Roy Bard Presented ASC Award; County Is Most Outstanding

Wednesday morning at the ASC county office at Hickman, Roy Bard, Chairman of the County ASC Committee, was presented an award for Fulton County being selected as the most outstanding county in the Western District of Kentucky.

The award was presented by Kenneth Grogan, of Murray, ASC Fieldman for 12 counties in the Western part of Kentucky, including Fulton County.

Mr. Grogan, who works out of the Lexington office, made the selection, which was confirmed by the State ASC Committee.

Fulton County was selected for the award for the organization of work in the office at Hickman, the interest of the committee, the office manager and clerks in providing a good program for farmers in the county, the efficiency in the office, and the good cooperation with the state office in being prompt with reports, etc., and many other reasons which will be told in a letter which will be run with a picture of the Hickman group next week.

Mr. Grogan said, "The Hickman office group exercises a lot of initiative in their work."

S. E. Holly, ASC office manager, has also been awarded two financial awards with certificates for making suggestions which were used all over the state.

Mr. Bard has been with the County ASC Committee going on four years. He has been chairman for the past two years, and before that was a regular member one year.

When the Committee was selected for the award, the other Committee members were James Sanger, regular member and James White, regular member. Now, Roy D. Taylor has replaced Mr. White on the Committee.

Jones Pleads Guilty Tuesday In Death Of Joe O'Conner

Molly Jones, Hickman, pleaded guilty to a homicide charge in Fulton Circuit Court at Hickman Tuesday and was sentenced to a year in prison.

A motion for probation was entered, and Circuit Judge Elvis J. Stahr was expected to rule on the motion Wednesday.

Jones was charged in connection with the death of Joe O'Conner several months ago.

At that time officers said Jones found O'Conner by the side of a highway and took him to Hickman. O'Conner and Jones engaged in a fight and O'Conner died, allegedly from being struck by Jones. Four colored men pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the I. Q. Taylor store at Hickman and were sentenced to penitentiary. They are Luke-Dickens, two years; Percy Brown, two years; Junior Smith, one year; and George Purefield, one year.

A. Z. Brown, charged in the same case, pleaded not guilty and his trial has been set for May.

Charles Buchanan, who pleaded guilty to breaking into the T. McConnell store at Hickman, was given a two-year sentence. Milton Craddock, pleaded not guilty to the same charge and his trial also is scheduled for May.

William H. Allen, charged with carrying concealed a deadly weapon, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years.

The trial of a $100,000 suit against the Hickman-Fulton County Rural Electric Co-operative Corporation will get underway Wednesday. The co-op is being sued by Effie Jewell Harrison in connection with the death of John Rowland Harrison who was electrocuted at Cayce some time ago.

You know, it's a sad commentary on the business of politics that anybody who joins in a fight to bring good government to a community is almost always accused of "getting something out of it." That "getting something" ranges from out and out theft to cutting up people in small pieces.

I am sure that my state-wide connection with the campaign of Bert Combs for Governor has brought that thought to your mind, either in a malicious or an innocent fashion.

Before any of you form any gigantic notions about my future activities if my friend Bert Combs should get elected... LET'S GET THE RECORD STRAIGHT RIGHT HERE AND NOW AND IN PRINT SO THAT THERE WILL BE NO DOUBLE TALKING LATER ON.

In the first place it is beneath the dignity of Bert Combs to bribe anybody for their support. When I joined his state headquarters as campaign chairwoman he neither offered me a job, nor did I ask for one. I am not one of the "high-priced" writers that Mr. Waterfield accused Mr. Combs of hiring to do his public relations. All of us, except the office force of course, are working on a volunteer basis, devoting our time and efforts to restore self-respect to State Government.

I know there are many wonderful people among you who are much concerned about my welfare, of the advertising cancellations that have come my way, of the under-handed paid political advertising that appeared in the Daily Leader without the benefit of such designation, and the carefully planned destruction of our public service spirit.

But don't worry. Every knock is a boost. I can take these reprisals. I can take this intimidation and coercion and when the campaign is over and if Bert Combs is elected I can say that it was well worth it for the opportunity to work side by side with a State Administration that will have Paul and me personally seeking everything that we can

Wyatt And Combs Join Forces

Wyatt Will Run As Lt-Governor With Combs On United Ticket "To Defeat Chandlerism"

Louisville Attorney Wilson Wyatt has withdrawn as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor and will become a candidate for Lieutenant Governor on a combined anti-State Administration ticket with Bert Combs as top man.

Wyatt's withdrawal has been confirmed at Louisville by Dave Francis, his campaign manager, who says "We believe this is what people all over Kentucky have been anxious to see happen, and I feel that Mr. Wyatt is an extremely big man to put the party foremost over personal ambition."

"It is definite, there is a Combs-Wyatt team," Francis added.

One weapon used by Clements and the Combs forces to bring Wyatt's withdrawal was said to be a straw poll conducted for Clements by a professional poll-taking organization.

Figures derived from this poll, taken in 115 counties, showed Wyatt running a bad third in the race.

There were reports that this information caused even leaders of the Third District Democratic organization to tell Wyatt that conferring with leaders of both the Combs and Wyatt camps.

Wyatt, contacted by United Press International says of his decision, "in the interest of a better Kentucky, I have reached a decision which will bring unity to the Democratic Party. Although I believe that with four months of aggressive campaigning I could win the primary in a three man race. I know there are thousands of dedicated Democrats who are hoping—even praying—for a closing of ranks in order to be certain that we will defeat 'Chandlerism' in order to bring a new slate to Frankfort.

Wilson Wyatt

"Far more important than position or pride are the principles which caused me to enter this race in the first place. These principles must triumph if Kentucky is to go forward. In the interest of complete harmony among the anti-Chandler Democrats, I have offered therefore to combine forces with Bert Combs on the basis of these principles and to run with him as a team. I have expressed by willingness to be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. I want to express my deep appreciation to my many friends and co-workers who have been supporting me. I know they will understand this decision and I urge them to join with me... the former Louisville mayor added.

Combs, contacted at Louisville, says, "we welcome this opportunity to work with Wilson Wyatt and his organization and supporters. I find it hard to express the pride, gratitude and deep satisfaction that I feel in accepting Mr. Wyatt's magnanimous offer to join forces with us. Never in the political history of Kentucky has there been a more unselfish action, and I know the people of Kentucky share my sincere gratitude to this outstanding Ken-tuckyman who has set aside personal ambition and unparalleled demonstration of devotion to the welfare of his state."

Home Partially Destroyed When Hit By Lightning

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Green on Third Street was struck by lightning Tuesday night during a rainstorm and one room in the attic was destroyed by fire. The Fulton Fire Department fought the fire for over two hours before putting out the blaze.

Furniture in the upstairs room was destroyed, and much of the downstairs was water-soaked.

While Constable Billy Hagan and Ouida Jewell, News Editor of The News and WFUL, were helping to remove furniture from a back bedroom downstairs, a large portion of the plaster on the ceiling caved in on Miss Jewell, hitting her on the head, and blocking the doorway near her. She was stunned for a second and was water-soaked. It was not until after the fire was out that she discovered that only a portion of the ceiling had fallen in on her instead of all of it.

Stokes Announcement For Office Brings Out Interesting Statistics

With the formal announcement by Harry Barrett Stokes of Hickman that he would be a candidate for representative from Fulton and Hickman counties, some interesting statistics in this connection are brought to light today.

Within the past thirty years, the two counties have been represented by a Hickman Countian for 22 years; the City of Fulton and the City of Hickman have had one representative each. Fulton County residents living out of the city limits of both Hickman and Fulton have represented the counties for three terms.

Here is the information on these statistics as procured from the Secretary of State in Frankfort.

1930	J. D. Via, Clinton
1932	J. D. Via, Clinton

Blue Crutch Day To Be Held

The little Blue Crutch lapel tag, symbol in the past of the needs of polio patients, will betoken hope for many handicapped by other ailments during the 1959 March of Dimes.

Blue Crutch Day, Saturday, Jan. 24, is being sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary with Mrs. Joe Holland as chairman.

The tags this year will identify donors to the expanded National Foundation program of continued polio aid plus a new medical assault on arthritis and birth defects and basic research aimed at improvement of man's health. They will be sold by volunteers at busy intersections, other street corners, shopping areas and elsewhere.

The Girl Scouts of Troops 51 and 53 will sell the Blue Crutch tags on the street Saturday.

ed for his first term, served the counties for two terms.

While Mr. Stokes makes his formal announcement today, Joe Treas, a popular city of Fulton resident has made known his plans to seek the office of State representative from the two counties. The previously circulated campaign issue that a Fulton County "city" has not had a representative in 33 years is refuted today by the official statistics from the Secretary of State's office. Hickman has not had a representative from within its borders in 24 years, and Fulton has not had a representative from within its city borders in 22 years.

The score appears about even on this campaign plea. It is not generally known whether or not Hickman County will have a candidate in the race.

Failure of a candidate from Hickman County to enter the race leaves that county the battleground for the two young men who plan to make the race from Fulton County. While both Treas and Stokes have many friends all over the county, it is likely that each will get the majority of the votes in their respective areas.

It is a moot question among political observers whether or not Harry Lee Waterfield of Clinton and a candidate for Governor will give his blessing to one or the other of the candidates.

HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith on Highway 94 at the Lawson Place was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Friday at 1:20. The Smiths were not at home at the time. Only a few items of furniture were saved. The Fulton Fire Department was called, but the fire had too much headway for the house to be saved.

Harry B. Stokes Announces As Candidate For Representative

Harry B. Stokes, young Hickman businessman, is today announcing his candidacy for State Representative of the First District, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held May 26.

Mr. Stokes is the first candidate to announce his intentions for the office, which was vacated some months ago by the death of Jack Johnson of Clinton.

Mr. Stokes' official announcement follows:

TO THE VOTERS OF FULTON-HICKMAN COUNTIES:

I would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for State Representative of the 1st District subject to the Democratic Primary to be held May 26, 1959. This announcement is not done in haste. I have thought long and searchingly about this step for some months and have now decided to run for only one reason—a keen desire to do what little I can to promote and encourage the future prosperity of the district in which I live.

I am 31 years old and have spent my life in Hickman. My parents are the former Camille Barrett of Hickman and Fred Stokes, Sr. of Water Valley. I graduated from Hickman High School in 1945. I attended Columbia Military Academy and had approximately a year at Ohio State University. I spent two years in the Army Field Artillery. I am married to the former Susan Quinn of Mayfield and have three fine children. I belong to the American Legion, the Masons, am Vice-President of the Methodist Men's Club, Secretary of the Civitan Club, and Chairman of the Hickman Planning Commission. Stokes Chevrolet Co., and Fred Stokes Transport, Inc.

I have taken an active interest in civic and church affairs since my discharge from the Army. This interest in civic affairs has influenced me to seek this office. It is only fair to you whom I ask to support me in this endeavor that I state to you some of the things in which I believe:

1. I believe first that a representative of the people, whether he be Senator or Representative, owes first allegiance to the people

Majority of 40,000 In Third District For Wyatt Is Political Myth And Absurd Bit Of Mathematics

The most amazing bit of political absurdity to come out of this or any other political campaign is the claim made by the Louisville-Jefferson County organization that Wilson Wyatt will carry that district by upwards of 40,000 votes. Sometimes the statement claims as high as 50,000 majority for Mr. Wyatt which makes the claim, not absurd, but laughingly ridiculous.

The HIGHEST MAJORITY EVER GIVEN TO A GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE IN A PRIMARY BY THE LOUISVILLE-JEFFERSON COUNTY ORGANIZATION (THIRD DISTRICT) IS 21,819 votes and that was given to Lawrence W. Wetherby, one of the most popular Governors ever to go into office for a full-term.

Now let's take a look at that 21,819 vote third district majority for Lawrence W. Wetherby in 1951 AND PROVE THAT that 40,000 majority is such a wild fabrication that surely not even Mr. Wyatt can believe it.

In 1951 when Lawrence Wetherby was given the highest majority ever given a gubernatorial candidate in a primary by the Third District (21,819) he was known in political parlance as a "sitting" governor. The term means that Wetherby was already in office, having served one year of the term of Earle Clements, who went to the Senate leaving Wetherby acting Governor. In the 1951 race Wetherby had the full support of the Louisville-Jefferson County organization behind him, he had a wealth of State employees in the district, and what's more he was a Louisville resident, and had the Louisville Courier-Journal behind him. It was the ideal set-up.

With all that, the best majority the Third District organization could give him was 21,819 majority.

In 1955 the Louisville organization gave Bert Combs only a 12,000 vote majority and that with the full strength of the State Administration, two United States Senators, six Congressmen and the Louisville Courier-Journal on his side.

Now comes 1959 with some other interesting facts to ponder about Wilson W. Wyatt. It would be no misstatement to say that he is not the most popular fellow who ever wore a politician's armor. He has hanging over his head two miserable defeats for Adlai Stevenson, when he (Wyatt) was Stevenson's personal campaign manager. He has had some right unpleasant differences with Miss Lennie McLaughlin (in his past) and with one major Third District politician against him (Scott Hamilton) and more to come, the once all-powerful Third District organization is tottering, but seriously.

More, the State Administration today has nearly 2000 employees in Louisville, which Mr. Waterfield should be able to claim to the tune of some 15,000 votes. The same district gave Bert Combs 34,000 votes in 1955, and its no wild prediction to say that he will get at least 12,000 to 15,000 in 1959. Think that's fantastic... wait and see!

Now let's whittle a little on that 40,000 majority for Mr. Wyatt in the Third District.

Appraising the situation in the Third District as it is today, we'll split the difference with both Mr. Waterfield and Mr. Combs and give them each 12,500 votes in Louisville, making a total of 25,000 that will not be cast for Mr. Wyatt.

Now look here at Louisville:
Possible Votes To Be Cast 50,000
Waterfield and Combs 25,000

Mr. Wyatt is for from 40,000 majority on this score.

Charming as he may be, this does not seem to be the year, nor the circumstances by which Mr. Wyatt can combat the State Administration, or Bert Combs, who, because of his honest and straightforward campaign in 1955 has become the symbol of anti-Chandlerism in this campaign.

Regardless of Mr. Waterfield's statements to the contrary, the issue in this gubernatorial campaign is ANTI-CHANDLERISM, just as it has been in every race that has seen the Chandler-backed candidate hopelessly defeated at the polls.

And since Mr. Chandler hopes to run for President of the United States if Waterfield is elected, Kentuckians are all the more anxious to rid their state of every hint of local and national disgrace that this part-time Governor has imposed upon the once honorable, once revered Bluegrass State of Kentucky.

and perform public penances. Their self-effacing actions proceeded from no conviction they were miserable, unworthy sinners, deserving not even to live. They wanted only to SEEM humble. They did. And that was their reward—they LOOKED good.

OUR WAY of life must not be that of the Pharisees. With a little thought and reflection we can see that ULTIMATELY all our gifts come from God. And humility is the virtue which will help us maintain this relationship of dependence between ourselves and God.

Let it be noted here that there is a false humility that can force us into a lie. The fact is that we all have certain talents and accomplishments. It is not humility, therefore, to tell some complimenting friend that he is a bald-faced fibber, and that you really can't play the piano, just after you've flawlessly run through a Bock or Beethoven. The point is obvious. It is not humility to deny a God-given gift. Humility is ever truth.

ALL OF US can do something well, all of us have some gifts to display. Wear them well; don't hide them. Use them now—your abilities, humor, love, personality—everything. But don't forget that your God loved you enough to trust you with these talents. Give credit where credit is due.

Nobody ever said humility would be easy. It takes courage to admit we've done wrong or that others are better than us. But it is essential for our eternal welfare that we all possess and practice this virtue. In striving for humility we can do no better than imitate Jesus Christ, the Son of God, for He has said, "Learn of me, because I am... humble."

The good luck of Percy Brown, 36-year-old colored prisoner, did not last very long after his escape from the Fulton County Court House at Hickman, by jumping from a second story window.

A short time after his escape, he thumbed a ride from a car passing down the Hickman-Union City highway, about three and one-half miles southeast of Hickman. When the car stopped out jumped Deputy Jailer James Martin, who grabbed Brown and carried him back to the county jail.

The deputy jailer had taken Brown and other prisoners in the Fulton County Jail at Hickman to the court house Thursday afternoon to clean the building for Circuit Court, which convened Monday morning.

The upstairs had been cleaned and the deputy and the prisoners had moved downstairs, when it was noticed that the duster and pan had been left upstairs. Brown was sent to fetch the cleaning items. The deputy walked part of the way with him, then waited. Shortly, a loud noise was heard. Brown had made his escape by jumping from a second story window. This was at 3:30 p. m.

When the other prisoners were back in jail, Deputy Martin got in his car and was combing the countryside looking for the escaped prisoner. He had a flat tire. He flagged a ride into Hickman with a city employee, Swann Jones. After having the flat fixed the deputy was being returned to his car by Jones, when the prisoner was seen thumbing a ride. The deputy told Jones to stop for the Negro and he laid down in the seat, until the car had stopped. That's when he jumped out and grabbed the escapee.

Brown is awaiting trial, charged with breaking into the I. Q. Taylor store at Hickman.

Did you ever eat any chocolate-covered ants, fried grasshoppers, or rattlesnake meat? They say rattlesnake meat is good, but I don't think I could stomach ants and grasshoppers. Do you? Just thinking about it, makes me sick—but those unusual items, and many more, can be purchased in some grocery stores.

I decided I wanted some caviar and asked a friend to pick up some in Memphis. She went to one of those big supermarkets, which handles everything under the sun in the food line, and said she almost brought me some of those chocolate-covered ants and fried grasshoppers—but they were too expensive. It's a good thing she didn't, for it would have been money down the drain. They would have, for sure, ended up in the trash can! Ug!

A friend of mine, Mrs. Pauline Bell, of South Fulton, really pulled a boner, recently. She was having an early morning party, so got up at 5 a. m. to prepare delicious refreshments to serve. Her guests came. The party was over and everyone had left, except two, when Mrs. Bell discovered she had forgotten to serve her refreshments. Was she embarrassed!

Recently, we received the cutest picture of the three off-springs of Winnie and Tom Cataldo of New York City. Fultonians will remember Tom as one of the outstanding ballplayers on the local Kitty League team back a few years ago. Winnie writes the nicest letters and is always interested to hear of their friends back here.

The other day at the radio station, I really got a scare. There are only two things I am afraid of, and those are gas and guns. My fear of gas originated when I was a child, when mother and I were almost suffocated by gas at our home in Birmingham, Mich. I had some little cooking utensils and wanted to bake a cake. I thought I would light the stove, but I only turned on the gas. After mother had developed a horrible headache, she discovered that the gas was turned on.

A number of years ago I did about the same thing over at Radio Station WENK at Union City, while working there.

But, to get back to the other afternoon at WFUL, Ken Stanley and I were at the station, along. He was in the control room and I was in the office. I began to smell a strange odor and soon developed a headache. Ever so often I would look in the wastebasket to see if it was on fire (I had dumped an ashtray a short time before). There was no fire. After awhile, Ken came away from the controls and complained of the smell. We began a search of the building, just as Ken Turner, came in. It was he who discovered that the pilot light on the gas heater was out, and gas was filling the building.

We are glad to hear that Richard Myatt, manager of the Colp Wholesale Co. here, is reported to be some improved at Hillview Hospital. Mr. Myatt has been seriously ill.

Mr. Guy Robertson of Highlands, who has been employed by the I. C. Railroad for many years as an engineer made his last run Friday. Mr. Robertson, who was 65 on Jan. 18, took his railroad pension on Monday, Jan. 19. Mr. Robertson and his wife have one son.

Was chatting with Mr. Sonie Madding, local garageman. Friday at the Hickory Log, and was amazed to learn that he is 66 years old. You would never guess it! He says he is mighty proud of his good health and that he has the energy of a youngster. You know, I can remember when I used to think someone 65 was really old. But, not any longer! It seems like the older I get, the younger the older people are.

I understand that Thursday, Feb. 5, is the date set for both the annual Blue and Gold Banquet of the Cub Scouts and the annual general meeting of the Twin-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Humility Tells The Truth

By Francis M. Lee,

Associate Editor of "The Liguorian"

CHANCES ARE we've all chuckled over the ancient chestnut about the young fellow who always said the one thing he was proud of was his humility.

Humorous? Yes. But there can be no humor involved for those unfortunate individuals who feel that humility is not for them. Blinded and misguided by too many I's in their lives, they fail to see that humility is a very necessary stepping stone to eternal happiness. They prefer to wander in a mire of deluded self-sufficiency rather than admit their dependence on a higher Being.

FRANKLY and simply speaking, humility is knowing what you are—and acting like it. To act humble for any other reason, save out of this self-knowledge, can be sheerly disgusting.

Children With Birth Defects To Benefit From March of Dimes

Children with birth defects, rated by physicians the childhood health problem most needful of attention in America today, will benefit from the 1959 March of Dimes conducted this January by the National Foundation.

"The theme for the expanded March of Dimes is 'Toward Greater Victories,'" the director said. "Now that the Salk vaccine has given the key to victory over polio, the National Foundation is ready to move on to other pressing problems."

"Our specific initial goals are polio, virus diseases, arthritis, birth defects and disorders of the central nervous system."

Birth defects (congenital malformations) cause the death of 34,000 U. S. infants a year, the campaign director said.

"This is one-fourth of all infants who are stillborn or die within the first month of life. Some 250,000 newborn babies annually have significant birth defects. Half of them will grow up afflicted with serious illness, crippling or chronic disease."

Patient aid for children through 18 suffering from birth defects involving the central nervous system soon will be offered by the National Foundation, the March of Dimes director announced. Included are spina bifida (faulty structure of the spine); encephalocele (open skull); and hydrocephalus (excessive fluid in the brain cavities).

These defects are caused before birth, not during the act of birth, he said. Known causes are injuries to the germ cells and factors which act on the child as it develops within the mother, or both.

is increasing, he reported. In 1939, a total of 12,413 infants died of this cause, but by 1953 the number rose to 20,012. Furthermore, the number of persons surviving crippling birth defects gains with improvement of surgical and medical techniques.

"National Foundation researchers will study the causes of all of the more than 600 kinds of birth defects," the March of Dimes director said. "They will seek methods of prevention as well as improved techniques for diagnosis and treatment. The earlier birth defects are detected, the better they respond to medical care or surgery."

Farmers who live in the Bayou de Chein watershed are considering forming a watershed conservancy district. The district would be formed with the aim of obtaining federal aid for erosion control and drainage on farms in the watershed.

Farmers in Graves County and Hickman County, who live in the watershed, are cooperating.

All farmers in the watershed should discuss this problem with the Soil Conservation District Supervisor, the County Agent or the Soil Conservationist in this county.

Sylviadeen Moss Becomes Bride Of Harold Pewitt On January 4th

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pewitt

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moss was a scene of nuptial beauty on Sunday afternoon, January 4, when their daughter, Sylviadeen, became the bride of James Harold Pewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mac Pewitt. The impressive double-ring ceremony was solemnized at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with the Reverend Hoyt Wilson officiating in the presence of the members of the immediate families and a very few close friends.

The mantel in the living room marked the place of the ceremony. A fan shaped arrangement of white gladioli centered the mantel and tall white tapers in Gothic candelabra were placed at either side. Arrangements of greenery added richness to the setting. Preceding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was heard.

Richard Moss, brother of the bride served as acolyte.

The lovely young bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful formal wedding gown of pure silk dupioni, and imported Chantilly lace in a bridal rose design made over heavy bridal satin. The bodice design of the lace formed a high sabrina neckline and was outlined with a bow knot design of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The long lace sleeves were closely fitted and extended in points over her hands. Elaborate lace panels were applied to the voluminous silk skirt which was floor length. Her misty finger tip length veil fell from a pill box of the silk which also had lace designs applied with pearls. The entire edge of the headdress was outlined with pearls. She wore small pearl earrings and carried a white Bible surmounted with a large white orchid poised on tulle and showered with double-faced satin ribbons.

The bride's twin sister, Mrs. Charles A. Sallie, was her matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a formal frock of petal pink tulle with matching lace strapless bodice; a lace jacket veiled the shoulders. She wore a pink feather sheel hat and short white gloves and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations surrounded with matching tulle and tied with satin ribbons.

Robert Pewitt, uncle of the groom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with first birthday Friday night with a party, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Merryman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. King, and Mr. and Mrs. John McClanahan.

The Drama and Literature Department of the Fulton Woman's Club had an important meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Howard Adams. Program leader for the evening was Mrs. B. J. Pigue and she presented Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Jr., who reviewed, "The Thread That Runs So True," the autobiography of Jesse Stuart. Special emphasis was placed on the membership and attendance drive for the department. Mrs. Robert Graham and Mrs. Bob Brown are co-chairman for the drive.

The Polio Coffees are continuing in Fulton and the surrounding area. Thursday Mrs. Guy Fry had a Coffee at her home in West Fulton, and on Friday another one was held in the home of Mrs. Harold Puckett in Water Valley. Several more have been planned, according to Mrs. Morgan Omar, Fulton County Polio Drive Chairman.

Miss Patsy June Sanford Becomes Bride Of James Wendell Conn

The marriage of Miss Patsy June Sanford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erse Sanford of Wingo, and James Wendell Conn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Conn of Fulton took place January 11, at 2:30 in the afternoon at Poyner's Chapel Methodist Church.

The minister of the church, the Rev. B. A. Bowden, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The archway fronting the altar was entwined with palms. Candelabra set amid baskets of white gladioli and palms completed the decorations.

Mrs. Gerald Conn, pianist, and Mrs. James Nolan Vaughan, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Vaughan, cousin of the bridegroom, sang "I Love You Truly" by Bond and "O Promise Me" by deKoven. Mrs. Conn played "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "Always," by Berlin; and "Hallelujah," by "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with fitted bodice. The bodice featured an applique of lace and a scalloped bateau neckline. The bouffant-length skirt was of lace over satin and net. The long sleeves terminated in calla lily points over the hands. Her waistlength veil of bridal illusion fell from a lace-covered crown sprinkled with seed pearls. Her colonial bouquet was of white carnations centered with an orchid. A single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

The bride chose Miss Dale Pharis of Fulton as her attendant. Miss Pharis wore a gown of blue net over taffeta with a lace bodice. Her short veil was of blue net sprinkled with pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Gerald Conn, to be best man. The ushers were James Sanford, brother of the bride, and Dick Conn, brother of the bridegroom.

Theresa Sanford and Harold Wade Sanford, niece and nephew of the bride, acted as flower girl and ring bearer. The flower girl wore a ballerina length yellow taffeta gown with net skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rose buds with white streamers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sanford chose a navy blue dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother also wore a navy blue dress. With it she wore a gray hat. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with white wedding bells and was surrounded by white carnations.

The table was overlaid with a lace cloth over a green cloth. White and green streamers and large wedding bells along the walls completed the decorations.

Mrs. C. F. Sanford, Mrs. Dick Conn, and Miss Maggie Conn were in charge of serving. Miss Betty Myatt kept the guest register.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Conn chose a blue wool jersey sheath dress trimmed with blue satin and featuring a draped cowl collar. Her accessories were black and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After their wedding trip, the couple will return to Mayfield where they plan to make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Wingo High School and attended Lambuth College in Jackson, Tennessee and Murray State College. She is presently employed by the Graves County Tax Commissioner's office.

Brother Alonzo Williams officiated at the double-ring ceremony held at the home of the bride.

The vows were exchanged before a festively decorated Christmas tree. The scene was accented by candle arrangement on either side of the tree. The candles were set among holly, pine, mistletoe, and poinsettias.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Beverly Thomas, pianist, and Miss Charlotte Saxon, soloist. Miss Saxon sang "Melody of Love" by Glazer and "Because" by d'Hardelot. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride wore a street-length sheath dress of white chiffon velvet with scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her circle veil cascaded from a white feather clip hat. She carried a hand bouquet of a single white orchid nestled among puffs of lace and velvet loops. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

The bride chose Miss Mary Ann Shemwell as her maid of honor. Her sheath gown was of red chiffon velvet fashioned along the same lines as that of the bride. Her corsage was of white carnations tied with green ribbon.

The groom chose, as his best man, Phillip Shelton, brother of the bride.

WE'RE ELDERLY, WE'RE NOT IMPORTANT, so the Hickman County politicians promise us anything yet give us nothing, say sisters Lydia Allen (left) and Rosa VanPool, Hickman Countians who have lived at the VanPool homeplace for 75 years. Following "letter to Editor" from Mr. Marvin Allen (above) received at the News office this week (see below), NEWS photographer visited the elderly people to verify story and found ancient dirt road about two miles west of Tarver's store so bad that he got stuck trying to get out.

Clinton, Ky., Route 1
Dear Editor,

Many people may be under the impression that everybody who lives in Hickman County is "sitting pretty" because we have had a Lieutenant-Governor in our County for the past three years. That isn't the truth. The truth is if you're not in politics, like some of our forgotten people out in the County, you're not important to the politicians.

We have been promised things, but we're not important. We have never gotten them.

My wife, Lydia, and I, and my wife's sister, Rosa Van Pool, are all elderly people, past 75. My wife and her sister have lived all their lives in this house, which is their homeplace. Four years ago we were promised by Harry Lee that the road leading from the WPA road past our home would be graveled. Our road has never been given a bit of help, and you still can't get through it in bad weather.

We have sat by and seen gravel hauled to all kinds of roads all around us. The politicians have hauled gravel all up and down the County, and have graveled driveways and all else, but we people are not in politics. We're not important.

It looks hard to have lived in Hickman County the last 76 years and be done like this.

So when they come around and ask for votes for Harry Lee and say what a good job he's going to do for us, all we can say is "When are we going to believe you?"

Yours Truly,

Court Uses Medics' Word To Release Hit-Run Driver Before Term Is Up

Hickman—A driver who crippled and made jobless a 22-year-old Fulton telephone operator, has been probated after serving only seven months of a year's jail sentence, Sam Beasley, 45, was ordered released by Circuit Judge Elvis J. Stahr on advice to the court that there was a possibility that death might ensue and that the defendant might be suffering with an infectious disease.

Dr. R. H. White in making a certificate of examination noted that on Dec. 16, 1958 he discovered that Beasley had "an acute congestive heart failure" and "an ulcer of his stomach which is active." He subsequently examined the prisoner on Dec. 19 noting that the heart was improving with medication, "but I feel the patient needs much more treatment than can be given under the present conditions."

Dr. E. D. Walker in a report of a Nov. 10, 1958 examination vaguely noted that Beasley's condition was very serious and that his people might prolong the prisoner's life, advised "a change in medical service, food" and transfer to a hospital.

A fellow prisoner reported that Beasley picked his teeth and gums so that he would spit up blood. Beasley is reported to have bragged that he would get out of jail on illness.

The 45-year-old Negro farmer ran down Mrs. Martha Ann Harrison on Dec. 31, 1957. She was rushed to a Memphis hospital where she spent the next 22 days. She was bed-ridden for 10 days thereafter in her home in Fulton.

Mrs. Harrison said that officers reported that Beasley had been drinking and noted that her body was dragged for over 75 feet by the car driven by Beasley. Recurrent trouble with a hip injury necessitated another two and one-half weeks in bed for the accident victim. She has a second operation scheduled for Feb. 1 and has had to use crutches again.

The bones in the victim's legs were shattered and have not—a year later—completely reknitted and healed. She also suffered injuries to her chest and nose and a brain concussion.

Formerly a telephone operator, Mrs. Harrison was given six months leave as a result of the accident. She has been unable to regain her job or get further extension of leave. The family has been advised it would be futile to try to collect damages from Beasley. He was unable to pay the $5,000 fine assessed and was reportedly to have served the fine out—seven years—in additional jail sentence.

Beasley was released on Dec. 20 on an order given orally by phone from the Circuit Clerk's office. Recorded at the courthouse, the order directed temporary probation that Beasley might get medical attention. He is now reported to be in the Veteran's Hospital at Marion, Illinois.

The certificates of Dr. White and Dr. Walker were submitted in support of the probation motion. The motion was sustained by Judge Stahr "in order that the health of other prisoners may be safeguarded." His release was made "pending his restoration to good health" at which time this probation is revoked.

She has served as president of the Tennessee Nurses Assn. and president of the West Tennessee Co. Workers Health council. Miss Crook has been active in PTA and Girl Scout work.

Youths Profit From Cattle Shows

M. W. Haws. The South Fulton boys won over the Dresden team by a large margin, but the local girls lost their game by two points.

Commissioner Ben Butler reports.

The Kentucky Department of Agriculture has sponsored these shows and sales since they were commenced 11 years ago.

Butler lauded quality of the animals in the shows this year pointing out that 56 percent of the animals shown were placed in the blue ribbon class, 29 percent in the red ribbon group and only 15 percent into the white ribbon group. Blue ribbon animals won a $10.85 cash prize, red ribbons were worth $7.23 each and white ribbon winners earned $3.62 each.

A total of 557 farm boys and girls exhibited 859 animals in the shows last year. This included 4-H Club entries from 74 counties and FFA contestants from 55 chapters.

The Fulton News, Thursday, January 22, 1959, Page 5

The average weight of these animals was 1,077 pounds. They sold for an average price of $29.33 per hundredweight. The average selling price of the animals was $316.07. The aggregate weight of all animals sold was 925,365 pounds.

In the sale held in connection with each show the 4-H and FFA grand champions were sold for prices ranging as high as $86.00 per hundredweight. The average price for the grand champions in each of the shows was $50.31 per hundred.

Butler expressed appreciation to the more than 50 firms that bought cattle at these eight sales.

Fulton was chosen for the site of the First District Tournaments. This is the first time in seven years.

Cissy Murphy was selected freshman cheerleader and the next three years was voted unanimously for the same position. Her favorite sport is basketball and her hobby is collecting vases.

Favorite clothes are an old pair of blue jeans, her sloppy polka-dot skirt, saddle oxfords and her bright orange cape she has worn all summer. She likes to play golf, swim and play tennis.

The two "Betty's", as they were so often called, were Betty Sue Johnson and Betty Jean Gordon, who will appear in the Lions Club Minstrel Feb. 22-23, doing a special tap.

The "Impossible" Took a Little Longer

Years ago the Illinois Central began building a new kind of railroad team. Into its building went fresh training methods, new and better ways of doing many jobs, new types of equipment and the sturdy backbone of financial strength it takes to support such a team.

Each passing year proved this new team's worth. In 1958 the team met its greatest challenge in a dozen years—and won. It did what we knew it could do but what many said was impossible. It chalked up a creditable business box score in a poor business year. And, at the same time, it speeded up and added fresh variety and flexibility to our services.

This is the Illinois Central team that should achieve even greater success in 1959, making this railroad a stronger, more useful servant to all the people of Mid-America.

To Make Ballard Best Waterfowl Area In Nation

Minor Clark, Commissioner of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, took a giant stride today toward "making Ballard County the best waterfowl area in the nation."

In a special announcement, Clark said the entire Ballard County Waterfowl Management area is slated to be changed to a federal-aid project in July, pending approval of the Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission.

The Ballard County area, some 8,000 acres of lush duck and goose land at the confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers near La-Center, is the state's only public waterfowl shooting area. Experts have tabbed it as potentially one of the best in the nation.

for the area where we live.

If any of you doubt my loyalty to Fulton and the area around here, I ask that you flip through the pages of your memory.

If Bert Combs is elected we will seek no "accidental benefits" for this area. It is generally understood among all of us working with Bert Combs in Fulton County that we will make a planned, deliberate effort to get our equal share of good roads, constant co-sideration on the Industrial and Development Board, and the attention of a Governor who will remember us when he's in office
instead of this periodic attention
at election time.

May I ask your consideration of the candidacy of Bert Combs
for Governor?

HARRY B—

who elected him and to the District he represents. This is not to say that long and careful considerations should not be given to matters of State, but simply that one's vote on such matters should be governed by its effect on the people he represents.

2. I believe that the "Great River Road" which, as recommended by the U. S. Engineers, would pass through Columbus Belmont Park, Cayce, and Hickman, should receive the continued support of the State of Kentucky.
My father has worked long and hard on this scenic road and I must say in all honesty and without intention of taking sides in the gubernatorial race, that the present administration has given more support to this project than all previous ones combined.

3. I believe that our Minimum Foundation Law for Education should be continued and further,
if at all possibly financially,
should be expanded and broadened. Great though our progress has been in the last few years, our teachers are still woefully underpaid.

4. I believe that the State of Kentucky should give greatly expanded help to the first district
in its ditching and drainage problems, especially that part of the first district bordering Reelfoot
Lake and the Bayou de Chein Watershed. These farms are facing a problem more acute and menacing every year.

5. I believe in vigorous enforcement of the so-called "Johnson Grass" bill sponsored and passed by the late Jack Johnson. Johnson grass is no laughing matter
in Fulton and Hickman Counties and the possibility of buying contaminated seed for seeding purposes should be carefully guarded against.

These are but a few of the many things that I feel need to be done in the interest of Fulton-Hickman Counties. I seek the advice and help of each of you in presenting our case to the Legislature.
Whoever you, the electorate, decide to send to Frankfort will most surely need this advice and help. I, of course, hope I will be your choice; but if it be someone else, I pledge to you and to him my wholehearted support in the job ahead.

I thank you,
Harry B. Stokes

sentative,

Five Youths Arrested For South Fulton Robbery Wanted Elsewhere

Paducah authorities have charges against the youths and Illinois authorities also have issued warrants against them.

Obion county authorities may have to wait until both Paducah and Illinois police dispose of their charges against the youths
before they can be brought here to face the theft charges in South Fulton.

Five McCracken County youths
have been charged with the theft of a dozen automobile radiators
from a salvage company in South Fulton.

The five were arrested by Deputy Sheriffs D. Y. Perdue and Mallory Edwards. Two of the boys are juveniles.

The others are William Lewis
Hill, 21, 418½ N. 7th St., Paducah; A. L. Dougherty Jr., 18, Paducah Rt. 4; and Larry Adam Short, 17, Paducah Rt. 8.

Warrants charging them with breaking and entering have been taken for all five boys in South Fulton. The theft occurred on Monday night of last week.

Perdue said credit for the arrest belongs to a McCracken County farmer who saw the boys cleaning the radiators on the Lyndon Road.

When he questioned the boys
about it, they gave evasive replies, so the farmer took the license number of their car and turned it over to the sheriff's office.

article read:
"The foremost financial institution of Fulton County is the City National Bank of this city.

"This splendid institution, which has been a success from the beginning, was organized in 1897
under the name of the Citizens Bank, beginning business Oct. 2 of that year with a capital of $12-500. On February 1, of the following year it doubled its capital, making $25,000. The institution continued to grow as a State bank until March 15, 1902, having in that time paid its stockholders dividends amounting to 75 per cent, per annum. It was then changed to a national bank, the name also being changed to The City National Bank. It had also done so well that its capital stock was increased to $75,000. It continued to flourish and in 1906
again increased its stock to $80-000 in order to purchase the handsome building in which the bank
now has its home. It was fitted up with elegant fixtures in keeping with the splendid record it had made and it is one of the handsomest banks in the State. The bank has always done a prosperous business and every step in its progress has been an upward one.
Its deposits on the 2nd of March, 1911 were $322,653.10; its cash
exchange and due from U. S.
Treasurer $102,836.63; its loans, discounts and over-drafts $312-167.83. From its organization, less than 13½ years ago it has paid
dividends amounting to 152 per cent, or about 11¼ per cent, annually, and has besides, over $25-000 surplus and undivided profits.
Its stock is hard to procure at $150.00 per share. The following is the splendid corps of officers and directors:

"W. W. Morris, president; W.
C. Croft, vice president; C. E.
Rice, cashier; N. G. Cooke, assistant cashier; directors: Joe Browder, J. C. Brann, W. W.
Brady, L. T. Browder, W. C. Croft,
J. W. Thomas, C. E. Rice, W. A.
Terry, Dr. George F. Weeks, and W. W. Morris.

"Mr. Morris, president of the bank is one of the foremost farmers of West Kentucky.
Mr. W. C. Croft, the vice president is a retired farmer and a most successful financier.

"The directors are all men of means and high standing in Fulton and throughout the country and are all successful financiers.

"The cashier and leading spirit in achieving the success which characterized the institution from the beginning is Mr. C. E. Rice, one of the most capable bank men in Kentucky. He came to Fulton in 1884, a stranger from his old home Bourbon county this State.
Though known in to only one place.

Subsequent investigation led to the arrest and admission of the theft, said Perdue.

He said there is a possibility that the charge against the Doughty youth may be dismissed, since his four companions have said that he was asleep in the back seat of the car when the theft occurred.

The radiators were sold for $36
to a Cairo junk dealer, said Perdue.

The boys are being held for South Fulton authorities.

South Fulton Wins Tuesday

South Fulton edged Palmersville in a pair of basketball games Tuesday night. The visiting girls took a 36-35 victory and the boys
a 69-64 win.

Palmersville's girls actually led 20-14 at halftime of their game
but succumbed to a late South Fulton rally. Shirley Brockwell scored 16 for South Fulton, including a field goal in the final seconds that won the game. Sandra Westbrook made her 15 for Palmersville.

Paul Wade scored 27 points to lead South Fulton's boys to their win. Kenneth Doncho had 18,
Jerry Rawls 16 and Cayle Griffith
15 for Palmersville.

Fulton Wins

Fulton City got hot in the third quarter at Murray Tuesday night to come from behind and take a 48-42 victory over Murray High's Tigers.

The Bulldogs paced by high-scoring Roger Pigue, rallied from a 24-22 halftime deficit and grabbed a 40-28 third stanza margin.
The Fulton quintet had trailed by one, 15-14, at the first stop.

Pigue notched 30 points in the contest as he continued to spark
the Fulton City attack.
Jerry Rose was high for Murray
with 12.

FULTON JUNIORS WIN

The Fulton High junior high basketball team defeated Fulton County here Tuesday afternoon
by a score of 33-23. Kenneth Brady was high scorer with 16 points. The Fulton eighth graders won over Hickman 33-13 in the second game of the afternoon, with Kenneth Allen as high scorer with nine points.

citizen here then and starting without money, his splendid business qualifications and exemplary life soon won for him place and reputation. It has been his excellent financing that has made the City National Bank one of the strong financial institutions of the State.

"Mr. N. G. Cooke, the capable and talented assistant cashier, is regarded as one of the most promising among the young financiers of Kentucky and is in every way competent for the responsible position which he fills in the leading bank of this section."

Ellis, general manager of the Western Dark Fired Tobacco
Growers Association, Murray.

The News received the following telegram from Mr. Stubblefield Friday, concerning his appointment:

"My selection as a member of the House Agriculture Committee is an honor and a tribute to the First District of Kentucky. I sought this assignment because I believed I could best serve the District by working on the Agriculture Committee. I am especially grateful to Congressman John C. Watts, of Kentucky, whose place on the committee I am taking, for his efforts in my behalf.

"I realize that as a freshman Congressman, in my selection to this important committee is extraordinary. My administrative assistant, Frank R. Ellis, who grew up on a tobacco farm in Calloway County, has worked for the Department of Agriculture in Washington for more than 20 years. For the past 10 years he has been Chief of the branch that handled the tobacco price-support program. His background and experience will be particularly helpful in view of my assignment to the Agriculture Committee.

brothers.
