Companies With Cartel Rabies Control Mobile Unit To Tour County

WASH., April 21 (UP)—The Justice Department today filed a civil anti-trust suit charging five major oil companies conspired to participate in an international oil cartel.

The suit, filed in federal district court here, is intended as a substitute for grand jury investigation of possible criminal charges involved in international agreements of the U. S. oil industry.

Made defendants in today's action were Standard Oil Co., New Jersey; Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., Inc.; The Texas Co.; Standard Oil Co., of California; and Gulf Oil Corp.

The suit charged the five companies with conspiring among themselves, and with other companies to monopolize foreign trade, restrain interstate commerce, control foreign production, maintain agreed-upon domestic and world prices, regulate oil imports and "divide world foreign producing and marketing territories."

Released American Prisoner Placed In Ambulance

Begin Trip To Japan For Quick Flight Back To US

By EARNEST HOBERECHT PANMUNJOM, Korea April 21 (UP)—One hundred more jubilant United Nations soldiers passed through "freedom gate" today but they brought with them new stories of Red atrocities against American prisoners of war.

The Communist Peiping radio also charged that the UN had mistreated Red prisoners.

One of 35 United States soldiers freed in the second day's exchange of sick and wounded prisoners of a group of 100 Americans and 100 North Koreans bashed in the heads of weakening Americans. He said Russians egged the Red guards on. Another freed GI said 40 out of 100 North Koreans bashed in the heads of weakening Americans.

A freed Turkish soldier said about 100 Americans in one camp died of malnutrition.

Communist correspondent Alan Winnington said in a dispatch broadcast from Peiping that the UN looked as if they had come out of a World War II Nazi concentration camp — "haggard... faces stamped with suffering... suffering from malnutrition." He accused Allied surgeons of performing unnecessary limb amputations.

But these charges were made by individuals. Allied and Red reporters were not involved, and the UN Command continued preparations to resume truce talks Saturday after an interruption since last October.

Developments in "Operation Little Switch," the exchange in daily batches of 600-400 prisoners, including 120 Americans, for 6,000 Communists included:

1. Thirty-five Americans, 12 Britons, three Turks and 50 South Koreans went through "freedom gate" to liberty Tuesday in exchange for 450 Chinese Communists and 50 North Koreans.
2. A Communist convoy of 20 trucks, carrying the Allied prisoners, left Peiping Tuesday in exchange for 450 Chinese Communists and 50 North Koreans.
3. The Communists announced that no Americans will be included in Wednesday's exchange. All these 100 repatriates will be South Koreans. The UN will give up 250 North Koreans and 150 Chinese Communists.
4. While the prisoner exchange continued, and preparations were made for resuming truce talks, the war kept on. Ground fighting subsided. But B-29 Superfortresses were out.

The Americans and other Allies freed Monday were a far-happier lot than the first arrivals Sunday, news here said.

They were laughing, shouting, wisecracking as the Communist ambulances drove up at the exchange center here. Even the usually impassive South Koreans planned to join forces and drive to the city at which their husbands enter the United States.

Sgt. William H. White and Sgt. Albert Howard were imprisoned together. Both were released Monday night. Their wives began corresponding during the imprisonment and began planning for the day of homecoming.

In New York, a Brooklyn family knew a moment of happiness—and then a night of emptiness. Mrs. Antonia Pereira, 44, and her five sons and daughters held a gay party when the radio said Col. Pedro Pereira had been freed 22 months.

Mrs. Pereira was beaming with happiness when a reporter arrived with the bad news. The name was not that of her son—it was Col. Pedro A. Herrera of La Madera, N. M. Pedro Pereira was still a prisoner.

In Covington, Ky., there is an abandoned church. Mrs. Pearl Mullins lives there with her youngest son, Jess. Last night Mrs. Mullins sat alone by the radio, and she went when she heard three little words: "Sergeant Orville Mullins."

Mrs. Mullins knew her son had been wounded in both legs, and that Communist surgeons had performed three operations, because he wrote her that "She had no way of knowing that after his capture in 1951 he survived a Korean "death march."

He told the story in Panmunjon when he was released.

Looks as though Winter is going to have another fling whether we like it or not.

The Calloway County Conservation Club with the Calloway County Health Department is sponsoring the Rabies Control mobile unit in this county April 27 through May 1. The trailer will be in the rural area during the day and in Murray each night.

The Sportsman Club urges everyone to have their dog vaccinated. It not only prevents their dog from having this horrible disease but also saves human suffering and death. There is no cure for rabies once the symptoms have developed. Within the past two weeks ten people have been attacked by rabid dogs and are now being given the Pasteur Treatment. There is a definite risk involved in having to take this treatment.

The estimated cattle loss for 1952 in this county was $15,000. A veterinarian reported one man's loss was estimated at $1,500. This county cannot afford this huge dollar loss each year when a dog can be vaccinated for $1.50.

Rabies has been completely wiped out in England by all dogs being confined for a six month period. Rabies can be wiped out in Calloway County by vaccinating all dogs. Protect your dog, protect your cattle, protect your family, protect yourself and protect your community through vaccination.

Released Prisoner Taken To Ambulance By Medics

MEDICS WEARING Red Cross armbands direct allied prisoners released by the Reds to waiting ambulances at Panmunjon. Note man carrying belongings in a bundle. This operation followed processing of the prisoners through exchange tent.

Weather is supposed to get colder and colder until it snows some more.

Mr. Paul Kinging brought in a hen egg of large dimensions Saturday.

AN AMERICAN PRISONER is shown being placed in an ambulance at Panmunjon after being released by the Reds. Other ambulances are lined up to receive stretcher cases. U. S. military police and other personnel also are in view.

Kentucky Prisoners Give Comments On Treatment

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea—April 21 (UP)—Two Kentucky prisoners freed by the Communists in the second day of prisoner exchanges today had varied comment.

Pfc. Paul O. Blanton, of Brodhead, was the first American freed in the second prisoner exchange. When asked how he felt, he replied:

"At first I thought it was a dream, but when I saw that great big healthy American MP I knew it was real.

Cpl. Orville R. Mullins, of Covington, told what happened after he was captured in Korea on August 27, 1951.

He said that of the original group of 182 prisoners of which he was a member, only 61 were alive when the group was broken up about a year ago.

Mullins said, "There was real brutality in the early days."

He told of the death march, and how men weakened until they could not keep up.

"The North Koreans batted them on the head with rifles. Sometimes a man dropped, you would hear a shot. Then we would march on. At one time two jeep loads of Russian officers stopped up on the road. They tried to get the guards drunk, and motioned them to shoot prisoners."

Mullins said most of the men who fell on the death march were weakened by dysentery, lack of food and too much walking.

Released prisoners taken to ambulances by medics.

Mr. Paul Kinging brought in a hen egg of large dimensions Saturday.

It measured about six inches around the short way and about eight inches around the long way.

Dream Comes True, Pact Made. And A False Celebration Is Held As Names Are Called

The Rabies Mobile is coming to Calloway County soon and this will offer everyone an excellent opportunity to get their dog inoculated against rabies.

New Farm Laws Are Expected

By PATRICIA WIGGINS WASHINGTON, April 21 (UP)—Agriculture Department official indicated today they expect heavy government losses on farm price support operations this year to put Congress in the mood for new farm laws.

"The best farm laws have been written in times of acute problems," said one key official, who made plain his belief that disposal of surplus farm crops will proceed under the "acute problem" heading.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson already has told congressional committees he thinks current farm law requiring high government price supports on basic farm crops, is responsible for the pile-up of about $2,000,000,000 worth of farm crops in federal storage. That law is on the books through 1954.

Benson believes a more flexible system of price propping — allowing supports at lower and more attractive levels — would turn off the flood of crops now moving under price support.

The department expects to take some big losses getting rid of the stocks that are piling up under government support programs. Unless an extreme emergency develops — like the Korean war which cleared out them, overflowing warehouses — most of the avenues open for disposal involve losses.

Farm laws allows the department to resell most stocks on domestic markets only at prices five percent above support prices plus reasonable carrying charges. However, it can set its own price on export sales; it can donate stocks to welfare or relief groups at home or abroad; or it can sell at any price when spoilage threatens. Because current market prices on most support crops are now close to supported levels, comparatively few takers bid on domestic sales offers at a higher price.

Most of the other moves result in losses, not only because the government gets rid of the crops at prices below what was paid for them, but because donations or cut-rate sales may depress markets more and pull even more crops under price support.

Nevertheless, rather than have food go to waste, the department makes the cheaper sales and takes the losses. During the first eight months of the current fiscal year — from July 1, 1952 through last March 1 — it lost $24,125,000 getting rid of its surplus supplies of an inch.

Voice Challenges Czechoslovakia

WASHINGTON April 21 (UP)—The Voice of America is challenging Czechoslovakia to fall in line with recent Soviet "peace" moves by releasing American newsmen William N. Ostiz, who starts his third year in a Red prison Thursday.

In a broadcast, the Voice noted that Soviet authorities have freed 15 physicians who in January were accused of medical sabotage and plotting to murder prominent Russian figures. The Reds said detailed confessions of the physicians had proved to be false.

Calling attention to the "shameful" Ostiz case, the Voice said the American correspondent's "confession" before a Czech peoples' court was "patently false."

The Voice also called for a repudiation of "another obvious miscarriage of justice" — the conviction of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, who served a prison term in Hungary on treason charges.

Edwin Cain is building a house on South 12th street next to Hugo Wilson.

There is a small fee, but it will be worth it for the Rabies Mobile to come practically to your door.

Longer Rural Routes Planned

WASHINGTON April 21 (UP)—The Post Office Department is studying the possibility of longer routes for rural carriers, many of whom now complete their routes in half a day.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said the department is "going into the question" of lengthening rural routes in its campaign to cut costs of delivering the mail.

He said longer routes would eliminate some of the 32,500 carriers' positions.

A "good many" rural carriers work only a four or five-hour day, a department spokesman said. The average route is 45 miles, and most are on paved or gravelled roads. These carriers usually check in at 7:30 or 8 a.m. deliver the mail and check out by noon or 12:30 p.m. many are farmers in the afternoons.

Rural carriers' jobs are the most sought after positions in the postal service because of the short hours and the mileage allowances, the spokesman said.

Carriers furnish their own cars and receive an "equipment allowance" of nine cents a mile for their use.

The average rural carrier was paid a total of $3,462 in the last fiscal year — a $4,202 in salary and $1,200 mileage.

You can save yourself a lot of worry by having your dog inoculated now against rabies.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson already has told congressional committees he thinks current farm law requiring high government price supports on basic farm crops, is responsible for the pile-up of about $2,000,000,000 worth of farm crops in federal storage. ### Murray Men Are Award Recipients

Henry Holton of Murray, Finance Chairman of the Happy Valley District, received the 1952 President's Award last night at a dinner in Paducah.

At the same dinner, George Carter, scoutmaster of troop 90 of Murray, received the Forward on Liberty Scout Award.

Other scout leaders of the Four Rivers Council were also recognized at the dinner.

Daughter Born To Former Murrayans

Airman First Class and Mrs. B. H. Giles of Ogden, Utah, are the parents of a daughter, Jenny Carol, weighing seven pounds, born Monday, April 20.

Mr. Giles is the former Miss Jeannette Farmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer of Murray. Airman GIBB, son of Mrs. Ruth Giles, also of Murray, is stationed at Hill Air Force Base near Ogden.

He recalled Monday, after it was apparent that he was alright, just why he was so quiet.

He told of the death march, and how men weakened until they could not keep up.

FIVE DAY FORECAST

Kentucky: Temperatures Wednesday through Sunday will average above seasonal levels. Kentucky normal 59 degrees. Warmer weather Wednesday and Thursday, continuing through the period showers Thursday and Thursday night will total about one-fourth of an inch.

Which gives you an insight on the problem involved in raising kids. One of the main things is to teach them the values to be placed on the proper things.

Pre-School Health Roundup At Alto

The preschool health roundup will be held at the Alto High School Friday, April 24, according to an announcement by the principal, W. B. Miller.

Dr. J. A. Outland will be present to examine all children who plan to enter the first grade of school this fall. All parents are urged to have their children at the school on Friday for the roundup.

Generally Fair Is Weather Forecast

By United Press Generally fair weather was reported over most of the nation today after a week of bone-chilling cold, strong winds and rain and snow storms.

Winter was expected to get in a few more weeks, however, in sections of Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, New England and New York State where rain squalls were late in the day.

Temperatures in the low 30's were forecast in the western-half of the nation and as far south as northern Mississippi.

Generally mild weather was promised for most of the Midwest with temperatures in the high 40's and even in the low 50's in some places.

Spring seemed ready to settle down as the three day outlook gave indication that mild weather would linger for most of the nation for the next few days.

Lt. Billy Thurman Expected Home Soon

He will leave Tokyo by plane on the 22 or the 23 of April. He will receive a thirty or forty day leave on his return to the states. Following this leave, he will be stationed at Greenwood, South Carolina.

Federal Spending Cut Nears Billion Mark

WASHINGTON April 21 (UP)—The Eisenhower administration today neared the $1,000,000,000 mark in its drive to cut federal spending enough to justify tax relief.

Savings staked out during the first three months of Republican rule still fall far short of balancing the budget for the 1954 fiscal year which begins July 1. But reports are not yet in from the two biggest items in the budget — defense spending and foreign aid.

Government departments and agencies that have completed their new budgets have trimmed about $660,000,000 from the appropriations requested in the budget submitted by former President Truman in January.

Brother Of Local Man Is Killed

Miss Patricia Ann Miller, Bobby Eaker Wed In Church Ceremony At Lynn Grove
Masses of orchid and white spring flowers, pointed up by lighted white tapers, formed the lovely backdrop for the impressive wedding which took place in the Lynn Grove Methodist Church Wednesday, April 15, at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.
Miss Patricia Ann Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Miller, became the bride of Mr. Bobby Eaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Eaker, in a simple, beautiful ceremony performed by the Rev. L. C. Lee.
As the guests assembled Mrs. Carlos Jones softly played arrangements including "At Dawn" by Goldman, "Lebestraum" by Liszt, and the traditional Bridal Chorus by Wagner as the recessional. Mrs. Johnny Orr, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" by Boni. "Because" by D'Hardelot, and following the pledging of vows, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.
To the strains of the traditional Wedding March by Mendelssohn, the bride entered on the arm of her father. The bride, a charming brunette, was lovely in the white satin, full length train with shoulder length veil of illusion. The becoming-fitted bodice with pointed waist was accentuated by a sweetheart neckline, and sleeves pointed at the waist. She carried a dainty hand bouquet of white, entered by an orchid.

Perfume That Clings
Q. — Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one. — Mrs. A. W.
A. — A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houdignant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at Scott-Walgreen Drugs.

The PREDECESSORS OF ELIZABETH II

No. 2: William I (The Conqueror). Ruled England 1066-1087.

Son of 1027 or 1028, illegitimate son of Duke of Normandy and tennant's daughter. A cousin of Edward the Confessor, he invaded England after Edward's death and deposed and killed Harold, who had made himself the king. He made one strong kingdom of England, previously many small realms. He encouraged the woolen trade and crafts, and forged trade links between England and Europe that ended its political and cultural isolation. From his time on, England was Anglo-Norman, not Anglo-Saxon. The English language has many Latin roots because of the Norman conquest.

[1] An old French engraving of William I provides interesting details of the coats of mail worn by warriors of his time. William was killed by a fall from a horse.

Vessels in William's invasion of England, 1066—a detail from the famous Bayeux Tapestry. William turned his warships into warships and introduced British goods the breadth of Europe.

This is No. 2 in a series on the predecessors of Elizabeth II as ruler of England. The next will appear tomorrow. Distributed by Kiss Features Syndicate
