REFUSED NEW TRIAL

MOTION OF DEFENSE OVER-
RULED BY JUDGE COOKThe Side of the Matter as Given By The Commonwealth.—Appeal

Judge Cook Wednesday refused to grant a new trial to George K. Putman, who was recently convicted of manslaughter in the killing of Prof. J. G. Wright and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

The claims of the defense were given in these columns several days ago, it being alleged that Sheriff David Smith had given the jury various liberties which prejudiced the case of the defendant that Judge Cook had threatened to hold them together for an indefinite time unless they reached an agreement; that Mrs. Smith, wife of the sheriff, had gone into the room where the jury were seated and begged them to agree on account of Mrs. Wright's being put to so much trouble and inconvenience, in being forced to come here again should another trial be necessary; that Mrs. Wright and her two children boarded at the same hotel with the jury and their presence prejudiced the jury against the defendant, etc.

To these claims the prosecution filed affidavits admitting some of the actions complained of but denying others. Those which were admitted, however, were alleged to have been done with the knowledge of the court and under the law governing the handling of such cases. In regard to the allegation that Judge Cook had influenced the jury by threatening to hold them together indefinitely, it is stated that the jury repeatedly requested Sheriff Smith to petition the judge to dismiss the jury but that the latter refused, stating that the case was an important one and the jury should not be hastily discharged. As for the liberties given the jury these were shown to be taken under the authority of the court and at no time was any jurymen free from the surveillance of the sheriff or one of his deputies.

Mrs. Smith's affidavit denies that she appealed to the jury to agree and says that she went into the room where they were in order to get some food and that while in there and while her back was turned to the jurymen, one of them told her that they were further from an agreement than ever and to this she replied that she was sorry that such was the case.

The statement that Putman's case was prejudiced by the presence of Mrs. Wright and her children in the hotel is denied, it being claimed by the prosecution that she was never allowed to be with or converse with the jury, this even going so far as that she was not permitted to be in the dining room while the jury were. It is further stated by the prosecution that the defendant and his father also boarded at this hotel and saw equally as much of the jury as did the widow of the dead man.

After the new trial had been refused Judge Cook caused Putman to stand up and he formally sentenced him to the penitentiary for five years. The attorneys for the defense then asked for an appeal which was granted and the sentence was suspended for sixty days.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AT NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt arrived here this morning and was greeted with a salute of 21 guns fired from Capitol hill together with the sounding of all the bells and whistles in the city. After a parade through the magnificently decorated streets, President Roosevelt addressed a great gathering of the citizens at the Sam Jones auditorium, and then proceeded by automobile to the Hermitage where he delivered an address at the tomb of President Andrew Jackson to whose memory he paid a glorious tribute.

In a speech at the tabernacle this morning, the president denied very emphatically that politics was responsible for the present fluctuations in stocks, but that the unwarranted methods of those high financiers, who have been exposed to the public in recent months, are to blame for the present unsettled market conditions.

TAKE NUPTIAL VOWS

MISS ANDERSON AND MR. BARNES
ARE MARRIEDMiss Fannie Morris Cloud and Mr.
William R. Dudley joined in Wedlock Wednesday Afternoon.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Miss Mayme Anderson and Mr. Lucian Barnes were united in matrimony Wednesday evening at the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The interior of the edifice had been beautifully decorated for the occasion in green and white, and the ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. A. C. Biddle, officiating. Prior to the nuptial rite, a beautiful musical program was rendered. Mrs. Smith West presided at the organ, and Mrs. Barksdale Hamlett sang DeKoven's "O Promise Me." To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride and groom, with little Misses Tillie Nichols and Marie Lebkuecher as flower girls, entered the church by opposite aisles. Miss Anderson, attired in white and looking very lovely, was on the arm of her father, Judge A. H. Anderson, and was preceded by the pretty maid of honor, Miss Luro Boyd. Mr. Barnes came in with his best man, Mr. William H. Fyke, Jr., and they were preceded by Dr. Biddle. At the altar, the beautiful and impressive Bible service was used, the happy couple clasping hands over the open pages of Holy Writ.

The bride is the accomplished and popular daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. H. Anderson. Mr. Barnes, who is a son of former Sheriff J. J. Barnes, is connected with the business office of Forbes Manufacturing company and is an excellent young man. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will board for the present with the bride's parents.

Cloud-Dudley.

Miss Fannie Morris Cloud and Mr. William R. Dudley, a popular young couple, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cloud, near West Fork. The Rev. W. C. Brandon, of the Methodist church, was the officiating clergyman. The ceremony was very beautiful and was witnessed by a number of the friends and relatives of the contracting couple. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley will be at home to their many friends at the pretty home of the bridegroom near Pembroke.

Lacey-Gilliland.

Oscar Gilliland and Miss Annie Lacey, of the Era vicinity, were married at the courthouse by Judge W. L. Parker. The couple presented a very nice appearance and the bride an unusually pretty girl. Judge Parker spread himself and put in some extra frills to the ceremony, which, on account of frequent repetition, had grown more or less monotonous to him.

Alsbrooke-Fuller.

Richard Fuller and Miss Lona Alsbrooke, of near Crofton, were married at high noon today at the courthouse by Judge W. L. Parker. The couple were accompanied by several other parties.

Boxley-Johnson.

A license has been issued for the marriage of Mr. A. B. Johnson and Miss Ida M. Boxley, both of Crofton. The details of the wedding could not be secured but it is understood that the ceremony will be quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Julian Boxley. Both parties are quite prominent in their section.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Andrew L. Castlen, of Owensboro, and Miss Joe E. Pyke, of this city, were married at the residence of John Johnson on South Virginia street, the Rev. A. C. Biddle performing the ceremony. The couple left this morning for Owensboro where they will reside and where the groom is engaged in a profitable business.

Thomas S. Lewis, of Webster county, and Mrs. Melissa Davis, of this county, were married late yesterday afternoon at the courthouse. Rev. A. C. Biddle pronounced the ceremony.

A license has been issued for the marriage of Oscar Gilliland to Miss Annie Lacey.

PLAN OF MR. COOPER

IS ATTRACTING GENERAL ATTEN-TION AND INTEREST.Gives Away One Day's Sales Every Month.—All Cash Purchases are Refunded.

Groceryman W. T. Cooper is a man who believes firmly in the value of advertising and who has the nerve to back his judgement as to what is a good advertising scheme. For the past two or three months he has been carrying out an idea which is a good one no doubt, especially for his customers, but one which also requires a large chunk of nerve on the part of the man making the offer.

Mr. Cooper's offer is nothing more or less than the refunding to his customers of one day's cash sales. This scheme has been worked by many business men in various cities but invariably these have selected some day when their sales were lightest. Mr. Cooper does not do this—the date is selected in advance and by chance and no one knows what that date is, not even Mr. Cooper himself, until the month closes. This date is selected by enclosing in separate envelopes a number for each working day in the month. Mr. Gus Brannon, of the Commercial & Savings Bank then draws one of these and locks it up in the bank without opening it. When the month has expired the envelope, still unopened, is carried to Mr. Cooper's store where it is opened and the date announced in the presence of a large crowd. Then those persons who have made cash purchases on that date and who have retained the tickets which were given them at the store at the time, can get their money back by presenting the tickets to the cashier within a certain time.

As stated before it requires nerve to carry out this scheme. Mr. Cooper has no idea what the date is and therefore cannot even estimate how much money he will have to refund. He believes in it though and is operating the scheme every month—one day's cash sales to be given away under the above conditions every thirty days. There is absolutely no chance for any deception to be practiced and everyone who knows Mr. Cooper knows also that he would not stoop to any underhand tricks. The scheme is a good one and the people are beginning to realize the opportunity offered them this being shown by the big increase which has been made in Mr. Cooper's cash business. The offer is only on cash trade as Mr. Cooper believes that trading on a cash basis is best for both merchant and consumer and to establish such relations he is willing to offer this exceptional inducement.

IMPORTANT RULING

IS MADE BY THE PLANTERS PRO-TECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the Christian county executive committee of the Planters' Protective association, which was held at the city court room Monday, it was decided that no member of the association had any right to buy tobacco from other members of the association, except that which was raised on the purchaser's own farm. This action was brought about by reports which had been received that in certain sections association members were buying up all the tobacco they could secure and then selling it through the association.

The attention of the members of the organization was also called to the regulations of the association in regard to the acreage which is to be planted. Under these regulations association members are allowed to plant 7½ acres for the first fifty acres of land which they own or control and 2½ acres for each additional fifty acres. The committee urges the farmers to heed this agreement for thereby is controlled the acreage and consequently the supply.

RACES ARE MADE UP

MONDAY LAST DAY FOR CANDI-DATE TO ENTER.

Monday was the last day for candidates to enter the race for the coming election, and as last night came and went without any new names being submitted the races in Hopkinsville and Christian county will be more quiet and uneventful than has been the case for many years.

John Feland, the Republican nominee, will have no opposition for representative.

In only one of the seven wards in the city of Hopkinsville will there be any opposition to the ticket which was nominated several weeks ago by the Democrats. The one exception is in the seventh ward where the nominee, E. H. Armstrong, is opposed by James A. Witty who poses as a Republican. G. H. Champlin announced himself in the second ward as an independent candidate for councilman but he withdrew some days ago. The Democratic ticket is: First ward, E. H. Higgin; Second ward, J. B. Galbreath; Third ward, M. H. Carroll; Fourth ward, L. H. Davis; Sixth ward, George Randle; Seventh ward, E. H. Armstrong. The candidate in the Fifth ward is E. W. Glass, colored, Republican, against whom the Democrats did not put out a candidate.

Notice.

To the members of the Dark Tobacco Planters Protective association:

The firm of Younglove and Parker, composed of Chas. Younglove and A. R. Parker, are not bonded printers for the association and cannot be held responsible by the association, they having been refused a contract by the county committee, and any member of the association sending tobacco to them violates his pledge to the association.

By order of the county committee,
W. W. RADFORD,
Chairman.

Buggy Robbed.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

While Mrs. J. B. Wood, who lives a few miles from town on the Canton pike, was attending services at the Baptist church last night some one stole several articles of merchandise from her buggy which was hitched at the side of the church building. This is the second time recently that articles have been stolen from Mrs. Wood's buggy.

THEN CUTICURA MAKES COMPLETE CURE IN 5 DAYS

"It is in my opinion my duty to join those who praise the Cuticura Remedies. After my granddaughter of about seven years had been cured of the measles, she was attacked about a fortnight later by a furious itching and painful eruption all over her body, especially the upper part of it, forming a watery and bleeding sores, especially under the arms, of considerable size. She suffered a great deal and for three weeks we nursed her every night, using all the remedies we could think of. Nothing would help. We then remembered having heard so much about Cuticura Remedies. We sent for them and after twenty-four hours we noted considerable improvement, and, after using only one complete set of the Cuticura Remedies, in five consecutive days the little one, much to our joy, had been entirely cured, and has been well for a long time. PROSPECTS OF THE HOPKINSVILLE MARKET FOR NEXT YEAR THE BEST IN ITS HISTORY.

ALL BRANCHES OF TRADE WILL BE FLOURISHING

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF EQUITY

Large Contracts With the Organization Already Signed.—A Little Look Ahead.

Now that the dull season on the local tobacco market has come and there will be very little more activity until the new crop begins to move, the warehousemen and dealers are making their plans for the approaching season and figuring on where the tobacco is coming from, what the prices will be, what will be the amount of the crop and who will be most benefited. All indications point to a most successful season on this market and the probabilities are that more tobacco will be handled through local channels next season than has been handled here for many years, the palmy days of 1897 to 1900 not being excepted.

Popularity to increase.
Hopkinsville has for years ranked as the leading market of the dark tobacco district, but its popularity will be greatly increased this year. The Planters' Protective association during the season just closed sold about 6,500 hogsheads of tobacco of all grades and conditions. Such was the demand for their offerings that there are now only three hogsheads remaining unsold out of the total consignment to this market. On this enormous amount the prices secured were in every case highly satisfactory and in a great majority of instances ranged from 50c to $2 per hundred pounds above the schedule which was adopted by the officials of the association last December and in no case did the price fall below this schedule. Buyers did not have to be besought to come to the salesroom and buy the tobacco but they came freely and at times swamped the salesman and his assistant in their eagerness to get the types which suited them. This year therefore it is expected that not less than 10,000 hogsheads of association tobacco will be sold here and the amount may even go far ahead of this.

The Loose Floors.
The loose floors are making active preparations for an early beginning of these sales and the warehousemen who will sell in this manner are already advertising for business. The great advantage claimed for this mode of selling is that the farmer is saved the labor and expense of pricing his tobacco, he delivers it when it suits his convenience and it is sold the same day at public auction in which all the buyers on the market are brought into competition, the farmer gets his money the day the tobacco is sold and by selling early he is saved the expense of insurance. These loose sales are always the first of the season by reason of the tobacco being ready for market as soon as it is stripped, and business is expected to be brisk in this line.

The independent market showed a heavy falling off this year, there being only about 4,500 hogsheads going through in this manner. This season is expected to be about the same with perhaps a slighter decrease.

The feature which promises to bring in an enormous amount of the weed and one which has not heretofore figured on this market will be heavy consignments of tobacco which has been pledged to the American Society of Equity.

The American Society of Equity. The Abernathy company has already closed contracts with several local unions of this organization of the farmers whereby their tobacco is to be sent to him and prized and sold by him. This firm is still figuring with other important unions and the amount already secured may be more than doubled in which event the tobacco brought here in this way alone will more than equal the usual quantity.

A. S. of E. Methods.
The American Society of Equity operates differently from the Planters' Protective association. They secure pledges for both burley and dark tobacco while the latter only bids for the dark. The A. S. of E. claims to have control of 830,000,000 pounds of tobacco, this including both burley and dark, pledged to that organization. Instead of selling it direct from the headquarters of the organization as does the Planters' Protective association they permit such sections of the tobacco growing districts as see fit to league themselves together into local unions. Each of these unions can then appoint a warehouseman who is to grade and sell their tobacco according to a schedule of prices furnished him by the officers of the union.

As stated before quite a number of contracts have already been closed with these local unions of the Society of Equity and many others are now under consideration with flattering prospects of a satisfactory closing. The Abernathy company is contracting only for the handling of the dark tobacco, this market never having attempted the sale of burley.

This tobacco will be sent here and much of it prized. It will then be stored and held until orders are received from the union to which it belongs when it will be sampled by the regular bonded inspector of this market and offered under the sample thus secured at public auction on the breaks in much the same way as the sales were conducted before the farmers' organizations entered the field and so radically changed the order of things. If the prices secured are satisfactory the deal will be closed forthwith but if not the tobacco will be re-coopered and held until the union shall again order it offered for sale.

Planters' Plans.
The tobacco held by the Planters' Protective association is sold under a different plan. The tobacco is prized by men or firms appointed by each county executive committee, this prize being required to give bond for a faithful performance of his duties. When he prizes the tobacco he retains a sample which is sent to the association's headquarters at Guthrie where it is graded by the official graders and the price set upon it according to the schedule which has been adopted prior to that time. These samples are then sent back to the salesroom from which it was sent and there is kept until the hogshead is sold. The association has storage houses at many points about over the district where the tobacco is kept until it is sold by the salesman at the regularly appointed markets.

will soar high and the farmers will be happy as they count the liberal returns from their year's labor.

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Good Advice and Liberal Offer From a Well Known Hopkinsville Druggist.

L. L. Elgin has been advising all who suffer from any of the symptoms of catarrh, such as offensive breath, dryness of the nose, pain across the eyes, stoppage of the nose, discharges and droppings in the throat, coughing spasms and general weakness and debility, to use Hyomei. He goes so far as to offer to refund the money to any user of Hyomei who is not perfectly satisfied with the results.

Quick relief follows the use of the Hyomei treatment; the stoppage of the nose is removed, the droppings cease, the breath becomes pure and sweet, and the catarrhal germs are destroyed and their growth prevented.

Hyomei is the surest, simplest, quickest, easiest and cheapest way to cure catarrh. It does not drug and derange the stomach; it goes right to the seat of the trouble, destroying the catarrhal germs and healing and vitalizing the tissues.

Go to L. L. Elgin's today and buy a complete Hyomei outfit for $1.00 with the understanding that if it does not give satisfaction your money will be refunded. All you have to do is to inhale a little occasionally in the air you breathe, using the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, when the symptoms of catarrh will quickly disappear. Try it, you will be surprised and pleased at the results.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

(From Friday's Daily)

Phil Morse, Jr., a sixteen-year old colored boy committed suicide near Garrettsburg, Thursday afternoon, by hanging himself in a stable loft. The suicide was not discovered until about dark when Ed Allen, on whose farm the boy lived, and the father of the boy went to the stable to feed the stock. Mr. Allen went up into the loft to throw down hay for the animals. In the darkness he noticed something hanging from one of the beams and becoming frightened he jumped out of the loft, barely missing Morse who stood below. The two then went back into the loft and found the boy hanging and his body stiff. The boy had secured a large size grass rope which he had tied to a beam in the very top of the stable. He had then evidently jumped off of some high place for his neck had been broken by the fall and death must have been instantaneous.

The only reason which can be assigned was that he was brooding over religion. For some time he had been attending a revival meeting which was in progress near Garrettsburg and it is said that he remarked yesterday morning that unless he got religion that day he was going to kill himself. No attention was paid to the remark. The body was interred at Garrettsburg this afternoon.

In Camp.

A large crowd from Cadiz, Gracey, Hopkinsville and other points are in camp near the residence of Claud Wadlington, several miles above here on Little river, where they expect to remain about ten days fishing, says the Cadiz Record.

Will Hancock, H. W. Tibbs, R. M. Wooldridge and Zan Tribble, of Hopkinsville, are in the party.

S.S.S. NATURE'S TONIC

Every one should take a tonic in the Spring; their systems require it. The blood has become thick and sluggish with the accumulations left in the system from the inactive, indoor life and from the heavy, rich foods of the Winter season. The blood, being in this unnatural and disordered condition, is unable to furnish the body with the increased amount of nourishment necessary for the more energetic life of Spring and Summer, and the system suffers from debility, weakness, nervousness, indigestion, loss of appetite, and many other unpleasant symptoms of a disordered blood circulation. When the system is in this run-down and disordered condition it is not safe to take unknown concoctions, sarsaparillas, compounds, etc., because they usually contain potash or some other equally strong and harmful mineral ingredient, which acts unfavorably and often dangerously on the depleted, weakened system at a time when it needs gentle and natural stimulation to throw off the impurities and recuperate its lost energy. S. S. S. is appropriately called Nature's tonic. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks from the great storehouse of forest and field, selected for their purifying and health-restoring qualities, and as it does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form it is perfectly safe for young or old. S. S. S. acts directly on the blood, ridding it of all impurities and poisons, and restoring the lost properties of rich, nutritive strength so that it is able to supply the system with the healthful, invigorating energy needed to pass the trying season of the year. Its action is the most pleasant, prompt and satisfactory of all tonics, and those who feel the need of such a medicine will do well to commence the use of S. S. S. at once. S. S. S. restores lost energy, relieves the tired, worn-out feeling, helps the appetite, aids digestion, and adds tone and vigor to the system. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

WILLSON'S INSULT

TO WILLIAM J. BRYAN WILL BE DEEPLY RESENTED.

Had no Excuse in Claiming Great Democrat Was "Hired" to Come to Kentucky.

The Democratic press of Kentucky has very promptly called Augustus E. Willson on the carpet for his wanton slander upon William J. Bryan, the great leader of Democracy, whom he charged came into Kentucky recently a hireling and went before the sixty thousand people whom he addressed and urged to support Judge Hager and the Democratic state ticket, received therefor not less than five hundred dollars a day. When called to account for his statement, Mr. Willson squirmed out of it in the straddling fashion in which he has met the issues of the present campaign, and, when called a liar by Democratic State Campaign Chairman Hines and Urey Woodson, Democratic national committeeman, admitted that he had made the charge without any information whatever, showing that he made it in pique, being at the time in the section Mr. Bryan had visited and seeing the wonderful effects of the speeches of the Nebraskan.

What a howl would go up from the Republican press not only of Kentucky, but of the entire nation, should Judge Hager, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, make the charge in a public speech next week, when Vice President Fairbanks comes into Kentucky to speak in behalf of the Republican ticket, that he is receiving as compensation five hundred dollars a day, or any sum, for that service. Such a statement by Judge Hager would do inestimable harm to the cause of Democracy. Is there any more reason why such a statement from Mr. Willson regarding Mr. Bryan should not do the cause of Republicanism much harm? Does Mr. Fairbanks stand any higher in the estimation of the people of this country than does Mr. Bryan? Does anyone believe that he has the cause of Republicanism closer to heart than has Mr. Bryan the cause of Democracy? Will anyone claim that he has a more honest purpose in coming to Kentucky than had the man who has led the Democratic hosts in the national for a dozen years or more?

The charge made by Mr. Willson, ridiculous in the extreme as it is, falls flat before all sensible and right thinking people. Instead of having the effect he supposed it would, it will injure his chances of being governor of the commonwealth. The people of Kentucky will resent the aspirations of a man whose stock in trade is the peddling of slanders, and they will be slow to believe any charge made by a man who willfully and maliciously slanders such a man as William J. Bryan. The Republican campaign is being made wholly upon false charges, none of which have ever been proven, but up to the time Mr. Willson made this serious charge against the national leader of the Democracy he had left the dissemination of false charges to his associates, the candidates for minor offices of the Republican state ticket, especially to his candidate for secretary of state.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life will make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanishes like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant drains which are often consequent on marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness. As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Half a million women and more have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label.

KING AND QUEEN OF ENGLAND MAY VISIT UNITED STATES.

OTTAWA, ONT., Oct. 10.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra, of England, may pay a visit to the United States. It is regarded as a certainty here that their majesties will visit Canada during the centenary celebration of the landing of the Champlain. There is little doubt King Edward will visit the United States.

The intimation that royalty will attend the Champlain celebration comes from Governor General Gray, just returned from Toronto.

NATIONAL GROWERS

WILL BE ENTERTAINED BY CITIZENS OF SHELBYVILLE.

The Meeting Will Convene on October 30 For Three Days' Session.

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 19.—The National Tobacco Growers' association, an organization composed of growers from North Carolina, Maryland, Virginia, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, will convene in Shelbyville on October 30, for a three days' session. Delegates to the number of about three hundred are expected to be in attendance. It is the plan of the local tobacco growers committee, of which C. M. Hanna is chairman, to hold the first days' session at the fair grounds and to give a monster barbecue in honor of the visiting delegates. Thursday's and Friday's sessions will be held in Shelbyville. This association met at Clarksville, Tenn., last year and were invited to hold their session here this year by the Hon. John Botts, who was a delegate sent by the tobacco growers of Shelby county.

Fifty Years a Blacksmith

Samuel R. Worley, of Hixburg, Va., has been shoeing horses for more than fifty years. He says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm has given me great relief from lame back and rheumatism. It is the best liniment I ever used." For sale by Anderson & Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

If you take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A week's treatment 25 cents. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Stomach troubles, heart and kidney ailments can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the stomach, etc. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Weak Kidneys

Weak kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine smells, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Cook & Higgins and Cook's Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Federation of Labor.

The annual convention of the American Federation of Labor meets in Norfolk, Va., November 8. The session will last two weeks and about 350 delegates will attend. The principal purpose of the meeting is to revise the constitution and by-laws and discuss in general the condition of the labor movement.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed at Cook's Pharmacy and at Cook & Higgins, 25c.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed up air-passages. Price 50c. If you prefer to use an atomizer, ask for Liquid Cream Balm. It has all the good qualities of the solid form of this remedy and will rid you of catarrh or hay fever. No cocaine to breed a dreadful habit. No mercury to dry out the secretion. Price 75c, with spraying tube. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 58 Warren Street, New York.

DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve is good for little burns and big burns, small scratches or bruises and big ones. It is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Pain anywhere, pain in the head, painful periods, neuralgia, toothache, all pains can be promptly stopped by a thoroughly safe little Pink Candy tablet, known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Headache tablets. Pain simply means congestion—undue blood pressure at the point where pain exists. Dr. Shoop's Headache tablets quickly equalize this unnatural blood pressure, and pain immediately departs. Bought a Home.

Walter A. Radford a few days since prebashed, through John H. Pendleton, real estate agent, the McGee home on Nashville street. Mr. Radford and family will move to town in the near future and occupy their new purchase. This is a very desirable piece of property and Mr. Radford is to be congratulated on securing it.—Pembroke Journal.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Fully eighty per cent of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Heartburn Comes From the Stomach

The heart is an organ that people are not inclined to trifle with, but a person may have fluttering of the heart, heartburn and similar troubles and yet have a perfectly sound heart. Nine times out of ten the disorder comes from the stomach through dyspepsia, constipation or some other digestive ailment.

So instead of taking "heart cures" or other such things that contain stimulants and narcotics, take a harmless but effective remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which will correct the digestive disorder and in that way cure the supposed heart trouble. The remedy is guaranteed to do this, and you can obtain it of any druggist in 50 cent and $1 bottles. As there are about 150 doses to the latter the cure will cost you but a few cents.

The experience of Mrs. Knight, of Bellevue, Tenn., in this regard should be of interest to all who suffer from heartburn, etc. She writes that for five years she suffered from indigestion and constipation, from fainting spells, fluttering at the heart and heartburn. She couldn't eat meat or anything seasoned with meat. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was recommended to her and after a few doses the indigestion and constipation was relieved and the fainting spells and heart trouble soon disappeared. She takes a dose of the remedy after eating and now never feels any ill effects no matter what she eats. It would be well for those who suffer in this way to do as she did and be cured.

There is no question that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best tonic laxative and digestive aid at the disposal of the American people. It is gentle in action and pleasant in taste. It acts on the liver and bowels, and owing to its gentle action is especially to be recommended to children, women and others who cannot stand the violence and griping of salts, purgatives and cathartic tablets.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy is what we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Get it at once. A guaranteed permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "The Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

SHOT HIS BROTHER

AND STOLE HORSE ON WHICH TO ESCAPE

Made Mistake in Coming Here For Alert Officers Soon Had Him Behind The Bars.

Alex Bausley, colored, who shot and probably fatally wounded his brother Saturday evening at Legate, Stewart County, Tenn., was captured today by Officers Outlaw and George McCord. Bausley was located at his father's home, seven miles north of the city and was brought here and lodged in the lock-up, pending instructions from the Tennessee authorities. He stole a horse on which to escape, after shooting his brother, but the animal could not be found by the officers. Bausley claims to have sent the horse back home after he reached Kentucky, but a telegram from Legate, received today, urged the police not to fail to look for the horse which was still missing. Bausley is about 20 years old. He shot his brother in a quarrel about an old debt.

GOES TO MAYFIELD.

Walter M. Shaw Will Prize and Store Tobacco for Association.

Walter M. Shaw, who has been actively engaged in the tobacco business in this city for several years, has completed his arrangements for pricing and storing tobacco for the Planters' Protective association at Mayfield this season. In addition to the pricing, Mr. Shaw will operate a warehouse for storing tobacco.

The new venture will necessitate Mr. Shaw's absence from Hopkinsville for about ten months, but his family will remain here. There is not a better tobacco man or more courteous and genial gentleman anywhere than Mr. Shaw and the tobacco interests of Mayfield and the association will be greatly strengthened by his presence.

ASSOCIATION MEETING.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The Christian county executive committee of the Planters' Protective association met in the city court room this morning in their regular monthly meeting, and with a good attendance of the precinct committeemen. Reports were made from every section of the county showing that before the books of the organization closed on October 10 that nearly all the farmers had signed up and that now the county was almost solid for the association.

Prizing contracts were awarded to Henry Hayes, at LaFayette; L. H. Franklin, at Herndon; L. McComb & Co., and A. O. Dority & Co., at Pembroke. A storage contract was also awarded to the Pembroke Storage House.

The committeemen were addressed by Hon. Joseph Washington, of Tennessee, and S. Walton Forgy, of Elkton. The fact that these gentlemen would be here and would speak had not been advertised and consequently few knew of the speaking until it was over. Both speakers confined themselves to strictly association matters and by their words of encouragement enthused the committeemen to even greater endeavor in advancing the cause of the association every legitimate way.

WEDS HARDWORKER

Prospective Bridegroom Could Not Come After License.

A license was issued Saturday for the marriage of Fred Ellis to Miss Winnie Barlow, both parties living near the city on the Clarksville pike, the groom being employed on the farm of D. E. Fowler. The wedding was to have been solemnized Sunday night.

The groom's devotion to duty was such that he could not even come to town to secure his license. He telephoned County Clerk Campbell and told him that he was so busy sowing wheat that he could not spare the time to come in and asked that the license be issued when Mr. Fowler called for it. The county clerk told him that if the young lady sent in a written statement of her willingness it would be all right. Saturday afternoon Mr. Fowler presented a note from the girl requesting that the license be issued and it was done.

OF TOWN LOCAL HEADQUARTERS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

Salesroom of The Planters' Will be Located in Bonte Building on Eighth Street.

Arrangements have been made for the removal of the salesroom for the Planters Protective association in this city from the Martin Tobacco Manufacturing company's building on North Liberty street to the Bonte building back of Frankel's store on Eighth street. The change will probably not be made until about the first of the new year but the contract has already been signed.

The change will be a wise one for every one concerned. The present salesroom, while it is commodious and well suited to the requirements of the business, is a long distance from the business portion of the city and it is hard to direct a stranger to it. The Bonte building is less than a square from Main street and by reason of its former prestige nearly every one knows where it is, and to those who do not, it will be an easy matter to direct them to it. Then too it is admirably adapted to the use to which it will be put, for it has plenty of room for every need and is exceptionally well lighted.

EAT WHAT YOU WANT

Science Has Now Found The True Way to Cure Indigestion.

A few years ago, when a sufferer from indigestion went to a stomach specialist, the result was a rigid diet list that almost meant starvation.

But the first thing to do in the case of indigestion or stomach weakness is to strengthen the muscular walls of the stomach and intestines, so that they will care for the food that is eaten. In no other way can this be done as well as by taking a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal. This restores strength to the stomach muscles and stimulates the pouring out of gastric juices, so that the food is digested readily and its nourishment retained in the system to build up energy and vitality.

Do not think the sick headache, heartburn, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, spots before the eyes sleeplessness and the many other symptoms that are the direct result of indigestion, will go away of themselves. The stomach must be built up and strengthened by Mi-o-na before you can be well and strong, free from suffering and distress.

In many of the best homes in Hopkinsville and adjoining towns, the handy little Mi-o-na tablets, so pleasant to take, yet so effective, have given quick and lasting relief from indigestion and that disagreeable full feeling after eating.

The guarantee that L. L. Elgin gives with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na, to refund the money unless the remedy cures shows their confidence in the treatment. He takes the whole risk, and Mi-o-na will not cost you a penny unless it cures.

Only One Shooting Scrape—Roy Bowles Wounded.

Roy Bowles was shot in the calf of the leg Saturday night by Henry Lander at the carnival which closed that night at the "White City" near Cates' Mill.

Bowles went out to the carnival and either went in without paying or attempted to do so, thus raising a disturbance. Lander was acting as peace officer and he was called to the scene. When he came up Bowles had his gun in his hand and when Lander ordered him to leave he fired. Lander then drew his gun and Bowles turned and ran. Lander fired four times and one of the bullets struck Bowles in the calf of the leg. Lander came to town and reported to the police. The ball was cut out of Bowles' leg Sunday and he is getting along very well and will soon be out again. From the indications the bullet must have struck something before it hit Bowles.

Bowles is regarded as a bad character. He completed a penitentiary sentence only about two weeks ago and returned home.

SUSPICIOUS TRIPS

OF MEN WITH DOGS AND GUNS
ARE REPORTED.

Sportsmen Will Use Every Effort to
Have Violators of the Game
Law Punished.

With the open season for shooting quail only a month off, reports are already being heard of suspicious trips being made into the country by persons who carry along one or more dogs and a gun. Under the law the only thing which can be killed now is the dove and one cannot help but question the motive of the man who makes long trips into the country fully accoutered for quail hunting.

The sportsmen are aroused over the matter and say that they will use every endeavor to apprehend any person who shoots quail before the law expires. Under the law each county judge can appoint one or more game wardens who shall have the authority to serve warrants for violations of the law just the same as a sheriff and be entitled to the same fees as that officer. He shall also have the authority to even make arrests without a warrant and also to swear in assistance whenever necessary. When a person is caught violating the game laws his entire equipment of hunting paraphernalia as well as any game which he may have killed, may be confiscated. It is probable that acting Judge Parker will be asked to appoint a game warden for this county at once.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.
Prevalence of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far away places?

Read the following:
Mrs. W. C. Owen, 212 E. Fourteenth street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as being an excellent remedy for kidney complaint. I speak for them in behalf of my husband who was cured of a severe backache some two years ago when we were living at Curdsville, Ky. He had complained a good deal and some days it was all he could do to drag himself about. Stooping or lifting hurt him intensely. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended to him and he procured them. They soon helped him and by the time he had taken the contents of two boxes he was completely cured. I have never heard him complain of even feeling a symptom of a recurrence since."

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or the derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

No hospital surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription"; it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors, venereal diseases or any other diseases. It will give a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret notion that a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret, and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

'Possum Hunt.

The Eighth grade of the West Side public school enjoyed a successful 'possum hunt last night about five miles from town on the Cadiz road. There were twenty-five in the party, the chaperones being Mrs. Sallie Rust Moss, the teacher of the grade, and Prof. Barksdale Hamlett, superintendent of the city schools. George Young came in with a big farm wagon and carried the party to the hunting grounds. Four fine fat 'possums were caught.

Cures Rheumatism and Catarrh—Medicine Free.

Send no money—simply write and try Botanic Blood Balm at our expense. Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) kills or destroys the poison in the blood which causes the awful aches in back and shoulder blades, shooting pains, difficulty in moving fingers, toes or legs, bone pains, swollen muscles and joints of rheumatism, or the foul breath, hawking spitting, droppings in throat, bad hearing, specks flying before the eyes all played out feeling catarrh. Botanic or 40 years' standing after doctors, hot springs and patent medicines had all failed. Most of these cured patients had taken Blood Balm as a last resort. It is especially advised for chronic, deep-seated cases. Impossible for any one to suffer the agonies or symptoms of rheumatism catarrh while or after taking Blood Balm. It cures the blood pure and rich, thereby giving a healthy blood supply. Cures are permanent and not patching up. Drug stores, $1 per large bottle. Sample of Blood Balm sent free and prepaid, also special medical advice by describing your trouble and writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

SPLENDID COURSE

THIS SEASON FOR PATRONS OF
THE TABERNACLE.

Attractions Heartily Commended by Prominent Citizens in Letters to The Management.

The season ticket sale for our next course so far has been the largest sale for the last four years, and we are gratified that our patrons are so quick to recognize the merit of our next offering. It will be almost impossible to see all who have subscribed for season tickets in person, and we ask those who have not been seen to call at the Bank of Hopkinsville and get their tickets. These season tickets will be reserved Friday morning, Oct. 25th at 9 a. m. at Anderson-Powder Drug store. The course will open this year with the Elma B. Smith company, and we hope no one will miss this opening number, as this is one of the most delightful companies in the lyceum work.

We hope the parents will see the importance and wisdom, of procuring tickets for their children, and submit a letter from Prof. Hamlett, who is heartily in sympathy, with the lyceum movement.

H. L. McPherson, Mgr. Tabernacle: Dear Sir:—Your efforts to give to our people a great course this winter are fully justified by the splendid talent that you have secured. These lyceum courses while affording the highest class of entertainment are of very great educational value. If people can afford entertainment for their children at all, they should certainly give them that which is unquestionably pure, and which affords the greatest pleasure and profit. I commend the lyceum course most heartily, and desire to thank its faithful and efficient management for the courses that I have attended with great pleasure during the past two years, and especially for the one arranged for the coming season.

I believe that I am anticipating the best that you ever been able to offer.

Yours very truly,

BARKSDALE HAMLETT.

It also gives us pleasure to give in full a letter from Judge Joe McCarroll, bearing on our next season attractions:

H. L. McPherson, Manager Tabernacle Co. Dear Sir:—Replying to your request that I express my opinion of the course of entertainment to be given at Union Tabernacle, this winter, I beg to say that without professing to be an authority on such matters, the course selected, is in my opinion one of the best, if not the very best, that could have been secured. It will certainly afford a great opportunity to those of our citizens who have any ambition in the direction of culture, information or refinement, to reap benefit which it would require a great deal of study, travel and money, to obtain at first hands. Our people should hasten to show their appreciation of the opportunity by subscribing liberally for season tickets, which I see are sold at merely nominal prices.

Yours truly,

JOE MCCARROLL.

From Rev. H. D. Smith, pastor of the Christian church, we have the following, very kind letter:

H. L. McPherson, My Dear Sir:—I have seen the circular relating to your coming lyceum course and am very glad to hear that you are so many as to its moral and entertaining character I am sure it is all right and I shall take pleasure in approving your selection both privately and publicly. Let me add that your capable management of former courses has been no small public benefit and that you have my sympathetic interests in your efforts to give us another series of entertainments which shall be at once morally sound and artistically excellent.

Respectfully,
H. D. SMITH.

WHAT BRYAN SAID.

On the day that Mr. Willson was making his charge against Mr. Bryan that he was "hired" for $500 a day to "spiel for the Democratic ticket in Kentucky," the distinguished Democratic leader was telling twelve thousand people, assembled at Murray, Calloway county, just why he paid a visit to Kentucky at this time. Said Mr. Bryan:

"There is no more reason why I should leave my children good government than that you should leave your children good government; and there is no more reason why I should fight for Democracy than there is that you should fight for Democracy. My interest is not due to the fact that I have been a candidate for high office. My interest is not due to the fact that I may be a candidate for high office in the future, for office is but an incident of my life, and there are things which concern me more. I have never wanted of life merely to hold office for I have long since learned that my place in history will not be determined by what people do for me, but by what I can do for my people.

"I have said this much because I wanted to impress upon your minds that you ought to be as much interested as I am in this fight, and now, Democrats, IF I WILL COME FROM NEBRASKA AT MY OWN EXPENSE to help you win a victory in Kentucky for Democracy, can't you go from your homes to your polls on election day and do your part toward winning that victory? What excuse can you give your conscience or your neighbors if on election day you remain away from the polls? What excuse can you give to your conscience or your country if by any neglect of yours these principles which you hold dear are defeated, and simply through your failure to do what you can? Is it not worth your while to vote yourselves, and then do what you can to get your neighbors to join with you to make your majority larger?"

Does any one believe, even Mr. Willson, who made the charge, that the man who uttered those words lied to the sixty thousand people who heard him in western Kentucky when he said that he came to Kentucky at his own expense for the purpose of rousing Democrats to action in the present fight for state offices. No, no one, not even Mr. Willson, believes such a thing, and the Republican gubernatorial nominee hasn't the manhood or the courage to stand up and admit that he has wantonly slandered one of the greatest men of the present day in America. Does any one believe that a man who will make such a charge is elevated to the high office of Kentucky?

TAX NOTICE.

My office will be open until 8:30 p. m. from now until the 1st day of November for the purpose of receiving taxes.

All taxes that are not paid by the first of November will be turned over to the delinquent tax collector and the fiscal court will give him 40c on the dollar for collecting same.

Now all tax payers can readily see that it is to their interest and the county's also, for everybody who has people employed who have to pay taxes to encourage and assist those who need attention in that direction to pay their taxes for if they wait until after November 1st every man who pays a poll tax will have to pay $2.47, otherwise if he should pay it before the first of November it would only cost him $1.50, and as the county pays the delinquent tax collector 40c on the dollar for collecting the taxes, the county would only get 90c for each poll collected after it is termed delinquent. So you can readily see that it is to your interest to propose to the tax payer whom you have employed to let you pay his tax when you come in to pay yours and make it up in the settlement.

INVITE A TEST

L. L. Elgin Asks Catarrh Sufferers to Try Hyomei on His Guarantee.

L. L. Elgin invites all who suffer from any form of catarrhal troubles to get a Hyomei outfit from him with his absolute guarantee that if it does not give perfect satisfaction, the money will be refunded upon request.

There is no other treatment for catarrh that in any way resembles Hyomei, none that gives such quick curative results and lasting satisfaction, no medicine that can take its place, none that can be sold on a guarantee like this, to refund the money unless it cures.

Catarrh is a germ disease and can be cured only by breathing Hyomei, so that the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs and reached by its antiseptic healing powers. In this way all catarrhal germs are killed, the irritated mucous membrane is healed and catarrh is driven from the system.

This wonderful medicated air treatment does not drug and derange the stomach, but is breathed through a little pocket inhaler that goes with every dollar outfit.

The unusual way in which L. L. Elgin sells Hyomei attests his confidence in the remedy.

WHY HE DOES IT.

"It isn't often that people have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said Druggist L. L. Elgin to one of his many customers, "but he is glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorized him to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half-price, 25 cents, although he has sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

He is still selling the specific at half price, although he cannot tell how long he shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the specific does not cure them, they can come right back to his store and he will cheerfully refund their money.

IN JUST FOUR DAYS

TEN THOUSAND VOTES CAST IN CHILDREN'S CONTEST

Getting Very Interesting and The Young Folks Are Out Hustling Among Their Friends.

Our prediction that the count of the vote last night would be a big one and that there would be something doing in all the districts proved correct, there being about 10,000 votes in the count.

An unusually heavy vote was polled in town, the majority of the candidates in the city districts making substantial gains, but the vote in the country showed a big increase and changes were made in the standing in these districts.

District No. 8 was especially filled with surprises. Miss Janie Walker forces Ben Cowherd back to second place, although her majority is small. All the other candidates in this district show big gains and they are all well bunched and running a close race. More activity than has heretofore been shown is noticed in district No. 9 and all the candidates here are evidently going after the pony outfit and watch. District No. 10 has up to this time been rather quiet but this week it also comes to the front with a change. Master Johnny Burkholder taking the lead from Miss Ressie Cranor. Miss Cranor drops two places for Miss Jenkins Hampton received enough votes to put her in second place. Miss Nandine England, of Apex, Ky., is new candidate in this district and she is entered with a good vote to begin with.

The out of the county candidates are also going after the valuable prizes. Miss Myra Turner, of Cerulean, has been in the lead in this district for a long time but now Miss Laura Colman, of Gracey, forces ahead with a small majority. The "bloody seventh" is quiet this time or a change, but the fun is liable to break out here at any time as there are several candidates entered and they are all backed by loyal friends and the close will be exciting. The candidates of other districts are equally determined and changes are apt to come any time.

The contest will not close until December 10th and this gives lots of time for any candidate to get busy and win the pony outfit or one of the gold watches. There is still plenty of time for new candidates to come in and become active factors in the race. The interest is spreading all the time, not only in town but throughout the country, and the close will be more exciting than a horse race. We urge all of the county candidates to call at this office when they are in town and let us show them "Bonnie Boy" and his handsome buggy and harness.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and baby! Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of childbirth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain.

Lesson IV.—Fourth Quarter, For
Oct. 27, 1907.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Josh. xiv, 6-15.
Memory Verses, 7, 8—Golden Text,
Matt. xxv, 23—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1907, by American Bible Association.]

The intervening chapters between our last lesson and this tell us how the Lord fought for Israel until Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord said unto Moses (x, 14, 42; xi, 23). It had not been continuous victory, for sin and unbelief had been at work bringing dishonor upon God and disgrace and defeat upon themselves. The covetous disobedience of Achan brought judgment upon himself and trouble upon all Israel. Joshua's league with the lying Gibeonites without consulting the captain who appeared to him by Jericho was a sad mistake, but while Joshua and the people walked with God in trustful obedience there was always victory for Israel, the Lord on one occasion casting down great hailstones from heaven upon the enemy and miraculously making one day to be nearly two in length (x, 11-14). With all their victories there remained very much land yet to be possessed (xiii, 1), and that is true of all believers with reference to the precious promises of God. That the Levites, who were chosen from all the tribes of Israel to be specially set apart to God instead of the firstborn (Num. iii, 11-13; viii, 14), should have no inheritance in the land but the Lord God Himself (xiii, 14, 33) makes us think of and desire to say from the heart, "The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in Him" (Lam. iii, 24). The Levites, who waited specially upon God, were well cared for. They had cities to dwell in and suburbs for their cattle; they lived upon the tithes of the others and gave to the Lord a tithe out of their tithes (xiv, 3, 4; Num. xviii, 20-26). All true believers are a holy and royal priesthood, kings and priests (1 Pet. ii, 5, 9; Rev. i, 6; x, 10), and we ought to be quite sure that if we make His service our delight He'll make our wants His care (Matt. vi, 33; Rom. viii, 32).

Joshua seems to have continued his headquarters at Gibeon (ix, 6, x, 9), and now his old friend Caleb comes to him on special business. For forty-five years he had treasured in his heart a word that the Lord had said to Moses concerning him (Num. xiv, 30). He had eaten it, lived on it, fully appropriated it, and doubtless many a time when others were dying all about him and he perhaps was not feeling quite as well as usual and the adversaries were whispering, "Your turn next; you will soon be gone like the rest," he had encouraged himself in the Lord and reminded Him of His promise and been strengthened. The infallible word of the Living God is always a sure resting place regardless of all feelings or circumstances. See Paul in the storm at sea, when all hope that they should be saved was taken away, standing forth and declaring with all boldness, "There shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship; * * * there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you" (Acts xxvii, 20-25, 34). "I believe God that it shall be even as it was told me." Of Mary of Nazareth it is written, "Blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord" (Luke i, 45). Our Lord said to Thomas, "Blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed" (John xx, 29).

Note the names given to Moses in verses 6, 7, "The man of God, * * * the servant of the Lord;" God's man, God's possession, specially for God's own use; Jehovah's servant, serving Him only, saying, like Paul, "Whose I am and whom I serve." Every believer may and should be God's possession for His service. Caleb kindly refreshes Joshua also as he says, "The thing that the Lord said concerning me and thee" (verse 6). Think of our Lord saying to Simon Peter concerning the taxes, "That take and give unto them for me and thee" (Matt. xvii, 27). It seems to me that we have in our lesson the significance of "wholly following the Lord" (verses 8, 9, 14). What is it but having a heart to believe God and to do just as He says regardless of what others may say or do, a readiness to stand with God even if you die for it, for Caleb and Joshua were in danger of being stoned to death for their steadfastness. Caleb was an illustration of Isa. xl, 31, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength," etc. Hear him say, "The Lord hath kept me alive, as He said, these forty and five years; * * * I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me" (verses 10, 11). Kept waiting forty-five years by the unbelief and rebellion of others, he has been sustained in body and soul by the word of God, for the Lord was his life and health and hope. Now he asks for the mountain where the giants were, saying so grandly, "If so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said" (verse 12). He recognized that the Lord was his strength, and that whatever was to be done He must do it, but he was gladly willing to be used by Him.

So Joshua gave him Hebron, which became his inheritance, and he drove thence the three sons of Anak (xv, 13, 14). Hebron signifies fellowship, communion, and if we would live at Hebron we must be able to say, "Truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ" (1 John i, 3).

DEEPLY INTERESTED

Is William J. Bryan, the Great Nebraskan, in the Success of the Democratic Party in Kentucky This Year.

Says Campaign in This State Has an Important Bearing Upon the Success of Principles in Which He Is Interested.

Influence on National Politics of a Victory in State of Kentucky Cannot Be Ignored by Voters.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 17.—Addressing 60,000 persons, gathered at sixteen cities and towns in western and southwestern Kentucky, William J. Bryan, the greatest living exponent of the principles of Democracy, urged upon his hearers and all other patriotic Kentuckians that they go to the polls on election day, Tuesday, Nov. 5 next, and cast their votes in support of the splendid state ticket headed by Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic candidate for governor, and for legislative candidates who will, in the general assembly of 1908, cast their votes for Governor J. C. W. Beckham for a seat in the senate of the United States as the successor of Senator McCreary.

Mr. Bryan's speeches were devoted largely to a discussion of national issues, but in presenting the views which he holds, and which are dear to hundreds of thousands of Democrats the country over, he dwelt at considerable length upon the influence which a Democratic victory in the state of Kentucky this year will have on national politics. He declared it would be an influence that Democrats cannot ignore, as it would be heralded as the first gun to be fired in the celebration of a great national victory. In presenting Democratic doctrines and urging Democrats of Kentucky to rally to the support of the state candidates of the party, Mr. Bryan spoke as follows:

I am down in your campaign this year because I believe that it has an important bearing upon the success of the principles in which I feel deeply interested. I know the men who have been nominated for several of your offices, and I am interested in them, but I am interested even more in the principles for which they stand. I am interested in national politics, as state politics has its influence upon national politics, and I want to give you two reasons why I believe that every Democrat should be out at the polls this year and vote the Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

In the first place, Kentucky is one of our Democratic states, and I do not want us to have to enter a national campaign handicapped by Republican victory in the state of Kentucky. There is no local reason why you should turn down an administration that has administered the government economically and in your interest. If you want to find a contrast between a state administration that is Democratic and a state administration that is Republican you can go into the states where the Democrats control, like the state of Missouri, for instance, and compare the expense of the government in the administration of the state affairs with the administration in states which Republicans control. For instance, compare Missouri, a Democratic state, with Pennsylvania, a Republican state, and you can understand the difference between the two kinds of administration. It is natural that the Democrats should be more economical than Republicans, because Democrats teach that taxation is a necessary evil to be borne only so far as is necessary for the support of the government. Whereas the Republican party has for a quarter of a century taught the doctrine that taxation is a blessing, and if people have a hard time all you have to do is to increase their taxes in order to lighten their burden and increase their blessings. It is natural that those who believe that taxation is a necessary evil should limit it and restrict it as much as possible, and it is perfectly natural that those who in national politics teach that should give them as much of this blessing as possible when they have a chance to administer the offices.

Then there is this difference between the way the Democrat looks at things and the way the Republican looks at things. When I say Republican, I do not mean the average Republican who votes for the average Republican who votes has mighty little influence upon the average Republican who holds high office. There is a wide difference between the rank and file of the Republican party and the Republican leaders. The average Republican is like the average Democrat. But the high Republican looks at society from an entirely different standpoint. The Democrat believes that prosperity works up from the people, and the leading Republicans of this country believe that prosperity drips down, leaks down from the higher classes, and, therefore, when they come to consider policies, the Democrat and the average Republican want policies for the whole people, while the leading Republicans insist that if you legislate for the well-to-do, they will take care of the poor.

It is natural that looking at government and society from these different standpoints, that the Democrats would more carefully guard the interests of the common people than those in charge of the administration under Republican authority. I say this in regard to the general administration, and I think you will find it true, if you will compare your administration under Democrats with the administration of states which are under Republican rule.

But, my friends, the influence that your election will have on national politics, is an influence that Democrats cannot ignore. If your state were to cast its vote for the Republican party you would find that all over the nation it would be heralded as the beginning of Republican victory in the nation; while if in your state you do as they did in Oklahoma, it will be heralded abroad as the first gun to be fired in the celebration of a great national victory.

Out in Oklahoma they rolled up a majority of nearly 100,000 in favor of a constitution written by a constitutional convention that was nine-tenths Democratic. Nine-tenths is a pretty good ratio, and we cannot ask much more; for our dollars, whether gold or silver, have about ten per cent alloy and nine-tenths pure is considered a very fair ratio even in money, and out in Oklahoma they had a constitutional convention that was nine-tenths pure and it wrote a constitution that was so good that all the Democrats voted for it and a large per cent of the Republicans, and the victory in Oklahoma gives us not only that indication of the trend of public sentiment, but it gives us two Democratic senators and five Democratic members of congress, and I am down here because I want you to give encouragement to the Democrats of this state who are fighting for better government, and by your election this fall you will not only determine your state officers and put either the Democratic ticket, with Judge Hager at the head, or a Republican ticket in office here, but you will also elect a United States senator and that senator will hold for six years. He will hold through the next administration and two years into the administration succeeds it.

We need Democratic senators for the United States senate is the weak point today in this government. They have so many representatives there of corporate wealth that we need in the United States senate Democrats to the core, who, like Governor Beckham, will stand for the rights of the people, and though I live in Nebraska, I am interested in the senator elected from Kentucky, for before we can secure any remedial relief in any direction of a national character it must pass through the United States senate.

No relief of a national character needed by the people can be secured until it goes through the senate, and therefore the farms of my state are interested, like the people of your state, in having senators there who will listen to the voice of the common people and not receive their instructions from the great trusts and the railroad systems of the country.

And now, my friends, let me give you some reasons why Democrats should take courage at the situation which now presents itself. I think that no one in this country has enjoyed himself more than I have during the last two years. For now something like seventeen years I have been laboring in behalf of certain reforms, and those reforms are dearer to me than anything else of a political nature that my country can give. I have watched the growth of these reforms as day by day they have developed, and just as the farmer goes out and rejoices in the growth and development of the crop on his farm, I have watched with delight the growth and development of these reforms, and in the last two years I have seen these reforms vindicated, not only by events, but even by the confessions of Republicans; and these reforms have at last grown so strong that they have compelled a Republican president to acknowledge the need of several other reforms for which we have been contending, and others will compel the acknowledgment of Republicans before long.

Let me give you four of these reforms that have become so strong that a Republican president has admitted the correctness of our position. Take in the first place the enforcement of the law against the trusts. What a time we have had convincing some of the people that the trusts are an evil. I remember that in our fight on this subject there were lots of Republicans who were deluded with the idea that about all the good that this country enjoys has come in some way mysteriously from the trusts, and whenever we said anything in regard to the Standard Oil trust there was always some Republican who would stand on the street corners and tell us that it was the Standard Oil trust that had cheapened the price of oil. But there is not a Republican now to make that argument, even in a back alley.

There were many who thought that these great trusts were beneficent institutions, and they were praising them as if all blessings flowed from them; but, my friends, in the last few years they have come to believe, as Democrats have long insisted, that the penitentiary is not too good a place for the trust magnate who conspires against the welfare of 80,000,000 people, and this sentiment has grown so strong that not only does the president say that the enforcement of the criminal law would be a good thing, but as an illustration of the vast growth of the tremendous increase of this sentiment, even Secretary Taft—even Secretary Taft (laughter)—has reached the point where he now admits that it might be a good thing to put one or two trust magnates in the penitentiary. While they will admit that it might be good to put one or two in, the rest of the people will go far enough to believe that all of them should be put in. So that when the president takes an advanced position on the trust question, he steps on Democratic ground.

The people praise him for what he has done in the matter of railroad regulation, but where did he get his inspiration? In a Republican platform? You read in vain the Republican national platform to find it there, and if you look in that hated and despised Chicago platform, you will find the authority for railroad regulation that the president has at last accepted. If you look in the platform of 1906 written at Kansas City, you will find it again, and even at St. Louis, while we quarreled over a good many questions, we wrote that plank into that platform, and it was our third national platform that demanded this reform; and when the president stepped out and advocated this, he had to step onto Democratic ground. But let no Republican find fault with the president because he stands on Democratic ground on some of these questions, for he could not go before you without entrenching on Democratic ground, for we pre-empted all the ground in front several years ago. Some of the Democrats have even represented the manner in which the president has endorsed some Democratic ideas, but I do not resent it, for our ideas were presented to the public for adoption and our ideas are good enough to be adopted not only by Democrats, but by Republicans, and my regret is not that the president has adopted some of them, but my regret is that he has not adopted more, and then I was a Republican here, but you will also elect a United States senator and that senator will hold for six years. He will hold through the next administration and two years into the administration succeeds it.

We need Democratic senators for the United States senate is the weak point today in this government. They have so many representatives there of corporate wealth that we need in the United States senate Democrats to the core, who, like Governor Beckham, will stand for the rights of the people, and though I live in Nebraska, I am interested in the senator elected from Kentucky, for before we can secure any remedial relief in any direction of a national character it must pass through the United States senate.

No relief of a national character needed by the people can be secured until it goes through the senate, and therefore the farms of my state are interested, like the people of your state, in having senators there who will listen to the voice of the common people and not receive their instructions from the great trusts and the railroad systems of the country.

And now, my friends, let me give you some reasons why Democrats should take courage at the situation which now presents itself. I think that no one in this country has enjoyed himself more than I have during the last two years. For now something like seventeen years I have been laboring in behalf of certain reforms, and those reforms are dearer to me than anything else of a political nature that my country can give. I have watched the growth of these reforms as day by day they have developed, and just as the farmer goes out and rejoices in the growth and development of the crop on his farm, I have watched with delight the growth and development of these reforms, and in the last two years I have seen these reforms vindicated, not only by events, but even by the confessions of Republicans; and these reforms have at last grown so strong that they have compelled a Republican president to acknowledge the need of several other reforms for which we have been contending, and others will compel the acknowledgment of Republicans before long.

Let me give you four of these reforms that have become so strong present it as a bill and act upon it in the house of representatives.

Then the president asserted the doctrine that a trust can override the laws of a state in regard to their school system. If I had gone to California and made an argument in defense of the right of the state to control its affairs, if I had gone there two years ago, I could not have made the people to understand the importance of the question, but the moment the right of these people to control their school system was attacked, then all the Republicans of California became Democrats on the subject of school control, and now the president has proposed the national incorporation of railroads and other great corporations; and, my friends, as long as the American people understand that the purpose of the national incorporation is to take out of the hands of the people of the state the control of their state affairs, and carry that control to Washington, and place it down where it is almost impossible to reach your representatives, there will be a revolution of feeling against that doctrine as against the doctrine announced in California, and you will find the American people, Republican as well as Democrats, lining up in behalf of the doctrine set forth in the constitution, that while congress is supreme in the affairs of interstate commerce, the state is supreme in the control of the things that concern its own people and its own people alone.

So that where the president has been Democratic he has gained popularity, and where he has been un-Democratic he has lost popularity, and thus by his good deeds and by his bad ones he has proven the strength of Democratic ideas in this country.

If any of you think that the Republicans ever won a victory in the last twelve years, I want to remind you that after twelve years of complete power, after rather eleven, during which they have had the president, senate and the house, they have never been able to impress upon this country one single Republican idea. There is not one Republican doctrine today that is as strong as it was eleven years ago. That is the result of eleven years of Republican supremacy in the United States, and the Democratic party out of power has been so strong that it can coerce a Republican president into the acceptance of Democratic ideas as a basis of his popularity.

Now, my friend, if this is true, is it not a bad time for the Democrats of Kentucky to become Republicans? Is it not the time when their faith in Democracy should be strengthened rather than weakened? Is this not the time when their hope should be increased rather than diminished? Is this not the time when they should go forth with a larger zeal rather than with indifference?

I am glad to have this chance to look into the faces of those who in the campaigns through which I have passed have been faithful to the platform on which I stood; and I come here to ask you to be as enthusiastic in your efforts this fall as you were when I was your standard bearer. If there is in this audience one who has been attached to me, let me beg him to transfer to Judge Hager and those on the ticket with him, and to Governor Beckham, the full measure of that attachment. My friends, I shall not spend time telling you what splendid men these candidates are. I am satisfied that they deserve your support, and that they will ornament the positions to which they aspire. I shall not dwell upon matters of state importance, for I cannot know these things as well as your own speakers. All that I can do is to come from a distant state to bear testimony in your presence to the national character of your campaign. If any Democrat here thinks it concerns but this state whether one or another is elected governor, let me say to him that the influence of your election will reach to the very borders of the land; for as we approach a national campaign, all the things that precede give indication as to the result of that campaign, and as the Democrats rejoice at the election in Oklahoma because it indicated a trend of public sentiment toward Democracy, so a great victory for our state ticket in Kentucky will gladden the hearts of millions of Democrats, for it will pre-empt a victory in Kentucky for Democracy next year; and if you Democrats who marched to the polls in 1896 and gave me a majority, if today your love of Democracy is as warm as it was then, make the majority larger for Hager and his ticket this fall.

And, my friends, the election for senator has a double significance. A victory for Democracy in your state legislature, like a victory for your state ticket, would be an inspiration to Democrats elsewhere, but it would be more than that. It would send to the United States senate a Democrat, and we need Democrats there. We not only need Democrats there, but we cannot afford to lose any of the Democrats that we have.

Today two Democrats represent Kentucky in the United States senate. If the Republicans carried this state, they would send a Republican as successor to Senator McCreary, and, my friends, if a Republican went there in the place of that Democrat, then your state, instead of presenting two votes in favor of reform, would have a Republican senator nullifying the vote of the Democratic senator.

your state would be a cipher on these questions. The senate is today the weak point. We need reform, but no remedial legislation of a national character is possible until the measure passes the senate as well as the house. You might have a Democratic president and a Democratic house of representatives anxious to relieve the burdens upon the people, and the president may be ready to sign the bill, but if the senate stands between them relief is impossible; and, my friends, I beg you to so cast your votes as to insure a Democratic legislature, for that will insure the election of Governor Beckham to the United States senate.

Now, I have given you my reason for being here. I am interested in national politics. I have been, for many years, and shall be until I die. My great desire is to see these reforms, for which I in company with other Democrats have been fighting, realized, for I believe they will bring blessings untold to the American people, and I come from a distant state to give you what assistance I can, because I am interested in these questions. Am I more interested than you? Have I any more reason than you Democrats? I know of no reason that I have to make me anxious for reform that ought not to make you anxious for reform, too. I am as well situated as you are. I can stand Republican legislation as well as you can. I can live under bad government as well as you can live. I can provide for my children no matter what party is in power, and I can leave them all that it is good for them to have left to them. I have no favors to ask of anyone, but, my friends, I want to leave my children something better than money. Money may take the wings of the morning and fly away. I want to leave them something more enduring than personal property or real estate. I want to leave them a government that will protect them in the enjoyment of life and liberty and in the pursuit of happiness. That is the richest legacy that father can leave the child.

But there is no more reason why I should leave my children good government than that you should leave your children good government; and there is no more reason why I should fight for Democracy than there is that you should fight for Democracy. My interest is not due to the fact that I have been a candidate for high office. My interest is not due to the fact that I may be a candidate for high office in the future, for office is but an incident of my life, and there are things which concern me more. I have never wanted office merely to hold office, for I have long since learned that my place in history will not be determined by what people do for me, but by what I can do for my people.

I have said this much because I wanted to impress upon your minds that you ought to be as much interested as I am in this fight, and now, Democrats, if I will come from Nebraska at my own expense to help you win a victory in Kentucky for Democracy, can't you go from your homes to your polls on election day and do your part toward winning that victory? What excuse can you give your conscience or your neighbors if on election day you remain away from the polls?

What excuse can you give to your conscience or your country if by any neglect of yours these principles which you hold dear are defeated, and simply through your failure to do what you can? Is it not worth your while to vote yourselves, and then do what you can to get your neighbors to join with you to make your majority larger now than ever before?

I understand that you have so big a majority down here that when you get up in the morning and then hear that the country has gone Republican you cannot understand how any part of the country could go Republican, as there are so many Democrats in this county; but, my friends, strange as it may seem, there are many people in many parts of this country, and people who look much like you, who have not the political information and the political intelligence that you show on election day, and these people by a strange perversion of fate vote the Republican ticket. And I happen to live in one of those communities where a majority of the people do not seem to understand public questions; and whenever there is a campaign on hand we generally have a meeting in the city of Lincoln, and I make a speech to my Republican neighbors and try to seize them as brands from the burning and bring them within the fold of the elect, and last fall when the time came for that meeting I announced that my subject would be "Dreams." We had had Senator Beveridge there, and he had made a Republican speech, and in that speech he told them that while I was a very nice man, and while he thought a great deal of me, that I was not a doer of things, but just a dreamer, and the while I dreamed, the president was doing things; and it was printed in the paper, and I read it, but I did not think much of it; I didn't pay much attention to it, but in a few days I read in the paper that Governor Cummings of Iowa had made a speech and called me a dreamer. When I saw that a second one had called me a dreamer I sat up and took notice, and in a few days I read that Governor Hamlin had called me a dreamer—three of them. It began to look serious, and then I read that Speaker Cannon had called me a dreamer—four of them; and I knew that my word would not amount to much against four great men, and so instead of denying it I decided to admit it and justify it; and I began to read up on the subject of dreams. I thought I would post myself and find out what I really was, or whether it was a disgraceful thing or not; and I found to my surprise that the subject of dreams was really quite a subject, after all, and that there had been dreamers before. I went to the Bible, where I always go when I am in trouble. I have never found a book with so much truth in it as the Bible contains, and I don't know of any book where truth is more beautifully expressed and I looked in the Bible to see if I could find anything about the dreamer; and I found that there were dreamers in the Bible, and that the most prominent one was Joseph and because Joseph's brothers called him a dreamer, and they did not like his dreams, they hated him. They plotted to kill him, and when he was sent out by his father to his brethren who had their flocks in Dothan, they said, "Here comes the dreamer; let us put him away and be done with him." But finally they decided that instead of killing him they would just put him down in a pit, and let the father believe that he had been killed in some way by a wild beast. Then some merchants came along, and they took Joseph out of the pit and sold him, and sent him down into Egypt, and then they congratulated themselves and said, "Now we are rid of the dreamer," and things went along for awhile until they had almost forgotten Joseph, and then there came a famine and they had to go down into Egypt and buy corn, and when they got to Egypt there they found the dreamer, and he had the corn; and so, my friends, I made up my mind it was not so bad to be a dreamer provided you have the corn, and in that speech I proceeded to show the Republicans how the Democratic party had been dreaming and how they had the corn and were prepared to satisfy all political needs.

The more I thought on this subject the less willing I was to class myself with the dreamers, for it was too high and honored for me. The dreamer, why he is a great man. John Boyle O'Reilly says that the dreamer lives forever, while the toiler dies in a day.

As I went from nation to nation in traveling through Europe I found that everywhere the ideas of Jefferson had been conveyed, and that everywhere they were planted and were growing. When I left home I was proud of the Democratic party. I boasted that I belonged to a party that was essentially old, but when I got back from my trip around the world I was prouder still, for this old Democratic party that Jefferson founded is not only a century old, but it is 25,000 miles wide.

I am proud of Jefferson's work. Of all the constructive statesmen in the world's history, he is the greatest, and, my friends, when the names that Republicans love to quote—when these names are forgotten, little children will lip the name of Jefferson, and freemen will stand up and praise the one who taught them to know a freeman's rights and fight for them.

And now, Democrats, let me ask you a question: If a Republican president can win popularity by spasmodically and sporadically doing something Democratic, what would be the popularity of a Democratic president who was consistently and persistently Democratic on all questions? Isn't this a bad time for a Democrat to become discouraged? Never since I have known politics have we had so much to encourage us.

In this state you have by organization among the farmers, been able to protect yourselves to some extent from the greed of one great monopoly, but instead of feeling satisfied at the great success that has come to your organization, I bid you have some feeling for those who are not so situated that they can protect themselves as you have been able to protect yourselves. Have you not learned something of what a monopoly is, and are you not ready now to join with us to lay the ax at the root of the tree, and instead of saying as Secretary Taft said, that there are good trusts and bad trusts, are you not ready to say with us that God never made a man good enough to stand at the head of a private monopoly and control the price of what people had to use?

Is it not time that we seriously take up this question and put the American government back upon its old foundation, and make it again a government of the people, by the people and for the people? Are you not ready to enlist in this contest? I have been fighting for this principle now seventeen years, and I ask for nothing better than I might continue this fight until God calls me from my earthly labors. Are you willing to enlist, not for three months, or six months or a year—are you willing to enlist for this war until justice shall triumph and our nation shall be relieved?

While next year the fight will be on a larger field and the stakes will be greater, now in this fight you are on the skirmish line, and if you will but give us a splendid victory for Hager and his associates, we shall rejoice with you; and if you will give us a legislature that elects Beckham, our rejoicing will be doubly great; and hope that when the polls are closed the vote is counted you will see such a victory in Kentucky that we hear your shouts all year long in Nebraska, and then when we will be so glad that you in Kentucky.

OF THE CHARGE PREFERRED BY
S. C. MERCER

And Damages in the Sum of $100
Awarded Against Plaintiff's Son.—
Suit Was for $25,000.

(From Monday's Daily)

The jury in the case of S. C. Mercer against F. P. Thomas and Prentice Mercer for $25,000 damages, for alleged assault and battery, returned a verdict this afternoon which dismissed the charge entirely so far as Dr. Thomas is concerned and assessed damages in the sum of $100 against Prentice Mercer.

When the case was completed Saturday afternoon Judge Cook adjourned court until this morning, and the jury did not begin the consideration of the case until they were sent to their room today.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. CARNEGIE MEDALS AND COIN FOR HEROES

Twenty-Four People Rewarded For Bravery, a Negro Among Them.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct., 19.—The regular fall meeting of the Carnegie Hero commission was held here and F. M. Willet, secretary, announced that twenty-four persons received rewards for bravery. The number is the largest in the history of the commission. With these awards 126 persons have been benefited by the hero funds, and 1,121 persons have been refused either money or medals. For the first time a negro—John B. Hill, of Atlanta, Ga.—received an award.

The awards include:
Leon Harris, 15 years old, Pensacola, Fla., bronze medal and $500 for educational purposes; saved Bernard Z. Johnson from drowning in Pensacola Bay.
John B. Hill, 38 years old, a negro Atlanta, Ga., bronze medal and $500 to reimburse him for loss sustained by being injured. Hill saved several persons during a runaway. He was recovering from an operation and was injured again.

HAILED INTO COURT

CHARGED WITH THE OFFENSE OF SHOOTING QUAIL.

Circuit Judge, Methodist Preacher and a Lawyer Found Not Guilty in Hopkins County.

The Rev. A. D. Litchfield, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, of this city; the Hon. J. F. Gordon, incumbent on the bench of the circuit court, and the Right Hon. W. J. Cox, one of the prominent attorneys at this bar, were haled into the court of justice presided over by Judge J. W. Wilson yesterday afternoon, charged with an infraction of the game laws of this state.

Judge Gordon Rev. Litchfield and Mr. Cox entered a plea of not guilty of the charge, and because no facts could be brought to bear on the case, other than to prove that the gentlemen were entirely innocent, upon motion of the county attorney the case was dismissed.

Messrs. Gordon, Litchfield and Cox went out one of the half holidays that the court has taken in the past few days to permit the courtroom to be used by political speakers, to hunt doves. Now, some one saw these gentlemen go out, and jumped to the conclusion that they were going after quail. Mr. Robert Stewart and Mr. Burton, intent on reporting any infraction of the game laws to the warden, saw some men who resembled the trio shooting quail, and reported to the warden that they were sure of the identity of them, and made affidavit to the effect that it was Messrs. Gordon etc.

The game warden, because it was his duty, had them haled into court to answer to the charge, but when the witnesses were confronted they said they were not certain they were correct, and so the gentlemen were turned loose. Only another case of mistaken identity. — Madisonville Hustler.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Why Colds Are Dangerous

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by Anderson & Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev.
Frank De Witt Talmage, D. D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 20.—That the heaviest sorrows and trials of life may be transformed into the greatest spiritual blessings if, instead of giving way to hopeless depression, we show fortitude by the faithful performance of our daily duties is the teaching of this sermon. The text is John xxi, 3, "I go a-fishing."

A great tragedy seems to associate itself with the scene in which it took place. If we witness a railroad collision or a carriage accident or a tragic death of any kind we cannot pass the place in which it occurred without having the sad event recalled to the memory. Especially is this the case when the tragedy involved the death of one we loved. If you lived in another part of the country, would you not at once want to go home and stay among the home scenes and try to blot out the hideous spectacle which you had been compelled to witness? Well, that is just what Peter and some of the disciples did after Jesus was laid away in the tomb. "Come," they cried to each other, "let us get away from this cruel city of Jerusalem. Let us go back to Galilee, near where we were born and where we lived when the dear Lord called us to leave our nets and become fishers of men." So they packed up their belongings and started north for the Zebulun hills. They turned their backs upon the great walled in capital and the temple and sought the scenes of their childhood and of their early communion with Christ.

Methinks I can see them now walking along. The sun was shining just as bright then as during some of the walks they had taken with him. The birds were singing just as sweetly. It was the springtime. All the flowers were in full bloom—the wild flowers which Jesus so loved. The sheep were pasturing upon many hills. The grass was green and soft. As the weary travelers rested for the lunch hour it did seem as though nature cared not whether its Creator was living or dead. Oh, their hearts were so crushed and bleeding! The farther they got away from Calvary the more their grief seemed to bow them down. The hardest times of sorrow do not come during the hours of the funeral, but afterward. Then the house is so lonely, the arms so empty, the loved voices so still. Everywhere the pilgrims went they could see his dear face and hear him speaking. Christ a score of times had traveled with them over this same road and rested by these same springs.

Peter's First Impulse.

When they reach home the same unutterable grief abides with them. They try to cheer each other up, but it is no use. One afternoon toward evening as the sun was sinking in the west these disciples are again gathered together to talk over the past. I hear the rough, brusque, impulsive Peter speak up. He says: "Men, I cannot stand this any longer. Every time I think of his trial and death I hear myself denying him. Then I see that sweet face turned in pity upon me, as when the cock crew twice. I must do something to rouse myself out of these recollections of the past. I'll go a-fishing." With that Peter starts to find his old boat and his nets. And all the other disciples say, "We also go with thee."

They descend the hills to the pebbled beach. They get out the old oars. They fill the bottom of the boat with the nets. Off they pull. As I see that boat going farther and farther away from shore I see Christ, the loving Christ, watching his dear disciples. They cannot see him, but he sees them. Some practical gospel truths arise in my mind as I think of the impulsive words of this most human of all the apostles when he said, "I go a-fishing," and the other disciples answered, "We also go with thee."

Peter, starting for the nets on the sea of Galilee, shows, in the first place, the never ending grip the habits of early youth take upon our minds and hearts. What we learn before fifteen years of age we seldom forget. You have often heard of old people coming to their second childhood. This means that when the hair is white and the step infirm an aged man may forget what he did in his twenties and thirties and in his middle life, but he rarely forgets what he did as a little child. He may forget his wife and children, but, as a rule, he never forgets his mother and father and brothers and sisters. It is no unusual sight to hear an old man calling his sons and daughters by the names of his brothers and sisters and plaintively talking to his wife as though he were a little child addressing his mother. The places an old man dreams about most are the scenes of his early boyhood, the brook which ran through his father's meadow lands, the old schoolhouse where he studied his primer, his old trundle bed, the nuts he used to crack and the red apples he used to eat on winter evenings before the crackling logs of the old family fire.

Mr. Moody emphasized this truth in another way. He said: "The older I grow the harder it is for me to learn Scripture. As a preacher I am continually committing to memory new Bible texts and chapters, yet I very soon forget them. But the Scripture verses which I learned at my mother's knee I have never forgotten. The lessons which she taught me are more and more vividly recalled by my mind."

Therefore it is very important that parents train up their children aright for God. They should early get them in the habit of going to church and to Sunday school. They should teach them the beautiful stories of the Bible. They should instill in them the duties of helping those who need their help. The gospel habits we learn in youth we rarely forget."

Peter as a Boy.

Thus we find the old habits of Peter asserting themselves. Peter was born near the sea of Galilee. As a boy he used to play upon its pebbled beach. As a youth he used to swim and fish in its waters. As a young man he used to earn his livelihood by catching and selling the fish. As a strong fisherman he had battled with many storms while setting his nets after his boat had been nearly submerged by the heaving billows. Now, when the horrors of the crucifixion were still surging through his mind and heart, the old habits of youth were again asserting themselves. "Back to the fisherman's tasks," was the call of his heart. So may we train our children for Christ in the nursery that when the storms of persecution and the tornadoes of trouble batter against them and threaten to submerge them they may find divine solace and gospel comfort in the lessons we have taught them in the quietude of the nursery and in the inspired truths they have learned at the family altar.

But there is another weighty lesson to be learned from the scene of my text. The easiest way to overcome the tidal waves of trouble is by harnessing ourselves up to work. Inactivity and inertia are sympathizing attendants, who are only too willing to sit by the bedside of heartrending grief and weep with us when we weep and talk over with us the sickening tragedies of the past. But their chief mission is not to heal the wounds of life or to stop the hemorrhages of bleeding hearts. They only take the bandages off the pain-racking wounds and start the bleeding afresh. The best way to fight grief is to go forth in a manly, Christian way and lift our cross and silently carry our burden along and not stop to make complete inventory of our misfortunes. Peter knew this truth, as every brave man ought to know it.

Back to Daily Duties.

Cannot you hear him say to the other disciples: "Men, what is the use of our sitting here and nursing our grief? By dwelling on the scenes of the past we lessen one iota any of our sorrows? Would Jesus want us to sit around idle like this? We cannot bring him back to us. Like David with his dead boy, we can go to him, but he cannot come to us. Have we no daily duties to perform? Have we no hungry mouths to fill? Are not our wives and children dependent upon us for food? If Jesus does not want me to follow him and preach, at least he wants me to be an honest man and provide a home for my family. I used to earn my living by a fisherman's net. I can earn them bread by selling fish again. I go a-fishing." Then the other disciples said, "We also go with thee." Yes, the sad fact is that many people do not fight the sorrows of life by the activities of life. Like Job of old, they nurse their grief by tearing their garments and by weeping and complaining in sackcloth and ashes.

Here, for instance, is a wife and mother who has been blessed with as noble a family as God ever gave to a home. From the morning when the sweet throated songstress called love sang amid the bowers of the orange blossoms the sunshine of joy has always been flooding her life. Her life, like a humming bird, has winged its way from flower to flower. The stinging nettles and the hard, stony paths were for others. Only the restful, tender symphonies of a happy life sounded their music in her heart. But one day the shadow of the broad winged messenger of death passed over her head. Now, as before, there are seven places at her family table, but one of the baby chairs is vacant. Does that mother always arise in the morning with a sweet smile upon her lips and take up her duties of life cheerfully? Does she tell her husband her grief? With a noble Christian resignation, does she thank God that she has still four babies left? Does she live to make them happy? Or does she sit down and nurse her grief? Are her cheeks being continually splashed by the fountains of her tears? Does she put away all her bright clothes and advertise her sorrow by repulsive rags? Does she go forth with a brave heart to bind up the bleeding wounds of her neighbors? Does she continually expect her neighbors to come and talk to her upon only one subject, the loss of her baby girl? My friend, God sent you a sorrow to prepare you for helping others bear their trials. The easiest way to overcome grief is by bravely lifting up your cross and going forth to comfort others. Peter fishing for food for his children on the sea of Galilee is a far more commendable sight than Peter with tear stained cheeks, nursing his grief upon the pebbled beach of the sea of Tiberias.

Troubles Never Come Singly.

But there is another fact which impresses me about Peter's fishing expedition, and that is that troubles do not live a hermit's life. They do not perch as a baldheaded eagle upon the crags and the cliffs in solitary glory. They love companionship. Like some fish, they travel in schools. Like the cattle, they pasture together in herds. Peter's troubles were cumulative. They came in companies. Like the snowflakes, they persisted in piling themselves up into a great, impassable drift. Like the mighty onrushing rivers, they gathered up the waters of many brooks and creeks and fountains. In the first place, Peter had an awful remorse gnawing at his heart for his denial of Jesus Christ. Do you not suppose he thought of that apostasy day in and day out? After your father died, did there not for weeks and months and years linger in your mind some act of disobedience or some dutiful act that you neglected to do? Tell me, do you not suppose there were some people just careless enough to remind Peter of his three denials? "Yes," they sarcastically said; "if I were you, Peter, I would cry a good deal about Jesus' death. You always pretended you loved him so much. Oh, yes, you were always going to be faithful! And yet you failed him when the test came. Peter, I believe you are a hypocrite, and you would deny him again if you had the chance." And I can hear Peter say: "Yes, perhaps I would. O Christ, why have I been false to thee?"

Then the next grief tugging at Peter's heart was the awful thought that all Christ suffered for and lived for and died for seemed to have gone for naught. He felt that Christ's kingdom which he was to establish upon earth had now become a lost cause. Was not Jesus dead? Was not his little band of followers scattered? Was not the hated sadistic triumph in its merciless work? So Peter felt that Christ's blood was sacrificed in vain. He felt that Christ's death had sealed the fate of his kingdom.

How Christ Appeared.

Then upon the summit of these griefs came the failure of his present effort. Hour after hour those fishermen were dragging at their nets. No fish, no food, nothing to appease the hunger of their dear ones. Yet in the early dawn of the morning Christ appeared unto Peter upon the shores of Galilee. And so, my friend, when the darkest hours of your night of trouble have passed Christ will appear to you. Not in the darkness of your first trouble will you get the blessed peace which passeth all understanding, not even in the second trouble, but in the third trial or trouble Christ will appear as he appeared to those disciples on the crystal shore of Lake Genesareth.

In personal life I have had a most dramatic illustration of this poignant truth. My father's life was drawing toward its close. Thick and fast came a succession of terrific troubles. The impenetrable darkness seemed to be everywhere. First came the conflagration which in a few minutes swept away his great tabernacle, where so many of his gospel triumphs had been won. Every one of its stones had been mortared by years of self sacrifice and work. Then came the death of my beloved mother, who to a great extent was the cause of his wonderful success. Then came his removal from Brooklyn to Washington and his selling of the old homestead where he had passed the greater part of his active ministerial life. That home to him was the dearest place on earth. He never felt at home anywhere else. He was too old a tree to transplant and take root again, as you would be if you had to leave the home of your children and the home from which you had buried your dead. It was at this time that he prepared his sermon entitled "Cumulating Troubles." It was from I Chronicles, eleventh chapter and twenty-second verse, "Beniah, the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab; he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day."

The whole purpose of that sermon was to prove that every man like Beniah had three troubles to fight—first, a lion; second, a dark cavern; third, a snowy day. A short time after this my father came on to preach in my pulpit. He brought this sermon along. He arose and gave out the text. Then suddenly his tongue became thick and his speech heavy. He was threatened with an apoplectic stroke. His life's work from that moment rapidly drew to its close. Ah, yes, he had his "cumulating troubles." Church gone. Old homestead gone. Health gone. Three troubles like Beniah—a lion, a pit and a snowy day. So, O man, you shall have three troubles. You are like Beniah and Peter. But God will reveal himself to you in your darkest troubles as he revealed himself to his children of old. Christ appeared to Peter, walking upon the crystal pavements of the sea of Galilee, in the fourth watch of the night. As the darkness settled Christ will appear to you in his glorious love, soon, very soon. Aye, he will appear to you now, if you will only love him and trust him you can see him at this very moment.

Are we willing to open our eyes now and see Christ face to face? Christ did not appear unto the repentant apostle most vividly on a great occasion, but while he was at his humble duties, in the common walks of life. When Jesus appears most vividly to us he will in all probability reveal himself not so much in church as on the street car; not so much at a communion service as when we, as physicians, are bowing over the sickbeds of our patients, or when we, as farmers, are laboring in the fields, or when we, as housewives, are working about the kitchen stoves. And Christ will not appear unto us so vividly when we are alone as when, like Peter, in the darkness of the night, with Nathaniel and James and John, we are being tossed about upon the waves of trouble. May God grant that today, side by side, we may see the divine face of Jesus Christ!

On Ps.

"That'll be quite a swell wedding at your house tonight," said the old friend of the family. "Of course you'll give your daughter away." "No," replied the girl's father. "I'll be only lending her. I believe they'll be back to live with us." Philadelphia Press.
