Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

The Bank of Murray has made a nice improvement over at its place. Marble has been installed on the front of the building.

We say installed, because it looked like a major operation to get it in place.

The new sidewalk is an improvement too. Sidewalks is an item that we could use a lot of in several places in town. Notice ladies with baby buggies have a whale of a time pushing the buggies, and sometimes they find it to their advantage just to get out in the street where it is smooth.

Karl Warming, the new hospital administrator, broke a bone in his foot the other day playing tennis. His visits around town have been sharply curtailed as a result of it.

The last round of sleeping out has been completed at our house.

Approaching school days will bring new and different problems.

Ruddy Ferguson showed us the new substation on South Fourth street the other day. Even with the scant knowledge we have of electricity, we could see that the station is a marvel of modern engineering.

The "radiators" that cool the coolant in the transformers are cooled off by electric fans that are located at the bottom of the apparatus.

The fans are outdoor fans, and are built to stand most any kind of weather.

The large breakers in the substation that break the circuit when trouble happens, have built in elevators so they can be removed with a minimum of trouble when some fixing is necessary.

Murray has a good crew working at the Electric System and folks here should be proud of the fact that we have men who can understand how to operate and repair such a device.

The interior of the substation is such a mass of wiring, that it looks as though it would confuse anybody.

The three folks who just moved to Murray with Winslow Engineering are fine people, and a good addition to Murray.

They are Mr. Walker, Mr. Pelusi, and Mr. Kern.

We had a demonstration yesterday on the virtues of the Kent cigarettes. The genial demonstrator showed us how much nicotine and tar the Kent retained in the filter and how much the one I was smoking didn't.

We didn't question the correctness of what he wanted to point out, but we couldn't understand how the smoke stayed in the bottom of the two glasses he used. He explained that, and also that the filter was made of some kind of secret stuff that has just been released by the defense officials.

Stores To Be Open On Thursday Afternoon Now

Thursday, August 27 was the last day that local stores will be closed on Thursday afternoon, according to an agreement published earlier in the year.

Most local establishments have been closed on Thursday afternoon during the months of June, July and August.

It is believed that most local stores will be closed on Labor Day, September 7, as they have in the past, however an announcement will be made some time next week as to their intentions.

Mayor Hart Praises Work Of TB Group

Praising the "invaluable work" of the Calloway County Tuberculosis Association in fighting tuberculosis in Murray, Mayor George Hart made public today a formal proclamation calling for 100 percent support of the 1953 X-ray survey. The survey will be conducted in cooperation with the Calloway County Health Center on the Court Square, September 1, 2, 3, 4.

In issuing his proclamation, the Mayor spoke of all the excellent tuberculosis-fighting projects of the association, but singled out the association's health education and case-finding program for special commendation.

Working on a year-round basis, the association makes every effort to get across to the people facts about tuberculosis which help them protect themselves against the disease," the Mayor pointed out.

"Another all-important aid has been the work of the association in trying to help in finding unknown cases of tuberculosis, a measure of the utmost importance in preventing the further spread of this communicable disease."

Revision Of Lord's Prayer Tried By Reds On Soldiers

Freedom Village, Aug. 29 (UP)—Freed American prisoners said today the Chinese tried to make them revise the Lord's Prayer by giving thanks to the Reds instead of God.

They wouldn't let us hold religious services and banned the Lord's prayer because we thank God for our daily bread," Pfc. Richard Perez of San Jose, Calif., said.

"They wanted us to say, 'We thank the Chinese for our daily bread,'" Cpl. Lew Geisendorfer, 25, of Denver, Colo., said.

Geisendorfer said he conducted religious services three Sundays, but on the fourth Sunday "they clamped down."

"I wanted to give a sermon on 'The Satisfied Man,' but they said there was no such thing," Geisendorfer said.

Another returning American said the Reds put him in solitary confinement and gave him two months of hard labor for maintaining his faith in God.

Master Sgt. Calvin C. Creeson, 28, of Winston-Salem, N. C., said he once was imprisoned for openly showing his spiritual devotion.

"In my room I printed a religious verse and put it on the wall," Creeson said. "The Chinese accused me of fomenting bad feeling between prisoners and the Chinese."

Creeson's verse said: "Be strong and of good courage, 'Be not afraid, 'Neither be thou discouraged, 'For the Lord thy God is with thee, 'Whither thou goest."

More Reds Are Sought

San Francisco, Aug. 29 (UP)—FBI agents swarmed around the plush mountain hideout of two captured Communist Party leaders today and announced they hope to make "at least one more arrest" in the case.

Investigators were hard at work questioning residents of the High Sierra areas where top Reds Roger G. Thompson and Sidney Steinberg were caught in a well-laid trap.

The FBI said it was combing the hideout area for new clues concerning an alleged intricate Red underground.

Agents also sought the owner of one of two cars parked at the hideaway near Sycamore, Calif.

Three other persons were arrested Thursday in the same roundup that snared Thompson and Steinberg.

A noted Communist lawyer said he had been retained to defend Steinberg and the three minor prisoners, Carl E. Rasi, Samuel M. Coleman, and Mrs. Shirley Kremen.

The attorney, Richard Gladstein, was counsel for Thompson and first-ranking Communist Gus Hall in their New York Smith Act trial in 1948. He also defended four of seven Communists recently convicted of conspiracy in Honolulu.

Gladstein said he had been retained to defend Steinberg, only at local removal hearings set for Monday, Steinberg, New York party functionary who disappeared before his trial in 1948, was being held here on $100,000 bail.

Rasi, Coleman and Mrs. Freeman, charged with harboring fugitives, were held on $35,000 bail.

Thompson, the biggest catch in the dramatic mountain raid, was in Alcatraz Prison in San Francisco Bay starting the three-year sentence he received "when convicted of conspiracy in 1948."

FBI agents at the hideout found a shabby looking cabin on the outside, but a comfortably outfitted retreat on the inside.

The Reds were holed up in a two-story, knotty pine paneled house equipped with a powerful television receiver, comfortable lounge chairs, a ping-pong table, and a makeshift bar. They were believed to have lived there since last June.

Enrollment At Schools And Colleges Expected To Rise This Fall As Korea Vets Register

By THOMAS GRAY
United Press Staff Correspondent

Louisville, (UP)—Enrollments at most Kentucky colleges are expected to rise this fall, with the number of Korean veterans more than doubling, a United Press survey showed today.

But while college officials are optimistic about higher enrollments, they do not expect the same high ratio of veterans which flocked to colleges after World War II, necessitating larger facilities and staffs.

Veterans administration officials here said that 5,428 Korean veterans in Kentucky had been approved eligible for college training by last July 31. A total of 36,017 veterans had received eligibility ratings by July 3, 1949, after World War II.

Enrollment of Korean veterans at the University of Kentucky where 1,982 veterans were enrolled in the 1952-53 school year is expected to rise sharply this fall. Officials expect total enrollment to rise by 1-1 1/2 per cent at Kentucky.

Registrar John Houchens at the University of Louisville expects enrollment of Korean Veterans to rise to 300 this fall. A total of 164 veterans were enrolled last fall.

Officials at Eastern State College said 72 Korean veterans are enrolled last semester and that the figure is expected to reach 150 this fall.

Enrollment of veterans is expected to reach 50 at Murray State College this year. A total of 23,000 veterans during the 1952-53 school year and expected enrollment this fall were: Morehead State, 51; 40; Kentucky Wesleyan, 11; 30; Centre, 6; 26; and Berea, 9; 12.

Ralph H. Woods, president of Murray State College, said the return of Korean veterans is beginning to fill in the decrease in enrollment felt at the outset of the Korean War. But Woods added that he does not expect a "boom" in veteran enrollment in the immediate future.

While enrollment at most Kentucky colleges will be higher in September than last fall it won't approach record enrollments set after World War II.

Enrollment at Murray, Eastern Morehead State Colleges and Berea and Kentucky Wesleyan showed an increase last fall. But records indicated that enrollment at the University of Louisville, the University of Kentucky and Centre continued a decline last fall which began after 1948.

Enrollment at most Kentucky colleges had doubled last fall as compared to the number of students enrolled in the fall semester of 1948.

Because of differences in public law 346 and the present GI bill Public Law 550, more Korean veterans are expected to attend state colleges this fall than private institutions.

Veterans do not receive a subsistence allowance under the present law and must pay their tuition, fees and cost of books, out of their monthly check from the Veterans Administration.

V. A. officials said payments under the bill range from $110 to $135 monthly according to the number of dependents the veteran has.

Under the World War II GI Bill of Rights, veterans received a monthly living expense. The cost of tuition, books and fees were paid directly to the college.

This makes the problem of meeting living expenses a major one for the veteran enrolled in a private college where tuition is often higher than state colleges. Centre College, a private school offers $250 per year scholarships to Korean veterans.

Morehead State College President Charles R. Spain said "in my opinion it is sound to pay the veteran directly and let him choose his own institution."

Enrollment at most Kentucky colleges is expected to be heavier this fall in the Commerce Department with students taking teacher training and education courses second.

Officials at Kentucky Wesleyan said that most Korean veterans sign up for business administration courses. At the University of Kentucky, officials said, largest enrollment in the Arts and Sciences Colleges is usually in the English Department.

Berea report heaviest enrollment is in the Department of Agriculture, with the largest increase during the past 10 years in the department of education.

College this year. A total of 23,000 veterans during the 1952-53 school year and expected enrollment this fall were: Morehead State, 51; 40; Kentucky Wesleyan, 11; 30; Centre, 6; 26; and Berea, 9; 12.

Moonshiners Are Found In Graves

Paducah, Aug. 29 (UP)—Two convicted moonshiners and a third West Kentucky man faced charges of moonshining today following a raid on a Graves County still Thursday night.

The federal agents arrested Harker McCurrie, retired Paducah bar owner, Charles Chambers, 30, and his brother, Wesley Chambers, 33.

The three were arrested in Graves County near Boaz, in what federal agents termed the biggest haul west of the Tennessee River in nearly 20 years.

A total of 550 gallons of moonshine and a 200 gallon copper still were destroyed. The Chambers brothers, formerly from the Golden Pond area of Trigg County, have prior convictions of moonshining on their records, according to Federal Investigator Dewey Harrison.

Berea report heaviest enrollment is in the Department of Agriculture, with the largest increase during the past 10 years in the department of education.

College this year. A total of 23,000 veterans during the 1952-53 school year and expected enrollment this fall were: Morehead State, 51; 40; Kentucky Wesleyan, 11; 30; Centre, 6; 26; and Berea, 9; 12.

Tentative Contract Agreed On Yesterday By Company-Union

Members of the CIO-UAW met this morning at 10:00 o'clock to discuss a tentative contract that was drawn up yesterday by representatives of the Murray Manufacturing Company and the Union.

The meeting is being held at the Court House in the Circuit Court Room.

The representatives of the company and the union met yesterday at the college from 9:00 a. m. until 4:00 p. m. Terms of the contract were discussed and language was written into the contract.

Verne Kyle, plant head, said that the entire meeting was taken up with the discussion of points that had been discussed before and some had been rejected by the union.

Agreements were reached on the language that was to go into the tentative contract. It was also understood that the union would cast a secret ballot this morning to accept or reject the contract.

10,000th PW Released By Communists

By LEROY HANSEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Panmunjon, Korea, (UP)—The Communists released their 10,000th prisoner today and among the 141 Americans freed was possibly the first U. S. soldier captured in the Korean war.

In addition to the Americans, the Reds turned loose 250 South Koreans, three Turks and two Austrians in the 25th day of "Operation Big Switch."

The Allies, in turn, repatriated 2,400 Communist prisoners.

If the Communists continue releasing prisoners at the present rate, the last man will walk through Freedom Gate next Friday.

He probably will be Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, their highest ranking captive.

Prisoners returning to freedom Friday reported that Dean was being held at nearby Kaesong. It was believed Dean asked to be repatriated last in a gesture toward prisoners of lesser rank.

Master Sgt. Marlin Strahan of Pontiac, Mich., climbed down from a Russian truck and told newsmen at Freedom Gate he believed he was the first American taken prisoner by the North Koreans.

Strahan said he was captured July 5, 1950, four days after the first ground forces landed in Korea.

He said the North Koreans took the first group of captives to Seoul and then marched them north to Pyongyang where more prisoners were picked up.

"We had GI's and civilians by then," Strahan said. "There were Russian, American, French, British, Turkish, German and Irish civilians with us. We even had four French nuns along."

Strahan said the prisoners were turned over on Oct. 31, 1950 to the "Korean Gestapo" headed by the notorious North Korean sadist known as the "Tiger."

Strahan told the now familiar story of the "Tiger" killing a lieutenant because some of the men on the "death march" were sick.

Cpl. Steven Gavula of 500 W. Pine St., Mahanoy City, Pa., said he saw the "Tiger" snarl "only once."

"That was when his wife and small child paid him a visit near Kosan, on the Yalu," Gavula said.

As the latest group of prisoners gained their freedom, the Navy transport Marine Phoenix sailed from Inchon with 374 homeward-bound former American captives of the Reds.

The Phoenix was the fifth "freedom ship" to leave Inchon harbor with former prisoners. It is due to arrive in San Francisco in 14 days.

McCarthy Will Continue Fight Against Commies

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 29 (UP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy has vowed not to "lay off" his attacks on Communism as long as he is in the Senate.

McCarthy, who he had been asked "not to embarrass the administration," promised Friday that his investigations of Communism and corruption would proceed unchanged.

The Wisconsin Republican, addressed an American Legion meeting of the Legion's Committee on National Security, said, "As long as I'm in the United States Senate I'll guarantee there will be no protection for Communism, corruption or treason."

Wearing a legion uniform, McCarthy spoke before several hundred people at the meeting which was open to the public.

He praised the Eisenhower administration and the State Department for improving security systems, but said some Republican members of Congress had asked him to "lay off" now that we are in power.

McCarthy was not scheduled to address the four day annual convention which opens officially Monday. He took a plane back to Washington immediately after his brief talk.

DAR and UDC Chapters Of Murray Are Historical In Organization and Purpose

By Jo Burkeen

Two women's organizations in the City of Murray organized due to events in history are the Daughters of the American Revolution and the J. N. Williams Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Each of these groups meet monthly from September to June. Miss Mildred Hatcher is regent of the DAR while Mrs. W. P. Roberts is president of the UDC.

UDC Organization
According to the "History of Calloway County" printed in 1901, the UDC chapter was organized on May 4, 1904, at the home of Mrs. Effie Gatlin by Mrs. W. S. Swann and Mrs. Annie Schroeder, who were then members of the Paducah chapter.

The charter members were Miss Eunice Oury, Mrs. Ambie Conner, Miss Roseanna Williams, Mrs. Annie Schroeder, Mrs. W. S. Swann, Miss Alice Boyd, Mrs. Mary E. Williams and Mrs. Mable Shipley.

The chapter was named for J. N. Williams, commander of the H. B. Lyon Camp, U.C.V., a former citizen of this community. The brave soldier for whom this chapter was named was wounded on the field of Gettysburg, losing his arm as a result of the wound. He was one of the outstanding citizens of Murray throughout his life having served the people both in a business and public capacity for many years. He was honored with a commission as Colonel of the staff of General Bennett H. Harrison.

DAR Organization
The DAR preliminary organization took place in September, 1947, in the home of Mrs. W. S. Swann with the hostess being Mrs. W. S. Swann. The chapter was recognized by the national headquarters in Washington, D.C., in April 1948, according to Mrs. Price Doyle, present historian.

Charter members present at the first official meeting in April 1948 were Mrs. W. S. Swann, regent; Mrs. W. E. Blackburn, Mrs. E. E. Beale, Mrs. Price Doyle, Misses Beatrice and Bernice Frye, Mrs. P. A. Hart, Miss Helen Hatcher, Mrs. Stephen Visher, Mrs. Cleo G. Hester, Mrs. D. F. McConnell, Mrs. J. D. Peterson, Mrs. W. S. Roberts, Mrs. J. D. Rowlett, Mrs. Frances Taylor Watson, Mrs. P. West and Mrs. R. H. Woods. The following June Mrs. Leon Grogan became a member.

The chapter was named for Captain Wendell Oury who served in the Revolutionary war from Pennsylvania. He later, with his family, moved to Virginia. He is an ancestor of Mrs. W. S. Swann and the late Mrs. H. P. West.

Objectives
To keep alive the history of the south—the main purpose of the Daughters of the American Revolution is to preserve the history of the south and educational club. The chapter has taken an active part in the civic and community life of Murray. One of its outstanding deeds was the erection of a monument to the Confederacy's honor in the northeast corner of the Calloway County Court Yard.

The DAR objectives are: To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence in the Revolutionary War; to carry out the injunction of George Washington in his farewell address to the American people when he said "to promote as a subject of primary importance institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge"; to cherish, maintain and expand the institutions of American freedom; to foster true patriotism and love of country and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty.

Mrs. Doyle said the National DAR is probably the largest women's organization in this country. One of the main projects of the local chapter is the conservation and preservation of local ancestral records including old Bible, cemetery and court records.

Charters Officers
The 1953-54 officers for the J. N. Williams chapter are Mrs. W. P. Roberts, president; Mrs. E. S. Ferguson, first vice-president; Mrs. E. A. Lassiter, second vice-president; Mrs. Grady Miller, treasurer; Mrs. D. F. McConnell, recording secretary; Mrs. A. F. Dorn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Henry Elliott, registrar; Mrs. Fred Gingles, historian.

Those serving in the various offices for the 1953-54 in the Captain Wendell Oury chapter are Miss Mildred Hatcher, regent; Mrs. W. E. Blackburn, second vice-regent; Mrs. Leon Grogan, recording secretary; Mrs. George Hart, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Foreman Graham, treasurer; Mrs. P. A. Hart, registrar; Mrs. Cleo G. Hester, librarian; Mrs. Henry Elliott, chaplain; Mrs. Price Doyle, historian.
