VOLUME XXVII, NO 24

HOPKINSVILLE PEOPLE DID THEMSELVES PROUD YESTERDAY

IN ENTERTAINING THE MEMBERS OF THE KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION WHO ARRIVED ON SPECIAL TRAIN

The Brief Stay of the Visitors Was Filled With Visits to Points of Interest, Much Oratory, Hand Shaking, Good Things to Eat and Finally a Reception.—Guests Enthusiastic Over Hospitality.

(From Thursday's Daily)

When the members of the Kentucky Press association, nearly two hundred strong, reached here yesterday afternoon from Cerulean Springs on a special train over the Illinois Central railroad, one of the first sights that met their eyes was an enormous banner swung entirely across Ninth street and bearing in box car letters the words, "Welcome K. P. A." This was only a beginning of the welcome which was extended to the editors, their wives, daughters and sweethearts and from then on until the visitors returned to Cerulean last night, every citizen seemed to have taken it upon himself or herself to show the guests a good time, and from all indications these efforts were successful.

The editors were met at the depot by scores of citizens, headed by a brass band, who loaded the visitors into waiting carriages and at once began a tour of inspection of the city. They traversed the main streets of the city until the big plant of the Mogul Wagon company, having annual capacity of 12,000 wagons was reached, the advent of the party being the occasion for blasts from many steam whistles.

At this plant the busy hum of the machines mingled with the gay conversation of the party as they were shown all over the big building and watched the processes necessary to convert a piece of raw timber and some rough pieces of iron or steel into a finished wagon. They were finally shown into a long room which was handsomely decorated and where punch, cakes and cigars were served. Here Col. Jonett Henry introduced Mayor Charles M. Meacham who warmly welcomed the newspaper men to the city. Following this President Lew B. Brown introduced Clarence E. Woods, the association's orator, who responded upon behalf of the editors and wound up by saying that he was now firmly convinced that Hopkinsville was the best town in Kentucky. Judge W. T. Fowler followed him with an eloquent talk in which he reiterated the welcome extended and referred to the many advantages of the town and county. This was responded to by Robert W. Brown in a most happy manner.

From here the party went to the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane, passing through one of the handsomest sections of the city en route. At the asylum Superintendent Stephens and his assistants had prepared delightful refreshments consisting of ices, cakes and cigars and those who desired were shown through the various buildings and over the grounds. L. H. Davis welcomed the visitors upon behalf of the asylum officials and a number of speeches followed.

Returning to the city the party repaired to Hotel Latham where supper was served, after which a stroll over the business section was taken. From 8:30 until 10:30 an informal reception was held at the hotel which was attended by hundreds of citizens. T. C. Underwood was master of ceremonies and speeches were made by Prof. H. Clay Smith, Rev. C. H. H. Branch, Rev. Millard A. Jenkins upon the part of the citizens, and Lew B. Brown, E. Polk Johnson and Hon. A. O. Stanley for the association. At 10:30 the editors boarded the special train and returned to Cerulean all very enthusiastic over the warm hospitality and many courtesies which had been shown them in Hopkinsville.

E. A. Jonas, of Henderson, joined the party in Hopkinsville and returned with them to Cerulean. He will act as toastmaster at the banquet which will be given tonight and which will mark the close of the reunion.

AT CERULEAN

CERULEAN, Ky., June 18.—At the resumption of the business ses-

sign of the Press Association here this morning, President Lew Brown made his report dealing with the failure of the proposed newspaper bills before the last legislature. In the discussion which followed it was the unanimous decision of all that the editors were tired of temporizing with politicians and would hereafter go in for a determined fight to secure the desired legislation.

J. W. Eades, of Harlan Enterprise, talked most interestingly on "Making a paper in the mountains." Following this came a general and informal discussion of the trip to Hopkinsville which resulted in the adoption of testimonials enthusiastically expressing the appreciation of the members of the association for the hospitality shown them by the citizens of the city. Ben Cozine led the round table discussion of "Mechanical Excellence."

This afternoon the annual election of officers will be held. The association will be the guests of honor at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stice, at their handsome home at Cerulean. Tonight the reunion will be brought to close by the annual banquet at the hotel. E. A. Jonas, of Henderson, will act as toastmaster and Green R. Keller, of Carlisle, C. M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, T. C. Underwood, of Hopkinsville, Tim Needham, Vernon Richardson, of Danville, and Miss Martel Marcum, of Columbia, will respond.

The editors also adopted resolutions of appreciation to Capt. and Mrs. Pool for the hospitable manner in which they had entertained the association. It was also decided that the association would furnish the flowers for the banquet tonight.

Interest in the meeting of the Kentucky Press association is on the increase and many new members arrived at Cerulean yesterday, all of the newcomers having heard of the good times and coming with happy anticipations of the joys in store for them.

TEACHERS AT BETHEL COLLEGE

The new teachers of Bethel Female College for the coming session are: Miss Bertha B. Hafey, piano and voice, is a full graduate of the New England Conservatory, Boston, and has had large experience. She comes to the college with unexceptionable testimonials and qualifications.

Miss Edith V. Fox, A. B., will teach French, German, English, Literature, etc. She has undoubted fitness for her work.

Miss Emma Ruppensburg, B. S. of the University of Ohio, additional study at Columbia University, N. Y., Cornell, Pa., will have charge of mathematics and science. She is a lady with large experience. With these ladies, in addition to the rest of the teachers, the college will offer to the patrons full and solid courses of study in all departments.

FULL CONFESSION.

BENTON, Ky., June 18.—When placed on the stand, in the trial of Sam Coley, one of the alleged Night Rider captains, Otis Blick, a young man, made a complete confession of the raid on Birmingham, and told of the organization of the riders into three squads. Blick's mask was offered as evidence, and a hole through the mask corresponded with a scar of a wound on his shoulder where he was shot in the raid.

Mrs. W. K. Piner and son, Jack of Tampa, Fla., have arrived in the city to visit Mrs. Piner's sister, Mrs. Ellis, in the Cooke apartment, on Tenth street, for a few days.—Bowling Green News.

JUDGE BURNAM ELECTED AS NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN.

BY THE KENTUCKY DELEGATES AT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT CHICAGO.—ONLY WAY TO BREAK THE DEADLOCK

The Mention of Roosevelt's Name Caused a Storm of Cheering That Continued For Forty-five Minutes, But None Were for Taft.—Taft Delegations Seated in Toto

BULLETIN—Chicago, June 18.—The mention of Roosevelt's name caused a storm of cheering that continued for forty-five minutes, but none were for Taft. Taft delegations seated in toto.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The deadlock between Richard P. Ernst and Frank Fisher for the position as national committeeman was broken today when Judge A. R. Burnam was elected as a compromise candidate. Neither Ernst nor Fisher would give an inch and the election of someone else was the only solution of the matter.

Judge Burnam was nominated by Mr. Ernst and he was speedily elected by a vote of 14 to 12. The election of Judge Burnam is regarded as a defeat for the postoffice ring and a victory for Ernst.

The convention met at 10:15 this morning and the report of the platform committee was the first thing taken up.

The platform was adopted by viva voce vote.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The second day of the Republican national convention brought the long expected yell, a whirlwind of enthusiasm which raged within the vast amphitheater of the Coliseum for fully forty-five minutes, for a time presenting to the timid the spectre of a Roosevelt stampede.

This demonstration was decidedly the feature of a day otherwise notable for a stirring speech from the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, for much practical procedure in placing the convention on a smooth running basis, and for the final defeat of the plan to reduce the representation of the Southern states at future national conventions.

Probably the most important act of the day, and the one having the greatest significance, was the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials, seating the Taft delegations practically in toto. If there had been any lingering doubt of the Taft strength it disappeared before this decisive action, which, in effect, placed upwards of 700 delegates in the Taft column.

Equally important and even more remarkable was the final acceptance of this report by the "allies" without the formality of a dissenting minority report and without carrying the question to the floor of the convention for the open fight which had been long threatened. Instead of this all further opposition seemed to crumble; those who had promised trouble quietly accepted the inevitable, and thus the path was cleared for the fulfillment of plans already well matured for the nomination of the head of the ticket. The "favorite sons" still have, however, their bands of steadfast supporters, who will show their loyalty when the first ballot is taken.

Following a slight diversion, the convention returned to the committee reports.

First was that of credentials—the very foundation on which delegates held their seats and voted. It was presented by Senator Fulton, of Oregon, in a three-minute speech stating that the action of the national committee had been fully justified and upheld. For a moment delegates looked about for the fire-breathing Bookwalter, of Indiana, who had led the minority forces and had promised a lively fight on the floor. But Mr. Bookwalter sat with the Indiana delegation, shaking his head in answer to inquiries and announcing that the fight had been abandoned, as only three delegates would undertake to bear the brunt of a contest on the floor. The report was quickly approved, with only a few scattered votes in opposition. The question of the report on permanent organization was the signal for Senator Burrows to yield his place as temporary chairman and to escort to the platform the permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts. Mr. Lodge looked as if from a later generation than the white-haired retiring chairman. His voice, too, had that resonant New England twang which made it ring out to the farthest corners of the galleries, carrying metaphor and sarcasm, which startled the listeners to attention and applause.

The fevered fancy of an uneasy dream was his indictment hurled against the policies of opposition parties.

The applause had hardly died away when Mr. Lodge launched his sentence which electrified the assemblage into its first real demonstration of wild enthusiasm.

"The President," exclaimed Mr. Lodge, "is the best abused and most popular man in the United States today."

FARMERS KICKING

BECAUSE THEY CANNOT SECURE SUFFICIENT LABOR

Farmers are again raising a protest because of their inability to secure adequate help in their harvest fields, and for the cultivation of their other crops which have not yet matured. They say that they are offering $1.25 a day and yet the negroes refuse to accept the employment offered them.

"Not only are the farmers in this predicament but town people who raise a garden are also more or less bothered by the failure to secure help. One citizen stated yesterday that since he had planted his garden he made a trade with three different negro men to work it during the summer and that not one of the negroes had ever shown up to begin work. Other men make the same complaint of the negroes failing to come up to their promise while others say that they positively refuse to work when it is offered to them."

John Smith's rule should be made as effective today as it was in the early history of our country and the authorities should see to it that persons who were able to work and won't work should be made to work or find another abiding place.

DECISION GIVEN

In Favor of Cumberland Presbyterians at Trenton, Tenn.

A telegram from Judge Caldwell, of Trenton, Tenn., says "Chancellor at Vincennes decides the Hermon case in favor of the Cumberland, a fine victory."

This decision gives the possession of the church to the Cumberland Presbyterians at once and is the fifth decision in succession from the suits for the possession of their property.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

While coming into town this morning on East Seventh street, the horse driven by F. W. Elgin became frightened near the railroad and ran away, some of the harness giving way and Mr. Elgin thus losing control of the animal. At the corner of Seventh and Main the buggy broke in two and Mr. Elgin was thrown out. He struck on his head and it was at first thought that he had been seriously injured, but investigation showed that he had suffered only some very painful wounds in the head. These were dressed and he was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter Shaw. It is believed that he will recover without serious consequences.

ENJOYABLE TIME

WAS DOCTORS' BARBECUE AT FLEMING'S CAVE, YESTERDAY

Interesting Talks and Discussions And a Sumptuous Dinner.—Many Visiting Physicians Present.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The barbecue given by the Hopkinsville members of the Christian County Medical society complimentary to the county members Tuesday was in every way a success. The members of the medical societies of Todd and Hopkins counties were also invited and many of them attended.

The committee on entertainment, Drs. Blakey, Edwards and Keith, selected Fleming's Cave as the place for the meeting and under their supervision a most excellent dinner was served.

The society was called to order at 11 a. m., by the president, Dr. F. M. Stites, and papers were read on medical subjects by Dr. J. E. Stone, of Hopkinsville, and Dr. Laurie M. Moodie, of Madisonville, Dr. J. J. Backus, of Gracey, presented an interesting clinical case and the other physicians present took part in the discussion. An old-time barbecue dinner was served at one o'clock and the doctors did full justice to the ample provision of the committee, forgetting for the time their teaching of the dangers of over-eating and the injurious effects of highly seasoned foods.

The following physicians were among those present:

Drs. J. L. Barker, Pembroke; Jno. P. Bell, Bell Station; W. S. Sandback, Casky; R. L. Boyd, Pembroke; Austin Bell, Bolivar; W. A. Haynes, Howell; Finis Gates, Herndon; C. C. Croft, Crofton; E. O. Wright, Fruit Hill; S. H. Williams, Crofton; W. W. Durham, Era; A. W. Davis, Morton's; L. M. Moodie, Madisonville; C. G. Gowers, Trenton; D. H. Erskellett, Hailey's Mill; J. J. Backus, Gracey; B. A. Candler, Newstead; J. R. Paine, Pembroke; J. E. Johnston; L. J. Harris. From Hopkinsville were Drs. House, Stites, Anderson, Rice, Petrie, Young, Woodard, Jackson, Blakey, Edwards, Thomas, Keith, Stone, McDaniel, Harned, Stephens, Bassett, Tate.

FIRST WHEAT.

Delivered Today By Atkins & Ellis.—Graded No. 2.

Atkins & Ellis delivered a load of wheat this morning to the Acme Mills & Elevator company. This is the first load of wheat to be delivered here this season and as is customary the producers were given a barrel of flour. The wheat graded No. 2 and was in good condition. Wheat threshing will probably be under full headway in a few days.

NO DECISION YET.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The jury in the Winfree case is still out, and it is the general opinion that they will be unable to reach an agreement. Pending the action of the jury Mr. Winfree is in the custody of the jailer.

The wheels of justice revolved swiftly in circuit court yesterday afternoon. Harrison Gowens, colored, charged with larceny from a common carrier, was convicted and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Gowens was charged with stealing some whiskey from a car on the L. & N. railroad.

Will Johnson and Charles Tyner, two colored boys, who were charged with housebreaking, it being alleged that they broke into the store of S. A. Powell at Pembroke, were sentenced to two years each in the penitentiary.

A decree of divorce was granted in the case of Mrs. Mary Russell Foster against her husband, James D. Foster.

The suit of divorce filed by Mrs. Anna L. Hosford against her husband, R. M. Horsford, has been dismissed.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The trial of W. P. Winfree, Jr., was completed shortly after noon today, the speeches of Congressman A. O. Stanley, for the defense, and Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith occupying the entire morning. C. H. Bush, for the defense, and City Attorney Walter Knight, for the prosecution, spoke yesterday afternoon. The case is now in the hands of the jury.

It has been a long time since there have been such crowds in attendance upon a trial as there have been in this case. Every seat was taken nearly the entire time, and many people stood in the aisles and around the bar. A large portion of the audience throughout the trial were ladies.

It has also been a long time since more eloquent speeches were made in a case in the local courtroom. On account of his national reputation as an orator interest naturally centered in the speech of Congressman Stanley and in no wise were his hearers disappointed. His plea for the acquittal of Mr. Winfree was a masterly effort, especially when he injected pathos into his argument.

Never has Mr. Smith made a more forcible speech in the discharge of his duty as commonwealth's attorney than that which he made today. His resume of the testimony, his defense of the memory of Policeman Ford, and his plea for a conviction were worthy of him.

Married Last Night.

Mr. William Jackson and Miss Carrie Johnson were married last night at the parsonage of the Christian church by Rev. H. D. Smith. The groom has recently returned from Texas. The bride is a resident of this city. They will make their home here.

PARDONS

POWERS AND HOWARD

Governor Finishes His Investigation of the Records of the Cases and Turns Loose the Convicted Murderers of William Goebel.—Most Famous Legal Fight in Kentucky's History Is Ended

CALEB POWERS.

JAMES B. HOWARD.
Mountaineer now serving life term for the shot that killed Governor Goebel of Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 13.—Pardons were granted by Governor A. E. Willson this morning at 8:30 o'clock to Caleb Powers and Jim Howard, convicted of the murder of Gov. William Goebel.

Powers has been known as the most famous prisoner in the United States.

Gov. Willson has been studying the records of the case since the latter part of April, giving it all the time, night and day, he could spare from his official duties.

This investigation followed a petition for pardons that was probably the most voluminous ever presented to a Kentucky governor, and contained not only signatures of thousands of Kentuckians, but also the names of people from all parts of the United States, and even from points in Africa and Australia.

Argument on the question of a pardon was made before Gov. Willson by the attorneys of Powers and Howard and of the prosecution.

Four times was Caleb Powers put on trial for his life, and at three of these trials the jury brought in a verdict of conviction. The charge against Powers was that he conspired with others to bring about the assassination of Senator William Goebel, on January 30th, 1900, who was at that time a contestant for the gubernatorial chair. Senator Goebel was shot in this city, the fatal shot having been fired, according to the charge, from a window in the office of the secretary of state, and death resulted on February 3rd. He lived barely long enough to receive the governorship from the legislature and take the oath of office.

At the time the shooting occurred Powers, who was acting secretary of state, was in Louisville, but it was charged that he had loaned his office key to others so that the murderer of Senator Goebel could stand at the window when he fired. At the time, and at each of the trials, as well as in magazine and other articles written by him, Powers declared that he had no knowledge that Goebel was to be shot, and he denied that he had anything to do with the shooting.

At the time of the bitter political fight, Powers brought to Frankfort a regiment of armed men from his mountain district.

Few trials in the history of the country have held wider interest, and few have developed more side lights. Kentucky feud troubles have been more or less connected with the whole case, and there have been claims of political affiliations that influenced action at various stages of the noted trial. Three times Powers was convicted and twice sentenced to death, but at the fourth trial the jury disagreed, and view of that fact the movement for a pardon was given additional impetus.

Jim Howard, a noted feudist of Clay county, was accused in confessions by Henry E. Youtsey of taking part in the actual assassination, and the connection of Youtsey and Howard with the case has been the occasion for many conflicting statements in the shape of newspaper interviews, affidavits in the various trials and appeals on behalf of different persons who had been in some way implicated in the various trials.

Youtsey, who was stenographer and private secretary to Gov. Taylor, said that Powers gave him the office key, and his testimony in the case had been one of the most bitterly assailed points in the case against Powers.

Taylor fled from Kentucky and has been a refugee in Indiana for eight years.

During Powers long imprisonment, during which he has been in the custody of both state and federal officials at various stages of the proceedings, which included appeals to the supreme court of the United States, he has continued the study of law and announced that he would engage in the practice when released.

In issuing the pardon the Governor gives out a long statement reviewing the cases from the beginning and says he is satisfied neither Powers nor Howard had anything to do with the Goebel murder, and that Youtsey fired the fatal shot. He claims it would be impossible to get an unbiased jury to try Powers again. Howard left the penitentiary at 8:30 this morning and went to Louisville.

Powers was released at 10 o'clock from the Georgetown jail and held a reception at the hotel. He says he will go at once to see his mother at Barboursville. Both men issued statements reaffirming their innocence.

BY HAND OF DEATH

MURDER TRIAL IS TAKEN FROM DOCKET

Fugitive From Kentucky Dies in Florida After An Exile of Twenty Five Years

Circuit Judge Thomas P. Cook learned yesterday of a murder trial being wiped off of the docket of the Calloway court by death.

Dan Jones, who had been missing since he killed Chief of Police Joel Ferguson on the streets of Murray twenty-five years ago, died few days ago in Florida, and his body will be sent back to Murray for burial. It is said he has prospered during his exile, and he leaves a family of several children. He disappeared immediately after the shooting and was never heard of again until his death was reported.

INVENTOR WOODRUFF AND HIS NEW PATENT

W. B. Woodruff, formerly a resident of Christian county but who now lives in Cadiz where he operates a big planing mill and is a contractor and lumberman of note, has recently patented a machine for measuring lumber which he expects to make a big success and which has already largely justified this belief upon his part, judging from the enthusiastic recommendation it has received wherever it has been tested. Mr. Woodruff is in Hopkinsville temporarily and the machine has been given a thorough try-out by the Forbes Manufacturing company and they have given it their hearty endorsement as being the best thing on the market and just what was needed.

Mr. Woodruff calls his machine the Automatic Lumber Measuring Machine or Cylometer. The machine is made to be attached to woodworking machines, saw or planing mills and timber of any size, shape or contour can be fed through it and the exact number of feet is shown, up to 100,000 feet. The machine can be used for loading timber onto cars or for any other purpose where lumber is to be measured. It is automatically adjustable for all widths of lumber and records by the actual square, or lineal foot, in all lumber correctly. It is adjustable to strip measure in less than one minute's time, and it is also adjustable for allowance of loss in equalizing the lumber, which is an average about three hundred per cent. It can be placed in different positions about the machine, either under, over or at the side which ever is the most convenient. It requires but little room, is readily attached or detached and is always ready for business. The many advantages of such a machine are readily apparent and Mr. Woodruff doubtless has a good thing in his grasp and at the same time he will be advancing the work in many ways. He expects to introduce the machine generally within a short time.

Besides this machine Mr. Woodruff has invented other devices which promise to become generally popular. One of these is a four-side planing machine which he claims will do variety of work that ordinary machines cannot do. Another is his automatic train recorder by means of which any passenger can tell the place of the train, speed of running, whether behind or on time, next stop and any other information relating to these subjects, and this too by merely consulting the recorder which is fastened on the side of the car. Still another patent is a most handy tool-handle in which are contained a choice assortment of tools of many kinds, all readily fitted to the handle and ready for use.

FOLLOWS HUSBAND

DEVOTED WIFE IS LAID BY HIS SIDE.

Mrs. Bradshaw Passes Away at Home of Her Brothers Near Salubria, Aged 72 Years.

Mrs. Lou Rawlins Bradshaw died at the home of her brothers and sisters, near Salubria, Tuesday, after a long illness. She had been almost an invalid for some time, and for several months had been staying at her old home here. It will be remembered that her husband, W. M. Bradshaw, died just two weeks before, while here on a visit to his wife and her relatives. His death was quite a shock to Mrs. Bradshaw, and her decline was rapid from that time until the end came. Mrs. Bradshaw is survived by two sons and a daughter, and also two sisters and three brothers, the latter being Misses Alice and Emma Rawlins and Messrs. Lem, Taylor and Ben Rawlins, all of whom live at Salubria. Mrs. Bradshaw moved with her husband to Ballard county soon after their marriage, in 1852, and had lived there continuously until a few months ago, when she came to her old home in the hope that the change would be beneficial to her health. She was seventy-two years of age, and a devoted member of the Christian church. Her death causes genuine sorrow here, where she was reared, and was well known to all the older inhabitants. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. R. V. Ferguson Wednesday morning, and the remains were laid to rest in the family grave yard.—Pembroke Journal.

FLAG DAY OBSERVED

BY PATRIOTIC CITIZENS ALL OVER AMERICA

Special Services Sunday Night At The Ninth Street Presbyterian Church Attended By Elks Lodge.

Today is being observed all over America as flag day, and the stars and stripes are waving in thousands of cities, towns and villages. June 14th is the date selected each year by the American Flag association for special honor to be paid the national colors, and as that was Sunday, civic celebrations are taking place today. June 14th is also formally designated by the Grand lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks as a time when all local lodges should emphasize the patriotism of the order by appropriate observances and an official circular was promulgated by Grand Exalted Ruler Tenor requesting the Elks to attend religious services Sunday in a body. Recently the Rev. C. H. H. Branch invited Hopkinsville lodge No. 545 to attend a special service at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, and it was arranged to have the service Sunday night. There was a large attendance, about half the middle section of the church being filled by members of the order. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers, and the national colors were attractively displayed. A beautiful musical program was one of the features. Mr. Branch delivered a splendid sermon and one that was inspiring to every heart. It was eloquent, clear cut in its ringing utterances and intensely thought out. A more powerful plea for general philanthropy and for personal purity has never been heard in this city.

DELICIOUS BANANA CREAM

This recipe is highly recommended by one of our correspondents; try it for dessert tomorrow.
Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five teaspoonful of sugar. Add one teaspoon sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth, then add one 10c package of JELL-O dissolved in 1 1/2 cups boiling water. Pour into mold and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream, or any good pudding sauce. JELL-O is sold by all Grocers at 10c. per package.

WILLSON BOOMED FOR SECOND PLACE ON TICKET

Kentucky Republicans Pushing the Matter Before the National Convention Which Meets in Chicago This Week.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The largest crowd ever assembled at a convention is here in attendance upon the Republican national convention. The race for vice president is absorbing the interest of all.

The boom for Gov. Augustus E. Willson, of Kentucky, for second place on the ticket is rapidly gaining strength. The Kentucky delegation is back of the movement and seem determined to have his name put before the convention. It is certain that Willson will be chairman of the Kentucky delegation. It now looks like Ernst has Fisher beaten as national committeeman.

WORDS ABOUT THE WEED.

News and Notes of Much Interest to All Who Are Connected With the Growing and Sale of Tobacco.

The past week was a dull one on the local tobacco market. This refers to the sales that were made, these being fewer than have been recorded for some time, but at the same time there was no indication of lower prices. In fact prices ruled firm and strong, and quite a considerable portion of the sales brought the handsome price of $15 per hundred.

The falling off in sales is accounted for by the fact that the prized tobacco is now going through what is known as the "sweat." After going through this "sweat" tobacco comes out either a better and more desirable grade, or, if it has been carelessly or negligently handled, it comes out showing more or less defect. The buyers therefore, always prefer to wait until it has passed through this stage, and this is the reason for their seeming lack of interest.

Sales by the Planters' Protective association for the past week amount to 73 hogheads. Prices ranged from $7 to $10.50 for lugs, and from $10.50 to $15 for leaf. These prices are very satisfactory, and it is believed that increased sales a continued good prices will follow until the entire crop here is disposed of. The report for May shows that 957 hogheads were sold during the month, or nearly half as much as has been sold for the entire season so far. The receipts the past week were 229 hogheads.

At the Society of Equity warehouse business was almost at a standstill, the conditions here being the same as have affected the market elsewhere. What sales were made brought very satisfactory prices in full accord with the schedule asked by the society.

SELF DEFENSE PLEA THE MORRIS CHAIRS

IS PRESENTED BY DEFENSE IN THE WINFREE TRIAL

Accused Claims Policeman Hord Started to Strike Him With His Mace.—Testimony Concluded.

(From Tuesday's Daily)
The prosecution concluded its direct testimony yesterday afternoon in the case of W. P. Winfree, Jr., charged with the murder of Policeman Charles Hord, following which court was adjourned for the day. When the case was again called this morning the defense opened, Mr. Winfree himself being the first witness.

Mr. Winfree declared on the stand that after his arrest on the morning of the shooting and his subsequent release, he addressed Policeman Hord as the latter came out of Underwood's coal office and took him to task for the manner in which he had forced him to ride to the police station in the patrol wagon and the rough treatment he had received. He says that when he spoke in this manner to the officer that Mr. Hord grabbed him by the lapel of the coat and raised his right hand in which he held his mace as if to strike him. He says that he then considered himself in danger of being beaten to death, or at least of great bodily harm, and he sprang back and drew his pistol and commenced firing. He denied that he sought Policeman Hord for the purpose of killing him, though he did admit that he armed himself before going to the depot. He also denied, when Mr. Smith questioned him on that point, that he was so much under the influence of liquor that he could not remember clearly just what had transpired. He reiterated his statement that he fired only in what he considered his necessary self-defense.

Several other witnesses were introduced to corroborate Mr. Winfree as to what had taken place when he met Mr. Hord, these statements referring chiefly to the fact that Mr. Hord had acted in a threatening manner.

The prosecution attempted to show by the testimony which they introduced that Mr. Winfree sought Mr. Hord with the fixed purpose of killing him.

The defense rested soon after the convening of court this afternoon and the rebuttal testimony was at once begun. There will probably be two speeches on each side and these will probably begin this afternoon and be completed by noon tomorrow.

ARE THE LATEST THING IN PORCH FURNITURE

Designed by "Tobe" Morris and Manufactured by the Forbes Manufacturing Co.

The Forbes Manufacturing company are advertising Morris Veranda Chairs, Morris Veranda Settees, etc., but these are not the Morris chairs that have been advertised in the magazine—handsomely upholstered affairs for use inside the house—but they are for outdoor use and the inventor is none other than "Tobe" Morris.

These chairs have already become favorites with the people of this section. They are light and are made to withstand the weather out of doors. They can be adjusted to any position, either sitting up straight or lying down, and if you want to move them they can be folded up entirely and tucked under the arm. Another beauty about them is their cheapness for they only cost $1 each.

The Morris Veranda settees are almost as popular as the chairs. These settees are made in any length up to four feet and are just the thing for two or more persons to sit together. These also fold up and are light and comfortable. Before you buy your porch furniture be sure and investigate these.

WIELDED HIS KNIFE

A serious cutting scrape occurred Saturday evening near Gracey just across the Trigg county line, Buck Choate being cut several times by Allus Overby. Choate had recently recovered from a serious illness and had not regained his strength and was thus unable to cope with his assailant. He was cut twice in the body, each cut being very dangerous, and once in the throat, he barely preventing the knife from severing the jugular by striking Overby's arm and thus deflecting the blade. Both men are between twenty-five and thirty years of age. The cause of the altercation is not known.

Overby escaped at once but it is reported that he was captured yesterday morning at Linton. Choate's condition is very serious, though he is still alive this morning and may recover.

HELD OVER.

FAIR DEAL PROMISE

STATEMENTS BY CHAIRMAN OF STATE COMMITTEE.

He Will Serve all Democrats, But no Faction.—Organize After The Convention.

Henry B. Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling, newly elected chairman of the Democratic state central and executive committees, has issued the following statement.

To the Democrats of Kentucky: Words are inadequate at this time to express my appreciation and gratitude for the signal honor. Not words, only acts are sufficient, and in proof thereof I shall bring to the discharge of the duties of this sacred trust whatever ability I may possess in a spirit of earnest devotion to the party's interest and welfare, and with a promise and pledge, ever abiding of universal fairness and square dealing to all in the management of all the party's affairs.

The noble spirit of harmony and good feeling, so abundantly manifested in the convention, is the very seal of death of factionalism, and an evidence of the end of the bitter internal strife of the past.

"Let bygones be bygones."

"Let the dead past bury its dead." Never before has there been witnessed such a spirit of toleration, and the putting aside of self, all for the promotion of the people's and the party's cause. This magnificent display of true party fealty and loyalty on the party of Kentucky's noble Democracy is but an index finger, pointing onward to our coming again into our own and to a sure and final triumph both in the state and in the nation. No discordant note has been sounded. No spy from the enemy lurks in our camp. We are all brothers in the bond. With four faces toward the future, with a united and harmonious party we face a rising and not a setting sun.

I conceive the purpose of the organization to be confined to carrying into effect the wishes of the voters and of honestly and intelligently seeking to promote the interests and establish the policies of the party. It shall not be my purpose to try to control the party or to mold its sentiments in favor of any particular interest or person, but I shall earnestly endeavor to carry out whatever policy the party in its deliberate judgment and speaking through its representatives may favor. In the spirit in which my fellow-Democrats have conferred the honor and the duty, I accept it and "with malice toward none and charity for all" let us, a reunited and rehabilitated party, strive on to the accomplishment of Democracy's mission.

Mr. Prewitt will, after the Denver Democratic convention, call a meeting of the state central and executive committees to be held in Louisville, at which time both committees will be organized.

JOHN COOMBS DEAD

Heart Failure Caused His Unexpected Demise This Morning.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
John Coombs, died unexpectedly this morning at 8 o'clock at his residence on South Virginia street. He had been unwell since Friday, in fact his health had been failing several weeks, but his death was due to heart failure.

He was seventy-seven years of age and had lived in Hopkinsville for the past twenty-five years. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member of the Ninth street Presbyterian church. His wife and three children survive him.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, conducted by Rev. C. H. H. Branch. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Remedy works wonders where others are a total failure. L. A. Johnson & Co.

Gov. Willson's act in issuing pardons to Caleb Powers and Jim Howard, the one awaiting his fifth trial for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, the other serving a life sentence for firing the fatal shot, has been received throughout the state with mixed emotions. Partisan Republicans are jubilant and partisan Democrats are bitterly indignant. A great body of citizens, who are neither the one nor the other, question both the justice and the expediency of executive grace in these famous cases. Whether partisan pressure or firm personal conviction moved the governor, it was a grave mistake not to let the courts pass finally upon Powers' guilt. Removing the case from the courts but emphasizes it as a political issue, and like Banquo's ghost it will not go down. But the mere political phase of the question is not its gravest. If there ever was a time in Kentucky's history when law should be made supreme, when sympathy, prejudices or favoritism should have no influence on its operations, it is right now; and the governor would have best served the interests of the state and its people by seeing to it that Powers had a fair trial rather than to drag him from the clutches of justice.

THE SPITTERS.

The following from the Bowling Green Times-Journal is just as applicable to a large number of Hopkinsville spitters as it is to those in Bowling Green:

Cleanliness requires that there should be no spitting on the sidewalks, especially on the concrete walks. It is just as filthy and indecent to spit on these pavements as it is to spit on the floors of a house. Expectoration is largely a habit, anyhow, except with the man who carries a wad of tobacco in his mouth. He is necessarily compelled to spit, but in doing so, even if he be on the street, he should have decency enough about him to walk to the curb and squirt his tobacco juice in the gutter instead of on the sidewalk. The season for white dresses and dainty lingerie has arrived, and while we do not wear either, we know it must be trying on the women who do, to have those articles soiled by great "gobs" of tobacco juice from the pavement. If you will spit, be decent about it!

DEAD BODY FOUND

LYING BESIDE RAILROAD TRACK
NEAR PEMBROKE

Skull Was Crushed.—Coroner's Jury Refuse to Return Verdict Fixing Blame Upon a Train.

The body of John Ware, colored, was found late Saturday night beside the railroad track about a mile west of Pembroke, the skull being crushed and one or two bruises about the body. The body was lying close up against the track with the head toward Pembroke. The last seen of Ware was earlier in the night when he left Pembroke with a few companions.

Coroner Allensworth held an inquest Sunday and the first verdict presented to the jury declared that the negro had been killed by a train. Three members of the jury refused to sign this verdict and another was prepared which stated that death was from an unknown cause, apparently from a train.

By some it is believed that Ware was struck in the head and killed by an enemy and the body laid on the track to divert suspicion. It is argued that if he had been struck by a train the body would have been more badly mutilated and thrown some distance from the rails. The matter will probably be investigated closely by the authorities.

People who "take notice" must have observed a growing sentiment in this country in favor of using put-up foods and medicines of known composition. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription stands alone as the only ready put-up medicine for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments that bears on the wrapper a full list of the ingredients composing it, printed in plain English. It is the "Favorite Prescription" of a special list in woman's diseases and not a "patent medicine." Made of the roots of native, medicinal plants without alcohol or other harmful ingredients Dr. Pierce's "Prescription" has been the favorite cure for the weakness, pains, drains and disorders of the womanly system which has stood the test of forty years' experience. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet giving ingredients and what well-recognized authorities of all schools of medicine say of them.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes—broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and "in-generating" nerve and curative nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

HOME BURNED

The home of M. C. Dulin, on the Fairview pike, was destroyed by fire between eight and nine o'clock Saturday morning. The family was in Hopkinsville with the exception of Mr. Dulin who was in the wheat field.

How the fire started is a mystery, but the disaster it had attained such headway that it could not be checked and only a few articles of household goods were saved. The loss is about $2,500 with no insurance.

PLAYING CHECKERS

That part of Co. D, which has been on duty at Guthrie for several days returned home Sunday morning. It is thought that their stay though will be only temporary as they came back for the annual inspection which will be held tomorrow night at the armory. Today the boys are busy getting their arms and equipment in the best of shape in readiness for the examination tomorrow night.

Co. H. of Middleboro, which has been on duty in this section since March 1st and which has probably covered more territory on horseback than has any other company, passed through here Saturday night. They relieved the local soldiers at Guthrie and are now occupying the camp they had established there. It is believed that after the inspection here Co. D. will be sent back to Guthrie and the Middleboro soldiers allowed to go home. No official information as to the movements of the troops has been given out.

ANOTHER UPRISING

IS FEARED IN EVENT TROOPS ARE REMOVED.

Statement From an Officer of the State Guard Issued From Governor's Office.

FRANKFORT, Ky. 13.—A statement was given out at the governor's office that a report recently received from one of the most conservative officers in charge of the state troops says:

"I am of the opinion that the withdrawal of troops would be a signal for an uprising greater than ever before. The trials in the courts have thus far proved so futile that men are emboldened to any degree of violence and are only restrained by fear of the troops. I am advised that while they are not riding about country as before the advent of the troops, the Night Riders are still taking in new members and organizing new lodges. This I believe, will continue as long as the source of the trouble and the beneficiaries thereof remain untouched.

"I am doing everything possible to restore confidence in the people, in their ability to defend themselves against this lowest form of cowardice and when the new troops become conversant with their duties, hope to begin a systematic organization of right-thinking forces that will effectively overcome this wave of evil in time.

"It is distressing indeed to see the throngs of young men that a comparatively few designing men are so easily leading to destruction. This was especially impressed upon me in a courtroom the other day."

There Are Few

people who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. Herbine will keep it in condition. V. C. Simpkins, Alba, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for chills and fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not do without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe. For sale by L. A. Johnson.

Mrs. S. Joyce, Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." L. A. Johnson & Co.

WILL REMAIN HERE

The report persistently circulated that Dr. Edmund Harrison, president of the Bethel Female college, had decided to retire from the institution is utterly groundless.

Dr. Harrison authorizes the statement that he has not even contemplated any such action, and that he will continue at the head of the college.

This statement will be received with genuine pleasure and gratification. Dr. Harrison is an ideal instructor of young women and under his wise guidance Bethel Female college is one of the most valuable institutions of learning and culture in Kentucky. After a short visit in Virginia, Dr. Harrison will return to Hopkinsville and personally have charge of the plans for next session.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching you that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a falling appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., (Incorporated.)

No Need of Suffering From Rheumatism

It is a mistake to allow rheumatism to become chronic, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

BABY BOY HAD ITCHING HUMOR

Which Broke Out in Different Places—Nothing Would Help Him—Mother Almost in Despair—Skin Quickly Healed Without a Scar and Trouble Has Never Returned

SINCE USING CUTICURA MOTHER GIVES IT PRAISE

"Several months ago, my little boy, now two and a half years old, began to break out with itching sores. I began to doctor him, and as soon as I got them healed up in one place they would break out in another. I was almost in despair. I could not get anything that would help him. One evening I read a testimonial from a lady who had cured her little boy with Cuticura. I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and after using them three times, the sores commenced to heal. He is now well, and not a scar is left on his body. They have never returned nor left him with bad blood, as one would think. Cuticura Remedies are the best I have ever tried, and they are surely great. I shall always have them in the house, handy, and shall highly recommend them to any one who is suffering likewise. I cannot give them too much praise. Mrs. William Geeding, 102 Washington St., Attica, Ind., July 22, 1907."

ITCHING TORMENTS

From little patches of eczema, better, milk crust, psoriasis, etc., on the skin, scalp, or hands of infants, children, or adults are instantly relieved and speedily cured, in the majority of cases, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure, assisted, when necessary, by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent. Cuticura Remedies are guaranteed absolutely pure.

Cuticura Soap (25c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Foster Bros. & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

COMPLETE HARMONY

CHARACTERIZED THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

"Big Four" Is Increased To Six.—Great Enthusiasm Is Manifested at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 12.—Harmony characterized the Democratic state convention which met at the auditorium in this city yesterday.

At the afternoon session a temporary organization was effected by the election of Congressman A. O. Stanley, of the Second district, as temporary chairman by acclamation. Mr. Stanley, in his keynote speech, urged harmony, and after the committees were appointed speeches along that line were made by Hon. Chas. J. Bronston, of Lexington; former Governor J. C. W. Beckham and United States Senator James B. McCreary.

Perhaps the most noisy and enthusiastic demonstration was for Ex-Gov. Beckham, and the one personal thrust was when Governor Beckham, referring to the report in a morning paper that he had been defeated, said he and his friends could never be so badly beaten that they would bolt the party nominees, and that no bribes were necessary to secure his party loyalty.

The convention was called to order and Congressman A. O. Stanley was named temporary chairman without opposition, former Gov. Beckham having withdrawn in the interest of party harmony. Congressman Stanley was placed in nomination for temporary chairman by Congressman Ollie M. James, who bitterly attacked Gov. Willson, declaring that he allowed the Night Riders to prowl over the state, while he tried to find a technicality on which to pardon Powers and Howard.

The temporary organization was made permanent.

Prior to the assembling of the convention, district meetings were held for the choice of electors and district delegates.

The presidential electors selected are: First district, J. S. Ross, McCracken county; Second district, LaVega Clements, Daviess county; Third district, Floyd Sanders, Edmondson county; Fourth district, Charles Williams, Laurel county; Fifth district, Clem W. Huggins, Jefferson county; Sixth district, Claude Terrill, Trimble county; Seventh district, M. H. Bourne, Owen county; Eighth district, R. H. Tomlinson, Garrard county; Ninth district, Geo. F. Wycoff, Nicholas county; Tenth district, Robert Friel, Estell county; Eleventh district, W. R. Graham, Knox county.

The delegates to Denver are: First district, Gus Thomas, Graves county, and Conn Linn, Calloway county; Second district, Josh T. Griffith, Daviess county, and Geo. S. Wilson, Union county; Third district, J. L. Bryan, Barren county, and J. H. Dunbar, Simpson county; Fourth district, J. W. O'Connor, Hardin county, and H. P. Taylor, Ohio county; Fifth district, John W. Vreeland and Walter P. Lincoln, Jefferson county; Sixth district, R. W. Brown, Gallatin county, and G. C. Traver, Campbell county; Seventh district, Field McLean, Woodford county, and R. H. McCarney, Bourbon county; Eighth district, C. W. Cavanaugh, Henderson county, and Ed Holloway, Spencer county; Ninth district, C. E. Boone, Fleming county, and M. J. Hennessy, Bracken county; Tenth district, J. C. C. Mayo, Johnson county, and T. G. Stewart, Clark county; Eleventh district, Virgil Smith, Pulaski county, and R. M. Jackson, Laurel county.

At the night session Hon. Henry R. Prewitt, of Montgomery county, was chosen chairman of state central and executive committees, to succeed Hon. Lewis McQuown. Joseph R. Pugh, of Kenton county, was named as member-at-large of the state central committee, and A. B. Rhea, of Logan county, was named as member-at-large of the state executive committee.

The delegates-at-large to the national convention were changed in number to six, to be cast as four votes, and were as follows: United States Senator James B. McCreary, Congressman Ollie M. James, former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, Hon. Wm. B. Haldeman, United States Senator Thomas H. Paynter and Hon. John C. C. Mayo.

New party rules were laid down, the chief departure from the old being the election of the precinct committeemen by the people in every county, including those having cities of the first and second classes,

Fine Care Fine Hair

It's fine care that makes fine hair! Use Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, systematically, conscientiously, and you will get results. We know it stops falling hair, cures dandruff, and is a most elegant dressing. Entirely new. New bottle. New contents.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, is the latest, most scientific, and in every way the very best hair preparation ever placed upon the market. For falling hair and dandruff it is the one great medicine.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

and also the prohibition of federal, state, county or city officials, or candidates for such offices, serving on any party committee.

The convention also endorsed Urey Woodson for re-election as national committeeman.

Former Congressman Jas. N. Kehoe, who was chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the platform as follows:

"We, the representatives of the Democracy of Kentucky, in convention assembled:

"We endorse and point with satisfaction to the wise, honest and economical administration of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham; and disapprove and condemn the weak, vacillating, hypocritical and arbitrary conduct of the present Republican administration.

"We instruct the delegates elected by this convention to cast the vote of Kentucky as a unit upon all questions and matters coming before the national convention at Denver, Col., and they are hereby further instructed to vote for William Jennings Bryan as the nominee for president by said convention, and continue to vote for him until he shall be nominated."

HOPELESSLY HUNG

AND JURY IN DUNNING CASE IS DISMISSED

Defendant is Again Relieved on Bond.—A Small Batch of Indictments Returned.

(From Friday's Daily)

Just before court was adjourned yesterday afternoon, the jury in the Dunning case reported to Judge Cook that they were hopelessly at variance in their opinion and could not agree and they were finally discharged. The jury stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal, this being the same as shown by the first ballot taken in the case. Mr. Dunning was continued under his bond of $1,000 and was allowed to return to his home last night.

Sam Rives, charged with house-breaking, was found guilty by the jury, which heard the case yesterday afternoon, and he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Among a small batch of indictments which was returned by the grand jury this morning was one against Rush McReynolds, colored, charged with the crime of manslaughter, it being alleged that he beat and choked his wife to such an extent that she died from the injuries received. The negro lives near Pembroke and Deputy Sheriff Cravens went out and arrested him this morning and he is now in jail. This is the same case in which a postmortem examination of the body was held by Coroner Allensworth several days ago. It said that before the woman died she told that her husband had beaten her and caused her death and the coroner had the body exhumed and an examination made, but the physicians reported that she came to her death from natural causes. It was supposed then that the case would be dropped, but the jury, after investigating it fully, returned the indictment charging McReynolds with manslaughter.

6 Pieces "Sanito" Cooking Ware

Absolutely
Given Away!

Absolutely
Given Away!

What "Sanito" Is

It is the ware you see advertised in all the leading Ladies magazines, especially those dealing with the culinary art. It is never sold at retail and you cannot buy it from the manufacturers for a penny less than $2.50 per set and expressage. The great excellence of earthenware cooking vessels over tin or iron is known to all, but the difficulty has always been the increased cost of the earthenware. By using Sanito earthenware cooking vessels you secure the very best results, the food will not burn or stick, there is no danger of ptomaine poisoning and no odor remaining in the vessel.

Sanito ware, produced by a skillful blending of clays, is mechanically perfect, of convenient sizes and shapes for all ordinary purposes. Sanito will cook food evenly and without burning it. It has an inside lining burnt right into the clay, which is absolutely acid proof, and never cracks nor scales. You can cook anything from strawberries to cabbage in Sanito without one kind becoming tainted or discolored from what preceded.

Doctors, hospitals, sanitariums and thousands of progressive housekeepers use it exclusively. Its cleanliness and wholesomeness makes it especially valuable in preparing food for the sick, while for all general cooking purposes it should displace unwholesome and dangerous metal vessels.

The fact that Sanito is a non-conductor of heat makes it more economical to use than other ware. It retains heat much better than metal. It will be particularly welcome in homes where the difference between "cooked" and "well-cooked" food is appreciated.

How To Get It

To every person who subscribes to the Weekly New Era, paying $1.00 for one year in advance and 98c for expressage and packing charges, we will give ABSOLUTELY FREE a full set of this $2.50 ware—the genuine Sanito.

To every person who is now taking the New Era and who pays up all arrearages, if any, and one year in advance and the 98c for the expressage and packing charges, we will give a set of Sanito.

Orders given to agents will not be accepted on this offer—everything must come direct to this office. We are making an unusual concession in offering this ware and cannot afford to pay agents' commissions too.

Every set comes packed in a separate box and we have a supply on hand, so that when your order is received it can be delivered promptly.

Who doesn't remember our last "Happy Week" Sale? Some folks are still chuckling whenever they think of the lucky purchases they made then.

Well, here it is again! For one glad week let's all laugh and grow fat—let's wear the famous smile that cannot be eradicated—let's beam with joviality—let's abandon ourselves to hilarity!

Of course, there must be a reason for this general merry-making. Mighty few of us ever smile without reason, more's the pity. Just leave that to us, we'll furnish the joy-provoker, the smile-bringer for every man, woman and child in this section, and here's how:

We've prepared a great bargain event to outlast a whole week, which week we have dubbed "Happy Week," because during that week hundreds of nimble dollars will be saved by all our friends, and dollar saving ought to tickle the risibilities of anybody.

All our army of odds and ends, remnants, broken lines and short lots of the worthiest merchandise and wearables you have ever beamed on, have been marshalled to sell for a song, to every one who smiles. Lay in a full stock of smiles, you'll need one every minute during "Happy Week," leave dull care behind, and come to this uproarious feast of fine values.

"Happy Week" will smilingly begin at 8 o'clock a. m., on Friday, June 19, 1908, and ends mid roars of laughter on Friday, June 26, at 6 o'clock p. m.

THE MERRY WIDOW

CHAPTER II. Old Love and New.

"Well, here I am," announced a tall, slender youth, entering the deserted salon a few minutes later with Nish at his side. "I'm here at my country's call, all right, but my confounded country doesn't seem to be on hand to meet me."

His graceful walk was not wholly steady, and there was a flush on the handsome young face. The late arrival was Prince Danilo of Marsovia, attache of the Marsovian legation at Paris. As a diplomat he had scarcely scored a success, for he had a delightfully normal aversion to work and a simple, unfeeling joy in the amusements of Maxim's and his clubs.

"I'll hunt up his excellency at once," Nish was assuring the prince. "Are you quite in condition to see him, if I may?"

"Oh, I'm all right enough," yawned Danilo, "only I forgot to go to bed last night. If I could reel off a few yards of sleep—"

"Perhaps I could find you some place to—"

"I'd prefer a desk, if you can find one. I always sleep best at my desk. But I suppose—"

"There is a couch, sir, over in the corner behind the palms. How would that do?" You could get a nice nap there, and in a little while I'd find his excellency for you. But, sir, if I may say so, why do you waste your life in dissipation when you might marry and settle down? Just think, now! Would not a dear little wife and a home of your own be better worth while than all your clubs? I leave it to you if—

"You leave it to me!" retorted Danilo. "Then I make it clubs."

"But, if I may say so—"

"You may not," interrupted Danilo, crossing to the couch and throwing himself at full length among its cushions. "By by! If you're waking, call me early?"

He spread a handkerchief over his face and in a moment was sound asleep, leaving Nish to tiptoe out in search of Popoff.

For a few minutes no sound was audible in the empty salon save the distant swell and fall of dance music, punctuated by the slumbrous prince's heavy breathing.

Then Natalie hurried in with De Joldon. Both looked anxious.

"How careless of me!" the ambassador's wife was exclaiming. "Where can I have dropped the miserable fan? My husband should pick it up and find on it those words you were foolish enough to write— I wonder if I left it in the niche on the stairs when we were sitting there. Let's go back and see."

They turned back, almost colliding with Sonia, who was entering. Cascada directly behind her.

"Oh, Mme. Sadowa," asked Natalie, "you haven't seen anything of a white ivory fan? I've looked everywhere, and—"

"No," replied the widow; "but I'll look in this room if you haven't made a thorough search here already."

Natalie, thanking her, hurried back with her cavalier to the stairway. Sonia idly began her search, but Cascada interrupted her.

"That can wait," he pleaded, "but I cannot. Won't you hear me?"

"Certainly," assented Sonia cheerfully. "You are going to propose, aren't you?"

"Ah, you read my secret!"

"It required little cleverness. You men are all alike."

"But no man ever before loved as I love!" protested Cascada, his voice unconsciously rising in his emotion. "You are all the world to me. Until I met you I never thought I could—"

"Ring off!" grumbled Danilo in his sleep, vaguely bothered by the low voice.

Sonia started.

"Some one is here!" she whispered, pointing toward the hidden couch.

"You are mistaken," contradicted Cascada, "and even if it were so I am willing for all the world to know how I—"

A long, blissful, sonorous snore from the couch.

Sonia laughed, her eyes alight with amusement.

"Snoring and romance don't go well together, marquise," she observed, "and as the snoring doesn't seem likely to stop the romance must. You say you are in love with me, and I know you are in love with my fortune. Good-by."

"You misjudge me cruelly!" Cascada protested.

"Oh, no, I don't! Men are all alike. Good-by."

As the discomfited marquise made his way wrathfully from the room Sonia mischievously crept across to the couch. There lay the man, sound asleep, his face still covered by the handkerchief. Sonia touched his hair.

"Scat!" roared Danilo, giving his head a shake that left the handkerchief fall from his face.

"Danilo!" gasped the widow, starting back.

At sound of his name the prince sat up, dazed and blinking. His wandering eyes fell on the woman, and, with an exclamation of utter amazement, he stumbled to his feet and stood staring incredulously at her.

"Sonia!" he exclaimed. "Sonia!"

Then, recovering himself, he bowed stiffly and said:

"I beg your pardon, madame."

"No; I beg yours," she replied. "Pray go on snoring."

"You don't remember me?" he asked, surprised.

"Not in the very least," she answered, moving away.

"Yet you called my name."

"You were asleep then. That was different."

"And now I am awake—to the joy of seeing you again."

"The joy is all your own. Is it so surprising to find me in Paris? I am here enjoying my wealth—and freedom!"

"I congratulate you on both, especially the freedom."

"Yes, freedom is one of your fads, I believe," remarked Sonia, "especially freedom from marriage. Do you still make a habit of avoiding marriage—at the last moment?"

"Sonia, you are unjust. If it had rested with me you should be my wife now, not another man's widow."

"If it rested with you?" she mimicked. "Well, let the whole story rest now. It's forgotten."

"By you, perhaps—never by me."

"Oh, no! I remember it every now and then for my own amusement. But it is hard to think of myself as the little Marsovian peasant maid to whom the dashing cavalry officer, Prince Danilo, was once engaged and whom his rich old uncle at the last moment forbade to marry because of her poverty. How differently that same rich old uncle would look on the match to day! Twenty millions is a pretty dowry."

"At least it seems you didn't break your heart over losing me," sneered Danilo.

"No; my plebeian heart stood the shock excellent. I soon found consolation—an elderly husband who lived just one week after the wedding and left me all his wealth."

"Yes; I heard how your father forced you into the match. Next time you can choose a husband to suit yourself."

"Why should I marry again? I am rich, free. I have everything."

"Including love?" he asked, his eyes devouring her fragile beauty.

"I don't believe in love," scoffed Sonia. "All men are alike. Dozens of them are after my money and make love to me because they can't get it without me."

"Men are not all fortune hunters," he denied hotly. "I for one—"

"So they all say. Each says 'I love you.' Each means my fortune."

"They do?" cried Danilo, in rage at the strong insinuation. "Well, here's one that doesn't. I for one shall never say to you, 'I love you!'"

A strange smile stole across her face. She came very close to where he stood; so close that the faint perfume of her hair, was sweet in his nostrils; so close that her breath was warm upon his lips; so close that his bewildered soul struggled in vain to hide from the glory in her eyes. Her voice was a musical whisper as she asked:

"You'll never say to me 'I love you?'"

There was an infinity of allurements in the tempting words. Danilo, with a mighty effort, shook off the spell and shouted:

"Never! Never! Never!"

"That's a comfort!" she said coldly, drawing away and seeking to veil her keen disappointment. "But," she added more softly, "why not say it if you really want to?"

"I don't want to!" he declared sulkily.

"And you promise faithfully you'll never say to me, 'I love you?'"

Again she was perilously close to him. Again his eyes tore themselves free from the pleading seductiveness of hers as he reiterated:

"I promise! I'm not going to make a fool of myself or be made a fool of."

Is that a declaration of war?" queried Sonia.

"No—of friendship. Do you mean to say if I asked you to be my wife you would merely laugh at me?"

"Probably. All men are alike."

"They are not, and in time I'll prove it to you."

Before she could answer the ambassador and several of the guests came into the room. At first opportunity Popoff drew Danilo aside.

"Prince," said he impressively, "you have now been attached to this legation nearly four months and—"

"Few of my attachments last so long," observed Danilo.

"You refer to your love affairs? I have heard of them. They have brought you to the brink of ruin. You are almost penniless. Here is my plan to save you, also to give you a chance to save your country from bankruptcy. I want you to marry."

"To what?" cried Danilo.

"To marry—beautiful woman, my boy—twenty millions—Mme. Sonia Sadowa! Hey?"

"Never!" returned Danilo, angrily, as he rose to end the interview.

"Then a Frenchman will marry her, and her fortune and our country will be ruined."

"I won't marry her," repeated Danilo, "and she won't marry me. But for my country's sake I'll keep any Frenchman from marrying her."

"But how?"

"You shall see!"

GREAT IS STRENGTH

OF THE BAPTIST DENOMINATION
IN KENTUCKY.

Statistics of Interest on The Membership and The Wealth of The Church.

At the 71st Annual session of the general association of Baptists in Kentucky, held this week in Louisville, the Hopkinsville church was represented by the pastor, Rev. Millard A. Jenkins, President Edmund Harrison, of Bethel College, H. H. Abner, clerk of the church, and Ellis Cottrell, who is studying in the Baptist seminary at Louisville. Officers are elected as follows:

Moderator, Dr. W. D. Nowlin; assistant moderators, J. A. Booth of Taylorville and J. W. Hedden of Mt. Sterling; secretary, J. K. Nunnally of Georgetown; assistant secretary, J. L. Hill of Louisville.

The Rev. M. P. Hunt delivered the address of welcome. There are about 500 delegates present, representing over 20,000 members.

The Rev. W. E. Mitchell, of Pembroke, Ky., responded to the address of welcome by the Rev. M. P. Hunt.

The Rev. W. D. Powell, corresponding secretary of the state board of missions, then read his annual report. It showed that there are 216,317 Baptists in Kentucky, and that the membership of the Baptist church is now greater than all other Protestant churches in the state put together. The church gave to missions last year $5,749.38, an increase over last year of $5,129.75. The report shows further that Kentucky is third in the Union in point of Baptist population, fifth in contributions to missions, and seventh in point of Sunday school enrollment.

The baptisms during the past year reported from all the churches in the state make, according to the report of Dr. Powell, a total of 11,123. Additions to churches by letter number 5,477. In the number of baptisms Kentucky ranks fifth as compared to the other states.

Little Ills of Children

Mothers and all others who have children about the house cannot do their families a better service than to learn of simple and reliable remedies that correct children's ailments. Many grown people are suffering today for the ignorance or negligence of those who have charge of their bringing up.

Children are prone to constipation, and if it isn't corrected early, the bowels get in the habit of not working normally and soon chronic constipation results that may last off and on all through life. Then children eat almost continually and as a consequence indigestion sets in soon followed by worms, or stomach pains, or diarrhea, or any one of a dozen other troubles. To say that it will right itself is putting altogether too much faith in chance. It is trying with the child's present and future health.

A better way is to give the child a dose of something intended to cure that very trouble, and nothing better for the purpose is known than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It never grips but acts gently and as it has a pleasant taste the child will not refuse to take it. Buy a 50-cent or a bottle of your druggist and save the child from sickness. You should remember that a child whose stomach is in good working order is not likely to catch colds and fever diseases.

Mrs. Curry, of Trowbridge, Ill., attributes the remarkable health of her child to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which she gives regularly in these disorders. Mrs. Eversole, of Hiasboro, Ill., is proud to say that the present good condition of her five-year-old boy is entirely due to this wonderful remedy. Try it in your own family and see if you cannot share these opinions. Every bottle is guaranteed to do exactly as we claim, and the purity of ingredients is also vouched for.

FREE TEST—Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent by mail by addressing the company. This is to give the remedy a fair trial and only open to those who have never taken it. Send for free sample and complete information to Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.

STOPS ITCHING INSTANTLY

Eczema, Pimples, Rashes, Blisters, Eruptions, etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since the discovery of "J. M." Prescription, the new skin remedy, its success has exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the dispensers who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and cleaned the skin of facial disfigurements and repulsive pimples of years' standing. The burnings and itchings of eczema are stopped with the first application.

In minor skin troubles such as rashes, blotches, pimples, blackheads, barber's itch, salt rheum, itching piles, red noses, dandruff, oak and ivy poison, oozed feet, results show after a few applications. A muddy, greasy or sallow complexion is quickly improved over night. Sold by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. The A. J. MARTIN MEDICINE CO., Props., Toledo, Ohio.

Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swollen, painful, bleeding or itching piles, either external or internal. Large Jar 50c. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

JOYFUL MEETING.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 15.—The wife and children of James Howard, who was pardoned Saturday, arrived here this morning from Manchester. A most joyful meeting took place.

Weak women should try Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses. My "Book No. 4, For Women" contains many valuable hints to women, and it is free. Ask Dr. Shoop's Racine, Wis., to mail it. Ask the Doctor in strictest confidence, any questions you wish answered. TRIAL IS BEGUN

OF W. P. WINFREE, JR., CHARGED WITH WILFUL MURDER

Young Man Shot Policeman Charles Hord Last December, the Officer Dying a Few Days Later.

(From Monday's Daily)

The trial of W. P. Winfree, Jr., on an indictment charging him with the wilful murder of Policeman Charles Hord, was begun this morning in circuit court. The prosecution is represented by Commonwealth Attorney Denny P. Smith and City Attorney Walter Knight. The defense is in the hands of Congressman A. O. Stanley, Judge Joe McCarroll, W. P. Winfree, Sr., and C. H. Bush.

As soon as both sides announced ready, the work of impaneling the jury was begun, but on account of the trouble experienced in securing competent jurors, only eleven had been accepted when court adjourned at noon, these being L. L. Nichols, Bartlett Yancey, Bazel Roberts, J. H. Duval, Frank Mason, T. D. Bell, J. C. Adcock, Cave Johnson, H. D. Yonts, J. T. East and Jim Allen. After dinner the list was completed by the addition of Bud Brown.

This case is one in which general interest has centered ever since it was set for trial.

The defendant, who is one of the most prominent young society men of the city shot Policeman Hord on the morning of December 10th, 1907, producing wounds from which the officer died a few days later.

After the jury was completed this afternoon the defense acknowledged the identity of person, waived formal arraignment and entered a plea of not guilty. The testimony for the prosecution is being heard this afternoon.

Thinks It Saved His Life

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Cook & Higgins and Cook's Pharmacy. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both are essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, ceases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Solids or Liquid—see general notice to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure

WEED PRODUCTION

IN THE UNITED STATES IS INCREASING YEARLY

Great Resource of the Farms and a Natural Source of Government Support.

The production of tobacco in the United States, which was $33,000,000 pounds in 1905, was $32,000,000 pounds in 1906 and nearly 700,000,000 pounds in 1907. The value of this crop has simultaneously increased from $53,000,000 in 1905 to $68,000,000 in 1906 and 176,000,000 in 1907. It will be observed that our American tobacco averages between eight and nine cents a pound. This is its so-called farm value. Almost half of our tobacco is exported, the total for 1906 being some 356,000,000 pounds, valued at $34,000,000. Less than $1,500,000 of this export business is in foreign tobacco that has been brought here for manufacture or reshipment, and nearly all of this is leaf filler.

It would probably surprise the great mass of smokers to know how large a percentage of tobacco consumed in the United States is home-grown or at least home-manufactured. The cigars, cigarettes and cheroots we import do not exceed in amount 800,000 pounds or thereabouts annually or $5,000,000 in value, and of tobacco in leaf we import less than $7,000,000 worth of wrappers and less than $16,000,000 worth of fillers. Our consumption, therefore, consists of approximately 350,000,000 pounds of domestic and 38,000,000 pounds imported. Cigar wrappers imported at about $1 a pound and filler at about 50 cents a pound, though, to this, of course, must be added customs, dues and internal revenue before we come to the profits of the dealer and manufacturer.

Tobacco is not only a great resource of our farms, but a material source of government support. It yielded in 1906 about $50,000,000 in internal revenue and nearly $5,000,000 in customs revenue. This is one-twelfth of the customs revenue and one-fifth of the internal revenue; that is, about one-eighth of the entire revenue of the government from these two sources. The state of Connecticut raises almost as much tobacco as we import from Cuba, and the state of Tennessee raises more than the entire production of the Philippine islands.—Indianapolis Star.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

We have recently introduced into our concrete work in Hopkinsville a method of dressing the surface of the work, similar to that of cutstone. The result is an artificial stone, harder than granite, free from discolorations and having every appearance of the natural stone. By careful selection of materials, results can be produced, varying from the natural lime stone to Georgia marble.

For this branch of our work, we have secured the service of T. J. Clark, one of the best stonemasons in western Kentucky, whose experience of 45 years will insure that the workmanship will be perfect in every detail.

Get our figures and investigate before contracting for the natural stone work.

ROUSING MEETING

HELD AT COURTHOUSE ON COUNTY FAIR PROPOSITION.

Everybody is Interested.—Corporation to be Formed With Capital of $20,000 and Shares $25 each

A large crowd gathered at the courthouse last night to hear the proposition which was to be made relative to the purchase and fitting up of suitable grounds and the establishment in Hopkinsville and Christian county of the old-time county fair. Not only was there a good crowd present but every man seemed to be deeply interested in the plan and willing to help in advancing it all he could.

Mayor Meacham led off with a talk in which he explained the purpose of the meeting and pointed out what a benefit a fair would be to both town and county. He urged that the present opportunity should not be allowed to go by, but that the necessary money should be raised and a fair held this fall. The formal organization was then perfected by the election of Douglas Bell, chairman, and Dr. M. W. Williams, secretary. Dr. Williams laid before the meeting the plans which had been prepared of the grounds, showing the entrances, the location of the various buildings, the track, etc. Many expressions of approval of these plans were heard.

McJ. Davis, through whose land one of the proposed entrances will run, announced that a small portion of the land necessary had not been covered by an option, but that he was so much interested in the proposition and felt so sanguine of its success that he would exchange this land for shares of stock. This announcement was greeted with delight.

Other speakers then took up the theme, among them being M. C. Forbes, Dr. J. B. Jackson, J. E. Moseley, and L. H. Davis. All of these speakers pointed out that an annual county fair, conducted upon the highest plane in every way, meant much to both the town and country. To the country it would stimulate the striving for perfection in everything from the production of pound of butter to blooded horses and as valuable prizes are to be offered in all classes, the work devoted to this end would be well repaid.

To the town the advantages are also more promising than from anything else which could be suggested just at this time. If would attract large crowds each year and would be an advertisement that could not be secured in any other way. Throughout all the speeches the theme uppermost was that this was to be a fair for Hopkinsville and Christian county, and that the people of both the town and country were equally to be benefited thereby. The meeting was very harmonious all the way and the presence of many country people showed that they were deeply interested. Aside from the direct benefits of the fair itself it was pointed out that the grounds could be used for any gathering which required an extra big seating space, for picnics or barbecues and that this would be a great incentive for a street railway system to be built.

It was finally decided that a corporation should be formed with a capital stock of $20,000 divided into shares of $25 each. Committees are to be appointed by the chairman to solicit subscriptions to this stock. A committee will be appointed in solicitor in Hopkinsville and two men will be appointed in each magisterial district of the county. These committees will be named later. It is believed that the fair proposition will prove a money maker and that the stock in the corporation will pay handsome dividends to the holders.

Another meeting is to be held at the courthouse next Monday night to which everybody, both town and country people alike, is invited.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the Crescent Milling Company was on the 2nd day of June, 1908, by the written consent of the owners of a majority of its shares of stock and by the action of its board of directors, dissolved and its charter and articles of incorporation canceled and surrendered, except for the purpose of disposing of its property, real and personal, settling its obligations and winding up its affairs.

Persons holding demands against said company are requested to present same for adjustment.

Gardiner Succeeds Stephens at the Asylum

Board of Control Announces the Change.—Eli Berry Will be Succeeded as Steward by Mr. Page, of Breckinridge County.—The Changes Will Take Place on July 1.

The board of control of charitable institutions has announced that Dr. T. W. Gardiner, of Madisonville, has been named to succeed Dr. J. W. Stephens as superintendent of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane and that Mr. Page, of Breckinridge county, would succeed Eli Berry as steward, both changes to take place on July 1. This change is not entirely unexpected as rumors had been rife for several weeks that it would occur.

Dr. Gardiner will be welcomed back to the Western asylum if a Republican had to come. General regret is felt, though, at the removal of Dr. Stephens who has rendered such efficient service here and at Lakeland during the past eight years. Dr. Stephens came to the asylum from Todd county in the capacity of assistant physician and his services were recognized and rewarded by the appointment to the highest position at the institution here. Dr. Gardiner was superintendent here from 1897 to 1900 under Gov. Bradley.

The two changes noted above are the only ones which have yet been announced by the board of control, and it is not believed that others are anticipated, for the near future at least. When seen this morning

Dr. Stephens said he had no statement to make at present.

The Madisonville Hustler says: The many friends of Dr. T. W. Gardiner, of Madisonville, both in this city and abroad, will be pleased to learn that he has received notification from the state board of control of his appointment to the position of superintendent of the Western Kentucky Insane asylum at Hopkinsville. Dr. Gardiner was notified of his selection to this important position by a letter which was received from the board Sunday.

Dr. Gardiner is one of the best known physicians of this section of the state and one of the leading Republicans of Hopkins county. He was superintendent of the Western Kentucky Insane asylum from April 1, 1897, to June 30, 1900, having been appointed by Ex-Gov. Wm. O. Bradley. After the Republican party passed out of power in Kentucky Dr. Gardiner returned to his home in Madisonville. His fitness for this place and the record he made while at the head of this institution was recognized by the state board of control, which is composed of two Democrats and two Republicans, and he was tendered the appointment to succeed Dr. J. W. Stephens, of Todd county, who has been connected with the asylum in various capacities for the past eight years. Dr. Gardiner in his early youth was connected with the Lakeland asylum and is familiar with all phases of work of this character. He has made no effort to secure the position and it was in the nature of a surprise to him.

Dr. Stephens will retire from the superintendency of the Western Kentucky Insane asylum July 1st, and Dr. Gardiner will assume charge at once. Dr. Gardiner will move his family to Hopkinsville as soon as possible, where they will reside during the time that he is at the head of the institution.

Change at Eastern Asylum.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 16.—Dr. Robert Luther Willis, of this city, has been appointed by the state board of control for charitable institutions to be superintendent for the past eight years.

James H. Reed, who has been for eight years steward of the asylum, has also been reappointed by the board to another term of four years. Both Dr. Willis and Mr. Reed received official notification of their appointment today.

church, will permit them to erect not less than a $40,000 building. All of the committees have gone actively to work and hold meetings regularly. The members of the congregation are unanimously in favor of a new church and the general public are taking a deep interest in the matter.

Information having reached the Postoffice Department at Washington of certain methods by which the postal laws in regard to mailable merchandise on rural routes have evaded, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Degraw has taken steps to prevent evasions. Rural carriers are permitted to deliver as express matter for hire, for patrons of their routes, unmailable merchandise and packages of unmailable merchandise weighing in excess of four pounds. An example of the abuse of this privilege is that of a merchant who sent out by rural carrier as mail a package, to which he added a bag of salt to make the package over weight and avoid paying postage, so that the carrier might carry the package for him.

In view of such abuses Mr. Degraw has issued the following statement: "All packages of merchandise to be sent out by rural carriers by merchants of a town, should be presented at the postoffice for inspection and in case it is found that extraneous matter not ordered by patrons has been added for the purpose of making such package of matter unmailable, postmasters should refuse permit the carrier to carry any such matter for package for hire, outside of the mails, and rural carriers should not receive any matter from patrons as unmailable matter for hire, which the suspect has made unmailable by such devices as adopted by the merchant referred to."

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of the most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—this is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Hopkinsville Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Bring your hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that backache pains come from sick kidneys, 'twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Hopkinsville people endorse this:

Miss L. A. Hester, 826 North Main street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I honestly believe that there is little need of any one suffering the torture of backache when such an effective remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills can be purchased at L. A. Johnson's drug store. The prompt and thorough relief which followed their use in my case has given me abiding faith in their merits. In the summer of 1908, I was suffering greatly from soreness and lameness across the small of my back and other difficulties arising from a weakness of the kidneys. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills was all I required to free me from the distressing pain in my back and restore my kidneys to a good, healthy condition. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and during the four years that have elapsed I still hold the same good opinion of the remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

OLD SORES KEPT OPEN BY BAD BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal, it is because of bad blood. If the place existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the ulcer that would kill the germ; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result.

The impurities in the blood which keep old sores open, come from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, is a common source. These morbid impurities get into the circulation, and the blood becomes a polluted, infectious fluid, which, instead of nourishing the fibres and tissues of the flesh, irritates and ulcerates them, and continually discharges its impurities into the open sore, and prevents the place from healing. Another cause for bad blood is the retention in the system of the refuse and waste matters of the body. Those members whose duty it is to carry off the useless accumulations, become dull and sluggish in their action and leave their work imperfectly done, and this fermenting matter is absorbed into the circulation. The weakening or polluting of this vital fluid may also come from the results of some constitutional disease, while persons who are born with an hereditary blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers.

Local or external applications can not cure an old sore, because they do not reach the blood. Such treatment may reduce the inflammation, lessen the pain and discharge, and tend to keep the place clean, and for this reason should be used, but it can do no real good toward effecting a permanent cure.

S. S. S. cures sores and ulcers by purifying the blood. It removes every impurity and taint from the circulation, and completely does away with the cause. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the pain and inflammation leave, the discharge ceases, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh.

S. S. S. is purely vegetable, made only from roots and herbs, and is an absolutely safe medicine for persons of any age. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired because of the drain and worry of an old sore, will be doubly benefited by its use. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

TWO CAR LOADS

OF TOBACCO SHIPPED TO LIVERPOOL BY R. C. WEST.

Tobacco Was Bought as Experiment From Association and Unpacked and Redried to Suit English Trade.

R. C. West, the tobaccoist, who recently received an order from English dealers for the purchase of a small amount of tobacco from the Planters' Protective association, this tobacco was unpacked and redried to suit the English trade and repacked according to their ideas, has completed his work and the tobacco has been shipped to New York where it will be loaded on a ship and taken directly to Liverpool where the success or the failure of the experiment will be finally determined.

The English trade has heretofore refused to buy tobacco from the Planters' association on the grounds that as that organization would not sell loose, the tobacco was therefore unfit for their trade; that it was impracticable to unpack it once it had been prized, and to put it through the process necessary to give it the flavor and the color demanded. Recently they decided to give the matter a trial though and accordingly sent Mr. West an order for two car loads and if this proved satisfactory it was strongly intimated that further orders would be promptly forthcoming.

Mr. West says that he believes that he has succeeded in his effort to give the tobacco the flavor and the color desired. The greatest thing threatening the success of the venture is the increased expense. It is natural that it is more expensive to handle tobacco that has been prized than it is to take the loose state and work it up and there is also bound to be more loss from the prized tobacco. With this exception though he thinks that the experiment will prove thoroughly satisfactory.

The verdict from the Liverpool purchasers will therefore be awaited with much interest for if it is favorable it means that English dealers will begin buying the tobacco which they have up to this time refused to consider. If they decide adversely the situation will at least not be made any worse than it was before.

IT SAVED MY LIFE. WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT.

Bed-Ridden Sufferer Completely Cured by Use of D. D. D. External Wash.

One of the most remarkable Eczema cures recently credited to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago. Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of Dec. 9, 1907, writes as follows:

"I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knee and spread fast all over my body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning.

"I had to stay in bed from the middle of May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 9th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life.

"When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would care for me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast and now my skin is clean and white, not a spot anywhere."

Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin brings relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. D. Soap. Get a bottle today if you have any skin disease. Begin your cure at once. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

After Others Failed.

D. C. Scott, Avon, Ky., says: "I used Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy after other Remedies failed and it speedily effected a cure. It has cured several herds in my neighborhood without the loss of a single hog." Sold by L. L. Elgin.

$1,000 REWARD

IS OFFERED FOR THE MURDERERS OF REUF HUNTER.

Gov. Patterson, of Tennessee, Acts Promptly When a Request is Made. That Reward be Offered.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 18.—Gov. Patterson Wednesday offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who assassinated Reuf Hunter, a prominent farmer of Montgomery county, on the night of June 6. The application for reward was made by C. W. Tyler, judge of the criminal court of Montgomery county, and W. M. Brandon, attorney general of ninth judicial circuit.

Hunter was prominently identified with the Planters' Protective association, and had been since its organization. On the night of June 6 a party of men supposed to entertain some personal hatred for Hunter, called him to the door of his home and shot him. It was about midnight. In the stillness of the night the party of men bent upon their purpose went to the home of the unfortunate man and aroused him. When he came to the door they requested him to come to the gate; not being so inclined he invited them in the house. Without further communication the men fired a volley of shots, about fifteen. One of the shots consummated the purpose of the party. Hunter sank to the floor with a bullet hole through his body. He died the next afternoon.

When the party had fired the volley of shots Hunter heard them making threats that he had been talking too much. They evidently thought they had not wounded him fatally, and declared that if he did not cease his talking they would finish him. The house was badly shot up. One load of buckshot went through a window and lodged in a piano and a rocking chair. Fortunately, no one occupied the room. The application for reward met with a ready response by Gov. Patterson. He has declared that he would uphold the law in the tobacco district, and has previously offered rewards for offenses of this nature. The killing of Hunter has caused much excitement in Montgomery county, especially when it is known that he had no enemies, and had never been other than a strong association adherent.

FAMILIAR FIGURE GONE

T. J. Ryan Died Last Night of Euræmic Poisoning.

T. J. Ryan, a familiar figure in Hopkinsville as he would trundle himself around in his rolling chair, died last night at 9 o'clock at his home on North Virginia street of euræmic poisoning from which he had been ill for some time. Mr. Ryan was paralyzed in his lower limbs about twenty years ago and ever since that time his only way of getting from place to place was by means of his chair which he propelled with his hands. He farmed for many years and for a long time kept the toll gate at Masonville on the Clarksville pike. When the toll gate was put out of commission he moved to Hopkinsville, having previously disposed of his farm. He had accumulated considerable of this world's goods. He was sixty-four years of age, and his brother, W. H. Ryan, of this city, his wife and three daughters, two of whom live in Chicago and the other in Nashville, survive him. Interment took place in Riverside cemetery this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Only Lost One.

Mrs. Cynthia Duncan, Georgetown, Ky., says: "I had occasion to use Bourbon Poultry Cure with my turkeys this year and it cured them. I only lost one, don't think I would have lost it if I had used this medicine sooner."

Prayer Service.

There will be a prayer service this evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Darnell 607 West Seventh street. The public is cordially invited to attend.

SPLENDID MUSICAL

PROMISED HOPKINSVILLE PEOPLE ON NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Innes and His Band of Sixty-Two Players and Seven Festival Singers Will be Here For Two Performances

FREDERICK NEIL INNES

Signor Pezzetti, who will sing at one of the performances with Innes' Orchestral Band on June 24, is a most interesting personality; he is as versatile in his accomplishments as he is in his portrayal of widely varying operatic roles. Among his diversions which are all subservient to the necessities of his operatic career, golf, bridge, fishing hunting and a dozen others. Golf is his favorite pastime, and that he is no mean opponent, many defeated golfers will testify. He is never so happy as when a chance moment offers the opportunity of a game of golf, and he is always much sought guest of the country clubs in the different cities in which he sings. He plays at golf as he sings, with all the energy and abandonment of a jubilant school boy, and he is as ready to tell of his opponent's lucky "drive" as of his own. It is this generosity of character which wins for Signor Pezzetti the instant sympathy of all who come in contact with him. He is so ready to see good, and praise it in others, that one feels his geniality and whole heartedness, whether he be on the golf links giving himself up to exercise and diversion, whether he be lost in the interpretation of one of his favorite roles. Signor Pezzetti tells of having won a silver loving cup in a golf tournament in Surrey (England). He says that when he saw his name engraved on the cup as a winner and happy possessor of the coveted trophy, he felt more pride and elation over his victory than when he was summoned for the first time to sing before King Emanuel, of Italy.

The Innes' organization is traveling in its full strength of sixty-two players and accompanied by a number of opera singers of note, prominent among whom are—Virginia Listemann, Soprano; Elaine De Sellen, Contralto; Signor Pezzetti, Tenor; G. Zera, Baritone; Clayton Evans, Bass and H. J. Williams, Harp.
