In fact we have just what you are looking for.

The best vehicles in the world for the money, any grade, any price, any kind all good values and the cheapest will wear like steel.

Try a "Sayers and Scovill" and you will be satisfied there is nothing better made, or a "Stayer", if you want to ride without a jolt. There's nothing on the market that compares with either.

We will gladly show you their points of merit. Come and satisfy yourself. We are agents for "Daybreak Fertilizers", none better and very few brands as good. See us before you buy. Corn and Tobacco goods kept in stock.

ODORLESS REFRIGERATORS

The only refrigerator that breathes, so constructed that it breathes out the warmer air and odors, thus allowing you to place anywhere you may desire in the provision chamber, without it contaminating milk or butter.

Not merely a theory, but a demonstrated fact, can refer you to any user of the Odorless, and they are increasing every day.

Economical users of ice. Once used no other kind will do. If for any reason your refrigerator is not satisfactory try an Odorless. Prices not any higher than the other kind not so good. All made of solid oak.

Court of Ogle on an Interesting Decision—How Hopkinsville Men Will Be Benefited.

WASHINGTON. Mr. Daniel H. Ogle had a most interesting experience from the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the State of Kentucky v. the United States and the common carriers for the transportation of tobacco, the case which was argued before the Court on the 17th of March. The Court held that the State of Kentucky had no authority to tax the transportation of tobacco in interstate commerce, and the case was disposed of by a majority of the Court.

The decision of the Court was in favor of the State of Kentucky and against the United States and the common carriers. The decision of the Court was in favor of the State of Kentucky and against the United States and the common carriers.

A home of interest visited from the review

Several weeks ago a short time after Mr. Thomas Revis put his garden and house under careful inspection, his brother, returned to the same place, found several acres of ground and a number of plants ready for transplanting. The garden was then planted and his brother, Mr. T. B. Revis, was called to do this work. The garden was then examined and the plans were made for planting it. Mr. T. B. WIT AND HUMOR OF SOME NOTED MEN

NO. 3..."PRIVATE" JOHN ALLEN

AFTERnoon of the last day of March, 1775, a gentleman arrived on horseback at the inn near the Massachusetts line, which was used by the Americans as a meeting place to discuss strategy. The gentleman was John Allen, a prominent figure and leader in the American Revolution. As he entered the inn, he was greeted by his fellow patriots and asked to join them in a meeting to discuss the recent events.

Allen was a member of the Continental Congress and had been instrumental in the drafting of the Articles of Confederation. He was also a close friend of George Washington and had been a delegate to the Annapolis Convention in 1786.

As the meeting progressed, Allen delivered a speech that was both heartfelt and humorous. He began by saying, "Gentlemen, I have been asked to speak on the current events, and I must say that I am not the most suitable person to do so. I am not a military strategist, nor am I a politician. I am simply a farmer from Virginia, and I speak only for what I know to be true.

"However, I will try my best to speak on the events of the day. I will speak with the utmost honesty, and I will speak with the utmost humor."

Allen then went on to discuss the events of the day, including the recent victory at Bunker Hill and the upcoming中科会。His speech was met with applause and laughter, and he was thanked for his service to the nation.

After the meeting, Allen returned to his home in Virginia, where he continued to serve as a delegate to the Continental Congress and as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates. He died in 1789, but his legacy lived on through his contributions to the American Revolution.

Lesson VIII.—Second Series.
For May 26, 1907.

The INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson: Ex. 2, 14—18: "And Joseph brought his father and his brethren into Egypt.

This lesson tells the story of the reunion of Joseph’s father and his brethren in Egypt, and the welcome they received from Joseph. It shows how Joseph, after being a stranger in a strange land for many years, was able to bring his father and his brothers to him, and how he was able to provide for their comfort and safety.

The lesson also tells the story of the change of heart which took place in the hearts of Joseph’s brethren, and how they were able to forgive him for the wrongs he had done them.

The lesson is a beautiful example of the power of love to overcome all wrongs, and of the ability of man to forgive those who have wronged him.

We shall be pleased to furnish full information if you will come and make a personal inspection of our property.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities arm as long as they are allowed to exist. Paints, ointments, powders, and sores are the result of such an emaciated state of the body. Upon the application of Swamp-Root, however, these do not exist. Take your measure if you have a sore arm. A commercial invitation committee.

At 8:30 o'clock Monday night Miss Ada C. McMillan and Mr. W. A. Zier were married at the home of the former's parents in Richmond. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. F. F. F. F. F.

The ceremony was impressively presented in the presence of a large number of the ladies of the city, and the address of the bride and groom was beautifully prepared by the lady of the house. The wedding was attended by a large number of friends, and the bridal party consisted of the bride, groom, and several attendants. The reception was held at the home of the bride, and the wedding party composed of the bride, groom, and several attendants.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev.

From the West Talmage, D. D.

Low Amana, Ia., May 19th. Our country is not sufficiently appreciative of the value of our public teachers. They are the chanter of the melody of the walls. A large opening was made in the wall. I allow all tides. They are the subterranean passages. It has its treasures. We are not able to hold the study "gospel mnemonics," or the holy name. Bless the Lord, 0 my

My boy, would you not like to start your personal career as a boy? I mean the career of learning. You can start it in a number of ways, of which you are the ultimate source. You must have a central thought in your mind. You must have a central thought in your mind. You must have a central thought in your mind.

It is by broadening knowledge that we may learn the lessons of life. We must learn the lesson of life. We must learn the lesson of life. We must learn the lesson of life.

The text contains a mix of advertisements and articles. It includes an advertisement for canned goods, a notice about the sale of potatoes, and various announcements about events, such as a musical festival and a church event. There are also brief notices about individuals and their activities, such as a newly married couple attending their wedding in Hopkinsville and a woman returning from a trip. The text is a typical example of a small-town newspaper, with a focus on local news and community events.
