U.S. To Start 204th Year After Close-To-Home Fourth Of July

By JOHN W. GONZALEZ
Associated Press Writer

The nation starts its 204th year of democracy today after a close-to-home Fourth of July that saw citizens skipping rocks on a Michigan lake, smoking marijuana near the White House and marching against nuclear power in Maine.

People were also scrambling for gasoline and sunlight on Wednesday, a day that will be remembered in some areas for its lack of fuel and abundance of rain.

The day had its tragedies, too: More than 115 persons died on the nation's highways between 6 p.m. Tuesday and 12:01 a.m. local times today, the National Safety Council reported.

A Maryland man was killed when he fell off a float that was heading home from a rained-out parade.

Four persons in Illinois were injured when a test rocket at a Jaycees fireworks display landed in the fireworks stash.

A third person died from injuries resulting from an explosion in a Philadelphia house where police say illegal fireworks were being made. And in Boston, ailing 83-year-old maestro Arthur Fiedler had to sit out the Independence Day concert on the banks of the Charles River — an event he originated in 1923.

Speeches on the state of the union came from the Rev. Billy Graham, who

Henry Reappointed To State Vocational Education Council

Don Henry, chairman of the Murray Independent Board of Education, recently was reappointed to the State Advisory Vocational Education Council by Gov. Julian Carroll.

Henry has been on the 26-member council for two years and his reappointment is through 1982.

Members of the council represent certain segments of the state, according to Henry. He added he represents the state school board.

clearing and cool

Clearing and cooler tonight. Lows in the upper 50s to around 60. Friday, mostly sunny and mild. Highs again in the low 80s. Winds diminishing to less than 10 mph tonight.

Extended Forecast

Kentucky's extended weather outlook for Saturday through Monday calls for partly sunny and mild days and clear, cool nights through the period.

deplored the nation's energy crisis from the Capitol steps in Washington, D.C., and from recently-retired NATO commander Gen. Alexander Haig, who told Philadelphians the U.S. is in "the most challenging period in the history of our great nation."

In a lighter vein, T. Willard Hunter of Claremont, Calif., claimed to have set a record for the longest speech ever given on the American Revolution. He spoke three hours to amused passers-by.

The Fourth was observed as far away as China, where touring comedian Bob Hope led a celebration at the U.S. Embassy in Peking. It was the first Fourth commemorated here since relations between the U.S. and China were normalized.

In Tehran, Iran, the U.S. Embassy grounds served as a private picnic site

President Carter and his family spent the day in seclusion at the presidential retreat at Camp David, Md.

Seclusion was not always possible on sunny beaches along the Gulf of Mexico and West Coast, but officials reported few problems with the crowds that poured to the shorelines.

Easterners weren't so lucky. It rained, resulting in cancelled events and disgruntled resort operators with empty rooms.

Grocery Prices Down Slightly During June

By The Associated Press

Consumers got a mid-year break at the supermarket last month, as grocery prices declined slightly, an Associated Press marketbasket survey shows.

The AP found butter and eggs led the list of items which cost less at the start of July than they did a month earlier. The declines were partially offset, however, by rising prices-for-coffee.

The downward trend is not expected to last. Beef supplies will remain tight for the rest of the year; protests by independent truckers are disrupting food shipments and cutting supplies of fruit and vegetables; and the boost in oil prices announced by the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries will make it even more expensive to package food and transport it to market.

The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and non-food items, checked the price at one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973, and has rechecked on or about the start of each succeeding month. One item, chocolate chip cookies, was dropped from the list at the end of November 1977 because the manufacturer discontinued the package size used in the survey.

The latest survey showed that the marketbasket bill increased during June at the checklist store in six cities, rising an average of 3.2 percent. The bill decreased at the checklist store in seven cities, with an average drop of 2.4 percent.

On an overall basis, the average AP marketbasket bill at the checklist store was seven-tenths of a percent lower at the end of the month than it was at the beginning. During May, in contrast, the average marketbasket bill rose one-tenth of a percent.

The dairy counter appeared to offer the best bargains during June, the AP found. The price of a pound of butter declined at the checklist store in six cities; the price of a dozen eggs dropped in seven cities.

Meat prices were mixed; the price of a pound of hot dogs, for example, increased at the checklist store in six cities during June and decreased at the checklist store in six other cities.

Coffee lovers almost everywhere got bad news. The price of a pound of coffee increased at the checklist store in 11 cities, rising to an average of $2.71. The price topped $3 a pound in two cities.

No attempt was made to weight the AP survey results according to population density or in terms of what percent of a family's actual grocery output each item represents. The AP did not try to compare actual prices from city to city. The only comparisons were made in terms of percentages of increase or decrease.

The items on the AP list were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, milk, frankfurters and granulated sugar. The cities checked were: Albuquerque, N.M., Atlanta, Ga., Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, Salt Lake City and Seattle.

System To Keep Kindergarten At MSU If Needed

In addition to the kindergartens at North, Southwest and East Elementary Schools, the Calloway County School System will keep a kindergarten class at the present Murray State University location if demand warrants it.

"If there is enough demand for the MSU location, we will keep one kindergarten class there," school superintendent Jack Rose said. "The convenience of this location for parents who work in Murray and the opportunities afforded our children by MSU seem to make it desirable to keep our University kindergarten."

Any parent who is interested in their child attending kindergarten at the University location should call the board office at 753-3033 as soon as possible, Rose said. Parents who have registered their child for kindergarten at one of the elementary schools may change them to the University location by calling this number.

Parents of children who will be five years old by Sept. 1 and who have not registered them for kindergarten should register at the board office or at any of the elementary schools as soon as possible.

In Effort To Alleviate Tourist Concern

KWW Initiates Weekly Six-County Gas Survey

In an effort to encourage area tourists who may be concerned about the availability of gasoline in the lakes area, Kentucky Western Waterland has initiated a weekly gas survey of 50 stations in the six-county lakes region.

Karen Cissell, public relations director for KWW, an organization devoted to the promotion of travel and recreation in west Kentucky, said today that the gas shortage has "somewhat affected tourism in the area." She said that tourism is down 5 to 10 percent overall with campground areas being the most severely hit of all resort areas.

The survey was begun last week, Cissell noted, in an effort to attract people who may be near the Kentucky Lake-Lake Barkley region but are afraid to venture closer because of the uncertainty of the gas situation.

The survey of stations in Calloway, Trigg, Marshall, Livingston, Lyon and McCracken counties is taken by telephone on Wednesday of each week. Because of the Fourth of July falling on Wednesday, this week's survey was taken on Tuesday. The survey deals with the station openings and their gas supplies.

The stations being polled are those mainly on thoroughfares that tourists would have ready access to, Cissell said. The results of the survey will be made available to anyone who calls the KWW office.

Cissell said that 95 percent of the stations reported that they had gas Tuesday. Sixty-eight percent said that they would definitely have gas this weekend, while 5 percent said that they would be out by the weekend and 28 percent of the station managers were uncertain of their gas supply.

Only 25 percent of the stations planned to be open on Sunday, according to Cissell.

All seven of the stations polled in Calloway County said that they had gas as of Tuesday, however, none of those stations planned to be open on Sunday. Two stations said that they definitely would have gas this weekend, four stations said that they might have gas, and one said that they would be out of gas.

Cissell said that of the counties surveyed the past two weeks, Calloway seemed to have the most limited supplies, while McCracken and Marshall counties appeared to be faring shape.

Elsewhere around the country, some resort operators and officials are buying or pumping their own gas these days in hopes of attracting tourists made road-shy by the current fuel crunch.

In Massachusetts, one resort bought its own gas station and another guaranteed guests a fill-up at a local outlet. The Bemidji, Minn., Chamber of Commerce said it will pay the expenses of any visitor stranded by a lack of fuel.

But gasoline was still a headache over the July Fourth holiday. In many areas, if it wasn't the gas shortage that hurt tourism it was foul weather.

Independence Day traffic was reported lighter than normal in several states — as much as 40 percent or 50 percent below last year's level in California, according to the Highway Patrol.

"People are staying locally in the neighborhood, having barbecues in their backyards, not going anywhere," said Connecticut state trooper Tom Brown.

While some areas, such as the Delaware shore or Detroit-area parks, reported brisk tourist business, an Associated Press spot check found officials at other resort spots were seeking ways to reassure and aid motorists.

Among the examples:

—A group of businessmen from the area around Branson, Mo., is buying fuel on the local market and reselling it to local dealers who have used up their allocations.

—The Bemidji Chamber of Commerce will foot the bill for tourists who can't leave because they can't get gasoline. They will keep paying until fuel is available.

—Jimmy Peak, a year-round ski resort in Hancock, Mass., bought its own gasoline station and pumps fuel Wednesday nights and weekends. The resort got a special allocation because the station is the only one in Hancock, population 700.

Public Hearing Set On Tourism Tax, Commission

A public hearing concerning the possibility of establishing a tourism commission for Murray and the levying of a three percent motor tax on motels will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 12, in the council room at City Hall, 5th and Poplar streets.

The proposed tourism commission would be charged with the responsibility of promoting and aiding any type of activity which would bring visitors to Murray. City officials are urging anyone with ideas about what such a commission should do to promote Murray to attend the meeting.

The hearing will be held prior to the start of the regularly scheduled city council meeting.

Three Children Lose Lives During Holiday

By The Associated Press

Three children were among the five Kentuckians who lost their lives in traffic accidents during the July 4th holiday.

State police said Bobby Lyndon Sloane, 11, of Sloane's Fork in Knott County, was killed Wednesday evening when he fell from an auto and it ran over his body.

The accident occurred in Knott County.

Cara Wooldridge, 2-month-old from Princeton, died early Wednesday after she was injured in a two-car crash Tuesday night in Trigg County.

State police at Mayfield said the car in which the child was riding collided head-on with another, which was being operated without headlights. No charges had been filed.

Officers said Joyce Lynn Sons, 8, of Mt. Sterling, died Wednesday afternoon at the University of Kentucky Medical Center the result of injuries received in an accident at 2:45 p.m. at the limits of her home town. The child was a passenger in one of two vehicles that collided at the intersection of Kentucky highways 686 and 713 in Montgomery County, police said.

Daniel Martin Lucas, 25, of Fort Knox, died Tuesday night after a two-car crash in Meade County, according to state police. The accident occurred on U.S. 31W in Muldraugh.

A motorcycle-auto collision in Powell County Tuesday night took the life of Timmy Combs of Tribby, state police said. Combs, whose age was not determined, was driving the motorcycle when it was involved in the accident on Kentucky 1002, 4 miles west of Clay City, police said.

The traffic count for the oneday holiday began at 6 p.m. Tuesday and concluded at midnight Wednesday.

The deaths raise Kentucky's highway toll for the year to 412, compared with 388 through the same period last year.

Traffic accidents across the nation took 120 lives during a Fourth of July holiday in which travel was limited by uncertain gasoline supplies and a one-day celebration that kept many close to home.

The National Safety Council had estimated 120 to 180 lives could be lost on streets and highways from 6 p.m. Tuesday to midnight Wednesday. In a comparable non-holiday period at this time of year, 110 traffic deaths could be expected, the council said.

During a four-day Independence Day weekend last year, there were 706 highway deaths. The worst toll for the holiday was 758 over a four-day weekend in 1972.

The last one-day celebration was in 1973 when 194 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents.

Kathy Halford Honored With Tea Shower

Miss Kathy Halford, July 7th bride-elect of Joe Wayne Thweatt, was honored with a tea shower held Thursday, June 14, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Community Room of the North Branch of the Peoples Bank.
The hostesses were Mesdames Jo Mathis, Jill Mathis, Ann Coursey, Cindy Ross, and Debbie Orr, aunts and cousins of the groom-elect.
Miss Halford, her mother, Mrs. William H. Halford, and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. Joe Pat Thweatt, were presented corsages by the hostesses.
The tea table was covered with a floor length polyester cloth and centered with an arrangement of silk flowers. Crystal and silver appointments were used to serve the nuts and mints. Punch, layer cakes, and finger sandwiches were served.
The gifts were displayed on a table overlaid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink silk flowers entwined with a pair of doves.
Angie Thweatt presided at the guest register. Approximately 80 guests attended or sent gifts.

Stokes-Futrell Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ed Stokes of Murray announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Terri Lou, to Jimmy Lynn Futrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Futrell of Murray.
Miss Stokes is the granddaughter of Mrs. Nova Andrus Cohoon and the late Nathan Euphrey Cohoon, and of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stokes, all of Murray.
The bride-elect graduated from Murray High School in the class of 1975 and attended Murray State University. She is now employed at the MSU Library.
Mr. Futrell is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Bishop and of Mr. and Mrs. Rice Futrell, all of Murray.
The groom-elect graduated from Calloway County High School in the class of 1973. He is now attending Murray State University and is employed by James D. Futrell Real Estate Development.
The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday, July 28, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of the bride-elect's parents. A reception will follow the ceremony.
All friends and relatives are invited to attend. Only out of town invitations will be sent.

Heather Kodman Named For Creative Arts Scholarship

The Creative Arts Department of the Murray Woman's Club has awarded the Annette Schmidt Art Scholarship to Heather Kodman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Kodman of Murray.
Miss Kodman, a recent graduate of Murray High School, displayed examples of her varied artistic talents at the annual brunch of the Creative Arts Department. The $250 award is given each year to a Calloway County majoring in art at Murray State University.
For a number of years the Creative Arts Department has been contributing to the art education of deserving students at Murray State through the giving of scholarships to students who are art majors and who show promise in the field of art.
In 1969 the department elected to give a scholarship for a college student. The members of the department voted to name this award the Annette Schmidt Scholarship Award. Mrs. Schmidt was active in Creative Arts for a number of years, both as a participating member and as an instructor in many art areas. After her death in 1970, the scholarship was named in her memory.
In order to finance such an educational project, the Creative Arts Department has held a bazaar in November of each year. Members donate their time and talents by making art items of all kinds to be sold. The J. E. Littleton store and the Calloway Public Library have provided space for the sale over the years.
Mrs. Estelle Morehead, who is the mother of Annette Schmid, was also honored at the recent Creative Arts meeting. Mrs. Morehead has contributed each year to the scholarship awarded in honor of her daughter. This year she presented $2,000 to guarantee that the Annette Schmidt Art Award will be a perpetual scholarship.

Retiring chairman Ann Brooks welcomed new members to the department.
They are Aurelia Bates, Frances Brown, Sandy Coleman, Martha Cook, Andrea Hogancamp, and Lou Orr.
Mrs. Brooks introduced the 1979-80 officers who are Ginny Cribfield, chairman; Pat Humphreys, vice chairman; Jo Oakley, secretary; Sue Ann Hutson, treasurer.

Murray Christian Women's Luncheon Planned Tuesday

The Murray Christian Women's Club luncheon will be held Tuesday, July 10, at 12 noon at the Holiday Inn.
All women in Murray and surrounding areas are invited to attend this summer luncheon featuring "outdoor cookery" as the special program.
The guest speaker will be Mrs. Deb Erwin from Mt. Vernon, Ill., who will also provide the special music. Mrs. Erwin is the mother of two small children.
A nursery for preschool age children will be provided at the Memorial Baptist Church at a cost of $1.00 per family.
Reservations and cancellations for the luncheon and nursery are essential and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Lois Green at 759-4635 or Mrs. Jane Lamb at 489-2706 by Monday, July 9. The cost of the luncheon will be $4.00.

Problem in communication
DEAR DR. LAMB — I had a heart attack six months ago and the doctors diagnosed it as coronary artery disease with acute anteroseptal myocardial infarction. Since then I've been to three doctors and every time I ask what that means they tell me I've had a heart attack. Believe me, doctor, I know I had a heart attack. What I want to know is how serious and what all that means.
I'm taking four different kinds of medicine — Pronestyl, Isordil, Digoxin, and Coumadin. I know what the Pronestyl and the Coumadin are for but I don't know what the other two are for.
I've not been given a prescription for nitroglycerin tablets so I assume that fat deposits in the arteries are not that bad, or would that have anything to do with it? Does all this medicine affect a man's sex drive and how long does a heart patient have to take anticoagulant medicine? And is it all right to take vitamins and minerals?

FOR FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1979
What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth sign.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) ♈
Problems in communications and travel possible. If meeting relatives, double-check arrangements. New insights re a work project.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) ♉
Avoid arguments with partners; close allies about joint expenditures. You'll come to an important decision re a creative project.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) ♊
Talks with relatives should go well, but relations with close allies subject to conflict. Don't be insistent on your own way.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) ♋
A co-worker's rude attitude could have you muttering to yourself. Check budgets or travel. Avoid hurried meals. Protect health.
LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22) ♌
Anti-social moods could interfere with the success of leisure activities. Sullenness on your part could lead to conflicts.
VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) ♍
Private information about a career matter relieves anxiety, but the timetable still ripe for career-related arguments, especially with family.
LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) ♎
Someone's superior attitude may irk. Avoid conflicts re cultural issues. A friend has privileged news for you. Sidestep trouble.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) ♏
You could be moody about money and if provoked could let others know where you stand. Consult with a business associate about projects.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) ♐
Be considerate of close one's needs. You'll hear about it if at all cavalier. Business meetings bring moderate gains. Speak up.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) ♑
You're seemingly preoccupied and may resent intrusion on your private world. Avoid striking out at others. Keep reactions appropriate.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) ♒
Let others know you're sincerely interested, if invited to a social function. Avoid controversial subjects. Keep things light.
PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20) ♓
Don't accept an invitation for a business lunch if you don't feel up to it. Later, others may be in a contrary mood. Be wary.
YOU BORN TODAY are kindly and hospitable. A sense of ethics governs your life and you are well-suited for public service, welfare work, and education. Not usually innovative, still, you'd make a good worker for causes that interest you, and your sense of responsibility qualifies you for government service. Persons arriving early may wait inside the church and persons leaving their cars parked at the church should leave room for other cars to park and space for the bus to load.
Mrs. Grogan said any person who is unable to attend is asked to contact her as soon as possible by calling 753-0929 as there is a waiting list of persons desiring to go.

Of Interest To Senior Citizens
DEAR READER — I can see you do have a little problem in communication. Those big terms that you're asking about are medical terms for "heart attack." That's why your doctors keep telling you when you ask them what they mean that you had a heart attack. Coronary artery disease means that they think you have fatty-cholesterol blockage in the arteries to your heart muscle and the other term defines the area of heart muscle that was damaged when you had the heart attack. Neither term tells you how severe the attack was. That has to be based on other findings, mostly how well you've recovered since then.
For the benefit of other readers, the Pronestyl is a medicine used to help prevent heart irregularities. Coumadin prevents blood clotting and is an anticoagulant. Digoxin is a digitalis medicine used to help strengthen the heart muscle and prevent heart failure. It's important that you take this regularly as long as your doctor tells you to.

The Isordil is a nitrate and it is used to help prevent heart pain and angina. That has something to do with why you've not been given nitroglycerin tablets.
You shouldn't assume that not getting nitroglycerin tablets means that you don't have blockage in your coronary arteries. That's not the case at all. The nitrates and nitroglycerin are used to help improve the balance between circulation to the heart muscle and how much work the heart does.
You'll need to take the anticoagulant medicine or Coumadin as long as your doctor wants you to. Unless there's a reason not to take it, many patients take it for years. And, of course, you should be able to take vitamins if you want.
It's difficult sometimes to say whether any medicines a person is taking affect his sex life or not. None of the ones you're taking really should. Whenever anyone has a chronic or serious illness, the illness can affect his sex drive. I'm sending you The Health Letter number 2-12, After The Heart Attack. It includes a short discussion on sex and heart attacks. Other readers who want this issue can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Rainey's Day

By RAINEY APPERSON

"The greatest thing that happens in West Kentucky every two years" is the way Charlotte Burrus (Mrs. Vernon) Stubblefield described her Burrus Family reunion. This was the fifth time in ten years this wonderful family has met at Barkley Lodge with 140 persons from 14 states attending. As far away as California, the Burrus family ranges in ages of 7 months old to 91 years old.

A special special secret surprise was the piano duet, played by Charlotte's mother, Mrs. Mary Burrus Shaw, 90, and Mrs. Fanny Dale Rogers, 91, from Los Angeles, Calif. Fanny Dale and Mary had promised to perform two years ago. They were determined to be at the reunion, they said, if they had to roll up in an ambulance, which of course, they did not, as they were two of the friskiest Burrus' family members. Their selection was "El Trayido" by Verdi, and they brought the house down.

Charlotte and Vernon were so happy their children, Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Shaw Stubblefield and family of Richmond, and Robert Stubblefield and his fiancée of Lexington, were present. The timing of the reunion was great for Vernon Shaw, because he was best man this past Saturday night for the wedding of Billy Kopperud and Kathy Rayburn.

Walt's grandfather was Burrus Kennedy, and we're trying to work up a family connection, so we can attend this "happening" which by the way was the brain-child of Mary Burrus Shaw and Shannie Shaw (Mrs. Harold) Rice of Hickman.

Edwina and A. W. Simmons had as their houseguests at the lake, a fun family from Memphis, Molitor and Mary Ann Ford and sons, Price and Mot. Molitor is with First Tennessee Bank of Memphis, and he and A. W. met through the banking business. Catherine and Buddy Simmons enjoyed taking the Ford sons water skiing and showing them the sights on Kentucky Lake.

Barbara Walker Hummel, Miss America of 1947, appeared on a television talk show last Saturday in Memphis, where she makes her home with her husband and family. You will remember that Barbara's late parents were from Hazel, and she still has some Hazel relatives. She is such an attractive woman.

The annual Danny Thomas Open, played at the Colonial Country Club in Memphis, attracted the usual amount of local golf watchers.

One of the unusual things to happen this year was the hole in one made Saturday by newcomer Pat Lindsey, who only made the pro tour about two weeks ago. He almost made a hole in one on the exact same hole the day before, but his two iron shot stopped about one roll of the ball away from the cup. For his ace on Saturday, he won $10,000 and St. Jude's will receive $10,000. Lindsey was laughing saying in the club house, "I've never played before so many people and walking through the crowd made me feel like Rocky." Speaking of crowds, the gas shortage was reflected in a smaller crowd this year, than in years gone by—also some of the bigger name golfers didn't play this year—leaving the winner's circle wide open for the "young breed."

Polly and Dr. Bill Seale have just returned home after spending a week-end in north Chicago in Lake Forrest. They were house guests of their old school chums from Corbin, Karl and Billie Joan Bays. Karl is chief executive for American Hospital Supply Company.

Karl and Billie Joan are avid tennis players and their clay court was a delight for Jim to try his skills. Polly said she was content just to watch, since she's a golfer at heart. They had dinner one night at the beautiful La Winsinia Country Club, there in Lake Forrest, where they used to play polo, but have stopped the last few years.

The Bays are also friends of Tootie and Carl Oakley, as Carl was in high school in Corbin with them also.

We saw in our area this week for a bite of fish and a little recreation, Senator and Mrs. Wendell Ford and family. Also there were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cannon of Nashville, Tenn. (she'd be better recognized as Grand Ole Opry's Minnie Pearl).

Mrs. Fry, Jr.

Now At Home With Family

The following article concerning a former Murrayan appeared in the June 26th issue of The Knoxville News-Sentinel, Knoxville, Tenn.: "Getting to know you..."

"Happily, that time has come for little Douglas Sterling Fry Jr., and his mother. And the admiration is obviously mutual.

"Baby—he is being called Sterling—the first child for Dr. and Mrs. Douglas S. Fry (Dorothy Alice Swann) of Greenville, was born on May 23 at Laughlin Memorial Hospital, Greenville.

"But Mrs. Fry, who became seriously ill at the time of the baby's birth, was transferred to University Hospital here and was in intensive care for three weeks.

"Released from the hospital last week, Mrs. Fry is back home in Greenville and getting ready to mark her son's five weeks birthday tomorrow. She has the assistance of Sterling's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Roy H. Swann, who is visiting from Murray, Ky.

"Sterling's father is a dentist. Baby's paternal grandparents, who took loving care of him during his mother's illness, are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fry of Gatlinburg. Grandfather Fry, retired from the National Park Service, formerly was superintendent of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

"The baby is the nephew of Georgiana Vines, a News-Sentinel assistant city editor."

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

He Ought To Quit This Turkey Cold

DEAR ABBY: Beverly is a beautiful blonde, immaculate and built like a fashion model, age 53, widowed five years. I am average looking, 59, divorced four years and considered a sharp dresser.

We met four years ago. After an on-and-off courtship, we married. We are both employed, occupy a new apartment and have no family members living with us. I have a meager savings account, which I put into a joint savings account.

The problem: Beverly arises at 3:45 a.m., Monday through Friday, takes three minutes to prepare her breakfast, eats in five minutes and spends two hours dressing for work. She leaves at 6 a.m. for a 15-minute drive to an 8 to 4:30 job. (Clerical, not executive.) She arrives home at 4:45 p.m. I usually have dinner ready. We eat together, clean the kitchen, after which she goes to her bathroom and prepares for her next day's work. She retires at 8 p.m., face greased up, lying on her stomach to protect her hairdo and her hands in the air to keep from smudging her freshly polished fingernails. Every Friday evening she allows 15 to 30 minutes for sex because she doesn't have to worry about her hairdo. (Her hair appointment is Saturday morning.)

On weekends she does the laundry and apartment cleaning. (I help.) Because of her routine we invite no guests nor do we accept any invitations out. I do most of the shopping and errands.

We've been married six months, and I've suggested a marriage counselor. That's out. Beverly refuses to discuss our problems or make any adjustments.

Do all beautiful women make poor wives? Divorce seems the only solution. What are your thoughts?

E. IN E.

DEAR E.: All beautiful women do not make poor wives, but yours does. If Beverly refuses counseling, won't adjust or even discuss your problem, your choices are obvious. Either put up with her selfish preoccupation with her needs, or end your marriage.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 34-year-old married woman with one big regret. I quit college after my freshman year. I want very much to have a college degree but, if I go back now, in four years I'll be 37 years old.

HESITANT IN HAZLETON

DEAR HESITANT: How old will you be four years from now if you don't go back to school?

DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd be writing to you, but here I am. I have a close relative who has not visited us for some time and I simply must have her visit soon. (She's been hinting for an invitation.)

I rarely invite her because in the past she has inspected my house like the white tornado. I've seen her very carefully examining every nook and cranny. She even puts on her glasses to inspect my oven!

I have three small children and things do get cluttered, but I think I'm a fairly good housekeeper.

I suppose she wonders why I don't invite her more often, but her inspection tours drive me up a wall.

Any suggestions?

SANTA CLARA READER

DEAR SANTA: Sometime bringing a problem out into the open and kidding on the square about it works wonders. Nickname her "The Sanitation Department" or "The Inspector General," and let her know (good humoredly) that her inspection routine irritates you.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is an avid sports fan who says I am a jinx. He is convinced that if I am in the same room with him, the team he wants to win will lose. He bases his opinion on past experiences. It's true that when I watch a game with him his team either does poorly or loses, but it's just coincidence, and it's ridiculous for him to label me a jinx. It has gotten to the point where his friends will call him up when their team is losing to ask if I'm watching the game with him.

We have a one-bedroom apartment, so there's nowhere for me to go except the bedroom when he wants to watch a game on TV. I have had enough of his nonsense. He promised to listen to your advice.

JINXED IN PHILLY

DEAR JINX: Get yourself a good luck charm. (A rabbit's foot, four-leaf clover or whatever, and announce that it will counteract the "jinx.") And hang in there. There is as much validity to your theory as there is to his.

DEAR ABBY: Six months ago I broke up with my live-in girlfriend. (I'll call her Marsha.) After living together for two years, it became obvious that it just wasn't working out. It was a difficult break to make because although I have lost all feeling for Marsha, she still cares for me.

The problem: I have always had great rapport with Marsha's mother—a neat lady whom I call "Mom." I still see her often. She told me frankly that she hoped one day I'd be her son-in-law, but she never pressured me.

My friends tell me I'm wrong to maintain my friendship with Mom since Marsha might think I'm keeping the door open for a possible reconciliation at a later date. Abby, there is absolutely no chance of ever getting back together with Marsha, but I really like her mother.

What do you think?

M. IN CHICAGO

DEAR M.: As long as Marsha still cares for you, I think it's cruel for you to maintain your friendship with her mother. Be kind. Cool it.

If you need help in writing letters of sympathy, congratulations or thank-you letters, get Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for all Occasions." Send $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents), self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Do you wish you had more friends? For the secret of popularity, get Abby's new booklet: "How To Be Popular; You're Never Too Young or Too Old." Send $1 with a long, self-addressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Kentucky Closeup By George Hackett Associated Press Writer

Father Seeking Adopted Sons

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Robert Beckham's two sons were adopted in 1947 under circumstances which still baffle him.

"They were crying and I was crying when we kissed each other goodbye at the door of the state agency here," he recalled. That was his last contact with them.

Where are they today? "I'd give everything I own for that information," said Beckham, who believes the boys may have been reared by a family in the Lexington area.

He got that clue from the state worker handling the case. "She dropped by my store and hinted that my sons — Bobby Lee and James Carson — might be found in Lexington."

Bobby Lee would be 37 now and his brother would be one year younger — both old enough to understand the story their father has to tell.

Beckham, a native of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., was married there and in 1944 entered the Navy for a two-year hitch.

"The separation resulted in a wartime divorce and I was given custody of the boys while I was still in service. My sister-in-law in Lawrenceburg agreed to take care of them, and I turned over my government allotment to her to help pay for the kids' food and clothing."

Discharged in 1946, he came to Louisville alone looking for work.

"Jobs were scarce and I was having a tough time. One day I received a letter from Kentucky officials asking if I would be willing to put the boys up for adoption. They promised to keep them together."

Beckham was stunned. He hadn't contacted the agency, hadn't given any thought to such an act.

"It happened so fast, was so unexpected, that it confused me. I knew I wouldn't marry again, knew that my sister-in-law couldn't keep the kids forever. What kind of future could I offer them? I had no money."

He signed the papers and now regrets it. "You do something like this on the

Funny World

One day when nylons were on sale at a big department store, a dignified middle-aged gentleman decided to get his wife a pair. But he soon found himself being buffeted and poked by frantic women.

He stood it as long as he could. Then with head lowered and arms flailing, he plowed through the crowd.

"You, there!" challenged a shrill voice. "Can't you act like a gentleman?"

"Hey," he replied, still charging forward. "I've been acting like a gentleman for an hour. From now on, I'm acting like a lady."

spur of the moment and when the deed finally sinks in, it's too late to undo things."

He has no idea how the state obtained his name. "Somebody in my family may have told them. Getting them to admit it would be difficult."

Beckham said he assumes his sons have new names and "I'm a little bit afraid that their foster parents wouldn't like it if they contacted me. I wouldn't want to cause them any trouble but they're up in years now and should know whether they have a desire to see their real father."

If there could be a reunion, Beckham, 56, said it would be the happiest day of his life. "I have a few insurance policies and stuff like that which I'd like for them to have in later years."

But more important, he wants to explain what happened. "They're always two sides to every story. This is mine."

Thoughts In Season

By Ken Wolf

For those in education (or elsewhere) who wish to separate the study of moral issues or questions from more "practical" or career-oriented subjects, these words from the American educational philosopher John Dewey (1859-1952) might be worth pondering: Since morals is concerned with conduct, it grows out of specific empirical facts. . . Hence physics, chemistry, history, statistics, engineering science, are a part of disciplined moral knowledge. . . Moral science is . . . physical, biological and historic knowledge placed in a human context where it will illuminate and guide the activities of men.

Garrott's Galley

By M.C. Garrott

You've Got To Watch A Texan; He'll Do Things In A Big Way

While en route to Conroe, Tex., some time back to visit their son, Charles, and his wife, Debbie, Leroy and Kate Eldridge were whizzing along one of the Lone Star State's spacious inter-states when Leroy broke off a front tooth while chewing gum.

One of the first things he did when they reached Conroe was to set the wheels in motion to get the tooth fixed. "I felt I looked like Leon Spinks," he laughed.

No problem, son Charles, who is a pediatrician in Conroe, assured him. One of his best friends was a dentist, and an early morning appointment was arranged for the next day.

Leroy was at the dentist's office bright and early, and, sure enough, as a favor to Charles, the dentist was waiting for him, worked him in ahead of everyone else and soon had the damaged tooth ground off and repaired.

The bill came to $77, but since Leroy was the father of a friend of his, the dentist graciously announced that he was giving him a $12 discount.

Leroy, feeling a bit smug in his good fortune of having a doctor son well enough regarded in Conroe that even a dentist would give him a discount because of it, promptly paid the $65 balance, rejoined the family and proudly exhibited the repaired tooth. He no longer looked or felt like Leon Spinks.

Some time later and back in Murray, the time rolled around for Leroy's regular dental checkup by Dr. A. G. Wilson. Dr. Wilson took a look at the repaired tooth, listened to Leroy's story of how it came about and praised the Texan's work. But then he informed Leroy that what had been done was merely a temporary job. The tooth really needed to be capped, he said. "How much will that cost?" Leroy asked.

"Oh, about a hundred and a quarter," Dr. Wilson replied. Given the go-ahead by his patient, he then proceeded to put a permanent cap on the tooth.

As he was getting out of the chair, Leroy asked if the Texas dentist's procedure of repairing the tooth had been the correct one to follow in such a case. Dr. Wilson assured him that it had been, and Leroy felt better about that. "How much would you have charged for doing that, the temporary repair job?" Leroy then asked.

"Oh, 10 or 12 dollars," Dr. Wilson replied.

+++++ "Why, I was mad enough to have gone back to Texas and busted that dentist in the mouth!" Leroy said, recalling the experience. "Here, he had made a big deal over giving me a discount because my son was one of his doctor friends, and all the time he was charging me about six times what the job was worth!"

"That young fellow's wife is going to be having a baby one of these days, and I told Charles to really stick it to him if and when that happens — just for his old man's sake. Boy, was I taken!"

+++++ Apparently, it is no easy matter to dispose of a dead cat in Murray.

Mrs. Jessie Smith, who works at Boone's on Main Street, found this out the other day. She tells the story this way. One day last week, she and the ladies who work with her noticed a kitten in a tree near the laundry. It was up a tree and couldn't get down. Feeling sorry for it and tired of hearing it whine, they went to the trouble to get it down and put it on the ground.

For the rest of the day, it stayed around the laundry. The next morning, however, when they came to work, they found the kitten dead in the street. It had been run over and killed, a fate most any downtown feline resident might expect sooner or later.

The day was going to be a hot one, and they knew what that would mean if the dead kitten was left in the street for any period of time. So, they started calling around, seeking someone to remove it.

First, they called the police. No, the police said, they didn't pick up dead kittens, only criminals. Call the Humane Society, they suggested.

No, said the Humane Society, they were concerned only with cute little live animals. Try the city sanitation department, they suggested.

No, said the sanitation department, they didn't have a day set aside to pick up dead kittens — only days for garbage, leaves and trash. Try the street department, they advised.

No, said the street department, they just fixed potholes and cleaned out ditches. Try the state highway department, they suggested. After all, they said, Main Street is a state highway thoroughfare.

"Thank the Lord," Mrs. Smith said, "the state highway people not only said they would pick it up but did so very shortly. But what a hassle we had to go through before we found someone who would."

The Story Of

-133

Calloway County

1822-1976

By Dorothy and Kerby Jennings

Copyright, 1978

Hopefully, the 1908 authorization for the construction of the first county high school at Hazel gave promise for better things to come. The Hazel Graded School District joined the county in defraying the costs of the new two-story brick building that was ready for occupancy by the first of the year. L. A. L. Langston, defeated candidate for county school superintendent in the November election by Lucille Grogan, was appointed principal; R. M. Phillips, first assistant; Rafe Jones, preparatory teacher; Frocie Langston, Latin and literature, with two vacancies to be filled for the ensuing 1909 school year. All of the teacher appointees were dominant figures in the academic and political life of the times, reflecting a fact of political dominance in school circles to last more than 50 years.

Appointees to the teaching staff at Murray School included M. M. Faughender, principal; J. R. Miller, first assistant; Susan Akers, second assistant; Ila Hiatt, 8th grade; Cappie Beale, 6th and 7th; Lula Holland, 4th and 5th; Maggie Houston, 3rd; Roberta Hood, 2nd; Beatrice Scarbrough, 1st and Tommie Kirkland, primary. County board of education added to the expansion of the school system by authorizing contracts for additions or new structures at Gunter's Flat School, Chestnut Grove, Macedonia, and Bethel.

Nathan B. Stubblefield paid a glowing memorial of respect to the memory of Prof. J. P. Brannock, principal of the Murray Male and Female Institute for many years and a distinguished writer, following his death Oct. 27, 1909, in Lexington, Tenn. The body was returned to Murray for burial beside his wife in the Murray City Cemetery.

Another memorial announcement stated that Capt. J. N. Bolen, founder of the Murray Gazette, died at his home in Pocahontas, Ark., at the age of 79 years. He left Murray in 1881 to publish the Randolph Herald in Arkansas for many years.

J. M. Radford, two term former sheriff, member of the City Council, and director of the Bank of Murray, died at his home in town. The 67 year old Confederate veteran was buried in the Murray Cemetery.

The town's athletic hero and educator, Carlisle Cutchin, was married to Georgia Stanfill at Newburn, Tenn., on Dec. 27, 1909.

Today

In History

By The Associated Press Today is Thursday, July 5, the 186th day of 1979. There are 179 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1811, Venezuela became the first South American country to declare its independence from Spain.

On this date: In 1798, Napoleon Bonaparte captured the Egyptian port of Alexandria. In 1830, the French occupied the North African city of Algiers. In 1940, during World War II, diplomatic relations were broken between Britain and the Vichy government in France.

In 1960, Sen. Lyndon Johnson announced he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president. In 1976, Jose Lopez Portillo was elected president of Mexico, succeeding Luis Escheverria.

In 1977, the Pakistan army seized power in a bloodless coup that ousted Prime Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto.

Ten years ago: Kenya's minister of economics and development, Tom Mboya, was assassinated by a gunman in the nation's capital, Nairobi.

Five years ago: The United States recalled its ambassador to Turkey for consultation during a dispute over a Turkish decision to lift its ban on the cultivation of opium poppies.

One year ago: In Lebanon, a truce collapsed amid urgent negotiations to end fighting between Syrian peacekeeping soldiers and Lebanese Christian militia.

Today's birthdays: Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko is 70. Julie Nixon Eisenhower is 31. Former Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge is 77. Star relief pitcher Rich Gossage of the New York Yankees is 28.

Thought for today: The search for a scapegoat is the easiest of all hunting expeditions — President Dwight Eisenhower, 1890-1969.

HEARTLINE: I am going to be 65 early next month and I will be going on Medicare. I have already been looking into buying a Medicare supplement insurance policy. All the policy literature I see mention pre-existing conditions. Can you tell me what this means? — L.R.

This is one of the most important and least understood of all health insurance policy provisions. Many policies will not provide benefits for conditions which existed before the policy was issued. In some policies, such conditions are covered after a specific waiting period, such as one year, following issuance.

about your medical history. It is very important that you disclose complete information on the application about your medical history — for example, injuries, illnesses or hospitalizations. If you fail to include in the application the fact that you formerly were treated for a particular condition and later incur medical expenses as a result of this same condition, many companies probably would not pay on the claim and might cancel your policy.

It is very common for a policy to contain a provision under which the company may deny a claim or rescind coverage during a specified period after policy issuance for reasons of misrepresentation at the time of application. This period is generally two years. After that period, such a provision does not apply. The policy, in effect, becomes incontestable and the company must pay your claim.

...THE NEWS IN BRIEF...

National
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Police, fearful of escalated gang violence, kept a close watch today on the rival Hell's Angels and Outlaws motorcycle gangs following the execution-style slayings of five Outlaws.

Authorities said there were no suspects in the shootings, but they noted the two gangs "hated each other's guts" and have exchanged gunfire occasionally over the last few months.

Three men and a woman were shot dead in their sleep early Wednesday in the two-room frame house that is the Outlaws' headquarters, authorities said.

Press
 The nation starts its 204th year of democracy today after a close-to-home Fourth of July that saw citizens skipping rocks on a Michigan lake, smoking marijuana near the White House and marching against nuclear power in Maine.

People were also scrambling for gasoline and sunlight on Wednesday, a day that will be remembered in some areas for its lack of fuel and abundance of rain.

More than 115 persons died on the nation's highways between 6 p.m. Tuesday and 12:01 a.m. local times today, the National Safety Council reported.

WASHINGTON
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter, canceling the major energy policy speech he was to deliver tonight — on nationwide television, apparently decided "either he or it wasn't ready," a White House official says.

Publicly, the administration chose to keep the reasons for the cancellation a mystery. Press Secretary Jody Powell, relaying the president's decision to reporters Wednesday afternoon, refused to go beyond a two-sentence statement:

"The president has decided to cancel the speech for Thursday night. I have nothing to add to the announcement."

INTERNATIONAL

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — The national guard rushed reinforcements to south Nicaragua and claimed to have cleared most of the rebels from Rivas, but the rebels said they were in control of the town and were mopping up.

But the guerrillas' Radio Sandino said the rebels held all but the guard headquarters in the town and were fighting to dislodge the holdouts from well-fortified positions.

MOSCOW (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Robert Byrd and Ambassador Malcolm

Toon explained the Senate ratification process to President Leonid I. Brezhnev, and the Soviet public in an attempt to ease fears that the Senate will kill the new SALT treaty.

Byrd met with Brezhnev Wednesday in the Crimean resort city of Yalta, where the Soviet leader is vacationing. Toon made his pitch to the Soviet public in a July 4 address on Soviet television.

MSU's McCalla Resigns, Accepts Post At Motlow; David Lowry Transfers

Carr McCalla, assistant basketball coach for Murray State this past season, has tendered his resignation to accept the head coaching spot at Motlow, Tenn., Junior College, an MSU official announced today.

McCalla, 26, was involved in scouting and recruiting for the Racers under head coach Ron Greene. A native of Rosemark, Tenn., he also helped coordinate MSU's summer basketball camp.

CARR MCCALLA

Bound for Motlow State

McCalla came to Murray after a year as an assistant coach at Marshall University during the 1977-78 season. During the 1975 campaign, he was assistant to Greene at the University of New Orleans.

"This is a great opportunity for me to pilot my own program," McCalla was quoted as saying. "I've been blessed throughout my brief career to be with a lot of great people such as Ray Mears (Tennessee), (the late) Stu Abberdeen (Marshall) and Ron Greene.

"I'm leaving with mixed emotions. Murray has had a great recruiting year, and with the players coming back they have, the foundation has been laid for some excellent program in coming years.

"The fans have been tremendous here," McCalla said. "I can only hope that I can get that kind of support where I go."

"Motlow State is very fortunate to get someone of Carr's talents," said Greene. "I'm disappointed to lose him, but also proud to see him continue forward in his career."

Lowry Transfers

David Lowry, a 5-11 guard who frequently started for Murray State the past two seasons, has transferred to Transylvania (Ky.) University, Transylvania Coach Don Lane has announced.

Lowry signed with the Racers after a 26-points-per-game season at Henderson County High School. He played under both Fred Overton in 1977-78 and present Racer Coach Ron Greene last season.

He averaged four points last season and led the team in assists with 94 while appearing in 25 of the 26 games as the Racers compiled a 4-22 record.

David Lowry, a two-year member of the Murray State basketball team, has transferred to Transylvania University.

Carter Sets Jr. Record In Shot

BOSTON (AP) — Mike Carter of Dallas set a world junior shot put record with a toss of 67 feet, 9 inches as the U.S. squad took an 88-66 lead over the Soviet Union after the first day of a two-day dual meet. Carter eclipsed the old record of 66-10 1/2, set by Terry Allbritton of the United States in 1974.

The American 400-meter relay unit of David Read, Eric Brown, Bernard Jackson and Calvin Smith won its race in 39.32 to lower the world junior mark of 39.51, set by an American team last year.

Tucker Helps Post 73 Take 1st Game In Legion Tourney

MADISONVILLE, Ky. — With game one out of the way, only the weather could have stopped the Murray American Legion baseball team — and it did.

Post 73 whipped Warren County 4-0 in the opening round of a Fourth of July tournament here, but the rest of the event was cancelled because of an electrical storm. Greenville was to have played Madisonville in the second match-up.

"We felt like we were if good shape," said Murray Coach Bill Cherry. "We had Alan (Gibbs) and Brad (Taylor) ready to pitch, and they would have been hard to beat."

Murray, now 18-12, scored two runs in the first inning and two in the seventh, and in between it was all Scott Tucker. The righthanded hurler limited the losers to just two hits while fanning eight and walking none.

Murray scored its first-inning runs when Dean Jackson and Dean Cherry both reached on errors. Jackson scored on Brad Taylor's single and a Warren County error, and Cherry came home on Bruce Taylor's double.

In the seventh, Bill Milton walked and David Mathis singled. Both scored later on errors. Post 73 travels to Jackson, Tenn., for a doubleheader Saturday before returning home for a 1 p.m. twinbill against Russellville Sunday.

Watson Eyeing A 283

OAK BROOK, Ill. — They went out in the first round of the 76th Western Open Thursday, trying to beat the monster — the Butler National Golf Club Course — where Jerry McGee once came down the 18th fairway waving a white towel of surrender.

Tom Watson, favored to win his third Western since 1974 and his fifth tournament of the season, summed it up nicely.

"One thing's sure," he said. "You never feel upset by making a par here."

If the winds continue as predicted, "the greens will dry out and the scores will skyrocket," said Watson, who could spiral his leading money winnings this year to $431,674 by taking the top prize of $54,000.

Watson said he would settle for a 5-under-par 283 as the winning score.

Borg Vaults Past Connors To Gain Wimbledon Final

By the Associated Press
WIMBLEDON, England — Defending champion Bjorn Borg pounded Jimmy Connors 6-2, 6-3, 6-2 in the semifinals of the Wimbledon tennis championship today and was one match away from making modern tennis history.

Borg advances to Saturday's final, in which his opponent will be the winner of the other semifinal between Roscoe Tanner and little-known Pat DuPre. If Borg wins, then he will become the first man since 1913 to win four consecutive Wimbledon crowns.

Borg improved his record against Connors to nine wins against 10 losses. But the 23-year-old Swede has won the last three encounters against the 26-year-old Connors.

Included in the plus column for Borg are victories over Connors in the 1978 and 1977 finals at Wimbledon. They met in the semis this year because Wimbledon officials saw fit to seed Connors just third, behind John McEnroe, which put him in Borg's half of the draw.

Connors' loss was no more respectable than the one here last year, when Borg mastered him 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Connors fought fiercely today, but he was totally unable to counteract Borg's devastating accuracy and drive. Time and again Borg passed him with shots down the lines. The rest of the time, Borg pinned his usually scrambling opponent to the baseline.

The match, which lasted only one hour and 46 minutes, ended tamely, with Connors hitting out wildly, dropping his service to love.

Only once the entire match did Connors break Borg's serve — in the opening game of the third set, when the Swede failed to reach a Connors lob, then put a backhand into the net.

Connors went on to hold his own service for 2-0 in that set, but Borg dashed any hope Connors might have had by streaking through the next six games for the set.

The match was almost a carbon copy of last year's final. Again Borg seemed to demoralize and finally crush Connors with his phenomenal speed.

semifinal match between Jimmy Connors and Bjorn Borg, being played today at Wimbledon, will be shown in its entirety at 1:15 a.m. EDT on NBC, the network announced.

Taped highlights of the match will be shown from 11:30-11:45 p.m. as scheduled. Then, at the conclusion of the "Tomorrow" show, the whole match will be aired.

NEW PROGRAM FOR HAIR LOSS

Mr. Moran and Mrs. Barnes show how they regrow hair. They did not have male pattern baldness.

R.E. BORDEN WILL EXPLAIN HAIR PROBLEMS AT THE HOLIDAY INN, US 641 SOUTH MURRAY, KY. FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1979

Mr. R.E. Borden will be back in Murray, Ky. again Friday, July 6, 1979. Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every man and woman now losing hair should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION.

GUARANTEED
You will be given a written guarantee on a pro-rated basis from the beginning to the end. Naturally we could not give you such a guarantee if it didn't work.

CAN'T HELP
Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which no method is effective. Ebb-Hair Specialists cannot help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss. But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness seems to "run in the family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of your hair loss.

FREE CONSULTATION
Just take a few minutes of your time on Friday, July 6, 1979 and go to the Holiday Inn, US 641 South in Murray, Ky. between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. and ask the Desk Clerk for R. E. Borden, room number.

There is no charge or obligation...all consultations are private, you will not be embarrassed in any way.

Navratilova Must Battle Temper, Evert Backhand In Wimbledon's Finale

By WIL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
WIMBLEDON, England — Mind vs. muscle, poise vs. power, computerized consistency vs. blanket can-nofire.

These are the ingredients, intangible and tangible, aligned against each other in Friday's showdown between Chris Evert Lloyd and Martina Navratilova for the women's tennis title at Wimbledon.

It ought to be a humdrum. It's a rivalry that has been festering and growing in intensity since Miss Navratilova, a headstrong girl of 18 at the time, defected from her native Czechoslovakia four years ago and cast her lot with the ladies' tour.

Now, after 31 confrontations, it has reached the state that the world's No. 1 ranking hangs on almost every shot — particularly in such a prestigious environment as the old center court at Wimbledon.

Martina is a sturdy girl, 5 feet, 7½ inches and 145 pounds, powerful of limb, extraordinarily quick of movement, blessed with perhaps the finest repertoire of shots in the female game. She is tough but vulnerable. Her Achilles heel: a flaming temper.

Mrs. Lloyd, better known as Chrissie and a bride of three months, is the antithesis — a demure, 125-pound young lady who developed an unflappable temperament and a machine-like backcourt rallying game on slow clay under the tutelage of her teacher-father in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Along with Martina's powerful edge, she has a natural flair for the game and moves effortlessly. The main drawback is that she is inclined frequently to go sour on herself, brood deeply and allow her remarkable game to go into a tailspin.

These blowups have been responsible for her losing 23 of the 31 matches she two have played over the years — more recently a three-hour classic in Eastbourne, won by Lloyd 7-5, 5-7, 13-11.

They call Chris "Little Miss Metronome" and the "Ice Maiden," labels she strongly resents. But they are apropos.

On the court, she is a veritable machine, moving like a wind-up doll.

SOFTBALL

The Nats beat the Royals 7-2 last night to strengthen their hold on first place in upper-division girls softball.

The Nats improved their record to 5-2, followed by the Royals, Sonics and Aces, all at 3-4. In the other game last night, the Sonics belted the Aces 22-9.

Cheryl Rose was 3-for-4 at the plate for the Nats, while Donna Rousse and Ann Harcourt were 5-for-5 for the Sonics.

In lower division play Tuesday, the Aces defeated the Royals 7-6, despite home runs by the losers' Donna Douglas, Kelly Jameson and Kendra Thurman, and the Hawks beat the Stars 17-9.

Sherrie Meadows homered for the Hawks.

The Cougars lead lower-division play with a 4-1 mark, followed by the Stars (4-2), the Royals (3-2), the Hawks (2-4) and the Aces (1-5).

Steve Carlton had just tied a National League record with his fifth one-hitter, but he didn't throw out any one-liners. In fact, he didn't utter a single word.

Carlton, who is stingier with words than hits, continued his ban on the press Wednesday night after pitching the Philadelphia Phillies to a 1-0 victory over the New York Mets. The only hit was a first-pitch, double by Elliott Maddox leading off the seventh inning.

"It was a fastball down the middle," said Maddox. "I'm sure it was a mistake as far as he was concerned. It was the same pitch I popped in my previous at bat."

Carlton was overpowering. The only other Met baserunner was Richie Hebner who was safe when Carlton dropped a throw from first baseman Pete Rose.

Elsewhere in the National League, Houston nipped Cincinnati 3-2, Pittsburgh beat St. Louis 6-4, Montreal edged Chicago 2-1, Atlanta downed San Francisco 7-6 and San Diego blanked Los Angeles 5-0.

Braves 7, Giants 6

The Braves rewarded Atlanta's biggest crowd in two years with a stirring comeback from a 5-0 deficit to pick up their fifth straight victory and 10th in 13 games. San Francisco reliever Gary Lavelle balked in Pepe Frias with the winning run in the eighth inning.

Padres 5, Dodgers 0

The Dodgers, who fell into last place Tuesday night for the first time in 11 years, dropped 1½ games behind the fifth-place Braves when Bob Shirley tossed a two-hitter for his first career shutout.

Pirates 6, Cards 4

Willie Stargell belted two solo home runs, including one that went nearly 500 feet, and Bill Madlock knocked in three runs with a pair of doubles, powering Pittsburgh past St. Louis for the Pirates' third straight victory.

Jeff Leonard's seventh-inning single scored Hector Cruz, capping a two-run rally that carried the Astro to their sixth straight victory, a 3-2 decision over Cincinnati.

Bill Lee and Elias Sosa combined for a six-hitter and Warren Cromartie and Ellis Valentine slugged solo home runs, leading Montreal past the Cubs. The Expos lead Pittsburgh by 5½ games in the NL East.

U.S. Holds Huge Lead

By the Associated Press
SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — As the VIII Pan American Games today entered just their fourth day, it was already obvious that the magnitude of the United States' awesome overall victory now taking shape here will exceed even the most optimistic expectations.

That's especially good news for America's Olympic hopes, since these games are the last big international competition prior to the 1980 Moscow Summer Olympic Games and the best overall judge of how U.S. training programs and athletes stack up against their worldclass peers.

In roller skating, behind only track-and-field and swimming in the number of medals being awarded, the U.S. team that was such a mysterious quantity coming in here had taken the gold medal in six of 10 events through Wednesday.

And tonight, the prospects for more golds look good with Natalie Dunn of Bakersfield, Calif., the three-time world figure skating champion competing.

Going into today's archery events, the U.S. competitors had an almost insurmountable lead in individual and team events. Lynette Johnson of Cypress, Calif., led the American archers to four of the first five positions midway in the competition, and a solid lead in the team standings.

In softball, the U.S. team, led by the incredible pitcher Ty Stofflet who already has one three-hit shutout to his credit, seems invincible.

On Wednesday, a light holiday schedule, Army Lt. Col. Lones Wigger of Ft. Benning, Ga., continued his mastery of the small-bore rifle competition, winning his third and fourth gold medals in the team and individual three-position event.

Flag, Scramble Events Are Held

Faira Alexander and Ann Taylor were the top winners yesterday in the Fourth of July Flag Tournament at the Murray Country Club.

In winning the 18-hole tournament, Alexander reached a sandtrap on her 20th hole after having six strokes left after playing the course on her allotted 96 strokes.

In a flag tournament, players add their handicap to the par (in this case, 72) and play until using up that number of strokes.

Taylor, playing with 60 strokes, finished nine holes and went to the fringe of the 11th green before planting her flag. Seventy-two of the club's members participated in the event.

Finishing second were Anne and Tom Bloom, both of whom planted their flags in the cup on the 19th hole. She had finished the 18 with seven strokes left and he with six.

Cathryn Garrott was third, planting her flag six feet from the pin on the 19th hole after taking 94 strokes. Ten feet away was the flag of Thelma Eckerdt with 125 strokes and in fourth place.

David Graham was fifth. Mary Bell Overby was second in the nine-hole tournament, reaching the fringe of the 10th hole with her allotted 60 strokes. Patsy Miller was third, having one stroke left of her 57.

Three — Graves Morris,

Paul Maggard and Sandy Coleman — finished in a tie for third place, all ending in the cup on the ninth green. Morris was playing with 43 strokes, Maggard with 58 and Coleman with 46.

Al Jones was the winner of the closest to the pin contest on the seventh hole with a shot within 12 feet of the pin.

Oaks Scramble

Mary Bain sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the fifth playoff hole to give her team the championship of the Oaks Country Club's Fourth of July scramble golf tournament yesterday.

Bain, Freda Steely, John White, Bill Read and Thomas Jones finished with a 12-under-par 60 to tie with two other teams after the regulation 18 holes.

The team of Don Cothran, Richard Edwards, R.B. Morgan, Polly Seale and Tony Montgomery was second, while the group of Homer Branch, Hub Dunn, Bill Grasty, Mary Bogard and Maxa Reed was third. It, too, shot a 60 but was eliminated on the first playoff hole. Bain's team birdied the first hole, but Cothran sank a lengthy putt for a birdie on the 305-yard hole to keep his team alive.

After routine finishes on holes 2, 3 and 4, Bill Read drilled an approach shot within 10 feet to set up Bain's winning putt.

Men's Medal Play Tournament

Oaks members wishing to participate in the club's medal play tournament should sign up at the clubhouse or contact Truman Whitfield before Saturday.

Golfers in the championship flight will play 36 holes Saturday and 18 Sunday, while those in other flights will play 18 each day. Play will begin Saturday at 9 a.m.

Match Play Tournament The match play tournament for Oaks members will be held during the month of July, and competitors should check in the clubhouse for their pairings, which will be posted soon.

In match play golf, golfers compete on a one-on-one basis and advance through the draw with victories.

Fisher Declares Independence From High Heating Costs.

Thomas Jefferson

"Americans have always known that independence is the greatest strength of a nation. And now we face a test to a different sort of independence: energy independence. Fisher can help in your declaration against the tyranny of foreign energy domination. Fisher woodburning stoves can ease the cost of home heating. Fisher can help you keep the liberty you have always known."

Fixed-Price Contracts
Lead To Rapid Pace Of Nuke Plant Construction

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Public Service Indiana's fixed-price contracts, with no provisions for cost overruns, have led to a rapid pace of construction at the Marble Hill nuclear power plant, says a spokesman for the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

And the pace "may have contributed to some of the problems with the concrete" identified by the NRC at the southern Indiana facility, said Jan Strasma, an NRC spokesman in Chicago.

Concrete work was halted a week ago at the PSI plant in structures that could leak radiation during a nuclear accident. PSI is constructing the facility near Madison, 30 miles upstream from Louisville, Ky.

The shutdown came after an NRC inspection found that 170 honeycomb-type air pockets in concrete had been improperly patched by employees of Newberg Construction Co., a contractor on the project.

But Dr. James Coughlin, PSI nuclear vice president, said Tuesday there was "no connection" between the construction rate and the concrete problems.

"We're operating on our regular schedule," he said. "We're not trying to go like the dickens."

The NRC evaluation doesn't consider that the fixed-price contracts give contractors "a compelling financial incentive to perform their work in accordance with the master schedule," Coughlin said.

The NRC-asked halt in concrete work has had no significant impact so far on the construction schedule, Coughlin said, because it affected only safety-critical areas.

PSI and the NRC have disagreed on the construction rate. Utility officials say the first of the plant's two reactors will be ready to load its nuclear fuel in April 1982. NRC inspectors, however, have set July 1983 as the fuel-loading date.

Coughlin estimated the delay will add $12 million per month to the plant's cost due to escalation in the price of equipment and materials.

NRC officials felt PSI's construction schedule is "overly optimistic," Strasma said, noting that Marble Hill is on schedule so far.

"Placement of concrete and structural steel is often done according to the original timetable," Strasma explained. "But it's harder to keep to schedule on the piping and the extensive testing that comes later."

Strasma said Tuesday it will be "at least the end of the week and maybe later" before full construction resumes.

The improper patches to the concrete were in the two containment buildings that will house the plant's nuclear reactors and in the auxiliary building, which will house backup safety systems. A total of 520 air pockets were found in those buildings, but all but 170 were properly repaired, the NRC said.

Other repairs were unsatisfactory, the NRC said, because the patching material was not sound enough. Strasma said Tuesday the agency is continuing its investigation to determine if the improper repairs were intended to hide the defects from inspectors, as charged by former construction worker Charles E. Cutshall in a sworn deposition given to an anti-nuclear group.

NRC investigators are due back at Marble Hill on Thursday to complete their study of general construction procedures, Strasma said.

CRIME WAVE
ISLAMABAD, Pakistan (AP) — A Canadian news correspondent recently quoted Pakistan's law minister as saying that stern Islamic punishments are needed because the country has become lawless.

After the interview, the correspondent visited a city mosque.

Conforming to custom, he removed his shoes. When he returned after making a recording, he found his shoes had been stolen.

Deaths And Funerals

Mrs. Crawford Dies At Nursing Home

Mrs. Eunice Crawford died Wednesday at a nursing home in Athens, Ala.

Among the survivors is a daughter, Mrs. Clara Bartlett of Ardmore, Tenn.

The body is being returned to the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home, but funeral and burial arrangements are incomplete.

Nancy Ellen Pasco Dies At Home With Funeral Saturday

Ms. Nancy Ellen Pasco was found dead of an apparent heart attack in the flower garden of her home at 73 Burley Circle, Cincinnati, Ohio on Tuesday evening.

She was 54 years of age and the daughter of the late Perley Chester Pasco and Emma Jane Humphrey Pasco of Muhlenberg County.

The deceased worked in the aircraft industry during World War II and after the war became one of the first female air controllers in the United States. She later received her nurse's training and at the time of her death was a nurse for the University of Cincinnati Hospital.

Mrs. Pasco was born in Central City on Dec. 19, 1924.

Survivors include seven sisters, Geneva Hendricks, Central City, Mary Claunch, Oklawaha, Fla., Laura Riggins, Birmingham, Ala., Louise Witters, Hamilton, Ohio, Helen Howell, Glendale, Ohio, Henrietta Boris, Ft. Worth, Texas, and Willie Carolyn Williams, Cincinnati, Ohio; three brothers, Lt. Col. (Ret.) John Pasco, Murray, Eddie Pasco, Beaver Dam, and Teddie Pasco, Hatfield, Ind., many nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Tucker Funeral Home in Central City after 3 p.m. Friday.

The funeral will be Saturday at 11 a.m. at the funeral home with her nephew the Rev. John William Gray, officiating. Burial will follow at the family plot in the Cherry Hill cemetery.

Danny L. Darnell Dies Wednesday At Age Of 24

Danny L. Darnell of Clearwater, Fla., 24 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Darnell of Murray Route 2, died Wednesday.

His death was the result of a gunshot wound and was ruled a homicide, according to the Medical Examiner at Clearwater where he died.

Survivors include his parents; three sisters, Mrs. Ed (Mary Ruth) Taylor, Paducah, Mrs. Powell (Evelyn) Smith, Calvert City, and Mrs. Bruce (Hilda) Oakley, Almo Route 1; five brothers, Richard Darnell, Almo Route 1, Brooks Darnell, Murray, Gene Darnell, Murray Route 4, and Ted Darnell, Murray Route 2.

The body is being returned to the Blalock-Coleman Funeral Home, but funeral and burial arrangements remain incomplete. Friends may call at a time to be announced.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Wilson

The funeral for Mrs. Connie Wilson, widow of Bert Wilson, was held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with the Rev. Dr. Jerrell White officiating.

Grandsons served as pallbearers and burial was in the Oak Grove Cemetery.

Mrs. Wilson, 80, a resident of 816 Hurt Drive, Murray, died Monday at 3 a.m. at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. P. Smotherman, Hazel Park, Mich.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Smotherman, Hazel Park, and Mrs. Clayton Hall, Pensacola, Fla.; two sons, Hugo Wilson, Louisville, and Beck Wilson, Cadiz; half sister, Mrs. Merle Baker; 18 grandchildren; 24 great grandchildren; one great grandchild.

Debbie Byrd To Give Library Program

Debbie Byrd, in cooperation with the Murray State University home economics department, will present the first of the Murray-Calloway County Public Library fun and safety programs at 10 a.m. Friday, July 6.

The program will present, in an entertainment manner, areas of home safety that have to do with their everyday living.

All children ages 6-12 are invited to attend. Jane Bailey, one of the library outreach coordinators, will assist in the program.

Mrs. Turnbow Dies Wednesday; Rites Scheduled Friday

Mrs. Mildred Simpson Turnbow, former Hazel resident, died Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in the DeKalb Hospital, Atlanta, Ga. Her death followed an illness of several months.

The deceased was the wife of Bob Turnbow, 3259 Bolissa Drive, Doraville, Ga., who survives along with one daughter, Mrs. Kathy Giroux, and a grandson, Robbie Luna, also of Doraville; one sister, Mrs. Susie Skeltan, Oxford, Miss.; her mother-in-law, Mrs. Oscar (Mary) Turnbow, Hazel.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in Atlanta, Ga., with interment to follow in a cemetery there.

BAND PRACTICE STARTS TUESDAY

Gas Will Be More Available In State

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Gasoline will be more readily available to Kentucky motorists during the coming week, but the prices will be still higher, according to the weekly survey by the Bluegrass and Louisville automobile clubs.

The fuel gauge survey shows a 10 percent increase in availability on weekdays, compared with last week, with 66 percent of Kentucky's service stations closing by 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and 47 percent closing by 6 p.m. Saturday.

Round-the-clock operations showed a 3-7 percent increase, according to the survey, with 9 percent of the stations staying open all day, every day and 27 percent expected to be open on Sunday.

About a third of the stations, 31 percent, said they were out of one or more grades of gasoline, and prices continued to climb — this week by an average of 2 cents.

Average per-gallon prices at full-service stations are now 89.3 cents for regular, 95.3 cents for premium and 93.3 cents for unleaded.

Motorists who choose self-service stations will pay about 1 1/2 to 3 cents less — 85.6 cents for regular, 93.9 for premium and 91.2 for unleaded.

Diesel prices showed a decrease of eight-tenths of a cent. A gallon of diesel is now being sold for an average of 88.6 cents.

FAA Head Bond Says Wing Lift Slats Are DC-10 Problem

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Langhorne Bond, head of the Federal Aviation Administration, says the main obstacle to putting DC-10 jetliners back into passenger service is in the wing "lift" slats, which apparently malfunctioned in the nation's worst air disaster.

The May 25 crash of the McDonnell Douglas DC-10 in Chicago claimed 273 lives and led to the groundings of all domestic DC-10s.

Speaking to reporters Wednesday at Los Angeles International Airport as he arrived from Washington, D.C., Bond said he might be faced with deciding whether or not the malfunction in the slats was a freak occurrence.

The wing slats extend on takeoff and landing to provide greater lift. During the crash in which an engine fell off the left wing during takeoff, one slat extended but the one on the left wing did not, creating an "asymmetrical" lift.

Investigators for the FAA have begun writing the final report on the DC-10 to determine whether the wide-body jetliner will have to be redesigned.
