WEEKLY NEW ERA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1906.

VOLUME XXVI, NO. 9

ON THE FIFTEENTH

OF FEBRUARY FOUR MURDERERS WILL BE EXECUTED.Hangman's Day in Kentucky.—Interesting Question Arises In Case of Ben Huffaker.

Friday, February 15, will be hangman's day in Kentucky. So far arrangements have been completed for the sending of four men to the gallows on that day in this state. Governor Beckham has set that date for the execution of two murderers, whose death sentences were affirmed by the court of appeals recently. They were Jesse Fitzgerald, who is to hang in Knox county, and Ben Huffaker now a convict in the Eddyville penitentiary, serving a life term for murder, and who will be swung up for having slain a fellow convict. Both are negroes.

Just a few days ago the governor set February 15 as the same for the execution at Russellville of Guy Lyon and W. R. Fletcher, who criminally assaulted the little German girl, Mary Gladder. Both are white men.

In connection with the pending execution of Ben Huffaker, the convict, an interesting question has been raised whether it will be necessary for the governor to grant him a pardon for the offense for which he is now serving a life sentence, before he can be hung for the latter charge.

In 1895 George McGee a convict in the penitentiary, killed a fellow convict, and after a trial in court was sentenced to be hanged. Governor Brown pardoned him for his former crime, so he could be hanged for the latter, but it is thought that the opinion of the court of appeals in the case of this latest convict murder indicates that such a course will not have to be followed by the governor to make it legal to carry out the sentence.

HEARTS & MASKS

A MASTERPIECE OF MERRIMENT

By HAROLD MACGRATH

"Hearts and Masks" is a delicious detective story—a mystery, a robbery, an unmasking and all, but yet with this plot a bright, unconventional, witty dialogue that keeps the mind on the alert continually."
—Boston Journal.

"Here, indeed, is a joy-spreading story that is as spirited and swift in action as anything well could be. It is light, yet it is carried forward with a swing and go that seize the reader at the start and never release him."
—Nashville American.

When Harold MacGrath wrote this most exhilarating story, he was in his gayest mood and full of the zest of life.

"A peculiarly ingenious story, done with a light and cheerful touch that keeps the reader in amused suspense until the last page."
—New York Herald.

"The dialogues are crisp and witty and the story is told with a dash and vim which makes it highly interesting."
—Pittsburgh Times.

"For frenzied romance served hot in a pungent sauce of modernity, taste the latest concoction in literary cuisineries served by that eleventh hour modern, Harold MacGrath, in his 'Hearts and Masks'."
—New York Telegram.

"Take Harold MacGrath's story 'Hearts and Masks' with a grain of salt and simply enjoy it—there is no necessity of believing it, nobody wants you to!"
—Philadelphia Telegraph.

At every page the adventure turns an unexpected corner. It seems with breathless excitement sparkling dialogue, fascinating, glittering atmosphere.

"Hearts and Masks" the very title suggests another of those blithely irresponsible romances of Mr. Harold MacGrath. Of course, it never could have happened, but it is delightful to believe just the same."
—New York Globe.

"A night's wild adventures, all told in the comedy vein, Mr. MacGrath's story is well invented, and he tells the invention capably, carrying it on with a wealth of incidents and much attention to detail."
—New York Evening Mail.

This story will appear serially in this paper, and you will like it. Watch for the opening chapters of this remarkable mystery of the ten of hearts.

CHAIRMAN RADFORD

ISSUES A STATEMENT TO THE ASSOCIATION MEMBERSShows the Strength of the Organization and Gives Out Some Important Facts.

To the Members of the Dark Tobacco Association of Christian county:

A great deal has been said in regard to our association members selling tobacco in violation of their pledge, in fact it has come to me a number of times that I had sold the tobacco off of the John W. Terrell place. I would not for a moment question who it is that starts these reports. Mr. Jno. Boyd has every lb. of his crop raised on the Terrell place in the association and I have not sold a pound, and it can't be bought on the outside for $20.00 per hundred much less the little insignificant price that some are willing to take. Some 4½ years ago I realized that something had to be done for our country and for our homes or the most of us would be sold out. Mr. Chas. Fort and Mr. Charley Barker and a few others and myself went to work on this uncertain proposition, a leap in the dark a great many called it, but something had to be done. Necessity is said to be the great lever by which our lives are made useful or they are ruined. I don't know any such word as fail in the association. At our meeting last week at Guthrie, we had the greatest and largest gathering we ever had, it took two long days to transact the business, and I am not certain we got through then. We had representatives from the Ohio on the north, Mississippi river on the west, to the cotton counties on the south, and as far east as Lafayette, Tenn., taking in all of the dark tobacco exporting counties of Kentucky and Tennessee. Capt. Stone, the old Confederate leader, chairman of Lyon county, was one among our number. I want to say that our association is today stronger than it has ever been, we have more counties in our rank than ever before, and in the western district, we are stronger than we have been at any time. Some of our counties have 85 to 97% of their tobacco in the association. Now some one might ask where are you so strong? Dr. Dunn and his vice-chairman of Robertson county will tell you that Robertson is one of these counties, old brother Joe Johnson of Logan county will tell you the same thing about Logan; Mr. Reynolds of Todd, Dr. Claypool of Simpson and Polk Prince of Montgomery all will tell you the same thing in regard to the strength of their counties. Now some one will ask how is Christian. Our secretary, Mr. Will Glass told me at the last meeting that we had pledged between 5,700 and 6,000 acres. Last year we had about 5,500 acres in the association. Then some one will say, But so many are selling, now whose fault is this, if our members in every district would come to Hopkinsville and report to his committee man who had sold and order his committee man and his chairman to bring suit against these parties it would check at once all that sold on the outside, in fact the courts have decided both in Kentucky and Tennessee that the buyer that bought association tobacco was liable for damages, and the association member that sold had violated his contract for he pledged it to the association to be sold, now I am sorry to say as chairman of Christian county our members have neglected their neighbor, for whenever one that is in the association sells his or any part of his crop he lays himself liable to be sued by the association for damage. Now in case you work share hands you have no right to sell your interest of this share tobacco and you are as much to blame as they are when you sell crop raised by hired hands. I am sorry to say that we had to stop several crops and put them back into the prize houses. I am sorry also to tell you that we have a number of suits to be brought in the circuit court against parties who have sold, also against the parties that bought the tobacco. I would suggest that the buyer in order to

GEN. STEPHEN D. LEE WILL AP-
POINT NONE THIS YEAR.Head of U. C. V. Declares The Old Soldiers Are Lost Sight Of At The Reunions.

Two important orders to Confederate veterans, issued by Stephen D. Lee, General, U. C. V., are made public. Speaking of the appointing of sponsors and maids of honor by the United Confederate Veterans, Gen Lee said:

"It cannot be denied that what was intended as an honor to the descendants of the glorious women of the Confederacy has grown to such a degree that the Confederate soldiers have, in a manner, been forced into second places."

He announces that this matter will be brought to the attention of the Richmond reunion this year, and that pending action by the veterans at this convention, he will abstain from appointing a chief sponsor and maid of honor for the Richmond reunion.

"It is absolutely necessary," he continues, "that the expenses of the reunion cities be reduced and he (the general) wishes it distinctly understood that the outlay for entertainment of all sponsors and maids of honor must be borne by those who make that appointment."

The second order announces the date of the seventeenth annual reunion for June 1, 2 and 3 next.

TRAIN SPED TO NASHVILLE WITH-OUT MR. HIGGINS.

Sues Road For His Missed Engagement And For The Way Conductor Talked to Him.

J. D. Higgins has filed a rather unusual suit for damages against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad company, the total amount prayed for being $508.60.

The plaintiff claims in his petition that on November 25, 1906, he and his little son took passage on the accommodation for Nashville. Reaching Guthrie he was told that the train would wait twenty minutes and he and his son went in the lunch room nearby to get something to eat, and while in there and in less than twelve minutes the train pulled out without giving any warning whatever. He was therefore unable to go to Nashville and had to return to this city without filling a business engagement which he had, damaging him to the amount of $253.60.

The plaintiff further states that when he left the train at Guthrie he left his overcoat on the seat and when the train returned there that night he met it at the depot and asked the conductor about the garment. He claims that the conductor told him in a very irritated manner to see the flagman about it and then with an oath said: "I suppose you will get about $2,000 for the way I treated you this morning." Plaintiff claims that he was damaged another $250 by this language, making a total of $503.60.

A petition asking for $2,000 damages has been filed by the Hopkinsville Canning company against the Illinois Central, the Big Four and the Louisville & Nashville Railroad companies jointly. It is alleged that on August 28, 1906, a car load of three-pound cans was shipped to them from Indianapolis over the Big Four as original carrier and the other two roads as connecting lines, but that the shipment was delayed and did not reach here until September 14. As a result of this they claim to have been forced to undergo heavy expense in securing another lot of cans, that a big lot of tomatoes rotted and had to be thrown away, that they had to handpack another lot in order to save them and that they were forced to shut down the plant for five days, all of which damaged them to the amount prayed for.

SCALY ERUPTIONS COVERED HIS BODY

Itched Constantly—Scratched Until Blood Flowed—Suffered 10 Years—Doctors and Medicines Were Fruitless—Tries Cuticura and Is Completely Cured

BY THREE BOXES OF CUTICURA OINTMENT

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and shortly afterwards both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal, but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From that time onward I was troubled by such severe itching that, until I became accustomed to it, I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days; but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years I made a renewed effort to effect a cure. The eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctor in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then used to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodine, sulphur, zinc salve, and Cuticura Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two boxes or bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used Cuticura, but it did no good. A few months after, having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. After using three boxes I was completely cured, and my hair was restored, after fourteen years of suffering and an expenditure of at least $50 to $60 in vainly endeavoring to find a cure. I shall be glad to write to any one who may be interested in my cure. B. Hiram Mattingly, Vermillion, S. Dak., Aug. 18, 1906."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not unusual to find a woman for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. BREAKING OF BAND

CAUSED MISS MASON TO SUSTAIN PAINFUL INJURY.

Fell From Her Horse And Received a Deep Cut On Her Head.—Condition Not Serious.

(From Friday's Daily)

Miss Lottie Mason, daughter of Mrs. M. A. Mason, met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon. She was riding horseback on the road near her home, about five miles south of Hopkinsville on the Clarksville pike, when the girth of her saddle broke and she was hurled violently to the ground. Her head came in contact with a stone and a deep gash was cut on the top of the head. The accident was witnessed by friends who were driving nearby in a buggy and they hastened to her assistance. The blood flowed so freely from the wound that Miss Mason's clothes were saturated with blood before she could be taken home, and reports reached the city that she was dangerously injured. Prompt attention of physicians was secured and the wound was skillfully stitched. Miss Mason is doing well today and no serious consequences from the accident are feared.

CAN OF POWDER EXPLODES AND WRECKS A GROCERY STORE

CAUSED BY CARELESSNESS OF A CIGARETTE SMOKER.— BUILDING WRECKED AND ONE MAN WAS INJURED.
—FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED.

The grocery of Jim Buckner, on East First street, just at the city limits, was considerably damaged and set on fire by the explosion of a can of powder into which some loquacious in the store had carelessly dropped the hot ashes from a cigarette. The can, said to have been nearly half full of powder, was standing on the floor. Into this the hot ashes fell and immediately the explosion took place and a big portion of the roof went skyward. A colored man named Harris was painfully burned by the explosion, but his wounds are not considered serious. No one else was hurt but there was immediately a wild scramble for the doors. The fire department was called out and put out the fire but the grocery, together with its contents, was wrecked.

A suit charging Dr. Eugene Croft, of Crofton, with malpractice and praying for $1,500 damages, was filed yesterday afternoon by C. H. Bnsh and Southall & Son as attorneys for J. W. Morris, of the Crofton vicinity.

In the petition it is alleged that during the latter part of November or early in December the plaintiff severely cut his wrist while killing hogs. He sent for Dr. Croft, but he charged that the physician merely washed the wound and sewed it up without taking any means of reuniting the leaders which he insisted were severed, and then afterward sutured the wound in such a negligent and unskillful manner that the arm and arm were permanently disabled.

Hopkins County Democrats Lay Down
Platform For Their Candidate
For Representative.

The Democratic committee of Hopkins county has met and called a primary to be held on May 13, to nominate a candidate for representative. At the meeting the following resolutions were adopted:

First—Pledge to voters of Hopkins county that said nominee, if elected, will vote and work to force railroad companies of Kentucky to only charge two cents per mile for riding on passenger trains in Kentucky.

Second—Pledge said nominee, if elected, to vote for and use all honorable means to have laws passed to prevent railroad companies from discriminating against small shippers.

Third—We further pledge said nominee, if elected, to vote for and try to have laws passed forcing railroad companies in Kentucky to accept and handle all freight offered them without delay.

Fourth—We wish to express our appreciation of the services rendered the people in Kentucky by the Hon. C. C. McChord, chairman of the board of railroad commissioners, for trying to have the laws enforced in the interest of all shippers, regardless of whether they are large or small, when the railroad companies fail to comply with the law, and we hope the good Democrats of Mr. McChord's district will see proper to endorse and nominate him for reelection.

At the first sign of lameness he jumps down, examines the foot and carefully removes the cause of the lameness. What is called "weak stomach" is like the lameness of the horse, only to be cured by removing the cause of the trouble. If you stimulate the stomach with "whisky medicines" you keep it going, but every day the condition is growing worse. A few doses sometimes of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will put the disordered stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition in perfect condition. Ninety-eight times in every hundred "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure the worst ailments originating in diseases of the stomach. It always cures. It almost always cures. As a result of recent reports that the postoffice department contemplates the adoption of a mechanical device for the delivery of mail on rural routes, the department has received numerous requests for tests of devices, including schemes for distribution by trolley wire, with a view to adoption in lieu of the present method. Fourth Assistant Postmaster General DeGraw, who has jurisdiction over the rural delivery service, in a statement says the department has never contemplated the adoption of a mechanical device for the delivery of mail, nor will tests be given any such device, as the idea is impracticable.

Be Made Better.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The employees of the City Light company are busy to-day putting in new street lights, replacing the old open arc lights which have done duty for so many years. It is expected that the work of making the changes will be completed today and that the new lights will be turned on tonight.

The new lights are known as the Thomson enclosed arc light and are very different in appearance from the old ones. The light is enclosed now in a long slender globe which is surmounted by a heavy tin shade. This globe is supported entirely from the top, there being no metal or other fixtures at the bottom to cast a shadow as was the case with the old ones. It is claimed that the new lights will be a great improvement over the old ones for although they will not require as strong a current they burn more steadily and without the flickering noticeable in so many arc lights.

The new dynamo and other machinery which is to supply the current for the arc lights are about in position and it is expected that these will furnish the current tonight. This machinery is all brand new and of the latest and most approved type and in conjunction with the lights which are being installed today, is expected to give the city better street lights than it has ever had. No further trouble is expected to bother the arcs after they are turned on tonight.

New machinery has also been ordered to supply the current for the incandescent lights, but on account of the rush in the factory this will not be received for some time yet. It is possible that when the new dynamo for the arc lights becomes thoroughly adjusted and is working satisfactorily in every respect, that the incandescent lights will be switched on to it and it made to carry the double load until the new outfit for the latter is received and installed.

ROSS ELGIN, DESPONDENT OVER CONTINUED ILL HEALTH, ENDS HIS LIFE WITH PISTOL SHOT

DEAD BODY WAS FOUND IN ROOM AT HOTEL LATHAM, A BULLET IN HIS BRAIN, AND A REVOLVER STILL GRASPED IN HIS HAND.
—POPULAR AND CAPABLE YOUNG CITIZEN.

(From Monday's Daily)
Ross E. Elgin committed suicide in room 321 of the Hotel Latham this morning between 6:30 and 7 o'clock by shooting himself through the right temple with a 38-calibre Smith & Wesson hammerless revolver. Evidently the weapon had been carefully aimed for the bullet crashed almost directly through the temple and into the brain, passing in its course just back of the right eye which was almost entirely destroyed. Death must have been instantaneous for the body showed no indication of even the convulsive contracting of the muscles. The right hand, still tightly gripping the pistol, fell in a natural position just across the dead man's chest, and if the horrible wound and the clotted blood had not been visible, to have looked at him one would have thought him asleep.

Body Discovered.
The fatal shot was heard by a traveling man who roomed next to him, but he did not attach any special significance to the report and did not investigate or say anything about it. Shortly after 7 o'clock Capt. Whitlow, the proprietor of the hotel, who occupies room 221, rang for some ice water. The bell boy made a mistake and went to 321, Mr. Elgin's room, and he was the first to discover the body.

The only cause which is given for the rash act is ill health. For several days Mr. Elgin had been threatened with the return of a complicated bowel disease from which he came near dying about five years ago, and he had worked himself up to a highly wrought nervous condition over the prospect. Last night he went to the hotel and was assigned to room 321. He went up to it at once and nothing more was heard from him until his dead body was discovered by the bell boy. In the room were evidences of his having eaten some fruit before retiring.

No letter or message could be found and the suicide is attributed to despondency over his ill health.

Mr. Elgin was thirty-five years of age and unmarried. His aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Elgin, reside about seven miles from town on the Fairview pike as does his brother, Jesse Elgin. W. S. Elgin, another brother, is manager of the Nortonville Coal company at Nortonville, and Mrs. Walter Shaw, of this city, is his sister. Messrs. George, Louis and Edgar Elgin, of this city, and Rev. Virgil Elgin, of Marion, are cousins. Mr. Elgin was a popular and capable young business man and was connected with the Elgin Cigar Company.

An inquest was held this morning and a verdict of suicide was returned. This afternoon the remains were taken to the residence of Walter Shaw, on South Virginia street, by representatives of the Elks lodge of which the deceased was a member. A simple funeral service will be held at Mr. Shaw's tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by the Rev. H. D. Smith. The interment will be in Hopewell cemetery with rites of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

POSTOFFICE, CLERKS

WILL SOON BE GIVEN A NICE INCREASE

Carriers Are Also Liberally Provided For in the New Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Post-office clerks will be liberally dealt with in the new appropriation bill, which will be reported from the postoffice committee within a few days. Clerks in the first and second class postoffices in towns containing less than 25,000 population, will be advanced according to classification, from $600 to $900 a year. Those in towns of from 25,000 to 75,000 population will be advanced according to classification, from $600 to $1,200 each. Railway mail clerks, who have had to bear not only the burden of the additional cost of living, but the risk of accident, will receive $100 more in each grade after a year's service.

Carriers are also liberally provided for. Those of cities of less than 25,000 will be advanced, according to classification from $600 to $900; those in cities with a population between 25,000 and 75,000 from $600 to $1,000. The increases will entail an expenditure of the part of the government of $5,000,000. It is also believed that before the bill is reported it will carry an increase for rural free delivery carriers.

COOL PARTNERSHIP

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 25.—Prof. Shailer Matthews, junior dean of the University of Chicago divinity school, in a talk on "Divorce" to the members of the adults' bible class of the Kenwood Evangelical church yesterday, declared divorce is too common and the lack of true love the cause.

"The real basis of marriage is love and love means that the one should sacrifice for the other," he said. "Marriage implies that the man and woman enter under obligations to each other. A great majority of our divorces will be found to grow out of common, everyday troubles, which could be prevented or healed up if only the husband or the wife were willing to make allowance for each other and to sacrifice."

"If there is love there will be sacrifice. Incompatibility of temper can be overcome by love and by learning to make allowances for each other's faults. The attitude of the people at present makes for an increase in divorces. People begin to believe that because others divorce that it is all right. But this is a blow at pure family life."

"In this materialistic age somehow or other we are carrying over the idea that marriage can be made a partnership. We leave out of consideration love, upon which it is founded. Instead of there being two joined together for life, marriage is getting to be regarded as a sort of comradeship, more or less loose, to be terminated when one or the other of the parties tires of it."

"Instead of the sacred ideal of marriage and family life given us by the bible, we have marriage regarded as a sort of picnic, in which two persons get together as long as they can have a good time or as long as they are young."

Cousins and Lovers Carry Out Pact To Die Together.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Sarah Kling, aged 18, of Orchard street, was shot and instantly killed by her cousin, Meyer Schwartz, aged 17, at his home, at 105 Broom street. Schwartz then shot and killed himself. It is believed the boy and girl entered into a pact to die together because their parents objected to their fondness for each other. Three notes were found, all signed by the boy. One read as follows: "My father did not allow me to go to her. Her mother did not want her to go to me, and therefore we both go together."

With Arms Entwined Unknown Pair Stood in Front of Train.

CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 28.—With arms entwined, an unknown young man and young woman stood on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Electric road, over Newton Creek, Sunday, and calmly waited until an electric train ran them down. Both were killed, and their bodies were hurled into the water. The body of the young woman, who was about twenty-five years old, was recovered and brought to the morgue here. The body of the man has not been recovered.

RAILROAD IS SUED

BY TRUSTEES OF NATIONAL FRATERNAL UNION.

For Failure to Deliver Tents, Canvas, Fence, etc., in Time For The Carnival.

Suit for $1,000 damages has been filed by W. A. Cantrell, L. B. Cayce, C. A. Brackrogge and H. W. Tibbs as trustees of Council No. 8, National Fraternal Union, against the Louisville & Nashville railroad company.

The suit is the outcome of the failure to deliver a lot of tents, poles and a canvas fence in time to be used at the carnival which was given by the National Fraternal Union last fall. In the petition it is alleged that the fault in this delay was with the Louisville & Nashville railroad company, they having received the shipment from the Chicago & Alton railroad at East St. Louis on October 9 but not delivering same here until October 18 or three days after the carnival had opened.

The plaintiffs claim that by reason of this failure upon the part of the defendants to deliver these tents, they were forced to secure tents and poles from Evansville and to purchase fencing from local stores and have same erected all of which cost them a considerable extra sum.

FELAND WAS TIMID.

WOULDN'T LET CHINAMAN PRACTICE JIU JITSU ON HIM.

Jap Thought Cell Was Hotel Bed Room And Wanted to Pay For Lodging.

(From Friday's Daily)

The case against Ben Hermond, the Japanese charged with taking a watch from Jo Hong, one of the Chinese laundrymen, and who was arrested by Louis Chang, the partner of Hong, was presented in the city court yesterday afternoon and after hearing the testimony Judge Brasher held the Jap over to the county court and his trial will be held today. The city courtroom was filled with an interested crowd and the trial was one of the most entertaining which has taken place in a long time.

The Jap is a larger and heavier man than the Chinaman who captured him at the L. & N. depot and brought him to the police office despite his violent struggles. Chang was asked how he managed to control a man who was so much larger and stronger. He smiled knowingly and said that it was by Jiu Jitsu. Turning to John Feland who was an attorney in the case and sitting near by, the Chinaman said, "Me could allee samee bring you down samee way." The lawyer however asked to be excused from posing as an example.

Hermond was kept in the county jail last night where he was given one of the most comfortable and beautifully furnished rooms in that popular hostelry and yesterday morning a steaming hot breakfast which evidently just suited his appetite was sent up to him. When Walker Gibson, the colored turnkey went up to the Jap's cell the celestial pulled out a handful of money and asked for his bill which he wanted to settle. He was very much surprised when told that his lodging and breakfast would cost him nothing.

HOME ENDORSEMENT

Hundreds of Hopkinsville Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Hopkinsville people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Hopkinsville reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

J. B. Cravens, blacksmith, of 320 West 19th St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills practically gave me a new back. For three or four years a kidney trouble had caused me the most constant and severe aches and pains through my back and compelled me to constantly complain in more than one way. When arising in the morning I felt sore and lame and had to make a great effort to dress myself. The trouble grew worse and a weakness of the kidneys set in which caused me a great deal of annoyance. Willing to try almost anything I purchased Doan's Kidney Pills as soon as I saw them advertised locally and got a box, at L. A. Johnson & Co's drug store. They brought me a great deal of benefit. My back is well and strong now and the trouble with the kidney secretions is much relieved. I have a great deal of faith in Doan's Kidney Pills. For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and send him numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms. Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as strictly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal examinations are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One laxative, two or three cathartics.

FIGHT OF INTEREST

IS ON FOR THE POST OFFICE AT PEMBROKE

Mr. Mann, the Incumbent, Has Opposition in the Person of T. A. Miller.—Petitions Out.

A right interesting fight has developed during the past few days over the Pembroke postmastership, according to the Pembroke Journal.

Postmaster Mann is an applicant for reappointment and is opposed by T. A. Miller. Both have circulated petitions among the patrons of the office, and have each secured numerous signers. Mr. Miller is said to have the endorsement of many prominent political leaders, while Mr. Mann also stands high with party leaders. Both the applicants are straight out and loyal Republicans and will continue to wage an active fight until the appointment is made. Postmaster Mann's term will expire next July.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Nearly every person who is subject to attacks from the stomach suffers from a morbid dread of a dietetic treatment for relief, that is three-fourths starvation, and one-fourth toast and milk. On the other hand you can eat as you please and digest the food by the aid of a good digestant, thus giving the tired stomach equally as much rest. Eat what you please and take a little Kodol For Indigestion after your meals. It digests what you eat. Sold R. C. Hardwick.

Wise Counsel From The South.

ON BACKSLIDING

EVANGELIST WALT HOLCOMB
DELIVERS SERMON.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Rev. Walt Holcomb came to Hopkinsville with an almost national reputation as an evangelist, and it is probable that the audiences which greeted him the first two or three times he preached at the Methodist church, were of a very critical nature but no one who has heard him deliver his message fails to understand why he has proven such an instrument for good. While yet a young man, being about thirty years old, he preaches with such force and effect that calloused hearts which had rebuffed the message from older and more experienced divines, are touched and melted. That the future years hold for the bright promises of still further great work in the Master's vineyard no one doubts.

Last night the crowd which gathered to hear the evangelist preach was so large that every chair available was placed in the aisles and then there were not seats enough to accommodate those who came and many stood up to hear the sermon. Mr. Holcomb believes in getting the church members in the proper spirit and relation toward God before going after the sinners outside of the church. His sermon last night was on backsliding and his plea with all those who had once known God but had departed from him to return to the fold and to again be numbered with the saints, was one of the most tender and touching appeals which has ever been made in Hopkinsville. He stated that if there was any difference, God felt more tenderly toward a backslider than he did toward any other sinner. This was because the former had once been a member of God's people and his leaving and going back into sin was like the breaking of an earthly family circle and the return of the prodigal was the cause of even more joy than the saving of a soul which had never been converted. After the sermon several signified their intention of turning and once more resuming their places in the church.

Mr. Smoot, the accomplished soloist who has added so much to the meeting by his leading in singing and by his solos, was called home last night by the critical illness of his mother. Mr. Smoot received two telegrams yesterday bidding him come immediately and he left last night, his home being in Washington, Ind. If his mother recovers sufficiently for him to leave her he will return at the earliest possible moment, but in the meantime some one else will be secured to lead the singing. Mr. Holcomb and Rev. A. P. Lyon now being in communication with several. The absence of Mr. Smoot at this time is greatly to be regretted as he had made a most favorable impression by his excellent work during the short time he has been here, and by reason of his long association with Mr. Holcomb he thoroughly understood the evangelist's methods and knew what songs he desired at certain occasions.

SOME EXCITEMENT

The report that Godfrey Ray, the negro who shot and killed Marshal John Dickinson at Trenton several weeks ago, had been captured at Scottsville, Ky., and brought here for safe-keeping, was started last night from the fact that a negro prisoner spent the night here en route to the penitentiary at Eddyville.

PEACE NOW PREVAILS IN PRINCETON DISTRICT.

Independents Threaten Retaliatory Measures.—Factions Agree to Let Each Other Alone.

(Courier-Journal.)

PADUCAH, Ky., Jan. 30.—Members of the Dark Tobacco Growers' Association and independent tobacco growers have effected a compromise, and all is peace and harmony in Lyon and Caldwell counties. Every resident in these counties may now go to bed with no fear of molestation from "night raiders."

Final adjustment was effected yesterday at Kuttawa. The Dark Tobacco Growers' delegates agreed to see that no more lawlessness is perpetrated, that independent dealers are unmolested, and further, that the writing of anonymous letters threatening destruction of property if the receiver does not join the Dark Growers' forces, shall cease. Independent and association men settled on this same basis in Caldwell county some two weeks ago, but Lyon county seemed to have been the hotbed of the trouble, and after several futile attempts a conference was held between representatives of both factions.

"We simply informed the Dark Growers that if any further lawlessness developed, we would resort to the same method, and for every Independent barn burned we would burn ten association barns." A well-known Kuttawa tobacco man stated this had the desired effect.

"They realized we could play the game as well as they, and an agreement was easily reached yesterday. We have been doing business in our town four firms. They are E. J. O'Brien & Co., Paducah; Smith & Anderson, Clarksville; A. B. Jarvis, Henderson; and the Association. The Dark Tobacco Growers' Association has tobacco barns in Kuttawa, and the other two firms will load at the railroad."

HOPPER COURT NOW

PROMISES TO BE POPULAR PLACE FOR HOME.

What promises to be one of the prettiest residence sections of the city is Hopper Court. The big front lawn of the Hooper homestead on Eighteenth street has been undergoing improvements for several weeks with the end in view of making this a most desirable place for a home.

Between nine and ten thousand feet of concrete walks and driveways have already been laid and either a concrete or stone wall will be built along the front of the court. The entire front now is laid with a concrete pavement and a concrete driveway leads from the street, through the center of the court, to the front of the Hooper home. On either side of this driveway and separated from it by neat grass plots, are concrete walk ways.

There will be four lots on each side of this driveway and fronting on it, these being 40x110 feet. These will be sold only to desirable parties who make the purchase for the sole purpose of building a home on it. Mr. Hooper reserving the right to take back the property at the purchase price should the purchaser decide not to build upon it.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY DIED OF PNEUMONIA

WILL FURNISH TWO CARLOADS OF LOGS

Capt. J. W. Riley, of Newstead brought to Hopkinsville this morning five logs, the first delivered here of the two carloads which Christian county will furnish to be used in the construction of the Fort of Boonesboro, Kentucky's state building at the Jamestown exposition. J. B. Walker has charge of the collection of logs in this county, which will supply more than any other county and will prove a splendid advertisement of the enterprise of Christian county citizens. He has secured various varieties of timber, but needs a few more to complete his shipment. Appropriate inscriptions will be made of the names of persons and firms furnishing the logs and of the counties in which the timber was grown. Kentucky's building will be a distance of about three or four blocks from the main court of the exposition grounds.

Anyone who will donate logs are requested to notify Mr. Walker at once.

The logs Capt. Riley brought in today were delivered at the Hopkinsville Lumber Co.'s yards.

New Processioners.

B. F. Fuller, J. T. Walker and W. F. Lacey having resigned their office as composing the board of processioners for Christian county, Judge Breathitt has appointed E. W. Woodburn, Jas. L. McCord and M. C. Lunderman as the new board.

Correspondents Wanted.

The New Era is revising its list of correspondents and desires to appoint some one to act in this capacity in every section of Christian and adjacent counties which is not now represented. We have a most attractive proposition to make to persons who will undertake the work and always be on the alert to secure the news and to get it to this office in the shortest time possible. We will pay all postage, telephone toll, etc., and will make it worth your while to represent us. If interested address,

POWDER IN POCKET

Suddenly Exploded and Boys Were Badly Burned.

At Dawson Springs, Ky., Harry Scott, Douglas Dorris and James Workman, boys about fifteen years old, went into a coal mine and filled their pockets with blasting powder. They came out later and started a fire at the mouth to keep warm.

As they stood around the fire emptying their pockets a fearful explosion occurred, and the Scott boy was frightfully burned about the face and body and will probably die. His clothing was burned from his body. He ran through the snow for a mile to his home, where he fell in a faint. The other two boys were also badly burned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Official announcement has been made that not only will the opera Salome be dropped at the Metropolitan opera house, the proprietors of which made complaint, but that Carried will not present it elsewhere in New York City. No decision has been made yet as to the production of it in other cities.

MRS. ELIZABETH KINKEAD, AGED TO PASSED AWAY.

Former Employee of the Asylum Succumbs to the Same Disease in San Francisco.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kinkead, the venerable wife of James Kinkead, died of pneumonia this morning at five o'clock at her home on East Broad street. She was seventy years of age, having been born April 18, 1837. She had been married to Mr. Kinkead, who survives her, fifty-two years. She leaves two children, John Kinkead, and Miss Bell Kinkead. The deceased was a Cumberland Presbyterian and devoted Christian. She was a member of Antioch church. The funeral will take place at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning at the late residence, conducted by the Rev. A. C. Biddle.

Dies in San Francisco.

Gilbert Whitescarver, age 30 years whose family are attendant at the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, died yesterday at San Francisco. Pneumonia was the cause of death. The remains will be taken to Owensboro, the former home of the deceased, for interment.

Funeral On Friday.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Blakey will take place Friday at Auburn. Members of Dr. Blakey's family met there yesterday to attend the last sad rites. Dr. Blakey and another son of the deceased were in the east when their mother died and were summoned by telegrams to Auburn. Mrs. Blakey's death was sudden. She was seventy years of age.

DELAY A BOON

Woman May be Freed Because Victim Lived Over a Year.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Jennie L. May, indicted for assault with intent to kill, is on trial for shooting Lucien Conen, former member of the Marine band. Mrs. May could not be indicted for murder or manslaughter because her victim lived for more than a year after being shot. He remained in a helpless condition until last October at his home in Louisville.

A few days before the year was up it was thought every day that Conen was dying.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 25.—Chairman Ernst today called a meeting of the Republican state central committee to be held here February 15.

LAND MISSING MAN.

BATTYVILLE, Ky., Jan. 26.—John Abner, indicted with Judge James Hargis and others for the murder of Dr. B. D. Cox, and also with B. F. French and others for the murder of James B. Marcum, was arrested here on a copy of his bail bond procured from the clerk of the Lee county court by Jesse Spicer, one of his bondsmen. He was lodged in jail by Sheriff Sizemore. Much excitement prevailed for a time, until he was behind the bars. A pistol and knife were taken from him.

Abner denies that he has made any confession, and said he had not seen Smith since the late trial at Jackson.

Gardening time is coming and you will need seeds. Get them free by taking advantage of the New Era's great offer which is fully explained on page 2 of this section of the paper.

RAILROAD INDICTED

L. & N. HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER IN HENRY

Action Marks New Departure in Court's Criminal and Civil Practice.

NEW CASTLE, Ky., Jan. 31.—

Charles H. Stanford, commonwealth's attorney of this judicial district, has procured an indictment by the grand jury of the Henry circuit court against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company, on the charge of involuntary manslaughter. This is the first time that an indictment on that charge was ever returned against a railroad in this part of the state, and it is believed that it is the first time such an indictment was ever found in Kentucky.

The indictment is founded on the killing of Press Corbin in a railroad collision on the road of the accused company, which occurred several months ago near Sulphur, in this county. If the indictment can be sustained on the charge in the circuit and appellate courts, it will amount to a radical departure in criminal practice, and will no doubt affect the civil practice so far as damage suits are concerned.

The following letter to prizees has been sent out by Assistant General Manager FRAZER:

GLENRAVEN, Tenn., Jan. 22.—

To the Prizees:
Rumors are coming in every day relative to the condition of tobacco being delivered at the prizeing house. It is in too high order and every prizee knows the danger resulting; you should refuse to receive tobacco delivered thus; it is in direct violation of your contract, and results only in dissatisfaction and justifiable complaint.

You should protect yourselves as prizees on every point possible, and by demanding that the farmer bring his tobacco in good order, you insure a better handling, and in the end, better prices.

The work of the prizees will be more closely inspected this year, than heretofore. Upon this—the correct handling of our tobacco—depends largely our success in obtaining the prices we expect and to sustain our reputation won on our past work.

Every planter should be so alert to his interest, individually, that this should not have to be referred to, but since tobacco is being delivered thus, it is your privilege and duty, as prizees, to refuse to receive it.

Every recognized prizee the the Association is bonded for strict compliance to this contract and the executive committee demands this.

Yours truly,

W. E. FRAZER, Asst. Gen. Mgr.

CONTAGION SPREAD.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Two hundred and sixty-three cases were reported as the new list of contagious diseases in Chicago's epidemic for the past 24 hours. The cases were divided as follows: Scarlet fever 182, diphtheria 47, measles 24, whooping cough 4, mumps 3, chickenpox 2 and typhoid fever 1. No abatement of the epidemic is expected until warmer weather comes. To prevent exposure of children to infection, park authorities have broken up the ice on many ponds and forbidden skating.

LOSS OF A MILLION

BALDWIN LOCOMOTIVE WORKS
AT PHILADELPHIA.Damaged by Fire, One Entire Section of The Vast Plant Being Destroyed.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Fire which started with an explosion in the paintshop destroyed one entire section of the big Baldwin Locomotive Works, entailing a loss of $1,000,000. The destroyed building is about 175 feet long by 150 feet deep. About 1,000 men were employed in the burned building, which was five stories high.

The Baldwin Locomotive Works is the largest industrial plant in the United States, and employs 18,000 men in this city, and near 1,000 at Lewiston and other places. John H. Converse, president of Burnham, Williams & Co., which operates the Baldwin plant, said that the loss would reach probably $1,000,000, fully insured.

BANK THAT ENJOYS
GREAT POPULARITY.

One of the Most Successful in Southern Kentucky—The City Bank of Hopkinsville—Capital $60,000. Surplus, $70,000.

The City Bank of Hopkinsville takes high rank among the banking institutions of the state of Kentucky, and as a factor in the solid growth and splendid prosperity of the city of Hopkinsville it has been most potent. The bank has a capital stock of $60,000, and a surplus of $70,000 in excess of its capital stock, and this notwithstanding the fact that in the last ten years the bank has paid to its stockholders dividends aggregating 150 per cent, one special dividend of 50 per cent, paid entirely out of its surplus and it has today the largest surplus in proportion to its capital of any bank in southern Kentucky, while its deposits, according to statement gotten out on December 31, 1906, were in excess of $380,000, or to be exact, $380,678.43. The City Bank was organized in 1880, and ever since its establishment it has steadily gained both in resources and popularity. It is with commendable pride that Hopkinsville points to its City Bank today as an eminently safe, flourishing and reliable institution, ably officered and intelligently managed upon true business principles, and one which never embarks in questionable ventures of any kind.

In equipment it is thoroughly modern in every department and places the most advanced accommodations at the disposal of its customers.

Its principal correspondents are Latham, Alexander & Co., New York city, and the American National bank of Louisville, Ky. The officers who have done so much to place the institution upon such a high plane of usefulness are: E. B. Long, president, and W. T. Tandy, cashier. The directors are as follows: W. M. Garnett, E. B. Long, F. B. Fairleigh, J. O. Cook and W. T. Tandy.—Correspondent from the Atlanta Constitution.

ALLIE YOUNG MAY RUN.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 28.—W. A. Young, of Morehead, chief attorney for Judge James Hargis, stated here that in his opinion his brother, A. W. Young, of Mr. Sterling, would be a candidate against Judge John M. Lassing for the Democratic nomination for judge of the court of appeals in the sixth district.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON V, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, FEB. 3.

Text of the Lesson, Gen. viii. 1-19. Memory Verses, 1-3—Golden Text, Ps. xxxvii. 39—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1907, by American Press Association.]

The story of Noah and the condition of affairs on earth in his day is also spoken of by our Lord, and in connection with the startling statement that the age in which we are now living shall witness at its close the same ungodliness that was manifest in the time of Noah (Matt. xxiv. 37-39; Luke xvii. 26, 27). He who declares the end from the beginning and who is Himself the beginning and the end, the first and the last, whose counsel stands and who does all His pleasure, who brings to pass what He speaks and does all that He purposes (Isa. xlv. 9-11; Rev. xx. 13), has told us this, and it surely becomes us to give good heed to all that He has said.

In the end of Gen. iv we have the ungodly line of Cain traced for several generations down to Lamech, another murderer and blasphemer and rebel against God's plan of one woman for one man. In this ungodly line we have the first musicians and also the first artificers in brass and iron. There need be nothing sinful about either of these, but it is a sad fact that in our own time the highest talent on these and other lines is, as a rule, rather on the side of unbelief than of faith.

In chapter v we have the first ten generations of the godly line of Seth, whom God gave to Eve, instead of Abel, beginning with the words, "This is the book of the generations of Adam," and in verse 3 it is said concerning Seth that Adam begat a son in his own likeness after his image. Since sin came all have been born in the likeness of sinful man, not in the likeness of God.

Contrast Matt. i. 1, "The book of the generation of Jesus Christ." It is only when we receive Him that we are born of God and His image begins to be formed in us.

Chapters vi to ix, in which we have but one lesson, tell of the consummation of iniquity in that age and its overthrow. Noah and his family being the only people saved. By the union of the sons of God and the daughters of men, the godly and the ungodly, possibly fallen angels and human beings, every imagination of the thoughts of men's hearts became evil continually (Gen. i. 1-2), and men said unto God, "The part from us and what can the Almighty do?" (Job xxii. 17.) Then God gave Noah instructions to build an ark for the saving of his house, and he believed God and obeyed, thus obtaining righteousness and condemning the world (Heb. xi. 7).

A study of the three arcs of Scripture and the object for which each was made is most instructive. Noah and Moses received most minute instructions how to build theirs, and we may safely conclude that Jobecheb was instructed also. In the tabernacle and temple God was the sole architect, and in all the plan of redemption man has no voice whatever. The ark being finished, the Lord called Noah and his house to come in. Consider the "comes" of Isa. i. 18; Lev. i. 1; Matt. xi. 28; Rev. xxi. 17, etc. Then there went in unto Noah into the ark a male and female of all creatures and of the creeping creatures by sevens, as the Lord commanded. The Lord shut him in, the flood came as the Lord had said, and for one whole year and seventeen days they continued in the ark. Compare chapter vii. 10, 11, with chapter viii. 13, 14. What a time of faith and patience it must have been, but God was thinking of His servant (viii. 1). When days and weeks and months go by without any special evidence that God is caring for us and He seems to have forgotten us, that is the time for unwavering faith, remembering His words to John the Baptist, "Blessed is he that shall not be offended in me." It is profitable to note that the word "pitch" in chapter vi. 14, is the very word generally translated "atonement" and reminds us that the great atonement is that alone which can keep from perishing, but that by it all who are in it are as safe as God can make them. Shut in with Him, no power can harm us.

The raven that did not return to the ark because, being an unclean bird, any dead carcass floating on the water would afford a resting place, and the dove that returned because it found no rest are suggestive of the unclean, though they may belong to the professing church, who can find enjoyment in any kind of company, and the true believers, who find rest only in Christ.

Noah entered the ark at the Lord's invitation and did not leave it until God said "Go forth" (viii. 16). We must implicitly obey God and have unwavering trust in Him; then all will be well. Note the altar unto the Lord and the sacrifice (viii. 20). This man is of the line of Abel.

Note the blessing and the command to be fruitful (viii. 17; ix. 1, 7), and remember John xv. 8, 16.

See the unconditional covenant of chapter ix concerning the earth (also viii. 22), and the bow in the cloud as the token, which is found elsewhere only in Ezek. i. Rev. iv and x, and always in reference to the earth. The other two unconditional covenants were with Abraham, concerning the land of promise, and with David, concerning his throne. Note the association of Noah with Daniel and Job in Ezek. xiv. 14-20, and compare God's dealings with each.

In view of the judgments that are coming when the Lord shall arise to shake terribly the earth, in the day of His wrath, it is the part of wise men to seek shelter ere the storm breaks (Isa. xlii. 9-15).

SCHEDULE MADE OUT

FOR THE BASKETBALL SEASON
IN HOPKINSVILLE.Double Headers Will be Played Every Friday Night During the Next Seven Weeks.

The schedule of the Hopkinsville Basketball league has been prepared, the first games being set for next Friday night, and beginning at that time and continuing for seven weeks a double-header will be played each Friday night. Trophies will be bought, these to be awarded to the two teams with the highest percentage at the close of the season. Double-header games will be played each time and in case any team scheduled to play at that time shall fail to show up the game will be awarded to their opponents. Robert Hille has been appointed as referee and Keen Waller as umpire, and these two will officiate at all the games played. All games will be called at 8 p. m., and an admission of 25 cents will be charged, the lovers of this sport thus getting to see two games each time for the price of one.

Much interest has already been taken in the league and as the teams are very evenly matched some exciting games are expected. The schedule prepared is as follows:

FEBRUARY 1.

S. K. C. vs. Co. D. (first teams)

ELGIN'S SUCCESS.

Elgin, the enterprising druggist, rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard Co. to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c bottle at half price.

The wonderful success of this plan was a great surprise even to him and today there are scores of people here in Hopkinsville who are using and praising this remarkable remedy.

In addition to selling a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c, Mr. Elgin has so much faith in the remedy that he will refund the money to any one whom it does not cure.

When your head aches, your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally, where there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heartburn, sour stomach, roaring or ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

BOYS WERE WHIPPED

Had Stolen Articles From Main Street Stores.

Rad Reynolds and Sam Bowles, two colored boys seemingly about thirteen or fourteen years of age, were arrested Saturday night charged with theft. It was alleged that Reynolds stole a pair of trousers from Anderson's store and Bowles took several ties from Frankel's. The boys were turned over to County Judge Breathitt who called in the fathers of the boys and upon their agreeing to give them a good whipping the charge was held up during good behavior.

COUNTY NEWS

MACEDONIA MATTERS.

Died, at his home in Caldwell county, Ky., Reuben Curry, the oldest citizen in the county. He was born January 21, 1811 in Buckingham, county, Virginia. His father, George Curry, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and died at Norfolk in the same year. Reuben with his mother then moved to Rutherford county, Tenn. He then went to Caldwell county to reside. He was married twice, both of his wives having preceded him to the grave. One daughter, Mrs. Susan Creacy, survives him. Mr. Curry was a faithful member of the Church of Christ.

Mr. Hunter, who lives near Claxton, killed a silver fox one day last week.

Mrs. Duck Beshears was burned to death last Saturday at her home near Dawson. Her clothing caught fire from the cooking stove.

W. D. Creacy and wife are rejoicing over their new girl.

Arthur Newsom and wife have a fine boy at their house.

A. F. Hopper and B. Ray went to Hopkinsville on business Monday.

—WHITE MAN.

"JOSIAH FLYNT."
Hopkinsville "magazine readers who are interested in "My Life—
Thus Far" and "The Pool Room
Vampires and their Money-Mad Victims," among the most important serials of the year, will learn with regret that death has cut short the career of the author.

Josiah Flynt Willard—the chronicler of the "Wanderlust," the interpreter of the joys of the care-free life, the life that knows no work or duty or responsibility except the responsibility of keeping alive—died last Sunday night at a Chicago hostel, of pneumonia contracted while securing data for his pool room exposés. To tens of thousands of readers of the newspapers and magazines, both in this country and Europe, Willard was known as "Josiah Flynt," who offered to the world a translation of the meaning of the tramp life.

Born of well-to-do parents—his father was Oliver Willard, a Chicago newspaper man, and his aunt, Frances Willard, the great temperance advocate—a graduate of Monmouth college and of Heidelberg university, Willard chose the life of a tramp because an irresistible longing called him to it.

Willard might, had he chosen, made a large amount of money from writing. His intimates have known him to make $1,000 a week. He could, it is said by those who knew him best, have made an annual income of $20,000, year in and year out, by writing. But money held no charm for him. He wrote sufficiently to give him "spending money."
Then he wandered again.

"He would work one day and wander the other twenty-nine of the month," said one of his friends.

Among his books are "Tramping with Tramps," "The World of Graft," "Powers That Prey,"
"Notes of an Itinerant Policeman" and "The Little Brother."

During the course of the industrial unrest of 1892 and 1893, Mr. Willard tramped all through the country studying causes and conditions and giving the results of his observation in a series of magazine articles which established his reputation as a writer upon economic subject. He also extended his tramping trips to the countries of Europe, and at intervals took up courses of study in the German universities of Berlin and Heidelberg. While abroad he made the acquaintance of Count Tolstol, the Russian writer, and of Ibsen,
the dramatist.

About two years ago Mr. Willard returned to America and renewed his investigations along sociological lines, presenting in many articles the social and economic evils in the cities.

His latest effort, which was cut short by his death, was an investigation into the workings of the gambling trust which is said to control the race tracks of the country, and into the systems used by the promoters of poolroom "bookmakers."

Sir Robert Anderson shamed the inconsistency of some who attack the Bible, saying, "The higher critics assume the Bible wrong unless it is supported by pagan evidence, and when the Scriptures and pagan authorities agree, they assume that the Scriptures were based on the pagan evidence. Higher criticism assumes every thing against Holy Scriptures."

MEETS WITH FAVOR

PRESIDENT'S SUGGESTION FOR A
LEE MEMORIAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The president, in view of his Lee centenary speech, will be asked to suggest the machinery through which a national memorial to Robert E. Lee may be accomplished. The president's suggestion was that all sections of the country unite in a grand national memorial to Lee, the memorial to be placed in one of the great representative institutions of learning. A delegation will call upon the president within a few days to confer on the matter and if he does not care to go further than his speech on Lee the matter will be taken up by the Southerners independently.

Members of congress were enthusiastic on the proposition today. All of them had read the president's letter suggesting the memorial and expressed themselves as highly in favor of it. Like the remainder of the public they were undecided as to what would be the best way to consummate the idea. Col. Hillary A. Herbert, one of the speakers of the meeting which celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of Lee's birthday last Saturday night, said:
"I am heartily in favor of the suggestion. In addition to its fitness as a tribute to the memory of Lee, it would be a fitting capstone to the arch of reconciliation between the sections that were involved in the war."

Mrs. Ralph Walsh, president of the Daughters of the Confederacy, expressed herself in similar terms.
"It is a thing which must appeal to the heart of every southerner," she said, "and the daughters will undoubtedly take it up. At present, in addition to any plans we shall make about it, we are engaged in having erected at Arlington a monument to the Confederate dead. The two propositions are somewhat alike, you see."

A story that almost, if not quite, equals Senator Vest's famous dog story, which has been going the rounds of the press for some time is reported from Hardin county, where Magistrate G. W. Johnson committed to the keeper of the county poor farm a dog with an order for the animal to be cared for at the expense of the magisterial district No. 9, of that county. The document is perhaps the only one of its kind on record and reads as follows:

Mr. William Cleaver, keeper of the County Farm—Dear Sir: You will please receive and safely keep the body of "Dewey Johnson" from now until November 14, 1907. He is a little old, but he has been raised a gentleman and has always kept the very best of company. His associates have been governors, generals, majors, judges, doctors, etc. He has been sent to the Hopkinsville asylum once, but did not stay long. You will please credit the old gentleman to magisterial district No. 9.

Q. W. JOHNSON, J. P. H. C.

Senator Vest had been retained as the attorney of a man whose dog had been wantonly shot by a neighbor. It is said the plaintiff demanded $200. When Vest finished speaking the jury awarded $500 without leaving their seats. The speech, in full, is as follows: "Gentlemen of the jury: The best friend a man has in the world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son of daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful.
Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has may be lost. It flies away from him perhaps when he needs it most.
A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us, may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads. The one absolutely unselfish friend that a man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog. Gentlemen of the jury,
a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer, he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauvre master as if he were a prince.
When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness faithful and true even in death."

AT HIS OLD TRICKS

ALDRICH TRYING TO STAVE OFF
TOBACCO TAX BILLDoing Bidding of the Trusts.—His Weak Excuses.—Report on Tobacco Prices.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. That Senator Aldrich is playing one of his old familiar tricks in connection with the bill to remove the tax from leaf tobacco is now assured. Long ago it was demonstrated that the Rhode Island senator is an enemy of the people in so far as popular interests conflict with the interests of the trusts, and he is living up to that reputation.

A few days ago Senator Aldrich promised to Senator Daniel that the tobacco bill shall be reported this session. This sudden burst of magnanimity was startling, and those who want to help the independent tobacco producers by removing this oppressive tax could hardly believe their ears.

It now appears that Senator Aldrich was playing fast and loose with Daniel. It is an old game of his, and it can be put down as a certainty that there will be no report on the tobacco bill if Aldrich can help it.

McCreary Protests.

Senator McCreary is trying to get action on the bill and he went to see Senator Aldrich.

"Senator Bailey is a member of the subcommittee which has that bill under consideration, and we must wait until the returns before we take it up in the committee," was the story which Aldrich gave McCreary.

In vain McCreary protested against the delay.

"You know as well as I know that Senator Bailey is engaged in a political fight at home, and probably will not return to Washington at this session," remonstrated McCreary.

Senator Aldrich insisted that it will be necessary to wait until Bailey returns. Of course this is only a polite intimation that this bill will be killed in Aldrich's committee, which is altogether to be expected from the man who represents the tobacco trust in the United States senate.

"I intend to keep after Aldrich," said McCreary.

The department of agriculture publishes the following interesting report on the prices of tobacco for the year 1906:

Hopkinsville District.

The average price of 7.5 cents per pound reported for this district, is the same as was received for the 1905 crop. The quality is inferior to that of 1905, although there is some fine tobacco in this crop. The inferior quality was caused by worm damage and the heavy and continuous rains that fell during September, while the crop was being harvested. About 20 per cent of the crop stood in the fields during three weeks of continuous rain that fell in the latter part of September and the first of October, and was so much damaged that all of it will be of low grades. This will make the proportion of lugs in this crop much larger than usual. The weather has been favorable for handling tobacco, and about 17 per cent has been delivered.

One Minute Cough Cure
For Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness

FROM DAY TO DAY

On March, 1907, the postoffice department will begin to issue a book of one-cent postage stamps, similar to that now in use for 2-cent stamps. The demand for 1-cent stamps has been increased to such an extent by the use of post cards that the government was forced to put them up in convenient form for its patrons. The book will contain twenty-four 1-cent stamps in four sheets of six stamps each, between paraffin, which will prevent them from being stuck on each other. Each book sells for 25 cents.

That was an inspiring sight at the tabernacle, Wednesday night, when the entire audience rose to their feet and stood during the playing of the national air. It's a custom that is rapidly being adopted all over the country. It may not be generally known that the army and navy regulations bearing on the subject have been amended so as to provide that whenever the "Star Spangled Banner" is played by the band on a formal occasion at a military station, or at any place where persons belonging to the military service are present in their official capacity, all officers and enlisted men present shall stand at attention, and even, if not in the ranks, they shall render the prescribed salute, the position of the salute being retained until the last note of the national air. It is also provided that the same respect shall be observed toward national air of another country when it is played as a compliment to official representatives of such country.

A correspondent request that we print some of the striking things great men have said about newspapers—that is, sayings that embody the purpose and doings of the press. With pleasure.

Bryant said:
"The press is good or evil according to those who direct it. It is a mill that grinds all that is put into its hopper. Fill the hopper with poisoned grain and it will grind it to meal, but there is death in the bread."

James Parton said:
"The newspaper press is the people's university. Half the readers in Christendom read little else."

Jefferson said:
"The basis of our government being the opinion of the people, the very first object should be to keep that right, and were it left me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers or newspapers without a government I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter."

Cardinal Gibbons recently said:
"The dread of exposure in the public press keeps many a man striking close to the path of rectitude who otherwise would stray off into the byways of graft."

"Adam was the first suicide, and he killed himself for love of a woman. Rather than allow Eve, with whom he was in love, as Romeo was with Juliet, to die alone, after she had eaten the apple and come under consequent sentence of death, Adam ate some of the apple, too, and thus made certain that he would die."

Such was one of the fool doctrines advanced before 2,000 persons in Orchestra hall in Chicago one night this week by Rev. Chas. T. Russell, of Allegheny, Pa., who spoke on the "Overthrow of Satan's Empire."

Adam really committed suicide," declared Mr. sell.

"Because he loved Eve so fondly, as the only living thing on earth, with which he could have companionship, he ate the forbidden fruit, after she had partaken thereof, and thus knowingly brought sentence of death upon himself. He followed the woman's example through his love for her, and thus killed himself by putting himself under the proclamation of the Lord."

"It is quite easy to see that this was the case, and that Adam was in truth a suicide. You will remember that God said, 'If you eat thereof you will surely die,' in referring to the forbidden fruit."

"There you have God's authority for it."

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 26.—Miss Mary Ann Casey, daughter of the late Samuel Casey, of Kentucky, who was secretary of the treasury under Pierce and Buchanan is dead here. Miss Casey, as a young woman, went to Washington with her father and became acquainted in official circles. President Buchanan fell in love with her and proposed to marry her. Miss Casey discouraged his suit. She had a lover in Kentucky. Her father opposed her marriage to the Kentucky youth, and he later married another girl, but Miss Casey remained true to the day of her death to the man for whom she had rejected a president.

GIRLS WANT PANTS

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Jan. 26.—"Give us pants or give us clean streets," is the plea of the ladies who slave for the government in offices of the capital commissioner to the five civilized tribes. A petition has been prepared by the young women stenographers and clerks and they declare they will forward the petition to congress to be permitted to don trousers until the streets become passable. The petition in part reads:

"Whereas the city of Muskogee has not risen to the distinction of sidewalks, rainy weather is ranging from three to six feet deep, by reason of which the petitioners have been compelled for weeks, much to their humiliation and chagrin, to pin the tails of their skirts around their waists and wear long raincoats to hide the same; and, 'Whereas there are cars in the middle of the alleged streets, but as the streams of water on either side of the car tracks make it impossible to reach the same without canoes, and many of the petitioners cannot swim;

"Now, therefore, in view of the facts that the petitioners have to walk and have the manners of God's noblest creature, 'man,' we respectfully pray that we may be allowed to wear forked clothes, thereby adding very much to our bodily and mental comfort as well as being able to perform our duties as humble servants of the government."

River Harbor Committee Awards $773,750.00 For Deep Water At Corpus Christi, Texas

City National Bank, Corpus Christi, Tex.

Clark Pease, Pres.
John G. Kensly, Vice-Pres.
A. D. Evans, Cashier.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Dec. 28, 1906.

To Whom It

May Concern:

To even briefly outline in a short space all of the advantages and prospects of Corpus Christi would be practically impossible; so I will content myself with saying:

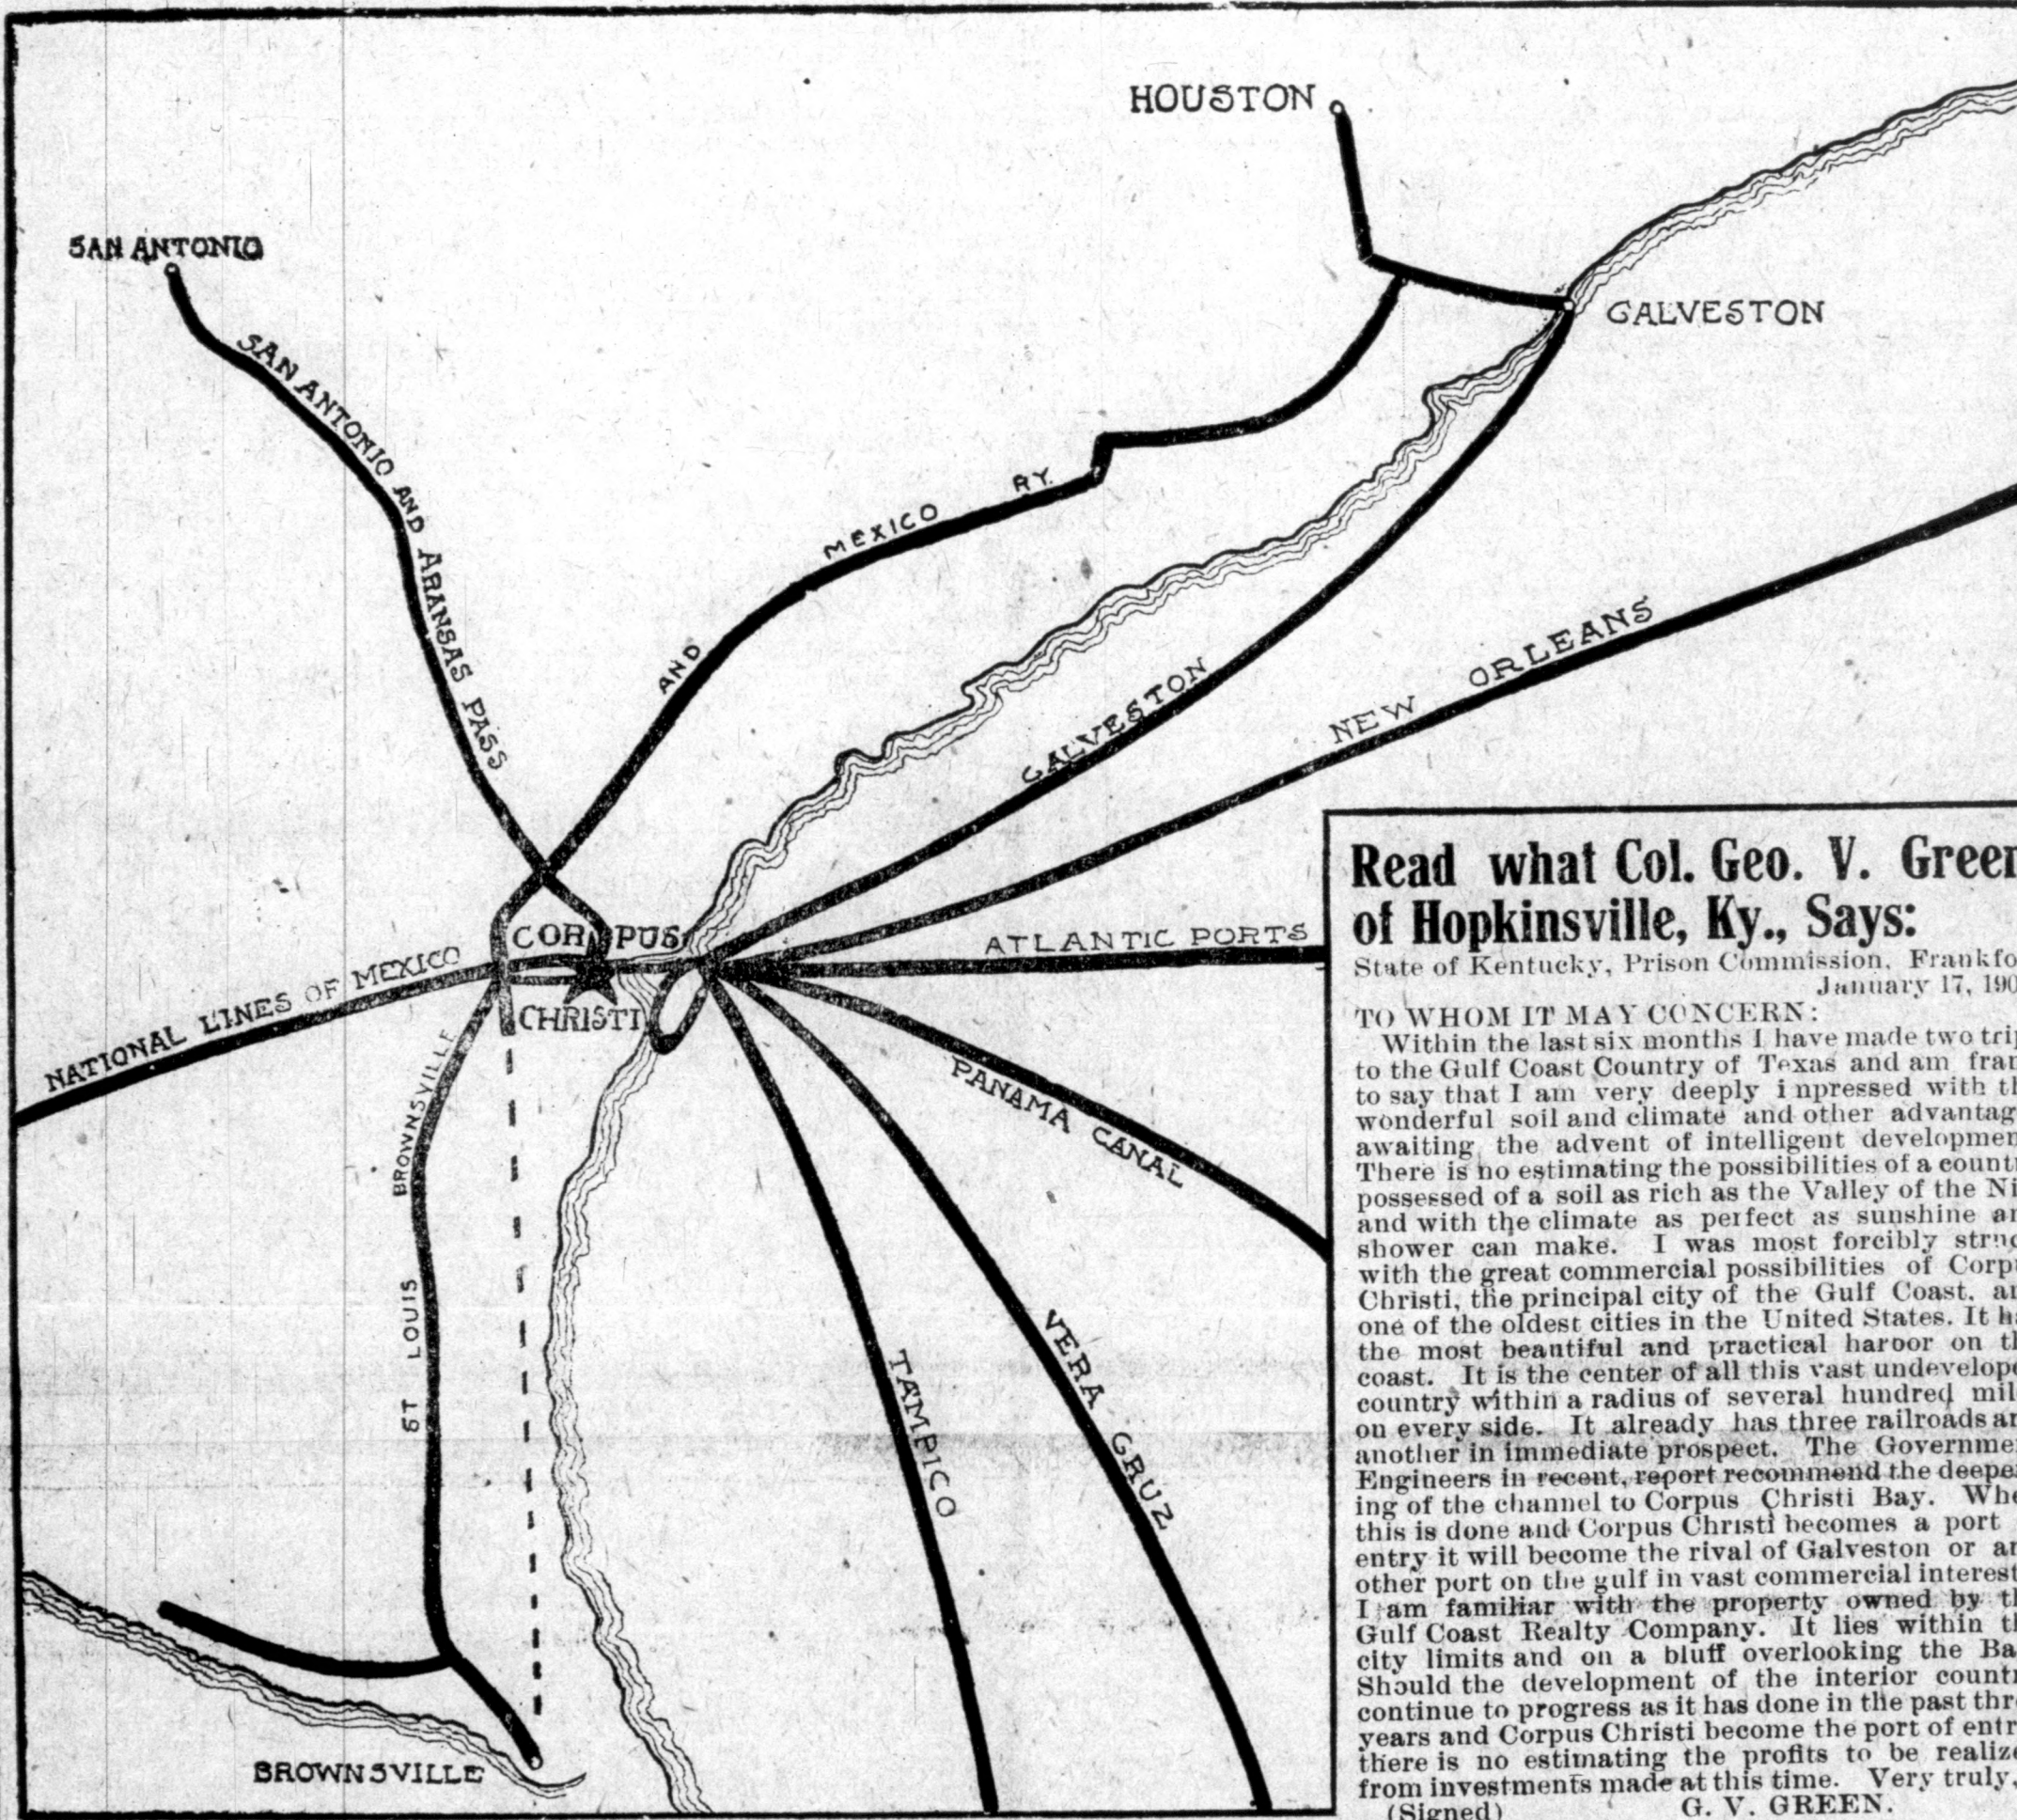

First: That Corpus Christi is on the eve of a wonderful and substantial growth. Being as it is the terminus of three railroads which run through the greatest garden country of the world, it cannot fail to become the center of all of that country's trade.

There has been recently thrown open to settlement hundreds of thousands of acres of land tributary to Corpus Christi. All of this land has been taken up and is being improved, and wonderful results in the way of truck gardening have been obtained.

When the Government shall complete its work of deepening Aransas Pass, Corpus Christi will reach proportion and commercial importance that will make real estate investments wonderfully profitable. I make this statement. I do not know of any single town or city in the whole of the United States where property investments promise as large returns as they do right here. One can make no mistake in Corpus Christi realty.

In regard to the property being sold by the Gulf Coast Realty Co., I wish to say that it is right inside the city and the price offered and the terms of sale should make it very attractive, and one well worth taking hold of.

It is one of the most beautiful sites in the whole United States, situated on high land, 50 feet above the bay, in one of the most desirable residence parts of the city, commanding a view of the bay. Corpus Christi as a summer and winter resort will some day lead the South. Very respectfully,
CLARKE PEASE, President.

Read what Col. Geo. V. Green, of Hopkinsville, Ky., Says:

State of Kentucky, Prison Commission, Frankfort
January 17, 1907.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Within the last six months I have made two trips to the Gulf Coast country of Texas and am frank to say that I am very deeply impressed with the wonderful soil and climate and other advantages awaiting the advent of intelligent development. There is no estimating the possibilities of a country possessed of a soil as rich as the Valley of the Nile and with the climate as perfect as sunshine and shower can make. I was most forcibly struck with the great commercial possibilities of Corpus Christi, the principal city of the Gulf Coast, and one of the oldest cities in the United States. It has the most beautiful and practical harbor on the coast. It is the center of all this vast undeveloped country within a radius of several hundred miles on every side. It already has three railroads and another in immediate prospect. The Government Engineers in recent report recommend the deepening of the channel to Corpus Christi Bay. When this is done and Corpus Christi becomes a port of entry it will become the rival of Galveston or any other port on the Gulf in vast commercial interests. I am familiar with the property owned by the Gulf Coast Realty Company. It lies within the city limits and on a bluff overlooking the Bay. Should the development of the interior country continue to progress as it has done in the past three years and Corpus Christi become the port of entry, there is no estimating the profits to be realized from investments made at this time. Very truly, (Signed) G. V. GREEN.

TELEGRAM

FROM JOHN N. GARNER, TEXAS
CONGRESSMAN:

provements at Corpus Christi.
JOHN N. GARNER.

Corpus Christi Board of Trade

Geo. W. Grim, President.
Randolph Robertson, Secretary.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Jan. 7, 1907.

To Whom It

May Concern

Corpus Christi is situated on the west shore of Corpus Christi Bay, the residence portion of town being on a bluff forty feet above sea level, making it absolutely safe and beyond question the most beautiful site for a city on the whole southern coast of the United States.

The country is as rich and fertile as any in the state and is rapidly being filled up with truck gardeners and farmers.

The city which now has a population of 8,000 is growing fast and property of all kinds is increasing in value rapidly, having doubled within the past year—a healthy and substantial growth; no boom.

The government, we hope, will soon secure deep water at Aransas Pass, as another deep water port on the Gulf south of Galveston is needed to handle the business of the country.

As a summer and winter resort Corpus Christi now has a wide reputation and is filled with tourists and pleasure seekers both winter and summer.

The property offered by the Gulf Coast Realty Co. is located in the southwestern part of the city about two-thirds of a mile back from the Bay.

The city is growing in that direction and I am confident this property will be a safe investment.

Respectfully,
GEO. W. GRIM, President.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev.
Frank De Witt Talmage, D. D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 27.—In this sermon the preacher shows us how greatly it would conduce to the benefit of the world at large and to human happiness here and hereafter if men would cease to strive and quarrel over Biblical interpretations and hair-breadth differences in creeds and ceremonies and with simple Christian faith unite in fraternal efforts for the common good. The text is Titus III, 9, "But avoid foolish questions."

Have you a fathom line? Then drop it into the seas. Have you a telescope? Then cleanse its lens and focus it upon the stars. Have you a crowbar? Then with it pry open the hermetically sealed doors of the geological libraries and finger the leaves of rock and read the genealogical histories of the species. Have you a microscope? Then with the bacteriologists roam through the corridors of the infinitesimal and find an aquarium in a drop of water and exquisite beauty in the end of a fly's wing. God would not have placed the wonders of the heavens above us and the wonders of the deep beneath us if he had not meant us to explore them and to try to make the works of his fingers part of our lives.

You never yet met an intelligent man or woman who was not continually asking questions and striving to understand the unknown. The indisposition to investigate and the unwillingness to attempt the solution of the problems of life about us are always the signs of an intellectual weakening. In the spiritual life, as well as in the political and the mechanical and the philosophical world, the one word which should be most often spoken by the human lips is "Why?" We should be continually asking "Why this?" and "Why that?" and "Why the other thing?" The human mind and soul cannot mark time. The mind must either broaden out or shrivel up. The interrogation point is a golden key with which we should try to unlock the manifold mysteries of the universe.

But there is an intelligent way of pushing that word "Why?" and a very foolish way. There is a way of asking "Why?" which proves to the world that you are sincerely desirous to obtain knowledge. There is a way of asking "Why?" which proves to the world that you do not wish to learn, but are moved by curiosity only or by a desire to unsettle fundamental questions. There never was a foreigner who came to America who asked more questions than Li Hsing Chang. But the questions which he asked were generally frivolous and to our ideas impertinent. He would ask aged maiden ladies why they never married and how old they were. He would ask people why they were false to their country. He would ask this question and that every one around him uncomfortable. Thus some people push that word "Why?" in a most ridiculous way. By the scientific method they try to argue God and Christ and the Bible out of the minds and hearts of their friends. With the interrogation point they would advertise to the world their transcendental reasoning powers when they are only advertising their transcendental curiosity.

St. Paul's Advice.

Paul in his epistle to young Titus advises him to beware of such frivolous curiosity. When he tells him to avoid foolish questions he is not circumscribing the intellect of this young man by telling him not to think and not to investigate. He is laying down the broad principle which you and I would do well to heed when he said, "Avoid foolish questions and genealogies and contentions and strivings about the law, for they are unprofitable and vain." In other words, avoid those foolish questions and contentions which have nothing to do with pressing home the great purposes of the gospel. Live only for those divine truths and self-evident facts which will draw us nearer and nearer to the cross of Jesus Christ. The poet expressed my interpretation of Paul's meaning when he wrote:

Some read the blessed book—they don't know why—
Somehow happens in their way to life.
While others read it with uncommon care,
But all to find some contradictions there.
Some read to bring themselves into repute
By showing others how they can dispute.
While others read because their neighbors do.
To see how long 'twill take to read it through.

Some read to prove a preadopted creed.
Thus understand but little what they read.
And every passage of the book they bend
To make it suit that all important end.
Some people read, as I have often thought,
To reach the book instead of being taught.

Paul is saying, "Titus, my son, study the spirit of the Scripture instead of the letter of the law." We should not be among those Bible students who are spiritually nearsighted and hold their eyes so close to the sacred pages that they can only see a sentence or a word at a time, and they do not realize that some of the passages of Scripture have special and exclusive reference to the times in which they were written and to the geographical conditions of the writers. That would be a very inadequate description of the beauties of Shadrach, which was limited to an architect's specification of the details of the home of the father of American letters. It might be absolutely correct and its measurements unimpeachable, but we should miss the spirit and the tender associations of the place that would make us feel that we saw it as Irving saw it. And yet some men seem to school themselves against studying the spirit of the Bible. They read merely the letter of the book. By reading the letter only they lose the true purposes for which the Bible was given as a guide to us through this world to the other.

The Case of Galilee.

This fact was conspicuously illustrated in the persecution of the physicist and astronomer, Galileo. You are familiar with the story of his life. He was not the first inventor of the telescope, but he was without doubt the first intelligent user of it. He focused his eyes upon the heavens and began to follow the movements of the heavenly bodies. He went on in his investigations until at last he found out that the earth moved around the sun. "Absurd! Absurd!" cried the Church of Rome. "The earth does not move about the sun; the sun moves around the earth. Does not the Bible tell us that Joshua halted the sun above Gibeon and the moon in the valley of Ajalon? Away with the heretic! Away with the so-called astronomer! The priests placed the heavy hand of the law upon Galileo and would have tortured him to death had he not signed this humiliating recantation: "With a sincere heart and unfeigned faith I abjure, curse and detest the said errors and heresies (viz., that the earth moves, etc.). I swear that I will never in the future say or assert anything verbally or in writing which may give rise to a similar suspicion against me. I, Galileo, have abjured as above with my own hand."

Now, was there ever such unmitigated nonsense as that act of the church? It was the setting up of a claim that a book written to teach morality and religion should be an authority on science also. It was as if one should insist on taking an incidental reference of a physician on a question of music as an authority superior to the dictum of a musician. The Bible writers, intent on teaching men how to live in this world so as to be happy in the next, learned in the things of God, but unlearned in the crude sciences of their times, accepted the ideas current at the period and passed on to their appointed topic. But Galileo was declared a heretic on such testimony and saved his life only by recantation. Let us be careful lest we demand of the Bible more than it was ever intended to teach.

More Bigoted Stupidity.

The same bigoted stupidity of the medieval church we can find in the church of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. The scientists went on in their investigations, and they proved that this old planet was not created 5,000 or 6,000 years ago. It has been developing during thousands upon thousands and hundreds of thousands of years. The Bible, by the way, does not fix a date for the creation. It merely says, "In the beginning, the earth was without form and void. The deeps were unsearched and the foundations became stronger. As the earth grew it was not only able to resist and drive back its persecutors, but it became stronger and stronger until at last it was able to lay claim upon the temporal as well as the spiritual life of the nations. Then the Catholic pope became the acknowledged spiritual ruler of the world. Then what happened? As the Roman Catholic church financially prospered did it spiritually prosper? Nay. The Vatican became a cesspool of sin. The Bible was a closed book. The torture chamber was the holy of holies. Flagrant sin was everywhere in the church. Then came the divine mission of a new church.

The Reformation.

The reformation came to its birth. Martin Luther led, the light in Germany. John Knox in Scotland and John Wyclif in England. The grasp of the pope was shaken off, but soon in the English church came laxity and indifference. Another reformation was needed, and John Wesley and George Whitefield began to preach, and Methodist and Congregationalism began their mighty work. Still later William Booth has stirred the stagnant waters with his Salvation Army. So as the need has arisen God has unfailingly raised up men to do his work.

Wherever the churches, growing in numbers and in financial strength and power have drifted from God and turned their Master's temples into places of merchandise, wherever their preachers have become unlike the humble Nazarene, then there have come a spiritual rebirth and a new church. And to this new church, this humble church, has fallen the task of spiritually leavening the old churches of the world. And, my friends, if you do not believe that what I say is true I would like you to answer me one question. If Jesus Christ were to come upon earth today, where do you believe the lowly Nazarene would prefer to preach—in the gorgeous Vatican of a pope, with his spotless robes, in the chancel of a great cathedral and be paid the $75,000 a year as its archbishop, or in some fashionable Protestant church whose wealthy members sometimes sit stolidly indifferent to the great sufferings of mankind? Or do you believe Jesus would feel most at home as a street preacher, working with the humblest workers in the slums? There can be but one answer. There is but one self-evident reply.

The Professor's Reply.

Thus I have tried to show you that you have only one spiritual duty in life. You are here and now to grasp the great doctrine of Jesus' love.

We shall open our minds and hearts to the full enjoyment of the gospel life. And, my brother, I never want you to sit at the feet of any religious teacher unless he is first willing to confess that in his gospel investigations there are certain mysteries so high that he can never scale them, so deep that he can never fathom them, so wide that he can never cross them.

We come to our pastors and friends and ask just the same kind of foolish questions that the disciples asked Christ of old. We come to Christ, for instance, and ask: "Jesus, here is a man who has been married two or three times on earth. When he gets to heaven, is that man going to be a Mormon and have two or three wives?" Then we begin to make flippant remarks about how a man is going to get along in heaven with two or three wives. You know this is the question which the Sadducees propounded to Jesus himself. Or we begin to try to solve the resurrection of the physical body, or we go into a long and elaborate study of where Christ spent his time between the crucifixion and the resurrection, or we try to solve the mystery of the Trinity. And instead of going ahead in a brave, noble Christian way, doing the work which God gives us to do and accepting the atonement of the cross, we fritter away our gospel peace and usefulness by asking impossible questions and in trying to solve impossible mysteries. Now, my friend, why cannot you follow the advice of Paul? Why do you not concentrate all your faith on Jesus Christ? Why not accept him at his word and go forth and work in God's vineyard? Is there today any doubt or mystery in your mind which can outweigh the infinite fact that Jesus was born the Son of God, that he died to save you and me, that he will pardon all our sins and that in him we may have everlasting life?

Let Mysteries Alone.

But, if the great mysteries of the Bible should not separate us from the love of God, why should the great divine mysteries keep one Christian church from working in gospel fellowship with other Christian churches? Because one Christian church puts special emphasis upon one of God's attributes in its creed or practice is that any reason why other Christian churches which lay stress on another of God's attributes should not affiliate with that body of Christians or co-operate with it? Because one gospel church loves to sing the old psalms and another loves to use a liturgy and another church loves to put emphasis upon immersion and another church makes the sermon the chief part of its service is it any reason why all these Christian churches should not be united in working for the same master and for salvation by the same divine blood?

When you look over the ecclesiastical history of the world you will notice one striking fact—the church is apt to degenerate when it becomes prosperous. After the crucifixion came the dark days of persecution. But the growls of the wild beasts, while crunching the bloody bones of the Christians in the Roman Coliseum, only welded that Christian church closer together. The fires of persecution only purified it. The Christian church began to grow. Its foundations became stronger. As the early church grew it was not only able to resist and drive back its persecutors, but it became stronger and stronger until at last it was able to lay claim upon the temporal as well as the spiritual life of the nations. Then the Catholic pope became the acknowledged spiritual ruler of the world. Then what happened? As the Roman Catholic church financially prospered did it spiritually prosper? Nay. The Vatican became a cesspool of sin. The Bible was a closed book. The torture chamber was the holy of holies. Flagrant sin was everywhere in the church. Then came the divine mission of a new church.

Cease from sectarian differences, stop frittering away your time and go to work in his dear name. We can all be one in unity for the cross. I remember many years ago, when in our seminary we were discussing the sacraments, I said to our professor: "Doctor, you say that we must use wine and bread at the Lord's supper. Suppose I were on an arctic expedition. Supposing we were caught amid the icebergs and in all probability were about to die; supposing I wanted to have the communion of the Lord's supper with the men of the ship, and supposing the only food we had left was some hard tack and some soup, could I use the soup for the wine and the hard tack for the bread?" The professor looked at me a moment in surprise. Then he said: "Under such a condition the soup would be as acceptable to God as the wine and the hard tack as the bread. It is not the wine and the bread that we lift to the lips which make us consecrated to the Saviour, but the spirit of the yielding of our own hearts to his divine will."

The old professor was right. It is not by ecclesiastical formulas that you and I are going to come to the cross, but only by consecrating our lives to Christ's will. Friends, you may have been quibbling in the past. You may have been switching yourself off from the main spiritual issue. Do you believe that Jesus is divine? Do you believe that he died to save you? Will you accept his offer of salvation? Will you accept and now consecrate your life to save men and women by Christ's blood from sin and death and hell? "Yes, yes!" you answer. Then pledge yourselves to him. Having given yourselves to him and his cause, join with brethren of any name in work for him and, following the apostle's advice, preach Christ crucified and avoid "foolish questions."

ALL CHILDREN

at birth inherit a predisposition to bodily ills and ailments—more or less serious. The stomach and bowels are the most prolific sources of ill-health. They are the hotbeds of disease, and because less attention is given them, more evil can be traced directly to them than to any other organs of the body.

Where there is the least indication of trouble or you are feeling out of sorts, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be taken at once. It is the best preparation for the stomach and bowels.

If they are all out of order, it will eradicate the trouble, tone up the parts and restore them to their natural condition. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN communicates itself to the whole system and its beneficial and curative effects are pronounced and instantly experienced.

It will keep you in good health. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Write for it today.

CLARKSVILLE VOTES

ON FEB. 21 ON THE ABOLITION OF SALOONS.

Wants Bond Issue For Streets.—Important Tobacco Suit.—Living
The Simple Life.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 30.—A conference between members of the Anti-Saloon League and Senator Fort and Speaker Cunningham, of the house, was held here and it was agreed that the election on the question of abolishing saloons in Clarksville be held on Feb. 21. A meeting was held later by some of the saloon men, who agreed also as to the time. It is expected, therefore, that the representative in the legislature will at once make the necessary arrangements, appoint officers, etc., to take charge of the election.

The city council held a called meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering a bond issue of $25,000 for the improvement of the streets. On motion of Alderman Rutherford this representatives were requested to have a bill passed authorizing the issuance of bonds, all voting in favor of the issuance except Alderman Hale.

It is understood that Judge Stout will convene chancery court here next Monday, and try the Robertson County Farmers' association case against Fletcher & Zell on its merits. This suit was brought by the association on injunction against Fletcher as a member of the association, enjoining him from selling and delivering tobacco to C. C. Bell & Son, a joining the latter from the law and evi-ing a great deal of interest all over the dark tobacco section, as its decision will affect the interest of many farmers

A man giving his name as Oliver Clay Rockler was arrested Sunday near Palmyra on the charge of vagrancy and brought to this city. He will be detained at the county jail pending an investigation. He is about 35 years old and fairly well educated. When placed under arrest he had on three suits of clothes, and was living under a tent in the woods. He slept on leaves, did his own cooking, and seemed perfectly contented. The man's appearance frightened the people of that vicinity, who made complaint against him. He had $18 in money, and purchased his food from the store at Palmyra.

BIG SUM INVOLVED

IN CASE AGAINST CUMBERLAND
TELEPHONE COMPANY.

County Attorney Duffy went to Frankfort this morning for the purpose of arguing the case of the commonwealth of Kentucky against the Cumberland Telephone company, which is set for tomorrow on the docket of the court of appeals. This is the case which has been hanging in the courts of this county for some time, the attempt being made to have the property of the telephone company valued at $5,000,000 for taxable purposes.

The county board of supervisors this morning began a five days session for the purpose of hearing complaints from the tax payers whose assessments have been raised. The board is in session in the office of the county assessor upstairs over the office of superintendent W. E. Gray in the county building.

CHAT ABOUT PEOPLE AND THINGS

SISK.—Claude Sisk has entered upon his work as bookkeeper in the L. & N. office at Cincinnati, O. Mrs. Sisk left yesterday for Cincinnati to join him.

LAYNE.—Charles Layne is able to be out after an illness of several days.

COWAN.—W. McL. Cowan has tendered his resignation as Co-manager of the American Snuff Company's interests in Hopkinsville to take effect tomorrow. Mr. Cowan will leave next week for Nashville, Tenn., his boyhood home, to enter the grain business with his brother. He will be succeeded here by Norman Mellon, an experienced young business man, of Clarksville, Tenn. Mr. Cowan's departure from Hopkinsville will be regretted sincerely in business and society circles.

POSTPONED.—There will be no meeting of the As You Like It club this week.

THOMAS.—John P. Thomas will return soon from Boston, Mass., traveling for a new house. When he left here a week ago he went to Boston to apply for a highly lucrative position which twenty-two other traveling salesmen were hot after. The Puritan shoe manufacturers know a good man when they see one and Mr. Thomas landed the job speedily.

AMSBARRY.—Everybody who heard Wallace Bruce Ambarry's program during the Chautauqua held here several years ago by Col. Dewaree and Lou Beauchamp will be eager to attend his recital next Monday night at the Tabernacle. After Co-starring on the lyceum platform for several seasons with Jessie Bartley Davis and Opie Read, Mr. Ambarry is now "The Whole Show" and is all that, and more. There has never been a more attractive reader and impersonator in Hopkinsville.

ELKS.—Two new Elks were made last night when Guy Starling and Leslie Baynham assumed the obligation of the order. Arrangements were made to install a large reading table in the club rooms, and all magazines and periodicals liked by the Elks have been subscribed for. The lodge will have an anniversary celebration the middle of February.

DIXON.—The New Era learns from a friend of the Dixon family that Tom Dixon's latest freak looks to the founding of a socialistic colony in a southern state. He has purchased a large tract of land and will have a "model town" built in which he and other wild-eyed enthusiasts will live for a while. One of his innovations is to have no churches, but to teach moral and religious lessons to his townsmen by means of theatrical productions.

FELAND.—It was Judge Feland at the county court room this morning in the trial of a suit brought by a negro against C. B. Hamilton, the railroad contractor. Judge Breathitt was busy in his office so Attorney John Feland was selected to act as special judge. That he filled the position excellently goes without saying.

HENRY.—A paper which promises to be of much interest, in view of the Brownsville affair, will be read by Col. Jonett Henry next week at the February meeting of the Athenaeum. It will discuss the colored man as a trooper. Col. Henry has rejected the suggestion of "The Coon in Khaki" as a subject, and will use the more dignified title, "The Negro Soldier."

Bishops Needed.

A special session of the general convention of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, may be called in a short time to elect four or five new bishops, to replace those who have died or are incapacitated.

Loses His Foot.

Jake Anderson, aged 80, a farmer who resides in the Fairview vicinity a few days ago was the victim of a serious accident.

He dropped a farm implement on his foot and mashed it to such an extent that amputation was necessary.

SCORE OF FIREMEN

CAUGHT UNDER A FALLING WALL
AT BUFFALO, N. Y.

BUFFALO, Jan. 29.—An eight-story building at 101-107 Seneca street, and extending through the block to Carroll street, was destroyed by fire. A score of firemen were caught under a falling wall, while fighting the fire. Three are still buried in the ruins and there is no hope of rescuing them alive. Twelve others were injured, six seriously.

The missing—Wm. J. Naughton, a lieutenant; John R. Hinkey, fireman; Stephen J. Megan, fireman. Seriously injured—Capt. Michael A. Haggerty, John Daly, Fireman Elliott, Lieut. J. C. Malloy, Fireman Bensinger, Fireman Yaeger. The money loss is estimated at $500,000; most of which will fall upon the Jewel estate, owner of the building.

The collapse of the wall, which buried two companies of firemen, occurred after the fire in the main building was well under control and the firemen working to save adjoining property.

ARMY OF THE SULTAN

WHIPPED BY RAISULI IN A PITCH-ED FIGHT.

Battle Not Over and Loyal Troops, Though Famished, And Holding Their Original Position.

TANGIER, Jan. 26.—Raisuli, the bandit, defeated the Sultan's troops in a pitched battle today.

The Sultan's losses were heavy, including a colonel of cavalry, other officers and 175 men.

Though famished and exhausted, the Sultan's army is holding the position it occupied before the engagement.

The outlaw's losses are not known. It is said the battle will be resumed shortly. There is great anxiety at Tangier.

BLOWN TO DEATH

A Delayed Explosion of Dynamite Catches Hanson Love.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., Jan. 28.—Hanson H. Love was instantly killed by an explosion of dynamite. Love was general superintendent of construction of the M. H. and E. road, the new railroad that is being built from here to Cloverport. He had placed a charge of dynamite under a stump. The charge failed to explode and Love went back to investigate. When within a few feet of the place a terrific explosion occurred, blowing Love many feet and badly burning his body. Death was instantaneous. Love was from Terre Haute, Ind., and had been engaged in railroad building for many years.
