Fulton Votes New, Separate High School

Grymes Property Selected For Site; Separation Is Better, Board Says

Group Of South Fulton Citizens Protest New High School Site

In the interests of "better educational opportunities" for South Fulton students, the Obion County Board of Education voted last Monday to spend $300,000 on a new high school building for Tennessee students at South Fulton, and to locate the new building on the Grymes property near the southeast city limits.

Monday's decision was a reversal of an earlier decision to spend the money on remodeling and new construction at the present school grounds.

In answering the controversial question of "why a new location" for South Fulton High school, the County school board took into consideration the facts that sixth, seventh and eighth-graders, now neglected because of crowded conditions, will have use of the present gym when a new one is built; that the sixth grade can move to the old high school building along with the seventh and eighth grades now using it, and that the new building, separated from the present one by about a half-mile, will foster "better educational opportunities" for all twelve grades.

The Board listed these opportunities as follows:

1. Room for expansion—Population growth of South Fulton requires additional rooms.
2. All present room is needed by first eight grades—granted the old building is not good. We are using it now and had this consolidation program not materialized we would probably have continued to use it in its present overcrowded condition.
3. Cost less to build on new site selected than on present site.
4. Present gym and cafeteria will not be lost—still have 600 students who can adequately use the facilities. Very little space will be wasted.
5. Better opportunity provided by separating the Jr. High and Continued on Page Seven

A group of South Fulton citizens, who are against the decision of the Obion County board of education to build a new South Fulton High School building on the Grymes property, met Tuesday night at 7:30 at the South Fulton City Hall to protest the decision.

Most of the group present at the meeting appeared in favor of the building being constructed at, or near, the present site of the high school.

Approximately 40 people were present at the meeting Tuesday night, with J. D. Faulkner, president of the South Fulton Booster Club presiding. A general, informal discussion was held on the matter and South Fulton Principal Lester Betty was present to answer any questions he could.

Gene Copeland, one of the four South Fulton council members who signed a petition in favor of the Grymes site, which was presented to the county school board by board member Charles Cannon, was present at the meeting Tuesday night. He stated that he was in favor of the Grymes site, but would be in favor of a straw vote on the subject, if that was

There were some, who live out in the county, who felt that they should have had a say. One expressed the belief that the school board was of the opinion that it didn't matter to the people of the county which site was chosen. (The school is a county school.)

It was brought out at the meeting that the South Fulton High School building has been condemned. The school needs new stairs inside and fire escapes on the outside. There are no fire extinguishers in the building, although there should be two on each floor, according to Principal

Twin Cities Growing, Improving News Survey For Year '58 Reveals

By Ouida Jewell

During last year, 1958, there were many improvements made in the twin cities of Fulton, Kentucky and South Fulton, Tennessee.

Many store fronts were painted and some business places did a lot of remodeling.

Dr. R. V. Putnam purchased the old Bennett home on Carr Street, completely remodeled the building and he and Dr. Shelton Owen moved their offices there from Main Street.

The Tiny Toggery was moved up the street from its small location to the larger building vacated by Drs. Putnam and Owen.

Jason's Drug Store moved from Main Street to a larger, newly redecorated building at the corner of East State Line and Paschall Street in South Fulton.

Dr. Virgil Barker purchased the building in which his offices were located and the adjoining building, formerly occupied by the Cowardin Plumbing Shop, and completely remodeled the two buildings.

The Fulton City Hall underwent many improvements. The City Clerk's office, was first completely redecorated and enlarged. Next, the old Jury Room was made into an office for the City Judge. The Police Station was made into two offices, one for the Chief of Police and one as a waiting room. Also, the big hallway was decorated. There were new floors, the ceilings were lowered and all rooms received paint jobs. The men's rest room was fixed and a portion of the outside building was painted white.

The South Fulton City Hall was improved also by the building of a City Council room.

The Taylor Chevrolet Company purchased the Bob White Motor Company and combined the two businesses. The White building on East Fourth Street was redecorated and the Taylor business was moved there.

Western Auto Store remodeled its front and the Weaks Department Store on Lake Street and the Graham Furniture Company on Walnut Street painted their buildings.

Louie and Joe Kasnow of the Kasnow Department Store opened up the Budget Shop on Lake Street, and the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company moved into its beautiful new brick building in Highlands.

The Airline Gas Company and Fred Sawyer's Market will be moved in the near future to new buildings in the Highlands.

Recently, the million-dollar Ferry-Morse Seed Company building was completed in Highlands and the new Henry I. Siegel Factory in South Fulton is expected to be completed by the first of June.

Carl Metcalf Arrington, 47, of 500 West State Line, Fulton, driver of the automobile, died almost instantly in the crash.

The injured men were taken to Jones Hospital here, where Mr. Arrington was pronounced dead upon arrival. Doyle and Tarkington were seriously injured.

State Trooper John Graham indicated that Arrington lost control of the car on a curve on Ky. 94, about eight miles west of here.

Trooper Graham said the Arrington car cut across the road and traveled 255 feet on the left shoulder, crossed again and traveled 135 feet, recrossed and traveled 185 feet before striking the

Fifty-Four Retired I. C. Employees Have Reunion In Fulton Last Wednesday

Fifty-four retired Illinois Central Railroad employees, with a total of 2,452 years of service, gathered at 1 p. m., Wednesday, April 8, at the Derby Restaurant in Fulton, for a reunion, and at the luncheon get-together it was voted that it be an annual affair. Jake Huddleston of Fulton, who originated the idea, acted as unofficial chairman.

Mr. Huddleston was assisted in making arrangements for the reunion by R. C. Pickering of Fulton and T. W. Kennedy of Memphis.

Out of town guests were met by the committee early Wednesday morning, and were shown the high spots of Fulton and South Fulton, stopping at the Park Terrace for coffee.

The group of railroad pensioners had a jolly time together and all unanimously agreed that a poem entitled "My Get Up and Go Has Got Up and Went," which appeared in the News recently and read at the meeting by Clarence Pickering, fitted them all to a tee. Those attending the delightful affair were: B. F. Davies of Ful-

HOW TO MAKE RUNNING WATER WALK is demonstrated by this model of a miniature watershed which gives a bird's-eye view of a fully developed watershed, like the Obion Creek Watershed. Built by the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. of Milwaukee for exhibition purposes, the scale model is now on display at Mayfield's First National Bank.

It represents a small watershed about two square miles in area, illustrating what can be done in the way of soil and water conservation under the U. S. department of agriculture's "Small Watershed" program of upstream water conservation and flood prevention.

Here a USDA soil conservation service technician points out key aspects of the model to a farm boy and a banker, typical of the people who work together in this program. His pointer indicates a drop inlet dam in which the water flow is metered through a pipe at a rate which streams below can handle without flooding.

ads. They are not satisfied, they want to get their hands on the meters to bleed us for everything they can. They are a bunch of dirty, mange-ridden, lying pole-cats. They are large private electric companies, grouped together throughout the land extending from coast to coast, organized for one purpose, to destroy TVA, if at all possible.

They have the backing and support of the National Association of Manufacturers and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and only Congressmen and Senators in the TVA area are fighting them.

Congress is now wrangling over a TVA self-financing bill, but when it passes, or if it does, there will be "riders" attached limiting TVA to its present boundaries forbidding expansions, no matter how bad or how many people want TVA services.

The people want TVA for cheaper rates; and this is a big factor in inducing new business to a community. How unreasonable such a Congressional law, limiting TVA expansion for such reasons, and say if South Fulton should come through OK, with TVA just as this bill is about to pass, cutting off Fulton, Ky. proper, and this could happen and not only here but other communities, also.

We just hope Fulton and the neighboring towns have luck in TVA for their people the kind of service they want.

TVA is not seeking to run a private utilities electric company out of their place. The private utilities will bleed you to death should they ever get control of the Public Power System. Look up their ads. Read what they say. You don't have to guess at their aim. They advertise in these magazines that I have noticed—Look, Reader's Digest, and American Legion, a Farm Journal, etc., over the name of America's Independent Electric Light and Power Companies. Company names are furnished by the magazine on request. I wrote them a scorch on their dirty work. Wish everyone would. Unless we fight, they will sneak up on us through Congress some day and kill Public Power. It will be too late then. They are making gains in getting TVA expansion limited. Another one of their slogans is: "When Public Power Wins, You Lose". What a lie. Khrushchev himself could tell no bigger one.

Dear Editors,
Would you please change our address to c/o D. J. Jones, Route 5, Fulton, Ky. We will be leaving here about the 22nd of May and will give you our new address when we get settled at our new home in Tucson, Arizona. We will be having a 30-day vacation with our family near Fulton in June.

We are planning on driving the famous Alcan Highway and should arrive in Fulton around the 1st of June. Sure are looking forward to seeing all the changes I've read about for the last three years.

We will stop by and say hello while we are there. Oh by the way, I was reading the Fairbanks Daily News Miner one night and had a nice surprise to read about Mr. LeConr's donkey and goat. I'd say that news certainly gets around. This is of course Fairbanks, Alaska.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Charles E. Maynard

I remember back in the 30's I asked K. U. to run a line to our small community, Pierce, and could guarantee them around 20 customers. They gave me the horse laugh, and when they got through lecturing to me I felt like a criminal. Now they are squawking because Public Power came along and picked up the rural communities, made a success of it, something they refused to do. So, I don't care when nor how far the people run them out of town.

Since World War II, between $8 and $9 billion dollars has been spent in the TVA for equipment and appliances and practically all of it was manufactured and produced outside the TVA area. These private utilities, their wolves, got the business. They don't mention this fact in their mistaken. If this fine organization wanted to name an outstanding citizen of the year, the News and WFUL did not want to come right behind them with a similar event that might have embarrassed the selection of the group, or the selection of the News and WFUL. Moreover it had come to our attention that, in view of my state-wide political activities this year the opposition planned a large scale smear campaign, branding "politics" to our selection. In view of recent developments that have emanated from the opposition camp, we felt that certain persons were fully capable of forever disgracing the "Citizen of the Year" event of the News and WFUL. (see editorial).

In the light of these facts, and sincerely wishing to refrain from causing any embarrassment to the work of any outstanding citizen, we decided to forego the pleasure of our annual event until a time when it will be free of the slightest embarrassment, and free from any coercion and intimidation from unscrupulous political leaders.

We heartily commend and congratulate Josephine Omar for being honored for her tremendous public service. She deserved it, she earned it, and she has our sincere gratitude for a job well done.

QUALIFIED

Our organization is set-up as a 24-hour-a-day service operation, qualified by training and experience to give the people of this community considerate, expert help in time of need. We are fully licensed under the laws of both states.

TO

Select a funeral director should be considered as the choice of a lawyer or a physician. Training, experience, character and reputation are all of vital importance, along with his facilities. We invite investigation of our qualifications in all these particulars.

SERVE

We are ready to serve you whenever, and in whatever capacity we may. We have three Notary Publics on duty. Who will be happy to serve you in any capacity in which a notary is needed.

YOU

May be sure steadfast faith can do much to relieve the sorrow of parting, in the sure belief that death is only transition to a better and fuller life. It is our task to make the last rites symbolic of this faith, a leave-taking made serene by the assurance of a future reunion.

Fulton Votes New, Separate High School

Grymes Property Selected For Site; Separation Is Better, Board Says

In the interests of "better educational opportunities" for South Fulton students, the Obion County Board of Education voted last Monday to spend $300,000 on a new high school building for Tennessee students at South Fulton, and to locate the new building on the Grymes property near the southeast city limits.

Monday's decision was a reversal of an earlier decision to spend the money on remodeling and new construction at the present school grounds.

In answering the controversial question of "why a new location" for South Fulton High school, the County school board took into consideration the facts that sixth, seventh and eighth graders, now neglected because of crowded conditions, will have use of the present gym when a new one is built; that the sixth grade can move to the old high school building along with the seventh and eighth grades now using it, and that the new building, separated from the present one by about a half-mile, will foster "better educational opportunities" for all twelve grades.

The Board listed these opportunities as follows:

1. Room for expansion—Population growth of South Fulton requires additional rooms.

2. All present room is needed by first eight grades—granted the old building is not good. We are using it now and had this consolidation program not materialized we would probably have continued to use it in its present overcrowded condition.

3. Cost less to build on new site selected than on present site.

4. Present gym and cafeteria will not be lost—still have 600 students who can adequately use the facilities. Very little space will be wasted.

5. Better opportunity provided by separating the Jr. High and Senior High.

Group Of South Fulton Citizens Protest New High School Site

A group of South Fulton citizens, who are against the decision of the Obion County board of education to build a new South Fulton High School building on the Grymes property, met Tuesday night at 7:30 at the South Fulton City Hall to protest the decision.

Most of the group present at the meeting appeared in favor of the building being constructed at, or near, the present site of the high school.

Approximately 40 people were present at the meeting Tuesday night, with J. D. Faulkner, president of the South Fulton Booster Club presiding. A general, informal discussion was held on the matter and South Fulton Principal Lester Betty was present to answer any questions he could.

Gene Copeiland, one of the four South Fulton council members who signed a petition in favor of the Grymes site, which was presented to the county school board by board member Charles Cannon, was present at the meeting Tuesday night. He stated that he was in favor of the Grymes site, but would be in favor of a straw vote on the subject, if that was what the people of South Fulton wanted.

There were some, who live out in the county, who felt that they should have had a say. One expressed the belief that the school board was of the opinion that it didn't matter to the people of the county which site was chosen. (The school is a county school.)

It was brought out at the meeting that the South Fulton High School building has been condemned. The school needs new stairs inside and fire escapes on the outside. There are no fire extinguishers in the building, although there should be two on each floor, according to Principal

NEW SOUTH FULTON HIGH SCHOOL SITE, on the Grymes property, is shown as No. "6" in above aerial photo. Property is located within, but in the southeast corner of South Fulton city limits. Of the 67 acres available, ten will be bought and 20 more optioned. Present grade-and-high-school facilities are cramped on hilltop at site "1". Sites 2, 3, 4 and 5 were alternate sites originally considered when new-building program was planned.

Mrs. Nall And Miss Lowe Are Retiring From School System

The Fulton City Board of Education met Monday night and all faculty members, who applied for reappointment were elected.

Mrs. Martin C. Nall, math teacher at Fulton High and director of pupil personnel, who has been with the Fulton City School System since 1935, is retiring as of next year, and the vacancy caused by her retirement has not been filled yet, according to Superintendent W. L. Holland.

Miss Lee Ella Lowe, third grade teacher at Carr Institute, who has been with the local school system for the past forty years, is also retiring as of next year, Mr. Holland said.

Mrs. Elmer Hixson of Fulton County, a substitute teacher this year at Carr Institute, has been elected to take Miss Lowe's place. A complete list of the faculty members will be released by Mr. Holland in August.

Twin Cities Growing, Improving News Survey For Year '58 Reveals

By Ouida Jewell

During last year, 1958, there were many improvements made in the twin cities of Fulton, Kentucky and South Fulton, Tennessee.

Many store fronts were painted and some business places did a lot of remodeling.

Dr. R. V. Putnam purchased the old Bennett home on Carr Street, completely remodeled the building and he and Dr. Shelton Owen moved their offices there from Main Street.

The Tiny Toggery was moved up the street from its small location to the larger building vacated by Drs. Putnam and Owen.

Jason's Drug Store moved from Main Street to a larger, newly redecorated building at the corner of East State Line and Paschall Street in South Fulton.

Dr. Virgil Barker purchased the building in which his offices were located and the adjoining building, formerly occupied by the Cowardin Plumbing Shop, and completely remodeled the two buildings.

The Fulton City Hall underwent many improvements. The City Clerk's office was first completely redecorated and enlarged. Next, the old Jury Room was made into an office for the City Judge. The Police Station was made into two offices, one for the Chief of Police and one as a waiting room. Also, the big hallway was decorated. There were new floors, the ceilings were lowered and all rooms received paint jobs. The men's rest room was fixed and a portion of the outside building was painted white.

The South Fulton City Hall was improved also by the building of a City Council room.

Fulton Man Killed In Wreck

A Fulton man was killed and two Calvert City men were injured at 2:15 p. m. Friday in a collision between an automobile and a truck near Cayce.

Carl Metcalf Arrington, 47, of 500 West State Line, Fulton, driver of the automobile, died almost instantly in the crash.

Injured were Jack Doyle, 35, and Hollis B. Tarkington, 51, both of Calvert City. State Police said Tarkington was driver of the truck and that Doyle was a passenger when the accident occurred.

The injured men were taken to Jones Hospital here, where Mr. Arrington was pronounced dead upon arrival. Doyle and Tarkington were not seriously injured.

State Trooper John Graham indicated that Arrington lost control of the car on a curve on Ky. 94, about eight miles west of here.

Trooper Graham said the Arrington car cut across the road and traveled 255 feet on the left shoulder, crossed again and traveled 135 feet, recrossed and traveled 185 feet before striking the

Fifty-Four Retired I. C. Employees Have Reunion In Fulton Last Wednesday

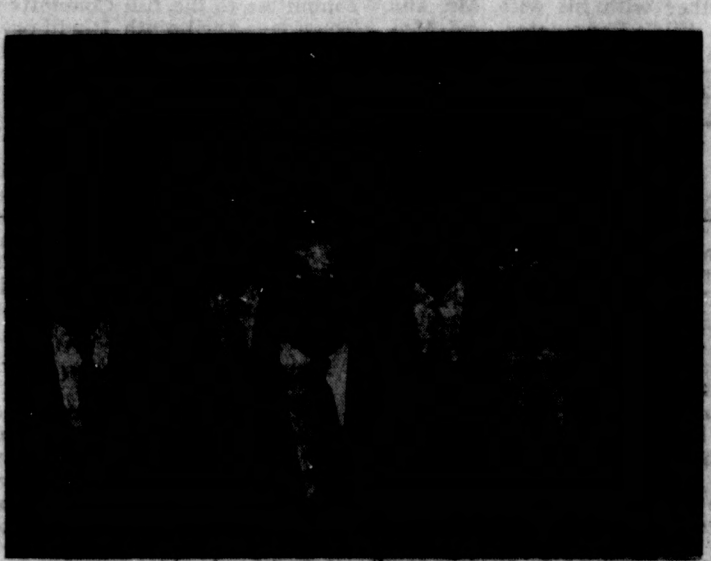

Fifty-four retired Illinois Central Railroad employees, with a total of 2,452 years of service, gathered at 1 p. m., Wednesday, April 8, at the Derby Restaurant in Fulton, for a reunion, and at the luncheon get-together it was voted that it be an annual affair. Jake Huddleston of Fulton, who originated the idea, acted as unofficial chairman.

Mr. Huddleston was assisted in making arrangements for the reunion by R. C. Pickering of Fulton and T. W. Kennedy of Memphis.

Out of town guests were met by the committee early Wednesday morning, and were shown the high spots of Fulton and South Fulton, stopping at the Park Terrace for coffee.

The group of railroad pensioners had a jolly time together and all unanimously agreed that a poem entitled "My Get Up and Go Has Got Up and Went," which appeared in the News recently and read at the meeting by Clarence Pickering, fitted them all to a tee.

Those attending the delightful affair were: B. F. Davies of Ful-

Harry Lee Cancels "Accidental Benefits" For West Kentucky And Goes All For East Kentucky

Harry Lee's "accidental benefit policy" for West Kentucky expired Saturday night. West Kentuckians, looking for a Governor who will "do something" for this section had better join up with a company that offers guaranteed protection to all its policy holders because Harry Lee automatically cancelled the "accidental benefit" clause in a speech at Wickliffe.

Just as he has taken his old friends for granted in the years he has held political office, so did he say without equivocation that West Kentucky is growing fast, has everything it needs, and he is going to concentrate on other areas if he is elected Governor.

Waterfield said that every time he returns to his native West Kentucky he realizes once again what adequate reservoirs and flood control could do for Eastern Kentucky.

"Western Kentucky rapidly is becoming one of the great chemical and industrial centers of America, to say nothing of the growing tourist industry. We want the same thing to happen in Eastern Kentucky. It will happen, too, if we all devote our energies to building Kentucky instead of trying to tear each other down," he said.

"If Eastern Kentucky had the kind of economy to which the people there are entitled we wouldn't be reading headlines every day about the unfortunate conditions there. I feel the people in other sections of Kentucky won't stand in my way if I try to bring Eastern Kentucky's economy up to the state level, and I'm going to do it," Waterfield said.

The lieutenant governor said he believes that one of the chief tools for developing Eastern Kentucky, as well as other areas needing industry, will be the state's new Kentucky Finance Authority.

Harry Lee Waterfield, "hot under the collar" for the lack of support he is getting in West Kentucky is concentrating his campaign efforts on Eastern Kentucky and the foregoing statements prove our point. If you think this Administration is promising roads, jobs and chicken every Sunday in West Kentucky, we'd like for you to see what's happening in East and Central Kentucky. Every hollow, every mountain-top, every road, every cow-path has been promised to be paved. Every family, he promises will have a state worker, and every cloud will have a goldmine in the sky, he promises if he is elected.

And on top of it all Happy Chandler will run for President if Harry Lee is elected and Happy says so himself.

Harry Lee knows today, just as he knew in 1955, that these things cannot be accomplished without thousands of dollars in new taxes. Look at his record and you'll see.

WE STAND CORRECTED

Glenn Lane, a former Fulton County, now of Morehead says we erred in reporting that Harry Lee failed to support the Democratic ticket in 1956. Mr. Lane says that Harry Lee made speeches for the party and on the basis of Mr. Lane's figures we apologize. We wish that Mr. Lane, or any other Waterfield supporter can correct some of the other charges we made against Waterfield about raising taxes, road building promises, increased state payrolls, etc. If same can be corrected we will happily print an apology.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

Delinquency Cure Begins At Home

By Stephen P. Kennedy,
Police Commissioner
—New York City

Today young men and women are watching the greatest war in history—the life and death struggle of Communism against Christianity. Whether hot or cold, it is the twentieth-century battle for the minds of all men everywhere.

THIS BATTLE, however, it not limited to foreign countries. Our teenagers are also being bombarded and affected by Communism's substitution for God—an easy standard of living. Gradually but persistently the question is being raised, "Will our own citizens of tomorrow be able to meet the challenge and withstand the temptations, stresses and tensions of the nuclear age?"

Our juvenile crime rate seems to answer, "No."

SINCE 1952, arrests of youth under 18 years of age have increased at a rate 250% greater than their population increase! What caused this surge of misconduct?

It is not surprising that crime hits its peak on the threshold of manhood. Growing up is not an easy process. The teen-ager faces many emotional crises and is often poorly equipped to handle them. Then, too, slum areas help breed delinquents though many maladjusted youths come from well-educated, prosperous families.

TIME has taught us that there is no single cause which can explain delinquency. Every delinquent has his own unique personality and problems. But if I were to emphasize one general characteristic of juvenile cases, I would immediately point out the home environment. Most of the difficulty originates there.

THE HOME is the basic unit of all society. Here the child learns to obey or disobey; here he learns right from wrong. He is either responsive to training or grows rebellious to all authority—his parents, the police, and the clergy.

Millions of parents are bent on seeking pleasure and the "easy life" with little or no regard for the laws of God and man. These parents do not care whether an act is right or wrong, as long as it seems useful at the time. This indifference to decency has permanent effects on their children. Parents who lie, cheat and scandalize their offspring should not be shocked when their youngsters imitate them. Most children arrested have never been properly trained or disciplined in the home.

THE POLICE must constantly fight crime. But crime and delinquency are not problems for the police alone. No criminal law enforcement agency has ever been able to build character or develop all the desirable habits, attitudes, interests and ideals necessary for youths to live worthwhile lives in their community.

Obviously the home, church, school and other community agencies must all work together if delinquency is to be reduced and children given a sound basis upon which to build their lives. And this cannot start next door. It must begin with the training and example which each one of us gives his children in his own home, TODAY!

STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFadden

"Got a bad scratch from his Safety Award Badge!"

FROM THE FILES:—

Turning Back The Clock—

April 16, 1939

An unknown man attempted to break into and pilfer the smokehouse of Bernard Evans, farmer, who resides east of Fulton. Mr. Evans heard the noise as the thief broke the lock, went out with a shotgun and opened fire. The man fell to the ground, but got up and ran.

Will Stephens, 57, of Earlington, Ky., Saturday afternoon fired two bullets from a 38-caliber pistol into the temple of his afflicted daughter, Martha B. Stephens, 16, at the grave of his wife in the Greenlea Cemetery here. He then shot himself, one bullet penetrating his abdomen and another his forehead, and died Saturday night in the Fulton Hospital.

Mr. Stephens and his two children came to Fulton, their former home, and he and his daughter were seen at the cemetery for several hours prior to the shooting.

Passerby witnessed the shooting from the highway running by the cemetery. C. M. Ferrell, and J. H. Allred and wife, were the first on the scene, after the act was committed.

Mr. Stephens was formerly employed here with the railroad and had been connected with Kentucky Utilities Company at Earlington. He was well known in this community.

Worry over the affliction of his daughter and Mr. Stephens' own failing health and loss of job, is believed to have brought on the act. He is said to have talked with a local undertaker in regard to the expense of two funerals.

At a recent meeting of the West Kentucky Funeral Directors' Association, James H. Rowland of Henderson was named president, and Paul Hornbeak of Fulton, secretary-treasurer. H. C. Barnett of Hickman was named on the board of directors.

HOUSE ACTION EXPECTED ON REA BILL

A bill to take away Agriculture Secretary Benson's power to veto loans to REA co-ops is expected to come to a vote in the House this week. The Senate passed a companion measure recently. I testified in favor of this proposal when it was before the House Committee on Government Operations. The bill, H. R. 1321, will probably pass, but whether there will be enough support to override a Presidential veto is doubtful. The purpose of this legislation is to take the making of REA loans out of politics.

PRINCETON BAND BRINGS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TO WESTERN KENTUCKY

I was a very real pleasure to hear and see the Caldwell County High School band when it competed for honors at the Cherry Blossom Festival here last week. Of course, I agreed wholeheartedly with the judges' decision that it is "the best band in the land." The band won over bands from all over the United States. The trip was financed by public spirited-citizens of Caldwell County. The band was ably directed by Mr. Anthony Allo, who, together with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Dennington, and Mrs. Lola McGough, accompanied this group of fine boys and girls. The Denningtons, by the way, are both graduates of Murray State College.

ORLANDO PLAN FOR BATTLING COMMUNISM

Last week it was my privilege to attend the annual informational dinner held by the Council Against Communist Aggression. The Council is an organization composed of widely divergent groups and individuals. However, the members share the belief that the best hope of achieving peace with freedom and justice requires the neutralization and ultimate overthrow of Soviet Communist power by all means short of war.

The purpose of the meeting this year was to hear discussions of the "Orlando Plan." This is a proposal to establish a Freedom Academy for the training of individuals from over the entire world in the very complex and hazardous task of counter-action against communism.

Life Magazine calls the Orlando Plan a proposal for a "political West Point" for training all of the people who must labor to win the "cold war" declared against the free world by leaders of the Communist world forty years ago. They have won up to now a third of the globe.

Orlando Plan Bill Introduced A bill to set this plan in motion, H. R. 3880, has been introduced by Congress by A. S. Herlong, (D-Florida), and it is now pending before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

It will be interesting to watch the progress of H. R. 3880 in view of present world conditions. In Congressman Herlong's speech made on the House Floor in support of the measure, he said, "For communism, with the lead time of half a century, it is already high noon. For us, it is the choice between continued darkness or early dawn. Let us choose the dawn and choose it now. The choice may not be ours again."

TOBACCO PRICE SUPPORT BILL REPORTED

The bill, H. R. 5058, to stabilize and protect the price support level for tobacco was unanimously reported by the Tobacco Subcommittee to the full Committee, Thursday, April ninth. It will probably be reported by the full Committee during the first part of this week.

TVA SELF-FINANCING BILL

The TVA self-financing bill is still "pending" in the powerful House Rules Committee. There is no basis yet for assuming that the Rules Committee may try to "bottle up" the bill to prevent it from coming to the Floor.

SINGING CONVENTION

The semi-annual Hickman and Fulton Counties Singing Convention was held at the Harmony Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, April 12. Ira Bradberry of Clinton, route 1, is president of the group.

Ky. Has Third Highest TB Rate

Louisville, Ky.—Kentucky has the third highest tuberculosis rate in the nation, but more than half the active cases are not hospitalized.

Dr. Dorothy Magallon told the Kentucky Public Health Assn. last Tuesday the situation is common in all counties.

She cited five counties—Anderson, Hancock, Hickman, Meade and Wolfe—where none, or almost none, of the active cases are in hospitals.

"When you have this many patients out of the hospital, you're not helping your TB problem," Dr. Magallon, acting director of the tuberculosis control for the State Health Department, said.

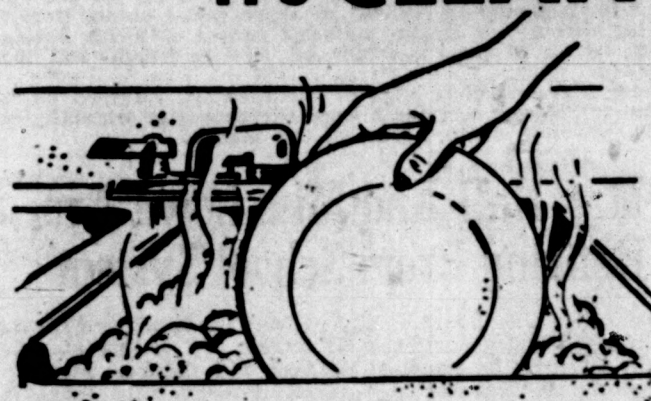

Arizona and Alaska are ahead in the number of cases.

"Kentucky's death rate is low, but it tells practically nothing about TB. People don't die of it like they used to."

She said it's a rare case of TB that requires no institutional care.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(Ed's note: The following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Ken-Tenn area):

RESULTS OF CHOICE "A" AND "B" COTTON

S. E. Holly, office manager for Fulton ASC County Committee, stated today that the final tabulations of choices on 1959 cotton had been made by his office. This tabulation revealed that 136 farms chose Choice "B", total of Choice "A" allotment for these farms was 3,511.7 acres, the Choice "B" increased this allotment by 40% which amounts to approximately 4,916.4 acres, thus leaving 299 farms in Choice "A" with a total allotment of 2,183.2 acres. Mr. Holly stated that this means farmers electing Choice "B" will have a price support of 65% of parity and those farmers taking choice "A" will have a price support of 80% of parity. He also stated that the market value on Choice "A" and "B" cotton will be the same. Choice "B" farms will not receive any history credit for establishing future allotments over and above their choice "A" allotted acres.

WOOL PRODUCERS

Chairman Vaughan of the Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office reminds wool producers to be sure that the sales documents they have received for selling wool during the past year contain all the information required under the wool incentive payment program.

It is particularly important, Mr. Vaughn says, that the sales documents show the true net sales proceeds including deductions made for freight and other marketing charges. The county ASC office where the program is administered has the authority to adjust sales proceeds when charges are not shown. Where false information is filed, both the producer and the wool buyer are subject to penalties.

Producers will be eligible for payments to be this year under the 1958 program for wool and unshorn lambs marketed not later than March 31 this year. Later marketings will be eligible for payments under the 1959 program.

Applications for payment under the 1958 program must be filed not later than April 30 at the county office. This cut-off date is necessary to permit a final accurate calculation of the average price received by farmers for wool during the 1958 marketing year. When the average price received for shorn wool is known sometime this summer, the payment rate will be announced and payments will be made to growers.

Baar Is Minister Of Music Here

Robert K. Baar, assistant professor in the Music Department at Murray State College, has accepted the position of Minister of Music at the First Methodist Church in Fulton and assumed his new duties here recently.

Mr. Baar will be in charge of all the music at the church. Mr. Baar will continue to live in Murray, where he is now in his fifth year at Murray State College. He taught for two years at Murray, then went to Orange City. He was asked to return to Murray by Dr. Price Doyle of the Music Department. At Murray he teaches 50 private lessons a week; directs the Cappella choir, directs the college Oratorio Chorus, plays in the college orchestra and string orchestra and directs the Madrigal group.

He was born and reared on the south side of Chicago and was brought up in the Dutch Reformed Church. His father is a musician and for many years was head of the Music Department of Chicago Christian High School. His mother is a florist working at present in Chicago. His brother is a Reformed Church pastor, now serving the First Reformed Church of Denver.

He attended St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., and received his degree at Chicago Musical College. As a voice major he received a B. M. and M. M. degree.

cluded in the recent bid calls. Earlier, the department had asked for bids May 1 on a 0.27-mile extension of the North-South Expressway in Louisville, from near Jacobs Street to Chestnut Street, mainly involving a North-South bridge across Broadway.

The 36 counties in the new bid call include Fulton.

The project in Fulton County is the Liberty Church Road from Ky. 94, 1.6 miles east of Cayce to Ky. 116 at the Tennessee State Line, 3.545 miles. Bituminous Surface Class C-1.

Farmers in this area wanting their cattle tested should contact W. H. Harrison of Cayce or County Agent, John Watts. The testing program is to be completed during the next few weeks so that Fulton County can be declared free of this disease.

FINAL RETURN CONFIRM APPROVAL OF BURLY TOBACCO QUOTAS

Final returns from the burley tobacco marketing quota referendum, held Feb. 24, confirm the preliminary tally which indicated that 98.7 percent of the growers voting approved quotas for the 1959, 1960, and 1961 crops.

The percentage of favorable votes is unchanged in the official returns report, which shows a total of 190,453 growers voting, of whom 188,052 approved quotas, and 2,401 opposed them.

Since more than the necessary two-thirds of those voting favored the 3-year quotas, the marketing quota program will continue in effect for the next three crops. Kentucky, with 117,530 votes cast, voted 99% in favor of the quotas. Fulton Countians cast three votes, all voting "yes".

CONTROL LICE ON DAIRY CATTLE IN WINTER

Dairy cattle may show signs of heavy infestations with lice in mid-winter, according to findings by the Agricultural Department of the Illinois Central Railroad. Lice on cattle are seldom a problem in summer. High temperatures, direct sunlight and fly sprays keep lice numbers down. But the few survivors multiply rapidly when the cattle are housed in cold weather.

You can suspect cattle lice if individual animals appear unthrifty, spend time rubbing and scratching or show patches of lost hair. Some cows may be heavily infested, while others in the same herd have very few lice and seem to be immune.

Look for lice on the sides of the neck and brisket, along the backbone, on the inner thighs, around the tail setting and on the head around the eyes, ears and muzzle.

Two kinds of lice are found on cattle. Blue lice are blood sucking, while red lice are biting. The same treatment kills both, and neither can survive more than a few days away from the cows.

Spraying controls cattle lice better than dusting, the Agricultural Department reports. It's difficult to get a thorough application with dust, but it is better to dust than to spray in cold weather. When you use insecticide dust to control lice, be sure to sift it

Phipps Honored At Union City

With the Union City High school gymnasium packed with students, a somewhat wary basketball coach was led to the center of the floor recently and there the mistress of ceremonies, Senior Ann Hornbeak, proclaimed "This is your life, Ed Phipps".

It was the students' way of through dense hair on the cows by rubbing it in well with your fingers.

A power sprayer is recommended to control lice in large herds. But you can use a knapsack or garden-type sprayer for smaller numbers of animals. Be sure to shake the sprayer frequently to keep the insecticide well mixed. Take special care to apply the spray material thoroughly to the thighs, tail setting and around the ears and the dewlap.

You can use methoxychlor, lindane, rotenone or pyrethrum insecticides to control lice on dairy cattle. You can use DDT on heifers and dry cows, but not on milking cows because of its residual effect in milk.

Apply insecticide again to your cows about 14 to 18 days after the first application, the Agricultural Department advises. Thoroughly examine any animals brought into a house-free herd and treat them right away if you find any lice.

Back rubbers and self-treating devices are less effective than treatment with spray or dust. If used constantly, they will help to keep lice under control. But a thorough treatment with spray or dust is needed to completely eliminate lice.

"Fats" Everett Meets With Local Group

Cong. Robert A. (Fats) Everett spent a brief period in Martin recently. Cong. Everett was there primarily to discuss latest developments in the T. V. A. system with Brooks Crockett, W. C. M. E. S. superintendent. The two men also met with Mayor Milton Counce of South Fulton and Joe Swidler, Nashville attorney, who is representing South Fulton in its efforts to secure power from the local T. V. A. affiliate.

During their meeting, Cong. Everett brought the others up to date on the present status of the T. V. A. bill in Congress. He appeared quite confident that the present T. V. A. bill, with an amendment permitting South Fulton to receive power from W. C. M. E. S., will be given approval by the Congress.

showing their love and appreciation to a man who had carried a Tornado basketball team farther than it has ever gone before, to championships to the District and Regional tournaments and into the state tournament where the team scored one victory before going down to defeat in a heart-breaking game, which experts generally agreed, the Tornado should have won.

The celebration started early in the morning for the man who is described by the students simply as "a great guy," or by the more modern set as "the most". Mr. Phipps was formerly coach at South Fulton High School.

Invited To David Lipscomb

David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tenn., has invited residents of this county to be among more than 10,000 persons expected to attend its 32d annual Lecture Series, April 19-23.

Fausto Salvoni, Milan, Italy, will open the series at 3 p. m., Sunday, April 19 in the auditorium of the Church of Christ at 3805 Granny White Pike, just off the campus. Climax of the week will be the annual Gospel Sing in Lipscomb's McQuiddy Physical Education Building, which last year was attended by 5,665. More than 6,000 are expected to sing together this year, under the direction of Henry Arnold, member of the Lipscomb music faculty.

Coates Has Lead In UTMB Play

Jerry Coates

"Perils of the City", a musical melodrama, was presented in the gym at UTMB, Martin, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week at 8:15. Of interest to residents of Fulton was the appearance of Jerry Coates of South Fulton as the male lead. Young Coates is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coates of Paschall Street.

Jerry, as Robert Brierly, found himself in great difficulty when he went to the big city and fell into the wrong company. This association led him to prison and all looked dark need but as one of the musical numbers said, "It's always darkest just before the dawn", and everything turned out well in the end, as melodramas have a way of doing.

Along the way, however, one encountered a sweet, poor heroine, May, played by Ann Howell; a French torch singer, Belle Isle and her can-can girls; two wretched villains, Butterworth and Moss, and last, but by no means, least Hawshaw, the detective.

To liven things up, there were a pair of comic singers, Emily and Fitzgreen, who gave everyone a refreshing laugh while staunchly supporting May and Brierly, the heroine and hero of the piece.

The music for this production was composed by James R. Wilson, head of the English department at UTMB and the libretto was written by Beaumont Breusle of Tulsa University.

Others in the cast from the Fulton area were Barbara Caldwell and Paula Prather.

No one can tell whose home will be next to be invaded by this dreaded disease. Thanks to those who have consented to help in this drive to help to reduce needless deaths, and to help ease the pain and suffering of cancer patients. Guard your family! Happy's Highway Costs 15 Times As Much As Total Fulton Roads

Highway department records for the past year show that regular road construction contracts totaling $319,759.00 have been placed in Fulton County.

This sum is in contrast to the amount of money spent for Governor Chandler's private driveway from Frankfort to Versailles. That sum is more than $5,000,000 and construction of the road has been on a round-the-clock basis. The contrast between the highway work allocated to this county and Happy's private driveway also was evident in a breakdown of 1958 figures in practically every county in Kentucky.

A statement from the headquarters of Bert Combs, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, and Wilson Wyatt, his teammate candidate for lieutenant-governor, said that in some counties the road work comes to less than 10 per cent of the cost of the Frankfort-Versailles road. With the statement came a pledge for the Combs-Wyatt team to name a professional engineer as highway commissioner, to abolish the political Advisory Highway Commission and to eliminate others who have been assigned to political duties.

The money saved, the statement went on, would blacktop hundreds of miles of Kentucky rural roads. Not included in the figures for

Mrs. Burrow And Son Injured In Two-Car Wreck

Mrs. J. T. Burrow of Fulton, Route 5 and her four-year-old son, Robert, were injured in a two-car collision Thursday morning at 7:30 on the Ruthville Road about three and one-half miles southeast of Fulton off the Duke-don Highway.

Mrs. Burrow and her young son are patients at Fulton Hospital. Mrs. Burrow is suffering from shock and bruises. Little Robert has seven lacerations on the face and lips, which required several stitches.

Mrs. Burrow was driver of one of the cars involved in the head-on collision and Emmett Stunson, colored, of Fulton, was driver of the other car, a Stunson Taxi. Stunson was not injured.

At the time of the accident, Mrs. Burrow was traveling north and Stunson was going south. The two cars met on a curve.

The Burrow car overturned and caught fire. The fire was extinguished by the South Fulton Fire Department.

John Colley passed by shortly after the accident and brought Mrs. Burrow and her son to the Fulton Hospital.

Although the Burrow vehicle was badly damaged, the Stunson cab received only small damage and after the accident the cab driver continued on his way to pick up school children.

Did you think of Chandler-Waterfield when you filed your April 15 INCOME TAX?

When Chandler and Waterfield were running in 1955, they said they could and would expand the services of the State Government without raising taxes. Now the record speaks—the record of the taxiest administration in the history of Kentucky.

STATE TAXES in 1955 . . . $95,000,000
STATE TAXES in 1958 . . $132,000,000

When Chandler and Waterfield went into office, it didn't take long for our taxes to start up, up, up. Halfway through their term, the operation of State Government was costing the taxpayers almost $37,000,000 per year more than ever before.

STATE TAXES in 1959 . . $136,000,000

Today the cost is still going up, up, up. Chandler claims that he is the only Governor to lower taxes. What he really did was to ADD a huge tax increase—then, later, make a token cut which amounted to practically nothing to the taxpayer. That's the tax cut Chandler boasts about!

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE!

You can't pay tax bills with broken promises. Let's not give Chandler and Waterfield any more blank checks. Vote for Bert Combs and Wilson Wyatt on May 26!

Betty. This is a matter for the county school board to take care of, and according to Mr. Betty, a principal could be arrested for not having fire extinguishers in the school building.
Several present were interested to know when money would be allotted for the remodeling of the building, so that it could be used safely for the elementary students.
Mr. Betty was in favor of separate locations of the high school and grade schools.
Councilman Edd Neeley, a member of the South Fulton Council, suggested that a meeting be held with speakers from both sides present to explain the situation to the interested citizens.
It was decided at the meeting that another meeting would be held on Tuesday night of next week at 7:30 at the South Fulton gym. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

6. Present location is poor—To spend more on a crowded, hilly and wet location is to waste tax dollars.
7. Transportation is easily provided by busses from present location to the high school.
8. Building on present location fosters defeatism; whereas a new building on a new location will call for increased enthusiasm and a higher goal toward which to work.
9. Money will be available as needed for Education—if we have a suitable building that can be added to reasonably.
10. No possible way to make a pleasing appearance from the varied buildings now present.

Fulton To Take Part In Talent Tournament At Symsonia High

Symsonia, Ky.—Something brand new in high school events—a talent tournament for all the high schools in the nine deep Western Kentucky counties—will be held here April 25.

The prizes won't be trophies or merchandise; they'll be $100 college scholarships.

Scholarships will go to the 10 top winners. Additional scholarships also are planned for presentation on the basis of scholastic standing.

All high schools in Livingston, Calloway, Marshall, Graves, Fulton, Hickman, Carlisle, Ballard and McCracken are expected to select their top talent entry to appear on the district program.

Master of ceremonies for the tournament, sponsored by the Symsonia Civic Club, will be the popular Dr. Harry Sparks, head of the education department at Murray State College.

The tournament—officially named the District High School Talent Tournament—will not end the limelight for the winners. The top ten will appear on a WPSD-TV program. The date for the 30-minute show has not been set.

The club also is trying to place the top winner on the famous Ted Mack Amateur Hour on television.

"Various businesses have expressed keen interest in the tournament by sponsoring the scholarships for the winning students," said Edwin Reid, who is working on the project for the club.

"Our purpose," he said, "is not just to sponsor a program as such but to provide students an opportunity to display their talents and gain recognition for themselves. We hope this event will encourage students to strive to better themselves in some field besides athletics."

Reid complimented the scholarship sponsors "for showing good faith in our youth and taking steps to encourage them in scholastic and talent fields."

The program will start at 7 p. m. It will be held in the Symsonia High School auditorium.

Several members of the Fulton Business and Professional Women's Club journeyed to Mayfield Friday evening to attend the annual birthday banquet of the Mayfield club, and those of us who attended had a wonderful time.

Those making the trip were Mrs. Bill Scott, Mrs. Leland Jewell, Mrs. Jewell McClain, Mrs. E. H. Knighton, Mrs. Kellie Lowe, Mrs. Nelson Tripp, Miss Amaleene Homra, Mrs. Harry Allison, Mrs. Roper Fields, Mrs. Zuanita Phelps, and myself.

There was also a group of Paducah members present for the dinner, and we were all issued an invitation to attend a tea Sunday afternoon at the Paducah club house, given in honor of Mrs. Emma Iger and her husband, who were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Josephine Poyner, president of the Mayfield club, presided. The guest speaker was Miss Olive Stewart, District One Director.

The Mayfield group will be guests at our charter night dinner at the Park Terrace on Monday night, April 20.

We are so proud for our young friend, Bobby Newton, who has accepted a position with Evangelist Buckner Fanning, who held a revival here recently at the First Baptist Church.

Bobby, a student at Union University and organist at the Park Terrace, will be organist for the well-known evangelist and will travel with him this summer and next. From May 31 to June 21, Bobby will be playing in Laurens, South Carolina; from July 12 through July 26, in San Antonio, Texas, and from Aug. 16 through Sept. 6, in Victoria, Texas.

The local boy played for Rev. Fanning in Mayfield last summer, and next summer he will go with the Fanning group to Alaska.

Newton is a Junior at Union University, where he is majoring in music. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Newton of West State Line.

Some of the waitresses in town went out for old-timey bonnets, etc. over the weekend and looked real cute. We understand that Smith's Rose Room is decorated in antiques, furnished by Red and Mary Alice Coleman. Before the Centennial rolls around, we imagine that quite a few other places will be displaying old items of the first one thing and another.

Prisoner Plunges Through Door, Escapes Jail

Mayfield — "He went right through that glass door and I went right after him," said Harold (Jiggs) Wheeler, Graves County jailer in speaking of the jailbreak by Bobby Joe Parham, 26, recently. Parham, under indictment for manslaughter, has been in the jail for a little over a month. His bond, originally set for $2,500, was recently reduced to $1,500 but he had not been able to make it.

Wheeler, who suffered cuts on his head and left arm, said that Parham had asked to use the telephone to call his father. On the way to the front office, said Wheeler, Parham suddenly started to run and jumped through a heavy plate glass door. According to the jailer, Parham ran south on 6th st.

Wheeler said that for some time now Parham has made and received phone calls during the noon lunch hour in an effort to raise the money for his bond. The privilege of use of the phone has been left to the discretion of the jailer. "He's been here a long time now," said Wheeler, "and he was anxious to get out."

Parham was indicted following an automobile accident at Duke-don which resulted in the death of Harry McClain.

Wheeler said he could not determine whether or not Parham suffered cuts as he smashed the glass door.

Two Get Fired For Failing To Kick In More

Louis, Ky.—Two more state employees who refused to kick-back another two-weeks salary to the Waterfield gubernatorial campaign have been fired.

Action by Waterfield lieutenants in Lawrence County followed a meeting of highway department workers. They were asked, in addition to their regular 2 per cent kickback, to contribute two additional weeks' salary.

One man pleaded that he needed his wages for a child undergoing treatment for a tumor and his wife who also was ill. A second pointed out that he was paying off a farm mortgage.

In both cases the pleas were ignored and the men dropped from the payroll. There was no complaint about their work, Waterfield leaders admitted.

McDade Touches Off Search For Flying Bandit

Mayfield—Police throughout Illinois chased an elusive red, single-engine plane Thursday night in the belief that it might be piloted by flying bank robber Frank Sprex.

The alert was touched off at Mayfield when Bill McDade, local lumberman and formerly of Fulton, reported to State Police at West Viola that he saw a plane overhead matching the description of the wanted craft.

Southern Illinois state police then took up the watch and followed the plane to the Chicago area Thursday night.

State and county police dashed to a number of points chasing the plane or checking reports it had landed. When the airport search failed to turn up the plane, Chicago FBI agents alerted state and county police to start looking in farm fields or country roads where the will-o-the-wisp craft might have landed.

Illinois State Police said the plane sighted over Mayfield matched the description of one bought in Texas by a man answering Sprex' description and purchased under the name of James Moss. The plane is a red and white Piper Pacer.

The alert sprang from reports that Sprex, a toupee-wearing gun collector and one of the nation's 10 most wanted criminals, had been seen in Raymondsville, Tex., airport last Tuesday and the Porterville, Miss., airport last Wednesday.

WSCS Names New Officers

Ten new officers were elected recently by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Memphis Methodist Conference.

The organization, which is holding its annual meeting here at First Methodist Church, elected Mrs. James A. Fisher of Paducah its new vice-president. Mrs. Charles S. Hoose, Jr., Memphis, was re-elected treasurer.

Elected secretaries of "lines of work" were: promotion, Mrs. R. S. Hamer, Brownsville, Tenn.; missionary education and service, Mrs. Oscar B. Crofford, Memphis; Christian social relations, Mrs. Wayne A. Lamb, Memphis.

Youth work, Mrs. W. T. Barnes, Humboldt, Tenn.; children's work, Mrs. W. B. Sowell, Hickman, Ky.; spiritual life, Mrs. Phillip Williams, Brownsville; supply work, Mrs. A. B. Dancer, Selmer, Tenn.; and new chairman for public relations, Mrs. James S. Ashcraft, Paducah.

Nominated for membership on the Methodist board of missions were: Mrs. Charles M. Henderson, Memphis; Mrs. Roy C. Coleson, Somerville, Tenn.; and Mrs. C. W. Dunlap, Memphis. Elections to the board are made by the Woman's Society in the Methodist Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Dr. Luther L. Gobbel, president of Lambuth College in Jackson, Tenn., told about 450 delegates and visitors Wed. morning that between 12 and 15 students annually receive aid from the scholarship fund which the woman's organization has established at Lambuth.

Miss Ruby Hudgins, of Gleason,

Tenn., and Mrs. Coraly Stayton Bugg, Clinton, Ky. described their work for Woman's Society-sponsored projects.

Mrs. T. Otto Nall, Evanston, Ill., vice-president of the Methodist Woman's Division of Christian Service, made the second of her two addresses.

Other speakers included the Rev. Dr. Foye G. Gibson, Nashville, president of Scarritt College; Miss Renee Singh, a Scarritt student from India; Clay Saunders, Memphis, president of the conference's Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The meeting ended at noon Thursday following the installation of new officers.

South Fulton Post Office Opens

South Fulton, Tenn., became an official postmark recently when the branch post office, located in the Charles Cannon Insurance building, officially opened. Cannon, who is the clerk in charge, was greeted with a stack of cards from stamp collectors, wanting letters mailed to them with the first cancellations from South Fulton, Tenn.

The Rev. Paul Cates, a South Fulton minister and teacher, was the first customer at the post office with a purchase of 40 cents in stamps.

The Fulton News, Thursday, April 16, 1959, Page 11

Although South Fulton is located in Tennessee, the address of its residents has always been Fulton, Ky. and in many cases this has caused confusion. Through the efforts of Congressman Robert A. (Fats) Everett, and South Fulton civic leaders, the branch post office was granted for the Tennessee city.

Miss Betty Gregory will assist Mr. Cannon in the South Fulton post office.
