In Kentucky, the second-class matter of the weekly newpaper was produced and delivered to every subscriber. The program highlighted the activities of the Farmers Institute at Bowling Green, and the election notice for the proposed graded common school was also mentioned. The newspaper also reported on various deaths, including one individual who was fatally injured by a C. B. E. exploded in a stable. The story concludes with a reminder to the readers that they can find additional information in the previous issues of the paper.

DEATH PENALTY

Released by the Night Rider Oath.

By Wiley Stewart - The Telegraph

At Maysville the Senate House Pre-

Monday, Aug. 8—William

In light of the recent actions of the Night Riders, many wondered about the fate of the last rider, Senator Chamberlain. His actions caused a great deal of concern, as evidence suggests he may have been involved in some of their activities. The Night Riders, a group dedicated to the protection of the arrangements of the state, have been a source of controversy for some time. Their methods, often violent and unpredictable, have raised questions about their motivations and the broader implications for state politics.

Secretary of State Board of Health Finds Many Things Threatening the Public Health in Hopkinsville

—Point Out Duty of Teachers.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Dr. McCormack's report yesterday's evening's decision that the city should be indicted for the neglect of its sanitary condition was favorably received.

He saw that the city was in a state of great unrest, and the people were suffering from the neglect of the health department. He felt that the city authorities should be held responsible for this neglect, and that immediate steps should be taken to improve the condition.
