FELL FROM BED DURING NIGHTMARE AND RECEIVED FATAL INJURIES

W. W. THOMAS, A FARMER, VIC-TIM OF BAD DREAM

RESIDED NEAR THIS CITY

Struck the Side of His Head Against

Corner of Table.—Leaves a Family.

W. W. Thomas, a white man who recently moved to the farm of W. L. Gore, near this city, died there Tuesday night from the effects of injuries received while suffering from a nightmare the preceding night.

About 11 o'clock Monday night, Mr. Thomas dreamed that Ed Gore, a son of W. L. Gore, was having much trouble with a fractious horse and was in danger of being killed. The dream was so vivid that Mr. Thomas yelled out in his sleep, "Hold him, Ed," and then jumped up in bed. He rolled off the bed in some manner and as he fell the left side of his head came in violent contact with the corner of a table which was standing nearby. A deep gash was cut just above and extending back behind the left eye, and Mr. Thomas was rendered unconscious for a short time. He soon regained his senses, however, and his condition was not regarded as serious, and the next day he was able to be up.

Tuesday night while sitting before the fire conversing with his family, he suddenly collapsed and almost before any one could reach him he was dead.

Mr. Thomas was fifty-eight years of age and was a highly respected citizen. He leaves a wife and two daughters. The remains were interred Wednesday at the family burying ground near Caledonia.

BRANCH IS OPENED

OF THE COMMERCIAL & SAVINGS BANK.

Quarters in Store of H. C. McGhee at Gracey and He Will Be in Charge.

The Commercial & Savings Bank, of this city, has perfected arrangements for opening a branch institution at Gracey, Ky., for the benefit of the citizens of that section.

The new bank will be located in store of H. C. McGhee and will be under the charge of that gentleman. It will be a branch of the bank here, but will do a general commercial business in all details and will have the savings department feature just the same as the bank here. The new bank is expected to begin business about January 10.

Rapid growth and constantly increasing business have been had by this bank since it was instituted last February, and the opening of the branch is only another indication of its popularity and prosperity.

Business Combine.

The brokerage and commission offices of Col. Jonett Henry and A. M. Cooper have been consolidated, Col. Henry having bought out Mr. Cooper and the latter retiring from this line of business. Col. Henry now occupies the rooms in the Phoenix building formerly occupied by Mr. Cooper and R. B. Hall will remain with him as operator.

Offices Changed.

J. T. Edmunds and J. E. Buchanan have changed their offices from Court street to the rooms formerly occupied by F. L. Wilkinson over the Planters Bank & Trust Co.

HERBERT RICHARDS STRUCK BY A TRAIN AND LOSES HIS LEFT FOOT

HOPKINSVILLE BOY SUSTAINS A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

MATT MAJOR IS INJURED

Thrown From Buggy And His Leg Broken.—Dr. Lyon Kicked On The Knee.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Herbert Richards, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Richards of this city and a well known and worthy young man, was run over by train at Maroa, Ill., Wednesday, and his left foot was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated at the ankle. Mr. Richards was employed as flagman on the train and the accident occurred while he was about his duties. Full particulars have not yet been learned, a brief telegram notifying his family of the unfortunate occurrence being the only word yet received. The news of the accident has been learned with the deepest regret by the many friends of the young man and his family. Mr. Richards and Tom Richards, his mother and brother, left at 11:20 for Maroa to attend his bedside.

Matt Major, a prominent farmer of the Herndon vicinity, met with a bad accident Wednesday afternoon. In company with a tobacco buyer he was returning in a buggy from his barn. Near his home an old zinc tub caught in a wheel of the buggy and the noise frightened the horse which ran off and threw the occupants out of the buggy. The tobacco man was not injured, but Mr. Major's left leg was broken below the knee. He was taken to his home and the fracture reduced by Dr. Gates. He spent a very uncomfortable night.

While Rev. A. P. Lyon, pastor of the Methodist church, was attending to his buggy horse, Tuesday, the animal kicked the preacher on the knee painfully injuring the member. The injury is not considered serious but is sufficient to keep Mr. Lyon indoors for awhile.

PLOT FRUSTRATED

Guy Lyon and Others Tried to Escape
From Jail.

BOWLING GREEN, Dec.—Guy Lyon was found early this morning sawing the bars to his cell in the Warren county jail. The discovery ended a plan by which Lyon, John Sacra and Pope Fletcher, under death sentences for assault on Mary Gladder, were to escape. Lyon had a criminal career in Christian county under the name of Guy Reynolds.

FINDS HIS SON GONE.

ENGLAND, Ark., Dec. 13.—J. E. Ward, of Hopkinsville, Ky., who came here to visit his son, learned that the latter mysteriously disappeared in March, 1904, at Birmingham. It is believed he is dead.

BOTH DROWNED.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 13.—With his son's dead body tied tightly on his back, the remains of Charles Hedrick were taken from the Hiawasse river, near McCoys, Tenn. They were drowned in a sudden flood, in an effort by the father to save the son.

Coates-Lewis.

(From Thursday's Daily)
Miss Viola Lee Coates and Mr. Eugene Lewis, a popular couple from Nebo, Ky., were married last night at the Hill House by the Rev. A. C. Biddle. They returned home this morning and will reside on the bridegroom's farm.

RUSSIAN NOBLES WHO ARE NOW TRAMPS.

The famine in Russia has reached such a point that many who have been living in affluence all their lives are now reduced to mendicancy. The Russian nobles are the most extravagant spendthrifts in Europe. As a consequence there are among them more persons who have been brought to beggary by their own improvidence than in any other country under the sun. These specimens, Baron Ormon and Baron Ostreiski, were once in possession of large estates. Profligacy and the famine have compelled them and their families to become street beggars.

May Be Shot On The Streets Of Hopkinsville.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Former United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, who was shot in his apartments Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Anna M. Bradley, of Salt Lake City, died last midnight at the Emergency Hospital. Mrs. Bradley will be arraigned in the Police Court to-day on the charge of murder. Her attorneys will set up the defense that she was justified under the "unwritten law" in shooting Mr. Brown.

Mr. Brown's life was prolonged for several hours by the injection of a salt solution and by administering

TO REFUND $4,000

Knights of Pythias Want Complete Control of Home.

Mr. John W. Carter, says the Owensboro Inquirer, left yesterday afternoon for Lexington with a check in his possession for $4,000, payable to Knights of Pythias. This amount represents the money paid by the county to the widows' and orphans' home at Lexington when bought by the Pythians. As the lodge wishes to have complete control of the home, they have refunded the money to the county.

BY WRONGED WOMAN

FORMER UNITED STATES SENATOR IS SHOT.

Hon. Arthur Brown, of Utah, May Be Fatally Wounded. Mrs. Bradley Under Arrest.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 10.—Former Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded in a Washington hotel Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Anna M. Bradley, of Salt Lake City. Brown and Mrs. Bradley were involved in a scandal in Salt Lake City several years ago. She was arrested, and states she shot Brown after he refused to marry her.

Mrs. Bradley is held without bail on the charge of assault with intent to kill. She will not be given a preliminary hearing until the extent of Brown's injuries are known.

BEST RECORD KNOWN

LESS THAN $9,000 STATE AND COUNTY TAXES UNPAID.

Sheriff David Smith has turned in his list of uncollected taxes for 1906 to County Clerk Campbell, as prescribed by the new revenue law, and the latter official has issued the tax warrants in each case. These warrants are all powerful and take precedence over all other incumbrances on a man's property and a foreclosure can be made in short order if the money is not forthcoming promptly. The amount due the county as shown by the assessment was $70,828.89, and of this amount a little less than $9,000 remains unpaid. This is by far the cleanest record for collections ever made in this county.

The report also shows that the county has already been saved $600 by the new revenue on polls alone. Last year when the delinquent list was turned over to the delinquent tax collector in April it showed a thousand more polls than are now on the delinquent list on December 1. As the delinquent collector was allowed 60 cents on each poll collected on his list the county is ahead on this one item alone the tidy sum of $600.

The serving of the tax warrants will be begun in a short time.

HYOMEI CURES CATARRH.

Costs Nothing Unless It Gives Relief—Sold Under Guarantee.

No matter how severe or chronic a case of catarrh you may have, consult L. L. Elgin about the use of Hyomei. He has so much faith in the efficacy of this treatment that he gives his personal guarantee with every outfit he sells that it will effect a cure, or the money will be refunded.

In many instances Hyomei has cured catarrh when the patient has suffered from childhood. Quite a few people in Hopkinsville who have been unable for years to get a good night's sleep on account of the disagreeable tickling and drooping at the back of the throat, have obtained quick relief from a few treatments with Hyomei, and the continued use has made a complete and lasting cure.

There is no stomach dosing when one uses Hyomei. Simply breathe its medicated healing through the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit and all catarrhal germs will be killed and the mucous membrane will be healed.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, sufficient for at least two weeks' treatment, making it one of the most economical methods of curing catarrh. If the outfit does not complete a cure, extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, can be bought for 50 cents. Remember that there is no risk in buying Hyomei. It costs nothing unless it cures.

WANT LAW ENFORCED

MASS MEETING HELD SATURDAY AT PRINCETON.

Burning of Stemmeries Denounced.—A Few Echoes of the Night Raiders' Visit.

Mass-meetings, held by the Law and Order League and the Tobacco Growers' Association, at Princeton Saturday, declared in favor of the enforcement of the law and denounced the burning of the tobacco stemmeries at that place.

A funny circumstance is reported as having happened during the raid at Princeton. One of the guards who was captured badly and after being relieved of his weapons stood shivering like a leaf. Finally one of the masked men who was standing guard over him noticed his condition and said to him, "Partner you are sorter subject to chills, ain't you?"

Another man was evidently scared nearly as badly, although he was in his home. He told the joke himself, and said that when he went to the window and saw the masked men marching down the street like soldiers, he and his wife and child hid behind the chimney as they were afraid that shots would be fired into the house.

County Attorney J. E. Baker roomed upstairs just across the street from the courthouse. He went to the window and raising it looked out, but he was promptly ordered back. He then tried to come down stairs but was summarily sent back and never succeeded in leaving his room until the raiders had left town.

IT MAY BE STORMY

HICKS PREDICTS SUCH WEATHER FOR CHRISTMAS DAY.

In His Forecasts for This Month He Promises Some Very Ugly Weather.

In his forecasts for December Rev. Hicks says:

"A regular storm period is in progress as we enter December, is central on the second and extends to the fourth. The period will culminate in rain, turning to snow, from the 1st to the 3rd. This cold wave will spread southward and eastward, reaching most parts of the country from about the 3rd to the 6th. Make your arrangements for storms, more or less rain—the rain turning to snow. Look for falling barometer, rising temperature, growing cloudiness and decided winter storm reaching a culmination, with possibly winter lightning and thunder about the 10.

"A regular storm period covers the 12th to the 16th, having its center on the 13th. In all reason this will prove one of the most active storm periods for December. By the 13th a general change to warmer, with low and threatening barometer, will be moving eastward in western sections. The temperature will increase and the barometer continue to fall as these conditions progress eastward. Cloudiness will increase and by the 14th to 15th general rain and wind storms will develop.

"A reactionary storm period is central on the 19th to 20th and 21st. As this is at the center of the December or winter, storm period, it will be safe to count on a period of prolonged stormy and severe weather. Storms will be more general and marked on and touching the 19th and 20th, but threatening to storming conditions on land and sea will continue over the 21st and 22nd into the storm period following.

"A regular storm period is central on Christmas day. From about the 25th to 27th look for the lowest fall of the barometer in December. Violent rain and snow storms will gather rapidly in western parts, and move eastward with widening areas and increasing energy. This is a period in which parts of the country will be visited by destructive sleet.

"A reactionary storm period is central on the 30th and 31st. As the year goes out more storms of sleet and snow will be passing across the country, with the probabilities good for great accumulations of snow and ice from previous storms and cold in most parts of the country.

Nasal Catarrh, an inflammation of the delicate membrane lining the air passages, is not cured by any mixtures taken into the stomach. Don't waste time on them. ## FOUR VICTORIES

WON BY TEMPERANCE PEOPLE ON SATURDAY.

Logan County Goes "Dry" By 2,000 Majority—"Wets" Lose In Ballard.

Local option elections were held at several points in Kentucky Saturday and everywhere resulted in victories for the dries.

In Whitley county the dries won by a majority of over a thousand votes. Eight saloons in Corbin and fourteen in Jellico will be put out of business. Mrs. Carrie Nation made a campaign of the county and aided the cause of temperance to a great extent.

At Vanceburg a local option election resulted in a victory for the dries by a majority of thirty-six votes.

In Logan county the temperance people won by a majority of over 2,000 votes.

In Ballard county the wets were snowed under by a majority of at least 344 votes.

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not hard work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in the full list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowels and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equalled. Sugar-coated and easy to take as candy. One to three a dose.

MARRIES POPULAR YOUNG WOMAN OF TAMPA, FLA.

(From Friday's Daily)

Mr. William Waller Trice, formerly of this city, and Miss Nell Pollock, a Florida belle, were joined last night in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of the bride in Tampa.

Mr. John Waller, of this city, a cousin, and Mr. Rollin Trice, of Tampa, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as attendants. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Trice left for Cuba where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride is a popular and lovely young woman. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. John B. Trice, of this city. He has been living in Tampa four years and is assistant cashier of Citizens Bank and Trust company. He is a splendid young man and his host of friends here are happy to shower congratulations and good wishes on him and his bride.

LOST A BIRD?

Here's One Nobody Knows Anything About.

Occupying the top floor of Clark & Denton's two-story chicken coop is a strange fowl which was caught by Mr. "Red" Owen near Kelly. Whether the bird is a water fowl or what is a mystery but it is certainly something new in this part of the country. The bird flew into the telephone wires and fell to the ground with a broken wing. Mr. Owen was passing by and gave chase to the bird. It ran with the speed of a race horse for about a hundred yards and then turned on its pursuer and came at him with its good wing outspread and its bill snapping, and Mr. Owen captured it by wrapping the whip which he carried around its neck.

The bird is nearly as large as a full grown chicken and is colored brown very similar to a partridge. It is narrowly built and under its throat there seems to be a small pouch somewhat on the order of a pelican's. Its bill is about three inches long and very slender and with the end almost as sharp as a needle, this being backed by a slender head. Its legs are long and slender and the feet are not web-footed, but the toes range in length from two to probably three inches. So far the bird has not eaten much of anything, but pecked a little at a fish which was thrown into the coop. It is very savage and when mad makes a guttural noise in its throat without opening its bill. If a person or object gets close to it the bird will dart out its head in a desperate effort to wound with its sharp bill.

Numbers of people have examined the bird but no one yet has named it.

CHRISTMAS MONEY

FOR THE TEACHERS OF CHRISTIAN COUNTY.

County Superintendent Gray Has Received a Check For $12,918.68 And is Paying it Out.

(From Saturday's Daily)

State Superintendent Fuqua has mailed checks aggregating $655,000 to county superintendents for distribution among the county school teachers of the state. The money is due them at this time, and will be followed next week by the distribution of $150,000 among the teachers in the cities, making a total of $805,000.

These sums represent 33½ per cent. of the school fund for the year, and is a good bunch of Christmas money well distributed throughout the several counties. It is the largest single payment ever made to teachers in the history of Kentucky.

Supt. Fuqua has gone to Mississippi, where he will spend the next ten days hunting.

County Superintendent W. E. Gray this morning received a check for $12,918.68, Christian county's share. The superintendent's office has been crowded all day with the teachers who are much pleased at getting their money this month so promptly.

THE NIGHT RIDERS.

The investigation of the outrages committed by the Night Riders at Princeton should be thorough and with no unnecessary delay.

It was a frightful affair, that raid. Every man in it, matters not who he is, is a criminal. No effort should be spared on the part of the authorities to bring each member of the mob to the bar of justice. And when he is brought there, and if the evidence shows he is guilty, there should be no whitewashing.

And what is Caldwell county doing toward apprehending the masked gang? Let us hope the officials are seeking for the guilty parties. If they are inert for any cause whatever it burns in deeper the brand of shame on the county's name. It is not a time for procrastination. Action should be prompt and vigorous.

That county, this entire region, the state itself, all are disgraced by the lawlessness of last Saturday morning.

A whole week has passed and though the mob that destroyed property valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars, numbered, it is reported, 150 or more men, but one arrest has been made and the alleged raider is out on a bond of $200!

Every good citizen is deeply interested in Fire Marshal Ayres' statement that he is satisfied with the result of his investigation, as far as it is gone, that he has valuable information, and that he has sufficient evidence to send several men to the penitentiary. That's good. Now, let the legal machinery begin revolving. A special session of the Caldwell county grand jury would go a long way toward attesting that the authorities mean business. The longer the delay, the less hope there is of punishing the guilty.

It is a mistake to use a violent cathartic to open the bowels. A gentle movement will accomplish the same results without causing distress or serious consequences later. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are recommended. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

BABY'S TORTURING SKIN HUMOR

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop—Off—Body Entirely Covered—
Face Mass of Sores—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child
Grew Worse—Face and Body
Now Clear

CURED BY CUTICURA
IN TWO WEEKS FOR 75c.

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 761 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disgusting skin humors, daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed:

"I fed my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter.

She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away; her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would be as clear as it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humors, from Pimples to Scabies, from Itchiness to Eczema, including Cutaneous Soap, Ointment, and Pills. Sold by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A. A single set of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with a box of Cuticura Pills, will cure the most distressing cases, when all other remedies fail. Even the best physicians fail. Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and Cuticura Pills, are sold by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A. "All About the Skin, Scalp, and Hair."

EVANSVILLE ACCOMMODATION WILL RUN NEXT WEEK

Train Will Arrive Here About 9 a. m.
And Will Leave in the Afternoon About 3.

The Commercial club deserves every bit of the commendation which it is receiving for its good work in securing the new accommodation train from here to Evansville over the L. & N., and the railroad officials are to be thanked for putting it on. This train will begin running some time next week and will reach here from Evansville about 9 a. m., and leave on the return trip about 3 p. m., each day. This is expected to open a new field of business for the merchants of this city which under the old system of running trains could be touched only slightly.

A Home Made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by Anderson Fowler Drug Co. (Inc), the leading Drug Store 9th and Main St., Hopkinsville Ky.

COST OF LIVING

Marked Advance Since November First, When Records Were Broken.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Figures giving the average cost of living as of Dec. 1, compiled by R. G. Dunn & Co., show that there has been a marked advance in price as compared with Nov. 1, when it reached a high water mark. In the lapse of one month the cost of living has advanced from $106.68 to $108.17, reached on Dec. 1. The cost of commodities is the highest since February 1884.

In discussing the subject the trade authority says rise in prices is "fairly representative of the greater demand that has followed increased prosperity throughout the nation, and because of the advance in wages which have lifted the purchasing power of the people above all previous records in this or in any other nation."

PROMISE HOT FIGHT

IF ALDRICH AGAIN SMOTHERS THE TOBACCO BILL.

Effort Is Renewed to Remove the Six Per Cent. Tax on Leaf Tobacco.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The fight for a law removing the internal revenue tax from leaf tobacco is about to open again. This is distinctively a Kentucky measure, and was pushed by the Kentucky delegation in congress at the last session. It was gotten through the house, but was stopped in the senate committee on finance by the chairman of that committee, Mr. Aldrich.

The Kentucky congressmen apprehend that Aldrich will try to smother it at this session, but they declare they will not be put off by any idle pretenses.

"Aldrich has got to allow that bill to come out of committee so that it may be voted on squarely in the senate, or we will make no end of trouble for him," said Representative Ollie James.

There is now a tax of six cents a pound on leaf tobacco. The removal of this tax would accomplish a great deal of good for the independent tobacco growers.

The Best Guaranty of Merit is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicine leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities. The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Child Burned to Death.

The 3-year-old daughter of Jesse Barker, of near Cerulean Springs, was so terribly burned, from her clothing having caught fire as she stood close to an open grate, that she has since died of her injuries. She was alone in the house at the time, and before assistance could reach her most of the clothes were burned from her body.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

MUCH THAT IS GOOD

AS WELL AS MUCH BAD IN PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Is Comment Made by W. J. Bryan Who Finds Appropriation of Democratic Doctrines.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 7.—Commenting on President Roosevelt's message Wm. J. Bryan says there is much that is good and much that is bad in it. But it may be regarded as the president's most important state paper. Mr. Bryan says:

"The message contains much that is Democratic and for which the general public may well thank him. It contains some things that ought to arouse severe criticism. The president boldly appropriates some of the doctrines when the Democrats have been advocating, and on the other hand he announces some doctrines which are so absurd as to excite amusement if the suggestion came from a less prominent source. In some cases he takes advanced ground; in some cases he retreats from the ground already taken."

Mr. Bryan complains that what the president says on the subject of government by injunction will not be satisfactory to laboring men or to those who respect the right of trial by jury. The president's stand on child labor is commended, as is also the position he takes on the eight-hour law, and right of people to criticize a judge.

Referring to Mr. Roosevelt's reference to the Japanese question, Mr. Bryan says:

"He pays a deserved tribute to the progress of the Japanese nation and asks for legislation which will enable congress to protect the treaty rights of foreigners. That there should be such legislation cannot be generally disputed, but a great deal depends upon the character of the legislation. If any bills are presented in regard to this suggestion they must be carefully scrutinized to be sure that they do not deny to the various states the right to protect themselves and their people in matters purely legal."

Finally, Mr. Bryan deplores what he calls the president's warlike attitude. He says it is this connection: "There will be general disappointment at the warlike tone of the message where he discusses the army and the navy. He speaks of the navy as the surest guarantor of peace which this country possesses. Shame upon the chief executive that he should place an instrument of brute force above the nation's sense of justice as a guarantor of peace. The best guarantor of peace is our nation's principle to deal justly with other nations. War ought to be a last resort, not a first consideration. It is bad enough to have a few professional soldiers. It is not necessary that the whole nation shall be keyed up all the time to the fighting point."

POSTAL AUTHORITY

TO DEAL WITH 'NIGHT RIDERS' IN KENTUCKY

Inspector is After the Sender of Threatening Letters Through The Mails.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 11.—As a result of the fight being waged against the combine in the Louisville (Ky.) district, officers of the United States government have been called in to take a hand, and the prospects are that some interesting developments may follow.

The government will, of course, have nothing to do with the recent raids perpetrated by the "Night Riders," which destroyed property in that neighborhood. Since then a number of tobacco growers have received threatening letters. As these were sent through the mails, they have been presented to Post-office Inspector in Charge A. R. Holmes, who has detailed a field inspector on the cases. Such missive are violations of the postal laws and regulations, and if the writers of them are apprehended they will be vigorously prosecuted.

So far as can be ascertained, no tangible clue to the senders has been secured, but they are being traced to a number of persons antagonistic to the so-called trust.

RIGHT WAY TO DO $8000 IN TEN DAYS

CHRISTIAN COUNTY COMMITTEE HEARTILY COMMENDED

WORK OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE IS BEING PUSHED

Other Counties and Executive Committee of Association are Called Upon To Follow Suit.

Everybody in Hopkinsville Concerned In Young Men's Welfare Should Be Deeply Interested.

The Owensboro Inquirer says:

"The Planters' Protective association of Christian county goes after the Princeton mob in a commendable manner. It offers a reward of $200 for the apprehension and conviction of the guilty parties, and calls upon the other county organizations in the dark tobacco district to join it in its effort to aid in the suppression of crime, and requests the executive committee of the Dark Tobacco Protective association to also offer a reward."

"Which will be the next county to follow the example of the county committee of Christian and offer a reward for the capture and conviction of the persons guilty of the Princeton outrage?"

The Franklin Favorite says: "The Christian county members of the association, proceeding upon the correct idea that no friend of theirs would engage in such criminal and nefarious work, have offered a reward of $200 for the conviction of a guilty party."

"Their action is commendable in the extreme. Lawlessness is no part of nor has it a place in the Planters' Protective association. If the recent criminal acts were committed by association members the sooner they are discovered, expelled and convicted the better. If done by agents of the tobacco trust, who take this method of bringing into disgrace the work of thousands of the best men of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, then the reason no less exists why they should be punished for the crime of arson."

The whirlwind campaign of the Y. M. C. A. is under headway and the slogan, "$8000 in Ten Days," is heard on every hand. The headquarters at the Planters' Bank and Trust company, with Mr. House in charge, shows signs of much activity.

The hands of the Y. M. C. A. clock are stretched in mute appeal to passersby, and nothing shows more clearly the spirit of the citizens than the fact that they are not all waiting to be approached by canvassers but some are visiting the headquarters, asking for information about the work and giving in their pledge at the desk.

One man this morning, without being solicited by anyone, went to Mr. House and voluntarily doubled his first subscription. Yesterday, a boy stopped President Brownell, of the board of directors, and asked to be given an opportunity to subscribe $10 to the fund. These are merely straws but they show the wind's drift.

It is to be hoped that the members of the citizens' committee will not delay seeing the persons on their lists and securing pledges, as the one way to make the campaign a success is to push it along with vim and promptness. Every citizen having at heart the physical, mental, moral and spiritual welfare of the young men of Hopkinsville should feel vitally concerned in this movement and do everything in his power to advance its interests.

The Young Men's Christian association is making splendid progress in this country. At present the number of associations is 1,808, 42 more than in 1905. The membership is 405,789, an increase of 23,807. Buildings owned number 552, against 517 last year. The value of the association's real property is $34,630,155. In 1905 the figure was $3,000,000 lower. The railroad associations occupy quarters valued at $808,500. Expenses, 1906 fiscal year, were $4,701,990. The international budget for the home field was $166,841; for the foreign field, $151,691, an increase in the two departments of more than $50,000.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Among the real estate transfers in Christian county recently recorded in the office of the county clerk are the following:

BILL FOR $100,000 PUBLIC BUILDING. OBJECTS TO CALLER

HAS BEEN PREPARED BY CONGRESSMAN STANLEY.

WILL USE EVERY EFFORT

To Secure Appropriation For an Edifice Worthy of Hopkinsville.
Letter to Mr. Wall.

J. T. Wall, who has taken great interest in the effort to secure a public building for Hopkinsville, is in receipt of the following letter from the Hon. A. O. Stanley which will be read with delight by the citizens of the House of Representatives U. S. Washington, D. C. December 7, 1906.

Mr. J. T. Wall,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

My dear Sir:

I have now on my desk a carefully prepared bill asking for an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars for the erection of a public building at Hopkinsville. It is more than probable that there will be no public buildings bill at this session, but I have introduced this bill that it may have precedence, and as soon as a bill is reported from the committee I shall use every effort in my power to secure an appropriation for the city of Hopkinsville, and I have every reason to believe that my efforts in behalf of your city will be successful. If I do succeed in securing a liberal appropriation for such a building it will be source of great gratification to me as to the citizens of Hopkinsville, and I sincerely hope that before my term of office shall have expired that I may be able to see a liberal appropriation for the erection of an edifice worthy of your good city and a reminder to my good friends of my grateful appreciation of their ardent support and confidence.

Very truly yours,
A. O. STANLEY.

CASES CONTINUED

Grow Out of Charges By Colored Editor and Preachers.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The two cases against P. H. Brown, colored, editor of the Morning News, for criminal libel, and the case against Rev. T. J. Moppin on the same charge, were called in county court this morning and continued until Thursday, December 22.

These cases grew out of the occurrence here of Bishop Phillips, of Nashville, being forced to leave a Pullman car and go into the car for colored people. There was some talk of the negro bishop's bringing suit if the members of the church would make up the money to defray the costs. Brown strongly condemned any such move and in the newspaper war which followed he became so strong in his strictures against Rev. Moppin and Rev. G. Cornelius Parker that action was brought by the commonwealth on the charge of criminal libel. Rev. Moppin, though, in the meantime had been writing articles on the subject for the Christian Index and he also used some very pointed language and the commonwealth also charged him with criminally libeling Brown.

This is the present status of the case and when they are again called on tomorrow week the court room will probably be filled to overflowing with the crowd which will be glad to hear the salty articles read and the testimony which will be given. The prosecution is represented by County Attorney Duffy and Attorney Ford, colored. The defense is being conducted by Judge C. H. Bush, J. T. Hambery and John Ireland.

LANDER-MATTHEWS.

Mr. Sydney Matthews and Miss J. Belle Lander, both of Henderson, were united in marriage on the 10th inst. at 2 p. m. The pretty bride is a former Hopkinsville girl, and will be remembered with much love and good wishes by a host of friends. The happy event occurred at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. H. Overby. It was a very pretty but quiet wedding, only a few intimate friends being present to witness the happy union of two hearts that have for some time been beating as one.

The bride was attired in a handsome traveling dress of blue cloth, and carried a shower bouquet of carnations. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a trip to some eastern cities. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends in Henderson.

Mr. Matthews is a popular young business man and has been for some time associated with the firm of Mann & Bros. at Henderson.

Mr. Biddle Back Home.

The Rev. Mr. Biddle has just returned from his meetings at Greenville, and he reports your friends and relatives over in Muhlenburg very well and doing well, except Prof. Frogge and Gus McNary.

There is a good deal of building going on and many other signs show an unusual prosperity. The merchants are loading up their shelves with a larger and better stock of goods than ever before; and already the Christmas spirit has struck the town.

On account of the unprecedented weather and the energy of the contractors, the new court house has risen, red and white and beautiful almost to the square of the roof. It will be a handsome building when completed, and already has begun to pay for itself in the advances in real estate and the consequent pride of the citizen.

Brother of Tom Clark, of This City, is Shot to Death Near Paducah.

PADUCAH, Ky., Dec. 12.—Albert Winfree, shot and killed Owen Clark near this city last night.

The shooting was done in self defense.

Winfree was calling on Clark's divorced wife, when Clark appeared on the scene and fired at the visitor. Winfree returned the fire and killed his assailant.

Clark was a farmer and lived about three miles from this place. He leaves a brother, Tom Clark, who lives in Hopkinsville, Ky.

Goes to Memphis.

Miss Florence Tibbs, has resigned her position as stenographer with Hunter Wood & Son, and will leave about the first of January for Memphis, where she has accepted a lucrative position as stenographer for the American Snuff Co. She will be succeeded in the office of Hunter Wood & Son by Miss Allie Davis. Both young ladies are graduates from the shorthand department of Lockyear's Business College of this city.

CRISIS AT HAND.

PARIS, Dec. 10.—France is confronted with a grave crisis in the taking of church inventories, as the result of instructions from the Vatican that parish priests must not give information to the authorities, and must remain in their churches until driven out by force.

In Bankruptcy.

The firm of West & Burris, proprietors of the Innovation Cafe which closed its doors several days ago, has been adjudicated bankrupt and formal notice has been given of the first meeting of the creditors. The liabilities will amount to $3,000 and the assets at about $2,000.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. H. M. Mason who has been visiting her father, Rev. J. W. Venable, left last night for Chicago, en route to California.

Miss Bessie Crume, of Springfield, Tenn., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mabel Schroeder.

Mr. Ed Roberts, of Princeton, Ky., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Payne, on North Main Street, Saturday and Sunday.

Hugh Wood, of Cincinnati, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Wood.

Mrs. Henry Myers is visiting in Greenville.

Rev. Dr. John W. Lewis, presiding elder of the M. E. Hopkinsville district, went to Princeton this morning. He will preach there Sunday.

Mrs. M. P. G. Hillman, of Birmingham, who has been spending several weeks in the city with her brothers, returned to her home Thursday morning.

Miss Lizzie Cloud, of South Christian, is visiting Miss Kate Peyton on North Main Street.

Mrs. T. C. Underwood and Miss Sue Stites went to Nashville this morning.

Charles Lander has returned from Henderson where he attended the marriage of his sister, Miss Belle Lander to Sydney Matthews.

Neely Cary left this morning for Gallup, New Mexico, to accept a position in a bank.

NEW CORPORATION

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 10.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Monarch Grain company of Hopkinsville. The capital stock is fixed at $20,000, divided into two hundred shares at $100 each. The incorporators are W. D. Stowe, Thos. H. Harned and Dr. J. B. Jackson. The company is formed for the purpose of doing a general business in handling grain and farm products of all kinds.

New Pastors.

The Rev. H. E. Gabby, pastor of the Walnut-street Baptist church at Owensboro, has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Cadiz and has accepted. The congregation of the Christian church at Cadiz has called Elder G. H. C. Stoney, of Murray, to the pastorate.

OKLAHOMA LANDS

MUCH NEW TERRITORY IS TO BE OPENED TO THE PUBLIC.

Sealed Bids From Prospective Settlers Which Will Be Opened Next Week.

LAWTON, Okla., Dec. 8.—Monday was the busiest day in the history of the Lawton land office. It was the first day for receiving bids on the unallotted portions of the 505,000 acres in the Kiowa-Comanche-Apache reservation. The bids are to be received during the entire week and if the record of the opening be taken as a criterion it would not be surprising if the total number of bids exceeded 25,000.

This means thousands of new farms and thousands of industrious citizens will be added to the resources of the new state of Oklahoma by next spring. Under the law no bid of less than $5 per acre will be considered. Each bidder may put in as many proposals as he desires, but the maximum to be sold to any bidder is limited to a single quarter-section. The bids will be opened next week.

The great pasture thrown open is watered on its southern edge by the Red river and contains a large area of very fertile land. Its opening to white settlement leaves in Oklahoma only one other large reservation, the opening of which will probably not be long delayed. This is the 300,000 acres of segregated coal and asphalt lands of the Chickasaws and Choctaws, in the southern part of Indian Territory. This reservation abounds not only in valuable mineral deposits, but in fertile land which has remained a wilderness by reason of its segregation.

Death Of Child.

Phyllis Cloud, the nine-year-old daughter of J. G. Torian, died Saturday at the residence of W. C. West. Appendicitis was the cause of death. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Charged With Loitering.

John Grimes, a seventeen year old boy, was arrested at the Illinois Central depot last night by Policeman Broderick and was presented in the city court this morning on the charge of loitering. Judge Brasher assessed a fine of $6 but held it up on condition that the boy would leave town at once, a condition to which he readily agreed.

ELOPERS ARRESTED.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Roy Melton and Miss Mamie Trusty, an eloping couple from Sebree, are under surveillance at police headquarters today, they having been arrested in Clarksville before they succeeded in having the ceremony performed. The couple planned to go to Springfield, Tenn., but changed at Guthrie and went to Clarksville. The officers here had been notified by telephone to watch out for the couple, but too late to catch the south bound train. They telephoned to Clarksville, though, and the officers there caught the elopers almost as soon as they arrived in that city. Lieut. Booth Morris and Policeman E. N. Miller went to Clarksville this morning and returned at 11:20 with the would be bride and groom. The father of the girl is expected at 5:18 this afternoon and will take his daughter home to night. Sam Tapp and Miss Daisy Liles accompanied the elopers.

The girl is only fifteen years of age and had been attending school in Sebree. Melton is about twenty and worked for the Cumberland Telephone company.

MARSE HENRY

Is Honored With Banquet By Citizens of Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 10.—About three hundred citizens of Louisville gave a banquet to the Hon. Henry Watterson Saturday night, the event being in the nature of a "stirrup cup," for the distinguished editor, who left last week for New York, sailing a few days later for Spain, where he will spend the winter. Young E. Allison was toastmaster. Those who responded to toasts in addition to Mr. Watterson included Jas. White and Riley, A. Y. Ford, George A. Newman, Jr., and Dr. E. L. Powell.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WILL USE NOBEL PRIZE TO ESTABLISH INDUSTRIAL PEACE COMMISSION IN WASHINGTON

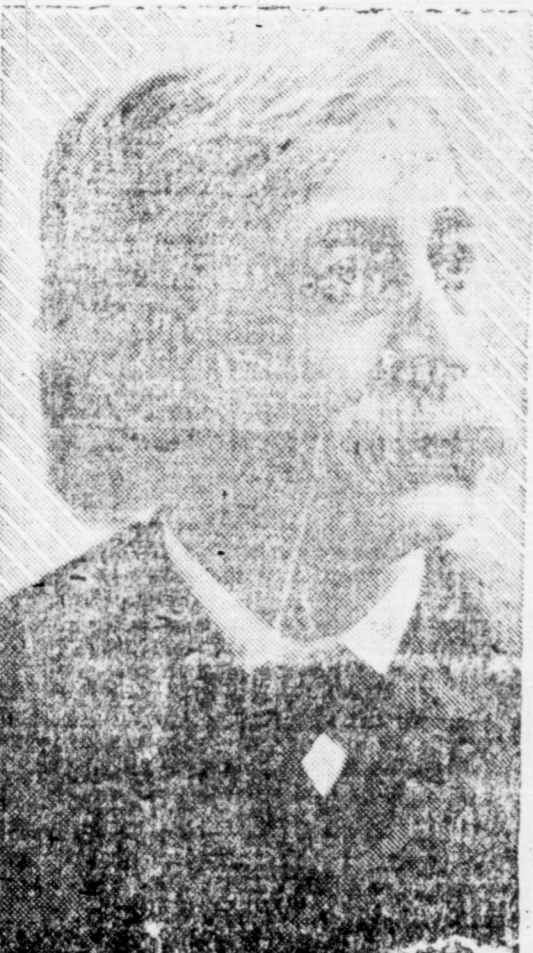

SECRETARY STRAUS

JUDGE GEO GRAY

SECRETARY WILSON

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER

From his most recent photograph. JOHN MITCHELL

As stated yesterday in a special despatch to the New Era, the Norwegian parliament has conferred the Nobel peace prize on President Roosevelt, in recognition of his services in ending the Russo-Japanese war.

The Nobel peace prize is part of a bequest left by Dr. Alfred Bernhard Nobel, the Swedish scientist, who died in 1896. By his will a large portion of his fortune was devoted to a series of annual prizes, each called at about $40,000. They were awarded for the most important discoveries in physics, chemistry, physiology or medicine, for the most distinguished work of an idealistic tendency in the field of literature, and for the best effort toward the fraternity of nations and the promotion of peace. The last named is awarded by the Norwegian parliament. The others are awarded by institutions at Stockholm.

In accepting the prize, President

Roosevelt cabled as follows to the parliament:

"I am profoundly gratified and touched by the signal honor shown me through your body in conferring on me the Nobel peace prize. There is no gift I could appreciate more, and I wish it were in my power to fully express my gratitude. I thank you for it, and I thank you in behalf of the United States, for what I did I was able to accomplish only as the representative of the nation of which,

for the time being, I am president.

"After much thought I have concluded that the best and most fitting way to apply the amount of the prize is by using it as a fund to establish at Washington a permanent industrial peace commission. The object will be to strive for better and more equitable relations among my countrymen who are engaged, whether as capitalists or wage-workers, in industrial and agricultural pursuits. This will carry out the purpose of the founder of the prize for, in modern life, it is as important to work for the cause of just and righteous peace in the industrial world as in the world of nations.

"I again express to you the assurance of my deep and lasting gratitude and appreciation.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT. It is announced that the president of the peace prize fund: Chief Justice Fuller, Secretary of Agriculture Straus, Judge George Gray and John Mitchell. Judge Gray is to represent capital and Mr. Mitchell labor.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength.
If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.
Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not

Kodol

Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach,

Curiosity sometimes proves fatal.
A new railroad line was opened in Ecuador by an American company.
To the natives the cars were objects of great interest, and one of them, ignorant of the mechanism, tampered with a brake, as a result of which the car ran away and was overturned and seven persons were killed. Guilelessness of that sort is too likely to have tragic consequences.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours;
if sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism,
pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder
and every part of the urinary passage.
It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, without cost,
by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Bingham-of the words of the Spirit concerning this fearful transaction are, "Ye denied the Holy One and the Just and desired a murderer to be granted unto you and killed the Prince of Life,"

"Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified." "The Just One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers" (Acts iii, 14, 15; iv, 10;
v, 30; vii, 52). As seen in the purpose of God for us, we find the light in such passages as "He is the propitiation for our sins and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world," "God hath made Him to be sin for us who knew no sin," "The Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me,"
"Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us," "His own Self bare our sins in His own body on the tree" (1 John ii,
2:11 Cor. v, 21; Gal ii, 20; iii, 13; 1 Pet.
ii, 24). Turning to the actual events as set forth in our lesson, we see the Holy One of God in the hands of sinful men, delivered to their will, and that will means all that the devil can think of in the way of torture and a lingering death. God's Darling at the mercy of bulls of Bashan, roaring lions and dogs (Is. xxiii, 12, 13, 16-21).
But how was it that they were able to treat Him so when just two words from Him sent the soldiers to the ground as they came to arrest Him in Gethsemane?
The answer is found in these words,
"Of His own voluntary will" (Lev. i, 3). "I lay down My life that I might take it again; no man taketh it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself" (John x, 17, 18). See also His own words to Pilate, "Thou couldst have no power at all against Me except it were given thee from above" (John xix, 11).

The Cyrenian who was compelled to bear the cross of Jesus that day has many a time since praised God that it ever happened so, for though it was an unwilling and compulsory service at the time, he has since seen that it was a very great honor that was conferred upon him. When in the providence of God we are turned about in our plans and humiliated also we may depend upon it that what seems cruel and unjust is the best that His infinite love and wisdom can plan for us. See Him and the two malefactors being led forth to be put to death and can you wonder that a great company of people and of women followed Him, bewailing and lamenting Him, but He, seeing their future, as they could not,
tells them that they have more need to weep for themselves than for Him.

Go to the place of the three crucified ones, and you will find the place of a skull. Could anything be more suggestive of emptiness than a skull, and to this He came for me, and without Him all that the world has to give is as the emptiness and nothingness of a skull. Do you see it so?

With pierced hands and feet He hangs between two thieves, crucified as a malefactor, numbered with trans-gressors, and Barabbas could say as he looked upon Him, "He is there for me, in my place. I am free because He is there." We hope that he did see it so and say it from his heart and, like the penitent thief, make Jesus glad.
After He had been three hours on the cross the sun, which He had created, could no longer bear the sight, and there was darkness over all the earth for three hours, and the very earth, which He had created, quaked, and the rocks rent, and the graves of many of the righteous dead opened (Matt. xxvii, 45-53). All nature affected, and yet many believers can read the record without a tremor, and unbelievers seem harder than the very rocks. Truly the world knew Him not, and He still has reason to say, "Oth, righteous
Father, the world hath not known Thee" (John xvii, 25). While His poor breaking heart found none to take pity on to comfort (Is. lix, 1), and among the rulers of the Jews or among the scoff-ing crowd, He did find real comfort in the man on the cross beside Him, who with true penitence believed on Him, acknowledged Him as King and went with Him to Paradise that day. It is a truth that stands unchanged, "There is joy in the presence of the angels over one sinner who repenteth" (Luke xv, 10). It is also always true that "this Man" who came to save sinners and died for sinners is ever waiting for and expecting them to come to Him, for such is the meaning of the word "receive" in Luke xv, 2.

It may be that just a word upon the seven sayings of Christ on the cross may lead some one to ponder them more prayerfully and see something of their wondrous significance. In the order of their utterance they are found in Luke xxiii, 34, 43; John xix, 26, 27;
Matt. xxvii, 46; John xix, 28, 30; Luke xxiii, 46, so that we have them them in our lesson portion for today. The first three sayings were uttered before the hours of darkness and the last four at the close of those awful hours. The first three tell of forgiveness and glory and His special care of us all the way between the grace that saves and the glory to be revealed. The last four were uttered just before He died, the fourth and fifth from the agony of His breaking heart and the last two with something like a cry of victory because all was at last ended and He returned home to His Father. It is most instructive that His first and last recorded utterances as the Son of Mary contain the precious word "Father," a name He used forty-eight times on that last night.

HOPKINSVILLE AND THE INSURANCE COMPANIES.

There is universal gratification over the prompt action of the large insurance companies in sending their special agents here to investigate the local situation in reference to law and order; for, as a result, insurance policies will not be cancelled, and agents will continue to write risks on tobacco. Only three or four small companies, out of sixty or more doing business in Hopkinsville, have cancelled policies or declined to write any tobacco risks.

There is no disorder in Hopkinsville or Christian county. None is expected. The high feeling exhibited in some parts of the district from time to time, has never existed here. The people of this county are law abiding. They are not going to commit outrages and they will not permit them to be committed by outsiders. The tobacco stored in Hopkinsville, whether it belongs to the association or to the trust, is safe. The buildings are safe. And to make assurance doubly sure, the authorities, as heretofore noted in detail, have arranged ample protection against vandalism or violence of any character in this city.

It would mean financial disaster to everybody connected with the tobacco business if the insurance companies should withdraw their risks on tobacco. Not only would buyers and warehousemen suffer greatly, but it would be calamitous to growers, whether in or out of the association. The insurance men state that there will be no discrimination in writing business, and that if it should become necessary to cancel policies or refuse to issue any, the rule would apply to association tobacco as well as that owned or controlled by the trust and independent buyers. Without insurance, no advances on tobacco could be made; the banks would refuse to handle tobacco paper, the growers would be on their own risk, and the effect would be to paralyze trade generally.

ANNUAL ELECTION.

NO CHANGES IN POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENTS.

One New Policeman Added to the Force.—Danger of Walls is Being Investigated.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The city council met in regular session last night, Mayor Meacham and all members of the board being present. The reports of various city officials were approved and ordered recorded.

On motion of Councilman Twyman the election of police force, firemen, cemetery sexton and workhouse keeper was held. The following policemen were elected: Miller, McCord, Merritt, Broderick, Hord and Claxton. This is the same efficient force which has served the city during the past year. The council added another policeman for the coming year and G. E. Drake, the present workhouse keeper, was elected to fill the position. The chief and lieutenant of police are elected for two-year terms.

There were no changes made in the members of the fire department and the following were re-elected: E. H. Hester, chief; E. P. Fears, assistant chief; John Thompson, Robert Tunks, John Lawson, E. Haydon, Ed Schmitt, Clay Powell, Will Hester, Lee Morris, W. Guthrie and Wm. Turner. Lee Morris, teamster; Clay Powell, assistant teamster, and John Lawson are day and night firemen.

J. T. Johnson was re-elected cemetery sexton and E. C. Outlaw was elected workhouse keeper to fill the vacancy caused by the election of G. E. Drake as policeman.

Coffee house license was granted to the following people for the year 1907: F. Schmitt, Brackroge Bros., N. W. Kirkpatrick & Co., E. H. Williams, Ed Summers, Higgins & Winders, R. A. Elkins, Gates & Co., W. A. P. Pool, George Merritt, T. W. Wooten, W. R. Long, Barnes & Griffin, Joe Fortner, L. W. Whitlow, Cannon & Henderson and H. C. Moyers.

John Stites as attorney for J. P. Garnett appeared before the council and asked that certain walls of the building belonging to him be condemned, and J. W. Downer representing Mrs. Sargent and Mrs. Stine, also appeared before the council in the same matter, as did Maj. E. B. Bassett. After considerable discussion, the council adjourned until 11 o'clock this morning. This morning the action of the mayor in declaring the front wall of the collapsed building unsafe was ratified by the council, which then adjourned, subject to call, to investigate legal phases of the matter.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.
One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly enters the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germy disease being contracted. For sale by Anderson Fowler Drug Co. ## UNDER $1,000 BOND

George Putman is Held To The Christian County Grand Jury.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The examining trial of George Putman, charged with the killing of J. G. Wright, a school teacher, Nov. 24, was completed to-day in Judge Breathitt's court. Putman was held to the grand jury under $1,000 bond, which he gave and was released from custody.

From Day to Day

(From Saturday's Daily)
The Daily Record says, "The county is now reported out of debt with about $2,300 in the treasury." Just as a suggestion, and coming from a county which speaks from experience, Christian would say that this amount, and as much more as can be raised for the purpose should be applied to building turnpikes in Trigg.

Jesse Burrus has accepted a position in Frankel's store.

The trade in lanterns and coal oil has been considerably improved since the damage to the electric light plant by the flood. There have now been no street lights for three weeks and will not be for several nights yet so the citizens have gone back to first principles and the will of the wish flicker of old time lanterns is to be seen all over town every night. By the way, leave your shutters open the first part of the night. The light from your house will help pedestrians wonderfully.

Mr. Joseph Beazley and family, of LaFayette, have moved to this city and are occupying one of the Dalton cottages on East Seventh street.

The store windows, and the interiors as well, are rapidly blossoming out into full Christmas grandeur and splendor, and pater familias is hedging in every way possible so as to be able to meet the financial demands which he knows will be made upon him.

Day by day Hopkinsville more and more firmly establishes her claim to being the best town in Western Kentucky, or anywhere on the globe for that matter. Things are literally coming our way and it is a poor citizen who will not help along in the good work every time the opportunity presents itself.

Arthur Winfree, of this city, has secured a good position with the American Express Company in Chicago.

Mr. Chas. S. Morehead, of this city, has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Forbes Manufacturing Co., at Hopkinsville. Mr. Morehead and family left yesterday afternoon for Hopkinsville, where they will reside in the future. The position is a very lucrative one, and Mr. Morehead's many friends at this place are pleased over his securing a position with this popular and enterprising establishment. He ranks among the best book-keepers of the south, and the Forbes Manufacturing Co. are to be congratulated upon securing his services—Princeton Leader.

May I ask you what is the matter with your skule. About a month ago my boy Jorge kum home with his cap rim busted. I sed nothing about it was a u-n-sual okenence, but when he kum home day before yistiddy with his nee cap gone entirely and no trace of it yit I begun to think things. Then yistiddy he—my boy—Jorge turned up at his pa's offs with his shu strings pulled out his shus it seemed to me this hazin' bizniz ort to be stoped. Now, today my boy Uri comes home with all his cote buttons busted off and in respons to my inquiry he sez he wuz lifted bodily by his cote and set down agin. Now wot du yu perpose to do erbout it? All I ask is if yu see one of 'em—my boy Jorge or my boy Uri—go in up the street with all there close off, ples explain to the polls that it is the kustumerry thing in pure skule. I've heerd yu teach fysical torcher in yure skule but I prefur my boy Uri and my boy Jorge to take there fysical torcher at home with me.

SIMPLY SHOCKING

Are The Revelations Concerning Louisville's Milk Supply.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 8.—Aaron Kohn, representing 100 dairymen, against whom charges were brought under the pure food law of feeding swill to cattle, pleaded guilty for his clients in police court and accepted a suspended sentence of $100 fine and a jail sentence of fifty days against each defendant.

The fine and jail sentence will be annulled only on conditions that they clean up their dairies by April 1 and quit feeding swill to cattle.

Previous to the calling of the cases in court a conference of lawyers, physicians and health officers was held, at which startling revelations were made in regard to the milk supply of Louisville. It was shown that twenty-five pounds of manure is consumed every day in Louisville in the milk that is drunk; that some of the milk contains pus; that a large number of dealers return milk cans which are refilled without being adequately washed and still containing lactic acid, odors and sour milk, and that many stables quarantining cows are in a filthy condition.

A Texas Wonder.
There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. ### JUDGE IS GUILTY

PROMINENT REPUBLICAN SUSPENDED FOR TWO YEARS.

Conduct Was Unprofessional in Filing An Affidavit Which He Knew Was Untrue.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Dec. 10.—Hon. W. O. Harris, special judge appointed by Governor Beckham in the trial of disbarment proceedings against Judge William M. Beckner on charges of unprofessional conduct, rendered his decision suspending Judge Beckner from the practice of law for a period of two years. The proceedings were based on an affidavit filed in England in the case of T. G. Stuart against Archer Harmon. Stuart got judgment in the circuit court, which was affirmed by the court of appeals. Harmon lived in England, and an effort was made to have the case retried in that country. Judge Beckner filed an affidavit in which he swore, it is charged, that the proceedings in the Kentucky court were fraudulent and corrupt. Judge Harris, in rendering his decision, says: "The court's opinion is that the affidavit was deliberately and cunningly drawn so as to support a charge of fraud and unfairness in the trial of the case referred to, and that this charge was known by the affiant to be untrue." The object of disbarment proceedings, Judge Harris continues, is more to keep pure the administration of justice than to punish the individual who may be guilty of unprofessional conduct. He, therefore, declines to inflict the extreme penalty.

A motion for a new trial was made and promptly overruled. The case will be taken to the court of appeals.

Judge Beckner was formerly a member of congress from this district and, in the last state election, was the Republican candidate for attorney general.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household. To which we would add, when you have a bad cold, go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Anderson Fowler Drug Co. (Inc) the leading Drug Store, 9th and Main St., Hopkinsville Ky.

An American Bittern.

Editor New Era: I have not "lost a bird," but think I can tell you the name of the one described in your issue of Friday. It bears all the marks of the American Bittern, except that it is under-size. It may be a young one, and that would account for its being found away from its usual haunts—could not keep up with "the procession" in its autumn flight. Quoting from Richardson's North. Zool II, p. 364, "The Bittern of America, though nowhere numerous, is found in almost every part of the continent where there exist extensive marshes, either maritime or inland, up to the fiftieth parallel of Northern latitude, where they are frequent, in the morasses and willow thickets of the interior throughout the fur countries. From the inclement regions, they retire in winter, while in other parts, they are permanently resident." The American Bird, no less than the true Bittern, is considered by many, an excellent article of food." G. C. L.

It is noticeable a cold seldom comes on when the bowels are freely open. Neither can it stay if they are open. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes as pleasant as maple sugar. Free from all opiates. Contains Honey and Tar. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

ENGLISH CLEARED

AND IMMEDIATELY ENTERS SUIT FOR $10,000 DAMAGES.

Young Paducah Man, Formerly of Hopkinsville, Was Charged With Converting Money to His Own Use.

James E. English, formerly of this city, and now a broker in Paducah, was acquitted in the McCracken circuit court last week of converting $1,500 to his own use.

Immediately after the verdict he entered suit for $10,000 damages against his prosecutors.

English was in the brokerage business at Paducah during 1935. A car of merchandise was shipped to English by the William Numsen & Sons Company, of Baltimore. It was wrecked, and the Illinois Central paid English the value. The firm alleged that the money belonged to it, and had him indicted.

The court instructed the jury to find out for the defendant, as the Numsen & Sons Company, failed to show that the money did not belong to English.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Hopkinsville People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Hopkinsville. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

J. W. Tunke, of 312 West Seventh street, who is employed at M. C. Forbes' Planing Mill, says: "The condition of my health was such as to cause me a great deal of worry about my future. I had an almost constant aching across the small of my back and the kidney secretions were highly colored, excessive and irregular, in fact, the disorder was so pronounced that it had been said it bordered on diabetes. At one time I was scarcely able to do any work at all for nearly a year. I doctored and tried various remedies but nothing did me any permanent good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I had taken them only a few days when I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished the box I found that they had brought about so decided an improvement in my condition as to convince me of their real worth, and I am more than thankful for the relief that I have received."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President Roosevelt in his annual message again urges the enactment of a law prohibiting corporations from contributing to campaign funds. He also urges the passage of the measure conferring upon the government the right of appeal in criminal cases in questions of law. Continuing, the president says:

I cannot too strongly urge the passage of the bill in question. A failure to pass it will result in seriously hampering the government in its effort to obtain justice against wealthy individuals or corporations who to wit and may also prevent the government from obtaining justice for wage-workers who are not themselves able effectively to contest a case where the judgment of an inferior court has been against them. I have specifically in view a recent decision by a district judge leaving railway employees without remedy for violation of a certain so-called labor statute. The importance of enacting into law the particular bill in question is further increased by the fact that the government has now definitely begun a policy of resorting to the criminal law in those trust and interstate commerce cases where such a course offers a reasonable chance of success.

Proper Use of Injunctions.

In my last message I suggested the enactment of a law in connection with the issuance of injunctions, attention having been sharply drawn to the matter by the demand that the right of applying injunctions in labor cases should be wholly abolished. It is at least doubtful whether a law abolishing altogether the use of injunctions in such cases would stand the test of the courts, in which case, of course, the legislation would be ineffective. Moreover, I believe it would be wrong altogether to prohibit the use of injunctions. It is criminal to permit sympathy for criminal law, and if men seek to destroy life or property by mob violence there should be no impairment of the power of the courts to deal with them in the most summary and effective way possible. But so far as possible the abuse of the power should be provided against by some such law as I advocated last year.

Against Lynching.

I call your attention and the attention of the nation to the prevalence of crime among us, and above all, to the epidemic of lynching and mob violence that springs up now in one part of our country, now in another. Each section, north, south, east or west, has its own faults. No section can with wisdom spread its time jeering at the faults of another section. It should be busy trying to amend its own shortcomings. To deal with the crime of corruption it is necessary to have an awakened public conscience and to supplement this by whatever legislation will add speed and certainty in the execution of the law. When we deal with lynching even more is necessary. A great many white men are lynched, but the crime is peculiarly frequent in respect to black men. The greatest existing cause of lynching is the perpetration, especially by white men, of the heinous crime of rape, the most abominable in all the category of crimes, even worse than murder.

Lawlessness grows by what it feeds upon, and when mobs begin to lynch for rape they speedily extend the sphere of their operations and lynch for many other kinds of crimes, so that two-thirds of the lynchings are not for rape at all, while a considerable proportion of the individuals lynched are innocent of all crime.

There is but one safe rule in dealing with black men as with white men. It is the same rule that must be applied in dealing with rich men and poor men—that is, to treat each man whatever his color, his creed or his social position, with even handed justice on his real worth as a man. White people owe it quite as much to themselves as to the colored race to treat well the colored man who shows his life that he deserves such treatment. There is no question of social equality or negro domination involved.

In my judgment, the crime of rape should always be punished with death, as is the case with murder. Assault with intent to commit rape should be made a capital crime, at least in the discretion of the court, and provision should be made by which the punishment may fall immediately upon the heads of the offenders.

No more short-sighted policy can be imagined than in the fancied interest of one class to prevent the education of another class. The white man, if he is wise, will decline to allow the negroes in a mass to grow to manhood and womanhood without education.

"Preachers of Mere Discontent."

In dealing with both labor and capital, with the questions affecting both corporations and trades unions, there is one matter more important to remember than might else, and that is the infinite harm done by preachers of mere discontent. These are the men who seek to excite a violent class hatred against all men of wealth. They seek to turn wise and proper movements for the better control of corporations and for doing away with the abuses connected with wealth into a campaign of hysterical excitement and falsehood in which the aim is to inflame to madness the brutal passions of mankind. These sinister demagogues and foolish visionaries who are always eager to undertake such a campaign of destruction sometimes seek to associate themselves with those working for a genuine reform in governmental and social methods and sometimes masquerade as such reformers. In reality they are the worst enemies of the cause they profess to advocate, just as the purveyors of sensational slanders in newspaper or magazine are the worst enemies of all men who are engaged in an honest effort to better what is bad in our social and governmental conditions.

Corruption is never so rife as in communities where the demagogue and the agitator bear full sway, because in such communities all moral bands become loosened, and hysteria and sensationalism replace the spirit of sound judgment and fair dealing as between man and man. In sheer revolt against the squalid anarchy thus produced men are sure in the end to turn toward any leader who can restore order, and then their relief at being free from the intolerable burdens of class hatred, violence and demagoguery is such that they cannot for some time be aroused to indignation against misdeeds by men of wealth, so that they permit a new growth of the very abuses which were in part responsible for the original outbreak. The one hope for success for our people lies in a resolute and fearless but sane and cool headed advance along the path marked out last year by this very congress. There must be a stern refusal to be misled into following either that base creature who appeals and panders to the lowest instincts and passions in order to arouse one set of Americans against their fellows or that other creature, equally base, but no baser, who in a spirit of greed or to accumulate or add to an already huge fortune seeks to exploit his fellow Americans with callous disregard to their welfare of soul and body. The man who debauches others in order to obtain a high office stands on an evil equality of corruption with the man who debauches others for financial profit, and when hatred is sown the crop which springs up can only be evil.

The plain people who think—the mechanics, farmers, merchants, workers with head or hand, the men to whom American traditions are dear, who love their country and try to act decently by their neighbors—owe it to themselves to remember that the most damaging blow that can be given popular government is to elect an unworthy and sinister agitator on a platform of violence and hypocrisy.

Railroad Employees' Hours.

I call your attention to the need of passing the bill limiting the number of hours of employment of railroad employees. The measure is a very moderate one, and I can conceive of no serious objection to it. Indeed, so far as it is in our power, it should be our aim steadily to reduce the number of hours of labor, with as a goal the general introduction of an eight hour day. There are industries in which it is not possible that the hours of labor should be reduced, just as there are communities not far enough advanced for such a movement to be for their good, or if in the tropics, so situated that there is no analogy between their needs and ours in this matter. On the isthmus of Panama, for instance, the conditions are in every way so different from what they are here that an eight hour day would be absurd, just as it is absurd, so far as the isthmus is concerned, where white labor cannot be employed, to bother as to whether the necessary work is done by alien black men or by alien yellow men. But the wage-workers of the United States are of so high a grade that alien from the merely industrial standpoint and from the civic standpoint it should be our object to do what we can in the direction of securing the general observance of an eight hour day.

Let me again urge that the congress provide for a thorough investigation of the conditions of child labor and of the labor of women in the United States. The horrors incident to the employment of young children in factories or at work anywhere are a blot on our civilization.

In spite of all precautions exercised by employers there are unavoidable accidents and even deaths involved in nearly every line of business connected with the mechanic arts. It is a great social injustice to compel the employee, or, rather, the family of the killed or disabled victim, to bear the entire burden of such an inevitable sacrifice. In other words, society shirks its duty by laying the whole cost of the victim, whereas the injury comes from what may be called the legitimate risks of the trade. Compensation for accidents or deaths due in any line of industry to the actual conditions under which that industry is carried on should be paid by that portion of the community for the benefit of which the industry is carried on—that is, by those who profit by the industry. If the entire trade risk is placed upon the employer, he will promptly and properly add it to the legitimate cost of production and assess it proportionately upon the consumers of his commodity.

It is therefore clear to my mind that the law should place this entire "risk of a trade" upon the employer.

Capital and Labor Disputes.

Records show that during the twenty years from Jan. 1, 1881, to Dec. 31, 1900, there were strikes affecting 117,500 establishments, and 6,105,694 employees were thrown out of employment. During the same period there were 1,005 lockouts, involving nearly 10,000 establishments, throwing over 1,000,000 people out of employment. These strikes and lockouts involved an estimated loss to employees of $307,000,000 and to employers of $143,000,000, a total of $450,000,000. The public suffered directly and indirectly probably as great additional loss.

Many of these strikes and lockouts would not have occurred had the parties to the dispute been required to appear before an unprejudiced body representing the nation and, face to face, state the reasons for their contention. The exercise of a judicial spirit by a disinterested body representing the federal government, such as would be provided by a commission on conciliation and arbitration, would tend to create an atmosphere of friendliness and conciliation between contending parties.

Control of Corporations.

It cannot too often be repeated that experience has conclusively shown the impossibility of securing by the action of nearly half a hundred different state legislatures anything but ineffective classes in the way of dealing with the great corporations which do not operate exclusively within the limits of any one state. In some method, whether by a national Federal law or in other fashion, we must exercise, and that at an early date, a far more complete control than at present over these great corporations—a control that will, among other things, prevent the evils of excessive overcapitalization and that will compel the disclosure by each big corporation of its stockholders and of its properties and business, whether owned directly or through subsidiary or affiliated corporations. This will tend to put a stop to the securing of inordinate profits by favored individuals at the expense whether of the general public, the stockholders or the wage-workers. Our effort should be not so much to prevent consolidation as such, but so to supervise and control it as to see that it results in no harm to the people.

Combination of capital, like combination of labor, is a necessary element of our present industrial system. It is not possible completely to prevent it, and if it were possible such complete prevention would do damage to the body politic. What we need is not vainly to try to prevent all combination, but to secure such rigorous and adequate control and supervision of the combinations as to prevent their injuring the public or existing in such form as inevitably to threaten injury. For the mere fact that a combination has secured practically complete control of a necessary of life would under any circumstances show that such combination was to be presumed to be adverse to the public interest. It is unfortunate that our present laws should forbid all combinations instead of sharply discriminating between those combinations which do good and those combinations which do evil. Regulations, for instance, are as often due to the pressure of big shippers (as was shown in the investigation of the Standard Oil company and as has been shown since by the investigation of the tobacco and sugar trusts) as to the initiative of big railroads. Often railroads would like to combine for the purpose of preventing a big shipper from maintaining improper advantages at the expense of small shippers and of the general public. Such a combination, instead of being forbidden by law, should be favored. In other words, it should be permitted to railroads to make agreements, provided these agreements were sanctioned by the interstate commerce commission and were published. With these two conditions complied with it is impossible to see what harm such a combination could do to the public at large.

Inheritance and Income Tax.

The national government has long derived its chief revenue from a tariff on imports and from an internal or excise tax. In addition to these, there is every reason why, when next our system of taxation is revised, the national government should impose a graduated inheritance tax and, if possible, a graduated income tax.

I am well aware that such a subject as this needs long and careful study in order that the people may be properly informed with what is proposed to be done, may clearly see the necessity of proceeding with wisdom and self-restraint and may make up their minds just how far they are willing to go in the matter, while only trained legislators can work out the project in necessary detail. But I feel that in the near future our national legislators should enact a law providing for a graduated inheritance tax by which a steadily increasing rate of duty should be put upon all moneys or other valuables coming by gift, bequest or devise to any individual or corporation. There can be no question of the ethical propriety of the government thus determining the conditions upon which any gift or inheritance should be received.

As the law now stands it is undoubtedly the duty of the national government to devise a national income tax which shall be constitutional. But whether it is absolutely impossible is another question, and if possible it is most certainly desirable. The first purely income tax law was passed by the congress in 1861, but the most important law dealing with the subject was that of 1894. This the court held to be unconstitutional.

The question is undoubtedly very intricate, delicate and troublesome. The decision of the court was only reached by one majority. It is the law of the land and of course is accepted as such and loyally obeyed by all good citizens. Nevertheless the hesitation evidently felt by the court as a whole in coming to a conclusion, when considered together with previous decisions on the subject, may perhaps indicate the possibility of devising a constitutional income tax law which shall substantially accomplish the results aimed at. The difficulty of amending the constitution is so great that only real necessity can justify a resort thereto. Every effort should be made in dealing with this subject, as with the subject of the proper control by the national government over the use of corporate wealth in interstate business, to devise legislation which without such action shall attain the desired end, but if this fails there will ultimately be no alternative to a constitutional amendment.

Industrial Training.

Our industrial development depends largely upon technical education, including in this technical industrial education from that which fits a man to be a good mechanic or a good carpenter or a good smith to that which fits a man to do the greatest engineering feat, the skilled mechanic the skilled workman, can best become such by technical industrial education. The far-reaching usefulness of institutes of technology and schools of mines or of engineering is now universally acknowledged, and as less far reaching is the effect of a good building or mechanical trades school, a textile or watchmaking or engraving school.

In every possible way we should help the wage-worker who toils with his hands and who must ever hope in a constantly increasing measure also all with his brain. Under the constitution the national legislature can do but little of direct importance for his welfare save where he is engaged in work which permits it to act under the interstate commerce clause of the constitution, and this is one reason why I so earnestly hope that both the legislative and judicial branches of the government will continue this clause of the constitution in the broadest possible manner.

The Farmer.

The only other persons whose welfare is as vital to the welfare of the whole country as is the welfare of the wage-workers are the tillers of the soil, the farmers.

Several factors must co-operate in the improvement of the farmer's condition. He must have the chance to be educated in the widest possible sense, in the sense which keeps ever in view the intimate relationship between the theory of education and the facts of life.

Organization has become necessary in the business world, and it has accomplished much for good in the world of labor. It is no less necessary for farmers. Such a movement as the grange movement is good in itself and is capable of a well nigh infinite further extension for good so long as it is kept to its own legitimate business. The benefits to be derived by the association of farmers for mutual advantage are partly economic and partly social.

Irrigation and Forest Preservation.

Much is now being done for the states of the Rocky mountains and great plains through the development of the national policy of irrigation and forest preservation. No government policy for the betterment of our internal conditions has been more fruitful of good than this.

Divorce Legislation.

I am well aware of how difficult it is to pass a constitutional amendment. Nevertheless, in my judgment, the whole question of marriage and divorce should be relegated to the authority of the national congress. The change would be good from every standpoint. In particular it would be good because it would confer on the congress the power at once to deal radically and efficiently with polygamy, and this should be done whether or not marriage and divorce are dealt with. It is neither safe nor proper to leave the question of polygamy to be dealt with by the several states.

Merchant Marine.

Let me once again call the attention of the congress to two subjects concerning which I have frequently before communicated with them. One is the question of developing American shipping. I trust that a law enacting in substance the views of a major part of the views expressed in the report on this subject laid before the house at its last session will be passed. It seems to me that the proposed measure is as nearly unobjectionable as any can be.

The Currency.

I especially call your attention to the second subject, the condition of our currency laws. The national bank act has ably served a great purpose in adding the enormous business development of the country, and within ten years there has been an increase in circulation per capita from $21.41 to $23.08. For several years evidence has been accumulating that additional legislation is needed. The recurrence of such crop seasons emphasizes the defects of the present laws. There must soon be a revision of them, because to leave them as they are means to our liability of business disaster. Since our body adjourned there has been a fluctuation in the interest on call money from 2 per cent to 20 per cent, and the fluctuation was even greater during the preceding six months. The secretary of the treasury had to step in and by wise action put a stop to the most violent period of oscillation.

I do not press any special plan. Various plans have recently been proposed by expert committees of bankers. Among the plans which are possibly feasible and which certainly should receive your consideration is that repeatedly brought to your attention by the present secretary of the treasury, the essential features of which have been approved by many prominent bankers and business men. According to this plan, national banks should be permitted to issue a specified proportion of their capital in notes of a given kind, the issue to be taxed at so high a rate as to drive the notes back when not wanted in legitimate trade. This plan would not permit the issue of currency to give banks additional profits, but to meet the emergency presented by times of stringency.

I do not say that this is the right system. I only advance it to emphasize my belief that there is need for the adoption of some system which shall be automatic and open to all sound banks so as to avoid all possibility of discrimination and favoritism.

The law should be amended so as specifically to provide that the funds derived from customs duties may be retained by the secretary of the treasury independence. If the elections become a force and if the insurrectionary habit becomes continued on the island it is absolutely out of the question that the island should continue independent, and the United States, which has assumed the sponsorship before the civilized world for Cuba's career as a nation, would again have to intervene and to see that the government was managed in such orderly fashion as to secure the safety of life and property.

The Rio Conference.

The second international conference of American republics, held in Mexico in the years 1901-02, provided for the holding of the third conference within five years and committed the fixing of the time and place and the arrangements for the conference to the governing board of the bureau of American republics, composed of the representatives of all the American nations in Washington. That board discharged the duty imposed upon it with marked fidelity and painstaking care, and upon the courteous invitation of the United States of Brazil the conference was held at Rio de Janeiro, continuing from the 23d of July to the 29th of August last. Many subjects of common interest to all the American nations were discussed by the conference, and the conclusions reached, embodied in a series of resolutions and proposed conventions, will be laid before you upon the coming of the final report of the American delegates.

Panama Trip.

I have just returned from a trip to Panama and shall report to you at length later on the whole subject of the Panama canal.

The Algeiras Convention.

The Algeiras convention, which was signed by the United States as well as by most of the powers of Europe, supersedes the previous convention of 1880, which was also signed both by the United States and a majority of the European powers. This treaty confers upon us equal commercial rights with all European countries and does not entail a single obligation of any kind upon us, and I earnestly hope it may be speedily ratified.

Sealing.

The destruction of the Pribilof island fur seals by pelagic sealing still continues. The herd, which, according to the survey made in 1874 by direction of the congress, numbered 4,700,000, and which, according to the survey of both American and Canadian commissioners in 1891, amounted to about 180,000, has now been reduced to about 180,000. This result has been brought about by Canadian and some other sealing vessels killing the female seals while in the water during their annual pilgrimage to and from the south or in search of food.

The process of destruction has been accelerated during recent years by the appearance of a number of Japanese vessels engaged in pelagic sealing.

Suitable representations regarding the incident have been made to the government of Japan, and we are assured that all practicable measures will be taken by that country to prevent any recurrence of the outrage.

We have not relaxed our efforts to secure an agreement with Great Britain for adequate protection of the seal herd, and negotiations with Japan for the same purpose are in progress. The laws for the protection of the seals within the jurisdiction of the United States need revision and amendment.

Second Hague Conference.

In my last message I advised you that the emperor of Russia had taken the initiative in bringing about a second peace conference at The Hague. Under the guidance of Russia the arrangement of the preliminaries for such a conference has been progressing during the past year. Progress has necessarily been slow, owing to the great number of countries to be consulted upon every question that has arisen. It is a matter of satisfaction that all of the American republics have now, for the first time, been invited to join in the proposed conference.

Army and Navy.

It must ever be kept in mind that war is not merely justifiable, but imperative upon honorable men, upon an honorable nation where peace can only be obtained by the sacrifice of conscientious conviction or of national welfare.

The United States navy is the surest guarantor of peace which this country possesses. I do not ask that we continue to increase our navy. I ask merely that it be maintained at its present strength, and this can be done only if we replace the obsolete and worn ships by new and good ones, the equals of any other in any navy. To stop building ships for one year means that for that year the navy goes back instead of forward.

In both the army and the navy there is urgent need that everything possible should be done to maintain the highest standard for the personnel alike as regards the officers and the enlisted men. I do not believe that in any service there is a finer body of enlisted men and of junior officers than we have in both the army and the navy, including the marine corps.

West Point and Annapolis already turn out excellent officers. We do not need to have these schools made more scholastic. On the contrary, we should never lose sight of the fact that the aim of each school is to turn out a man who shall be above everything else a fighting man.

There should soon be an increase in the number of men for our coast defenses. These men should be of the right type and properly trained, and there should therefore be an increase of pay for certain skilled grades, especially in the coast artillery. Money should be appropriated to permit troops to be massed in body and exercised in maneuvers, particularly in marching.

any as he treats funds obtained under the internal revenue laws. There should be a considerable increase in bills of small denominations. Permission should be given banks, if necessary under settled restrictions, to retire their circulation to a larger amount than three millions a month.

Our Outlying Possessions.

I most earnestly hope that the bill to provide a lower tariff for or else absolute free trade in Philippine products will become a law. No harm will come of any American industry, and while there will be some small but real material benefit to the Filipinos, the main benefit will come by the showing made as to our purpose to do all in our power for their welfare.

Porto Rican Affairs.

American citizenship should be conferred on the citizens of Porto Rico. The harbor of San Juan, in Porto Rico, should be dredged and improved. The expenses of the federal court of Porto Rico should be met from the federal treasury.

Hawaii.

The needs of Hawaii are peculiar. Every aid should be given the islands, and our efforts should be unceasing to develop them along the lines of a community of small freeholders, not of great planters with coolly tilled estates.

Alaska.

Alaska's needs have been partially met, but there must be a complete reorganization of the governmental system, as I have before indicated to you. I ask your especial attention to this. Our fellow citizens who dwell on the shores of Puget sound with characteristic energy are arranging to hold in Seattle the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. This exposition in its purposes and scope should appeal not only to the people of the Pacific slope, but to the people of the United States at large.

Rights of Aliens.

Not only must we treat all nations fairly, but we must treat with justice and good will all immigrants who come here under the law. Whether they are Catholic or Protestant, Jew or gentile, whether they come from England or Germany, Russia, Japan or Italy, matters nothing. All we have a right to question is the man's conduct. If he is honest and upright in his dealings with his neighbor and with the state, then he is entitled to respect and good treatment. Especially do we need to remember our duty to the stranger within our gates. It is the sure mark of a low civilization, a low morality, to abuse or discriminate against or in any way humiliate such stranger who has come here lawfully and who is conducting himself properly. To remember this is incumbent on every American citizen, and it is of course peculiarly incumbent on every government official, whether of the nation or of the several states.

I am prompted to say this by the attitude of hostility here and there assumed toward the Japanese in this country. This hostility is sporadic and is limited to a very few places. Nevertheless it is most discredit to us as a people, and it may be fraught with the gravest consequences to the nation.

I ask fair treatment for the Japanese as I would ask fair treatment for Germans or Englishmen, Frenchmen, Russians or Italians. I ask it as due to humanity and civilization. I ask it as due to ourselves, because we must act uprightly toward all men. I recommend to the congress that an act be passed specifically providing for the naturalization of Japanese who come here intending to become American citizens. One of the great embarrassments attending the performance of our international obligations is the fact that the statutes of the United States are entirely inadequate. They fail to give to the national government sufficiently ample power, through United States courts and by the use of the army and navy, to protect aliens in the rights secured to them under solemn treaties which are the law of the land.

I therefore earnestly recommend that the criminal and civil statutes of the United States be so amended and added to as to enable the president, acting for the United States government, which is responsible in our international relations, to enforce the rights of aliens under treaties.

The Cuban Matter.

Last August an insurrection broke out in Cuba which it speedily grew evident that the existing Cuban government was powerless to quell. Thanks to the promptness of our navy, I was able immediately to send enough ships to Cuba to prevent the situation from becoming hopeless, and I further dispatched to Cuba the secretary of war and the assistant secretary of state in order that they might grapple with the situation on the ground.

In accordance with the so called Platt amendment, which was embodied in the constitution of Cuba, I thereupon proclaimed a provisional government for the island, the secretary of war acting as provisional governor until he could be replaced by Mr. Macoon, the late minister to Panama and governor of the canal zone on the isthmus. Troops were sent to support them and to relieve the navy, the expedition being handled with most satisfactory speed and efficiency. Peace has come in the island, and the harvesting of the sugar cane crop, the great crop of the island, is about to proceed. When the election has been held and the new government inaugurated in peaceful and orderly fashion the provisional government will come to an end.

The United States wishes nothing of Cuba except that it shall prosper morally and materially and wishes nothing of the Cubans save that they shall be able to preserve order among themselves and therefore to preserve their

THE FAME OF OLD PETERSBURG REVIVED

ONCE NOTED AS A COACHING POINT AND NOW BECOMES CONSPICUOUS FOR ITS COAL MINES

SCENE IS VISITED BY A KENTUCKY NEW ERA REPRESENTATIVE

Old Petersburg, formerly one of the most important stopping points for stage coaches in this section when this was the only method for overland travel, but which had in latter years steadily declined on account of the L. & N. railroad being built through the country and leaving it off their line, now bids fair once more to come into prominence and again take on a bustling and wide-awake aspect. In the days of long ago the inn at Petersburg was famous throughout this end of the state for the unusually fine table which was spread, the woods thereabout furnishing ample venison, turkeys and other game to keep the table supplied the year round. When long journeys had to be made by stage coach it was the custom to lay off for a few days during the journey in, or to recuperate, and in these cases Petersburg was always the place selected for the rest. With the passing away of the historic stage coach, Petersburg was robbed of its former prestige and glory and for many years had been only a small county village.

Now, however, its reputation promises again to be established, this time not for good eating but for what is more important, the furnishing of fuel in large quantities.

Old Petersburg is located on top of a high hill and at the base of this a most promising vein of coal has been struck and is now being developed by working day and night and every indication points to the lead proving even better than had been expected when it was discovered. This new mine is the property of the Terry Coal & Coke company, composed of Christian county people exclusively, and is located within less than a mile of the famous Empire mine. The coal mined here is of the same high grade and about the same chemical analysis as that mined at Empire.

The Terry Coal & Coke company really own and operate two mines. One of these, and this was the first opened and is now producing coal in large quantities, is located some distance further up the valley and farther away from the railroad than is the new mine. This older mine has proved its worth and is now being worked solely to supply the wagon trade.

The new mine which has been opened since the thirty-first day of last July, is located much closer to the railroad and when it has been proven and is fitted with machinery so that coal may be hauled in car load lots, it is the purpose of the management of the company to ship all the coal mined here. The vein here is four to five feet thick and was struck at a depth of thirty-five feet, which was blasted through solid gray matter. The coal was not reached by means of a shaft as is so often done in coal mines, but by what is termed a slope. This "slope" is a decline entrance, the fall in this being one foot for every five feet traversed. Several cars of coal have already been taken out of this mine, and a few cars have been shipped to customers.

In order to load this coal on the cars, though, it was necessary to haul it in wagons to Mannington, about half a mile distant. This method was slow and tedious and now that the output of the mine has been guaranteed by the results which have been already attained, it is the purpose of the company to build a track connecting them with the L. & N. track. It is also desired to build a tippie house into which the coal can be hoisted as it is brought from the mines and then dumped into the cars as it is needed, first passing over the graduated screens which will separate the different grades into their respective cars.

For the purpose of raising this money a limited amount of stock in the company will be placed on the market and as soon as the desired amount is secured the stock will be withdrawn. The distance to the railroad has already been surveyed, and it only remains to begin the actual work of laying the track. The proposed route is through a scrubby timbered bottom, which is almost as level as a floor and only surface grading would be necessary. For this reason the road can be built at a comparatively small cost. The tippie house can also be built at a small cost and when these two additions are secured the mine will be on a basis where it can meet any competition and ship coal in as large quantities as any other mine.

The Terry Coal & Coke company was formed among the citizens of this county for their protection. Every stockholder can buy coal at a special price, thus saving quite a neat sum every year in this way. Then with the increased business brought by the larger shipments to outside parties at profit bearing prices the stock is expected to pay a comfortable dividend.

When these things are accomplished and the new mine is running in full blast with loaded trains departing and incoming trains bringing in strings of empty cars to be filled, Old Petersburg will once more return to life for the business will require the employment of hundreds of miners who will reside there with their families, and while travelers may not visit it as of yore, thousands of people in homes hundreds of miles away will have cause, while they sit comfortably before their blazing fires of best coal mined there, to think of the famous old town which has taken on new life and is again a thriving place with no intimation of a return to its once comatose condition.

If the fiscal court of Christian county would metal the road from here to the mines of the Terry Coal & Coke company, all danger of a coal famine in this city and county would be overcome. The present scarcity of coal is caused, not by the failure of the mines to get it out, but in the inability of the railroads to furnish sufficient cars to transport it. If the Madisonville road from here to these mines were pike, however, coal could be hauled in wagons and the consumers would not be dependent upon the railroad. This is a matter vitally affecting every citizen of the county and should be looked into at once. d. lt. w. lt.

This Announcement.

Indianapolis, Ind.,
Dec. 11, 1906.

Kentucky New Era.

Hopkinsville, Ky.

To the Editor:—I have read with much feeling of sorrow, reports of the burning of tobacco warehouses and barns in Kentucky, and so confident am I that the methods and teachings of the American Society of Equity have not instigated there-to, or in any way contributed to acts of lawlessness or violence, but, on the contrary, those who accept its teachings and act upon them must proceed not only according to law but according to equity, that I will personally add $200 to any fund that may be raised for the investigation of said acts of incendiarism, or will pay this independently of any fund, provided said investigation leads to prosecution and conviction. This sum is now subject to the order of the officers of the state of Kentucky charged with the enforcement of the laws as above.
