MISS PETRIE AND MR. PETRIE ARE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

The wedding of Mr. Vernor H. Petrie, of Fairview, and the hand of Miss Annie Mae Petrie was celebrated Wednesday evening at Fairview. The ceremony was delightfully rendered by Mrs. Crum, at Springfield, Ill. The officiating minister was Rev. O. H. Nelson. The bridal party was filled with friends and relatives. The two young women were accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Henning, of Evansville, Ind. The maid of honor was Misses McKinney, and the ushers were Messrs. R. E. Witt, of Hopkinsville, Ralph and Guy Cook. The wedding march was delicately rendered by Mrs. Stites, at Hopkinsville. The wedding chamber was tastefully decorated in white, and the bride and bridegroom were seen to be perfectly happy. After the ceremony a brief reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, and congratulations were extended. Later this Mr. and Mrs. Petrie came here where they boarded a train for Honolulu, Yokahaina, Shanghai, temporal result of a photograph being taken through his relations in the postal service, due to the intractability in money. The wedding of Mr. Vernor H. Petrie and Miss Annie Mae Petrie, on his return to his home in Manchuria for an extensive bridal trip, was pronounced the vows which linked them.
