Treasury receives and pays out has evidently made him a reckless spendthrift of government funds. In speaking in Oregon the other day he inadvertently said: "I am not talking for ship subsidy; but I am willing to pay the price that will give us ships that will carry our trade." Of course, the prodigal Shaw would not think of a subsidy to the ship trust, but he is quite willing to "pay the price." Millions for subsidies, enormous appropriations for the army and navy, and vast increase for the civil expenses constitute the administration program—all of which will have to be met by an issue of bonds or more taxes.

The American people are now burdened with a depleted treasury, with imminent danger from Republican extravagance of still larger deficits, yet Secretary Shaw, who ought best to know of these things, is an ardent advocate of subsidies.

MR. HEARST'S LOYALTY.

There have been those since the national convention who repeated rumors that the Hearst papers and Hearst influence were cold to the Parker and Davis ticket; that the columns of the Hearst papers would demonstrate this proposition.

Let the leading Hearst paper, the New York American, speak for itself.
In its comments in Monday's issue on President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance the American says under the caption of Mr. Roosevelt in his own behalf:

"President Roosevelt, it will be seen by his twelve-thousand-word letter to Uncle Joe Cannon, has concluded to accept the Republican nomination for President. The American prints the letter in full. It is Rooseveltian. It might be a stump speech, uttered by a man whose words ran faster than his ideas. Modesty is not dominant among Mr. Roosevelt's cardinal virtues. His weakness for the personal pronoun grows, and after following him and comparing what he says and quotes from what he has said with the calm and dignified speech he interpolates from the lamented McKinley, one feels that in the event of re-election
Mr. Roosevelt will not his rule under the motto of 'I and the State.'

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON III. FOURTH QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 16.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings iv, 23-37.
Memory Verses, 32-35—Golden Text, Rom. vi, 23—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American News Association.]

At least ten times in this chapter we have the name "man of God" applied to Elisha. In I Kings xiii it is used at least fourteen times in reference to one whose name we know not. It is applied to Moses and to others and to my mind is a title much to be coveted, or, rather, a thing much to be desired—to be wholly for God, in communion with Him always, set apart for Himself, all His for His pleasure, hearing His voice only and doing His will, His messenger with His message.

As Elisha passed to and fro through Shunem a woman of wealth suggested to her husband that they should prepare a room in their home for this holy man of God, who continually passed by them, that he might feel at liberty to turn in thither as often as he chose. This they did and furnished it with a bed, a table, a seat and a candlestick, and the man of God was wont to rest himself there. What a contrast even this, to our mind, humble room and scanty furniture to the stable where our Lord was born or to the fact that He often had not where to lay His head.

Elisha would fain recompense her for her kind care of him and asked her what he should do for her, but her reply was to the effect that she needed nothing. Gehazi having called Elisha's attention to the fact that she had no child, Elisha assured her that in due time God would give her a son, and so it came to pass. It was supernatural, something like the giving of Isaac to Sarah and Abraham; a real gift from God, though in a natural way. They had brightened Elisha's life by this rest chamber, and now God brightened their lives and home with this dear child, whom He spared to them till he was old enough to go with his father to the field, and then suddenly God took him.

His mother laid his little body on the bed of the man of God, shut the door and hurried as fast as she could to Mount Carmel to Elisha. The prophet, when he saw her coming, sent Gehazi to meet her and to inquire if it was well with herself and her husband and the child. Her reply was, "It is well."
Yet she pressed on to Elisha and held him by the feet, and when Gehazi would have thrust her away Elisha forbade him, saying, "Let her alone, for her soul is vexed within her, and the Lord hath not told me." Then she poured out her soul in these words:
"Did I desire a son of my Lord? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me?' Elisha, seeing that the child was dead, sent Gehazi with his (Elisha's) staff to lay it on the face of the child, but the mother said to him as he had said to Elisha, 'As the Lord liveth and as thy soul liveth I will not leave thee.'
(verse 30). As in the case of the poor widow, here is a real heartfelt need and desire with the consciousness of utter helplessness. Oh, for more of it, and of this desperate clinging with a perseverance that takes no denial, the perseverance of Jacob, of Ruth, of Ithal, of Elisha and of this woman! See also our Lord's own encouragement to be persistent in Luke xi, 8, 9; Isa. xlii, 6, 7.

Elisha heeds the heart cry of distress and hastens to the chamber where he had often been refreshed, and he went in and shut the door upon them, twain and prayed unto the Lord (verse 33).
See again the shut door, the secret of His presence, alone with God. Oh, the power and the blessedness of it! And it is the privilege of every believer.
Now see the intense personal desire of Elisha. Like Elijah he stretched himself upon the child (verse 34; I Kings xvii, 21). His mouth and hands and eyes are upon those of the child, suggesting, as Mr. Spurgeon used to say, that to breathe life to a child dead in sin, or to have thrust her away from the closest possible personal contact, seeing as they see and speaking of things as they would, so that from what they already see and know we may lead on to what they as yet neither see or know. Elisha stretched himself again upon the child, and God sent the spirit back to the little body, and soon he was again in his mother's arms, and she was once more a happy woman.

She knew Him as the giver of life, but now she knows Him as one who can give life from the dead, as one to whom nothing is impossible. Although Paul knew Him so well his prayer was "that I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings" (Phil. iii, 10), and Peter ends his second epistle with these words: "Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." Our Lord Himself tells us that to know God is life eternal (John xvii, 3). Our church and Bible class motto is, "To know Him and to make Him known," and we greatly rejoice in the fellowship of all who earnestly desire to be whole hearted for Him.

Two other miracles are recorded in this chapter which God wrought through this man of God—the healing of the poisoned pottage and the multiplying of the twenty loaves. To give life, or restore life, or sustain life is equally easy to Him, and He alone can do it. In Him we live and move and have our being. Oh, to know and to trust Him so as to be used by Him to the utmost! The Lord grant us power with Himself such as Elisha had for His glory, that we may make Him known—men and women of God kept wholly for Himself that He may be glorified.

MONEY NOW RAISED

FOR THE Y. M. C. A.
BUILDING.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Monday Night at the Christian Church.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the local committee who have worked so faithfully for several months raising subscriptions for the proposed Y. M. C. A. building, the fifteen thousand dollars required was reported as having been pledged with an additional two hundred dollars. As there are several parties who have not yet been solicited the committee decided to continue the canvass and make the amount $16,000 if possible. Mr. J. E. Coulter, who has been engaged in this work for nearly four weeks now, will remain in Hopkinsville until Saturday and will prosecute the canvass.

This amount of $15,200, which has been subscribed, is from 497 persons who signed pledges for various sums. Of this number 279 are the ten dollar from the young men, and which entitles them to one year's membership and this guarantees a membership of this number at least to start with. When the figures were made up a few nights ago and it was discovered that only ten dollars was lacking to make the required $15,000 Mr. F. W. Dabney, although his subscription was fourth largest made, requested that he be allowed to have the honor of making the ten dollar donation and finishing up the amount and his request was granted. From here Mr. Coulter will go to Madisonville where they are raising funds for a Y. M. C. A. building. A site was not definitely settled upon although several available lots were presented, and a committee was appointed to select the most suitable. State Secretary Henry E. Rosevear was present and warmly praised the committees for their good work.

The following sub-committees were appointed: Finance and collection—F. W. Dabney, Dr. F. M. Stites, W. T. Fowler and John Stites.

Committee on location—J. H. Anderson, W. P. Winfree and Dr. Manning Brown.

Committee on plans and cost of building—F. J. Brownell, R. A. Rogers and J. H. Anderson.

Executive committee—F. J. Brownell, F. W. Dabney, J. H. Anderson and R. A. Rogers.

The following resolution was also adopted:

We, the undersigned committee of the Hopkinsville Y. M. C. A., who have been actively engaged in the canvass of the citizens of Hopkinsville and vicinity, to secure pledges amounting to $15,000.00 for the establishment, equipping and furnishings, of a building in said city, wish to apprise State Sec'y. Henry E. Rosevear, that said amount has now been pledged, and tender to him and his various assistants who have aided from time to time in securing said sum, our thanks.

We wish especially to express our heartfelt appreciation of the very faithful and competent work done by Mr. J. E. Coulter, of Port Huron, Mich., in said canvass. Considering the shape the canvass had assumed and the material to be worked upon when he came to us, we feel that he has done remarkable work and wish to commend him for his efficiency and loyalty to the cause. Signed: F. J. Brownell, Chairman; R. A. Rogers, Dr. F. M. Brown, F. W. Dabney, F. M. Stites, Jas. H. Anderson, Judge W. T. Fowler, W. P. Winfree, John Stites, Committee.

Selection—The Orchestra

Piano Selection—Prof. O. G. Hille

Medley—Quintette

Misses Sue Ray and Joy Herndon,

Measrs. Nick Ray, Leslie Tate

and Will Waller.

Violin Solo—Mr. Fritz Fallenstein

Song—Miss Martin

"Elks and Their Friends"

Selection—Rev. Geo. C. Abbott

The rooms were beautifully adorned with flowers in great and lovely variety from the Oaklawn gardens, and the decorations were arranged under the skillful and tasteful supervision of Mr. William F. Snyder.

The music of the orchestra, which is always good, was especially sweet last night, and greatly enhanced the attractiveness of the program. The musicians were: Prof. O. G. Hille, pianist; Charles Hobart and Fritz Fallenstein, first violins; Jack Meador, second violin; Harry Lebkuecher, clarinet; R. F. McDaniel, flute; Carl Witte, cornet; Al Inman, trombone; Robert Lardford, bass viol; Stanley Long, cello.

Miss Willie Harned's solo was appreciated. She has a sweet and cultivated voice. The quartet's selection was excellent and was received with prolonged applause.

One of the most delightful treats that music lovers have had in a long time was the singing of Miss Martin, of South Kentucky College. Her voice is beautiful and her selections were most admirable. Her winsome personality adds a delicious charm to her singing.

The numbers by Prof. Hille and Mr. Fallenstein, both of whom are accomplished musicians, were heard with great pleasure. The quintette's medley of popular songs made a genuine hit.

Mr. Abbott's address was in his happiest vein, richly humorous and full of sound sense.

An excellent collation, consisting of salads, sandwiches, celeries, pickle, biscuit, coffee and ices, was served. Measrs. John Feland, S. J. Samuel and C. S. Jarrett presided most efficiently "behind the scenes" in the culinary department.

The easy informality of the occasion was one of its most attractive features, and there was not a moment of the evening that was not enjoyable. The social session committee, Measrs. J. J. Tobin, John Feland and S. J. Samuel, are being warmly praised for their good offices in planning and arranging the details of the entertainment.

SAYS IT'S A SODOM

DR. HAMILTON TALKS ABOUT LOUISVILLE.

Claims the City is Crime
Stained and the Citizens Need Awakening.

The Rev. William Wistar Hamilton, the brilliant young Kentucky preacher and a native of Christian county, who held a successful protracted meeting several months ago in the Baptist church in this city, is at the head of a movement for a great religious revival in Louisville.

He preached Sunday at the McFerran Memorial church, and compared Louisville to Sodom. In the course of his sermon Dr. Hamilton said:

"Unchecked saloons, Sabbath desecration, dance halls, gambling rooms, brothels, unavenged murders and open defiance of the law have been thrown before the eyes of the people until they are becoming accused.

"Our citizens are murdered, some political party or secret order bushes up the investigation, and in forty-eight hours we forget the name of the victim.

"Our people are beginning to realize the abounding wickedness. They are seeing the awful and certain retribution upon unjust gain, against wicked rule and the drunk curse.

"Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood and establisheth a city in iniquity.

"He shall himself be the victim of his own wicked rule, and by making it unsafe for others lose his own life by lawlessness."

Plans for a revival will be perfected at a meeting of the Louisville Ministerial Association November 7.

The Farmer's Wife

is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach churn is "sour" it sours all which is put into it? The evil of a foul stomach is not the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of the blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant and no narcotic.

AT HIS OLD TRICKS

OLD TOM TURNS UP IN PADUCAH.

The Strenuous Career of the Star Booze Fighter of Kentucky.

Tom Loftus, a noted character of the town from the early days of Paducah, again turned up at his old tricks. He was arrested Saturday afternoon at Eleventh and Broadway for drunkenness.

When the police found him he had a bad case of the delirium tremens.

This is the first time that Loftus has been in Paducah for some time. He was recently tried in Fulton for lunacy, after reaching a most degraded condition, mentally and physically, and was sent to the Hopkinton asylum. He was recently released and came back to his old haunts.

When he was brought to the city hall Saturday afternoon Judge Sanders at once recognized him.

"Poor fellow," he remarked, "he has been before me a thousand times, but this is the first time I ever saw 'Tommie' with a menagerie following him."

Loftus was detained at the station for treatment. He will be presented before Judge Sanders for the one thousand and one or more times at Monday's session of the police court. It is indeed a mystery how this man has lived to this date. Any man that has gone through the dissipation and exposures that Tom has certainly is possessed of an iron constitution. It is said that he laid all night in the streets of Fulton once when the thermometer was below zero and chickens fell from the roost frozen to death. Tom's head was in a puddle of water and the next morning he was dug out with a pick, and after a few hot drinks were thrown into him he was ready to repeat the experience, none the worse for wear.—Paducah News-Democrat.

Calmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage, D.D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 9.—In this sermon the preacher, unusually, expounds the folly and wickedness of pride, whether it be founded on ancestry, position, social position and influence, or upon personal vanity. The text is Proverbs xlii, 23. "A man's pride shall bring him low."

The Ephraimite pigeons were said to have had two hearts. Physiologists have good reason to doubt that statement, but etymologists know that there are some words that seem to have two hearts. Uttered in one sense they mean in good and pure, but uttered in another sense their meaning is evil and corrupt. Like the chameleon, they are able to change their outer colorings to suit their environments. In a bad sense these words have the craven quality of a culprit or a bad intentioned man. Their skins are as black as the blackness of the eternal night that they inhabit. In a good sense their hearts beat steady and true. They are the pumps which drive only good and pure blood through their different arteries as the purest of water tumbles over the miller's wheel because that water comes from the clearest of mountain streams.

The word "pride" in this age may sometimes be used in a good sense. In Bible times it always had a debased meaning. Searching through a concordance I cannot find one place where that word "pride" was not used as the symbol of "sin" and condemned as the same of sin. God denounces it all through the Old Testament. God hurled at it his execrations all through the New. Arrogance and pride composed the quicksands which have destroyed many an immortal soul in the past. They are the insidious means whereby Satan is tripping up and mauling his helpless victims at the present time. Therefore this sinful pride, which is seated in many hearts as a fatal cancer, must be cut out or some of it will be forever lost.

Pride of Lineage.
First, consider the silliest of all kinds of pride, that of aristocratic lineage. It is the infant in its cradle bed, demanding for the attention of its mother, not more of a nuisance than the child who struts through the streets claiming the homage of their fellow men because of their having been born in an aristocratic home. It cries, "How low to me, not because I have brain or have accomplished anything, but because I am of any earthly use to anybody, but because my father or grandfather or great-grandfather has accomplished something to make his name famous or because my great-grandfather had in his veins the blood of the European aristocracy." Listen to the babblings of one who would continually shake before our eyes a single branch of his ancestral tree which happened to bear a few fragrant blossoms, while on that same genealogical tree are hundreds of other branches which have borne nothing but worm eaten fruit, and which branches have been gnawed and twisted for generations and for centuries.

Have you ever stopped to consider how many different ancestors you have had? My parents were two in number. I had one father and one mother. But, counting back another generation, I had four grandparents and eight great-grandparents and sixteen great-great-grandparents and thirty-two great-great-great-grandparents. And so back and back they go, doubling with each generation. A few hundred years back I find my ancestors were not counted by the tens, but by the thousands. Now, my friends, what right has a man with family pride to follow up one branch of a genealogical tree that lands him in a king's throne room or in an earl's palace and ignore the hundreds of other ancestral lines, any one of which would land him in a peasant's hut or perhaps even at the end of a hangman's noose? For, though some of us may not have had ancestors who were hanged, all of us have had plenty of them who ought to have been hanged if they had been treated as they deserved. Thus, when we estimate how many different ancestors we all have had, both good and bad, there is a great deal of broad common sense in the answer which Theodore Roosevelt gave to one of his boys who had boasted in school about his family. The president said: "There are only two classes of boys in this world, my son. Big boys and small boys alike are either good boys or bad boys. It does not make very much difference from what family you spring, if you are a good boy the world will respect you and if a bad boy the world will punish you and despise you."

His Coat of Arms.
Then there is another fact that always amuses me in reference to the false assumptions of family pride. Almost without exception the great families of the earth are proud of their descent from some one man who in his youth was a nobody, the son of a blacksmith, a stone mason or a laborer in the ditch. Where did the proud ancestor family come from? From a peasant. Oh, no. It sprang into prominence from a poor German emigrant who had to cross the Atlantic practically alone in the steerage. Where did the Vanderbilts family come from? From a barefoot boy running errands in the States Island hills. He made his money as a cotton merchant, and then he came over the water to send north than he was crushed until his spirit was broken. What then? He whined and whimpered like a frightened puppy. So some men, noble men, brave men in their youth, become failures as middle aged men. Why? Because they are battered and pounded by struggle after struggle and defeat after defeat. They are halted in their progress through life by obstacles practically impossible to overcome until at last manhood practically oozes away. O man, be not puffed up in your own conceit on account of your seeming triumphs in life! You and I in a sense have both succeeded not because we are smarter than all men, but because God has given to us chances of success which he has withheld from men who were just as smart and just as diligent and brave and as conscientious as ever we have been.

Arrogant pride is making necklaces of diamonds to reflect her own shriveled and enaciated form. She carries around with her a looking glass because she thinks her blood is "blue" instead of red, her face more beautiful and her eyes more intelligent than all other physiognomies. She never tires of watching her own countenance. Her smile is sweetest when she is praising her own sweet self. But, though arrogant pride admires her own looks and her own brain more than those of the people around her, she has often no right to gather the lilies of innocence to wear as a bouquet on her corsage. In her heart there may be the germs of evil and a cruelty as fierce as that which impelled the women of France in the revolution to surround the guillotine and gloat over the execution of victims as guinea pigs as themselves. I find that, as a rule, she thinks that her own garments are the clinging robes of an angel, pure and spotless, while the garments of her fellow human creatures are the rags and tatters of a repentant or an unrepentant prodigal.

All Were Gentlemen.
It is too often forgotten that arrogance and pride are sins in themselves. The lofty spirit which boasts that it is free from the guilt of others and holds aloof from the repentant sinner, whom it surveys with scorn, is not that pride, a most heinous sin in the sight of a just God? During the darkest days of the French revolution of 1830 a great mob of insurgents and rioters were blockading the Parisian streets. "It is useless to appeal to their reason. They have no reason," said General Lafayette, the commander of the national guard, which ultimately placed Louis Philippe upon the French throne. "Shoot them down like dogs," said a staff officer to his comrade, "whom it is no business of mine to save." Then he cried, "All gentlemen will please to retire, for I am ordered to shoot down the rabble." At once the mob scattered. "Not," wrote the historian, "from fear, but because not one of those fierce rioters wanted the people of France to consider that he belonged to the scum or the offscourings of the nation." Because arrogant pride considers herself different from the rest of the world, it does that which makes her different? I tell thee nay. The vilest and the most degraded forms of sin are not more condemned in God's sight than the sin of the Pharisee. Christ said it. We must believe it.

Who is this Pharisee of old modernized into the language of the church life of today? Let me describe him as you have often seen him. Sunday morning is here. The supercilious creature crawls out of bed. He must go to church. It is part of his religion to go to church. Every one says he is one of the pillars of the church. He has been the worst "pillar" because for a long time he has thought he is the whole sanctuary, choir loft and pulpit thrown in, as well as pew.

He has hard work to get up this morning because all the week, like Shylock, he has been demanding his pound of flesh. He gave a hundred dollars to the church last week, but he did not miss it much. He took it off the wages of his employees. During the week, by business tricks and financial thumb-screws, he got at least four different pieces of real estate $5,000 less than they were worth. He lied about the deal, but of course he only lied because he was sick. He knew what made her sick. He worked her overtime and worked all the physical life out of her.

"Why don't you hurry to church, old Pharisee? Don't you hear the last bell ringing?" "Oh, yes," says the old hypocrite, "but there is no need of my hurrying. The ushers always keep my seat. I make a fuss about having any one else put in my pew. Besides, it is not dignified for me to go ahead or even to be on time. Let me come in just before the sermon and disturb the service, and then every one will be impressed by my entrance and the solemn devotion with which I kneel in prayer."

A Modern Pharisee.
Our Pharisee of modern times comes in late, as usual. A quiet little lady dressed in black is seated in his pew. His face and neck get as red as if he had been taking a ten mile tramp under the tropical sun. We are almost afraid he will burst a blood vessel in an apoplectic fit. "What is she? For what is she there? Wasn't her husband that old drunkard who died in delirium tremens a few months ago and who died a bankrupt, owing me $500?" "Yes," said the usher. "But her own life has been sweet and pure, and as she used to know your family in her better days she asked for your pew. She has come to church because she wants to join our church." "Join our church, eh? Yes," said the old hypocrite, "I know why she wants to join our church. She wants me to help her and to let her children enter the society of my family. I will not do it. Now, Mr. Usher, see here, this is going too far. This is too good a church for the rabble. We can start missions for the poor. I do not want a lot of people with scandals besmirching their names using us for a social hospital. I am willing to pay my pew rent and help support the pastor's salary and help support a few foreign and home missions, but I am not willing to be dragged into the social mud with a lot of ordinary clerks and poverty stricken women and general 'dead-beats.' If you cannot keep this church entirely for the exclusive class, the social 'upper tendom,' why, I will get out."

God help me if I have made this scene too personal! Some of you know who represents the modern Pharisee clothed in the filthy garments of arrogant pride. That person, O man or woman, in God's sight is your self satisfied, evil self. You are even now making the hypocritical prayer of him who of old said, "Lord, I thank thee that I am not as other men."

But, lastly, I believe that pride is often the result of bigotry and ignorance. It is possible to become so absorbed in a particular work and in some one church as to overlook the fact that other men in other churches are winning souls and planting seed in other fields which will yield a harvest as great as our own, though other sickles may be used to reap it, and other methods be adopted to produce it.

Phillips Brooks' Advice.
How do you know that your own church is the best church and the only true church? Have you ever studied the ways and the means other ministers are using in our sister churches? It would be a good thing for you to worship in some other church for a little while before you are so quick to condemn their ways of doing things. "Other sheep have I which are not of this fold," said Christ. One of the best truths I ever read from the pen of that great, big hearted and noble Christian, the most beloved New Englander of his day, Phillips Brooks, was from a letter he wrote to a ministerial friend in America. The letter went something like this: "Dear brother, you ought to come over to Europe at least once a year to find out how the world is, how many people there are in it trying to do right and how small the Episcopal church seems looked at from this side of the Atlantic." You can surmise what Phillips Brooks meant. He meant instead of there being only one church filled with gloriously good people there were many different Protestant churches filled with just as good people as Phillips Brooks had in his own parish.

How do you know that your way of bringing up your children is the only right way? Have you developed your family so marvelously that they are brighter than all other children, more intellectual, more spiritual? Perhaps instead of your children being blamed for doing wrong you ought to be blamed. Your way of discipline may be wrong. Broaden your life. Study the ways of other Christian parents and you may be able to improve your own ways.

How do you know that your own interpretation of the scripture is right? Perhaps if you would only empty yourself of self and as a student come and sit at Christ's feet you might learn so much from him who was meek and lowly of heart that you would have a less exalted estimate of yourself and of your own wisdom and piety. I personally would never have any use for a physician who thinks he knows so much that in the crisis of a disease he would not ask another physician to come to the bedside of the sick for consultation. Neither has Christ any use for one of his disciples who knows so much that he is not willing to come to sit at his feet and learn of him. Are you ready today to empty yourself of self and be as an empty vessel to be filled with the Holy Spirit?

Oh, the imbibed and imbibing, sinful pride of life! How hard it is for some of you to give up! After Sam Houston for years had been one of our nation's most prominent men he came in his old age to represent Texas in the United States senate. No sooner did he come to Washington than he was to a famous Baptist church there, of which Rev. Dr. Samson was pastor. For eight long years he attended this church. At last he came forward and gave his heart to Jesus Christ. Just before his first communion Dr. Samson asked Senator Houston into his private room. "What is it you wish me to do?" asked the old warrior, fixing his keen eye upon Dr. Samson's face. "General," was the reply, "you know the alienation between you and Senator So-and-so. You will meet him next Sunday morning at the Lord's supper. It seems to me that you ought not to meet there unless in Christ's name you are ready to forgive and be forgiven. Will you thus meet Senator So-and-so? Will you destroy sinful pride, go and forgive for Christ's sake?" This senator had been bitterly unjust to the great liberator of Texas. Dr. Samson said: "At first the fire began to glow in General Houston's eye. His brows knit. His teeth clenched. His whole frame shook with the struggle between aroused conscience and the old bitterness of feeling that he had for years cherished. But at last the man of almost unquenchable passions was changed from a lion into a lamb, and in a subdued voice and with tears in his eyes he said, 'Mr. Samson, for Christ's sake I will do it.'"

O man, like Sam Houston, will you yield up your pride for Christ? Will you be as a little child at his feet? Will you say, "Master, I am nothing, but thou art all in all?" May God grant that the bane of sinful pride shall here and now forever be cast out of every one of our hearts. "A man's pride shall bring him low," but honor shall uphold the humble to glory.

children enter the society of my family. I will not do it. Now, Mr. Usher, see here, this is going too far. This is too good a church for the rabble. We can start missions for the poor. I do not want a lot of people with scandals besmirching their names using us for a social hospital. I am willing to pay my pew rent and help support the pastor's salary and help support a few foreign and home missions, but I am not willing to be dragged into the social mud with a lot of ordinary clerks and poverty stricken women and general 'dead-beats.' If you cannot keep this church entirely for the exclusive class, the social 'upper tendom,' why, I will get out."

God help me if I have made this scene too personal! Some of you know who represents the modern Pharisee clothed in the filthy garments of arrogant pride. That person, O man or woman, in God's sight is your self satisfied, evil self. You are even now making the hypocritical prayer of him who of old said, "Lord, I thank thee that I am not as other men."

But, lastly, I believe that pride is often the result of bigotry and ignorance. It is possible to become so absorbed in a particular work and in some one church as to overlook the fact that other men in other churches are winning souls and planting seed in other fields which will yield a harvest as great as our own, though other sickles may be used to reap it, and other methods be adopted to produce it.

How do you know that your own church is the best church and the only true church? Have you ever studied the ways and the means other ministers are using in our sister churches? It would be a good thing for you to worship in some other church for a little while before you are so quick to condemn their ways of doing things. "Other sheep have I which are not of this fold," said Christ. One of the best truths I ever read from the pen of that great, big hearted and noble Christian, the most beloved New Englander of his day, Phillips Brooks, was from a letter he wrote to a ministerial friend in America. The letter went something like this: "Dear brother, you ought to come over to Europe at least once a year to find out how the world is, how many people there are in it trying to do right and how small the Episcopal church seems looked at from this side of the Atlantic." You can surmise what Phillips Brooks meant. He meant instead of there being only one church filled with gloriously good people there were many different Protestant churches filled with just as good people as Phillips Brooks had in his own parish.

How do you know that your way of bringing up your children is the only right way? Have you developed your family so marvelously that they are brighter than all other children, more intellectual, more spiritual? Perhaps instead of your children being blamed for doing wrong you ought to be blamed. Your way of discipline may be wrong. Broaden your life. Study the ways of other Christian parents and you may be able to improve your own ways.

How do you know that your own interpretation of the scripture is right? Perhaps if you would only empty yourself of self and as a student come and sit at Christ's feet you might learn so much from him who was meek and lowly of heart that you would have a less exalted estimate of yourself and of your own wisdom and piety. I personally would never have any use for a physician who thinks he knows so much that in the crisis of a disease he would not ask another physician to come to the bedside of the sick for consultation. Neither has Christ any use for one of his disciples who knows so much that he is not willing to come to sit at his feet and learn of him. Are you ready today to empty yourself of self and be as an empty vessel to be filled with the Holy Spirit?

Oh, the imbibed and imbibing, sinful pride of life! How hard it is for some of you to give up! After Sam Houston for years had been one of our nation's most prominent men he came in his old age to represent Texas in the United States senate. No sooner did he come to Washington than he was to a famous Baptist church there, of which Rev. Dr. Samson was pastor. For eight long years he attended this church. At last he came forward and gave his heart to Jesus Christ. Just before his first communion Dr. Samson asked Senator Houston into his private room. "What is it you wish me to do?" asked the old warrior, fixing his keen eye upon Dr. Samson's face. "General," was the reply, "you know the alienation between you and Senator So-and-so. You will meet him next Sunday morning at the Lord's supper. It seems to me that you ought not to meet there unless in Christ's name you are ready to forgive and be forgiven. Will you thus meet Senator So-and-so? Will you destroy sinful pride, go and forgive for Christ's sake?" This senator had been bitterly unjust to the great liberator of Texas. His whole frame shook with the struggle between aroused conscience and the old bitterness of feeling that he had for years cherished. But at last the man of almost unquenchable passions was changed from a lion into a lamb, and in a subdued voice and with tears in his eyes he said, 'Mr. Samson, for Christ's sake I will do it.'"

NEAR MAIN STREET

THE CARNIVAL WILL BE LOCATED.

The Free Acts Take Place On the Principal Thoroughfares.

A persistent rumor has been circulated in this city to the effect that the shows of the Robinson Amusement Company, which will exhibit here next week, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge, would be located entirely on Broad street. This is unfounded. The committee appointed to act in conjunction with the street committee of the City Council have not yet definitely designated the exact location of the shows, but the Odd Fellows say it is almost a certainty that they will be located on Virginia street from Fourth to Ninth and down Ninth from Virginia to the Illinois Central depot. This will place the shows within easy access of all and at the same time will not blockade Main street with crowds as has been the case in the past. The free attractions will be distributed at the most important points of the business section.

SHOWN BY SURVEY

MURDER WAS IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

Mitchell Will Be Tried At Clarksville For Killing His Wife.

(Special to New Era.)

CLARKSVILLE, Oct. 13.—It now seems a settled fact that Robert L. Mitchell will be tried in Clarksville for the terrible crime with which he is charged, that of wife murder. The point having been raised whether the crime was committed in Robertson or Montgomery counties, the authorities of Robertson county caused two separate surveys of the county lines to be made with a view to ascertaining in which county the crime was committed, the scene of murder being in close proximity to the line. It is understood that both of the above surveys agreed with a third that was made yesterday under the supervision of Acting Prosecuting Attorney Matt C. Lyle, of Montgomery county. It was found that the crime took place at a point fifty and three-fourth yards inside the Montgomery county line.

SALES NOW SMALL

The local tobacco market took a big slump this week, the sales for the week being only thirty-one hog-heads. The loose sales were also very small. From now on the market will be dull, as is always the case at this time of the year, until the new crop is prized and delivered. The inspectors' report for the week is as follows:

Receipts for week	115

JURY DISCHARGED

SESSION WAS UNUSUALLY BUSY ONE

Sixty-Nine Indictments As Result of Two Weeks Work.

The grand jury which was finally dismissed Wednesday returned an exceptionally large batch of indictments. In the last lot returned there were forty-eight "true bills" and with the twenty-one which had been returned previously the total was sixty-nine. In a number of these indictments several persons are named which would make the number considerably larger if each one was counted as a separate charge. The grand jury was composed of the following citizens of the county: E. W. C. Edwards, foreman; J. M. Murphy, S. D. Wilkins, John Kelly, George Hayes, George C. Simpson, George D. Simpson, John B. Harrod, John H. Sargent, George McKnight, J. J. Barnes and W. A. Rickman. This list contains thirteen names and this is accounted for by the fact that George McKnight was excused after he had served a few days and J. J. Barnes was accepted in his stead.

Asleep in Jesus.

Died at Earlinton, Ky., Sept. 30, 1904, Virginia Bule Graves, beloved wife of F. P. Graves.

To her many old friends this announcement will come as a shock, for her illness was comparatively short.

In recording the death of so true a friend, so good a Christian, wife and mother our hearts falter and our pen fails to pay just tribute to her many virtues.

Born in Trigg county, Ky., June 7th, 1859, she early in life united with the Baptist church, near her home, and to the day of her death lived a consistent Christian life.

She was married to F. P. Graves Oct. 1st, 1874, and upon the thirtieth anniversary of that day was buried.

Her husband and only son, B. F. Graves, are left to mourn her untimely death, to them our hearts go out in tenderest sympathy, and God grant that they may be comforted by these cheering words.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

A FRIEND.

OPHTHALMOSCOPE AND RETINOSCOPE COMBINED.

An up-to-date instrument for the diagnosis of the pathological condition of the interior of the eye without the use of a dark room or myriades to dilute the pupil. By its use all errors of refraction are detected and measured to an absolute certainty without asking the patient any questions—thereby leaving the operator independent of the intelligence of the patient. (Great for children.) It is the latest and most wonderful production of optical science. By its use the retina (veins and arteries) is seen as clearly as the patient's face. This is a costly instrument, but as I have been always deeply interested and made a specialty of examining and fitting of glasses to the eye, I have kept up-to-date with the latest and best methods and instruments and feel that the best is none too good for my patrons. They may rest assured that they will get the latest and best service obtainable anywhere—derived from long years of practical experience with up-to-date appliances and for the least money.

MACEDONIA MATTERS.

MACEDONIA, Oct. 12.—The debating society at this place is becoming a very interesting organization and its meetings are looked forward to with no little amount of pleasure by the people of the community—both old and young, and among its visitors are many people from other neighborhoods.

Mr. James A. Claxton, of Edge Water, Colorado, arrived here one day last week on a visit. He is enjoying excellent health.

Miss Nancy Gilkey, of Curry, returned home Sunday after a two weeks stay with Mrs. Fannie Murphy, of this place.

Mr. John Brown and several other citizens of the Clardy neighborhood, left Tuesday morning for St. Louis, to "take in" the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Miss Sue Cline is visiting her sister at Curry this week.

Elder John W. McCarroll will preach at Fowler's school house next Saturday night.

Mr. Lafayette Mooreland and wife, of Clardy, were in Macedonia trading last Tuesday.

Everett Alexander, of Hawkins, the boy who accidentally shot himself last week, is much improved.

The singing on each Sunday night at Macedonia by the young people is very much enjoyed by the community at large.

The Goddess of Liberty bowed her head
And Columbia shook with a rigor
The American Eagle screamed and fled
When Roosevelt digned with a sinner.
