"Heart Sunday" Funds Fight Heart Disease

A very special day in this community will be Sunday, Feb. 23.

It will be Heart Sunday—the day on which an army of Heart Fund volunteers will march against a formidable foe that is called heart disease.

If you have any doubts about the urgency of this army's mission, these doubts may well be resolved by recalling the frequency with which the term "Heart Disease" appears in obituary notices published by this newspaper.

Seldom do we go to press without chronicling the death of one or more of our leading citizens as the result of heart and blood vessel diseases.

Nationally, these diseases are responsible for nearly 54% of all deaths. There is good reason to believe that this percentage figure applies with reasonable accuracy to deaths in our own community.

The Heart Sunday army is now being recruited. It will consist of devoted, public-spirited men and women who will each visit between 15 and 25 homes of their immediate neighbors, collecting for the 1958 Heart Fund.

You can help in the heart fund drive by soliciting for funds. For you, it will be a great experience. You will renew old acquaintances, make new friends, and feel the glow of inner satisfaction that comes when your service helps to make this a better and healthier world in which to live.

We Face The Future With Confidence

During the past two or three weeks we have read and heard an increasing number of comments by national leaders about a threatened depression. In the eastern cities, factories are closing, there is growing unemployment and State and federal agencies are beginning to get worried.

We submit that down here in the rural agricultural section of West Kentucky and Tennessee this doesn't apply to us, and we should take no note of it, nor become alarmed by it.

I think we are about three or four years ahead of the big cities; we have already had our share of a "depression": two years of hard drouth, a season of torrential rainfall and all of the attendant problems that go with the farmer not making any money.

But given a good year this year, with a favorable weather and crop conditions, the Ken-Tenn area will again be a beehive of activity as the farmer grows his crops and raises livestock, poultry and the many various products capable of this area.

No matter what they may come to up North, we expect to see no soup kitchens, bread lines or starving children down here, where a man who is willing to work and knows how to do the job will get along.

As a matter of fact when times get tough in the big cities, the population movement reverses itself and starts back to the rural areas such as ours.

We have lots of room in this area, and we face the future with confidence.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

Five "R's" For A Happy Home

By Isabelle P. Buckley,

The head of a family I have long admired has written me his "secret" for a happy family. I am happy to pass it on to you.

THIS FATHER writes: "A happy home has a magic sound to the peoples of all nations. Peace on earth can at least reign in that most important social unit of all—the family. The home is the best place of all to learn to live with people.

"The three R's of citizenship must apply to a home—Rights, Respect, and Responsibility. To these should be added, Relaxation and Religion.

"A child should have some special rights, such as a particular plaything which is his alone—the right to be heard in his turn with full consideration—and the right of receiving consistent treatment from his parents.

"Respect should be demanded from children. To get true respect, parents must earn it by respecting their children and treating each member of the family with courtesy. Too often, good manners are left at the doorstep.

"Responsibility is necessary for young ones to become molded into the family group. Family duties and tasks are necessary for character building. Family responsibility is the beginning of social responsibility.

"Relaxation promotes serenity. Children need regular rest and sleep or they become fretful and peevish—as do grownups. Serenity is a scarce commodity and a valuable one, yet we cannot expect serene children unless we ourselves are serene.

"Religion has many indispensable effects in family life—morality, humbleness, a sense of order. Faith is blended with the baby's first food. Our children learn that Rights, Respect for our fellow man, and our Responsibility for others, stem from the fact that God has made all men in his image—that we are all God's children—meant to enjoy eternity with Him if we keep His commandments.

"The normal family lives and moves and has its being in a climate of mutual trust, and cannot be separated from religious faith. In this country the currents of the church, the home and the school converge in community life. The belief in God is in the air we breathe at birth.

"My wife and I have mixed the five 'R's' together with three children of our own and eight foster children, stirred with one more precious ingredient—a saving sense of humor. The end product has been a happy, thrilling life for all in the family group."

Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

Back home again this week after two weeks' active duty with the Army down at Ft. Gordon, Ga., and mighty glad to be back.

If you think we have snow here around Fulton, you should see 'way down in Georgia . . . they have even more . . . with the low temperature to go along with it.

The first weekend I was there the furnace went out in the quarters on the very night it was supposed to drop to something just above zero, so they issued us two extra blankets apiece and told us to crawl in early, the heat would be on next morning by the time we were ready to get up.

Room-mate Phil Bryant (of Paducah) and I didn't believe them so we scrounged around and found other quarters for the night and sure enough, those that stayed froze till noon next day.

On the way down (Feb. 2) we thought we would be smart and take a short-cut around Atlanta and go from Dalton to Athens to Augusta. On that woful Sunday morning we hit a ten-mile stretch of mountain highway that had rain at the bottom, sleet half-way up and solid snow as we almost reached the top. With no guard-rails along the highway and what looked like about a thousand-foot drop a few feet off the snow-covered concrete we finally ran out of courage and joined the rest of the weary travelers who had given up, turned around and crawled back down below the ice line, to go by way of Atlanta.

Coming back last weekend we heard the Georgia Highway patrol say that the area was having another storm so intense that that part of the State was cut off from the world.

So if you think things are tough around Fulton, cheer up; they're tough all over.

The radio said that the weekend we arrived at Augusta, Ike had played 18 holes of golf there. Somebody was either telling a big story or else he's in better physical shape than most folks give him credit for.

Drove into Augusta to look the famous National Country Club over, and we were promptly stopped at the gate by a guard. That's as far as we got. Period.

One night at the Officers' Club I happened to be talking to a visiting Colonel from Ft. McPherson and discovered that he is a native of Greenfield, Tennessee, who has many relatives in and around Dresden. He was much interested in being brought up to date on what's going on around the Ken-Tenn area. His name was James P. Irvine.

The trip back last weekend was one of those unforgettably-awful things that happens only to those who are determined to get home come what may. Bryant had to get back to Paducah for Sunday because he was to leave on Monday for two weeks in Memphis, and I wanted to get back to a family that needed me, so we departed Augusta at 7:15 a. m. and drove 17 hours through rain, sleet, snow and high, icy winds to arrive after midnight. The daytime drive was manageable at slow speeds, but the night before must have been awful. We passed any number of overturned trucks and autos, and one Greyhound bus had overtaken just outside Chattanooga. Near the Georgia-Tennessee line some fellow had plunged off the highway into a stream and drowned, and as we passed the scene the hearse was just arriving.

This is not the month to be traveling by auto.

In the ten years that we have lived in Kentucky I have never seen snow stay on the ground here much more than overnight, and already we have the same snow down for four days and no thaw in sight.

During the past four years we have lived to see some violent weather records in this area: the driest summer, then the wettest year, and now the most bitter winter.

Was sorry to have missed the MSC 1958 "Campus Lights" last week because of the Army sojourn. Would have liked to see Nancy handling the leading feminine part, as well as hear the band and its array of ex-Melody-Men in leading positions. I believe that Nancy is the first in the history of "Lights" to earn the lead as a Freshman, and that's quite an honor.

Tried to catch the Godfrey Talent Scout show the night the four young men from Paducah competed, but couldn't. The Officer's Club at Gordon has only two TV sets and around one were 50 people watching some shootem-up and at the other sat some fussy Colonel watching something else, so I gave up. Anyway, understand that the boys won . . . almost a whole year after they auditioned for the show down in Nashville.

That was the same day that Nancy, Montelle and myself tramped into the studio for the same purpose. The four young men, just ahead of us, had emerged with what seemed to be a little smug feeling of their ability. Glad they finally made it.

NOTES CONSERVATION

The Fulton County Soil Conservation District has completed its 8th year of operation in this county.

The Board of Supervisors who administered the program were: Charles E. Wright, Chairman; Avery Hancock, vis-Chairman; Robert M. Adams, Sec-Trea.; Clint Workman and Joe L. Barnett, regular members.

U. S. Conservation Service personnel assigned to the District were: Charles Meunier, Work Unit Conservationist; E. S. DeMyer and Joseph L. Atwill, Conservation Aids. Roger B. Wiedenburg join the district staff as a soil Conservationist in December. As a board serving all the people of Fulton County in matters pertaining to soil and water conservation, we take this opportunity to report our accomplishments, problems and needs. The board meets the 4th Tuesday of each month to check district needs and progress.

While conservation has come to be a word known to all, the board felt that there was still a need for a conservation education program. This program consisted of 44 news articles in local and area newspapers, 13 radio programs over the Fulton radio station WFUL, 19 meetings held the County, 11 pictures in local papers and 1 on farm demonstration.

The board paid the course fees for three teachers to attend Murray State College and take a conservation teaching course.

Master Conservationist awards were presented to Charles Roberts, Robert M. Adams, John P. Wilson, E. W. Sublett, Jesse Fields, Norman Terry, Homer Weatherspoon and J. A. Willingham. These farmers have applied over 90% of the conservation plan on their farms. These awards were made at the Annual Bankers Award Banquet.

The District again co-sponsored with the Louisville newspapers and radio station an essay contest for school children. Seventy seven essays were written.

The City National Bank of Fulton and the Board subscribed to 200 monthly newspapers to be sent to farmers of the County. These papers will deal with what farmers over the state are doing about conserving their soil and water.

Work has continued toward getting the running slough drainage project started.

The Board has cooperated with and assisted the Obion Creek watershed Conservancy District through its first year of action.

The farmers and others living in the Harris Fork Creek watershed, petitioned the Board to hold hearings concerning the formation of a Conservancy District on this creek. The Board, after having notices of this hearing published in the local paper, held this hearing. Farmers and others attending this hearing indicated they favored organizing the Conservancy District and the Board ruled that the hearing was favorable for the formation of a district.

The District office received 204 ACP request for assistance—all requests were served. The accomplishments of the farmers requesting assistance are, in part, reflected below and this represents a part of the assistance given the District by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Contour Farming—456ac
Strip cropping—35 ac
Pasture seeding—5032 ac
Tree planting—10 ac
Wildlife acres—19½ ac
Fish ponds—41
Open ditches—10.7 mi. new;
—13.3 clean out

Ponds built—30
Waterways developed—93 ac
386 Fulton County farmers are now cooperating with the Soil Conservation District. These farmers own over one-half of all the land in this county. In 1957, 32 farms had complete basic plans prepared for them.

1957 was the wettest year on record in this County and erosion damage was heavy throughout all the up land. Conservation work was slowed because of the rains. Heavy siltation accrued in the drainage ditches.

The Board is grateful for the progress made even under these adverse conditions. We realize the big task that is still before us.

Our job is impossible without the cooperation of business men, Civic Clubs, private citizens and professional people as well as farmers.

Your Board of Supervisors welcomes the advice and assistance of all people interested in our basic resources—Soil and Water.

Respectfully submitted,
Charles E. Wright,
Chairman, Fulton County
Soil Conservation District

During the monthly meeting of the Fulton County Soil Conservation District, Charles Wright was pleased to announce the winners of the annual Soil Conservation essay contest.

This contest is co-sponsored by the Fulton County Soil Conservation District and the Louisville Courier-Journal, Louisville Times, and WHAS radio station.

The Louisville Courier-Journal furnishes the prize for the county winner; which is a $25 saving bond, with the Fulton County Soil Conservation District furnishing the prizes for 2nd place county winner and the schools that participated in the essay contest.

This year's essays were written on the theme "Conserving our Soil and Water Resources." The county winner is Harold Bequette, with 2nd place going to Mayrice Carr Bondurant who will receive a cash prize of $15.

MY POTPOURRI of IMPRESSIONS --- for the past week: Of seeing the sky AFLAME with the AURORA BOREALIS... Of feeling a sense of QUIETNESS everywhere as the snowflakes fell to the ground... until finally the whole countryside took on the appearance of ORCHARDS OF WHITE BLOSSOMS. Of the HAPPINESS I saw on the CHILDREN'S faces while they threw snowballs... rolled snowballs... the big SNOWMAN standing so REGALLY in a yard on West State Line, complete with hat et al. Of standing on the terrace at night while the brightness of the moon and the snow covered ground caused an ILLUSION of DAY-LIGHT. Of children SKATING on Foy's pond... Of the MYRAIDS of tiny tracks in the snow where the birds had gathered for bread crumbs... Of watching cautiously from my window while the snow birds ate to their heart's content, then flew away to a secret hiding place to store food—for another day! And—ALL the while Your Diarist is thinking how GOOD it is to LIVE where the seasons CHANGE—where there's ALWAYS a NEW season—to LOOK FORWARD to.

But ALWAYS—Your Diarist has a keen ear—to learn of the things YOU are doing... and she LEARNS that people are BUSY—with the Girl Scout Drive... the Obion County Basketball tournament for both boys and girls... Fulton Counties attending the Area Cancer Meeting at Kenlake Hotel on Kentucky Lake... Scouts and Scouters attending Annual Scouters Appreciation Dinner in Paducah... Sub-District meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held at Palestine Church Monday. Area Youth meeting at Church of Christ... Fulton Jaycees vs the Union City Jaycees in a thriller-diller basketball... and MANY other activities I have failed to mention. Yes, it's—around the Ken-Tenn area!

Stockholders of the Hickman Garment Company at Hickman, Ky. have overwhelmingly voted for expansion of their factory through a loan by the Small Business Administration, in a vote taken last week. The count was tallied as 1042 for, 28 against.

Next step is the immediate preparation of the loan application and its presentation to the SBA office in Louisville.

The community's present factory building has been appraised at $128,000 not including land value. The Fruit of the Loom plant intends to add 20,000 square feet—doubling the present floor space. They plan to employ an additional 150-250 persons when the factory building is enlarged. The firm presently employs 170 persons.

The manufacturers have agreed to pay whatever necessary additional rent to amortize the SBA loan. The SBA has indicated willingness to make the loan on a basis of dollar-for-dollar of appraised assets of the Hickman Development Corporation. Repayment of the loan will have to be made in 10 years.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(Ed's note: the following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Ken-Tenn area):

DEFINITION OF NORMAL ACREAGE AS DEFINED BY SOIL BANK REGULATIONS

Mr. Roy Bard, chairman of Fulton ASC County Committee states that they have received the following definition for "NORMAL ACREAGE".

Effective with respect to agreements covering spring-planted commodities, a producer shall be considered to have knowingly exceeded by a substantial amount the acreage normally devoted to the commodity if he has knowingly exceeded by more than ten (10) percent the larger of (a) the allotment, or (b) the highest acreage devoted to the commodity on the farm in the years 1956 or 1957.

This definition is very vital to farmers whom are placing acreage on one farm in the Soil Bank of a commodity and producing the same commodity on another farm. Mr. Bard stated that this definition is more to the farmers advantage than had previously been announced by the county committee in the absence of instructions from State or Federal authorities. For further information contact the ASC Office, Hickman, Kentucky.

The 1958 wool incentive program recently announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be similar to the program in effect during the current marketing year, according to C. C. Vaughn, Chairman, Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

As announced earlier, the shorn wool incentive price in 1958 will be 62 cents per pound, as during the past three years. The payment rate for shorn wool will be the percentage required to bring the national average price received by all producers for sales during the 1958 marketing year up to the 62-cent incentive level. The payment rate for the 1956 marketing year was 40 percent.

Producers who market wool during the 1958 marketing year will be eligible for a payment which will be an amount equal to the percentage rate times the proceeds from the sale of their wool. Payments will be made on the 1958 wool in the summer of 1959, when the tabulation of producer returns is completed.

C. C. Vaughn urges wool producers to get the best possible price for selling their wool. This is important to the grower because, under the percentage method of payment, the higher the price of individual producer gets for his wool in the market, the larger his incentive payment is. This method is designed to encourage producers to do the best possible job of marketing their wool.

The payment method on lambs under the 1958 program will also be the same as under the current 1957 program. Each producer who owns lambs for 30 days or more and sells the lambs unshorn will be eligible for a payment. The payment will be made on the weight increase of the lambs during the period of each producer's ownership.

Payments to producers who buy unshorn lambs and then shear them will be subject to a downward adjustment in any shorn wool incentive payment they apply for. The payments on unshorn lambs will be a fixed rate per hundredweight of live lambs sold. For 1956 marketing, the payment rate on lambs was 71 cents per hundredweight. This price was calculated on the basis of the average shorn wool incentive payment, the average weight of wool per hundred pounds of lamb, and the value of lamb wool in relation to shorn wool.

C. C. Vaughn again reminds wool growers "to keep all sales records in a safe place." The accounts of sale must have the information needed to support the producer's payment application.

TOBACCO DEADLINE IS MARCH 7

The sign-up deadline for the 1958 Acreage Reserve program for tobacco is March 7, as originally set, C. C. Vaughn, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

For corn and upland cotton, he declared, the 1958 Acreage Reserve program has been moved up to February 20, as a result of the unexpectedly heavy sign-up for these crops in some areas.

Farmers in Obion County will continue signing 1958 Acreage Reserve Agreements for tobacco until the funds allocated for the county's program are all obligated. After that, and up until the March 7 deadline, farmers who still want to participate in the program may sign a register of names, and their applications will be given consideration if and when additional funds become available.

The farmer sign-up for all eligible spring-planted crops—corn, upland cotton, and rice, started on January 13. The sign-up for tobacco was delayed by the later date of establishing tobacco allotments.

FINAL DATE FOR CORN LOANS SET

Mr. Roy C. Gray, chairman of the Kentucky ASC Committee, announced today that the final date of availability for 1957 crop farm-stored loans and farm-stored purchase agreements has been set at February 28th, and that the date farmers will be able to deliver their farm-stored loan and farm-stored purchase agreement corn to the Government has been set at April 1st.

Mr. Gray told reporters that the reason that the State Committee has set such an early date for the final date of availability for farm-stored corn loans and purchase agreements, as well as the early date for delivery of this corn to the Government, was because it was the committee's opinion that farmers in Kentucky are not in a position to store corn safely on the farm for the full storage period because of the anguinous moth infestation of corn in this area.

Mr. Gray went on to say that the State Committee's decision did not alter the availability date or the maturity date of warehouse-stored loans and purchase

Cotton Growers Can Arrange For Crop Measurement

Fulton County cotton growers can arrange for official pre-measurement of their 1958 farm cotton acreage allotments or permitted acreage prior to planting time, the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced this week. To get the premeasurement service, which is being provided on a cost basis, a farmer must file a written request with the County ASC office prior to March 15, 1958, says Mr. Bard, committee chairman.

The rate to be charged for the service in Fulton County has been established at $8.00 per farm, plus 25 cents for each acre or fraction thereof of above 5 acres. Payment based on this rate must be made at the time the request for premeasurement is filed.

"The premeasurement is purely optional," says Mr. Bard, "and is offered as a service to farmers who prefer to have an official measurement to use as a guide."

agreements stored in approved 25 type contract elevators with such loans being available through May 31st and to mature on July 31st.

Mr. Gray urged farmers not to sell their corn at the depressed open market price until they had contacted their local ASC office for full particulars on the corn loan and purchase agreement program.

FEBRUARY 20 DATE FOR SIGNING TOBACCO ACREAGE RESERVE AGREEMENTS

February 20 is the beginning of the sign-up period for all types of tobacco under the 1958 Acreage Reserve Program. This is the opening date for Kentucky farmers to place tobacco in the Acreage Reserve Program as announced by Roy C. Gray, Chairman, State ASC Committee. The sign-up period will run through March 7.

Kentucky farmers with allotments of burley, dark-air cured and fire-cured tobacco may participate in the Acreage Reserve Program. Farmers who place their tobacco in the 1958 Acreage Reserve Program will receive a payment for reducing below their allotted acres. Payment will be based on the yield established for the farm (using the base period 1950-1955) times the rate per pound for the respective type (burley — $0.18; fire cured — $0.13; air cured — $0.12). The Kentucky allocation for burley tobacco is $2,457,700; air-cured tobacco is $551,200 and fire-cured tobacco is $662,900.

Counties have received their allocation and agreements will be accepted in the county office on the first-come first-serve basis up to the county allocation. When funds are no longer available, the farmers request will be accepted, and he will be notified to come in and execute an agreement if funds later are available.

Mr. Gray further stated that the participation for corn under the 1958 Acreage Reserve Program was considerable in excess of the allocation. He wishes to remind farmers that February 20 is the final date for accepting requests or withdrawing 1958 Acreage Reserve Agreements for corn.

The counselors are chosen on the basis of maturity and potentials of good leadership.

The counseling job is not new to Betty, a sophomore, as she is currently holding the position and was a Dormitory Senator last year. Each counselor has to assist fifteen freshmen women. The counselors will attend classes which will better prepare them for their jobs.

At Memphis State she is affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority and the Baptist Student Union. She wears the fraternity pin of Charles Binford, which qualifies her for the Kappa Alpha Order Sweetheart's Club in which she is also active.

Betty is majoring in secretarial science.

PCA has a plan that is especially tailored for farmers and is convenient and economical.

1. Loans are made for one to five years.
2. Payments are due when crops and livestock are sold.
3. Interest is figured only on the number of days the money is used.
4. There is an adequate supply of money at all times.
5. No Co-signer is required.
6. All capital stock is owned by local farmers.
7. Credit life insurance is available that will pay loan in case of death or accidental loss of eye or limb.

PCA also makes loans to buy fertilizer, seed, fuel and for other operating expenses.

More and more good farmers are using the Production Credit plan to finance their operations.

Quill And Scroll Members Compile F. H. S. Manual

The Quill and Scroll is conducting a contest to select a creed for FULTON HIGH SCHOOL. This will be used in the school manual which the society is preparing.

The dictionary defines a creed as "a brief statement of the essential points of faith, principles, ideals, opinions, etc."

All entries must be submitted by February 26 to Gloria Hinton. A prize of two dollars will be awarded to the winner.

The Quill and Scroll members have contributed much work in the last few weeks toward the completion of their FULTON HIGH SCHOOL Manual. Two assignment lists have been posted by Gloria Hinton, chairman of the book committee, and the material has been promptly compiled.

The purpose of this manual, which is composed under the supervision of Mr. W. L. Holland, is to serve as a guide to the freshmen of Fulton High so that they will be better able to understand the functions and activities of their school.

It is hoped that the material for the printing of this Fulton High Manual will be ready for printing by March 1, 1958.

FOR MEMBERS ONLY

What About the Worker?

Of all the rights guaranteed by our American way of life, none is greater than the RIGHT TO WORK—the right of the individual to obtain a job of his own choosing, and to contract for his own time on whatever basis he considers best for his own welfare and that of his family.

Whether he prefers to join—or NOT to join—a labor union should be his own private privilege. He should be just as free in this matter as he is free to join—or NOT to join—a lodge, a club or a church.

If a labor union gorilla can be planted in front of the employment office and the door of opportunity CLOSED to the man who prefers NOT to join—NOT to pay-off for the privilege of working—then we need to take a second look at all of the liberty and freedom that we Americans so proudly boast about.

Agricultural Agent, Illinois Central Railroad
CLIPPING... THE SURE WAY TO CLEANER MILK

The clipping of dairy cows is one of the essentials of dairying. Clean pure milk can seldom be produced from udders with long hair. It is almost impossible to sterilize an udder with long hair in the short time most of us in preparing a cow for milking. Most graded milk markets require producers to practice clipping, however, whether you are selling milk to the graded market, for manufactured milk or just using the milk at home, you need to clip your cows.

Many smaller dairymen have some problems in producing milk as well as the larger herds, so we shall look at some of the advantages of clipping and maybe some of your problems will be recognized. First, clipping reduces sediment by removing dirt catching hair; next clipping lowers bacteria count. Hair harbors bacteria as well as dirt and bacteria can not be stained from milk; Clipping saves time and labor. Because the hair is short, it is easy to clean udders with a bactericidal solution. This makes the job of grooming in preparation for milking, much faster, easier and more pleasant; Clipping helps control lice. Tests made at the University of Wisconsin prove that over-all clipping is a very definite aid in controlling lice. We do not clip all the cow in this area but the three or four stripes up the back of the cow will give a great deal of control since this area is commonly called the highway of the lice. By this it is a proven fact that the lice travel to the moisture sources via this route. When this is clipped, entomologist say the lice leave.

The areas of the cow most commonly clipped are: First the tail head and tail, cropping the switch hock high, then the rear udder and fore udder. Next clip as far as can be reached under the belly and run a mark with the clipper on its edge from the milk well to the hock bone and clip the flank to this line and your three stripes up the back and you are through.

If you are a Pet Milk producer, clippers may be rented from the Company. See your Fieldman today. If you desire a demonstration before you clip your herd just let me know or call the Pet Milk Field Department.

TEST YOUR SOIL

It is just good business to have your soil tested before a new crop is started. The testing of soil is especially essential if it has not been analyzed in the last two seasons. You know, we farmers have but one commodity to market with our labor, that is plant food. Any way you look at the situation and is any type of agriculture it all falls back to the same common ground, plant food.

Did you know: it takes 150 pounds of Nitrogen, 23 pounds phosphorus, 72 pounds potash, 26 pounds calcium and 5 million pounds of water to produce 100 bushels of corn? Well, we can not tell you just how much water is in the soil with a test, but it can be determined just how much Nitrogen, Phosphorus, Potash and

State's Top Ten Cities Will Be Judged In March

Towns Showing Most Progress To Be Honored

A 24-man judging team will determine the top ten communities in Kentucky who have shown greatest progress in the field of community development during 1957, the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The judges will meet in Louisville March 3-4, to review the activity of each city or town in Kentucky that entered the 1957 contest, Harper Gattton, Louisville, the state Chamber Executive Vice President, noted. Evidence of achievements by each community are submitted in scrapbook form. Gattton added.

The self-improvement contest is sponsored by the Community Development Committee of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. That committee is chaired by Rufus Thomas, Ashland, Gattton said.

A total of $4,500.00 in cash prizes contributed by Kentucky business firms will be divided among the ten winners. The awards will be made at the Awards Luncheon on April 8.

Calcium is available for the coming crop. The Nitrogen test is variable and is not used by local laboratories, but we do know most farm land is deficient in this element.

It may surprise you just how much your production could be increased by following the recommendation of a soil test and securing proper seeding advice from your County Agricultural Agent or leaders.

In taking your soil sample, be sure to get representative samples of the fields in question. Remember, the soil test is no better than the sample you take. In fields less than ten acres, at least 10 samples should be taken and mixed together for the field sample. If the field has more than ten acres take a sample per acre and mix. Sometime you will have problem fields where there will be hill and bottom land, these, if large enough should be treated as two or sample the bottom as sample A and the upland as sample B and so on. Always take samples 30 steps away from a line or white rock road, 10 steps from an old house site and five from the fence row.

NEVER dry the soil with heat or sunlight. It will give you a false reading. It is not a very good idea to put samples in a can or jar, that is air tight. A cigar box or paper sack will do fine. Your soil test will get back to you much faster and a lot more accurate if samples are taken and managed properly.

AUSTIN SPRINGS Mrs. Carey Fields

This area is in the worst cold snap of the winter. Temperatures reading from four above to four below. Snowfall is about three to four inches and freeze has made driving hazardous on the gravel roads. We are hoping for some more favorable weather very soon.

The condition of Mrs. Susie Fields became grave, the past week and she is now under the care of Dr. G. T. Biggs, Palmersville, Tenn. No hope is held for the aged woman at this writing.

Reports from Sam Mathis who is a patient in the Kennedy Veterans Hospital in Memphis, Tenn. are that he is improving nicely from lung surgery and expects to be home by last of this week.

Rev. Arthur Wilkerson filled his regular appointment at the New Salem Baptist Church the past Sunday. A fair sized audience attended the likeable, faithful new pastor despite the weather.

Mr. Joe Westbrook remains sick at his home near here, due to some virus and complication that developed several weeks ago. Rickie, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rubel Thomas has developed a case of Chicken-pox and has been housed in for several days now.

Deep sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Grover True in the death of his sister, Mrs. Zelma Downing, Union City, Tenn. the past week. Mrs. Downing lived in this area many years ago and friends will regret to hear of her death.

Funeral services and burial took place. No other information can be given from your writer at this time.

Mrs. Sam Mathis has returned from Memphis after attending the bedside of her husband, Sam Mathis, who has been a patient in Kennedy Veterans Hospital for seven weeks. Mrs. Mary Fields is doing nicely now since she sustained a broken arm in a fall five weeks ago, although the cast hasn't been removed. She remains with children, Mr. and Mrs. Biggs Roberts on Murray Road.

Mrs. Dave Mathis this village, is on the mend again, after a seige of cold and asthma.

Telephone Talk

by
HAROLD WILEY
Your Telephone Manager

WHAT'S IT WORTH? Seems to me the simple everyday pleasures in life are those we seem to enjoy most: a leisurely cup of coffee, a friend's cheery hello, the song of a bird. Such little things in life mean a lot, but you can't put a price on them. You only know you'd miss them if you couldn't have them. I like to think of the telephone this way... that it brings folks a lot of pleasure. Naturally, it's a real convenience, too, and it gets a lot of things done fast. But to me it does its best work when used to add a touch of happiness to your day or someone else's. That's why if I were asked to put a value on the telephone beyond its pure usefulness, I'd say it was the "heap of pleasure" it can bring to so many folks. Yes, it's fun to phone.

"NO MATTER HOW SMALL THE PLACE, CASPER MUST HAVE A DEN WITH HIS OWN TELEPHONE."

UNDER THE BLANKET. That's where the first telephone booth was. Here's how it happened. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, and his assistant, Thomas A. Watson, were conducting their experiments. They put a telephone in Watson's boarding house room. Mr. Bell had his phone somewhere else and the two of them talked back and forth. Apparently, they were rather noisy and Watson's landlady complained. So, Watson improvised a telephone booth by throwing the blankets from his bed over the instrument to shut in the noise. Then he crawled under the blanket to talk. Today, we don't have "to holler" over the phone, and modern telephone booths keep noise out and let you call in comfort. These and other telephone conveniences are the result of continuing research to help make your telephoning more pleasant.

License was issued to James Lockett, doing business as Jitterbug Inn.

It is reported that Mr. Treas was advised by the State Administrator to suspend the State License and forward it to the Department.

The action by the City Administrator grew out of a notice issued for the Duns to appear before the City Council at its meeting on February 10th when it was formerly reported that two members of the Council expressed unwillingness to revoke the license at that time.

The situation as reported by the City Administrator was that the Grand Jury in January indicted James and Alice Dunn for maintaining a common nuisance, and that a number of indictments were returned by the same Grand Jury against various persons for offenses allegedly occurring in or about the Jitterbug Inn.

merchants collectively. We hope that CCA will assist merchants in the "trade-at-home" movement being sponsored by WFUL.

But let's get back to the women. More and more women are influencing all kinds of purchasing power from a man's suit to a tractor. The percentage of influence is the largest in history with Time magazine quoting this week that "from 20 to 85 per cent of America's women holding the purse strings of the family." So you can see that with nearly 6000 women doing some harnessing buying, local merchants have a real trade-at-home program with WFUL's CCA.

A complete report will be published next week, and all those who have not completed their assigned districts are asked to please do so as quickly as possible.
