KERN WELCOMED HOME; FAIRBANKS A SPEAKER.

JOHN W. KERN.

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 16.—The reception given John W. Kern, the newly nominated Democratic candidate for vice-president of the United States, held in the courthouse yard at 8:30 o'clock last night was as hearty and generous and spontaneous as the citizens of Indianapolis, regardless of politics, could make it. Fully 5,000 people gathered in Delaware street and in the courthouse yard gave Mr. Kern a hearty welcome and cheered him enthusiastically. The newly-made candidate addressed the big crowd for about twenty minutes after being presented by Charles W. Fairbanks, vice-president of the United States.

PRINCE OF WALES STARTS ON A VOYAGE TO CANADA

LONDON, July 16.—The Prince of Wales and his suite sailed from Portsmouth on board the Indomitable, Great Britain's newest cruiser battleship, to attend the forthcoming fete at Quebec in honor of the founding of that city 300 years ago by Champlain. It is the intention of England to have the cruiser break all records for speed.

Crowds of people were at the pier when the Prince left on his voyage. This cruiser has been called a "mystery ship," because the details of the construction were not made public. The ship collided with a barge off Portsmouth, but not much damage was done.

LOST THEIR LIVES

MANILA, P. I., July 16.—By the overturning today of a launch on the river, twenty-five persons were drowned, including three Americans.

BY IMMENSE CROWD

OPEN AIR CONCERT WAS HEARD
WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

First of Series Lebkuecher's Excellent
Band Will Give Weekly During The Summer Months.

The open-air concert given by Lebkuecher's band last evening at the corner of Main and 9th streets was a big success both from the point of view of the quality of music rendered and the crowd which turned out to listen. The program contained both popular and classical pieces that elicited prolonged and hearty applause.

The public owes much to Mr. Lebkuecher for this, the first concert of the season, and it is needless to say that there will always be a large number of people present whenever the platform is wheeled into place. Office windows served as a vantage point for a good many, and traffic was almost at a standstill because of the people who thronged the streets. The concert of next week will be looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.

The band last night established itself as one of the best musical organizations in the state, the cities not even being excepted. Mr. Lebkuecher has surrendered his clarinet and now devotes his entire time and attention to directing the band and the harmony last night showed how well he has his men trained and how closely they follow his every move.

People of all classes were out and mingled in one happy throng. Many people from the country, having heard of the concert, drove in and were pleased listeners and it is probable that the popularity of the concerts will be as great among the country people as it is with the town residents.

Last night's program was as follows:

1. Overture, Post and Peasant.....Suppe
2. Intermezzo "Cherry".....Albert
3. Waltz, Visions of Paradise.....Bennet
- Intermission 15 minutes.
4. Comedy Club.....Alexander
5. La Paloma.....Yradier
6. Golden Rod.....Mabel McKinley
7. American Patrol.....Meacham

Next concert will be given Wednesday July 22nd

BRYAN

WINS ON FIRST BALLOT.

The Great Commoner Will Lead the Democratic Hosts to Glorious Victory in November.—Unparalleled Scenes of Enthusiasm.

NEW PICTURE OF WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

DENVER, Colo., July 10.—William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, was nominated for the presidency by the Democratic national convention after an all night session and amid scenes of unparalleled enthusiasm.

But three names were presented to the convention—Mr. Bryan, Gov. John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, and Judge George Gray, of Delaware.

The official vote stood:
Bryan ..... 892 1/2
Johnson ..... 46
Gray ..... 59 1/2
The candidate for vice-president will be nominated this afternoon, the convention having adjourned after Mr. Bryan was named in order to give the delegates a few hours of much needed rest.

The ovation aroused at Bryan's name was marvelous and spectacular. It lasted for 1 1/2 hours, and, by telephone, Mr. Bryan heard the cheering at his home 500 miles away. Mr. Bryan's name was presented by I. J. Dunn, of Omaha. When W. S. Hammond, of Minnesota, named Gov. Johnson, there was also a fine demonstration by his loyal followers, lasting thirty minutes. Judge Gray was placed in nomination by Irving Handy, of Delaware. By this time, the crowd was tired out, and while there was cheering, no attempt at a demonstration was made.

Immediately after Judge Gray's nomination, Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma, chairman of the committee on resolutions, was introduced, and read the platform, the various planks of which were applauded. The platform was unanimously adopted.

John E. Lamb, of Indiana, reported on the committee on resolutions a recommendation that the 100th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln be appropriately observed throughout the country. After the ayes had chorused their approval, Chairman Clayton said that as a son of a Confederate soldier and slave-holder he declined to put the negative and declared the vote unanimous.

Speeches seconding the nomination of Bryan were made by Augustus Thomas, of Missouri, State Senator Looney, of Texas, and W. E. Williams, of Illinois. Indiana gave place to Kentucky, Ollie James being sent by that state to second the nomination of Mr. Bryan. Mr. James was warmly greeted.

"He does not," said Mr. James, "belong to Nebraska; he does not belong to America, he belongs to humanity and the world."

"It cost the Republican party $20,000,000 to defeat him for the presidency. My word for it, they will have to empty the coffers on Wall street to defeat him next November.

"And now I come, Mr. Chairman, to second the nomination of this man who had rather look into faces of plain people who love him like those gathered here; one who had rather hear the heart-beat of humanity than to have his name as one which controlled the money markets of the civilized world, William J. Bryan, of Nebraska."

When Mr. James was about to conclude a chorus of "noes" came from delegates all over the floor. Several motions to extend the speaker's time were offered, but he would not consent, saying that he would not delay the nomination of W. J. Bryan, which would be made in a few minutes. He concluded in a storm of applause.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The fresh, rosy, the charm, the brilliant vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a powerful invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments. Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEFENDED MOTHER

BRAVE LITTLE BOY FIRES ON NEGRO BRUTE

Probably Wounded Him.—Much Excitement in North Christian.—Police Are Notified.

(From Friday's Daily)

There is much excitement in the vicinity of Mannington, in North Christian, over the attempted assault of a highly respected young married woman by a negro. The plucky appearance of the lady's brave little boy with his father's shotgun saved her from the brute's clutches.

Wednesday night, Mrs. Richard Lewis and her two children, a son about twelve years of age and a six year old daughter, were alone at their home about three miles from Mannington. Mr. Lewis is an employee of the L. & N. railroad and works at night. The children had gone to bed in an adjoining room and Mrs. Lewis had also retired.

A negro forced his way into the little home through a window and entered Mrs. Lewis' bedroom. He brutally seized the young woman and when she resisted him, he savagely slashed her arm with a razor or a large knife, inflicting a painful wound.

Mrs. Lewis screamed and her little boy, running to the door and realizing his mother's danger, snatched up a shotgun and entered the room. The black intruder leaped through the window and ran toward the gate. The child fired at him from the window and, judging from the negro's yell and the shot found in gate, evidently wounded him. Neighbors made a search for the negro but failed to find him. A general request has been sent out to the police in the region to look out for him. The negro had been hanging about Mannington during the day and said he came from Alabama.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT

MADE BY BURGESS TO GET OUT OF LEAVING STATE

By habeas corpus proceedings before Circuit Judge Cook, J. M. Burgess, who is being held here as a fugitive from justice, made another effort today to keep from having to go to Mississippi to stand trial on charge of defrauding F. T. Smith out of $1500 on a lumber deal. Judge Cook declined to hear testimony in the case on the ground that County Judge Prowse, who had jurisdiction in the matter, had dismissed a writ of habeas corpus. Burgess is in jail pending the issuing of requisition papers.

TO OUST MR. EWING

PURPOSE OF MOVE, ACCORDING TO PRESIDENT FORT

On Hopkinsville Market, Hot either Affects Buyers.—Prices The Weed Is Bringing.

A press dispatch from Springfield says:

"Charles H. Fort, president of the association, in a speech here this week, made the statement that a F. G. EWING move was on foot to defeat Mr. F. G. Ewing for general manager of the association."

The business of the Hopkinsville tobacco market was somewhat below the average in the way of sales during the past week. The warm weather seems to have some effect on the buyers.

The Society of Equity salesroom reports business below the average, but the prices are up to the standard of the organization and very satisfactory to the members.

Reports from the growing crop still shows that there is about 75 per cent of a crop. Some of the tobacco had to be replanted as many times as three and some four times before it stood, and on account of the wet season at the first planting, there has been considerable loss, and in some places has been entirely washed away.

The report from the Planters' Protective association shows the sale of 68 hogsheads all of lugs and leaf. The prices ranged from $7@10 and from $10.50@13. Receipts for the week were 105, and the total receipts for the year amounted to 6,449 hogsheads. Of this number 2,440 hogsheads have been sold, leaving a total of 3,994 yet to be sold.

Big Tomatoes.

W. M. Page presented the New Era today with a large basketful of tomatoes. You would imagine from this statement that we had lots of tomatoes, wouldn't you? There were only three in the basket and all grew on one stem. They weighed four pounds and six ounces. Mr. Page, who is an expert gardener, raised them on his place on Jesup Avenue.

Cuts Out-Dope Sticks.

Hub Perdue, formerly a pitcher on the Hopkinsville baseball team and now enthusiastically dubbed by Nashville people as the greatest slab artist in the South, attributes his improved condition to the fact that he has stopped smoking cigarettes. Grantland Rice quoted him as follows:

"As long as I was hitting those nails," remarked the Gallatin boxer, "I was never in good shape to work, and in addition never had any energy to get in there and hustle. So I decided to pass 'em up, and have never felt better in my life than I have ever since."

In reference to the county unit bill, he blames the Democrats and three Republicans for its failure to be made a law.

PLAYING WITH A GUN PLAN COMBINATION

AND LITTLE BOY WAS BURIED OF ALL TOBACCO SOCIETIES IN SUNDAY AFTERNOON. THREE STATES.

Deplorable Accident Occurred Saturday Afternoon on a Farm in North Christian.

A deeply distressing accident occurred Saturday afternoon on the farm of William Walker, about two miles east of Kelly, in the Northern part of this county. Three sons of Mr. Walker had gone out hunting. They were on their way back to the house, and Blaine, the eldest boy, gave the gun to Gaither and Eldridge, aged 13 and 9 respectively, to carry while he went to another part of the farm. He unloaded the gun before he left it with the boys, and did not know that one of them had a shell in his pocket. After the big brother had left, the little fellows decided they would load the gun, and while they were slipping the shell into the weapon, it was accidentally discharged and the load entered the side of the youngest lad, Eldridge, tearing a hole in his body. The report of the gun alarmed the other members of the family and they ran to where the little fellow was lying. He was conscious and lived long enough to tell his father and mother and the others of the family good-bye, but died before he could be removed to the house or a physician summoned. Gaither, the boy who was holding the gun when it was discharged, is nearly crazed with grief. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon and the remains were interred in the family burying ground.

AFTER A PREACHER

MAYSVILLE, Ky., July 13.—The Rev. H. E. Roseberry, pastor of the M. E. church south, at Sardis, this county, has resigned, and will leave in a few days to join his wife in Louisville.

His resignation, he says, is due to several men in that neighborhood, who have made his life miserable because he preached a number of sermons against Night Riders, and lawlessness in Kentucky, especially Mason county, and he claims they tried to burn him up by setting fire to the parsonage on the night of June 25.

He has received numerous threatening letters, the last one, telling him that he was going to be smoked out.

MARRIED ONE MONTH

BEFORE THEIR FRIENDS KNEW OF THEIR RELATIONS.

Miss Wilkins and Mr. Blythe Met in Nashville and Were United in W. dock.

The friends of Miss Buford Wilkins and Mr. Will W. Blythe were pleasantly surprised Sunday by the announcement that they were married and had been husband and wife for a month.

On June 9, Miss Wilkins, who has been the popular and efficient cashier at the local office of the Cumberland Telephone company, went to Nashville, accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Russell, and there met Mr. Blythe and the nuptial ceremony was quietly performed.

Mrs. Blythe returned to Hopkinsville and, as no one had been engaged to fill her position, she consented to stay at desk for a month, which she did until Friday when her resignation took effect. Sunday, Mr. Blythe arrived in the city and the marriage was then announced. Mr. and Mrs. Blythe will remain here until next Friday when they will go to Memphis, Tenn., to make their future home. Mr. Blythe is connected with the Cumberland Telephone company at that place and is one of the most valued attaches. The happy couple have a host of friends here who wish them great happiness in their new relations.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 13.—Dr. W. N. Offutt, E. W. McClure, Dr. N. J. Foley and other well-known young men of this city, are at the head of a movement to organize here a troop of cavalry which shall be a part of the Kentucky National guard. Since the Night Rider troubles the need of a cavalry troop has been more apparent than ever.

The plan is to have the proposed cavalry troop organized here composed of young men of high social standing and excellent horsemanship, which will give it prestige from the start. The proposition has been approved by Adjutant General Johnson and Brigadier General Roger D. Williams. It is expected that a sufficient number of members will be enrolled in the next few days to warrant a commission being issued to the new troop. This will be the first regularly commissioned mounted soldiers that Kentucky has had in several years.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIA

Malaria is due to impurities in the blood which destroy the rich, healthful qualities of the circulation, and reduce it to a weak, watery fluid. The body is then deprived of its necessary nourishment and strength, and is unable to resist the countless disorders that assail it, and the general system suffers in consequence. The appetite fails, digestion is weakened, chills and slight fever are frequent, while the sufferer loses energy and ambition. Boils, skin eruptions, and some times sores and ulcers follow when the blood becomes deeply polluted with the malarial germs. Both a tonic and blood purifier are needed to cure Malaria, and S. S. S. is best fitted for this work. It is the most perfect of all blood purifiers and at the same time an invigorating, healthful tonic. S. S. S. goes down into the blood, and removes every trace of impurity or poison, and gives to the blood the health-sustaining qualities it needs. It cures Malaria thoroughly and permanently because it removes from the blood the germs and poisons which produce the disease, and while doing this tones up and strengthens every part of the system. Book with information about Malaria and any medical advice furnished free to all who write.

The Merry Widow

By ALBERT PAYSON TERHUNE

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY HENRY W. SAVAGE

CHAPTER VI.

At Maxim's

MAXIM'S after midnight—the show restaurant whither sight-seeing Americans and other tourists flock and whose ditty machine made merriment they solemnly believe to be a part and parcel of true Parisian life.

On the night of Sonia's garden party one group of men and women who entered the jolly restaurant were so different from the usual habitués of the place as to come in for not a few amused glances from their neighbors. They were Mme. Natalie Popoff, Mme. Nova Kovitch and Cascada and St. Brice. The visit was Natalie's idea.

At Maxim's.

She had heard Danilo's wild speech of goodby to Sonia and his announcement that he was off to Maxim's. Hence the ambassador's wife, with a feeble yearning to atone in some way for the false position into which the widow had been thrust for her sake, had resolved to follow in the wake of her a word in private with Danilo and setting matters right again.

Natalie had not confided her plan to her husband, and now as the party were ushered to a secluded table in an alcove she glanced at the riotous scene about her with a delighted nervousness. The delight vanished suddenly, however, and the nervousness waxed to a panic fear as a familiar voice smote upon her ear.

Popoff had just come in and was standing not ten feet away from the secluded table where his wife sat trembling.

"I want to see Prince Danilo at once," he said to the head waiter. "Has he arrived?"

"Not yet, sir," was the reply, "but he will be here very soon. There is a supper party waiting for him over there," waving to a tableful of gayly appareled girls with tired eyes.

"Really!" exclaimed the ambassador. "I'll just join them till he comes." He toddled off to the distant table, where, to Natalie's jealous eye, he seemed to make himself at home with a phenomenal ease and quickness. He was scarce seated when Danilo strode in. The whole table rose to give the prince noisy greeting.

"Why, hello, your excellency!" cried Danilo. "This is queer company for a monument of respectability like yourself to wander into!"

"I came only to see you," protested the ambassador, drawing him aside. "I was bound I'd come here and wait till you appeared!"

"Oh, I see," cut in the prince, thoroughly enjoying his confusion. "Fools rush in where—"

"I didn't rush in," fumed the ambassador. "I crept here in a measly cab, and I sneaked into the place like a pickpocket for fear some one would recognize me. I sacrificed myself to my country. Suppose my wife should hear of it! I came to bribe you, to cast myself on your mercy, to beg you once more to prevent the widow from—"

"I must see b's excellency," insisted a portly man behind them, his voice booming through the whole room. "He is here, and I— Oh! he broke off on sight of Popoff. "Here you are! I—"

"My dear Nova Kovitch," pettishly interrupted the ambassador. "Is it necessary to hunt for me with a brass band? Couldn't you?"

"I'm sorry to interrupt you," answered Nova Kovitch, "but here's a dispatch from the Marsovian ministry. It seemed to me important, and I brought it on."

Popoff took the slip of paper and read aloud:

"If Mme. Sadowna's twenty millions are allowed to leave Marsovia we are a bankrupt country."

"There, Prince Danilo," continued the ambassador, turning on the young man in melodramatic appeal; "you see it's right up to you! Your country appeals to you to save it! You are Marsovia's last hope. Marry the widow!"

"I'll marry no one!" flared up Danilo. "To the deuce with matrimony and Marsovia and myself! I'm done with sill! dreams of love and all that nonsense. I'm free, and I'm going to make a night of it. I—"

He paused and stood silent, dumfounded. Down the little flight of stairs leading into the room a woman was advancing alone.

"Sonia!" exclaimed Danilo. "With a word of excuse to the others, he hurried across and met the widow as she reached the foot of the steps."

"You're here," he muttered in horrified wonder—"here alone?"

"Yes," replied Sonia coldly. "Is it any affair of yours?"

"First the summer house," he went on as in a daze, "then Maxim's."

"Quite so. Is that all you have to say?"

"No," he retorted; "I have one thing more. You should not marry De Joldon."

"No? Why not, pray?"

"Because I—"

He checked himself. She finished the sentence for him.

"Because you love me?" she suggested.

He broke into a discordant, miserable laugh.

"Don't laugh that silly way!" she reprimanded sharply.

"I am sorry you don't like it," he observed. "It's the only way I know."

"Then don't laugh at all. The laugh is on my side, anyway."

"On your side?"

"Yes. You are angry at what happened this evening. But it wasn't I who was in the summer house with M. de Joldon."

"But I saw you there," he declared.

"I took another woman's place to get her out of an awkward scrape with her husband—with M. Popoff. She was—"

"And I never even guessed it!" cried Danilo, his sullen face breaking into a smile of utter relief. "What a fool I was! I was green and yellow with jealousy."

He caught himself up, but it was too late. Sonia's eyes danced.

"But since you don't love me," she asked, "why were you yellow and green with—"

"Because green and yellow are our national colors. I am nothing if not patriotic. You see—"

"Mme. Sadowna—prince!" gurgled Popoff, trotting up to them, unable longer to restrain his anxiety. "I hope it is all settled. All nicely arranged, eh?"

"Same old fan!" commented Popoff, idly opening it. Then, with a jump as his eye vaguely caught the sentence Natalie had scribbled beneath De Joldon's avowal, he screamed:

"My wife's handwriting! Then it was my wife after all!"

"Sir," quoted Nova Kovitch. "Caesar's wife should be above suspicion."

"But Caesar never brought his wife to Paris!" wailed Popoff. "This is bad for me."

"No, no!" pleaded Natalie, who at sight of the fatal trinket had left her table and run forward. "It's all a horrid mistake. I can explain. I—"

"Silence!" commanded Popoff in his most magisterial manner. "Madame, under section 4 of the Marsovian code I hereby divorce you. This fan is sufficient evidence."

As Natalie started back, dumb with horror, Popoff turned impressively to Sonia and, to the widow's amused dismay, sank on one knee before her.

"Mme. Sadowna," he declared, "I am free, and in the name of our fatherland I beseech you to become my wife!"

Sonia was seemingly blind to the white misery in Natalie's face and the look of angry surprise in Danilo's. She answered, with perfect composure:

"My dear M. Popoff, I am deeply honored by your proposal, but before I ac-

"Madame, I hereby divorce you." "cept it is only fair to tell you that if I marry again I lose all my fortune."

The ambassador scrambled hastily to his feet.

"I was perhaps just a wee bit hasty," he stammered, looking sheepishly about for a way of escape.

Natalie came forward and handed him the fan.

"Did you read the words I wrote on it?" she asked timidly.

"I am—a dutiful—wife!" spelled out the ambassador. "Forgive me! I didn't understand. Shall we let bygones be bygones?"

Danilo, who had stood silent during the odd proposal, now stepped past Popoff and faced Sonia, a new light in his eyes.

"Is it true you will lose all your money if you marry again?" he asked in a voice he tried in vain to keep steady.

"Yes," she admitted; "it is true."

"I LOVE YOU, SONIA," HE WHISPERED.

"If you mean Madame to me," answered Danilo, "she not."

"But this evening," ejaculated Popoff, "in the summer house!"

"She took another woman's place," replied the prince, disregarding Sonia's warning gesture.

"Dear me!" squealed Popoff, his oily reviving. "Who was she?"

"Excuse me, your excellency," remarked Nish, who had entered with Nova Kovitch and had hovered aimlessly about waiting to get in a word.

"but here," at was picked up after the party the place, and I—"

"Then why shouldn't I say now what I want to?"

"Why not?" she agreed demurely. He drew a step nearer.

"I love you, Sonia," he whispered. Steadily, happily, she met his burning eyes as she answered:

"I love you, Danilo. I have always loved you."

"Tut, tut!" fretted Popoff, pushing peevishly between them. "This'll never do. You can't marry her, prince. You'll both be paupers."

"Not quite," gently corrected Sonia. "I shall lose my money, it is true, but only because I am going to give it all to my husband."

A GREAT TEAM AND WINNERS.

Every Democrat can and will loyally and enthusiastically support and work for the ticket nominated by the Denver convention; the man who won't do so is not a Democrat. William Jennings Bryan is stronger today than ever before in his career. He is a model American, and recognized by all the civilized world as the finest type of our stalwart manhood. He has talked in public more—and said more—than any man living. Few in recent years have written as much on as great a variety of political subjects. The great white light of publicity has been turned on him day and night, in season and out of season, since his first race for presidency.

For a round dozen years, every action, every word, aye, every thought, for Bryan conceals nothing, has been scrutinized and dissected. It's been a case of walking "naked in the sunlight," and Bryan has stood the test; stood it magnificently. His splendid ability and statesmanship, his bedrock patriotism, his consuming love for his fellow countrymen and humanity, his honesty and integrity, his eloquence and remarkable magnetism have won him the confidence and admiration of the nation as well as of his party. In John W. Kern, of Indiana, he has a worthy running mate, a man of brains and wide popularity and one whose Democracy is spotless as that of "the peerless one." It's a great team; and it will be a winner.

There never was a time when the press was more called upon to stand for law, order, justice and the very existences of our free republic itself than during the past year. With a mighty force the people have been sweeping aside the powers of evil, and it is a matter of infinite pride that with exceedingly few exceptions the newspapers of the commonwealth have been in the fore front of the onward march. On the other hand, we have witnessed an unprecedented spirit of oppression and anarchy which threatened to overthrow our social fabric and rob us of our most sacred rights, and to their eternal praise be it said that the newspapers almost unanimously have exerted their utmost influence in behalf of justice and law. The times have been such as to the souls of the editors out in the country, and they have acquitted themselves nobly. The editor who quails before mistaken public sentiment, panders to public prejudice or is actuated by selfish motives is quite as unknown as unworthy of the Annual Address.

Making Presidential Association.

Leon Delarange, the French aeroplanist, who has just driven his flying machine more than six miles at Rome, while the king and queen of Italy looked on, says that his machine now needs only a few minor improvements to solve the problem of dirigible flight. We have an idea that he will find that making these few minor improvements is like putting on the finishing touches to make a perfect poem.

When the question of relinquishing to Turkey some forts on the Midian coast was under discussion the late Lord Salisbury wrote to Lord Cromer privately: "I would not be too much impressed by what the soldiers tell you about the strategic importance of these places. It is their way. If they were allowed full scope they would insist on the importance of garrisoning the moon, in order to protect us from Mars." That was written before the beginning of the more or less profitable current discussion as to the habitability of the next outside neighbor of the earth.

SEEKING REFORMS

IN THE WAY THE ASSOCIATION IS BEING RUN

"Old Shanks" Speaks Right Out In Meeting and Tells Just What He Thinks.

"Old Shanks" (W. P. Anderson) one of the wheelhorses of the association, has written to the Clarkeville Leaf-Chronicle an extended plea for reforms in the organization. In part, he says:

"About a year ago I went before the executive committee of our Tobacco association at Guthrie, Ky., and respectfully submitted for their consideration the following issues: 1st, That an annual financial statement be made to all members of all receipts and disbursement. 2nd, That no more money be collected from the members than is necessary to administer the affairs of the association on an economic basis. 3rd, That a constitution be adopted that would clearly define the duties of the heads of all departments, holding them responsible for a faithful performance of the duties of the office money that come into their hands. That unjust discrimination between certain officials be removed. 5th, That some salaries were out of proportion to the services rendered.

"These questions were live, burning questions one year ago—they are intensely more so today, except the 4th proposition, which has been adjusted and is therefore removed from the field of discussion. I will endeavor to treat these matters briefly in the order named.

"1st. There is nothing in the obligation of pooling tobacco, either expressed or implied, that obligates secrecy upon the part of any one, either private or official. This organization is not a secret organization, the humblest member having the right to know of all acts of legislation that any other member has, be he private or official. An annual financial statement of receipts and disbursements would be a wholesome safeguard against unreasonable expense accounts, salaries, etc. It would also have a tendency to make every official's record what it ought to be, his record having to come before the people for review—he would not want anything in it that he would be ashamed or afraid of. In the name of justice, in the name of the rights of every private member, I plead for this report.

"The second proposition is so self-evident that I will not take up space in its discussion. A big surplus is a dangerous thing and I believe unnecessary, and a temptation. If I am mistaken about this, there is one thing I am not mistaken about, and that is that it at no time should exceed the bond of the treasurer. I may double or treble his bond, a condition that ought not to remain.

"3rd. In view of recent developments I regard this proposition of paramount importance to any others at this time, however important the others may be, having a constitution that does not even amount to a good excuse for a makeshift. When did any county in the district adopt or ratify this instrument? At no time. Well, then, it is an illegitimate child, and has no force or effect, nor is it entitled to any recognition by any one. Who will undertake to show that the money paid (considerably over four thousand dollars) to the treasurer and secretary combined, is not out of proportion to the services rendered. And who will undertake to show that John B. Allen's salary of $1,800 and expenses, is not out of proportion to the services rendered—one item of expenses alone being five hundred dollars embraced within the time from March 12, 1907, to Oct. 4, 1907. But then, you know, he may have circumnavigated the globe and wine and dined at Delmonico's or the Waldorf Astoria. The salaries of many others are within the bounds of reason and in a few cases, perhaps too low, especially is this true in reference to Mr. Ewing, burdened with the successful management of the organization and handicapped by a committee taking away from him all the rights and prerogatives that would be instruments in his hands to make the organization successful."

KICKS AND PLUNGES

Mr. and Mrs. Garvey McPherson and their baby were in a runaway accident Sunday night. All are considerably bruised in consequence and Mrs. McPherson is suffering from a horse's kick, but fortunately none of the family is seriously injured. They were out driving in a buggy on Beverly road and were near Crabapple pond when apart of the harness on the horse broke and the animal became frightened. Mr. McPherson attempted to quiet him, but he began kicking violently. Mrs. McPherson, with her baby in her arms, attempted to get out of the buggy and the horse kicked her on the hip, knocking her from the vehicle to the ground. Unmindful of herself, she held her baby so that the little one would be shielded from the fall. The child is but slightly bruised, while Mrs. McPherson's injuries are quite painful. In order to protect his wife and child from the plunging and kicking horse, Mr. McPherson sprang from the buggy and was also bruised. The horse wheeled the buggy around and dashed into town, but did not hurt the buggy and stopped in front of its stable. A gentleman who witnessed the windup of the runaway, procured a carriage and brought the McPherson family to their home.

REMANDED TO JAIL

LEE HICKMAN, COL., WAIVED AN EXAMINING TRIAL

Charged With Murder of Galbreath Pettus at a Fourth of July Ball Game.

Lee Hickman, colored, charged with the murder of Galbreath Pettus, col., on the farm of Gilbert Hooks near Casky, on July 4th, was taken before County Judge Prowse, yesterday, and, waiving an examining trial, was remanded to jail in default of $500 bail. Pettus was shot three times in the back with a .38 calibre pistol, following a general row that broke up a baseball game. At the inquest, the witnesses testified that the shooting of Pettus by Lee Hickman was unprovoked, and that the victim had made no effort to defend himself. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of wilful murder, and Coroner Allensworth brought Hickman to jail.

From Day to Day

Rev. C. H. H. Branch, pastor of Ninth St. Presbyterian church, left this morning for Baltimore and will be absent on a vacation for several weeks.

Lucian H. Davis left yesterday for Lexington, Ky., where he went to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Knights of Pythias Home of Kentucky. This will be a very important meeting of the board as the final arrangements will be made for the formal dedication of the home at the Grand Lodge session in September of this year. The entire Uniform Rank will encamp during the week in the historic woods in front of the place. There will be more than a thousand knights and on Sunday, when the dedicatory services will be held, it is expected that there will be more than ten thousand Pythians in Lexington from all over the state. Excursion trains will take them in from every direction. It will be a gala week.

Robert A. Cook, one of the most popular young men connected with the Republican administration at Frankfort, is back at home for a day or two. Mr. Cook says he is getting ready to take a vacation and will go on an eastern tour. His friends here are of the opinion that he has gotten his directions badly mixed.

COUNTY SCHOOL LAW

EIGHT EDUCATIONAL DIVISIONS
HAVE BEEN ARRANGED.

Announcement Is Made by County
Superintendent Gray of the Operation of New Measure

In compliance with the provisions of the new "County School District Law" the county has been divided into eight educational divisions and these into school subdistricts.

That section of the law which requires that no subdistrict shall contain fewer than fifty white children of school age, except in cases of emergency, and in no event fewer than forty such children, has made it necessary to redistrict practically all of Christian county. In the redistricting it has been necessary to abolish thirteen of the old districts, to-wit:

Empire, Long, Palestine, Flat Rock, Judge, Pleasant Green, Cannon, Haddock, Blue Run, Dade, Ford, Gary, Howell.

The eight educational divisions as arranged contain the following school subdistricts:

In some cases, I am aware of the fact that the arrangement is not satisfactory. Necessarily some children have been placed as much as three miles from a schoolhouse but it has been impossible to effect a more convenient plan and at the same time make the districts conform to the law and this I am compelled to do.

However, I ask the indulgence of the people until the new order of things can be tried, then if it deval-ops that a transfer of those who are greatly inconvenienced can be made and still maintain the standing of the district, it will be granted.

The new law is all right and is bound to give us better schools, but it is necessary to have the support of the people, especially until all become accustomed to the change.

The first election of trustees will be held the first Saturday in August, 1908, from 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock p.m. One trustee will be elected in each of the above named subdistricts for two years. The election will be by ballot; the ballots to be printed and sent out by the County clerk. In order to have your name printed on the ballot, it is necessary to present to the County clerk a petition signed by at least ten persons eligible to vote, at least ten days before the election. Also a certificate signed by five reputable citizens, stating that the candidate can read and write. These blanks can be had at this office and will be sent by mail or delivered at the office upon request.

The officers of the election will be two judges and a clerk appointed by the regular county election commissions, and are to serve without pay.

It is of the utmost importance that good men be elected for trustees. The trustee should not only be well educated, but he should be a man with progressive ideas, and a man whose liberality will allow him to look after the interest of all alike. Politics has no place in school matters at any time and especially should it be eliminated in carrying out the things required in this law.

SALUBRIA SPRINGS

AND PLEASURE SEEKERS.

Guests From Many Places Are There
And All Greatly Pleased With The Place.

The prediction that Salubria Springs would become the popular resort for the people of this section, during the hot summer days, is being verified. Ever since the hotel at that place opened it has been well filled with boarders and many people drive out at night to take supper. On Sundays the crowd is always about as large as can be conveniently handled and the promoters of the proposition are wearing broad smiles of pleasure at the fine showing which is being made.

Last Sunday, for instance, the register showed the following people there:

SAD TALE OF TROUT

ABRUPT ENDING OF A SWIFT
TRIP DOWNWARD.

Shooting the Callows Is Newest Sport
Introduced Here by a Man
From Todd.

It has been suggested that the galls in the county jail be repainted and decorated with a floral design which would add materially to its attractiveness, and a memorial tablet inserted in the wall bearing the following:

Here, once upon a summer's day
One William Trout did come and play;
He went right through without a shout,
All honor be to one Bill Trout.

We have all bumped the bumps, ridden on the scenic railways, shot the chutes and done various other things tending to alter the topography of our insides, but these are back numbers now and those persons looking for novelties in the amusement line must take up the fascinating and healthful avocation of "shooting the galls."

This popular sport was inaugurated a few days ago by William Trout, a well known Todd countian, and while quite unintentional, nevertheless may establish a precedent which people of a lively disposition can follow if they want to.

Shooting the galls may be performed anywhere there is a gallow. One advantage of this happy amusement is that no admission fee is charged and the person who wishes to "shoot" can do it without aid. The idea is, to find some nice well lubricated gallow, stand on the trap and pull the lever. This will let you through without any questions being asked. Your journey will depend on the height of the trap from the floor. It is very exhilarating. Some persons may prefer to have a mattress or other soft body on which to fall, but the Todd countian, being of a robust nature, took cement.

Of course a person may regulate the part of his anatomy on which he wishes to fall by the use of his arms. That is, he may put out his arms straight in front and by them coming in contact with the door of the trap he will shoot his feet out and sit down; or he may use one arm and fall on his opposite side. This regulation of the falling position adds materially to shooting the galls. The Todd countian prefers to extend his arms forward and sit down, but of course this is simply a matter of taste. No rope is used except by persons wishing a complete change of scenery, but its use might combine the pleasures of bumping the bumps and at the same time of seeing a panorama of the battle of Gettysburg, if we accept Sherman's definition of war.

Many of the young ladies here who have visitors may get up shooting the galls parties, prizes to be awarded to those persons falling in the most grotesque positions and also to the fastest shooter in the bunch.

Mr. Trout's experience occurred a day or two ago. He had gone to the county jail to see J. M. Burgess, alias, etc., and was visiting the death chamber, where the execution of the extreme penalty occurs. He unthoughtfully stood on the trap door. The next moment Mr. Trout shot downward through the air ten or more feet and landed with a dull, sickening thud on the concrete floor. He was not seriously hurt.

ATTACK BY NEGROES

AGED FARMER IS BEATEN INTO INSENSIBILITY.

Ralph Carden, an aged and well to do farmer living near Trenton, was attacked at night by three negroes, struck on the head with an ax and seriously wounded. The negroes then stole a small amount of money in the house and a large quantity of meat.

Mr. Carden, after recovering consciousness, walked several hundred yards to a neighbor's house, where a physician was called and his wounds dressed.

SPECIAL PERMIT

From Chief of Police to Enter Saloon on Sunday Is Necessary.

A more rigid construction of the Sunday closing law has been put into effect in this city. The ordinance requiring saloons to be closed contains a proviso by which owners may enter their saloons to protect their property from loss or deterioration. The new order requires a written application to be made to the chief of police for a permit, who will detail an officer to accompany the owner or agent. All cleaning up is required to be done before daylight on Sunday, and anyone entering a saloon on the Sabbath for any purpose without a special permit will be liable to a fine.

CAPT. LOGAN FELAND

Capt. Logan Feland, formerly a young Hopkinsville citizen, who is attaining distinction in the service of his country, has been placed in charge of the marines on the first class battleship Montana.

Capt. Feland had made the trip around the Horn on the battleship Minnesota and had started with the fleet from San Francisco on the cruise to foreign waters, when he was summoned by a wireless message to Washington and was sent ashore by the Minnesota. Arriving at Washington he was ordered to the Brooklyn navy yards to command the marine forces on the new ship. The Montana is now at Norfolk.

Capt. Feland was graduated from the Boston school of Technology as a civil engineer and architect. When the Spanish-American war was declared, he resigned a fine position in New York and went to Owensboro and entered the volunteer service as captain of the Owensboro militia, and was in command of the company during the Cuban campaign.

After the war he stood an examination for the marine service at Washington and received the highest marks of any candidates in the large class. He was immediately appointed first lieutenant, and assigned to duty in Cuba. Later he was transferred to China where he remained two years. His recent service has been on the battleships Indiana and Minnesota.

Capt. Feland is married and his residence is in New York. He is a son of Mrs. Sallie Feland, of this city, and a brother of the Hon. John Feland.

SUSPECT CHINAMAN

CHICAGO, July 16.—The police are raiding Chicago in search of the kidnapers of Edna Koblenx, 19. St. Louis girl believed to have been abducted by a Chinaman. The girl vanished mysteriously from the side of Mrs. Barr, custodian of the Y. M. C. A., home for homeless girls, after she failed to meet a man with whom she had corresponded with a view to marriage.

The address she gave is in Chicago's Chinatown. Mrs. Barr went to the station with the girl to see if the man would appear. While they were in the waiting room the girl screamed in distress.

Mrs. Barr went to aid her, and the two women near by had disappeared. When Mrs. Barr turned around the Koblenx girl disappeared. Later a Chinaman appeared at the baggage office with a claim check for the girl's baggage. The police believe the girl is the victim of the Chinese "white slave" traffic.

RECEIVER IS NAMED

FOR HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY
AT CLARKSVILLE.

United Trust Company Files Bill Claiming Company Has Defaulted
Interest on Bonds.

A bill has been filed in federal court at Nashville by the United States Trust Company, a Louisville corporation, petitioning for a receivership for the Home Telephone Company, of Clarksville. Judge Sanford of Knoxville, granted the receivership, and appointed Ernest B. Denison local manager for the Home Telephone Company, temporary receiver. Mr. Denison has taken charge of the property pending some other disposition by the court. The business of the company will continue as heretofore. The case has been set for hearing on July 27. It is understood that the receivership is brought about by dissatisfaction among the bondholders and a complete reorganization of the company will follow. The receiver was appointed at the request of the bondholders, who are seeking to foreclose a mortgage for $140,000, which was spent in the construction of the plant, the company having defaulted in the payment of interest.

The Home Telephone Company controls the home exchanges in Montgomery, Huston and Stewart counties.

Mr. Ernest Denison was seen by a reporter last night and in conversation stated that the company will continue its business without any change whatever. The company has valuable property in this section and Mr. Denison says the company will be reorganized as soon as possible.—Clarksville Leaf Chronicle.

MRS. CARRIE NATION

SCARES THE WOMEN IN THE ANNEX

CHICAGO, July 16.—Revellers in the Pompeian room of the Auditorium Annex were given something a trifle stronger than highballs tonight when a broad, elderly woman rushed in, and, waving her arms toward the fashionably gowned women, shrieked: "This is a hell hole, and you women have no business here. The men that brought you here ought to be in jail."

It was the irrepressible Carrie Nation. The women dropped their summer drunks, and shrank from the Kansas cyclone.

Stop this drinking right now," yelled Carrie, "or I'll break every table and glass in this place." She had her hatchet in her hand and was waving it threateningly. "Go home," said she to a woman in a peek-a-boo waist, "and put on some clothes. You are naked."

She was stopped at this point by a house detective and was led into the street.

EXPRESSES THANKS

TO THE PEOPLE FOR WORDS OF
SYMPATHY.Widow of The Late Grover Cleveland Issues a Message Through the Press.

PRINCETON, N. J., July 10.—So great has been the number of messages of condolence received by Mrs. Cleveland since the death of the former president that she has found it impossible to make personal response to all of them. Therefore she today gave to the press the following communication in acknowledgment of these messages:

"In our great grief there has come to my children and myself from all over our country and from other lands expressions of condolence in our bereavement and of a partici-

tion in our sorrow. My heart is touched by these and by all the tributes paid to Mr. Cleveland in word and act. I am deeply grateful for the comfort that God gives in this way. I regret that the multitude of all these kind messages renders it impossible for me to send a personal word of thanks for each. The press kindly offered to bear for me this expression of my own and my children's gratitude and appreciation, and I hope it will reach all who have thought of him and of us.

"FRANCIS F. CLEVELAND."

I was never seriously troubled until about nine months ago I was taken with an attack of backache caused I think by strain from over-lifting. I was annoyed a good deal. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, and concluding to give them a trial got a supply. They proved very satisfactory, curing attack in a short time. Sometime later, there were symptoms of a recurrence, and I appealed to Doan's Kidney Pills again. They relieved me in a short time, and they keep my kidneys in excellent condition."

NOT A PARTICLE OF SKIN ON BODY

Worst Case of Eczema Doctor Had Seen in 40 Years—For Six Months Father Expected His Baby to Die—Blood Oozed Out All Over Her Body—Had to Be Wrapped in Silk and Carried on a Pillow—Now She Is Perfectly Cured.

DOCTOR RECOMMENDED
CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My little girl was born two weeks before her time and my wife died four hours after the birth of our child and I had to raise the baby on artificial foods. Six months after birth she broke out and I had two doctors in attendance. There was not a particle of skin left on her body, the blood oozed out just anywhere, and we had to wrap her in silk and carry her on a pillow for ten weeks. She was the most terrible sight I ever saw, and for six months I looked for her to go to her mama, but thank God and his agents, she is alive and well to-day and she will be three years old the seventh of December and has never had a sign of the dread trouble since."

"I used every known remedy to alleviate her suffering for it was terrible to witness. Dr. C. gave her up and then I went to C. F. and got Dr. B. and he and Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment saved her. He recommended the Cuticura Remedies, or said we were right in making use of them. As nearly as I can remember, we used eight cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment; but you must take into consideration that hers was an exceptional case, for an old and good doctor said that it was the worst case that had come to him in forty years. I have always hinged on Cuticura Soap to keep her skin soft and to give her a pure complexion. James J. Smith, Wood and Metal Pattern Maker, Box 234, Buena Vista, Va., Oct. 14 and 22, 1906."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (10¢) to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment (50¢) to heal the skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50¢) to cleanse the blood. Cuticura Pills 25¢, per box of 60, to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Co., Lowell, Mass.

IT SAVED MY LIFE.
WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT.

Bed-Ridden Sufferer Completely
Cured by Use of D. D. D. External Wash.

One of the most remarkable Eczema cures recently credited to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago.

Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of Dec. 9, 1907, writes as follows:

"I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knees and spread fast all over my body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning."

"I had to stay in bed from the middle of May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 9th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life."

"When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would care for me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast and now my skin is clean and white, not a spot anywhere."

Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin brings relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. D. Soap. Get a bottle today if you have any skin disease. Begin your cure at once. For sale by L. L. Elgin.

IS NOW EFFECTIVE

NEW SCHOOL LAW HAS BECOME
OPERATIVE.Election of Trustees Will Be Held
Under It on First Saturday
In August.

The new school law is now in effect, and the first election for trustees thereunder will be the first Saturday in August. The law provides that trustees should be elected by ballot, the same as any other public officers. The names of candidates for trustees get on the ballot by petition from the district, and it is the duty of the chairman of the board of trustees to see that a petition is circulated in his district asking that the name of some particular person whom he selects to appear on the ballot.

County Superintendent Gray hopes that all the people will help in putting this law into operation. The state superintendent has the following to say in a letter to the county superintendent:

"1st. The old cumbersome, inequitable trustee system is as bad as any system in the world. No system could be worse. The witnesses bear testimony entirely abundant."

"2nd. The new school law under the county board offers us a sane progressive system; it is as good as modern school system known to any state in the union."

The principal thing now to be looked after is the selection of trustees, one for every district. These men will elect the members of the county board and the best business men that can be had are desired.

tional committee meets. The labor men held a long consultation at Fairview farm with nominees Bryan and Kern, after which Mr. Gompers issued a statement which is calculated to put the labor vote in the Democratic column in the November election.

Mr. Gompers' statement follows: "We propose to assist to the fullest extent in bringing about the enactment of the Denver platform into law, which means that we will do our level best to secure its ratification by the people. This cannot be done except through the election of the candidates standing upon it. It goes without saying that we are for the candidates as well as the platform."

"Will labor act as a political unit in the campaign?"

"I can answer that question best by saying that in all meetings of the American Federation of Labor its officers were instructed to work for political declarations by both parties on matters in which organized labor is interested. The Republicans turned us down at Chicago, while the Democrats at Denver met us fairly and squarely. The members of the federation have a good idea what they want, and they know by this time who their friends are."

The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Thomas Cummins conducted the service.

HOPKINSVILLE TROOPS PREVENT A LYNCHING

Mob of Masked And Armed Men Invade Russellville And Find That Negro Murderer Has Been Spirited Away.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., July 14.

—Rufus Browder, the negro farm hand who murdered James T. Cunningham, a prominent young farmer, yesterday, was brought back to jail here this morning from the woods, where he was kept hidden during the night to prevent his being lynched.

He was guarded by a detachment of troops from Hopkinsville. The soldiers left here today, and trouble was feared tonight, but this afternoon the negro was taken to Bowling Green for safe keeping.

A mob of about 200 men, armed and masked, came in the city last night for the purpose of lynching Browder, but found that he had been taken secretly from the jail. A message was sent by the authorities to Hopkinsville and a detachment of Company D. was rushed here to aid the local officers in upholding the law.

The murder of Mr. Cunningham occurred near Keysburg, about ten miles from Guthrie. The white man discharged the negro from his employ and was preparing to settle with him. Owing to a slight misunderstanding in regard to how much he owed the negro, Cunningham went to the house to get his book in which accounts with his hands were kept.

During his absence Browder secreted himself in a buggy house and opened fire on his former employer when he returned. Three shots from the negro's revolver struck Cunningham, one in the heart, in the hip and in the leg. Cunningham fell dying to the ground, but as he fell he drew his own revolver and fired at the fleeing negro. One bullet struck Browder in the back, but did not wound him seriously. Cunningham's wife, attracted by the shooting, rushed to her husband, but before he could make any statement he was dead.

Browder escaped, but was discovered that afternoon by a posse of 150 men and turned over to Sheriff Thomas Rhea, of Russellville, who was on the spot.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Petrie, of Fairview, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Annie Mae, to Mr. Vernon Henning Petrie, the marriage to be solemnized on August 19. It has not yet been decided whether it will be a home or a church wedding.

The announcement, says the Elkton Times, will be of interest through out Todd county, as the bride is a social favorite, a young lady of exceptional beauty and accomplishments, with friends and admirers wherever she is known. Mr. Petrie, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Petrie, of Hopkinsville, has for six years held an important government position at Manila, Philippine Islands. He is a young gentleman of splendid character and recognized ability among his associates.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom will leave for San Francisco, and will sail from that city for Manila on August 25 to spend two years in the island metropolis.

Improve Your Premises.

Every person who owns city property, village farm or country home—stead should consider what might be done to improve the looks of the premises. Trim the trees so that the branches will be well balanced all round. Clean up the yards. Free the roadsides of bushes and brush and burn them. Paint the buildings or repair as needed.

"The World" is an excellent periodical and promises to be one of the most successful and influential denominational papers in the country. Dr. Prestridge will remain here about ten days, and his wife will spend the summer.

Heat prostrates the nerves. In the summer one needs a tonic to offset the customary hot weather nerve and strength depression. You will feel better within 48 hours after beginning to take such a remedy as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Its prompt action in restoring the weakened nerves is surprising. Of course you won't get entirely strong in a few days, but each day you can actually feel the improvement. That tired, listless, spiritless feeling will quickly depart when using the Restorative. Dr. Shoop's Restorative will sharpen a failing appetite; it aids digestion; it will strengthen the weakened kidneys and heart by simply rebuilding the worn-out nerves that these organs depend upon. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co. (Incorporated.)

KERN IS BRYAN'S RUNNING MATE

Distinguished Indiana Democrat Gets Second Place on Ticket.—Was Nominated by Acclamation by Great Convention at Denver.

DENVER, COL., July 11.—By acclamation John W. Kern, of Indiana, was nominated for vice-president by the Democratic National convention. This followed the withdrawal of the names of Charles H. Towne, of New York, by himself, and Clark Howell, of Georgia, by Mr. Hill.

Ollie in The Chair.

Ollie James, of Kentucky, was in the chair, the gavel having been yielded to him by Mr. Clayton on account of serious hoarseness. After it was seen that the convention was overwhelmingly for Kern, Connecticut withdrew the names of McNeill and moved that the nomination be made by acclamation.

Nebraska, which had been passed, had been forgotten by the clerk, asked that it be called, and then seconded Kern.

"Gentlemen of the convention," said Mr. James, of Kentucky, who was again in the chair, "you have heard the motion; are you ready for the question?"

"Question" came from all parts of the hall.

Mr. James stated it, and at 4:05 p. m. a roar of "ayes" made John W. Kern, of Indiana, the nominee for vice-president of the Democratic party.

The convention was instantly in great confusion and was brought back to order with difficulty.

A large number of resolutions and motions were offered, and by their adoption the national committee was directed to fill any vacancies that may occur on the national ticket just nominated, and the various state central committees were empowered to fill any vacancy from their state on the national committee.

A motion was passed tendering the thanks of the convention to Thomas Taggart, the retiring chairman of the national committee for his hard work.

All Over.

Other resolutions adopted expressed the thanks of the convention to the city of Denver, because of the manner in which it had entertained the delegates, and to permanent Chairman Clayton and to temporary Chairman Bell for the ability with which they had conducted the sessions of the convention.

Another motion that was adopted with a cheer appointed Mr. Clayton chairman of the committee appointed to notify Mr. Bryan of his nomination, and Mr. Bell chairman of the committee selected to notify Mr. Kern.

Rev. P. T. Ramsey, of Denver, was invited to offer a benediction upon the convention before a motion to adjourn should be put.

Ollie James made the motion to adjourn sine die 4:23 p. m. It was adopted. The crowd made a rush for the doors, and the convention was ended.

The Platform.

Following is the platform as adopted by the Democratic National convention:

We, the representatives of the Democrats of the United States in national convention assembled, reaffirm our belief in and pledge our loyalty to the principles of the party.

We rejoice at the increasing signs of an awakening throughout the country. * * * The conscience of the nation is now aroused to free the government from the grip of those who have made it a business asset of the favor-seeking corporations; it must become again a people's government, and be administered in all its departments according to the Jeffersonian maxim of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

"Shall the people rule?" is the overshadowing issue which manifests itself in all the questions now under discussion.

On Labor and Injunctions.

The courts of justice are bulwark of our liberties, and we yield to none in our purpose to maintain their dignity. * * * It is the function of the courts to interpret the laws which the people create, and if the laws appear to work economic, social or political injustice it is our duty to change them. The only basis upon which the integrity of our courts can stand is that of unswerving justice and protection of life, personal liberty and property. If judicial processes may be abused we should guard them against abuse.

Experience has proven the necessity of a modification of the present law relating to injunctions, and we reiterate the pledge of our national platforms of 1896 and 1904 in favor of the measure which passed the United States senate in 1896, but which a Republican congress has ever since refused to enact; relating to contempt in federal courts and providing for trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt.

Questions of judicial practice have arisen, especially in connection with industrial disputes. We demand that the parties to all judicial proceedings should be treated with rigid impartiality, and that injunctions should not be issued in any cases in which injunctions would not issue if no industrial dispute were involved.

The expanding organization of industry makes it essential that there should be no abridgement of the right of wage earners and producers to organize for the protection of wages and the improvement of labor conditions, to the end that such labor organizations and their members should not be regarded as illegal combinations in restraint of trade.

We favor the eight-hour day on all government work. We pledge the Democratic party to the enactment of a law by congress, as far as the federal jurisdiction extends, for a general employers' liability act, covering injury to body or loss of life of employees. We pledge the Democratic party to the enactment of a law creating a department of labor, represented separately in the president's cabinet, which department shall include the subject of mines and mining.

Immediate Tariff Reduction.

We favor immediate revision of the tariff by reduction of import duties. Articles entering into competition with trust controlled products should be placed upon the free list, and material reduction should be made in the tariff upon the necessities of life, especially upon articles competing with such American manufacturers as are sold abroad more cheaply than at home; and graduated reductions should be made in such other schedules as may be necessary to restore the tariff to a revenue basis. * * * We demand the immediate repeal of the tariff on pulp, print paper, lumber, timber and logs, and that these articles be placed upon the free list.

Publicity as to Campaign Funds.

We demand federal legislation for ever terminating the partnership which has existed between corporations of the country and the Republican party under the expressed or implied agreement that in return for the contribution of great sums of money therewith to purchase election they should be allowed to continue substantially unmolested in their efforts to encroach upon the rights of the people. * * *

In order that this practice shall be stopped for all time, we demand the passage of a statute punishing with imprisonment any officer of a corporation who shall either contribute on behalf of or consent to the contribution by a corporation or any money or thing of value to be used in furthering the election of a president or a vice president of the United States, or any other member of congress thereof. We pledge the Democratic party of the enactment of a law preventing any corporation contributing to a campaign fund and any individual from contributing an amount above a reasonable minimum, and providing for the publication before election of all such contributions.

Other Planks Condensed.

The platform further declares for the abrogation of "Czarism" in the national house of representative; asserts the right of congress to completely control interstate commerce and the right of the states to control that which is intrastate; demands more power for the interstate commerce board, and the physical valuation of the railways; also legislation to compel proper reductions of railway rates; opposes traffic agreements unless approved by the interstate board; demands "home rule for the state, and opposes centralization and also imperialism; denounces congress for its billion dollar appropriations and demands economy in expenditures; charges the Republicans with the panic of last year; favors an emergency currency, issued and controlled by the government, and a guarantee fund to safeguard depositors in banks; favors postal saving banks, and improves

WILL MAKE GLOVES

HOPKINSVILLE GETS A NEW BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

A Cincinnati Man Locates Factory Here And Will Begin Work Right Away.

Hopkinsville is to have a new industry in the form of a glove factory and it promises to be a live factor in the business life of the city. Mr. Meyer, of Cincinnati, who has been in this region investigating the advantages of various cities, has decided to locate in Hopkinsville. He has been a practical manufacturer of gloves and gauntlets for some time in Cincinnati and is confident that he can get as satisfactory results in Hopkinsville as he can in the Ohio city and at a reduced cost in operating his business. He has rented the Boyd property on Liberty street for his factory and expects to begin work right away.

He will open the plant with twelve machines and expects to increase the number to fifty by the end of the year. He will make low price working gloves, and will sell most of his output to jobbers. He has heretofore been unable to fill all his orders. Local merchants who have handled Mr. Meyer's gloves say they give complete satisfaction.

Are You Nervous?

Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on properly nourishing blood; they are starved nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby the nerves are properly nourished and all the organs of the body are run as smoothly as machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and strenuous—you are toned up and invigorated, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting.

The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run greatly injures the system. One may feel exhilarated and better for the time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of it bears upon its wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in a full list of all its several ingredients. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence.

TWO MEN ARE SHOT

NEGRO RUNS AMUCK IN A CARD GAME.

Wounded Another Player and Also a White Man Who Was an Innocent Bystander.

(From Friday's Daily)

At Old Petersburg, in the northern part of Christian county, two men were shot and seriously wounded about ten o'clock last night.

The victims were:
CLAUDE HOLMES, white.
BUD WILHELM, colored.

They were shot by a negro youth named Shanklin.

According to the report which was telephoned to the authorities here, Shanklin and Wilhelm were engaged in a card game. A dispute arose and Shanklin began shooting at Wilhelm, wounding him, and one of the balls struck young Holmes, an innocent bystander.

Both persons are said to be badly wounded.

Shanklin, who is about eighteen years old, has not been arrested.

A Mild Laxative For Baby's Bowels

The infant or the child should not be given salts, purgative waters or harsh pills or tablets when the bowels are constipated, and neither should any medicine be used that contains a narcotic.

It is well for mothers to remember that there is no better, gentler or more effective remedy for children's stomach and bowel troubles than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Its purity and mildness make it especially adapted to young people's use. It works gently but surely, and containing, as it does, many tonic ingredients, it not only cleans out the congested bowels, but tones the system and makes the child feel better in every way.

Among the thousands who are using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is Mrs. Spalding, of Mayfield, Ky., and she writes that she gives it to her baby regularly and that she would not be without it. She has used it herself for a long time and ought to know.

Mothers will find this an invaluable remedy for old and young in constipation, dyspepsia, liver trouble, diarrhea, colic, worms, and the many other ills that afflict the stomach and bowels. It is guaranteed to do what we claim, and by its use a home cure at very little cost is easily brought about.

Children are often troubled with skin diseases, are backward in school, lose weight and do not care to eat or play, when all that is really the matter with them is stomach trouble that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will correct. Go to your druggist today and buy a bottle and see how quickly the child gets well again.

It is a good thing for the whole family to use in stomach, liver and bowel complaints. A 50 cent bottle has often restored an entire family.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying, may have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. ## GOES UP IN SMOKE

MADISONVILLE HAS ANOTHER BIG FIRE LOSS.

Flames of Unknown Origin Destroys Property Valued at $75,000.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., July 10.

—Fire which broke out in Baker's clothing store last night at 11 o'clock destroyed probably $75,000 worth of property. The origin of the blaze is a mystery, when first discovered being confined to a small room on the lower floor of the clothing house.

The fire spread with such rapidity that it was feared for a while that the local department would not be able to cope with it. A message was sent to Evansville asking the fire department for aid but shortly before 1 o'clock it was seen that the Evansville apparatus was not needed and Mayor Vickers telegraphed to Howell to have the firemen turned back.

The Baker firm lost all their stock and the building is a complete loss. The flames spread to Slayton's furniture store, McFarland's drug store, B. L. Rosser's grocery and the Grand Leader dry goods store. However, the employees of the three firms and citizens carried a large part of the stock into the streets and they will suffer little damage outside of the loss to the buildings with the exception of the Slayton and company, whose loss will be quite heavy.

Dr. Blacklock, who has his rooms and offices over the Barker store, was not awakened until the flames had enveloped the building. He made his escape in his night clothes. The same firm suffering damage last night was burned out about two and a half years ago. After that fire brick houses were built.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deep and so insidious. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
