Electric Plant Board Plans To Attend Meet

The Fulton Electric Plant Board met last Monday evening at the City Hall to review its progress to date and to make plans to attend the State-wide meeting of communities interested in seeking low-cost power, to be held next Monday afternoon at Glasgow, Ky.

All five members of the local Board plan to make the important Glasgow meeting if possible. They are Clyde Williams, Jr., Rodney Miller, Bill Adams, Paul Westpheling and Ward Johnson.

Spokesmen state that one of the main objectives of the Glasgow meeting and of the State-wide organization that will be formed there is to provide new legislation at the next State general assembly that will make it possible for communities to again be able to gain ownership of their electric distribution systems if they so desire. An act of the 1958 legislature removed any opportunity by denying communities certain rights they formerly held, the local Board has been advised.

Local Group To Meet With School Board

A group of six men, named at the mass meeting last week in protest to the construction of a new South Fulton School on the Grymes property, will meet with the Fulton County School Board in Union City sometime Friday.

The group to meet with the board are Mayor Milton Counce, Ed Neeley, J. D. Faulkner, Melvin Sturgis, Woody Brown and Harry Bushart.

They plan to try to convince the board that it would be better to use the $300,000.00 allotted South Fulton by the County Court for the remodeling of the present school buildings and for probably an addition to the building, than for the construction of a new high school on the Grymes property.

THE SOUTH WILL RISE AGAIN, comments the Paducah Sun-Democrat on above picture of Capt. Felix Gossum (left) and Capt. Paul Westpheling that appeared in last Sunday's S-D. This is the way they look in their Centennial beards while attending weekly drills of the 436th Military Government Company in Paducah. It might also be said that both averted a crisis recently when they left the facial decorations on during the yearly inspection of the unit by the Inspector-General's office. But the feared I-G, whose reports can make or break a military outfit, looked the beards over and okayed them with the caution that they remain "well-trimmed".

Centennial Week Program Told; Ferry-Morse To Have Open House

The program for the week of the Centennial was announced today. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 16 through July 18, will be Old Fashioned Bargain Days in Fulton and South Fulton. The ball will be held on Friday night, July 17, and Sunday will be Faith of Our Fathers Day.

Governor's Day will be Monday, July 20; Tuesday, July 21, is scheduled for Pioneer and Homecoming Day, and Wednesday, July 22, will be Young America's Day. Thursday, July 23, is scheduled for Ken-Tenn-O-Rama Ladies Day and Friday, July 24, is Banana Capitol and Railroad Day.

Saturday, July 25, will be a big day, designated as Good Neighbor, Industrial and Salute to the Future Day. It is understood that on that day all Ferry-Morse Seed Company officials from Detroit will be here and there will be a big official open house at the new factory here.

Through a typographical error in last week's News, it was stated that the Centennial stock would sell for $100 each. It should have read $1.00 (one dollar) each.

Five thousand dollars worth of Centennial bonds will be sold in the Fulton-South Fulton area and the money will be used for working capital. The stock will be redeemable on a pro rata basis at the close of the Centennial. In most cases, the stock is redeemed at face value.

These bonds must be sold immediately to have working capital. At the close of the Centennial, if there is any money left after the stock is redeemed the money will go to the local Cub Scouts.

The bonds will be sold in the Fulton area by the Business and Professional Women's Club and in the South Fulton area by the Booster Club.

Centennial Chapters Formed

The young 'uns are "getting into the act." Two chapters of "Little Miss Centennial Belles" and two chapters of "Junior Brothers of the Brush" were formed at South Fulton School last week. Mrs. Coltharp's boys received Charter No. 1 of "Junior Brothers of the Brush" and call themselves "Tennessee Lads." Officers are: Charles McMorries, Main Brush; Brent Burrow, Writing Brush; Andy Batts, Money Brush; Richard Fry, Star Brush; and Tony Taylor, Big Brush.

"South of the Border Hombres", Mrs. Burrow's boys, will be Chapter No. 2. Officers are: Tommy Toon, Main Brush; Charles Colley, Writing Brush; Corky Stinnett, Money Brush; Jimmy Gurrey, Star Brush; Larry Heath, Big Brush.

Each of the Junior Brush chapters has twelve members.

At the meeting Wednesday morning the historical pageant book was discussed. Mrs. E. C. Grisham is chairman in charge.

ATTENTION LADIES

All ladies must be in their bonnets and buttons this Saturday, May 2. If a lady wears a cosmetic permit, a bonnet is not required, although the Centennial officials would like for the ladies to wear their bonnets. ed a word of protest in connection with these disgraceful incidents in State Government.

Mr. Ferguson pointed out the activities of his office to collect for the State $60,000 paid to a contractor who built roads in Knott County without a state contract and without even the benefit of road machinery equipment. "This contractor," Mr. Ferguson said, "went out and rented road graders at $11 an hour and charged the State $16 an hour for the use of the machinery. Even the highway department was unaware of the road building, yet the contractor was paid, but was apprehended through the joint efforts of the State treasurer's office and the Attorney General's office," he continued. He cited the fact that Mr. Waterfield never whispered to protest this fraud upon the State.

Appearing on the program at Columbus with Mr. Ferguson, was Mrs. Paul Westpheling, state campaign chairwoman for the Combs-Wyatt team.

In either case, dancing will follow at the Fulton Country Club beginning at 9:00 p. m.

PROTEST—

fore the court would give South Fulton money for the remodeling of the present school. He said that it had been hard enough to get the $300,000.

According to Mr. Sturgis, a qualified engineer's report on what the new school would cost was $373,500 or $73,500 more than what was allotted; and reported in last week's issue of the News by the Board.

He quoted County School Superintendent C. D. Parr as stating that "Mr. Preston, the engineer, said that from $40,000 to $50,000 is needed immediately" for repainting the present South Fulton School.

Mr. Sturgis said the records show that on March 24 the school board voted six to one that the present school be remodeled.

Mr. Cannon spoke briefly, explaining that the Obion County School Board is composed of 10 members and that he and three others were selected to pick the site of the new building. He quoted figures in favor of the new building. He said that the present high school building was not condemned structurally, but agreed that it was a fire hazard.

Mr. Cannon said that the remodeling of the present school should come out of other funds—that the citizens should ask the Magistrates to get a school tax increase.

The next speaker, the Rev. Hulon Allen, criticized the South Fulton and Fulton schools, saying that the South Fulton School "just doesn't measure up." When he poked fun at a written invitation to the mass meeting, pointing out the misspelled words, the group became angry and hot words were exchanged.

Rev. Allen said that the South Fulton School was "below standard in education," and that the Fulton schools were below that. Several people present walked out of the meeting.

Cannon introduced Hugh Skulter, who built the new Paris colored school, but before he could start his talk, more walked out on the meeting. It was then that Mayor Counce took over, saying that "the majority do not believe the school can be built for the amount of money allowed and the majority is in favor of rebuilding at the present location," and he asked for a stand-up vote of the people present.

Mayor Counce said that the school board had originally been in favor of building a new school at another location, but had learned that it couldn't be done on the amount of money allotted. He said he didn't know why they had changed their mind again.

The crowd expressed a desire not to hear the contractor, Mr. Skulter, talk and the meeting was dismissed at 9:20 p. m.

Ambitious young man on his way up!

But will he find a man-size job when he reaches manhood? A job in Mid-America, preferably close to home?

We think he will. And this is not just wishful thinking. The Illinois Central and forward-looking communities are spending time and money to attract new industries and create new jobs for Mid-America's workers, present and future.

We believe Mid-America offers industry unmatched plant site values. Likewise, new industry offers Mid-America an expanding and prosperous future.

We are backing this belief with millions of dollars invested in plant sites, in improving our service, preparing for future growth and making the best better for our friends and neighbors throughout Mid-America.

THE SOUTH WILL RISE AGAIN, comments the Paducah Sun-Democrat on above picture of Capt. Felix Gossum (left) and Capt. Paul Westpheling that appeared in last Sunday's S-D. This is the way they look in their Centennial beards while attending weekly drills of the 439th Military Government Company in Paducah. It might also be said that both averted a crisis recently when they left the facial decorations on during the yearly inspection of the unit by the Inspector-General's office. But the feared I-G, whose reports can make or break a military outfit, looked the beards over and okayed them with the caution that they remain "well-trimmed."

Centennial Week Program Told; Ferry-Morse To Have Open House

The program for the week of the Centennial was announced today.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 16 through July 18, will be Old Fashioned Bargain Days in Fulton and South Fulton.

The ball will be held on Friday night, July 17, and Sunday will be Faith of Our Fathers Day. Governor's Day will be Monday, July 20; Tuesday, July 21, is scheduled for Pioneer and Homecoming Day, and Wednesday, July 22, will be Young America's Day.

Thursday, July 23, is scheduled for Ken-Tenn-O-Rama Ladies Day and Friday, July 24, is Banana Capitol and Railroad Day.

Saturday, July 25, will be a big day, designated as Good Neighbor, Industrial and Salute to the Future Day. It is understood that on that day all Ferry-Morse Seed Company officials from Detroit will be here and there will be a big official open house at the new factory here.

Jo's

Note Book

Less than four weeks remain before the Democratic primary on May 26. I know by this time most people are pretty weary of the charges, counter-charges, sniping, rumor-spreading and mud slinging that has characterized the race thus far. The phrase from the poem "politics are the damndest" in Kentucky didn't come about by accident.

Some folks say that the going will get rougher as the campaign enters the home-stretch and although I know that the possibility exists I hope beyond hope that the remaining weeks will be devoted to issues and platforms rather than personalities.

Having a key position in the Combs-Wyatt campaign has made me the target for some sharp attacks from the opposition. I don't mind the above-board, open, "fair" attacks, but these "below-the-belt", back-stabbing attacks do not tend to make for good relations when the campaign is over and all of us will continue to work together for a bigger and better Fulton County.

The latest accusation made against me is that I am the stumbling block in an accelerated road paving program planned during this election year. At a local church, mind you, a Waterfield supporter said: "We can pave every street in Fulton if Jo Westpheling wouldn't block the program." I should think that's giving me an undue amount of credit, and what's more it's ridiculous as to be down right hilarious.

I don't think its any secret that I am "persona non grata" with the Chandler Administration and to say that I have the influence to block their plans to pave streets to make votes is about as stupid a charge that can be made anywhere. As a matter of fact it is my advice to people to take everything they can get during this election year, because if the Combs-Wyatt ticket loses, which it won't, it'll be another four years before another pebble of gravel will be seen in abundance in these parts. That's the record of the past three and one-half years. It bids well to be the record of the next four years if the present Administration is successful in perpetuating itself.

I didn't mind the local paper saying Mr. Combs wasn't helped any by the people who appeared on his TV show last Thursday. Surely the editorial had reference to me because I think the newspaper has a great deal of respect for Ken Slaughter, a Mayfield insurance man and former radio executive; for Bill Powell, executive editor of the Paducah Sun-

Electric Plant Board Plans To Attend Meet

The Fulton Electric Plant Board met last Monday evening at the City Hall to review its progress to date and to make plans to attend the State-wide meeting of communities interested in seeking low-cost power, to be held next Monday afternoon at Glasgow, Ky.

All five members of the local Board plan to make the important Glasgow meeting if possible. They are Clyde Williams, Jr., Rodney Miller, Bill Adams, Paul Westpheling and Ward Johnson.

Spokesmen state that one of the main objectives of the Glasgow meeting and of the State-wide organization that will be formed there is to provide new legislation at the next State general assembly that will make it possible for communities to again be able to gain ownership of their electric distribution systems if they so desire. An act of the 1958 legislature removed any opportunity by denying communities certain rights they formerly held, the local Board has been advised.

Local Group To Meet With School Board

A group of six men, named at the mass meeting last week in protest to the construction of a new South Fulton School on the Grymes property, will meet with the Union City School Board in Union City sometime Friday.

The group to meet with the board are Mayor Milton Counce, Ed Neeley, J. D. Faulkner, Melvin Sturgis, Woody Brown and Harry Bushart.

They plan to try to convince the board that it would be better to use the $300,000.00 allotted South Fulton by the County Court for the remodeling of the present school buildings and for probably an addition to the building, than for the construction of a new high school on the Grymes property.

Meeting Date Of Centennial Executive Committee Is Changed

At a meeting of the Centennial Executive Committee at the Centennial headquarters Wednesday morning, it was decided that the committee would meet each Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, instead of each Wednesday morning. It is urgent that all members of the Executive Committee attend each of these meetings.

At the meeting Wednesday morning the historical pageant book was discussed. Mrs. E. C. Grisham is chairman in charge.

ATTENTION LADIES

All ladies must be in their bonnets and buttons this Saturday, May 2.

If a lady wears a cosmetic permit, a bonnet is not required, although the Centennial officials would like for the ladies to wear their bonnets. Those wearing Belle buttons are required to wear their bonnets, and although it is not compulsory to wear their Centennial dresses, it is hoped that a large number of the ladies will.

Nancy Adams Signs Contract With Pepper Recording Company

Miss Nancy Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Adams of Fulton and a student at Murray State College, has signed a contract with the Pepper Recording Company in the Memphis Press-Scimitar Tuesday evening. The interesting article was headed: Memphis Internationally Known as Recording Center.

The outlines under the picture showing Miss Adams singing read: A STAR OF TOMORROW on the Pepper Records label may be pretty Nancy Adams of Fulton, Ky., 1956 winner of the Mid-South Fair Talent Show, co-sponsored by The Press-Scimitar, and an Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts winner who was held over for nine weeks on the Godfrey daytime show. Labor News "Pours It On" Waterfield As It Endorses Combs and Wyatt; Cites Reasons

Here are a few excerpts from the current (April 25) issue out last weekend:

"WILSON WYATT'S GOOD SENSE PROPOSAL"

"Mr. Wyatt states that he will offer his full time services to the department of Economic Development—between sessions of the legislature—to assist in getting new industry and jobs for Kentucky."

"The present administration has not considered the problem of the unemployment to be important enough to extend unemployment benefits!!! UNEMPLOYMENT HAS BEEN SO BAD THAT EVEN EISENHOWER NOTICED!! But, when President Eisenhower provided a federal loan for states that wanted to help their out-of-work families, nothing was done in Kentucky. And Kentucky has been first in the nation in unemployment more than any other state in the past five years! First with the problem—last with the solution!"

"The administration's candidate for Governor has been acting governor for 200 days during the last 3 1/2 years, but he gave it no attention!"

The AFL Building Trades Unions backed Mr. Wyatt for Mayor of Louisville in the early forties and he made the City a fine Mayor."

"Combs-Wyatt endorsement from Northern Kentucky"

"Bert Combs and Wilson Wyatt seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, have received the endorsement of the Greater Cincinnati CIO Council, Edward McDonald, president of the Council said the endorsement was unanimous."

"Over 10,000 Northern Kentucky Union members are represented by the council."

"And two more from Louisville"

Two more Louisville area organizations endorsed Bert Combs for the Democratic nomination for governor and Wilson W. Wyatt for Lieutenant Governor this week.

They were the Distillery Workers Council of Jefferson County, and Hotel and Restaurant Works Local 181.

The Council includes delegates from 11 locals with 3,500 members represented.

Local 181 has about 1,200 members.

"They never really meant to keep promises"

The Administration has not kept their promises; they have used unorganized labor on renovating the Lt. Governor's Mansion and the Governor's Mansion; and several of these jobs were handed out politically without a contract. When organized labor went all out to help put them in office, you'd surely think that they would in turn use organized labor on jobs such as these mentioned. The "Right To Work" Law came out of the committee, when Harry Lee promised that it wouldn't.

It all boils down to the fact that all the wild promises that Chandler and Waterfield made sounded good, and we believed them; but now we know that they never really meant to keep them, that they are out to get what they want, and they don't care who they knock down trying to get them.

The Executive Board met on Saturday night before the convention and voted 17 to 6 to endorse Combs and Wyatt. That was their recommendation to the delegates. Then the Waterfield faction made a motion to adjourn in order to prevent an endorsement. A roll call vote was taken. The Combs faction voted "No" to this and the Waterfield faction voted "Yes". The motion did not carry which meant the Combs backers had won that round by almost 5,000 votes.

This was really a test to see if we had a two-thirds majority, which was necessary to get an endorsement. Nobody got an endorsement but the Combs faction had the majority.

—ROBERT RODGERS, a member of Carpenters Local 2058, Frankfort, and Business Agent at the time Waterfield let the work on the mansion out to scab labor).

"Crippled compensation"

Kentucky now has the distinction of paying a man more money for being unemployed ($34 maximum) than it orders paid to a man injured in an industrial accident with a broken back. ($32 weekly maximum).

A Waterfield promise to help pass a modest $2 increase in workmen's compensation to bring it up to unemployment compensation died on the vine.

"Record a complete blank"

We refer to the plea of Harry Lee that he is the only experienced candidate in the race for the gubernatorial nomination. Such a slogan prompts folks to look at the Waterfield record.

In 12 years in the General Assembly he failed to introduce one single piece of major legislation. The record is unbelievable. But the point is made. His record is a complete blank.

WASHINGTON REPORT

by your Congressman, Frank Stubblefield

BROOKS HAYS' NOMINATION AS TVA DIRECTOR

The nomination of former Congressman Brooks Hays of Arkansas to fill the remaining year of the term from which Dean Welch resigned is expected to receive Senate approval. Mr. Hays made a record in the House of consistent support of TVA except for his support of the Dixon-Yates proposal for Memphis.

I have been working to prepare myself for the expected battle on the Floor on the TVA self-financing bill and one the territorial "freeze" provisions of this bill. The private utilities can be expected to try to defeat the bill in toto. Failing that, they may seek to prohibit any other REA cooperative or city or town from contracting for TVA power.

Artificial barriers to the freedom of choice and movement inherent in the freeze proposal would, I fear, have the same crippling type of effect on our economy as the parceling of Europe into many small countries had there.

PARTY LINE FIGHT ON TOBACCO PROGRAM AVOIDED

The Jennings bill to stabilize and protect price support levels for tobacco opened up a party line split on the tobacco program when all but two of the republican members of the Agriculture Committee opposed the bill. Even though the bill was ordered reported by a more than two to one vote, it was important to try to maintain the 25-year principle of legislating for tobacco on the merits of the proposal rather than along party lines.

I joined in the effort along with other members of both parties who shared this view. We worked out some revised language which does not change the substance of the bill but does eliminate a problem which some of the members from the wheat areas saw in the original language. Since this has been fully reported in the press I won't go into the details of the revision.

I am confident that the vote on the bill in the final action in the Agriculture Committee will improve. Also the vote on the Floor of the House will most certainly show that the time and effort spent on this revision by the members of the Congress as well as the tobacco leadership from Kentucky and the other tobacco states was worthwhile.

NEW FARM BILLS TO BE INTRODUCED

Several new general farm bills will be introduced next week to try to deal with the twin problems of mounting surpluses and declining farm prices. It is significant that all of the bills I have seen leave the tobacco program unchanged.

Passage of any legislation to deal effectively with the mounting surplus-declining price problem is not very likely. The administration's apparent opposition to any proposal which does not start from the premise that even lower prices to producers is the only answer causes me to say this.

Ouida Jewell

Mrs. Brown Moss, the former Lulu Payne, of 317 East State Line, Fulton, is a very charming person. She was born out on her parents' farm during the yellow fever epidemic and came to live at her home on East State Line when she was three weeks old and has lived there ever since.

She probably has been a member of the First Methodist Church longer than any other member—sixty-nine years—although she says she's only thirty-five years old.

"I used to be older, but I decided I'd go back to thirty-five. I like that age best. It's a nice age!"

Mrs. Moss was graduated from the old Fulton Normal and Business College here in the class of 1895, and has a copy of the school catalogue for 1895-96, and one of her invitations.

Members of the graduating class of 1895 were: Commercial Department, J. F. Stallings; Scientific Department, Lulu Payne, Julian Paschall and Jack Collins; and Normal Department, Mattie Duncan, Houston Stubblefield and Ima Nix.

The following commencement activities were announced on the invitation: Commencement, Monday, July 1, 8 p. m.; Meeting of Seven Hicks debating club, July 2, 8 p. m.; Meeting of Dorman literary society, July 3, 8 p. m.; Annual Reunion, July 4, 9 a. m. The Kirland Brothers were principals.

The catalogue was printed by The Fultonian Democrat job rooms at Fulton.

Near the front are two pictures of the two two-story buildings which composed the school, which has not existed in Fulton for many years.

In 1895-96, the school was in its fourth year.

The faculty and officers of the school were: A. M. Kirland, President of the faculty and Principal of the Literary Department; D. C. Brogden, Principal of the Business Department; Mrs. Lella Waggner, Principal of the Music and Art Department; (Elocution was to be supplied); Eld. J. V. Kirland, Counselor and Solicitor; Eld. R. S. Kirland, Solicitor; Miss Maggie Nix, Librarian; and Mrs. A. M. Kirland, Mistress of the Boarding-Hall.

This flourishing, well known, and rapidly growing school was located at the enterprising town of Fulton, Ky. (so the catalogue reads), at the crossing of the C. O. & S. W., and the I. C. Railroads.

The catalogue continues: "Art and nature have combined to make this the garden spot of the United States. The fertility of the soil of the surrounding country is unsurpassed in the nation. The latitude and topographical influences make our climate just what an ideal should have. Nearly everything, except a few tropical fruits are produced here in abundance. A more suitable country for the location of a great school could not be found."

In speaking of Fulton as a healthful locality, the following appeared:

"This is one of the strong points of this Institution. But as the depot is located in a rather low part of the town, casual observers passing through have pronounced it a sickly place. In spite of all this, it is well known by all that are acquainted with Fulton, that it contains more large, robust men and stout, rosy cheeked women than any other town of its size in the country. This fact has been attracting attention for several years. Recent chemical examinations have shown the secret to lie in the water. The water is identical with that of many of the great health resorts of the country, only, it is milder. There is an inexhaustible well in the college yard whose delicious water invigorates all who use it. Many invalids have come to this town and in a few years found themselves in robust health. The college grounds are located on "College Hill", a beautiful knoll about one half mile Southwest of the business portion of the city.

"... It has been the province of this institution to help to break up castes in society and to destroy arrogance and aristocracy. We make but one distinction between people, and that is the good and the bad. Rich and poor meet on one common level. Both, a like, are taught economy and industry. Pupils are expected to dress as neatly as is convenient, but costly raiment is discouraged. Pupils should go to school to work, not show their fine clothing and to spend their father's money. It is a well known fact by the pupils and friends of this institution, that a young man or woman would peremptorily dismissed for teasing or embarrassing a student on account of his poverty or the plainness of his clothes."

Near the back of the catalogue are three pages devoted to the names of the students listed in the different department of the old school in 1896. Then, there is a business directory listing the following: attorney, Q. Ed Thomas; baker and confectioner, Dahne Bros.; barber, Jas. Mathis; book store, W. H. Norman; china and queensware, A. J. Kirland and Co.; clothier, J. Craig Russell; coal and ice, Murrell and Murrell, Geo. R. Creedle; druggists, Bennett Bros., Bennett & Miller, Palmer, Beades & Co.; dry goods, Wm. Cohn, W. W. Meadows, L. Rosenfield; foundry, N. C. Webb & Sons; grocers, Morris & McCall, J. M. Freeman, Wm. Jones P. R. Nolen & Son, Herring & Norman.

Gents' furnisher, E. C. Daney; jewelers, DeMyer & Phipps; laundry, Cain Lee; Livery Stables, Murrell & Murrell, McFarland & Purcell; marble yards, Jack Hall, J. F. Newton; mill, W. V. Brann & Son; newspaper, The Fultonian Democrat, semi-weekly, $1 per year; Matt Ayres, editor, largest circulation of any paper in Fulton County; physician, N. G. Morris; real estate agent, W. H. Phipps; and shoe store, J. D. Fry & Co.

We understand that Mrs. Gerri Braswell, County Health Nurse, plans to hold a pre-school roundup, health examinations, starting on Wednesday, May 6 and continuing through Thursday, May 7.

At 1 p. m. on May 6 examinations will be held at Carr Elementary and St. Edwards schools and at 2 p. m. at the Cayce white school.

On Thursday the health nurse will be at Terry-Norman at 1 p. m. and at 2 p. m. examinations will be held at Milton Elementary and Cayce colored schools.

A May Pole play entitled "Crowning the May Queen" will be presented Friday, May 1, at 7:40 p. m., by the fifth and sixth grades of Beeler School. Price of admission is 50 and 25 cents. The public is invited to attend. Friends and relatives are urged to attend.

The B&PW club will sponsor the sale of Centennial stock in Fulton. Mrs. Pattie May Fields is in charge of organizing the women.

The Fulton-South Fulton Business and Professional Women's Club has a total of eighty-one charter members, and all dues were sent to the state treasurer last Thursday. The charter membership drive closed with the charter night banquet on Monday night, April 20. From now on members will be voted into the club. Two members whose names have not been published in the News are Mrs. Mary Arrington and Mrs. Anita Allen.

What Does Faith In God Mean?

By Pat O'Brien,
Movie and Television Star

During World War II, I was privileged to be in an entertainment unit in the CBI. Officially, that meant the China-Burma-India Theater. We flew 68,000 air miles, stopping at remote pinpoint places to try and make our boys laugh a little. We visited spots I had never heard of before, but it was well worth the effort.

Having spent some time at these distant jungle, outposts, I have no doubt of their existence. Along with the GI's who slugged and sweated it out there, I had seen these places myself. But most Americans believe such farflung outposts in Burma, Trinidad, the Himalayas exist because they have faith—a human faith—in the maps, and the people who have told them these distant spots are a fact.

HUMAN FAITH plays a large role in our day to day living: every time we buy a can of peas at the local store we don't expect to find diced carrots inside; each time we board a bus marked "Downtown District" we don't expect to end up at the city limits. We simply have faith that the people who packed the can of peas and the driver who is in charge of the bus are telling the truth. Without human faith it would be impossible to lead a normal life. But there is another kind of faith which is more important than human faith. This is religious faith.

RELIGIOUS FAITH, like human faith, believes on the word of another. Religious faith is belief in the truths which God has revealed to us. The foundation of this belief is the authority of God himself. If I believe what a reporter says in the paper or on television, I have reason to believe the word of God, for God is Truth.

Religious faith believes everything God has revealed to us—that He is the Creator of all things including our immortal souls and our free will; that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity; that heaven is a reward for the just and hell is a punishment for the wicked. Some people find it difficult to believe in hell because they say a good God will never condemn anyone to everlasting punishment. But we're not free to pick and choose when it comes to the revelations of God. We are expected to take it all.

Chances Slim Obion County Can Obtain Federal Funds

Union City—The chances that either the Union City or Obion county school system may be able to take advantage of funds available under a federal act this year appeared slim today.

C. D. Parr, superintendent of the Obion county schools, said there was "very little chance" that the county would be able to participate. Joel Shore, Union City superintendent, said an effort will be made to find a way to profit from the program but he said the time element involved was "a serious obstacle."

Both superintendents attended a meeting of school officials in Huntingdon last Wednesday to hear the provisions of the federal act explained.

Some $495,000 is available to Tennessee schools under Title III of the National Defense Education Act.

Mr. Shore and Mr. Parr said the federal aid program would be continued next year and both the Union City and Obion county school systems are preparing to take advantage of the program. The superintendents said more money for the state will be available next year and that each participating school will be eligible to receive considerably more than the 71 cents allocated for this year's program.

Child Health Day Is May 1

Child Health Day—May 1, 1959—is a good time to cut down on accidents, according to a recent Children's Bureau publication.

A National Health Survey, conducted by the Census Bureau, has shown that about one-third of all persons injured in accidents are children under 15 years of age. More than half of these accidents occurred in or around the home.

Russell E. Teague, M. D., Commissioner of Health, noted that in Kentucky, as nationally, the leading causes of accidents to children are automobiles, fire, and drowning. "Accidents are a major public health problem in Kentucky today," Dr. Teague added. "It is up to us as parents to protect our children by teaching them good safety habits and by seeing that our homes are as accident-proof as possible."

Preliminary figures from the Kentucky State Health Department's Accident Prevention Section show that, during 1958, approximately 380 children died as a result of accidents, most of which were preventable.

Some safety tips for parents recommended by the Department are:

Keep matches and cigarette lighters out of the reach of small children.

Don't over-polish floors. Fasten small rugs to floor.

Screen your windows—particularly those high above the ground. Be sure the screens are fastened securely.

Don't leave small children alone in the bathtub.

Put all medicines, poisons, sprays, lye, insecticides, cleaners, fuel oil furniture polish out of reach of children.

Put away scissors, pins, needles, knives, etc.

Turn pot handles back. Keep high chairs away from stove and sink.

Keep electric cords in good repair and off the floor. Put safety plugs in unused electric outlets. Unplug and cover appliances when not in use.

Riceville residents say -----

THANK YOU BERT COMBS

for helping to get gravel for our streets

Several years ago, during the administration of Governor Lawrence Wetherby the streets of Riceville were black-topped for the first time in history. During the past three and one-half years these roads have needed repairs badly and our attempts to get attention from the Chandler-Waterfield Administration have been without luck.

Recently during this election year the streets in Riceville were repaired. If you, Bert Combs had not been such a strong candidate for Governor our pleas to get our streets fixed would have continued to be ignored.

You can't buy votes with gravel in Riceville, just as you can't buy votes with gravel in any decent community in Kentucky.

That's why we say . . .

Down on the Farm

With JIM PRYOR
Agricultural Agent, State Control Railroad

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

The sheep men of Kentucky have been in serious trouble for the last two years on parasite control. It has caused more farmers to sell their flocks than any other cause and as a result, lose a very profitable enterprise. Parasites can be controlled if care is taken of the flock at the proper time. If you have sheep you are going to have parasites and you MUST DRENCH.

Here is an approved schedule of drench procedure for the season.

First—Drench now with phenothiazine all ewes that have lambed. DO NOT drench ewes that are close to lambing.

Second—In exactly two weeks you should drench with Blue-stone-Blackleaf 40.

Third—Begin then the first of May your Bluestone-Blackleaf 40 drench should be given regularly at 21 day intervals. Any alteration of the 21 day schedule will result in a new crop of worms and all will be in vain.

Phenothiazine should be mixed at the rate of 1 pound to a quart of water and each sheep given two (2) ounces of the mixture. Remember, do not drench ewes that are close to lambing. The Bluestone-Blackleaf 40 drench may be obtained at the drugstore ready to mix with water. Call for Cooper's Drench. Be VERY careful in administration of the drench that you follow instructions to the letter, otherwise you may run into severe losses. Drench all sheep on the farm including your rams and any late lambs carried over the winter. Beginning with your May drench, drench all lambs that are over 2 months of age. Regulate dose according to size.

It would be a good idea to shear with a drench thus making one round-up serve both and saving labor.

If you are having worm trouble, don't sell out, drench is the answer to profitable sheep production. Our leading entomologists tell us that temperatures of 12 degrees during the winter will kill all worms and eggs on pasture. Therefore we infest our fields every year by not cleaning out flocks before they go on pasture. There will be eggs and worms in the barn and they will be killed with the drench as they pass through the sheep thus not getting a free pass to the clover patch.

Immunization Week May 3-9

A concerted effort to secure complete immunization of Kentuckians against communicable diseases is being conducted by the Kentucky State Medical Association during Immunization Week from May 3-9.

Of particular importance is the fact that only 40% of the population under twenty years of age have had the complete series of three injections for preventive measures against polio. It is up to the people over twenty to see that these people under twenty are properly inoculated as well as themselves. The series of polio shots are recommended for all under forty years of age.

75,000 SOLDIERS

Kentucky supplied more than 75,000 soldiers to the nation during World War I.

Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

This business of growing Centennial whiskers gets its laughs for the wearers if one can survive the first jolt that the family undergoes at seeing a different personality around the house.

The thing gets to be commonplace around Fulton, but when you get out of town with 'em you're in for many laugh, sometimes at your own expense, sometimes at the expense of others.

Drove to Louisville last Friday and even my good friends didn't recognize me. (It's possible, of course, that they didn't want to.) But it was fun saying hello, getting a reply usually provided any stranger, and then having them do a double-take in about ten seconds as it dawned on them.

And then last Saturday as I walked into a rather serious discussion of the Newspaper fraternity at the Journalism school at Lexington and was promptly introduced as "Fidel" Castro, the crowd roared. It was just a coincidence that the Engineer students at UK, who are growing beards for Engineer ceremonies on May 8, had just fired a wire to Castro to be their guest, on that date.

You know, it wouldn't be a bad stunt for the "Brothers of the Brush" to pull for our own centennial . . . extend a special invitation to Castro to become a member of our "Brothers", and maybe he'd even get up a special chapter of his own bearded countrymen. A "charter" with explanatory letter could be mailed him in care of the Cuban Embassy in Washington, and there would be some first-rate publicity for us!

Don't think there would be any point in inviting him down here personally if even the New York Police were worried about having to keep a triple-guard on him last week in New York.

Right now is a beautiful drive to Louisville up highway 62. I have never seen such a profusion of Dogwood and red-bud trees in full bloom, everywhere. Thousands of white and pink spotches dotting every hillside on the entire 300-mile stretch!

When the streamlined "City of New Orleans" passes through the city in the afternoons, you may now proudly point it out to visiting friends as the train that operates the "world's fastest start-to-stop schedule".

"Trains" magazine, studying passenger train speeds throughout the world, discovered that the "City of New Orleans" sets a world record on the 53.2 miles between Effingham and Centralia, Illinois, covering this distance in thirty-nine minutes . . . at an

Expands Financing For Home Repairs

Universal C. I. T. Credit Corporation, the nation's largest independent automobile financing company, is extending its financing facilities to cover home owner's property improvements in the Fulton area, it was announced today by Lee Russell, Paducah district manager.

Russell, in commenting on the national expansion of the company's "Property Improvement Plan," said that "home ownership has increased tremendously since World War II and represents a major part of the capital assets of the average American family. There is every indication that more and more attention is being given to maintaining and increasing the value and enjoyment of these family investments."

The firm's Property Improve-average speed of 81.8 miles per hour.

ment Plan provides for the financing of modernization and repairs to real property. Among the improvements that can be financed under "P. I. P." are air conditioning, heating equipment, exteriors (such as porches and recreation rooms), complete kitchen remodeling, swimming pools, garages and major alterations, including plumbing and sanitary improvements.

Universal C. I. T. will offer the plan through established contractors and dealers who have demonstrated their ability to perform satisfactory work and provide proper service. The financing contract will be protected by life insurance which provides for payment of unpaid balances in the event of the death of the person signing the contract. This supplies protection for the family and the investment.

Broadway Actress Named 'Jeanie' For Ky. Drama

Barbara Alleyn Lockard, now playing in the Broadway production, "Juno," will be "Jeannie" with the Light Brown Hair" in Kentucky this summer.

She has been chosen to portray Jane McDowell in Paul Green's outdoor musical drama, "The Stephen Foster Story," in the amphitheater at My Old Kentucky Home State Park, beginning a 10-week run June 26. Foster wrote the song "Jeannie" for his sweetheart, Miss McDowell.

Miss Lockard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lockard, West Frankfort, Ill., was chosen in New York by Green and Musical Arranger Isaac Van Grove after a six-month nationwide search for an actress-singer to play the role.

She was seen at Christmas in the NBC-TV production of "Amahl and the Night Visitors." She was a member of the New York City Center Opera Company's European tour which included performances at the Brussels World's Fair. Mid-west audiences remember her for musical and dramatic performances at Indiana University where she earned Master's and bachelor's degrees. Miss Lockard is 24 years old, five feet and five inches tall, and has green eyes and long chestnut colored hair.

Playwright Green first brings Jane McDowell into his story at age 18 when her love for Stephen Foster is opposed by her parents, who want her to marry a promising young lawyer instead of a musician with only dreams. She marries Foster and faces the responsibility of life with a creative artist whom the world is not ready to reward as a genius.

The production is being staged in the new 1,225-seat outdoor theater now being built by the Commonwealth for the troubadour who wrote "My Old Kentucky Home."

Obion Creek Watershed Construction Program Is Underway; Dirt Begins To Fly This Week

The dirt has begun to fly in Obion Watershed!

Motorists on route 307 south of Beulah this week will see the sort of operation on the first of 55 major structures planned for their 325 square mile problem area in West Kentucky. Others will follow shortly.

According to Harry Roberts, Jr., contracting officer for the watershed, at least a dozen are slated to go in during the summer along with an extensive tree and shrub planting program in critical sediment producing areas. Four miles of channel improvement work will also be done on Bowles Creek this fall.

This first structure on the Gaeble Higgins farm, is a sediment retention type consisting of an earth dam and sediment pool, plus an overflow tube. It will slow runoff water from a 29 acre area and catch all soil washed off in the next 15 years. By that time it is expected that erosion will be controlled by new vegetation that will be established. Tree planting crews have been busy and critical erosion areas are now 100 percent planted with a combination of trees, shrubs, and grasses. Boy Scouts from Explorers of Post No. 35 put on the finishing touches by setting out 35,000 multi-flora rose plants for fencing and wildlife purposes.

All together, there will be 14 flood retarding structures, 30 sediment retention structures, and 11 grade stabilization structures installed in the watershed. In order for them to be permanently effective, the land draining into them must be protected by conservation measures. This includes the right combination of grass and tree plantings in critical areas. Farmers are also being encouraged to use more fescue grass, sericea lespedeza, and ladine clover, said W. D. Franklin, Work Unit Conservationist for the United States Soil Conservation Service, at Clinton, Kentucky.

Some 225 acres of critical area plantings will be made this spring, mostly above structures. The plants, furnished by the Kentucky Fish and Wildlife Division, include 35,000 multi-flora rose; 120,000 trees furnished by Division of Forestry; 1,000 walnuts; 1,000 locusts; and 3,000 bicolor lespedeza. Combination plantings also include kudzu, honeysuckle, and some bermuda grass. In all, there will be some 1,100 (eleven hundred) acres of critical areas stabilized plus nearly four miles of road banks.

Other important parts of the watershed project are the 44 miles of channel improvement in tributaries of Obion Creek and the 37 miles of channel work on the main streams, the latter to be handled through the Army Corps of Engineers.

DUKEDOM RT. 2 Mrs. O. F. Taylor

We are having unsettled weather, not much sunshine and no rain either.

Mr. and Mrs. George Golden of Fulham were guests in the Arthur J. Hicks home Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Emerson visited their daughter, Mrs. Norman and family of Manleyville over the weekend.

Mrs. O. F. Taylor called on Mrs. T. C. House Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. A. McGuire attended a quilting in the home of Mrs. Vincent one day last week.

Mrs. Addie Casey is not improving any. Her condition is considered serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Puckett of Lone Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Taylor visited in the W. L. Rowland home Sunday p. m. for awhile.

Sunday visitors of the Tremon Rickman family were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Owen of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ellegood of Arlington and Bro. and Mrs. Mathis of Illinois. Mrs. Rickman came home from the hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Moore and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Taylor of Bethlehem attended the quarterly conference at Wesley Sunday. Bro. Mischke presided. He has been our District Superintendent six years and we are sorry to give him up. He is kind and understanding and that's more than can be said of some.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McGuire ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones of Fulton one night last week.

The friends in this vicinity of Mrs. Birdie Hannah were sorry to hear of her sudden death Saturday night at her home in Mayfield. Funeral and burial were held at Bethlehem Methodist Church near Pilot Oak Monday at 2 p. m. Our sympathy goes out to the family.

Do Planning For S. S. Payments

It's wise to plan ahead. While it's true you can't cross a bridge until you get to it, it is a good idea to know where the bridge is located.

Do some advance planning if you plan to file for Social Security payments. According to Charles M. Whitaker of the Paducah Office, you should make certain you have the necessary proofs such as verification of age and income before you file for benefits. If you intend to file for disability insurance benefits, check with your doctors so they will be prepared to furnish medical evidence when required.

Visit your social security office if you need additional information. "Inquire Before You Retire."

have a special interest in getting the Obion program started as damages have been particularly striking there. For example, Clois Wilson lost two horses when they fell off a high bank undercut by a deep gully.

Mrs. Ora Pearson used to milk cows in a barn a mile south of Beulah. "Many times I have been milking them during heavy rains," she said, "and I could actually hear the banks falling into nearby gullies."

J. E. Prince farms bottomland on a tributary of Obion Creek. As the water rushes down the valley and spreads out over the flat land, it drops tons of silt and sand. "I used to be able to mix a little topsoil with the sand when I plowed," he commented, "now it's all sand as deep as I can plow."

Soils in the watershed are extremely erosive. They consist mainly of light brown windblown material called loess underlain with sand and gravel. When the loess is removed by erosion, the sand underneath "melts away like sugar."

Obion watershed plans are for a five-year project costing $5,900,000 for installation.

Atomic Survival Depends Upon Personal Effort

The 1959 Civil Defense alert demonstrated the need for greater personal effort by every citizen if Kentuckians are to become able to survive nuclear attack, General Jesse Lindsay, state CD administrator says.

Lindsay added:

"The exercise pointed out the stark reality that each citizen will be largely on his own resources for several days, and may be longer, following a nuclear attack, because the density of radioactive fallout will likely render impossible any outside assistance—even from a neighbor.

"Also made obvious was the fact that residents of our large cities must know their community evacuation plans and be ready to follow them at a moment's notice, if they are to enhance their chances of survival."

The recent mock exercise, involving some 15 to 20 thousand persons, began with a national conelrad test alert. In a simulated attack, nuclear weapons struck Paducah, Covington and Lexington, killing or injuring an estimated 77,000 persons; theoretically unwilling or unable to evacuate to reception counties, Lindsay reported.

He said that within an hour after the strikes, deadly radioactive dust, blown by prevailing westerly winds, began to descend on many Kentucky counties, and approximately nine hours later virtually all counties were blanketed with varying degrees of fallout.

Residents without the protection of tight basements, fallout shelters or inside rooms would have been exposed to lethal amounts of radiation, in several counties due east of the stricken cities, Lindsay said.

The exercise was directed at state level from the Civil Defense control center, Bowman Field, Louisville. State and federal government officials and representative of industry collaborated in tackling the simulated problems

Mr. and Mrs. Artell Vincent and children, Debbie and Kevin, of Akron, Ohio arrived Monday to spend vacation here with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vincent, and other relatives in this area.

New farm equipment has been purchased on the Burnett Lintz and Cecil Davis place. Each have new Fordson tractors.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulon Ray Meacham and children of Ft. Worth, Texas arrived Saturday for vacation with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cloud Anderson and the Mescham family near Martin, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Artell Vincent and children of Akron, Ohio are spending vacation here with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vincent.

Some spring landscaping was done last week when Messrs Sam Mathis and Buton Lassiter set some red bud trees on their lawns. At every home new flowers have been set, beautifying every available space. Mrs. Grover True planted dahlia seeds in egg shells, to be ready for early transplanting, which is her first experiment.

Mrs. Mack Bynum arrived Saturday from Akron, to visit her sick mother, Mrs. Nora Vincent, and other relatives in this area.

Mrs. Tee Mathis of Nashville and Dyer, Tenn., is visiting her brother, Mr. Dave Mathis, and Mrs. Mathis of this village.

Mrs. Raymond Griffith and her mother, Mrs. Byars, left Friday for Atlanta, Ga. for a visit with

Democrat; for Jack Anderson, reporter for the Mayfield Messenger and surely they wouldn't criticize a lady of the stature of Mrs. Hubert Wright of Paducah. And as for the grammar used by Mr. Long, who was discharged because he rode in a car with a Combs-Wyatt sticker on it, it doesn't seem that he should be condemned for that. He was hired by the Chandler Administration, remember, and fired by it, too.

I wasn't on the program to "help" Mr. Combs. He stands on his own two feet. Not being an orator doesn't disqualify a man from being Governor. And for the statements made by Mr. Combs on that program I can only say one thing... elect him Governor and you'll find out whether they're ridiculous or not. Remember the Chandler promises of 1955 and look at the Chandler record of 1959.

So in a feeling of home-folks-ness let's remember that when the campaign is over I'll be right back in Fulton working with you to raise money for polio, for factories, for every drive you can name. I'll be working like mad on the Ken-Tenn-O-Rama if they need me. And if Bert Combs is elected he will fulfill one commitment to me... he will appoint a Fulton Count on the Economic Industrial Development Board and when that happens we'll be so busy making way for new factories we won't want to remember the harsh things said among ourselves during this campaign.
