WEEKLY NEW ERA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1906.

VOLUME XXV, NO. 48

Don't forget to vote for Neighbor Crenshaw.

The New Era is something of a "seventh son of a seventh son." See the primary prophecy elsewhere in this issue—and preserve it.

Prof. E. A. Gullion is the only candidate from the Sixth Congressional district—and the district has a majority of 4500 to 6000. Mr. wants to be superintendent of public instruction.

Democrats should not fail to do their duty next Tuesday. VOTE. Next in importance, vote early.

No Christian county Democrat should fail to vote next Tuesday for the Hon. R. C. Crenshaw. He is the only home man on the ticket, and his qualifications for the office to which he aspires are unsurpassed. As assistant commissioner of agriculture, he has done a magnificent work in the interest of the farmers. As commissioner he will do more. Mr. Crenshaw is a loyal Democrat, and a tireless worker for the party. He has earned the support of every good Democrat. Help make his majority overwhelming.

Yesterday was the last of the three days provided by law for the supplemental registration, and all voters who live in the incorporated towns of the county and who did not avail themselves of the opportunity to register will not be allowed to vote in the election next Tuesday.

The final figures are rather surprising as they overcome to a great extent the decrease as shown from last year. One hundred and thirty voters registered on the supplemental days, a decrease of 35 from 1905, but an increase of 30 over 1904.

While Congressman Stanley has no formidable opposition, every citizen of his district who approves of his course in the cause should register that approval by voting for him. He has been faithful to the business interests, faithful to the farming interests and faithful to the labor interests. He has devoted his whole time to the work. Thus he has bound to him, as with hoops of steel, the best elements of his constituency, lastingly endeared himself to an appreciative people. Let this appreciation be shown at the ballot box on November 6.

JNO. WESLEY GAINES

URGES THE FARMERS TO VOTE FOR M'CREARY.

Tells Them The Kentucky Statesman is a True Friend to Their Cause.

A Pembroke correspondent writes as follows of Congressman John Wesley Gaines' address at the Pembroke opera house:

"The feature of his speech was that he urged the tobacco growers to vote for Senator McCreary in the primary next Tuesday. Congressman Gaines said that it was not his habit to take part in politics outside of his own state, but having the interest of every tobacco grower at heart he felt impelled to say something of the work he had seen Senator McCreary do for them, and to urge them to return to true a friend to their cause to the senate.

"I have no interest in the senatorial race in Kentucky except your interest. I know Senator McCreary to be devoted to your cause. During the last session of congress when a bill was before congress permitting farmers to sell tobacco from their farms in twigs, free of tax, and when Standard Oil Aldrich was trying to throttle that bill, McCreary went before the committee and brought the bill safe and sound out of the committee room. If you want a true and an able representative in the United States senate vote for James A. McCreary."

"Congressman Gaines is himself one of the staunchest champions of the tobacco growers in either house of congress. He, together with Congressman Stanley, of the Second district, has led the fight for relief from the tobacco trust. He is held in very high regard in this section of the state, and it is believed that his words will have great influence with the voters."

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The Kentucky synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian church will conclude its annual session this afternoon. The meeting is proving to be a success far beyond expectations. Last night another congregation that filled the church to overflowing heard Rev. J. L. Hudgins, D. D., of Union City, Tenn., moderator of the Decatur general assembly, deliver an eloquent and effective sermon.

At the excellent lunch served yesterday at noon in the Odd Fellows building by the ladies of the church, Judge W. B. Young, of Tennessee, responded to the toast, "The Kentucky Synod as I See It." He said, "I am proud of my native state because the Cumberland river flows through it; second, because the Cumberland mountains range through it; third, because the Cumberland Presbyterian church was organized on its soil."

Judge K. L. Baskett responded tentatively to the toast, "What Next?"

Judge J. H. Fussell, of Tennessee, responded to the toast, "Our Cumberland Women." He spoke beautifully of his mother in time of war when she laid her hand upon his shoulder and said, "Son the Lord will bring you back." He attributed his safe return to the prayers of this consecrated Cumberland Presbyterian mother.

The synod convened at 2 p. m. for devotional services, after which it was opened for general discussion. A splendid address was delivered by Dr. J. L. Hudgins, of Union City, Tenn., on the question of church property. He said, "With malice toward none, but love for all, property or no property, I am a Cumberland Presbyterian to stay." The entire synod showed their willingness to stand by this by standing on their feet.

"Our Book, wherein it differs from all other standards," was openly discussed by Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Cumberland presbytery. He pointed out very forcibly the difference in the confession of faith of the Cumberland Presbyterian church as compared to that of the Presbyterian church U. S. A. The synod then adjourned until 7:30 p. m.

This morning after prayer by Dr. McDonald and devotional services by Dr. Price, there was an impressive service of quotations from the scripture, and a consecration service in which the power of the spirit was never more clearly manifested in any previous meeting of the synod. Various reports were read and approved. A donation of $1 was made by each member of the synod for the extension of synodical missionary work. A resolution adopted thanking Judge J. H. Fussell for his address on "The Denominational Future of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church." The "Cumberland Banner" was recognized as the church paper of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

A resolution was passed expressing the synod's gratitude to the 106 loyal delegates who at the Decatur assembly in May 1905, stood by the perpetuation of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

A resolution was adopted, to be sent to the next general assembly of Cumberland Presbyterians, offering an amendment to confine the action of that body strictly to Sec. 60 of the Confession of Faith. A report was made by the Woman's Synodical Missionary society that they had decided to use the money in their possession to forward missionary work in the state.

KENTUCKY SYNOD "A"

The Presbyterian Synod A. is scheduled to conclude its session this afternoon to meet next year at Owensboro where the Presbyterian Synod also meets, and where the final steps will be taken for the fusion into one great body.

This meeting which now closes, has been characterized by both the members and the visiting brethren, as one of the most spiritual and uplifting that it has been their pleasure to attend.

Christ has been lifted up, evangelism has been the theme of all addresses and labors, God has been praised and the Holy Spirit honored.

Wednesday morning Dr. Lee made a stirring address on "Personal work using as a text a few of the last verses of Jude."

In the afternoon Dr. Edward L. Warren, substituted for Dr. Lucas, of India, representing the foreign board, in an address full of information and inspiration, calculated to quicken interest in those who, in faraway lands, are perishing without Christ.

The Woman's Synodical Missionary Society met at the Christian church at 10:30 o'clock and continued their session through the afternoon.

The evening services at the First Presbyterian church was a popular meeting under the auspices of the ladies' missionary society. Mrs. Caldwell Helm, of Danville, acted as chairman and was assisted by Mrs. Goodnight, of Franklin, and Mrs. Carson of Bowling Green.

Dr. John Dixon, of New York, the representative of the home board, was introduced by Dr. Fullerton and spoke in behalf of home missions. Dr. Dixon is not only a charming speaker but a man who knows his subject most thoroughly. The problems now facing the church in the home land must be met and solved not only for the cause of Christ but for patriotic reasons as well.

Dr. Hunter Corbett, for forty-three years a missionary in China, and moderator of the general assembly, spoke in behalf of foreign missions. We have heard many addresses by Chinese missionaries but none so packed with things we never knew before about the Chinese. He pictured both the dark and the bright side of his work; and the encouraging features serve as an inspiring incentive to renewed energy in the foreign work.

The visiting brethren seemed delighted with Hopkinsville and her hospitality and declare that they return to their homes and fields with renewed enthusiasm and zeal in the master's cause.

The following resolution of thanks was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, that the sincere thanks of the synod be hereby expressed to the Rev. Edw. H. Bull and the session of the First Presbyterian church U. S. A., of Hopkinsville for the use of their church and for other kindly courtesies; to Mr. James West for his untiring efforts in providing for the

VALIANT DEMOCRAT BIG RALLY OF FARMERS NEXT MONDAY.

AND SPLENDIDLY QUALIFIED FOR THE OFFICE.

Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, Candidate for Nomination For Attorney General.

The Hon. John K. Hendrick, who is a candidate for the office of attorney general of Kentucky, subject to nomination by the Democratic party in the primary next Tuesday was born in the adjoining county of Todd about fifty-five years ago and is in the prime of a strong and vigorous manhood both mentally and physically.

He is a self made man and ranks as one of the foremost lawyers of the state.

He resides at Paducah where he practices his profession, and is the only candidate for the office of attorney general in the Green river country, and therefore the New Era takes great pleasure in commending him to the voters of Christian county as worthy of their support and confidence and urges them not to forget him next Tuesday when they go to vote in the Democratic primary.

No man in the state has rendered more valiant and able party service than Mr. Hendrick. No lawyer is better equipped or qualified to discharge the duties of the office of attorney general than he, and he will make one of the ablest and most faithful attorneys generals the state has ever had.

In addition to Mr. Hendrick's sterling democracy and great ability as a lawyer, he is also a man of the strictest integrity and will do his duty honestly and fearlessly without fear or favor and it is safe to say that no man who votes for him will ever have cause to regret it.

Comfort and entertainment of the synod, and for his other labors which more than those of any other one person, have made this meeting a success in its local features to the newspapers for their generous reports; to the railroads for courtesies in transportation; to the moderator for his kind and impartial manner of presiding; to the stated clerk for his kindly help in many ways, and to the good people of Hopkinsville who have opened their homes to the members of the synod, and for their warm hearted and unstinted hospitality and uniform courtesy.

The above resolution was adopted by a rising vote and was heartily endorsed.

be privileged to challenge for the international trophy, and intimated that he would issue a challenge next year for a race, possibly in 1908 or 1909. He expressed favor with the new New York Yacht club's racing rules, which he said contemplated the building of yachts, not mere racing machines.

POPE ACCUSED BY FRANCE OF CONSPIRACY FOR MONARCHY.

ROME, Oct. 27.—The Osservatore Romano has published a semi-official article saying that the French cabinet is preparing to attack the Vatican at the reopening of the chambers by accusing it of engaging in a conspiracy with the monarchists to overthrow the republic and giving the following statements as proofs of its charges:

That the royalist press, which opposed the late Pope Leo, approves of Pope Pius.

That the Pope granted an interview with the royalist organ, the Gaulois.

The Osservatore Romano answers these allegations by stating that Pope Pius, like Pope Leo, loyally accepts the republic, as the former has repeatedly affirmed, confirming his statement in his recent encyclical on the church and state separation law and challenges any body to quote a word uttered by the pope or to adduce a fact showing the pontiff as an enemy of the republic.

The proofs to be referred to by the French government, the Osservatore Romano adds, are not serious. The royalists support the Pope either as good Catholics or for political aims. In the latter case it is not the Vatican's fault, "the responsibility resting on the republic and resulting from the anti-religious measures adopted, in oppressing the church under the guise of carrying out republican ideas."

POSTAL EMPLOYEES

Several employees in the local postoffice are much pleased over the news from Washington that First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock, in a statement in connection with his recent announcement that he would recommend a substantial increase of salaries for postal employees, says the sum received will benefit 75 per cent of clerks in the grade below $900, about 50 per cent of the clerks receiving $900 and $1,000, about 40 per cent of those receiving from $1,100 to $1,200 and about 30 per cent of those over $1,200.

An appropriation of $25,700,000 will be urged for clerks of the first and second-class offices, an increase of $3,000,000 over the current year, of which increase $1,370,000 is for employment of additional clerks and the rest for promotions.

The estimates provide for the promotion of 16,300 clerks in first and second-class postoffices. The department also is considering an amendment to the present law permitting payment of a higher compensation to letter-carriers.

GO RIGHT AT IT

Friends and Neighbors in Hopkinsville Will Show You How.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it. But it won't cure it. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it; Reach the cause; relieve the pain. They cure, too, so Hopkinsville people say.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson, wife of J. T. Johnson, superintendent of streets, living at 615 North Main street, says: "During the latter part of last summer I noticed growing upon me a dull aching across the small of my back which kept getting worse until finally the pain became so severe that I was hardly able to walk around, and many times could not attend to my household duties. The trouble I believe came from my kidneys for I suffered from other distressing symptoms of complaint. I was subject to most severe headaches and frequent attacks of dizziness. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and my husband got a box for me. They did me a wonderful amount of good. I felt much better and stronger in every way than I had for some years. I do not know what I would have done if it had not been for Doan's Kidney Pills.

SELLERS OF LIQUOR

CAN NO LONGER JOIN THE ORDER OF K. OF P.

Even Hotel Men Running Saloons in Connection Barred by Supreme Lodge's Action.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26.—A sweeping anti-liquor statute was passed by the supreme lodge Knights of Pythias. The new statute is expected to bar from entry to the order, wholesale liquor dealers and hotel keepers who run bars in connection with their hotels. With the exception of these two classes all other liquor dealers were excluded by the old statute which was superseded today. The new statutes includes "professional gamblers, saloon-keepers, bar-tenders or dealers in spirituous vinous or malt liquors."

The most important changes in the new reading are the substitution of the word "dealers" where formerly "retail dealers" stood, and the dropping of the classes "bona fide hotel keepers," which the old law specifically mentioned as eligible.

The new statute does not affect any who are members of the Knights of Pythias.

MR. CLARDY'S DEATH

HIGHLY RESPECTED SOUTH CHRISTIAN PLANTER.

Mrs. Elliott Dies Unexpectedly While On a Visit to Relatives in Lynchburg, Virginia.

(From Saturday's Daily.) James M. Clardy, one of the oldest and most highly respected farmers of Christian county, and a brother of Dr. John D. Clardy, died last night about 9 o'clock at his home near Bell station. Pneumonia caused his death, he having been critically ill for several days. Mr. Clardy was seventy-six years of age and was a loyal and devoted member of the Locust Grove church. His widow and eight children survive him. The deceased was held in loving esteem by all who knew him and his death is deeply regretted. The funeral services were held at the late residence this afternoon at 1 o'clock and the body was laid to rest in the burying ground on the place of Dr. John Bell.

Mrs. Elliott's Death. A telegram this morning brought the sad and unexpected news that Mrs. W. R. Elliott, of this county, had died in Lynchburg, Va., where she has been for several weeks visiting relatives. Her death must have been very sudden for relatives here had no knowledge of her being ill. She was formerly Miss Nannie Lee Walker, of Lynchburg, and was married to Mr. Elliott twenty years ago, since which time she has lived with her husband on his farm about six miles from town on the Fairview pike. She was fifty-one years of age and a devoted member of the Episcopal church here. She was a lady of many accomplishments and excellence of character. Two sisters, Mrs. H. D. Le Grand and Mrs. Rannie Withers, of Lynchburg, and two brothers, Messrs. E. W. and S. J. Walker of this city survive her.

Mr. Elliott will leave this afternoon at 5:15 for Lynchburg and funeral arrangements will not be determined until his arrival there, but it is thought that the burial will take place in that city as other members of the family lie there. Mrs. Elliott's death makes the third in this family within the last six months.

K. McRae's Death. Kenneth McRae, who was committed to the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, Oct. 4, died of paralysis Oct. 17. He was about 50 years of age and was formerly proprietor of the European hotel.

Mrs. Mosier's Death. Mrs. Bettie Mosier, wife of J. H. Mosier, died in childbirth yesterday at her home near Sinking Fork. She was thirty-seven years of age and a member of the Christian church. Her husband and five children survive her. The body will be shipped to Glasgow, Ky., this afternoon where it will be interred.

LOOKING BACKWARD

MR. FOSTER TELLS OF ORIGIN OF ORGANIZATION

Not Connected With the A. S. of E.—Some Advice to The Members.

To the Kentucky New Era:—

The success of the Planters' Protective association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, is a 'fixed fact' and this is acknowledged by the world. It has made a country prosperous, and that country's people happy. The western districts of Kentucky and Tennessee are being earnestly and thoroughly canvassed by agents of the association, and the farmers in these sections are rapidly putting their tobacco crops into this organization, and Virginia's planters are doing so too.

With all these planters in, by Christmas next, our association can trade, if it likes, directly with every county of Europe and of the world, that requires our tobacco in its trade.

By the way, it is a mistake to say, that a conference with the American Society of Equity was called at the solicitation of anybody with authority to do so, who is connected with the Planters' Protective association, because there was no occasion for our people to confer.

We are separate organizations, independent entirely of each other and entirely disassociated in business. Therefore all reports to that effect are in error and a mistake.

The Hon. H. B. Sherman is equally mistaken, when he asserted "that every movement in the last ten years, for the betterment of the farmers has been suggested by the A. S. of E." He certainly knows that society has not been in existence that long.

As to our movement, we have positive knowledge, that in the good year of 1893, the very first year Hon. F. G. Ewing came to Robertson county, Tennessee to live, that he conceived the plan, and began very modestly to suggest our planters movement to his friends and neighbors.

Hon. E. T. Fleming, now a prominent lawyer in Butte City, Montana, counsel and attorney for various mining concerns and for the Western Union Telegraph company; and who was in Nashville in 1894, suggested that we speak to Mr. Ewing upon the subject of a Tobacco Growers' association, both Fleming and the writer having been classmates at school with Mr. Ewing in 1869, and as we both knew Mr. Ewing was a practical organizer of corporations, Ewing having organized two manufacturing companies, one to manufacture plows and the other carriages.

Having then in March 1894, accidentally met Mr. Ewing at Samuel Black's livery stable on North Church street in Nashville, we spoke to Mr. Ewing at once, and to our surprise found by his reply, that he had the same matter under consideration, and had already spoken to his friends and neighbors of his home county upon the subject during the year 1893.

In this conversation with us, Mr. Ewing's last remark was to the writer, "You are right, keep up the fight." Thus encouraged and knowing Mr. Ewing's interest as a large planter of tobacco, in our county, we have kept up the fight to this good hour, and will cheerfully do our best to keep it up, till Felix G. Ewing calls off the dogs of war.

Ewing's idea has developed into the Planters' Protective association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia. (Incorporated).

By the mercy of God, and the good, practical common sense of these tobacco planters and their wives, their girls and boys, white and black, our association has checked the oppression, in the language of President Roosevelt to our congressman, John W. Gaines, of "the worst trust in the world."

It has kept us out of the poorhouse, is making a large section of these three states prosperous and the inhabitants thereof, both white and black, a most happy and thankful people to God and to Felix G. Ewing.

The truth alone, compels us to write this, to set Hon. H. B. Sherman right in this matter; he intend in no sense, to impute any bad motive to him, in his remark, even if correctly reported, "That every movement for the last ten years, for the betterment of the farmers, had been suggested by the A. S. of E."

What we mean here to say is, that Mr. Sherman, when he made the remark, did not know these facts. Living men make history, and his-

Maryland Physician Cures Himself of Eczema with Cuticura Remedies. Prescribes Them and Has Cured Many Cases Where Other Formulas Have Failed—Dr. Fisher Says:

CUTICURA REMEDIES POSSESS TRUE MERIT

"My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies, and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. A childless home is a cheerless home. The maternal instinct exists in every woman and when it is ungratified she is deprived of much of the happiness of life. It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed, and often is removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The vigor and vitality which this remedy imparts to the delicate womanly organs, puts them in a condition of normal health, the lack of which is often the sole obstruction to maternity. Every woman should read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages and 700 illustrations. It is sent entirely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. ## HARMFUL STOMACH DOSING

No Need of It When Hyomei Is Used to Cure Catarrh.

Physicians and scientists agree that the less medicine one swallows, the better. It is in keeping with this idea that Hyomei is recommended by leading physicians throughout this and other catarrhal sections.

When this treatment is used in catarrhal troubles, there is no stomach dosing, for the medicine is taken in with the air you breathe, and goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present, healing the inflamed and irritated mucous membrane, killing the disease germs and entering the blood with the oxygen, driving all catarrhal germs from the system.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head by putting medicine into your stomach.—this is neither a scientific nor a common-sense treatment. Breathe the healing balsams of Hyomei and in a few days you will notice relief, and its continued use will result in a complete and lasting cure.

L. L. Elgin has seen so many cures made by Hyomei amongst his customers, several of them cases where all hope of relief had been given up, that he gives an absolute guarantee of cure, or money will be refunded, with every outfit he sells.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, while extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, are only 50 cents.

Wrong Negro Once More.

A negro bearing a resemblance to Godfrey Ray, murderer of Marshal John C. Dickinson, of Trenton, was arrested in Louisville Wednesday. Chief of Police Gunther wrote Sheriff Shelton, saying that the man strongly resembled Ray. It was suggested by phone that he get Dr. H. T. Gill, formerly of Allensville but now residing in Louisville, who knows the negro well, and have him look at the suspect. This Chief Gunther did, and Dr. Gill at once pronounced the negro the wrong man, according to a telephone message received last yesterday afternoon.—Trenton Times.

MARLBOROUGHS WILL GET DIVORCE BUT DUKE WON'T TAKE HER MONEY

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Renouncing the money of his wife, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, the Duke of Marlborough has consented to a separation from the Duchess. This is the latest gossip going the rounds in regard to the marital troubles of the well-known peer.

Terms for the separation of the couple have already been agreed, according to this report. The countess will get Sunderland house and the duke will waive all right to any portion of the fortune settled on his wife at the time of their marriage. The income from this marriage settlement is said to amount to $175,000 annually. All that the duke will really profit will be to the extent of the repairs made by the Duchess of Blenheim.

Neglect of his wife is said to have led to the troubles of the Duke.

It is reported that a year ago King Edward talked to Marlborough in behalf of his wife, but without accomplishing any good. The final tiff came when the countess refused to take company on a fishing trip to Scotland.

NEW ORGANIZATION THE STORMS AND DISASTERS OF 1906. "THY PEOPLE MINE"

MEMBERS AND FARMERS NOT IN THE ASSOCIATION.

Held a Meeting at Cadiz And Adopted Resolutions.—Local Buyers Waited On.

About one hundred farmers, who had refused to join the Dark Tobacco Planters' Protective association, met in Cadiz this week and formed an independent organization. The Planters Protective association in that county recently adopted a resolution forbidding any independent buyers to come to Trigg county for the purpose of buying tobacco, and the forming of the new organization is to oppose this step and to afford all possible protection to buyers should they visit the county. At this first meeting only resolutions were adopted, but it was decided that another meeting should be held on the fourth Monday in November at which time permanent organization will be completed. The resolutions adopted were as follows:

"Whereas, the Dark Tobacco association of Trigg county, at a meeting in Cadiz, Ky., on October 2, 1906, passed a resolution pledging the association not to permit any outside buyer to come into Trigg county to buy the tobacco not pledged to the association; and whereas, we the undersigned citizens and tobacco growers of Trigg county, who have not pledged our tobacco to said association, are forced to accept the said resolution as a threat to resort to lawlessness and force; and whereas, we believe as free citizens and free Americans we have the full right of property protection guaranteed to us under the law and may sell to whom we please.

"We, therefore, hereby band ourselves together for the purpose of inviting buyers to come to this county to buy our tobacco and hereby individually and jointly pledge ourselves to protect any tobacco buyer who may come into Trigg county to buy our tobacco at fair market prices, so far as we can by a resort to the law."

"We shall abide by the law ourselves and shall appeal to the law and to the commonwealth to protect our rights of property and to punish any infringement or interference without the freedom on rights as citizens."

"Resolved, further, that our organization be known as the Farmers Independent Organization of Trigg county; and

"Resolved, further, that if the Dark Tobacco District Planters Protective association will agree to a loose sale of the tobacco, then we will join the association in a body; and

"Resolved, further, that in no event we will do anything to injure said association in any way; and

"Resolved, further, that J. J. Alexander, I. W. Wallis, H. C. Vinson and Alex. Wallace be appointed a committee to confer with a similar committee from said association as to any differences existing between us."

Alex Wallace was chairman of the meeting and I. W. Wallis was secretary. Before the beginning of business, prayer was offered by Rev. J. J. Alexander. The committee on resolutions consisted of I. W. Wallis, H. C. Vinson and Frank Mitchell and resolution as given above was adopted unanimously when presented by the committee after deliberating for about thirty minutes.

Last year independent tobacco buyers were ordered not to make purchases in Trigg county, although there was a considerable number of farmers who did not belong to the association. Numerous strongly worded resolutions have been adopted in that county from time to time by the association, practically declaring a boycott upon many lines of these being in regard to employment of farm help to a certain extent.

This year the association evidently intends to adopt the same plan for a committee has already visited several independent buyers of Hopkinsville and demanded of them that they not purchase tobacco in Trigg county. In one instance one of these buyers so waited on, told the committee that he could not give them any reply as he had to take his orders from his superiors. To this the committee replied that they did not know his superiors but they did know him and would hold him personally responsible.

CADIZ, Ky., Nov. 2, 1906.
The kind you have always bought
Sincerely,
Chas. H. Hatcher

The year 1906 has made a record of natural convulsions and disasters that few of its predecessors have excelled, and which it may be hoped none of its successors will equal, says the Nashville Banner. These include a notable eruption of Vesuvius, the earthquake in Chili, a great typhoon on the coast of China, and the hurricane which has just wrought such havoc along the gulf coast. Three months of the year yet remain, but it is to be hoped that the list of such calamitous visitations which in may contain is closed.

The scientists agree there is an essential connection between these phenomena, but their recurrence within short periods suggests to the popular mind some disturbed state of nature that makes such violent exhibitions of its forces on the earth's surface. The equinoxial period is usually attended by storms, and they have been of more than customary violence this year. The typhoon that wrought disaster at Hong Kong seems to have had a sort of reactionary response on this side of the globe in the gulf coast hurricane. Such violent phenomena have been witnessed previously in both hemispheres in the past. On October 11, 1741, a destructive storm swept the coast of India. The water rose forty feet higher than ever before known, and it is estimated that over 300,000 people perished. Over 1000 vessels were wrecked. On October 10, 1789, probably the worst hurricane on record visited the West Indies. Bridgetown, on the island of Barbadoes, was entirely destroyed; St. Lucien, Grand and St. Vincent were laid in waste; 1400 houses were blown down in Port Royal, on the island of Martinique; not a house was left standing in St. Pierre, and many vessels were dashed to pieces in those ports. The loss of life was enormous, over 5000 people having perished in St. Esacia alone.

The storm that has just caused so much damage in the gulf coast is compared in the press dispatches to that which wrecked Galveston. While the storm may have been as violent, the destruction has been by no means so great as that at Galveston because of that city's insular exposure. It is estimated that 6000 lives were lost in Galveston and the property destroyed was valued at $20,000,000. The recent storm extended over a wider area than that which wrecked Galveston. It visited the cities of Mobile and Pensacola and numerous smaller towns, and some days will be required to determine the full extent of its ravages. First reports are usually exaggerated, but it is certain that great havoc has been wrought, and there is much distress in the hurricane's track that appeals for relief.

FROM DAY TO DAY

Dr. Andrew Sargent is completing arrangements to remove from Hopkinsville to Louisville where he will continue the practice of medicine. Dr. Sargent has extensive business interests here and it will probably be Jan. 1, 1907 before he and Mrs. Sargent establish their home in the metropolis of the state. He has rented his residence on South Main street to the Rev. Dr. John W. Lewis, presiding elder of the Hopkinsville district of the Louisville Methodist conference, and will give him possession by the first of December. Dr. Sargent has practiced his profession in this city for twenty-five years, and his reputation as a learned and skillful physician is known throughout the state. In moving to Louisville he will surrender a practice that is both extensive and lucrative, but he feels that his field of usefulness will be enlarged. Dr. Sargent is prominent in Republican councils and was formerly representative from Christian county in the Kentucky legislature.

The Hon. Ed Tandy (we call him that now) is going to dress up every day as fine as a fiddle, since he purchased the association Regie tobacco. He looks like a full fledged New York banker, and is just as polite and wary as John D. Rockefeller when a reporter tries to interview him. He is real handsome dressed up, smiles and chats charmingly. Like he had a notion of following President Chas. H. Fort's example. We don't know where he got the good clothes, nor who paid for them. Anyway, he is no longer plain Ed Tandy, but still as whole-souled good fellow as ever came down the pike.—Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

Attorney William P. Winfree, Jr., after a severe illness which confined him to his bed several weeks, is able to be at his office. He is rapidly gaining his accustomed good health. Mr. Winfree surprised and perhaps startled his friends by appearing on the streets with a beard so luxuriant that he will have no trouble in capturing the Populist vote if he ever runs for office.

Mrs. N. A. Price, of Dawson Springs, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Caroline Augusta Price, to Mr. Hugh Hurst Rodman, on Monday October 22. Mrs. Price and Mrs. Rodman will leave shortly to spend the winter in California, where Mr. Rodman will be located for a short while.

A moot court will be held by the Henry Clay debating society of the Public High school on Wednesday, November 28. John Lawson will be the defendant and the "charge" against him will be "obtaining money under false pretenses." Jim Breathitt, Jr., will be judge, Athol Bartley sheriff and Arthur Reeder clerk. Maxey Blythe will act as prosecuting attorney and he will be assisted by George Abbott and Raymond Tichenor. The attorneys for the defense will be Thomas Earle, Caldwell Feland and Lawson Faxon.

* Have you tried smiling? It is the latest remedy for all the ills of the flesh and the spirit, and it is cheap. All that is necessary to do to try the new "smile cure" which, we are informed, the London doctors are recommending, is to lift the corners of the mouth slightly by means of the facial muscles, expanding the lips and showing the teeth. Practice this before the looking glass at night and morning until the smile has worn in and the beneficial results will be forthcoming. It is seriously asserted. There is no state of affairs so discouraging that it can't be benefited by smiling over it, and there is no joy in life so joyous that it will not spread a little wider over the surface of the globe with the coaxing of a smile.

ONE WEEK IS SAVED

COURT BUSINESS WAS EXECUTED WITH DISPATCH.

Permanent Injunction In The Lafayette School Case.—Fall Session is At an End.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The business of the present term of circuit court was completed today and the session finally adjourned. The term was for six weeks but owing to the fact that the business was finished with such dispatch the time was only five weeks.

In the case of Nina Anglin against William Seensney, Patrick Smith and Peter Elliott, trustees of colored school district S. and Superintendent of County Schools, W. E. Gray, the injunction forbidding the trustees and superintendent from interfering with the plaintiff in the teaching of her school was made permanent. The plaintiff claims to have been regularly employed as assistant in the Lafayette colored school and to have taught there for some time. She further charges that without any cause she was told to vacate her position and that another teacher, Sallie Smith, would succeed her. The permanent injunction now granted leaves the plaintiff in control of the situation for the remainder of the six months term.

S. R. Hancock, a farmer of near Lafayette, was bitten by a black spider while lying in bed and his condition is so serious that his recovery is doubtful.

Sues For Divorce.

Mrs. Emma D. Littlefield has instituted suit for divorce from G. T. Littlefield. Plaintiff alleges that her husband has property worth $5,000 and she prays $2,500 alimony and the custody of their child. Mr. Littlefield is engaged in the mercantile business near the city.

DR. JENKINS ACCEPTS CALL OF BAPTIST CHURCH.

Will Probably Enter Upon His Work Here The First Part of Next Month.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The Rev. Dr. Millard A. Jenkins, of Georgia, has accepted the call to the pulpit and pastorate of the Baptist church of this city.

The announcement conveyed this morning in a telegram to James H. Anderson is causing rejoicing among the members of the congregation who are looking forward to a great work for the cause of the Master under his leadership.

The despatch to Mr. Anderson was as follows:

"DUBLIN, Ga., Oct. 27, 1906.—Jas. H. Anderson, Hopkinsville, Ky. Ruth Liss. God bless the union. Letter follows.

"MILLARD A. JENKINS."
The scriptural reference is one of the most familiar of Biblical phrases—"Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

Dr. Jenkins was extended by the church a unanimous call on September 5. About the same time other calls from influential churches are also made, among them being churches in Baltimore, Md., and Roanoke, Va. Dr. Jenkins visited Hopkinsville the first of the month, and all who met him or heard him preach were deeply impressed by his personality, and the pleasure that is felt at his decision to come here is not confined to the Baptist church, but is general in the community. It is probable that Dr. Jenkins will enter upon his work here early in November.

TERRIBLE TREATMENT.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 27.—A story of the extreme brutality with which he alleged Fred Ketterer, a patient, was treated at the Eastern Kentucky Asylum, prior to his death, was related on the witness stand by R. K. Champion, one of the former attendants. He testified that while lying prone on the ground, handcuffed, Ketterer was beaten by two attendants, one with a "blackjack," the other with a club. On another occasion, while in the same helpless position, the patient was beaten by two attendants with clubs, he stated. Champion was indicted with other former attendants, but the bill against him was dismissed by the commonwealth.

Labeling Whisky Wave of Religion Sam Jones' Sayings with Mr. Crenshaw

UNDER THE RULES OF THE PURE FOOD COMMISSION

Question of Intense Interest With Rectifiers and Blenders. Courts May Be Appealed To.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 26.—Intense interest has been aroused in local whisky circles by the views on the rules of the pure food commission, relative to the definition of "like substances," expressed by Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the department of agriculture and a member of the pure food commission.

DR. H. W. WILEY

sion, which promulgated the rules regulating the labeling of whiskies. The opinion of Dr. Wiley, as expressed in a telegram, is as follows:

"The mixing of two whiskies would be a blend, but mixing a whisky with neutral spirits would not be a blended whisky, but might be a blend of distilled spirits, if rye whisky is one of the constituents of a compound or mixture, the mixture cannot be labeled rye whisky."

It is said the effect of the enforcement of the rules in accordance with Dr. Wiley's opinion would mean a hard blow to the rectifying interests, and it is pointed out that, at present prices for whisky, the change in the rules would mean a difference of 36 cents a gallon to the rectifiers.

The rectifiers and blenders maintain that ethyl alcohol, or neutral spirits, is the basis of all whisky and is the pure product, when the poisonous oils contain in new whisky have been eliminated through age or by the process of refining. This view, however, is not held by the straight whisky interests, who argue that when a person buys spirits, it is so stipulated, and when a person buys whisky, it is also so stipulated, and that the spirits, in accordance with the law, should be labeled spirits and whisky, and that in the event of a blend of the two, the words "whisky and spirits" should be printed on the label.

Marion E. Taylor, president of the national association of liquor dealers, does not regard Dr. Wiley's opinion as expressing the views of the commission as says the question of "like substances" will probably be settled by the courts.

Danger From the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are now prevalent, unless you take Dr. Kings New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls, of Forest City, Mo., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents pneumonia, cures la-grippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption, coughs and colds. 50c and $1. Guaranteed by L. L. Elgin, Cook & Higgins and Anderson & Fowler, (Inc.). Trial bottle free."

IS SWEEPING OVER THE CITY OF NASHVILLE.

Revival Meeting Which Is Being Conducted By Dr. Torrey Attracted By Great Success.

Great success is attending the revival meetings held in Nashville by Dr. R. A. Torrey, the around-the-world revivalist, and a big religious wave is sweeping over the entire city. Numbers of people, men and women, have publicly confessed Christ as their Lord and Master after sermons by the evangelist, and the greatest enthusiasm for the work prevails.

Dr. Torrey is the successor of Dr. Dwight L. Moody and is undoubtedly the greatest evangelist in the world. He has absolute faith in God, burning enthusiasm for personal work, great zeal for the truth and depends absolutely on the Holy Spirit for results. He preaches in a quiet, straightforward style and yet keeps the attention of every one in his great congregations enthralled. He is a great orator as well as a great preacher.

Dr. Torrey's meetings began in Nashville on October 14 and will last until November 11. Two regular services are held each day, except Saturday, one at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and one at 8 o'clock at night. In addition to these, prayer meetings have been held at each noon at a down town church. These prayer meetings and also meetings for men, especially business men, will be held each day this week, except Saturday, at the noon hour.

The great auditorium in which the preaching has been held has been crowded at nearly every meeting. The crowds were so great the first night of the meeting that about five hundred persons were unable to get seats at the auditorium and had to turn away, to an overflow meeting. At the meeting Sunday three thousand persons were turned away, all standing room, as well as seats, was occupied. Large numbers attended an overflow meeting. Many business and professional men have left their work to attend the noon prayer-meetings. A number of persons from the neighboring towns have gone to Nashville to hear the great preacher and all are urged to go.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads, whereby persons living within a radius of ninety-nine miles of Nashville, can secure reduced rates. Full fare will be charged to the meeting and one-third fare plus twenty-five cents will be the price of the return ticket. Certificates must be validated at the office of the N. C. & St. L. railroad, Maxwell house corner, on Tuesdays and Saturdays, these reductions can be secured by those living within a radius of one hundred and fifty-five miles of Nashville. These tickets will be good during the entire meeting.

Dr. Torrey is accompanied by Dr. D. B. Townner, world-famous as a musical director. Dr. Townner has a choir of about 1,200 voices under his direction and as many as five hundred or six hundred often sing in a single meeting. Charles Butler, the soloist, and Robert Harkness, the pianist, both famous in their line of work, participate in each of the meetings held by Dr. Torrey. This opportunity now within the reach of all in this section to listen to this great man of God and to hear some of the finest music ever presented to the public of this country, should be accepted by everyone.

Sells Farm.

Polk Candler, agent, has sold the D. E. Foster farm near Edwards Mill to Sam Watts for $3,800.

The soothing spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferer from Catarrh. Some of them describe it as a God-send, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dislodged and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all healing purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to cure. Sold by all druggists for 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 66 Warren street, New York.

CHARACTERISTIC REMARKS BY W. W. LONGMOOR WILL MAKE THE EVANGELIST.

Taken at Random From Some of the Sermons he Has Delivered in Hopkinsville.

Some of the characteristic remarks made by Sam Jones during his revival meetings in Hopkinsville will doubtless be read with interest by hundreds of people and may serve to strengthen the impression made upon the community by the great evangelist.

I despise theology and botany, but I love religion and flowers. Red liquor and Christianity won't stay in the same hide. As one comes in the other goes out.

You don't believe what you don't see. Did you ever see your backbone? Some people believe they have a backbone when it's nothing but a cotton string run up their back.

Sow whiskey, reap drunkards. Fill a town with barrooms, make a generation of drunkards, whose children are drunkards, and thus the world is swept on and down to hell.

It takes grace, grit and greenbacks to run a meeting. God will furnish the grace but we must furnish the grit and greenbacks. I can furnish the grit you the greenbacks. I like a division of labor.

God shows what He thinks of riches by the kind of people He gives them to.

Deathbed repentance is the retreat of a coward and an insult to God. Anything that makes my neighbor's wife's heart bleed, I am going to fight until hell freezes over. Then I'll fight it on the ice.

Any church will do as your temporary home on your way to God. Creed is only the duster we put on over our coats. When we come to the pearly gates of Heaven we take our dusters off.

I tell you what tickles me. To see an old sinner come in and pull out an old lame, dwarf member of the church, and lay him down, and measure by him. "Look, here, boys; I am as long and broad and good as this member of the church!" I would die, if I was a decent man, to lay myself down by the side of such a man. Why don't you go and pick out one of these grand old Christians. You would look like a rattier lying by the side of an elephant.

There are plenty of people that want to go to heaven on their own schedule. They want to drink a little, lie a little and gamble occasionally.

Most people are good because of the police force.

Certain folks raise $50,000 horses and 50 cent children.

If a boy won't learn by moral sensation works on his pride. If the latter fails work on his hide.

I was raised on the prayer and hickory plan.

A cigarette has fire at one end, a fool at the other and hell in the middle.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

COMBINATION IS EFFECTED THAT WILL, IT IS BELIEVED, STRENGTHEN THE CHRISTIAN COUNTY CANDIDATE.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 26.—Woodford W. Longmoor, a well-known young Democrat of this city, has allied himself with the Hon. R. C. Crenshaw, of Christian county, in the race for State Agricultural Commissioner, the nomination for which is to be bestowed in the November primary election. Should Mr. Crenshaw be nominated for commissioner, Mr. Longmoor is to be assistant commissioner and office man for the department.

Mr. Longmoor is a son of the late Woodford W. Longmoor, of Harrison county, a distinguished Confederate soldier and at one time clerk of the Kentucky court of appeals. Mr. Longmoor has made Frankfort his home since the death of his father. He has wide family connection in Harrison and adjoining counties and throughout the counties of the Ninth Congressional district. Mr. Longmoor has held municipal office since coming here to reside and is active in party campaigns.

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 26.—Friends of Gov. Beckham say that in a few days he will call an extra session of the legislature to have laws passed that will enable him to keep the lid on in Louisville.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waycross, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me. For sale by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., (Inc.), 9th and Main, Hopkinsville, Ky."

SLIM CHANCE.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Oct. 26.—There is a chance—a very slim one—that W. R. Fletcher and Guy Lyon, in jail here, and who were sentenced to death for criminal assault on a German girl in Logan county some months ago, will escape the gallows. Their attorneys will file a petition with the court of appeals for a rehearing of the case. If this is denied, they will surely be hanged.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured. "In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., (Inc.), the leading Drug Store 9th and Main, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Will Appear at Holland's Opera House Saturday, November 10.

"Playing the Game," the new comedy which Joseph and William W. Jefferson are using this season and which will be played here at the opera house on Friday night, November 10, tells the story of love and flirtation. It is in fact playing the game of flirtation as an innocent flirtation is the basis of the many complications that ensue and which are said to be excruciatingly funny. All the characters are young, and there is not an old man or woman in the entire play. The Messrs. Jefferson have spared neither time nor expense in the production, and it is said to have built the handsomest of stage pictures, while the supporting company is fully up to the Jefferson standard.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT MEETING IN CADIZ.

Situation is Growing Tense.—"Hill Billies" are Begged to Discard Their "Heresies".

At a called meeting of the Trigg county Dark Tobacco association in Cadiz the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, which are in answer to resolutions passed recently by some of the independent raisers of the county:

Resolved, That we view with great pleasure the steady growth of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association and the success which has met our efforts in selling tobacco the present season; that we believe in and have abundant faith in our leadership and our members everywhere, and while we have by steady and earnest efforts doubled the price of tobacco, we yet believe we can accomplish more and are resolutely pledged to continue the fight against all odds and against all comers and will meet the enemy at every point.

Second, That we denounce in unmeasured terms the insinuations of our misguided fellow farmers, known as "hill billies" that we are lawless, or have lawless intentions; that we know who put these words in their mouths, having heard them before. We lament that there should be one follower of agricultural pursuits in our midst, who would, while sound reason controlled his acts, ally himself to organized robbery and greed, still we accept the issue raised by them and call upon all good citizens to ally themselves with us and join in the good work of freeing the country of such heresies as the trust through the "hill billies" preach.

Third, That we denounce the methods of the trusts in securing the services of the weak and misguided farmers in fighting us, making them believe that we are lawless, and that they will stand by them; and we will never rescind our resolutions to permit loose buyers to come into Trigg.

Resolved, further, That if the Farmers' Independent organization of Trigg county, better known as the "hill billies" will wait until the association sells all of its tobacco this season, that we will then agree to let them sell their tobacco loose. As we have waited twice on them it is nothing but fair that they should wait on us once.

TERRIBLY SHOCKED

A FORMER CHRISTIAN COUNTY BOY ONE OF THE VICTIMS.

Full Current of Electricity Turned on While Three Men Were Splicing Wires.

The many friends of Frank Cunningham will learn with distress of a frightful accident which befell him a few days ago at Nicolaus, California. In company with two other employees of an electric light company he was engaged in splicing "dead wires." Through a mistake at the power house, the full current was turned on, and all three of the men were victims of the shock. Thomas Lee, whose home was in Nicolaus, was killed outright. T. T. Munday, of Philadelphia, was horribly burned and cannot recover from his injuries. Mr. Cunningham's arms and legs were terribly burned. He was removed to a hospital at Sacramento, Cal., when it was found necessary to amputate his left hand. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cunningham, reside at Byron, Cal., and the young man had expected to go there to make his home on the day after the accident occurred. His parents are at his bedside in Sacramento. Frank Cunningham is 21 years of age and a bright and worthy young man. He removed from Christian county to California about five years ago. He is a nephew of Judge W. P. Winfree and James H. Winfree of this city.

The music will be under the charge of Phelps Cowan, of Chicago. Mr. Cowan is an organist of rare accomplishments. The handsome new pipe organ has been placed in the church, and the beautiful memorial window in honor of the beloved Mrs. Virginia Latham has been completed. The church has recently been equipped with electric fixtures. A concrete pavement in front of the property has enhanced its attractiveness. The finishing work is being put on the new parish house which is to be one of the finest and best fitted in the south.

DISCUSSED BY A RESIDENT OF A NORTHERN STATE

Dr. Washington Gladden Addresses American Missionary Association At Oberlin, Ohio.

At the session of the sixtieth annual meeting of the American Missionary association, Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., of Ohio, discussed "The American Missionary Association and the Problems of Emancipation."

Mr. Gladden in part said: "The problem as it confronts us involves the principles on which our nation is founded. It is well stated in the words of Carl Schurz:

"There will be a moment, either in the direction of reducing the negroes to a permanent condition of serfdom—the condition of the mercantile hand alongside the idle, practically without any rights of citizenship—or a movement in the direction of recognizing him as a citizen in the full sense of the term."

"Such a movement as that described in the first alternative is now in full progress. In the South the conditions are rapidly becoming more unfavorable to the negro. The manifestoes of Gov. Vardaman, which some time will be endorsed by the people of the state, and the recent campaign in Georgia in which the candidate who most unequivocally favored the repression of the negro was overwhelmingly elected, show the drift of opinion in that section.

"To keep four millions in slavery who were born and reared in that condition was one thing; to reduce nine millions to serfdom after they have been fifty years free is quite another thing. Senator Tillman's prediction that race struggles of a very bitter nature are likely to be frequent and continuous in the future, is not without probability. I can see no other outcome of a strife of this nature but the segregation of the races. A portion of the southern domain would have to be set apart for the blacks; we should probably have three or four states of which the population would be wholly composed of negroes, governing themselves and represented in the congress at Washington. The blacks would suffer being thrown on their own resources in their poverty; it would take them several generations to work out the problem of civilization. To the whites the prospect in which they are now rejoicing would suffer a severe, perhaps a deadly blow.

"It is idiotic to talk of deporting the negroes to some other country; they are here and here they must stay, and their home will be in the southern portion of the United States."

'POSSUM CLUB MET

AND ENJOYED DINNER, MUSIC AND ORATORY

The Twelfth Annual Gathering Was a Big Success.—Old Officers Were Re-elected.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

'Possum and good fellowship jointly reigned supreme last night at the twelfth annual reunion of the 'Possum club which was held in the banquet hall of the Odd Fellows building.

The 'Possum club is a unique, but none the less interesting organization. Twelve years ago five gentlemen went 'possum hunting and caught a large fat 'possum and had it served with the usual embellishment of sweet potatoes in Harry Lebkuecher's cigar factory. They had so jolly a time over the meal that they organized a club which was to meet once a year afterward. From the beginning of five persons, the club has grown until it now numbers about thirty-five, several new names being added to the list last night. There is no secret work about the club, the members meeting in annual reunion for the pure enjoyment of companionship and for the satisfaction which comes from the eating of a good meal.

Every member is allowed to invite one visitor and last night the long table which reached the entire length of the large banquet hall was filled with those in attendance. While 'possum was the dish of honor, this was by no means all, for the table fairly groaned under the weight of the good things spread before the hungry crowd, everyone of which did full justice to the viands. Lebkuecher's orchestra contributed much to the pleasure of the evening by their music.

Judge A. H. Anderson, president of the club, presided in a most pleasing manner. Everyone present had something to say and at times genuine oratory was uncoined. The old officers of the club, i. e., Judge A. H. Anderson, president; H. L. Lebkuecher, vice president; John Stiles, secretary; R. M. Tunks, official cork puller, were re-elected for the ensuing year.

TODD AND CHRISTIAN SYNODS OF "LOYALISTS" AND "UNIONISTS" SUFFERINGS OVER VICE PRESIDENT'S VISIT TO KENTUCKY.

WERE EVER DEAR IN JEFF DAVIS' MEMORY

Always Interested in The Counties Where His First Days Were Spent.

The Todd County Times says: When the Confederate veterans of this vicinity held their reunion at Fairview, the birthplace of Jefferson Davis, in October, 1903, the editor of The Times was requested by the local camp to extend an invitation to his widow, who died in New York City last week, to be present. This he did, and received the following reply, which he values greatly as it is the handwriting of Mrs. Davis herself:

"Hotel Winslow, New York.

My Dear Mr. Weathers:

When your note of invitation to be present at the reunion of the Jefferson Davis Camp of the I. C. Veterans to be held at Fairview October 3rd arrived, I had left Humberstone Club and gone to Buffalo for a stay of a week, but the day after my arrival there I was seized with what appeared to be a mortal illness, which kept me confined to my bed until the last week when I found your kind invitation among a number of unread letters. I well remember my husband's deep sense of gratification at the erection of the handsome church on the site of his parents' old residence and his pleasure at meeting the descendants of his parents' old friends and neighbors. No new ties are so dear as those of our childhood, and as long as Mr. Davis lived he was vitally interested in all that pertained to Kentucky, and especially in Christian or Todd county. I am quite old and broken in health, but I should have been glad when they were in session to greet the Veterans and regret very much that I could not do so. Believe me with great regard,

Yours truly,
VARIANA JEFFERSON DAVIS.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT SYNOD "A" SESSIONS.

MODERATOR IS ELECTED

The Interesting Features of the Meeting at The First Presbyterian Church.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The capacity of the First Presbyterian church was tested last night by interested friends and spectators in the constitution of the Kentucky Synod "A."

The Rev. W. P. Thurston, of Owensboro, was elected moderator. After Mr. Thurston had acknowledged the honor in a pleasing address, the Rev. Edward L. Warren, D. D., the stated clerk of the synod of Kentucky, announced that he had discovered among the archives of another synod the minutes of the original Cumberland Presbyterian.

These minutes were kept in a crude copy-book. "And now," said Dr. Warren, "as a compliment to our Cumberland brethren and as a contribution to the history of this critical period, they have been published and a copy of this historic document, in the name of the synod of Kentucky I present to the moderator and each member enrolled at this synod."

The Rev. Joseph Cochran, D. D., of Philadelphia, preached the opening sermon from Daniel x: 19. "And beheld a band of heavenly men." It was an eloquent plea for personal work in soul winning.

Much interest was added to the occasion by the presence of the venerable moderator of the general assembly, the Rev. Hunter Corbett, D. D., of Chelsoo, China, who participated in the opening exercises. The synod was constituted with fifty commissioners.

Especially worthy of note in connection with this meeting of synod, was the evangelistic conference of the afternoon, which was permeated with the most deeply spiritual tone. Dr. Calhoun presided at the opening of the conference then turned it over to Dr. Darby, who introduced Dr. Lee of Milwaukee, and Dr. Cochran, of Philadelphia. The spirit of God was clearly manifest, the brethren prayed, sang, gave testimonies and consecrated themselves anew to His service. Many of those present likened it to Pentecost.

The morning session opened with devotional exercises and only the regular routine business was engaged in.

Besides the ladies of the missionary societies many distinguished visitors have graced the occasion by their presence, among those already mentioned are Dr. J. R. Henry, of the Tennessee synod, Dr. B. P. Fullerton of the Missouri synod, Dr. McDonald and Dr. E. L. Warren of Kentucky synod.

There will be a popular meeting this evening at 7:30, on missions, addresses to be made by the Rev. Hunter Corbett, D. D., and the Rev. B. P. Fullerton, D. D. The public is cordially invited to this and all other sessions of synod.

BOB GREEN'S CHICKENS.

That chickens hatched and reared in a cucumber should demand cucumber seed for food seems only natural, and this is the history and trait of a family of bantams belonging to Robert S. Green, of this city.

During the summer, a diminutive bantam hen pecked the meat and seed out of an enormous cucumber in Mr. Green's garden. Completing this operation she built her nest in the strange shelter, and laid twelve eggs from which she hatched nine healthy chicks. Six of these are still living and are perfectly natural in every way except that they positively refuse to eat anything except cucumber seed.

At first the strange appetite of the chickens was easily appeased as cucumbers were plentiful, but now that the supply has about given out, Mr. Green is considerably worried as to how he is going to provide for his pets. He has scoured the city and adjoining section and collected all the cucumber seed he could find for sale, but this was only a comparatively small amount and he is at a loss to know how he will keep them through the winter after the supply on hand gives out.

Extra! 2:45 p. m. Mr. Green reports that the chickens today refuse to drink anything but vinegar.

CUMBERLANDS HAVE MORE DELEGATES THAN EVER BEFORE

LOG CABIN IS UNVEILED

Officers are Chosen and Body Settles Down to Business. Ladies Give a Luncheon

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The Cumberland Presbyterian church was crowded last night with delegates and friends when the meeting of the synod was inaugurated with the annual sermon by the retiring moderator, the Rev. M. M. Smith, of Bowling Green. In addition to the discourse there was an inspiring song service, and at the conclusion of the program the ceremonies of the Log Cabin unveiling were beautifully carried out. Rev. Mr. Smith's sermon was a powerful effort and was heard with the deep attention. The subject was, "Thou art Peter, and upon this Rock I will build my Church."

The Rev. J. L. Hudgins, of Union City, Tenn., moderator of the last general assembly of Cumberland Presbyterians at Decatur, Ill., conducted the unveiling exercises, and this unique feature proved highly interesting. There was placed on the pulpit a miniature representation of the original log cabin in which the Cumberland Presbyterian church was organized in 1810, in Dixon county, Tenn. Dr. Hudgins read appropriate scripture and when the veil was lifted the congregation arose and sang: "The Old Log Cabin, 'Tis Good Enough for Me," to the tune of "The Old Time Religion." The names of the founders of the church, Ewing, King and McAdoo, were used in the familiar verses of the song.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, the organization of the synod was postponed until this morning at 8:30 o'clock when the delegates assembled at the church, and the roll call was proceeded with. The attendance is the largest in the history of the Cumberland synod, 135 delegates being present, and enthusiasm is unequalled.

The election of moderator and stated clerk was held with the following result:

Moderator, Rev. J. T. Barber, of Owensboro, Ky.

Stated clerk, E. B. McEwen, of Sacramento, Ky.

Among the prominent Cumberland Presbyterians who are here to take part in the discussions are Judge J. H. Russell, Columbia, Tenn.; Rev. Dr. Hudgins, of Union City, Tenn.; Rev. Mr. Ashburn, of Evansville, Ind., and Judge Reister, of Evansville, Ind.

The general subjects today are "Our Denominational Heritage," "Our Church History," "Our Denominational Future," "Our Book" and "Our Work." At noon a delicious luncheon was served in the Odd Fellows building by the ladies of the church and this was a greatly enjoyed event. This afternoon business was resumed at 2 o'clock. To-night there will be a sermon and a reconsecration hour.

CRUELTY TO HORSE

CAUSES ARREST OF HARRISON TORIAN, COLORED.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Harrison Torian, colored, was arrested yesterday on a charge of cruelty to animals. It is alleged that while driving a rig obtained from Everts & Courtney, the negro ran into another buggy, the shaft of which entered the breast of the horse and causing its death. The negro was arraigned in county court and released under $100 bond to appear for trial on November 7.

In police court this morning Frank Rives, colored, was fined $6 for throwing stones on the street. He could not pay the fine so was sent to the city workhouse. Policeman Miller made the arrest and he caught Rives in the act of throwing at another negro boy. He called to him and the negro dropped another rock which he had in his hand and ran. Policeman Miller picked it up and presented it at the trial and on account of his large size Judge Brasher fined Rives the limit, $6.

Christian Woman Who Was Beloved By Wide Circle of Friends.

Other Deaths.

(From Monday's Daily)

Mrs. Susan P. Price, wife of E. H. Price, died this morning at 8:30 o'clock at her residence on Liberty street. The immediate cause of her death was inflammation of the stomach and bowels. She had been ill for months and was confined to her bed about six weeks.

Mrs. Price was Susan J. Phaup, a daughter of Ben Phaup. She was born at Providence, Tennessee, February 20, 1846—hence was sixty years of age. She was married April 25, 1867 to E. H. Price. She leaves besides her husband five daughters—Mrs. Lillie Belle Smith and Mrs. Mrs. Emma Lee Longwell, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Randle, Mrs. Hayward Richards and Miss Addie May Price, of Hopkinsville, a brother, James Phaup and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Howard, both of Island, Ky., and another sister, Mrs. Andrew Hall, of Atlanta. As a girl Mrs. Price was a Baptist, but joined the Christian church with her husband, of which church she had since been a consistent member. Her life as a wife and mother was beautiful for her devotion to husband and children was unsurpassed. Her existence was one of self-sacrifice, and she was completely resigned to death except in so far as it meant her separation from her loved ones. The funeral service of Mrs. E. H. Price will take place tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at her late residence on Liberty street.

Rev. B. F. Hyde has resigned as pastor of Barren Spring church. The church as well as the surrounding country receive the news with a feeling of deep sorrow and regret. Bro. Hyde is well known here as being one of the most able divines the country affords. Having been pastor here for many years, he has greatly endeared himself to this people and made many true and lasting friends whose words cannot express the love and high esteem in which he is held. He has done untold good in the upbuilding of the church and the salvation of souls, his labors being crowned with much success, but we know our loss is another's gain.

Rev. Mr. Powell will preach at the Christian church here next Sunday.

MR. FAIRBANKS MADE FIVE SPEECHES IN AS MANY TOWNS AND WOUND UP HIS TRIP IN BOWLING GREEN.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Oct. 30.—Vice President Fairbanks ended a brief campaigning trip in Kentucky at Bowling Green last night, when he addressed a crowd that tested the capacity of the opera house.

The vice president left Louisville 8 o'clock yesterday morning, making a brief stop at Elizabethtown, where he addressed several hundred people from the rear end of his car. Similar stops were made at Munfordsville and Horse Cave, the party arriving at Glasgow at noon. In Glasgow about 8,000 people welcomed the speaker, necessitating an open-air meeting, followed by an informal reception at which the vice president shook the hands of a great throng. The trip was ended at Bowling Green last night, and this morning Mr. Fairbanks returns to Indianapolis by way of Louisville.

In his speeches Mr. Fairbanks dwelt chiefly on the prosperity of the country as compared with conditions during the last Cleveland administration. He also gave consid-

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS. Considerable time to championing the record of the Republicans made during the late session of congress.

ESPECIALLY QUALIFIED

is R. C. Crenshaw for Commissioner of Agriculture.

Especially fitted by reason of being assistant in the office of the commissioner of agriculture for the past four years, R. C. Crenshaw enters the race for that office before the Democratic primary on November 6, and his friends claim that he has the race already won, says the Mayfield Messenger. Mr. Crenshaw has made an active canvass of the state and has received only the most encouraging reports from every county in which he has assisted Hubert Vreeland in holding farmers' institutes.

Beginning life on a farm and learning there the rudiments of farming, Mr. Crenshaw has the basis of a practical knowledge of farming which, added to the study he has made for the past few years, gives him a proper understanding of how the office of commissioner of agriculture should be filled so as to get the best results for the farmers of the state. Mr. Crenshaw has been studying soil and crops for four years and has acquired information which is invaluable not to him but to the farmers of the state.

STANLEY AND GAINES SPEAK AT PEMBROKE

HEARD AT OPERA HOUSE BY LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD.—SPECIAL ATTENTION PAID TO TOBACCO TRUST FIGHT.

M'CREARY ONLY MAN IN SENATE TO RAISE VOICE FOR FARMERS

PEMBROKE, KY., Oct. 31.—Hon. A. O. Stanley, Democratic nominee for congress, spoke at the opera house here last night to a large and enthusiastic audience.

His speech was in the interest of his own race and also of advancing the Planters Protective association, for which he has rendered such valiant service. His speech was most forcible and convincing, both in his presentation of the political issues and the arguments advanced for the farmers' association.

Hon. John Wesley Gaines, of the Hermitage district of Tennessee, was also present and made a short address after Mr. Stanley's speech had been concluded. Mr. Gaines has been shoulder to shoulder with the Kentucky congressmen in the fight against the tobacco trust, and he spoke eloquent words of cheer last night.

During his remarks, Mr. Gaines called attention to the fact that Senator James B. McCreary was the only man in the senate who had dared to open his mouth against the tobacco trust and that when he rose to the floor to address the senate in defense of the farmers, Vice-President Fairbanks had ruled him out of order.

Calmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Calmage, D. D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 28.—In this sermon a preacher shows the folly of trusting in a carnal nature of material things as a means of happiness. The text is Proverbs xxviii. 1. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth."

One of the most impressive pictures I have ever seen was one entitled "The Journey of Life." It depicted a row-boat being pulled out to sea by the hands of a large family with their household goods were in the boat. In the stern were the gray-haired grandfather, and grandmother. Like the great picture of Napoleon leaving France, those two old folks were earnestly scanning the receding shore. Their lives were nearly ended, and their thoughts were in the past. They were living entirely in the sweet memories of the days that were gone. At the foot of the old folks their grandchildren were playing with their toys. Like two little kittens, they did not seem to care what was happening. Their thought world had not yet been entered. Just beyond two young lovers were blighting their youth. They were walking for a little while in the clouds. They were sitting for a short time the sweet nectar from the flowers which bloom only for a day during the mating of the birds. But at the prow of the boat stood the strong man of the world, with his wife by his side. His eye had eagle glance. His brow rested on his hand. He seemed to be looking into the dim future, at his home which was yet to be built in a foreign land, at the visionary fields which were yet to be tilled and at the fortune which he was yet to make. The picture was suggestive to my mind of that momentous journey which we call the voyage of life.

Not all of us reach the stage typified by the grandparents. Some come to the end of the journey in the period of childhood, some in youth, some in mature life. It is very uncertain, but it is well in our early years to plan carefully for the future instead of spending the time in idle dreaming or in pleasure. The foundations of our career are laid earlier than some of us imagine, and whether that career be long or short, those foundations should be laid well.

These plans are very different from the presumptuous boasting condemned in my text. Here King Solomon describes the lazy man, the indolent man, the procrastinating man, the man who is giving free license to his evil passions, the man who is blinding his eyes to all the magnificent opportunities of the glorious present as he says to himself: "I know I am not doing as I ought to do. But what is the difference? Rome was not built in a day. A life is not spanned by the short bridge of twenty-four hours. This day I will eat and drink and be merry, and tomorrow I will do as I ought to do." "Ah," says the great king, "today is thine. This coming twilight may be thy last eventide. Perhaps the moon which will arise tonight will shine through the open window and touch thine ashen cheek as the attendants are preparing thy body for the burial. Tomorrow may come to thy neighbor, but this day may usher in for thee an endless and unchanging eternity." Let me read for you again the sentence, "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth."

A Timely Warning.

These words are a timely warning to those who are slowly, yet surely, allowing the fatal coils of an evil habit to intertwine about them—timely because these poor deluded victims seem to be going to their destruction with wide open eyes, as an ox to the slaughter. But somehow they feel that, no matter how deep their feet may be sinking into the quicksands or how thick the slimy seaweeds may be wrapping themselves about the swimmer's body, yet they can come safe to land and break loose from their evil habits whenever they will. Now, my friend, I would tell you that an evil habit instead of growing weaker with age grows stronger. If an evil habit has you in a tight clutch today, it will have you in a tighter vise tomorrow. It is folly for a man to say, "I will break away from this evil habit tomorrow." If you cannot break away from that evil habit today you cannot tomorrow. If you are not willing to break away from an evil habit today, in all probability you will be weaker still tomorrow. The law of the increasing moral weakness of the wrongdoer and the increasing strength of an evil habit is irrefragable.

Habits Like Quicksands.

A man becomes more and more helpless in the grip of an evil habit, just as in the clutch of the quicksand. I am glad I used that illustration. It is one that you will feel if you have ever been caught in those treacherous depths. I remember some time ago when driving through the western country we came to a rather wide creek. I was about to drive through it when the gentleman with whom I was riding said, "Wait; let me test it." He took off his shoes and stockings and started for the other side. "Come on," he cried. "It is shallow all through." I shook the reins as a signal to the horse, and he started. He went only a few steps and then stopped, frightened. No sooner did he stop than the wheels of the wagon began to sink. "Come on! Come on!" cried my companion. "The quicksands are catching you. Come on!" But when I could not, in a minute or two the wheels had sunk a third of the way to the hubs. The horse could not pull the load. It was no time for argument. We leaped out of the wagon and plunged into the water, clothes and all. Then every hand took hold of a wheel and began to lift and push, and thus that saved the wagon and the horse. "Ah," I said to myself as I came dripping out of the water, "how like the destructive influence of the quicksands are evil habits! When we first drive up to them they look so harmless and innocent, but no sooner do we enter those evil habits to grasp us than they sweep up to the ankles, then to the knees, then to the hip and then to the neck. Then the more we struggle the deeper we will sink and the more helpless we will become."

My friend, what right have you to say that the evil habit which is working such dangerous havoc in your life may will be more easy to eradicate tomorrow? If it is difficult to chain a little cub as he snarls in your hand and claws and scratches and tears your clothing, how much more difficult will it be to tame and cage the Bengal tiger after he has gained his strength and his claws have grown as sharp as rapier and his jaws have the vigor of a steel trap? If the Alpine climber is so hampered by the cold that his eyes become heavy with sleep, will that cold cease to continue its deadly work when he lies down to slumber and the whistling winds cover his shivering flesh with a soft quilt of snow? I see now these travelers lost upon the western prairie. A biting blizzard is cutting through their clothing like a knife. One of these travelers, physically weaker than his companions, becomes exhausted. Drowsily he falls to the ground and goes to sleep. His two friends jerk him up and begin to pound him and to rub the cold snow upon the frozen flesh. "Oh," he says, "let me sleep! Let me sleep just a little while, and then I will go with you." "No," they say, "you must not sleep. If you do it will be the sleep of death. Every minute this cold will be tamping you more and more. You must walk. You must throw off this lethargy or you will die." Thus these two friends drag him round and round all night until morning breaks and safely is theirs. In this benumbing way our evil habits affect us. We say, "Tomorrow we will change. Now, just one more glass, one more carousal." But each intoxicating cup, each debauch, each yielding to sin, renders us more and more helpless to fight sin. My brother, if you do not conquer your evil habits today you will not conquer them tomorrow. If you cannot put out a spark today you cannot quench the great conflagration. If you do not stop on the smoldering fuse you cannot snuff out a gunpowder magazine after the explosive has reached it. Now is the time for you to get your emancipation from that destroying, debasing, evil habit—now, now, now! Oh, the importance of that infinite word, now!

But this gospel motto gives a scathing rebuke to the visionary seeker after happiness as well as to those who drowsily muller to their sins and evil habits. "Oh, let me rest upon my bed of sin a little while longer, and then I shall bestir myself and do what I ought to do." It bitterly denounces those fault finders who always reprove at the moment and have their eyes focused upon the dubious blessings of the future. Yet some people never see a beautiful sailboat unless it is sailing on the edge of a distant horizon, nor a happy home unless it belongs to a neighbor, nor smell a sweet perfume unless it is wafted to them from the visionary gardens which shall bloom five or ten years hence.

The journey of life might be compared to a summer camping trip. There is an old proverb which says, "You never know people aright unless you eat with them at the morning breakfast table." But I tell you that the breakfast table may prove deceptive in reference to your acquaintance's true characteristics, but a camping trip—never. There the true nature of a man or a woman can be read by all as an open book. Now, on an average camping trip some people are like bees—they can find honey wherever they may fly. They are like song birds—they can sing, no matter where you place them. They are like sunbeams—they will sparkle and dance, no matter whether they are up in the mountains or down in the valleys. Every thing they eat is the most appetizing of all foods. Every person they meet is a kind person. No travelers pass them upon the road but they stop to chat and joke with them. Their beds of pine needles are the softest. The water that leaps out of the brooks is the purest. The sunsets and the sunrises are the most glorious. They laugh and play and make merry every day of their lives. And during all of their next winter's work they never tire of telling the pleasant incidents of the past summer's trip.

The Chronic Grumbler.

But, though all the members of your camping party pass over the same roads and meet the same difficulties, there is nearly always one member who does nothing but grumble. Like an owl who never sees well unless the darkness envelops him, this fault finder sees nothing but midnight. He is always droning a dirge. He grumbles at the heat and grumbles at the cold. He grumbles about the ants that get into his food box, and grumbles about the flies, and grumbles about the people he meets, and grumbles about the long journey, and grumbles about everything. If he is up in the mountains, then he wants to be down in the valleys. If he is down by the seashore, then he cannot sleep because the waves keeping up such an everlasting moaning. "I say to him and say, 'Now, so-and-so, do you ever expect to be happy in life?' He will answer, 'Oh, yes, I expect to be happy when I get out of this present trouble.' But you surely would not expect me to be happy until all my present annoyances." Now, mark you, my friend, these people of a camping party breathe exactly the same air, drink the same water, meet the same people, camp under the same trees, and yet four of them will find nothing but troubles. Such is the greater journey called life. These grays are the sure finders on the journey. There are grumblers there too.

Now, my fault finding friend, if you are today filled with troubles you will also find the burdens of tomorrow waiting for you when you awake in your bed. The joys and the happiness of life are not to be decided by what a man has, but by the condition of his own heart. If you do not learn to be happy today and if you persistently postpone your happiness you will be miserable as long as you live, and there is no exception to the rule. If you are not happy in a humble home you will never be happy in a palace. If you are not happy as a clerk you will not be happy as an employer. If you are not happy as a young girl you will not be happy as a woman. This living in the joys of the future is all nonsense. It is the will-o'-the-wisp leading the deluded followers, not into the "gardens of the gods," but into the quagmires and the swamps, where every step you take will make you sink deeper and deeper into the mud of the "slough of despond."

The Warrant of Gratitude.

When a man foolishly allows himself to brood over his troubles the mists of unhappiness will only be fog him the deeper. "Supposing some cold morning," said Henry Ward Beecher, "you should go into a neighbor's house and find him busy at work, scratching away at his window panes, and should say, 'What he was doing and he should say, 'Why, I am trying to remove the frost, but as fast as I get it off one square it comes on another,' what would you say? Why, you would say, 'Man, let your window pane alone and kindle your fires, and the frost will soon come off.' Aye, that was well said by the Plymouth pulpit sage, for everywhere we find the windows covered with the frosts that keep out the vision of God's blessing. There is one man scrapping at this trouble and another scrapping at that. 'Ah,' they keep saying, 'how happy I shall be when this misfortune is gone!' My friends, the future will leave a still heavier frost upon your window panes unless your heart is changed. What you need is to kindle the fires of gratitude in your own life. Thank God for what he has done for you. Then, instead of looking only at your misfortunes, your blinded eyes will be opened, and you will find a whole horizon ablaze and fragrant with blessings. Cease to talk about what God may do for you in the years to come. Get down on your knees and thank your Lord and Saviour for what he has already done and is doing for you today.

But this gospel motto is also a brake. It would put the conservative hand upon the shoulder of the optimist and say, "Brother, be a little careful about trusting too much to your future. Do not rate your assets too high. All your future days may not be flooded with sunshine." It is always well for a ship to be ballasted before it sets sail from harbor. And yet some men, because they have made a success in the past, think success will always be theirs. Therefore they live up to the last cent of their income and have their properties mortgaged up to the hilt and buy their stocks upon a margin, and when the wheel of fortune turns a little the superstructure goes down with a crash. Now, my brother, in order to have a happy future you must be like Joseph, the prime minister of Egypt. In your seven years of prosperity you must prepare for your seven years of want. Though bright days will come and though days of adversity will also surely be yours.

Business Risks.

This fact is well illustrated by the life insurance business. Some years ago I was talking with one of the leading insurance superintendents of Chicago. He said: "I suppose you think that my chief object is to get people to carry all the insurance possible. That is a great mistake some agents make. I always say to my agents: 'Men, do not persuade your people to take any more insurance than they can carry. A man should always be able to make his payments easily. If you persuade a man to pay too large a premium within a few years sickness and trouble may come to his home. The man may be thrown out of his work temporarily. Then he drops his insurance, and he will never take it up again. That action not only hurts the man, but also the life insurance business.' And yet in many ways there are thousands of men making the same mistake as does the man who overinsures. These men bank too much upon the prosperity of the future. Therefore they lose their all when these prosperities fail.

I never think of a man's future but as a kaleidoscope. You remember when a little boy you once brought you one for a Christmas present. You went to the window and lifted the little apparatus to your eye and looked through it. All the brightly colored pieces of glass at the other end formed themselves into most fantastic shapes. You studied them long and carefully. "Beautiful, beautiful!" you said. "Why, I see rainbows and towers and meadows and farmhouses." Then your sister said, "Charley, turn it." You turned the kaleidoscope, and all the glasses jangled. Then you looked again and said, "Why, sister, all the pictures are different. Look and see! How did that happen?" Then you turned it again, and there we had a combination of colors. Wonderful are the changes of a kaleidoscope, yet not more strange than will be the changes in your future. The fact that you have a $5,000 income this year does not prove you will have even a thousand dollars next. Because you are in good health now do not think that your lungs will be stout next week. The fact that you are riding upon the wave of prosperity today does not prove that the flood tide will not ebb away. Do not bank too much upon the temporal successes of the future. Do not count too surely on a long earthly life. Because you are living in a palace on "Easy street" do not spend your time planning what you will do in your gardens for next summer. Your future is all surrounded by fogs and mists. Within twenty-four hours your whole life may be changed. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth."

Now is the Time to Decide.

If it is necessary to be careful with our earthly opportunities, how much more is it essential for us to be careful of our heavenly opportunities! I warrant that there is not among us all one so intent to ultimately refuse the offer of eternal salvation. But this is such a busy world, it is filled with such busy people. The engagements of life press themselves upon us with such overwhelming numbers that we are apt to postpone the greatest of all questions—the eternal destiny of our immortal souls. We intend to take the matter up tomorrow or the day after tomorrow, but somehow that tomorrow never comes. Now, my brother, I want to drive this question home: Will you here and now make up your mind what you will do with Jesus—will you make up your mind today? Remember, tomorrow may be too late, for then the time may have come when Jesus will have decided what he will do with you. Do not realize that I may be the last gospel messenger who shall ever be able to present to you the pleadings of Christ for your salvation? Your life may go just as quickly as did old Dr. Howard's of Pittsburgh. He seemed to be in perfect health. He was writing a sermon. He rose from his study desk and stepped into the next room. Before the ink was dry upon the paper his spirit had taken flight. Time is fleeting. The decision has been made. But, whatever that decision is, remember it is a decision for this day and not for tomorrow's sun. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." O God, may this day be the day of decision to many souls!

ECZEMA SKIN RAW AND FEVERISH-ITCHING INTENSE

Eczeema is a tormenting, stubborn disease caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing redness, inflammation and almost intolerable itching. An inactive state of the system and sluggish condition of the eliminative members leaves the waste and refuse matter of the body to collect and sour instead of passing them off through nature's channels of bodily waste. The blood in its efforts to purge the system of all foreign matter absorbs this acid and throws it off through the pores and glands of the skin. The acid humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire, the straw colored, sticky fluid drying and forming crusts, and the itching is intense. When these pustules are scratched off the skin is left raw and feverish and often a solid sore is formed and kept up by the constant escape of acids from the blood. Local applications of salves, powders, lotions etc. are desirable and should be used because they allay the itching and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative, because they cannot reach the seat of the trouble, which is in the blood. S. S. S. goes down into the blood, cleanses the circulation of all acids and humors, builds up the thin, sour blood and by removing every vestige of the cause cures Eczeema permanently. The irritating eruptions disappear, the itching and burning cease, and the acid-fired skin, being fed by a fresh, cooling stream of blood, becomes soft and smooth again. S. S. S. is made of healing, purifying roots, herbs and barks that will not damage any part of the system. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free.

RAISULI, BANDIT CHIEF

Undertakes to Restore Order in His District of Morocco.

TANGIER, Morocco, Oct. 27.—Raisuli, the bandit chief, replied to the message from Mohammed El Torres, the representative of the Sultan, asking him to restore order in the district of Arzila, saying that he had charged his brother with the task of restoring order there. Mohammed El Torres, in reply to the representations of the members of the Diplomatic Corps, continues making promises but does nothing. A Spanish man-of-war has arrived here and has been placed at the disposal of the Spanish Minister.

Serious news was received during the day from Morocco City. The French postal couriers are being systematically robbed while on their way between the Moroccan capital and this port, and the foreigners in Morocco City have written to the French Legation stating that the French mails are no longer safe.

SCORES OF LIVES LOST IN THE SEA

WERE HURLED FROM BRIDGE NEAR ATLANTIC CITY.

IMPRISONED IN CARS

Passengers Had Time to Realize They Were Being Plunged to An Awful Doom.

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 29.—(3 p. m.)—It is now known that not less than sixty-six lives were lost in Sunday's disaster. Fifty-one bodies have been recovered.

The cars of the electric train of West Jersey & Seashore railroad lines, due here at 2:30 o'clock, jumped the track on the trestle bridge over the "Thoroughfare," an arm of the sea, which separates Atlantic City from the mainland, and before any one could get out they were hurled to a watery grave.

The trestle is about fifteen feet above the water, and the drop to the water required several seconds, giving time for the passengers, men, women and children, to see and calculate their fate.

The entire city was thrown into a state of great excitement when the news reached town. Fully 5,000 people crowded the meadows and the trestle, many relatives and friends crying out in despair, asking for loved ones. Chief of Police Maxwell had a cordon of police strung around the death circle and Chief Black, of the fire department, called out his men on an emergency call, and made them police temporarily.

The accident was due to a rail "turning in." It appears that the rail, which was an outside one on the right hand side coming down, must have been out of plumb about an eighth of an inch. The sharp flange of the electric train caught this and twisted it inwards. Had it spread, instead of twisting inwards, the accident would never have happened. This twist threw the first car off the track and into the water, dragging the second and third cars with it.

While the third car was descending the rear portion struck a piece of the abutment, hung for a short time and then slid into the water. But this brief stop saved several lives. A number of men and a few women leaped out of windows and the rear door, either into the water or caught bold of a post and were rescued.

It was stated that fully eighty to 100 passengers were aboard, mostly all crowded into the first and second cars. Among the passengers were twenty men of the Royal Artillery band, who were on their way here from Philadelphia.

Dasha Breckenridge, editor of the Lexington Herald, denounces Lawrence Jones, of Louisville, as "a coward and a cad." At The Seal back in Louisville the journalist and the distiller had an argument concerning statements about Jones recently published in the Herald. Jones struck Breckenridge in the face. The latter says he was not expecting the assault and that Jones was "showing off" before some friends who had approached and who prevented further trouble.

At a joint meeting of the State Grange and Farmers' Institute at Lexington, a resolution was offered and unanimously adopted recommending that the practice of the United States congress of furnishing free seeds of all kinds to farmers throughout the United States be discontinued.

Andrew Carnegie, accompanied by his wife and daughter, returned from Europe Sunday on the steamer Celtic and had something to say regarding reformed spelling. Efforts were being put forth, he said, to have the English and American branches of the Reform Spelling Association meet in conference. It was expected that Canada and Australia also would send delegates to such a conference. In his opinion spelling reform was bound to come. He declared that President Roosevelt had done more to accomplish the reform than all the philologists together had done in twenty years.

By virtue of the rules laid down by the party authorities for holding the state primary, Democrats who wish to vote in the primary are required to first vote for congressman. Voters do not have to state how they voted, but as a requirement to participate in the primary they must vote for congressman, and presumably for the Democratic nominee. This rule will obtain all over the state.

Saturday Theodore Roosevelt, celebrated his forty-eighth birthday anniversary and from all corners of the country congratulations were showered on him. A family dinner was one of the features of the day.

Wm. J. Bryan passed the day Sunday in Chicago on his way to Lincoln, Neb., from his eastern tour. He expressed satisfaction over the result of his campaign.

"I am satisfied," he said, "that both government and municipal ownership are but a few years off, and that this issue will be felt in this campaign, and that it will be the dominant one in 1908."

It is learned that before adjourning at New Orleans last week, the supreme lodge of Knights of Pythias determined to fight through the courts the organization recently formed by negroes in the state of Georgia calling themselves the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of North America, South America and Australia.

The peddling of examination questions will cease, Prof. E. A. Gullion says, if the people elect him superintendent of public instruction. Being a printer, as well as a school man, he says he will put a printing press in the back room of his office and get out the questions with such care that it will be impossible for any one to steal them. The traffic in examination questions has for years been a burning shame, a scandal. Mr. Gullion proposes to stop it.

HAD MANIA FOR TAKING MEDICINE

OVERDOSE OF "BITTER TONIC" CAUSED HIS DEATH.

TOM KENNEDY A VICTIM.

For Years Doctors Had Humored Him By Administering Spoonful of Water Before Meals.

Tom Kennedy, a patient at the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, died Friday from the effects of a large quantity of Bitter Tonic, containing iron, quinine and strychnine, which he swallowed.

Kennedy was a trusty and his mania was for taking medicine. He was constantly begging for it and it was the custom at the asylum to give him a tablespoonful of water at frequent intervals. He would take this under the hallucination that it was medicine and would make terrible grimaces when he would swallow it and remark on how bitter it was to the taste.

Friday he entered one of the negro wards and walking back to the medicine chest he secured a bottle of Bitter Tonic from which he drank copiously, his action being witnessed only by a negro patient. Returning to his ward it was noticed that he was acting strangely but first said that a patient had hit him on the head. Finally he admitted that he had taken the tonic and then the stomach pump was used and everything possible done to save him but it was too late. Almost his last words were, "If God will forgive me for taking that medicine, I will never take another dose in my life."

Kennedy was from Todd county and had spent the better part of the last ten or twelve years in the asylum, he having been discharged and returned two or three times. He was fifty-five years of age and was regarded as being so trustworthy that he was often detailed upon special errands by the officials. His death is generally regretted at the institution.

Magistrate John Morris held an inquest over the body and the verdict of the jury exonerated the asylum officials from all blame in the matter.

JEALOUS HUSBAND

TAKES SHOT AT MAN IN TRIGG COUNTY.

Ernest Oliver was shot but not seriously wounded by Barnes Pollard, near Cadiz. Barnes' wife had been living at the home of John Wash, and Oliver, who is a young man, is alleged to have become infatuated with her.

He was met on the road by Pollard and warned to quit paying her any attention. Oliver denied the charge, whereupon Pollard is said to have jumped from a wagon and pulled a 38-calibre revolver and fired the bullet taking effect in Oliver's back. After the shooting Pollard skipped out and has not been heard from since.

A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs, and the only one, every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address (on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.). It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. The "Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has THE RADIX or MOTHER OF ALL CURE WRAPPERS, in a full list of its ingredients. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, invigorate the liver and regulate stomach and bowels.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 51 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Smoke Stacks

"Good morning, Sir, with your hundred factories."

"We have not a hundred factories, but if we had half as many more as we now have and two factories and a half, we would have a hundred. How many factories have we?"

While you are puzzling this out the writer will proceed to say something that is very anxious to be said. He chanced a few days ago to be coming into Hopkinsville by way of the Clarksville pike, and miles before he reached the city limits he saw from a slight eminence what appeared to be the brick walls of large buildings pertaining to a big modern city. It was a hazy, dreamy October afternoon, and he was honestly in doubt for a minute whether he saw what he saw, or dreamed what he dreamed. A nearer approach convinced him he was never more wide awake, himself nor beheld a scene that was more so. The Cl-max Milling company were pounding away at a great rate on their big modern mill plant. The American Snuff Co.'s gigantic buildings were all but complete and Forbes Manfg. Co.'s immense wagon plant, with its army of brick masons, looked busy as an ant heap. It required but a slight stretch of the imagination to see all the intervening space between Factory Town and the business center of the city, filled in solidly with up-to-date manufacturing plants. Indeed, only a very short time will elapse before there will be no imagination about it. This vigorous offshoot of Greater Hopkinsville, is located on the Illinois Central belt line, the greatest factor in our city's development, and maybe this little stretch of industrial track hasn't been busy lately! During short time since its completion (a matter of, say, six weeks) there have been unloaded on its track some 75 or 100 cars, and that, too before either of these great plants has raised steam. When they are all running full blast the Cl-max making 250,000 barrels of flour, the American Snuff Co., turning out 8,000 or 10,000 hogheads of tobacco, and the Forbes Manfg. Co. shipping 12,000 complete wagons every twelve months, this little belt line will be handling approximately 3,000 cars per annum, or 10 cars per day. The I. C. R. E. Co. seems to be having a picnic in Hopkinsville already. These three factories are a mere beginning. The Forbes Co. will establish a big saw mill plant and a spoke and hub factory. Stacks of others are figuring on locating on this same belt line.

Speaking of stacks, brings us back to our subject. What is a smoke stack? It is a big index finger pointing to a city's prosperity. They point straight—they don't wobble. They are a dead sure indication. They may be dirty fingers but they reach out and bring us clean cheeks. By the way, the new theater will have a smoke stack. Will make its own light, be heated by steam heat run by general popularity. What is the matter with Hopkinsville? Nothing, but isn't she a daisy?

There is one cry going up, but it is a healthy cry. It is impossible to find a vacant residence in the city. This means an apartment house. Faith, and we will have that, too. Our city has a bright future. Has only one cloud that obscures its brilliant sky. That is far bigger than a man's hand and will get bigger faster. It is the cloud of smoke pouring out of our smoke stacks that will rain plenty and prosperity on Greater Hopkinsville.

FOR EQUAL RIGHTS

KENTUCKY STATE GRANGE ADOPTS A RESOLUTION.

Barbecue and Address By Gov. Bell Were Features of Closing Day.

—The Election.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 26.—The closing day of the joint session of the state grange and the Kentucky farmers' institute was attended by the largest crowd of the week. The visiting delegates were treated to an old-fashioned Kentucky barbecue and burgoon at Woodland park at noon. The feature of the program was the speech of former Gov. Bell, of Vermont, who came into national prominence several months ago because of his refusal to extend executive clemency to Mrs. Mary Rogers who was hanged for the murder of her husband. Gov. Bell is a forceful speaker and his remarks were applauded by the farmers.

The degree of Flora was conferred upon a large class of candidates by the state grange. This was followed by the final and closing work of the business session. During this session Lecturer W. H. Clayton introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Man and woman stand equal before the law of our land, yet woman has no voice in making the laws of Kentucky; therefore be it

Resolved, By the Kentucky State Grange at Lexington assembled this 25th day of October, 1905, that we reaffirm the position we have heretofore taken, that man and woman should have equal political privileges.

Upon a formal ballot, Mrs. Mabel G. Sayre, of Boone county, was elected secretary of the grange.

The Rev. R. L. Conrad, of Grant county, was elected a member of the executive committee for a further term of five years.

All the other officers of the Grange held over for another year, as their terms are for two years and were elected one year ago.

Chat About People and Things

(From Friday's Daily)

ENNIS.—The many friends of Tom Ennis will be delighted to learn that he is continuing to improve and will shortly be able to leave the hospital at Americus, Ga., where he has been under surgical treatment for double fracture of his leg.

ANDERSON.—Buck Anderson, who is in Chicago, is purchasing the equipment for a large penny arcade. Mr. Anderson will probably conduct the enterprise in this city during the winter months and at Tate's Springs in the summer.

HANBERRY.—Max M. Hanberry and family passed through the city Wednesday enroute to Nashville, Tenn., where they will reside. Mr. Hanberry has sold his home in Cadiz where he lived twelve years. He will practice law in Nashville.

EWING.—A dispatch from Cedar Hill published by the Nashville American says: "Information has been received at Glenhaven, the home of F. G. Ewing, which is supposed to be authentic, that Mr. Ewing has disposed of all Virginia 1905 tobacco controlled by the Planter's Protective association, through G. Ruessens, of New York. This is another magnificent success for the association. Mr. Ewing has been ill at Tate Springs and no one knew that such a sale was the remotest possibility. If any one had an idea that Mr. Ewing ever slept when the interest of this association is concerned this dispels it."

ANDERSON.—Dr. Maury Anderson, formerly of Virginia, but who has been located at Empire, Christian county, for the past four years, has located in Cadiz to practice medicine, says the Cadiz Record. Dr. Anderson is a young man, unmarried and comes highly recommended as a physician and a gentleman.

ABBITT.—The Rev. George C. Abbit, rector of Grace church, will preach Sunday morning at the Southern Presbyterian church in Madisonville.

MARRIED.—Dr. Albert Smith Dabney and bride arrived in the city last night. They occupied the handsome bridal chamber at Hotel Latham and left this morning for their home at Golden Pond, Dr. Dabney is a prominent Trigg county physician and was married yesterday afternoon to Mrs. Nannie Baxter Overton at the residence of her father, Judge Edward Baxter, in Nashville, Tenn. The members of the family were present, but no other guests. Dr. W. M. Anderson performed the ceremony. The bride wore a pale blue silk Princess gown appliqued in lace, with a pale blue picture hat trimmed with white plumes. She carried American beauties. Her traveling was a gray tailored cloth, with a small hat to match.

BOYD.—Miss E. Boyd, who has been connected with L. L. Elgin's drug store for seven years, has resigned his position to accept a similar one with Lockett & Company in Clarksville, Tenn. Mr. Boyd will probably remain at Elgin's until some time next month. He is a gentleman of sterling worth and wide popularity and his removal from Hopkinsville will be greatly regretted. Mr. Boyd is a skillful chemist and an experienced and careful prescriber. The Clarksville firm is to be congratulated on securing his excellent services.

POLITICIAN.—The serpent, according to the New York Sun, was the original politician, because he didn't keep his campaign promise to Eve. See Gen. iii. 4.

JEFFERSON.—The dramatic instinct seems to have been very pronounced in the Jefferson family as exemplified by the late Joseph Jefferson, and also by his sons, Joseph and William W., who have been seen for the last five seasons in Sheridan's classical comedy, "The Rivals." To the credit of the younger Jeffersons it has been proven that they are animated by the same spirit that had actuated their late father throughout his career, and that they are now pronounced worthy successors to the heritage he has left them. For the present season the Jeffersons have departed from the old English comedy and announce a new up-to-date comedy for their appearance here at Hollan Opera House on November 10 entitled "Playing the Game." This is said to be a much more pretentious production than any heretofore attempted by the Jefferson family.

HAS MIDAS' TOUCH

MRS. ALICE RICE HAS BECOME A MINER.

Her Land Across the River From Crittenden County is Rich in Minerals.

Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, of Louisville, author of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch", is as successful as a business woman as she is as a novelist.

The announcement not long ago that a new bank, largely financed with the royalties from her books, would be started in Louisville is followed by the information of a large mining deal she has made. Mrs. Rice and some of her relatives own land in Hardin county, Ill., on the Ohio river, opposite Crittenden county, Ky. It was supposed to be worth from $5 to $10 an acre.

The rich mineral discoveries in Crittenden county led the owners of the lands across the river to install a mining plant, the mill having a capacity of one hundred tons a day.

Large quantities of fluor spar, with a big percentage of lead and a trace of silver, are being mined and the body ore is declared by experts to be the largest that they ever saw.

A part of the holdings of Mrs. Rice and the original owners were sold recently for $150,000 but they still retain a controlling interest in the property.

They have filed articles incorporating the Cave-in-Rock Mining and Milling Co., with a capital stock of a half-million dollars. The incorporators wanted to name it the Cabbage Patch Mining Co., but Mrs. Rice would not consent to the use of the title.

DO NOT BE A BURDEN.

L. L. Elgin Give Some Good Advice to Readers of the New Era.

A weak stomach and its resulting ills are not natural. With proper care and the use of Mi-na stomach tablets, the worst case of indigestion or stomach trouble can be completely cured.

It is a sin to deprive oneself of enjoyment in life and become a burden to others through indigestion.

The backaches, headaches, distress after eating, loss of appetite, gulping up of undigested food and gases are not natural. Mi-na stomach tablets used for a few days before meals will so strengthen the digestive organs that you can eat anything you want without fear of distress or resulting sickness.

The directions for taking Mi-na emphasize the difference between this remedy and the ordinary medicine that is given for indigestion. Mi-na is to be used before meals, strengthening the digestive system for the food which is to be eaten, while the ordinary remedy is taken after meals, and simply digests the food without strengthening the stomach.

L. L. Elgin has so much faith in the merit of Mi-na that he will sell it under a guarantee to refund the money, in case it does not cure. A 50-cent box of Mi-na will do more real good than a dozen packages of the ordinary remedies sold for indigestion. Then, too, it costs nothing unless it cures.

FROM E. A. GULLION

IN announcing the public of the new states there will be from the best of the meeting courthouse from State Superintendent Fuqua and Supt. M. A. Cassidy of Lexington Schools.

Prof. E. A. Gullion has probably had more to do with common school legislation than any other school man in the state. He wrote most of the amendments that have been made to the common school law in the last 16 years and pressed them upon the legislature, having been selected for that purpose by the Kentucky Educational Association. He served without compensation, too. Among the amendments was one abolishing the short-term schools. If elected state superintendent Mr. Gullion will not only know the wants of the schools and the school system, but will know how to meet them so far as legislation is concerned.

The following letters addressed to the Democratic voters of the state speak for themselves:

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 4, 1906.

MY DEAR FRIEND:— I am writing to you in the interest of Mr. E. A. Gullion, of Henry county, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. It has been my pleasure to know Mr. Gullion during his long service as county superintendent of Carroll county, and as editor of a paper at New Castle. In both positions he has been an ardent advocate of improved education, in latter years using the columns of his paper in advancing the cause of Kentucky schools.

During my term of office many improvements have been made in education. Two normal schools have been established; the term increased from five to six months; the per capita has grown to $3.30, the largest in the history of the state. I have planned much other work that will greatly redound to the benefit of the schools, and if elected, I am satisfied that Mr. Gullion will push these plans to execution. I shall remain in school work as a member of his state board of examiners, and as such will be closely identified with the cause of education.

Thanking you for your co-operation in the past, and trusting that you will help Mr. Gullion in the state primary, Nov. 6, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
JAS. H. FUQUA, Sr.,
Supt. Pub. Instruction.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 30, 1906.

MY DEAR FRIEND:— As a school man my interest in the coming Democratic primary centers in the nomination of a state school superintendent. I am interested in this for two reasons: As a Democrat I feel a pride in having my party offer the best available man to the voters of the commonwealth. As a school man whose heart and strength have been given to the cause of education, I am doubly interested in having a man elected to this office who is honest, able, progressive, and whose experience in school work fits him to grapple intelligently with the burning question of the day: "How may the country people have as good educational advantages as those of the cities?"

Feeling that these two ends may be more nearly gained in the nomination and election of Hon. E. A. Gullion than in that of any of his opponents, I shall gladly vote for him. He is a man and a Democrat of whom no Kentuckian need feel ashamed when it comes to voting at the regular election. He is a true man and a life-long Democrat. Above all he is pre-eminently qualified, both by training and experience for the sacred office to which he aspires. He is not only well educated, but his training that peculiarly fits him for superintendent of public instruction has been in the rural school as teacher, and as superintendent of county schools. His long experience as teacher in the county schools places him in close touch with the humblest rural school in the state, and in sympathy with the poorly paid, struggling rural teachers everywhere. His sixteen years experience as county school superintendent has made him familiar with the entire school system. He knows the strong and the weak places, and he can intelligently direct its operations from his first day in office while one without his wide experience would be at sea during a great part of his administration.

Loving Kentucky as we do, we all want to take from her the disgrace of illiteracy. Before we can make much progress we must have a leader who is tried and true. Such a man is Gullion. His nomination means little opposition at the regular election, because both Democrats and Republicans recognize his ability, worth and general fitness for the office. His election will inaugurate a new era in education for rural Kentucky, something which we earnestly desire.

Yours for better things educationally,
M. A. CASSIDY.

DOUBLE ELECTION.

TWO SETS OF BOOTHS NEXT TUESDAY.

Amendment to the Constitution Announced by Some Papers Will be Voted on Next Year.

Owing to the fact that the election on Nov. 6 will be a double election, a regular election for congressman and a primary for United States senator and state officials, a double set of election booths will be required.

In other words, there will be two voting booths in every precinct and the voter who casts his vote for congressman, will also have to go into another booth and cast his vote in the primary election for state officials. The law requires these voting places to be one hundred feet apart.

A number of newspapers throughout the state have, and are yet, printing an amendment to the constitution of the state proving for the payment of a poll tax as a requisite for voting, and saying it will be voted on at the coming election. Having no official notification of such action the editor of the State Journal called on the secretary of state, H. V. McChesney, and asked him about the matter.

He said that the last legislature passed an act of that nature to be submitted as a constitutional amendment, but the law provides that such amendment can only be voted on at the election at which members of the legislature are chosen. The question therefore cannot be submitted till November, 1907.

Hon. Jno. Feland of Hopkinsville, will address the citizens of Daviess county at the court house on Friday Nov. 2, at 7 p. m. in behalf of Hon. Paul M. Moore, Republican candidate for congress in the Second district.

Mr. Feland has been announced by the Republican congressional campaign committee for several speeches in the district. He is a forceful and eloquent speaker, and the friends of Mr. Moore in the city and many from the country will be present to hear him.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Judge John F. Lockett, of Henderson, will speak at the court house here next Saturday night in the interest of Paul M. Moore, Republican candidate for congress.

The Rajah of Bhong.

Mr. W. H. Burgess, the principal comedian in the big musical production, "The Rajah of Bhong," is as quiet and droll off the stage as he is funny on. Between their twelve weeks' stay in Chicago and their New York engagement they found several weeks of one night stands ahead of them, and any one who has ever undergone what is known in theatrical parlance as one night stands knows that is synonymous with discomfort. Quite a number of these one-nighters were towns in Pennsylvania—a country where junctions are numerous and change of cars frequent. One gray morning he and the rest of his compatriots found themselves at a junction with the prospect of a two hours wait ahead of them, and the chances of getting into the next "stand" too late for breakfast. Mr. Burgess, glancing across the street from the station saw a sign, "Restaurant, warm meals at all hours." Availing himself of the opportunity he went over to the restaurant. As he sat at one of the tables the waiter who didn't look the part, came to take his order. Mr. Burgess calmly ordered two fried eggs, one fried on one side, and the other on the other side. The waiter retired to the kitchen after an absence of five minutes or so, returned and said "Excuse me, sir, would you kindly repeat that order." Mr. Burgess said: "Certainly, two fried eggs, one fried on one side, the other on the other side." The waiter looked bewildered but retired. After a longer interval had elapsed than before he returned looking very very perplexed saying, "You'll have to repeat that again sir, I don't seem to get it right."

Mr. Burgess again repeated his order—"two fried eggs, one fried on one side and the other on the other side." "The waiter walked slowly away looking puzzled. After an interval he again returned this time with his face scratched, his collar torn and wearing the general appearance of a man who had been through a threshing machine, saying, "Excuse me sir, would you just as soon have those eggs boiled, me and the cook just had a few words."

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew worse, until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by L. L. Elgin, Cook & Higgins and Anderson-Fowler Drug Co. (Inc.) Price 50c.

LYNCHED A NEGRO.

LAUDERDALE COUNTY MOB TAKES MURDERER FROM THE OFFICERS.

Geo. Estes, Who Killed Two Officers, Who Raided a Crap Game, Hanged at Dale's Point.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 32.—Geo. Estes, a negro who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Hinton Sasely and fatally wounded Constable John Bowers when the officers, at Hales Point, Tenn., about seventy miles north of this city, raided a crap game in which the negro was participating, was taken from a Sheriff's posse by an armed mob at that place and hanged. The negro was in the custody of Sheriff Pennington and a force of deputies, en route to Ripley, the county seat when overtaken by the mob.

The sheriff and his posse used every means at their command to protect the prisoner, but were overpowered and the negro secured and executed. The mob then quietly dispersed. Following the tragedy of Sunday night, Estes was captured by members of the posse with Sasely and Bowers, who raided the crap game, and was guarded in a negro cabin until the arrival of the sheriff and his party.

STILL AFTER SMOOT.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 30.—Resolutions adopted by the national W. C. T. U. call for the exclusion of Reed Smoot from the senate and urge that state legislatures demand an anti-polygamy amendment to the constitution of the United States.

HAS AMERICANITIS

COUNTRY SUFFERING NEW DISEASE, SAYS CHICAGO PASTOR.

The American conscience is threatened with fatty degeneration. The American heart is beating too rapidly to be able to long stand the pace.

These three complications are the principle ones, according to the Rev. John Balcom Shaw, of Chicago, which makes up "Americanitis," a disease with which, he said, the nation is suffering at present and which formed the topic of his sermon at the services held under the auspices of the young men's Sunday evening club at the second Presbyterian church, Chicago.

"Speaking as a doctor," he said "I should say this is a very complicated disease. I find, as I lay my hand upon the patient's heart, that it is beating with abnormal rapidity. It cannot keep up that pace very long."

"I find extreme nervousness and restlessness. The American does not walk, he runs. When he eats he does not masticate. It is no wonder men who are dying long before they get old are traveling around trying to keep the spark of life in their bodies. In one block, not far from where I live, there are 34 widows whose husbands burned out their nerve force and hearts by overwork. There is another complication in this disease of the nation's. As I examine the conscience I find a strange sluggishness. It does not respond to the touch. It seems to be threatened with fatty degeneration. And it is not surprising when one considers all the terrible recent exposures of graft and dishonesty among the insurance companies, among the packers, among the railroads. One does not know where to look for absolute integrity. Graft of all kinds seems to abound—commercial graft, educational graft, political graft and medical graft."

"But back of the other complications of Americanitis is the trouble with the brain. The American head is turned on the questions of greed and gain. Without question we are getting money mad. Gold is our great bogging sin. The simple fact is that unless some cure is speedily found, that the nation will perish."

"What is to be done?" In such a case as this a great specialist is needed. Jesus Christ is the great physician and the only one who can take out of the heart of the American nation its greed and worry and dishonesty and haste and make it strong and tranquil."

The Year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. Says Archbishop Moeller in Refusing Rites to Spalding Coleman.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30.—Archbishop Moeller has ordered Bishop McCloskey to have the grave of Spalding Coleman blessed, and says that the refusal to grant him the rites of the church was an error. The remains were in the St. Louis Bertrand Catholic church, and the funeral was in progress, when the officiating clergy received an order from Bishop McCloskey to the effect that the funeral could not be held in the church, because the remains were to be interred in Cave Hill and not in a Catholic cemetery.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Inc., the leading drug store, 9th and Main, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Died at Asylum.

(From Wednesday's Daily) George T. Mayes, a patient recently brought to the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane from Marion, died at that institution yesterday of senility. He was ninety-one years of age and the body was shipped to his home for interment.

"For years I starved, then I bought a 50 cent bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and what that bottle benefited me all the world in Georgia could not buy. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work as machinist. In three months I was as well and hearty as I ever was. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and tonic. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Redding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906. Kodol is sold here by L. L.
