ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1907

VOLUME XXVI, NO. 46

NOT HIS CANDIDATE

FOR MAYOR IS OWEN TYLER OF LOUISVILLE.

He Was Selected by Democrats of That City Without Outside Interference.

Leitchfield, Ky., Sept. 26.—Main taining the right of every community to govern itself without interference from the outside, Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic candidate for governor, in his speech here declared that the Democrats of the city of Louisville had selected Owen Tyler as their candidate for mayor without interference or suggestion on his part. He stated clearly that he had nothing to do with the political situation in Louisville in any way except to insist that the primary be a fair one and that the nominee be the choice of the majority of the Democratic voters of the city.

Judge Hager said he believed that the Democrats of Louisville had a right to choose whomsoever they pleased to head their ticket and that it was none of his business who that man might be. The question was raised by William O. Bradley, in a speech which he delivered in Princeton on Tuesday, when he stated that Judge Hager had brought out Tyler as a candidate against Mayor Robert W. Bingham. Judge Hager simply stated that he had had nothing to do with the bringing out of any candidate and nothing to do with any man not being a candidate before the primary.

ALL ARRANGEMENTS

Final arrangements are rapidly being made for the Eagles' Carnival which will be given in this city Sept. 30-August 5. The carnival will be given at Mercer park and every indication points to a record breaking crowd. The executive committee is working hard on the thousand and one things which call for their attention and order is gradually coming out of the seeming chaos.

A feature of the carnival will be the big parade. It has now been several years since this feature was attempted by a carnival management, and it promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever before attempted in this part of the country. Valuable prizes will be offered for the best decorated rigs and the most deserving floats, and already there have been sufficient entries to guarantee its success.

The shows will be furnished by the Robinson Amusement company, one of the best on the road and one which has twice before demonstrated its worth to the people of this region. This year they have a better aggregation of shows and free attractions than ever before and there will always be something new to see and something doing to do.

N SAME BUILDING PERSISTENT BLAZE BROKE OUT THREE TIMES

(From Thursday's Daily)

The plant of the Kentucky Carbonating company on North Liberty street between Fourth and Fifth was gutted by fire last night which broke out at three different times. The first alarm was turned in shortly after 6 o'clock and the department answered promptly, and although the entire interior of the building was ablaze, they soon had the fire under control, and as they thought extinguished it. The exact starting point of the blaze or what caused it, is a mystery, but indications point to its having begun under the stairway in the basement. After thoroughly deluging the place with water and with no visible signs of fire remaining, the department withdrew.

At ten o'clock last night another alarm was turned in, and when the department arrived they found the upper story in a blaze. Again were the streams turned on and again the department left the scene after having put out every indication of fire. This morning about five o'clock the third alarm was rung in and when the department again reached the place the cellar was once more in a blaze although the water was standing in it several inches deep. This time they continued throwing water long after every spark had disappeared and since that time no further signs of the fire breaking out again have been noticed.

As stated before the origin of the fires is a mystery, but it is supposed that the second and third blazes came from smoldering heaps which the water did not thoroughly saturate. No one has any idea how the first blaze started. The plant is heavily damaged, both by fire and water. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

France, Austria-Hungary, Spain, the Netherlands and Italy were largest importers of tobacco, ranking in the order named. SUCCESS ASSURED

Says the Louisville Times: "Through the action of the committee appointed at the recent reunion of the Orphan Brigade, articles of incorporation of 'The Jefferson Davis Home Association,' were formally adopted, and the work of securing funds necessary to make the birthplace of the South's president a continuing memorial of the South's love for him will be begun.

"It is a movement that will result in success. It has in it nothing of the bitterness of defeat or the defiant spirit of embodied protest against the wrongs suffered by the man chosen to receive in his person no small measurement of the South's punishment. It is the tribute of brave and good men to loyal faith and steadfast endeavor, to character and to principle exemplified by action and sanctified by suffering."

ITCHING PIMPLES TORMENT 5 BOYS

Arms and Hands Affected—Could Not Sleep Because of Itching—Suffered for Two Months Until Two Cakes of Cuticura Soap and

ONE BOX OF CUTICURA CURED THEM ALL

"I have five boys, from five to eleven years of age, who were affected some time last winter by some kind of skin disease. The worst parts of the body were around the arms and hands, where small pimples formed and itched. They suffered for two months so that they could not sleep at night. I noticed an advertisement about the Cuticura Remedies and we made a trial of one or two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which gave great satisfaction. I washed their bodies with Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment every other day. Since then they have all been healthy. A. E. Carlson, Norcross, Travers Co., Minn., Nov. 26 and Dec. 23, 1906."

WORST ECZEMA

Baffled Medical Treatment For a Year, Cured by Cuticura.

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black spots all over my face and a few on my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of suffering. I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of —. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they pronounced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for a year, but their treatment did me no good. Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. My husband purchased a complete set of Cuticura Remedies, which entirely stopped the breaking out. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every spot was entirely gone and the affected parts left as clear as ever. I have not felt a symptom of the eczema for three years. Mrs. Lizzie E. Sledge, 540 Jones Ave., Selma, Ala., Oct. 28, '05."

RECONSIDER BIDS

CHANGE IS MADE IN CONTRACTS FOR NEW PIKES.

All are Secured by the Oriental Construction Company.—The Price Paid Per Mile.

At a meeting of the fiscal court last Thursday the magistrates reconsidered the letting of the contracts for the building of pikes on various roads. They made one radical change, this being the changing the width of those pikes which were specified at first to be only nine feet in width. These specifications were so changed that all the nine foot pikes were increased to twelve feet wide, the metal to be ten inches deep in the center and grade down to six inches at the sides. The roads affected by this order are the Butler, Buttermilk, Kirkmansville, Princeton, Cadiz and Nashville. As the specifications were changed the letting of the bids had to be gone through with again and in this the Oriental Construction company secured every contract, the total of twenty-four miles which was let a few days ago and an extra three miles on the Buttermilk road. H. A. Fiercy, who before secured the contract for the pike on the Cadiz road, was not present and this contract also went to the Oriental Construction company. The mileage and prices were as follows:

	per mile.
Kirkmansville road, 3 miles	@ $1,796
Greenville " 5 "	@ $1,796
Princeton " 5 "	@ $1,796
Cadiz " 3 "	@ $1,796
Cox Mill " 3 "	@ $2,258.30
Nashville " 3 "	@ $1,796
Butler " 3 "	@ $1,796

W. W. Garrett and J. K. Twyman were appointed as a committee to lease or rent a crusher and to arrange for the construction of a pike the Palmyra road from where it ends to the intersection of the Palmyra and LaFayette roads, and report at the next meeting of the court.

W. Garrett was appointed as assessor to secure bids and to let for the construction of three miles of a mile of pike on the road.

R. L. Boulware Answers Summons.—Mr. Boxley Dies in Virginia.—News Received of Mrs. Nannie Crabb's Demise in Texas.—The Necrological List is Unusually Long.

(From Friday's Daily)

R. L. Boulware, a highly esteemed citizen and retired business man, died at his home at Campbell and Ninth streets yesterday afternoon at six o'clock. For the past three years Mr. Boulware had been an invalid from a complication of diseases. Three weeks ago his condition grew worse and he gradually sank until he succumbed yesterday. He was a member of the Christian church. During the war between the states Mr. Boulware served in the Federal army, going through the entire war. His widow and four children, Miss Edith Boulware, of this city, Messrs. Logan and Philip Boulware, of Paducah, Ben Boulware, of St. Louis, and Alex. Boulware, of Alabama, survive him.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at four o'clock at the Ninth street Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. H. D. Smith. Interment will take place in Riverside cemetery.

Dies Away From Home.

John C. Boxley, a prominent citizen of Pembroke, died Monday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. H. Ingram near Richmond, Va., where he had been visiting for three weeks. The death was unexpected.

Mr. Boxley was born and grew to manhood in Virginia, but moved to Kentucky over forty years ago, and settled in this country, and had lived here ever since. For the past few years he had made his home in Pembroke with his son. He was 66 years old, and was a widower at the time of his death, although he had been married three times. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Ned Meriwether Camp, United Confederate Veterans.

He was a life long Christian and a deacon in the Christian church of Pembroke.

Mr. Boxley is survived by a daughter and three sons, Mrs. Ingram, whom he was visiting at the time of his death; H. M. Boxley, of Bell Station; O. D. Boxley, of Pembroke, and Dr. H. M. Boxley, of Kirksville, Ky.

The remains arrived in Pembroke this morning and were carried to his late residence where funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Gordon, were held at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Crabb Passes Away.

Mrs. Nannie L. Crabb, widow of V. W. Crabb, died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Moore, in Galveston, Texas.

The first intimation that she was even in a dangerous condition was yesterday morning when her son, Wharton Crabb, received a telegram stating that his mother was dying. He at once made preparations to leave last night but before his train came he received another message announcing her death. Mr. Crabb left last night for Galveston and will bring the body to Hopkinsville. It is not expected to arrive before Monday.

The sad news will cause general regret in this city where Mrs. Crabb and her family resided for so many years. About five or six years ago she left here and went to Galveston where she made her home with her daughter. Every summer she came back here and spent several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Crabb was about sixty-eight years of age and had been a lifelong member of the Christian church. Five children, J. L., Alex. Wharton and Vincent Crabb and Mrs. J. T. Moore survive her.

Sufferings are Over.

After thirty years of invalidism from rheumatism, Mrs. Juliette H. Bradshaw, the venerable mother of Mrs. W. P. Winfree, passed away this morning at 5 o'clock at her daughter's home on South Virginia street. Throughout the long years of pain Mrs. Bradshaw had borne her sufferings with Christian fortitude and her death was a triumph of the religion which she professed. Besides Mrs. Winfree she is survived by two other children, Miss Fannie Bradshaw, of this city, and Theodore Bradshaw, of Paducah. She was 83 years of age, and since childhood had been a devoted member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The funeral services will be held at Judge Winfree's residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Revs. A. P. Lyon, of the Methodist church; H. D. Smith, of the Christian church, and A. C. Biddle, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Interment will take place in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Talley's Demise.

Mrs. Richard Talley died this morning at 3 o'clock at her home on North Clay street. Mrs. Talley had been in bad health for several months past, but her condition had not grown alarming until about two weeks ago. She was a most estimable lady and a member of the Union Chapel Methodist church. The exact hour and final details of the funeral services have not yet been arranged, but the services will be held tomorrow, and interment will take place in Riverside cemetery.

Aged Citizen Summoned.

"Dick" White died yesterday at noon at the residence of Mrs. Roark on Second street where he boarded. He was about eighty years of age and death was due in a large measure to infirmities of old age. Mr. White was never married. He was a brother of Sam White and was well known throughout this region. Interment took place in the family burying ground today, the funeral procession leaving Mrs. Roark's residence at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. H. D. Smith.

Death of Boy.

The three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Charlton died at their home on the West Side Wednesday night of typhoid fever. The body was buried Thursday in the Hayes burying ground near the asylum.

Of Typhoid Fever.

Byron Cansler died last night at his home near Era, in North Christian, of typhoid fever. He was about thirty-five years of age and leaves a family. He was a nephew of Judge Polk Cansler, of this city. Interment took place today in the Hamby burying ground.

SALVATION ARMY

Lieutenant is Here for the Purpose of Establishing a Post.

Lieut. Charles Elmore, of the American Salvation Army, is in the city engaged in brigade work for that organization. If suitable assistance is given him and arrangements can be made it is very probable that a Salvation Army post will be established here. Lieut. Elmore expresses himself as being highly pleased with the reception which has already been accorded him. He says the people have all been deeply interested in his work and he finds them anxious for the army to come here. He also says he finds the Hopkinsville people to be the most liberal and friendly he has ever met. Lieut. Elmore's headquarters are at Mitchell's boarding house on South Main street where he will remain until Monday.

Meeting Postponed.

The regular business meeting and social of the Christian Endeavor society of the C. P. church which was to be held tonight has been postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Bradshaw. By order of the president.

Boy Meets With an Accident Near LaFayette Which Cost Him His Life.

(From Friday's Daily)

Vadan Hancock, the eleven year old son of Mrs. James Hancock, of the LaFayette vicinity, was killed Wednesday afternoon while driving a wagon and team of mules from his home to a tobacco field three miles distant.

The laborers on the place went to the tobacco field ahead of the team for the purpose of cutting the tobacco. The boy was started out alone with the team and wagon to carry it to the field. About half way, Sam Bumpus met the outfit, the mules going at a slow trot and horrified to find the dead body of the boy hanging over one of the traces, the head and feet dragging the ground. He stopped the team and removed the body but life was entirely extinct. How the accident occurred is a mystery, but it is supposed that the boy was driving along at a good pace and that the wheels struck some obstruction which pitched him headlong in such a manner that he fell across the trace and was killed before he could get out of danger.

The body was buried yesterday afternoon near LaFayette.

PROJECT OF A PARK

ON JEFF DAVIS FARM IS QUICKLY TAKING SHAPE.

Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner will come to Louisville this week to confer with Thomas D. Osborne in regard to the project to purchase the birthplace of Jefferson Davis, president of the southern Confederacy, with the view of converting it into a memorial park, says the Louisville Times. The matter was brought up by Gen. Buckner at the reunion of the Orphan Brigade held last week at Glasgow. The idea became popular at once, and the newspapers and leading citizens of western and southern Kentucky declare that enough money can be raised to carry out the plan.

Capt. John H. Weller is commander of the Orphan Brigade and he was so well pleased with the suggestion that he appointed a committee, composed of Gen. Buckner, Capt. George C. Norton, Capt. J. T. Gains and Thomas D. Osborne, of Kentucky, and Capt. S. A. Cunningham, of Nashville, Tenn., to take the matter up. Following the conference, Gen. Buckner will hold with Mr. Osborne a meeting of the committee will be held and definite plans laid for carrying out the project. Jefferson Davis was born at Fairview, Todd county, only a short distance from Hopkinsville and Elkton. The old residence was standing until a few years ago, when it was torn down to make way for a Baptist church.

The Louisville Times says editorially:

"The response to the idea originated at the recent reunion of the survivors of the Orphan Brigade of purchasing the birthplace of Jefferson Davis and converting it into a park bears witness to the fact that its appropriateness has received widespread recognition throughout the south."

"Jefferson Davis' devotion to the cause of the Confederacy exacted from him greater sacrifices than any other southern leader was called on to give. In them all he bore himself with a quiet dignity, a calm courage and a loyal faith in the justice of the cause for which he suffered, as rightly to dissipate all feeling of bitterness growing out of conflicting policies at the time of the actual struggle and to gain for him the affection, as his ability had always commanded, the admiration of the people to whom he gave so much."

"His memory is one that the south can never hold otherwise than in grateful remembrance, and evidence of it could take no fitter form than that which the Orphan Brigade has proposed."

One of the wounds is considered serious. Deputy Sheriff Cravens arrested Garrott and he is now locked up in the county jail. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the disease for which "Favorite Prescription" is advised.

Beat His Wife.

Policemen Hord and Miller have arrested George Buckner who was wanted on a warrant charging him with breach of the peace. It is alleged that Buckner beat up his wife, Daisy Buckner. Policeman Miller started to arrest Buckner the day the warrant was sworn out, but Buckner saw him coming and by some good running got away.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

CIRCUIT JUDGE THOS. P. COOK.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Circuit court convened this morning for a six weeks' term. The session was begun by an earnest prayer by Judge Cook.

The grand jury was impaneled as follows: E. M. Flack, foreman; E. H. Price, Joseph Clark, Luther Wolfe, E. W. Hendrick, James Willis, V. M. Williamson, R. G. Rickman, J. C. Simmons, W. H. Davenport, M. M. Lacey, Ernest Boyd.

In charging the grand jury Judge Cook dwelt especially upon perjury, false swearing and subornation of perjury and upon the various violations of the liquor laws. In his instructions regarding perjury and false swearing, Judge Cook stated that these offenses caused the courts more trouble than all others put together. He urged the grand jury to be especially diligent in investigating these charges when the person whom the evidence tended to show was guilty was in the higher walks of life. Judge Cook said that the higher one was in the plane of society, the greater was his offense, and while he did not want the grand jury to construe his remarks as meaning that he did not also want them to return indictments wherever possible against negroes and the lower classes, he did want them to pay particular attention to those cases where a person of standing was at fault.

In regard to the violations of the liquor laws, Judge Cook was especially severe in his instructions, not leaving any phase of the question untouched. He closed his remarks with reference to the clause which prohibits the selling or giving of liquor to minors, and pointed out the great danger to individuals and society which was threatened by persons violating this statute, and thus laying the foundation among young boys for confirmed drunkards later on in life.

Health in the Canal Zone

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters—who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Cook & Higgins and Cook's Pharmacy, 50c.

The way to get rid of a cold whether it be a "bad cold" or just a little one, is to get it out of your system through the bowels. Nearly all Cough Cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

MARKET WAS QUIET

OWING TO SCARCITY OF ANYTHING TO SELL.

Association Got Good Prices For 76 Hhds.—Nearly All Crop Has Been Cut.

The local tobacco market has passed through another quiet week, there having been very few sales on account of the scarcity of anything for sale.

With the general market the season has practically been over for several days, there being very few hogsheads left on hand, and the dealing in these being done privately, and therefore not creating any stir on the market. Some of this kind of activity is still shown, though and in all such sales the prices remain high, with nothing to indicate any lower figures.

The local salesman for the Planters' Protective association reports the sale of 76 hogsheads for the week. There are probably about 200 hogsheads yet on hand with the association, and arrangements are now being made to offer it all next week, and thus wind up the season. Prices here also are fully up to former quotations, and what few hogsheads are left on hand are sought after by the buyers on the market. Some fancy prices are expected to be realized at next week's sale.

The cutting of this year's crop in now more than half finished and will practically be completed in the next few days. Reports from every section indicate that the crop which is now being housed is the finest, both in size and quality, that has been raised in several years. This fact, together with the advance in prices and the short crop of this year, is expected to carry prices still higher when this tobacco begins to be offered this fall and winter. Owing to the big gain in membership which have been made by the Planters' Protective association, a large percentage of the crop will be handled by the organization. The firing of the tobacco has been begun, and already quite a number of reports have been received where barns caught fire from these fires and were destroyed, together with the entire crop which was housed therein.

Trials catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people without a penny's cost, the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's catarrh remedy. Sold by Anderson & Fowler Drug Co. (Incorporated.)

About People and Things

An exchange tells of a prize having been offered by a Boston firm for the best definition of what constitutes success. A Kansas woman was awarded the prize and her answer was as follows: He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task, who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory was a benediction.

"Sporting Life," a well-known sporting magazine, says of a former Hopkinsville baseball star: Pitcher Charles Bomar, of Decatur, has made a record this season that is unique in the history of organized baseball. In the last twenty-two games that he has worked up to September 9th, he won twenty and tied two. Not a defeat in twenty-two games. Many of these games went into extra innings. His record for the entire season has been one that has called forth admiration from the entire circuit. Bomar is not alone strong in pitching, but in one of the best hitters on his team.

The souvenir post card fad in Hopkinsville is not on the wane by any means, a fact easily proven in the sale of one cent stamps here and the sale of souvenir post cards by local dealers. During August a total of 18,267 one cent stamps were sold here. Most of them were for souvenir post cards, and September bids fair to outdo its predecessor in one cent stamp sales, judging from the start made. The sale for July was 13,761, and in August 1906 the total sales were 10,724 stamps.

"Rev. Millard A. Jenkins, of Hopkinsville, preached," says the Fairview Review, "several very fine sermons to large and appreciative congregations in this city this week."

Mrs. W. A. Radford returned from Battle Creek, Mich., says the Pembroke Journal. Her many friends will regret to learn that her health is not much improved.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Kirtley left yesterday for Madisonville, where Mr. Kirtley will enter upon his work as pastor of the Baptist church.

Calico will be higher than since 1895, the manufacturers inform us, 10 cents being the limit. The same calico sold a year ago for 4 or 5 cents. The cost of cotton and the increased cost of manufacture are said to be responsible for the high price, which will be a serious item in the living expenses of the poor.

The New Era begs to acknowledge receipt of an invitation from Al G. Field, the well-known minstrel, to attend a banquet in commemoration of the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of his minstrel at Montgomery, Ala., on Oct. 6. Mr. Field makes it a custom to give one of these banquets annually, the event taking place in the city or town where his company happens to be when the anniversary comes around. Last year the banquet was given in Charleston, S. C. The dinner is always an occasion of much note and is attended by many prominent people. A varied and entertaining program is given.

The "Teddy Bear" hat for the ladies is the latest. The hat is the creation of a New York milliner. It is of black velvet. There is the characteristic wild west turned to the front. Two small white Teddy bears are attached with a dash of pink ribbon. It is the real thing and is expected to cause a rush.

The Great Council of the United States Improved Order of Red Men in annual session last week adopted an amendment to the laws of the order prohibiting membership in future to all saloon-keepers and bartenders.

A new society has been formed in Washington called the National Council, Daughters of America. Its purpose, as set forth, is "to maintain the interest of Americans, to shield them from invasion, to assist them in getting employment, and to encourage them in business; and to maintain the public school system, and to prevent sectarian interference." Among the incorporators are several men.

FELAND LANDS THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR REPRESENTATIVE

JOHN FELAND.

The Republican mass convention at the courthouse this afternoon nominated John Feland for representative.

W. T. Fowler was chairman and Edward Glass, colored, secretary. Editor E. W. Clark withdrew in a letter to the county chairman, and the only names before the convention were those of Mr. Feland and Squire B. F. Fuller. Hiram Smith, col., nominated the former and C. A. Brasher the latter.

The crowd was not very big and the colored Republicans were largely in the majority. When the vote was taken every single, solitary negro voted for Feland along with a few white ones, and the tellers announced the vote as follows:

Feland 56
Fuller 22

Mr. Feland appeared before the convention and acknowledged his gratitude in a characteristic flight of oratory.

On motion of Judge Anderson, made prior to the nominations, the nominee was instructed to vote for W. O. Bradley for United States senator as long as his name was before the legislature.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Secretary Strauss, of the department of commerce and Labor, announced today that he purposed establishing "a national employment agency" with T. V. Powderly head of the de-

A Traveling Man's Experience
"I must tell you my experience on an east bond O. R. & N. R. R. train from Paducah to Le Grade, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with several other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a deathlike look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. (I never travel without it), ran to water cooler, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." During past years the New Era has held various contests in all of which the prizes were offered to grown people, but now a contest has been inaugurated solely for the children in which eleven Gold Watches and a $250 Shetland Pony outfit will be the prizes. The winners will be determined by the votes of our subscribers, 100 votes being given for every dollar paid on subscription to either the Daily or Weekly New Era, no matter whether it is payment of back

The city and county has been divided into districts as will be explained later, and in each of these eleven districts a valuable Gold Watch, the case being guaranteed for twenty years and fitted with either an Elgin or Waltham movement, is offered for the highest number of votes secured in that district.
Then for the highest number of votes secured, irrespective of the district, the Pony and outfit will be given. This pony is a genuine Shetland, guaranteed to be sound in every particular and fully broken to harness and safe for any child to drive. The buggy is being manufactured by West & Lee, of this city, and will be the best and handsomest turnout which they can get out and rubber tired wheels. The harness will be made especially for the pony teen years of age is eligible to enter this contest.

The contest begins on Sept. 10 and will close Dec. 10, 1907, at 6 o'clock
p. m.

For every dollar paid on subscription to either the Daily or Weekly
New Era, either new subscriptions in advance or on arrears on old ones, a coupon good for 100 votes will be issued. These coupons must be voted within 20 days after being issued.

No coupons will be issued for payments of less than 50c at a time.

In addition to the coupons given with each dollar paid on subscription, a coupon good for one vote will appear in each issue of the Daily and Weekly New Era. These coupons must be voted within the time specified at the top, but to equalize distances all such coupons will be counted when the postmark on the envelope shows that they were duly mailed before the time had expired.
These coupons should be clipped from the paper and neatly trimmed around the border and plainly filled out. In order to obviate extra work however, these ballots may be pinned together and only the top one filled out, in which case the entire bunch will be counted for the person whose name appears on the first one.

All that is necessary to enter a contest is for some friend to cast one or more votes for him or her.

The plan of distributing the prizes by districts insures one child at least from every section of the county will be the beneficiary of this offer, while candidates living outside the county are also given the opportunity to get one of the watches and possibly the pony outfit.

The vote will be published each week in the Weekly and as often as practicable in the Daily. This count will be made by the employees of the paper but all counted ballots will be saved for a recount should it be necessary to settle any close race or disputed questions.

No person connected with this office, nor any member of his or her immediate family is eligible as a candidate, neither can they cast votes.

A candidate must reside in the district from which he or she is entered but should they remove during the contest all votes cast for them will be counted for them from the district into which they move.
This is the only way in which transfers of votes will be made.

A person living in one district may cast his vote for a candidate in another district and candidates can solicit anywhere but in such cases the ballot must bear the number of the district in which the candidate lives and not that of the voter.

The price of the Daily is $5.00 per year, either by mail or carrier, $2.50

SENATOR CARMACK

WILL PROBABLY ENTER RACE FOR GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE

Will be Opposed by Gov. Patterson—Carmack Favors Primary to Select Candidate.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 20.—
Former United States Senator E.
W. Carmack will undoubtedly run for governor against Gov. R. M.
Patterson, and should he so decide, says he will favor nominating the candidate by primary. He is expected to announce his candidacy in the next few days. There was a conference here, called at the instance of friends in Memphis, at which the former senator was requested to announce for governor.
Among those present were Mayor
J. H. Malone, Judge S. L. Crockett
and W. A. Percy, of Memphis; Thomas McCorty and Harry Ezell, of Jackson; Ernest Rice and T. C.
Gordon, of Dyersburg, and L. A.
Ligon, of Carthage.

After the conference Mr. Carmack said that several friends from west Tennessee had asked him to meet them at the Maxwell House, and he had come here in response to their request. When asked if they wanted to see him on matters of politics, he answered that they did.

REV. C. H. H. BRANCH

WILL BE PASTOR OF NINTH-ST.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A letter received this morning by Dr. F. M. Stites from Rev. C. H. H.
Branch, of Lexington, states that the West Lexington presbytery had formally dissolved the relation existing between Dr. Branch and his congregation in Lexington to the Muhlenberg presbytery.

This means that Dr. Branch will be duly installed as the pastor of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church.
In his letter he says that he will be here and deliver his first sermon on Sunday, Oct. 6. His connection with this church will date from October 1.

Dr. Branch and his wife will occupy the parsonage on South Campbell street. This has been recently renovated and put in order for their coming. The Ninth street church is to be congratulated upon securing
Dr. Branch as its pastor.

JUVENILE JOHN.

The nice but excitable young editor of the Cadiz Record is a-rarin' and a-chargin' again. He thinks fiercely and fulminates furiously and very, very foolishly. This time, Mr. Lawrence, with characteristic intemperance of language, seeks to put the brand of the Tobacco Trust on the Kentucky New Era and declares us inimicable to the association because this paper, in a merely incidental way, mentioned the Record's omission of any recognition of Fire Marshal Ayres' recent appearance, together with his handwriting experts, before the Trigg grand jury. Really, the matter scarcely merited a notice, for the New Era rather frequently "scoops" the dear Record on Trigg happenings of interest. We shouldn't be scolded for this; Mr. Lawrence ought to get after his local force. O, no; we are not agin' the association, but are hoping and working for its success on a plane above any shadow of reproach; one that will insure its permanency and unbounded prosperity. That sort of friendship is worth a great deal more, John, than all the incendiary editorial utterances ever published. And we love Trigg county; it's our own sister county and no better people live on earth than its citizenship. Our feeling for them is all the more quickened when we remember that they are afflicted with a gang of devilish Night Riders, and we pray that they may speedily wipe it out of existence.

Expressions more profane than O, Fudge! may sometimes shock Col. Haldeman and Mr. Watterson; but don't you ever believe they are in the mollycoddle class.

The tenderest sympathy of the press of Kentucky goes out to Capt. Robert J. McBryde, associate editor of the Louisville Times, in the loss of his beloved young wife. Mrs. McBryde was a charming woman and noble and inspiring helpmeet.

The nomination of John Feland by the Republicans of Christian county to make the race for representative has aroused the enthusiastic approbation of the Democratic.

IS BREATHITT A "ME-TO?"

The State Journal has always spoken well of Judge Breathitt, the Republican nominee for attorney-general and has regarded him as a high class man, but all Republicans look alike when they get on the stump in quest of office. In his speech at Marion, Monday, he went over the same ground that Wilson is trotting, going him one further in his tirade against the alleged Democratic machine. Taking up the ousting of Democratic officeholders in Louisville, and the naming of new officials by Governor Beckham, Judge Breathitt charged that this was only another move of the machine for the purpose of satisfying for a short period the high moral element of Louisville, and that it was never intended that they should be nominated for the offices to which they had been appointed.

This is a serious charge for a lawyer to make. Is the court of appeals an annex of the so-called machine, and is Judge Breathitt's political brother, Chief Justice O'Rear, a spoke or a cog in it? Judge Breathitt seems to be in contempt of court. The judge is said to have treated the putting on of the lid in Louisville in a humorous manner, remarking that:

"The governor has no more to do with putting on the lid in Louisville than he has to do with the enforcement of the law in the Philippine Islands." This is a very foolish statement under the circumstances. Whether the governor has anything to do with putting on the lid in that city it cannot be controverted that he appointed a man who did and that he had that result in view in naming him. Judge Breathitt seems to be trying to secure membership in Little Bruner's class.—Frankfort State Journal.

You've seen the Igorrotes, haven't you? They are sartorial brothers to Kipling's Gunga Din—"the uniform they wore, was nothin' much before 'an' rather less than 'alf of that be'ind." Over in Nashville this week, a deputy sheriff swooped down on the Igorrote village at the state fair and haled the "little brown brothers" to court for indecent exposure of person. Bond was given for them and they are back at the fair exhibiting the curves as usual.

Interviewed a day or two ago in Washington, Congressman Stanley said very truthfully that the political situation is constantly improving in Kentucky, and he predicts the election of the Democratic state ticket. "Everyone is so busily engaged in state politics," said Mr. Stanley, "that practically no thought is being given to the national situation. Unless Mr. Bryan withdraws from the presidential race Kentucky will send her delegates to the convention instructed for him."

Next Tuesday is registration day, and all persons living in Christian county in incorporated towns who wish to vote in the general election in November should without fail be on hand bright and early next Tuesday morning, Oct. 1st, and register. If you fail to do so and you are in the city and able to be present, you will not be entitled to vote in November. A supplemental registration will take place later in October for those who are out of the city and those who are sick, being unable to be present. The polls will open at 6 o'clock, a. m., and close at 4 o'clock p. m. Do not forget the date, next Tuesday, Oct. 1st.

Dr. House Locates Here.

The attention of readers is respectfully directed to the professional card of Dr. T. B. House, which appears in this impression of the New Era. Dr. House has moved to this city with his family from Springfield, Tenn., and will practice his profession here. He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, and is a skilled and experienced physician. He comes to Hopkinsville with many flattering recommendations both as to social and professional qualifications.

FRANKLIN SPEAKING

AT COURTHOUSE IN INTEREST OF DEMOCRATIC TICKET

The opening gun of the political campaign in Christian county was fired this afternoon when Hon. R. B. Franklin, commonwealth's attorney of the Frankfort district, and one of the staunchest Democrats in the state, spoke at the courthouse in the interest of the Democratic state ticket.

The courthouse was filled with an interested audience, representing the highest class of the citizenship of Hopkinsville and the surrounding territory. Conspicuous among those present were a number of ladies and to these Mr. Franklin paid a high tribute in his opening remarks. That the speaker's utterances were well received and were in accord with his hearers was amply testified to by the hearty applause which was accorded him from time to time.

Mr. Franklin was introduced by Dr. John D. Clardy, who, in a brief speech gave his personal testimony to the character and worth of Mr. Franklin, whom he has known for many years, and with whom he has labored in the service of the state. In his speech of introduction Dr. Clardy said that while there might be some Democrats who were not fully pleased with the selection of some candidates which had been made, that it was the time for them now to lay aside all such grievances and to pull and vote together for the Democratic ticket and against the enemy.

In acknowledging the introduction Mr. Franklin paid Dr. Clardy a graceful compliment and heartily seconded his plea for a united Democracy.

Plain facts about Republicanism in Kentucky and its attendant evils, together with the gospel of Democracy to brighten the picture, composed his address. It was an effective speech, and stirred the Democrats to enthusiasm. Early in his talk, Mr. Franklin, observing that a good many colored people were present, gave them some good advice. He showed them that they were simply being used by the Republicans to ride on into office, and made plain what Democrats had done in their interest, especially in the way of providing educational advantages; and he called on the negroes to give no heed to those Republican agitators, who for political and selfish purpose, sought to array them against their employers and friends. At the same time Mr. Franklin declared himself an emphatic believer in the supremacy of the white race. The speaker discussed the recent allegation of the Louisville Herald that he was "the Democrats' hired prosecutor," and said Editor Newman had personally assured him that the expression was an unfortunate choice of words, and that he would make a retraction in his columns. He said that the Franklin grand jury was investigating the Herald's "Bailey precinct" story that trees under the name of A. Pear, A. Peach, etc., had been voted for Democrats, and the result would soon be made public. As for himself, he had never bought a vote either by money or whisky, and for a second term as prosecuting attorney, had no opposition. The Herald, said Mr. Franklin, did not mention in its article one tree, and that was the hackberry tree in the front yard of the statehouse which received the Republican bullet after it had pierced the body of William Goebel. He characterized that order as infinitely more cowardly than the stabbing of Caesar, for Brutus acted in the open while Goebel's murderer planted an assassin to do the cruel deed, while he, himself, sneaked away. Mr. Franklin paid a beautiful and tender tribute to the memory of Gov. Goebel, and charged the Republican party with being accessories, if not before, at least after the fact, to his assassination. He resented the accusation of the Republicans that the $100,000 Goebel reward fund, under the control of such men as Dr. Clardy, and only $12,000 of which had ever been spent, was a corruption fund, and said that Powers had more money, and had spent more money, for his defense, than had the prosecution. He said the former Republican administrations had on them blots so foul and indecent in reference to the management of the state institutions that he could not present the details before an audience in which there were ladies. He referred persons interested to the senate journal of 1897, The Democratic prison commissioners, with George V. Green and men of his character and capacity, had made records to be pointed to with pride.

In concluding his speech, Mr. Franklin told of the distressing conditions, brought about by Republican fostered trusts, which had made the formation of farmers' organization necessary, in order that they might feed and clothe their families. It was, he said, a Democratic legislature that passed the law giving the farmers a right to combine. He called on the farmers to stand for no violence, depending on moral suasion for their accomplishments, touching no man nor his property, but in the strength of the union guaranteed them by the legislature to stand firm, and now and for all fine the tobacco trust will have to pay living prices. Mr. Franklin's speech was punctuated by applause, and scores of people gathered around him to congratulate him on his splendid effort.

The members of Jim Peatee Camp, United Confederate veterans, at Princeton, have prepared a petition asking Senator James B. McCreary to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for vice president.

The Democratic State Campaign committee announced this morning the itinerary of William J. Bryan, who will spend October 7 and 8 in Kentucky speaking in the interest of the Democratic ticket. The special train will leave Louisville the morning of the first day and Mr. Bryan will speak at the principal points between Louisville and Russellville. From Russellville the train will go to Owensboro. The second day will be spent on the Illinois Central between Henderson and Fulton. The last speech will be made at Murray. Numerous Democratic politicians will accompany Mr. Bryan.

Hon. John C. Duffy, county attorney of Christian county, and one of the most forceful speakers among the young Democrats of the second district, will shortly take the stump and make a series of speeches for the ticket.—Owensboro Inquirer.

James B. Allensworth, of Hopkinsville, will address the voters of Todd county in behalf of the Democratic party at Allegree, Friday, Sept. 27, at 6 o'clock p. m.; at Kirkmansville, at 7:30 same day; at Sharon Grove, Saturday, Sept. 28, at 1 p. m. at Elkton, Saturday, Sept. 28, at 7:30 p. m.

UNDER BIG WHEELS

OF LOCOMOTIVE THOMAS VEACH IS CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Not Hearing Warning, He Attempted to Cross Track in Front of Switch Engine.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Thomas Veach, aged sixty years, a familiar figure on the streets of this city where he piled his vocation of huckster, was struck by the L. & N. switch engine at the crossing of the railroad and Eleventh streets about 11:30 o'clock this morning and was instantly killed.

According to the account given by the crew of the switch engine, the old man came driving up Eleventh street and started across the track as the switch engine was going south on the main line with a string of cars. When first noticed the engine was close to the crossing and Switchmen Grau and Jackson, who were standing on the cars, yelled to him to stop. Though they repeated their cries three or four times Veach continued to drive on, giving no indications that he heard them at all. Just after the horses had gotten across the main track and while the wagon was square upon it, the collision came. The wagon was completely demolished and the old man thrown and dragged for perhaps twenty or thirty feet. The body was horribly mutilated, being cut almost in two at the waist line.

Both arms were broken and cut in a number of places and the face was mashed in, the features being almost unrecognizable. The other parts of the body were bruised and lacerated considerably but the legs were hardly scratched. When pitched to one side by the engine the body fell fully on its face and lay in that manner until removed to the undertaking establishment of Waller & Rogers. The horses were dragged some distance also and some hair from the tail of one was cut off and lay lying beside the track, but they both escaped without serious injury. Veach lived with his wife near Cate's mill east of town where he had bought a small place. He was the father of Duncan and Calvin Veach.

EAGLES' CARNIVAL

Preparations for the coming big carnival of the Eagles are rapidly nearing completion. Daily a force of men are at work throughout the country and in Hopkinsville posting attractive paper calling attention to the good things Hopkinsville will offer for the week of Sept. 30th. Mr. Foster of the Robinson shows assures the committee that the attractions offered by his company, both free acts and tented exhibitions will be the best brains can devise and money procure, among the many paid shows will be found:

Pioneer Days and Iola "The Girl Who Sings to Beat the Band."
Trained Wild Animal Show.

Mercer park will present a brilliant appearance; already a force of electricians are at work setting poles stringing wire for the thousands of electric bulbs which will turn night into day.

Senator Bob Taylor and former Senator E. W. Carmack, shook hands at the Columbia, Tenn., fair and were accorded a great ovation as they buried the political hatchet.

BY THE THOUSANDS

VOTES ARE RECORDED IN THE PONY CONTEST.

Some Figures of Much Interest Are Shown in the New Era's Latest Count.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Another enormous vote was counted last night in the Children's Popularity contest, the count showing a total of 14,871 for last night, or over forty thousand total up to this time. This is an unprecedented showing for a contest of this kind, especially for the first two weeks as this is.

Taking this as a criterion, the total vote will go far ahead of that cast in the Mammoth Cave contest last year, which, at that time broke all previous records.

Heavy gains were made by the candidates in all the districts and one big change in the standing is made.

Lowe Johnson, of district No. 3, gained nearly three thousand votes in the last count and this puts him in the lead for the pony by a nice margin.

Miss Lena Clarke, of district No. 1, dropping back to second place. In district No. 2, Joe Kelly's name appears for the first time, but that he has been at work and means business is testified to by his vote of nearly two thousand.

Paul Witty is also a new candidate in the same district who starts in with a good vote. In district No. 3, the standing remains about the same except that Miss Thelma Morris moves into second place, forcing Miss Virginia Schmitt back to third position.

In district No. 7, Miss Bertha Clardy goes ahead of James McKnight, who has held first position in this district since the first count. Indications are that there is something doing in district No. 8, for Miss Janie Walker, a new candidate, comes in with a vote which puts her in first position from the start.

Ben Cowherd, another new candidate, also begins with enough votes to put him right up with the leaders. The situation remains more quiet with the other districts but they are apt to break loose at any time and when this happens there will be a changing about of the candidates.

The gold watches and the pony outfit are proving such an inducement to all the children in the county that there is no telling when radical changes in the standing may be made. It therefore behooves all the candidates to keep their eyes open at all times and let no opportunity pass which promises to give them a vote.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

Malaria is an atmospheric poison which we unconsciously breathe into our system. The blood in its constant passage through the lungs absorbs the germs, and they destroy the rich, red corpuscles of this vital fluid and reduce it to such a weak, watery condition that it is unable to properly nourish the system, and disease gets a foothold. Then the symptoms of Malaria, such as pale, sallow complexion, weak vitality, poor appetite, deranged digestion, and perhaps chills and fever show that the trouble is affecting every part of the body. Malaria also affects the liver, producing a chronic state of biliousness, and often a long spell of fever follows when the blood becomes fully contaminated with the poison. Chronic Sores and Ulcers, boils, aches and pains, and skin affections of various kinds often result from this insidious disease if the poison is allowed to accumulate in the blood in sufficient quantities. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. This great remedy goes down into the blood and drives out all germs, microbes and poisons, and permanently cures Malaria. S. S. S. not only cleanses the blood of the cause, but furnishes it with the healthful properties it needs, so that instead of a weak, germ-infected stream, spreading disease throughout the system, it becomes a rich, red fluid, nourishing the body and enabling it to resist disease. S. S. S. is also the greatest of all tonics, and builds up and invigorates the entire system while ridding the blood of the germs of Malaria. Persons who are suffering from Malaria will be pleased with the prompt and pleasant results produced by the use of S. S. S., and can take it with confidence because it is an absolutely safe medicine, being free from harmful minerals of any kind. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

GREAT SALT DEPOSIT

FOUND BY CIVIL ENGINEERS AT SALT LAKE CITY.

Thought to Be the Source From Which Salt Lake Gets Its Salt

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 20.—Engineers who are superintending the construction of the Western Pacific railroad from Salt Lake City to San Francisco believe that they have discovered the source of the saline quality of the great Salt Lake at Salt Lake City, Utah. It is a portion of the roadbed and so far as followed is eight miles wide and 40 miles long.

The engineers who have studied the topography of this part of the country are inclined to the belief that a large body of water underlies this enormous salt bed and that it flows to the great Salt Lake through underground channels.

The saline deposits presents much the appearance of a polar ice flow. So closely are the salt crystals packed together that the ties for the railroad are laid on the surface and 150,000 pound engines pass over them without making any impression. In placing the telegraph poles along the line of the road, it was found necessary to blast out the salt with dynamite, its rock-like hardness making it impossible to dig down the eight feet required to give support to the poles.

The salt body is 27 feet higher than the lake at the Mormon capital, and the slope of the land is such that if water existed there the flow would be in the direction of the lake. In view of the curious geological composition of the country, in which rivers are frequently known to disappear completely from the surface and reappear miles away with greatly increased volume, the hypothesis is plausible, at least, and will be investigated by scientists.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions, which seriously tax their strength, as worthy nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would, it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a mixture of various known and reliable ingredients, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it must be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

Fine Turkey Dies.

Dr. J. L. Harris, who lives about six miles from town on the Princeton road, is grieving over the death of his prize turkey gobbler, "Charles Jarrett." This gobbler was an unusually handsome and well bred gentleman and Dr. Harris had captured quite a number of valuable premiums by displaying him at various fairs where he never failed to attract much attention. The cause of Charles' death is not known, he having been taken suddenly ill and passing away before medical aid could reach him. Funeral tomorrow.

Weep not, dear heart, This is our day to part.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it.

But it won't cure it. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it; Reach the cause; relieve the pain.

Mrs. Eva Hobbs, living on North Seminary street, Madisonville, Ky., says: "I have no hesitancy in re-endorsing the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills, as they are, without doubt, the best kidney medicine in the world. When they permanently cured me of my trouble in the summer of 1909, I allowed my experience to be published in our local newspapers so that others who suffer as I might know what course to pursue to get relief. I was a sufferer for years with terrible pains through my kidneys and down through my loins. There were such bearing down pains at times that I actually had to give up and lie down until the pain subsided. The secretions from the kidneys were irregular in action and painful, in passing. I tried remedy after remedy, rubbed my back with liniment, and wore plasters but received little or no relief. Doan's Kidney Pills made a complete and permanent cure four years ago, and it only required two boxes to do it. I have been perfectly free from any kidney complaint ever since."

STRUCK WITH A BAT

A NORTH CHRISTIAN SCHOOL TEACHER INJURED.

George W. Lacey, the Victim of Eulius Ratcliff's Blow—is in a Serious Condition.

(From Friday's Daily)

George W. Lacey, the teacher of the county school at Castleberry, six miles west of Crofton, was struck on the head with a baseball bat yesterday by Eulius Ratcliff, and his condition is regarded as very serious.

The story as reported here this morning is that while the pupils of the school were playing at the noon hour, Ratcliff came along, and picking up a bat carried it off. Ratcliff went over to a barn near by where he stayed for some time, and then returned to the school house, carrying the bat in his hand. Mr. Lacey went out and the two had some conversation when Ratcliff struck him with a bat. Mr. Lacey was knocked unconscious and he remained in that condition nearly the entire afternoon.

The sympathy of the neighborhood seems to be with the school teacher, who is a young man. It is said that this is not the first time that Ratcliff has gone to the playground and interfered with the children in their games.

Mrs. Lula Clark's Affidavit is Taken in Office of W. S. Taylor at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—In a deposition which was given in the office of ex-Governor W. S. Taylor, of Kentucky, Mrs. Lula Clark, formerly of Rowan county, Kentucky, says that Turner Igo, of Rowan county, killed Gov. Goebel. She says she saw Igo run from the capitol building just after the shot was fired and heard him say to John Sanford, who was apparently waiting for him in the capital door, "I got the d---."

BARN BURNED.

A barn belonging to H. H. Tilley and rented by Joe F. and W. H. Weaver, near Bennettsburg, was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon which caught from the fires which were being kept up for curing the tobacco. The crop of ten acres was in the barn and it was all consumed. The loss will be very heavy as there was no insurance.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for Digestion and Dyspepsia, combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

NOW IN THE FIELD

TRUST AGENTS BUY TOBACCO BEFORE IT IS CUT

Preparing For Fight on Growers' Association—Independent Manufacturers at Disadvantage.

PADUCAH, Ky., Sept. 23.—Forces are being lined up for a supreme test of survival in the tobacco industry, from indications in this and adjoining counties. The presence of tobacco buyers, representing both the trust and independent manufacturers, who are buying tobacco in the field from non-association growers, forebodes a life and death struggle next year between the Dark Tobacco Growers' association and the tobacco trust.

Astonishment is expressed on all hands at the action of the buyers in contracting for the crop before it has been cut, as the shrinkage in quantity by the time it has been cured and is ready for pricing makes it extremely difficult to estimate the value of a field. The only reason advanced for such early and unprecedented buying is that both the trust and certain independent manufacturers want to get as much of the next crop as possible. Obviously, if all the independent tobacco is bought now by the trust and the association holds the remainder, the independent manufacturers who wait until the usual time to buy will find themselves high and dry for raw material.

No one knows just how much tobacco the trust has on hand. It is predicted that with the independent tobacco it is now buying, the trust may have enough to run it for a year or more in an effort to embarrass the association financially, from having to carry over most of its holdings. The association cannot market its pledges by the time the independent buyers are ready to purchase, and so the independent manufacturers will be at a disadvantage that will work to the interest of the trust.

Elated over this season's high prices, it is not likely that the association would accept much lower prices. It would rather carry over the crop. Another factor that must be considered is that the yield this year is not quite up to the normal, and many growers are cutting too early. This is the usual time for cutting when the season has been normal, but the backward season caused late planting and the tobacco being cut now is considered by competent judges here to be a little green. If this is true, the crop will be still smaller. The quality of this year's crop is slightly better than last year.

An Ounce of Prevention
Is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers. Consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S. — Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs." Sold by L. A. Johnson & Co.

MINISTER IS MANIAC

AND WILL HAVE TO BE SENT TO ASYLUM

Prohibition Nominee For Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky.—Formerly Editor of "The Truth-Teller."

OWENSBORO, Ky., Sept. 23.—Rev. J. D. Hooker, a Baptist minister of this place and prohibition nominee for lieutenant-governor of Kentucky, is a raving maniac at his home in this city and it requires the strength of eight men to keep him in his room.

The minister went to a local drug store and attempted to purchase morphine but the drug was refused him. He then went to a vacant lot near by where he sat down and men passing noticed he was acting strangely and removed him to his home. He became violent and his wife sent all their children away from home fearing that some violence might be done them.

The minister imagines he is Lazarus and wants water all the time. Two or three weeks ago Rev. Mr. Hooker while at Livermore drank a large bottle of medicine that had been given him by the physicians and for a while his life was in grave danger. It was immediately after the suicide of Mayor Paul Barth of Louisville and the pastor was heard to make the remark that he would go the same way. For this reason it is believed that he intended to end his life by drinking the medicine.

Rev. Mr. Hooker was nominated for lieutenant-governor in June last. He is 45 years old and one of the best known ministers in western Kentucky. For a long time he published a temperance paper in this city known as "The Truth Teller."

STORY VERY ABSURD

ACCORDING TO COMMONWEALTH ATTORNEY FRANKLIN.

Entirely Impossible For The Woman to Have Heard and Seen What She Claimed.

The special despatch in Saturday's New Era, giving the substance of an affidavit of Mrs. Lulu Clark that she was on the steps of the state house at Frankfort, the day Goebel was shot, and heard Turner Igo say he killed him, was read here with great interest.

Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. Franklin, who is here to speak at the court house this afternoon, and who has had charge of the prosecution of Gov. Goebel's murderers from the first, brands the affidavit as a fabrication, as it is at variance with all witnesses in the case.

Mr. Franklin gives the following statement to the press:

"Mrs. Clark's statement is an absurdity on its face. Of hundreds of witnesses who have testified in these assassination trials, not one for either the prosecution or defense has testified to the presence of a woman anywhere on the walks, steps or grounds within the state house square. There is a but one rear door opening from either the state house or executive building. That door is a basement door and opens into the gentlemen's toilet room under the auditor's office. Certainly Mrs. Clark and her friend, Miss King, were not entering there. She could not have meant she was on the steps at that door. There is a west entrance door into the hallway of the executive building and there are several steps leading up to that door, but Mrs. Clark and Miss King were not on these steps, as has been absolutely proven by Senator Newton Frazier, who stood about twenty feet from those steps immediately facing them when the shot was fired. And he has sworn in all these trials that until after the shots were fired there was no one on those steps, and all west entrance doors were wooden paneled and were closed. There was no one in sight in the open space west of the of the executive building and east of the legislative building at the time of the firing of the shot. E. T. Lillard and Col. Jack Chinn have testified in substance the same.

"Mrs. Clark's statement that at the time the shot was fired she noticed a man standing just inside the door, whom she recognized as Sanford, is disproven by Llewellyn F. St. Clair, the Republican postmaster at Georgetown, Ky., one of Caleb Powers' closest friends and warmest sympathizers, who in the first trial of Caleb Powers testified he alone was in that hallway at the time the shot was fired, and on Jim Howard's third trial this same St. Clair was asked this question: 'Was there any one in that hallway or on those steps when you went down there or while you were in the hallway?' He answered unequivocally, 'No, sir.' So Sanford was not just inside the door. Neither were Mrs. Clark and her friend, Miss King on the steps 'starting to enter.'"

Turner Igo Dead.

FARMERS, Ky., Sept. 23.—According to a statement made here by Samuel Igo, his cousin, Turner Igo, accused in affidavit by Mrs. Lulu Clark, in Indianapolis, of having shot Goebel, has been dead several years. Samuel Igo says he has never heard anything of the charges contained in the affidavit and does not know whether his cousin was in Frankfort at the time of Goebel's murder, and he could not say whether Turner knew John Sanford. Of Mrs. Clark, Samuel Igo said he had never heard so far as he could remember.

John Sanford Abroad.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23.—The Jno. Sanford, mentioned in the Richmond, Ind. despatch, is a son of the late Attorney Sanford who was killed by William Goebel during a political fight in Covington, Ky., some years ago. Goebel was acquitted but young Sanford was many times quoted as threatening to "get even," and has even been suspected of the murder, although direct evidence was lacking. His mother, wife of the dead man, is at present in a sanitarium, her mind having given away after the strain. Several times she is quoted with having declared that her son killed Goebel, but owing to her mental condition and the lack of corroborating evidence, these statements were not generally regarded as worthy of credence.

Young Sanford has not been at home for about two years, but is understood to have gone to China, and is now somewhere in the Far East.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev.
Frank De Witt Talmage, D. D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 22.—The claims of Christ to the homage of all races and all times as a divine being and the greatest of teachers are eloquently presented in this sermon from the text John vii, 46, "Never man spake like this man."

What a strange world this is! As soon as a novelty ceases to be a novelty, we look upon it as quite commonplace. What once aroused our admiration and enthusiasm is now considered one of the ordinary, prosaic incidents of everyday life. We marveled not long ago at the revolving wheel of the horseless carriage along our boulevards, which made thousands of pedestrians line the curbstones with interest. But that "nine days' wonder" soon came to an end. Now we grumble at the speed limit of the automobile, apply opprobrious epithets to the chauffeur and cross the street in fear and trembling lest one of these onrushing machines hurl us into eternity without a moment's notice. Once the sound of the telephone bell would make us take down the receiver with joyful anticipation to find who next of our friends had ordered his name put into the telephone book. But now, instead of being impressed with the wonder of the telephone wire, we are irritated by it as an annoyance. Once we said: "Marvelous! Marvelous invention!" Now we say, "I wish this miserable telephone had never been invented, for then I could have a few hours in quiet for work."

But, though a novelty may cease to be a novelty in reference to some of the great inventions of the world, yet some creations of God and man have never ceased to be novelties because they stand out from all other creations as absolutely unique. Why do the tourists in multitudes annually go to visit Niagara falls? Because these waterfalls are different from all other kinds of waterfalls. Why do the visitors marvel at the wonders of Yellowstone park? Because when they see the geysers in full play and the "Giant Paint Pot" and "Hell's Half Acre," where the ground, as in an earthquake, is moving and trembling under their feet and where they can catch a fish in one pool and without moving their feet throw the living fish into a natural caldron not ten yards away and there cook it and take it up ready to be eaten, these people say, "There are many wonders in this world, but there is no wonder anywhere else just like the wonders of Yellowstone park." The same is true about the pyramids. If we knew how they were built and why they were built, and if there were pyramids in Egypt just like the Egyptian pyramids, we would have but little interest in climbing Pharaoh's marvels. But because the Egyptian pyramids are different from all other piles of stone, tens of thousands of tourists annually make pilgrimage to Cairo as to a sacred shrine.

Differences in Men.

What is true of inanimate things is also true of certain men. When you find a man radically different in capacity from all other men, then that man stands out conspicuously among his fellows. Paganini, the master wizard of the violin, was such a man. The musical critics of his day declare that he developed a tone which was peculiarly his own. No other man ever possessed it before he did. No man has ever possessed it since. He was different from all other musicians. Because he was different, the whole musical world sat at his feet and listened and marveled. Edgar Allan Poe was such a man. There were a host of poets before the author of "The Raven." Many have risen and flourished since, but he was different from them all. Never was there a man who could make such rhythmic music out of mere words as he. Read his famous poem "The Bells." He transforms every word into a bell note. There the sleighs ring their bells, and the church towers ring their bells, and the fire alarms ring their bells, and the solemn funeral dirges ring their bells. And because Edgar Allan Poe was different from all other poets we find his books upon almost every library shelf.

Infinitely grander, supernally unique, even from a human standpoint, is he of whom I speak today. Christ was and is different from all other men. When he came forth from Nazareth and began to teach the people tried to realize his power. They tried to find similarities between his personality and that of other prophets, but the more they studied him the more they found he was a law unto himself. And because he was so peculiarly individual the people began to flock after him in great multitudes. At last every man and woman who came in touch with this new teacher confessed that he was absolutely and intensely unique. Even the officers of the law who were sent by the priests and Pharisees to arrest Jesus would not apprehend him, for they said, "Never man spake like this man." Do you wonder that a man like Jesus, who was of such a unique individual type, should have gathered about his personality the ever increasing multitudes and that he astounded them with his doctrines? I want to show you this morning some of the respects in which Christ was different from other men and why he wants us to be like him and be in our way different from the great world at large.

How Christ Was Different.

Christ was different from all other men, in the first place, because he claimed that he was the divine source of spiritual life. He spoke as a prophet, but he was more than a prophet. He spoke as a priest, but he was more than a priest. He spoke as a divine king in whom was all power. He stood up in the midst of the people and said, "I am the Christ whom the prophets foretold." He said, "I am the Messiah who has come to establish a kingdom." He did more than that. He compared himself to a fountain of living water of which if any man should drink he would never thirst again. He did more than that. He said that if any man should believe on him the divine power which he possessed would flow through the human heart as through a living channel. In all the history of the world was there ever a human being who took to himself such divine authority as did Christ? Do you wonder that when the officers of the law, at the behest of the chief priests, went to apprehend Jesus they stood amazed and exclaimed, "Never man spake like this man?"

His Claim of Divinity.

But the exalted claims of this divine Nazarene did not end with mere words. He said, "I am the Christ." Then he again said: "I will prove it by working the most wonderful miracles man ever witnessed. Do you see that young man who was born blind? I touch his eyes and they are opened. See, here is a deaf and dumb man. I place my finger in his ear and on his tongue and he is able to hear and speak. See, here is a dead man. Decomposition has already set in. That body is a corpse. I will call him and he will rise up and turn his bler into a couch! I do these miracles to prove to you that I am divine. All power is in me, I and my Father are one." Thus did Jesus to prove his divinity. He was a man. He was born of one of our bone and flesh of our flesh, yet at the same time he said: "I am God. I am the Messiah whose advent was prophesied from the earliest time. Listen to me." Do you not realize that this claim of divinity makes Christ stand forth from all other men as distinctively individual?

Now, my brother, if this divine Christ has a divine strength to give to you what you can receive from no other source, does it not behoove you to seek Christ and ask for this divine blessing? If Jesus is truly God, are you not willing to kneel down and ask for his pardon and his love? And especially would you not have this divine strength when it is offered freely to the vilest and the most flagrant sinners as it is offered to you?

Professor Phillips tells the story of a burglar who broke into a seaside mansion. He tumbled into the middle of the parlor floor all the valuables which he wished to take away, but in the corner of that parlor was a beautiful figure of Guido's "Ecce Homo." There was the Christ, as only the Italian master could paint him. Jesus' head was crowned with thorns. With a look of ineffable love he seemed to say: "I am dying for you. I am dying that you might be saved from sin, and live forever with me." The burglar stopped in his work of theft and began to study that face. Then he seemed to say, "O Christ, I cannot steal while thou art looking at me." And so he turned the face of Jesus to the wall. O man, O woman, O child, are you going to turn the face of Christ away? Remember his parched, bleeding lips are ready to speak words of eternal life to you. Are you going to turn your back upon this Christ, who is man and yet God? Can you not hear Christ saying to you, "If any man thirst let him come unto me and drink?" God is speaking. Christ the God is speaking. He is speaking to you. He is speaking to me. He is speaking to all sinners. Yes, he is speaking to the whole world.

But Christ did more than claim divine kingship. When he opened his lips he taught a new social doctrine. He upset all the foundation stones upon which the society of his day had been built. He came to the rich man and said, "That poor man is thy neighbor." He came to the man who had a grievance against his neighbor and said: "The Mosaic law is not in force now. It is not eye for eye or tooth for tooth. It is love for hate, forgiveness for injustice, mercy for transgression. Bless them which persecute you. Bless and curse not." Could there have been a more revolutionary doctrine preached than that which Christ taught in his message of the new kingdom?

A Woman's Preaching.

I once heard an anarchist, a woman, preach her horrible doctrine. That night after the meeting when I lay in bed with all my better manhood revolting from the despicable teachings of this dangerous woman I thought of the shock Christ's teachings must have given to those scribes and Pharisees of his day. But what a difference! She preached murder and revolution. He preached peace and good will to men. Every word of her address was fiery with hate and malignity; all his words were tender and loving. She demanded fire and sword for her foes, his prayer was: "Father, forgive them. They know not what they do." As I tried to compare the sermon on the mount with the teachings and the tenets of the Pharisees I could understand how they would be shocked. I saw the gentle, humble Christ in his coarse garments pointing to the rich robes of the high priest and saying, "Thou shalt not make my Father's house a place of merchandise." Then I saw Jesus placing his loving hand upon the rich ruler's shoulder and tenderly saying, "Sell all thou hast and give to the poor." Then in this darkness of the night after I had attended the anarchistic meeting I said to myself: "What poor doctors for a world away men are! This woman perceives social injustice, and she would tear society to atoms, but the divine Christ, perceiving social injustice, bids society pattern itself on his kingdom which is in heaven. Yes, Christ did more than claim his divine kingship. His teachings were the message of love. When Jesus appeared the old Mosaic dispensation of an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth as the principle of social life disappeared forever. Am I going beyond my right when I declare that in reference to Jesus the teacher, 'Never man spake like this man'?"

But there was another fact about Christ which individualized him as the most unique of all personalities. He claimed that his dominion should yet cover this round world as the waters cover the sea. And yet, when the Hebrew people wanted to make him their earthly king, Jesus refused all temptation. He said: "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my kingdom not from hence." In other words, the man who was offered David's throne deliberately turns his back upon it, and yet he claims a divine kingship. From a human standpoint, could you imagine anything more impossible?

While thinking along this line my mind naturally ran back to the scene of Christ's great temptation. You know the story. After Jesus had fasted forty days the devil came to him and said, "If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread." But Christ said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone,' but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Then the devil took Jesus upon one of the temple's pinnacles and said, "Throw thyself down, and God will send his angels to keep thee from being destroyed." But Christ said, "It is written again, 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.'" Then the devil took Jesus up on a high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and said, "Fall down, worship me, and all these will I give thee." But Jesus said, "Get thee hence, Satan; for it is written, 'Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.'" In plain English, Satan wanted Jesus to demand a visible manifestation of God's power. He would have Christ do something practical. He knew men, and he knew that they would follow a man who could turn stones into bread; who could fling himself from a dizzy height and alight unhurt; who could achieve worldwide rule by compromising with evil. But not by such means would Jesus win the world's faith and love. Satan could not understand the spiritual power by which if Christ was lifted up he would draw all men unto him.

Was It an Allegory?

Now, I always used to look upon this story as an allegory. I never believed that in truth this happened. But the older I grow the more I believe it is literally true. Satan always was and always will be of a carnal mind. He can never understand anything which does not appeal to the carnal mind. He is a great deal like that brutal man who one day asked Benjamin Disraeli why he had married so unattractive a wife. Disraeli was inconspicuous until he married a widow who was some years older than he, but she lavished her wealth upon him and gave him his first step in political life. The prime minister answered: "My friend, I cannot tell you because I do not think you could understand my motive. You do not know what gratitude means." So Satan was and always will be of a carnal mind. If Christ could not sit upon an earthly throne and unanane Satan with chains, he does not believe Christ has any power. Thus with the Hebrews. They could not understand why Christ, this spiritual king who did not become Christ the temporal king, they could not understand why Christ, who claimed to be a spiritual ruler, would not re-establish the Davidic throne in Jerusalem.

And yet it is not always the men who have willingly turned their backs upon thrones of earthly power who have established kingdoms of spiritual power? Take the life of John Wesley, with his marvelous organizing ability, his wonderful literary gifts, his silver tongue and his power of polemics could he not have been the greatest statesman or lawyer or ecclesiastic of his time had he wished? Was not the palace or the archbishop's chair within his grasp had he sought it? And yet today do we not honor and love the founder of Methodism more than if he had been an archbishop? England has produced many great men, but seldom a greater than David Livingstone. But do we not honor him today because he gave up all for Christ?

I do not care where you go in history, the men we honor most today and whom God honors most have been and are the men who have turned their backs upon thrones of temporal power in order to spread the higher kingdom of truth and purity and spirituality. The carnal mind cannot grasp this sacrifice, but the spiritual mind can. In order to truly appreciate the divine sacrifice we must first have the divine love in our own hearts.

Lastly, the Hebrews of old could not understand this new Teacher because he was going to establish his spiritual kingdom out of the vilest of the vile. He was not like the architect who goes to the purest and whitest quarries to get the stones for the walls of his marble palace. But he goes to the dirt and mire of sin. He collects the most debased. And out of the vilest humanities he expects to build his purest palaces. If there was a sinner about he always hunted him out if he could do that sinner any good. He even went and lodged in his house, as he did with Zaccheus. And yet, strange as it may seem, it is almost impossible to do God's work aright unless we are willing to associate with those who are despised by their fellow men. Now comes the practical question: Are we, for Christ's sake, willing to become socially ostracized by those who think it is not proper for us to go with those who have gone astray? Are we willing to do this for Christ, as Christ did this for us?

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine seals the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bedwetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free also. SALES OF PLANTERS

THIS YEAR AGGREGATE 39,000
HOGSHEADS.

Exceeding Last Season—Election of District Officials Will Be Held at Guthrie.

GUTHRIE, Ky., Sept. 25.—The Planters' Protective association has practically sold all its holdings of the 1906 crop, and has not more than 100 hogsheads for sale at all sales-rooms throughout the dark tobacco district. The association has sold 39,000 hogsheads of tobacco this season, an increase of 5,000 hogsheads over last year, and 16,000 hogsheads over the first year's business. The prices received for the 1906 crop ranged from $8 to $9 per hundred pounds for lugs and from $9 to $20.50 for leaf, which proved very satisfactory to all its members.

The schedule of prices for the new crop has not been made yet, but it is a fact that they will be higher than last year, and the association has adopted the plan in the past of fitting out the prices that the "hill billy" received and then make the schedule of prices average $2.00 more per hundred pounds for its members.

The new crop is one of the best that has been raised for years, and as it is now in the barns, having been housed in a most excellent condition, it promises to be one of the best ever put on the market, and prospects are that it will bring genuine "war" prices.

The newly elected county committee and the stockholders of the association will meet in regular session at the headquarters building in Guthrie next Saturday for the purpose of electing the board of directors for the ensuing year, who in the main will be the regular elected chairmen by the people from each county in the dark tobacco district. On Monday, Oct. 5, at the same place, the board of directors of the association will meet and elect the officers they deem necessary for the proper management of the affairs of the association for the ensuing year.

The reports that have been recently received from all parts of the district show that the association is in good condition, all members well satisfied with the prices received, and they will continue to stand by their pledges and the association in the future as in the past. It can be said without contradiction that the association will control at least 90 per cent of all the tobacco that was grown in the Black Patch this year, as a number of counties already control that amount and some counties are solid, every farmer being in the association.

The books of the association will close Oct. 10, and the few independent farmers are quickly identifying themselves with the association for it is not known at what time after Oct. 10 a non-association man will be given an opportunity to join.

MAKES FLAT DENIAL

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Capt. Cassius Marshall Sanford, only son of the late John Sanford, of Covington, Ky., who was referred to in the affidavit of Mrs. Lulu Williams Clark in Sunday's papers as "John Sanford," and as having been present in the state house at Frankfort, Ky., when Goebel was killed, has issued a positive denial of every one of the statements.

Capt. Sanford, who is now living in New York, after a residence of eight years in China and the Philippines said:

"Every one of the statements of Mrs. Clark is absolutely false. I never knew her (Mrs. Clark) or Gertrude King, to whom it is said I paid attention, or Turner Igo, or any one else mentioned in the affidavit."

"At the time of the killing of Gov. Goebel, Feb. 8, 1900, I was in the Philippines on business, living with a number of army officers, by whom I can prove my residence there at that time. Subsequently I entered the Philippines constabulary, rising to the rank of captain. I resigned my commission in March of this year of my own accord, and have since been in business in this city. I have never been connected with the Goebel murder or known anything about it. I shall gladly appear in court at any time or place to refute these falsehoods."

IN DOUBLE WEDDING

SISTERS BECOME BRIDES IN NORTH CHRISTIAN.

Bridegrooms Are Young Men Who Left County to Make Their Homes in the West.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

A double wedding was solemnized last night at the home of James Underwood, father of the brides, at Barnes in North Christian, the contracting parties being George W. Hill and Miss Maud Susan Underwood and Winfield M. Wood and Miss Eva Adeline Underwood. Two ceremonies were pronounced, Rev. J. M. Rasmussen, pastor of the Universalist church of this city, officiating. The weddings took place at six o'clock. The wedding march was played by Miss Rosa King. The brides wore white silk, made identically alike, and carried white roses and smilax. The house was tastefully decorated in roses and smilax.

Misses Mina Wood and Fannie Hill were maids of honor.

After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served to the bridal party and guests. Today they will be dining at the home of Waffield Hill, father of one of the grooms, at Sinking Fork. Both couples will remain in this region until October 4 when they will leave for Prescott, Arizona, where both the grooms are engaged in business.

The marriage in each instance is the culmination of a long and ardent courtship. Both young men were born and raised near Sinking Fork but left several years ago to make their fortunes in the west, and having succeeded in business they came back to claim their brides.

DIED IN THE FIELD.

ELKTON, Ky., Sept. 25.—Peter Shelton, a young farmer, residing near Kraysburg, is dead by poisoning from Paris green. Young Shelton was treating his tobacco plants with the poison to destroy worms, and disregarded the usual precaution of placing a sponge over his mouth and nose. He inhaled a large quantity of the drug, and before he had completed his patch, died in the field. Mr. Shelton was 19 years of age.
