WEEKLY NEW ERA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1908

VOLUME XXVII, NO 38

MUCH INTEREST IN THE REGISTRATION

PROBABLY HEAVIEST THAT CITY HAS EVER HAD.

ONE PRECINCT UNREPORTED

Nearly 1800 Citizens Qualified to Cast Their Ballots in The November Election.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The registration in Hopkinsville yesterday showed a big total increase over last year. Under the new law Hopkinsville is the only town in the county in which the voters are required to register, this requirement being abolished with reference to all towns below fourth class. Gracely, LaFayette, Crofton, and Fairview, therefore, did have to go through with this formality this year.

One precinct is unreported in town, this being precinct No 2. Last year this precinct showed a total registration of 385 of which 53 were Democrats, 284 were Republicans and 48 were Independent. It is said that the registration at this precinct this year shows a big increase. Leaving out this precinct the total registration shows 1,331; with this precinct estimated it is sure that the total figures will come very near the eighteen hundred mark, which is about high water mark for the first day. All voters who were out of town yesterday or were prevented by sickness of themselves or a member of their families from registering will be allowed to qualify at the supplemental days.

NOMINEES ON STUMP LIST OF SPEAKING APPOINTMENTS ARE ANNOUNCED.

SOCIETY OF EQUITY SUMMONED BEFORE GRAND JURY

H. C. Helsley is Again President.—Satisfactory Report on Condition of The Organization.

At a meeting of the Christian county branch of the Society of Equity which was held at Bald Knob last Saturday, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

H. C. Helsley, president.
J. Peyton Lyle, vice-president.
Foster B. McCown, secretary.
John Jackson, county organizer.

President Helsley was chosen as representative to the meeting of the Union Tobacco Society in Louisville. John Rice was named as first alternate and O. M. Wilson as second alternate. The board of graders was made up by the selection of J. M. Carley, J. A. Utley, Jesse Bass and J. P. Lyle.

The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and all the reports made were most satisfactory, showing the society to be in excellent shape.

Official warehousemen and salesman, H. H. Abernathy, reported that there were only a few hogsheds of the 1907 crop of tobacco yet unsold and that while sales were light each week all would probably be sold very soon. He also made the pleasing announcement that he had already made arrangements for financing the 1908 crop.

The Majestic Mfg. Co., of St. Louis, Mo., will have a man at our store all next week who will show you how to bake biscuits, brown top and bottom, in three minutes. Don't miss this chance of seeing the great cooking wonder.

We Guarantee Parisian Sage to Cure
Dandruff, Stop Falling or Itching of The Scalp, in Two Weeks, or Money Back.—Giroux
Mfg. Co., Sole American Makers of Parisian Sage.

The above is an offer we are most proud to make. It is an offer that no man or woman need be ashamed to accept. Parisian Sage is the quickest acting and most rejuvenating hair restorer in the world.

Its magical qualities have made it famous wherever it has been introduced.

It is the only hair restorer sold with an absolute guarantee to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching of the scalp. It cures dandruff by killing the germs, and it kills them so promptly that the most skeptical give it their warmest praise.

But Parisian Sage is more than a cure for dandruff—it will make hair grow on any head where the hair bulb is not altogether dead.

And we want every reader of the New Era to know that Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world. It is so pleasant to use, and its effect is so invigorating and refreshing, that it pleases everybody.

And to the ladies we wish to emphasize the fact that Parisian Sage is the only hair tonic in the world guaranteed to make the hair grow luxuriant, soft and beautiful.

The girl with the Auburn hair is on the outside package of every bottle of Parisian Sage. Cook & Higgins sells it for 50 cents a large bottle, or you can get it direct, all express charges prepaid, from Giroux

ARE COUNTY JUDGES FOR NAT-URALIZING FOREIGNERS

County judges in Kentucky are going merrily on naturalizing foreigners as citizens of the United States, when as a matter of law, they have no more power to do so than any private citizen. Judge Walter Evans emphasized this fact in the federal court today when the application of J. A. Habek, of Paducah for naturalization papers was not decided because he had not himself signed the application, his lawyer having attended to that essentially, says the Louisville Times.

Judge George Du Ruelle, United States district attorney, said today that by the act of 1906, all power to naturalize foreigners was removed from state officers and courts, and delegated to the federal court. But Kentucky county judges seem not to have heard of the law, and they continue to naturalize foreigners. As a result the foreigner has double time and expense in getting his citizenship.

In McCracken county alone, it is said there is a whole colony of foreigners, who are exercising the right of citizens on the strength of the judge's naturalization process, whereas they are not citizens and will not be until the federal court has passed upon their applications.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause.
Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers, is effective in a moment, pleasantly delightful, gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.
If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a cure, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the blood pressure.
Brush your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does, it's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.
We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

LIGHT FINGERED GENTRY GOT

Several Persons Were Victims of Pickpockets in the Great Crowds
On Show Day.

From Friday's Daily

Pickpockets, whether foreign or local artists is not known, got in their work here yesterday. Bill Thompson, who lives north of town, lost $70. Mr. Quarles, of this city, is minus $20 and J. F. Barnett was a third victim to the tune of $19. In every instance the money was taken from the pocket without the clothing being cut. Mr. Barnett stated to the police that he was robbed while inside the side show tent. The other two were mingling with the crowd when they were "touched."

It is also reported that the residence of Tony Datillo was robbed yesterday and some money was taken.
The police report that the day, notwithstanding the record breaking crowd that was in town, was very quiet. All told they made about twenty arrests and these were all for minor offenses. The chief trouble the police had was in keeping the crowd from blockading traffic and despite the fact that there were a large number of extra policemen and all used every effort, this happened frequently.

depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the

Here's Hopkinsville testimony:
"Mrs. Francis Brown, 4 Fourth St.
Cor. Mechanic St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: 'There is no doubt about Doan's Kidney Pills being all that is claimed for them and you are at liberty to use my name in defense of the statement. I was annoyed for years with backache which came on by spells especially when I contracted a cold. About four years ago I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills, procuring them at Thomas & Trahern's drug store, now conducted by L. A. Johnson & Co. I was not disappointed with the results obtained. After taking a dose or two of the remedy
I knew that it was acting directly on my kidneys and in a short time the trouble ceased. During the past four years I have appealed to Doan's Kidney pills some six or seven times when having slight attacks of my former complaint and I can candidly state that in each case I have been given quick and lasting relief.
Mr. Brown has also used them with equally good results. We both think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills and always keep them in the house.'

Son of Rev. Virgil Elgin, Passes Away on The Threshold of Manhood.

Julian Elgin, son of Rev. Virgil
Elgin, of the Methodist church, died at Hartford, Thursday morning of consumption. The young man developed the disease about a year ago, but the actual wasting away did not make itself apparent until last February, since which time he has grown rapidly worse. Recently his condition was regarded as better, and his father went to Owensboro to attend conference. Yesterday morning he suffered a hemorrhage and died in a few minutes.
The body was brought here for burial, arriving at 5:40 yesterday afternoon. It was carried to the residence of George W. Elgin where it rested until this morning at 10:30 when funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. O. Smithson, of Hartford, and interment took place in Riverside cemetery.
The young man was twenty-four years of age, and was the second child of his parents. He was a most exemplary young man and a Christian in word and deed. He was related to the various members of the Elgin family in this city and county.

DUFFY AND HOWELL

DISCUSS ISSUES OF PRESENT CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of Bryan and Kern Club the Occasion of Strong Political Appeals.

(From Saturday's Daily)

The features of the meeting of the Bryan and Kern club, at the court house Friday night, were the excellent speeches on national issues delivered by Messrs. John C. Duffy and W. R. Howell.

President J. T. Hanbery was in the chair and, before introducing the orators of the occasion, "opened the doors of the club," as he expressed it, for the reception of new members. A number of citizens, both from Hopkinsville and the county precincts, paid their 50 cent fee and were duly enrolled.

Judge Hanbery brought words of cheer and enthusiasm from the Democratic state headquarters at Louisville, which he had just visited, and he predicted a great Democratic victory in the state at the November election.

Mr. Duffy was the first speaker and he very ably discussed Democratic principles, going back to the fundamentals on which the Democratic and Republican parties originally were divided, centralized government and rule of the people. He showed that the great commercial octopus of the country were back of the Republican party, and that the unwillingness of the G. O. P. to publish campaign contributions before the election was from their dread of the people knowing the trusts were furnishing their financial munitions. He told of the Republican belief in government, by injunctions, that Taft was the "father of injunctions," and that this policy grew out of distrust of the great common people. He praised the Democratic plank for the election of United States senators by direct vote and said such a law would relegate Aldrich, Dewey, Platt, Scott and men of that ilk to the oblivion they deserve. He described the forcing of Taft on the party by Roosevelt and said it was the most dangerous and undignified precedent ever set by a president. His exposition of the tariff question was particularly fine, and in conclusion he convincingly defended the Democratic idea of the guarantee of bank deposits.

Mr. Howell was in his old-time form, and demonstrated that Cincinnati was as much at home in the forum as at the plow. He wore his hickory shirt but store clothes, and he expounded Democratic doctrines with characteristic eloquence. What the party need at this time, he said, was exhortation, and he made a rousing appeal for every Democrat to do his duty, to work as well as vote for Democratic success. The main issue in the present campaign, he made it plain, was sincerity. Both the parties claimed to be trust busters and to want the tariff revised. But the Democrats were in earnest and the Republicans were hypocrites. His arraignment of the Republicans for their insincerity was biting in its sarcasm. The greatest calamity that could befall the American people, he declared, would be the defeat of Bryan. He pointed proudly to the fact that the great Democratic leaders of old, like Carlisle, Lindsay, Hill and Harmon, were valiantly championing Bryan and Denver platform, and any man claiming to be a Democrat who refuses to support the nominees must be either dishonest or ignorant. "Democrats, go to work," was his parting admonition.

The club will meet again next Friday night.

To quickly dispense a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere a clever Candy Cold Cure Tablet called Preventics. Preventics are also fine for feverish children. Take Preventics at the sneeze stage to herd off colds. Box of 48-25c. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., incorporated.

OCTOBER!

Fields of plumed golden-rod and asters blue,
With rays of dazzling sunlight sifting through;
A clean bubbling streamlet singing a song—

A lullaby sweet as it flows along
To the red and yellow leaves that softly fall
On its bosom like shattered rose leaves. Trough all;

The wind, God's breath, steals laden with love for his own;
And I think of the words of my little one,

Who looked up with eyes full of faith and said,
"God kissed the green leaves and made them turn red."

Go to the blood, if you are to drive out rheumatism. A Wisconsin physician, Dr. Shoop, does this with his Rheumatic Remedy, and with seeming success. Because of this principle, Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy is perhaps the most popular in existence. It goes by word of mouth from one to another, everywhere. Grateful patients gladly spread results. BY NIGHT RIDERS

HOME OF LYON COUNTY MAN IS VISITED

He Escaped Through Window, After Being Fired at.—Protected By The Soldiers.

KUTTAWA, Ky., Oct. 6.—Although soldiers were camped within a few miles of the scene of their visitation about twenty Night Riders called at the home of Clifton Osburn, a farmer residing between the rivers in Lyon county, shortly after 12 o'clock at night. Osburn escaped by a back window and the riders failed to carry out their purpose.

The object of their visit is not clearly understood but there are rumors that they had some grievance against Osburn. The band entered the hall of his home, and kicking on the door demanded that he come out. Osburn opened the door and seeing the men with guns drawn he quickly slammed the door shut and went to a rear window and jumped out. Suspecting that he had gone out the back way the riders run out of the house. Seeing him fleeing from the house they fired several shots after him but none took effect.

Osburn went to the home of a neighbor about a mile and a half away, where he secured clothes, and then went to the soldier's camp at Star Line Works, which is about six miles from his home. The name of the neighbor who gave him the clothes could not be learned, but it is reliably stated that his son is under indictment for participation in the Birmingham raid in Marshall county. That son was not at home that night and the father could not give an account of him.

The soldiers with a blood hound went to Osburn's home, where the dog took the trail of the riders and traced them to a point where they left their horses. The dog could trail them no farther.

This is the first time that the riders have bothered Osburn and he is preparing to sell his farm and leave the state. He is still with the soldiers and his wife and two children are with her father. Osburn is afraid that he will be done bodily harm if he remains in this section.

KENTUCKY GOVERNOR ON THE NIGHT RIDERS

Addresses Probably Greatest Crowd That Ever Assembled at the Tabernacle....Rather Remarkable Demonstration.

SPOKE ON POLITICAL ISSUES BUT BRIEFLY

GOV. A. E. WILLSON.

"This is a wonderful meeting," said Gov. Willson in opening his address at the Tabernacle Monday afternoon, "and I take it to mean that western Kentucky wishes to say to all the world that it stands for law and order."

It was a wonderful meeting; and it was quite true that the great majority of the enormous assemblage had not gathered to hear politics discussed. The governor felt that, too, and devoted a very brief time to talking about strictly campaign issues. Indeed, his exposition of political issues seemed rather labored and half-hearted.

From the Shoulder.

But vim and vigor and earnestness characterized his speech on the Night Rider situation. He struck straight out from the shoulder, and the crowd applauded him to the echo. At the conclusion, the demonstration was remarkable, and the rush of citizens to shake his hand and congratulate him on his stand against lawlessness was almost suffocating.

Great Audience.

The audience was probably the largest that ever gathered in the tabernacle. Every bench was packed, and people stood around the walls, in the aisles and windows and hundreds did not secure admission into the big building. Later in the afternoon the governor addressed an overflow meeting of several hundred at the courthouse. People were here not only from every part of the county, but from surrounding counties and from Clarksville and Montgomery county, Tenn.

Governor Sings.

Lebkuecher's brass band furnished inspiring music, and at the conclusion of the speech, the governor, who has a good voice, joined in "My Old Kentucky Home," adding a picturesque feature to the occasion. Gov. Willson was introduced by the Hon. John Feland, and was greeted by cheers.

"Heart to Heart"

He stated in the outset he had no set speech prepared—that he never prepared a speech for the reason that he would forget it in five minutes and branch off from it—but that he was simply going to talk to the people heart to heart; and this is what he did, eschewing all attempts at oratory and adopting almost a conversational tone. He also declared that he did not think it was a part of a governor's business to come to a people and attempt to tell them how they should be governed along party lines, but that when it came to matter of affairs of the state it was his business to discuss them with the people, and this was what he intended to do. Following out this idea, he only referred in a general way to politics, and then at no great length, but returned to the subject which seemed to be next his heart.

Purpose of Law.

As a foundation for his speech Gov. Willson outlined the purposes of the law, which, he said, was the sole guarantee of a citizen in his rights, and pointed out that it was designed for the protection of the most humble tenant as much as for the richest man; that it was the bulwark of our liberties, and without it there could be neither liberty, peace nor happiness. He declared that observance of the law was more necessary in the country districts than it was in the towns; that in the former families were more or less isolated and dependent almost entirely upon themselves in case of trouble, while in town assistance was always at hand. He decried crime of every kind, but organized crime especially as being more dangerous and difficult to stamp out than where only one person was involved. Intimidation and violence, he said, were instruments of barbarity, wickedness and sin, and never of good.

Playing Politics.

He charged that the continued growth of night riding was due to the fearfulness and playing of politics by the officials who were in position to put a stop to it in its incipency.

The governor said that the very beginning of his administration followed the raid on Hopkinsville. He had sent soldiers here in response to many urgent pleas. He praised the work of the soldiers and said they were not alien troops, as some speakers seemed to think, but splendid young Kentucky boys, who had patriotically and nobly undergone hardships without number in performing their duty. In using soldiers he was but striving to protect life and liberty, and his best efforts had been given to protect the farmers. He believed, and knew, that nine out of ten of the people of Kentucky stood firmly for law and order.

Tribute to Farmers.

He paid a glowing tribute to farmers, stating that they were the backbone of Kentucky citizenship. He said that he knew that his election as governor was due to the stand which the farmers had taken in his behalf. He was not their enemy, but they had no truer friend. He praised them for organizing to fight the tobacco trust and said that had he been a farmer and a sufferer, from the oppressions of the trust, as he was sure the farmers had suffered, he would have been one of the first to get up an organization for their relief and have stuck to it so long as it waged its fight within the law; but in the event that it encouraged or advised lawlessness he would be the first to repudiate it. Along this line he denied the widely circulated interview in which it was alleged he had maligned the farmers, and said he was misquoted by a Washington reporter who used the story after he had stated it was wholly untrue.

Not Trust Attorney.

Regarding the report that he was an attorney for the tobacco trust, he stated that he had only represented them at one time in three small cases and he lost one of those. That had been the extent of his "connection with the trust." He declared that he was in favor of the prosecution of trust for any violation of law, but pointed out that in his capacity as governor he had not opportunity to wage a prosecution, but this was the duty of the commonwealth and prosecuting attorneys of the state. He advised such prosecution wherever possible and stated that there would be as much chance for convicted trust to receive a pardon at his hands as it would be for a Night Rider to receive clemency, and strongly intimated that the latter was practically one of the impossibilities.

State of Terror.

He described the condition of terror in which people in some regions had lived since the Night Rider outrages, how thousands of people had left Kentucky and property had depreciated. He praised the organization of Law and Order leagues.

"Some of you in this audience," said the governor, "have heard the Night Rider 'General' say that he had 88,000 members in the band." The governor said that there were only eight or nine thousand. He denounced their crime in confederating as treason. They were, he said, breaking up, and the evidence already secured would work in a way that would beat any patent medicine that had been invented.

He declared that he knew "the 'General' the Colonel" and the whole outfit, and that there was no statute of limitation for felony.

Disguised as Negroes.

As a sign of the times, he said that a certain person who for years had worn a beard had shaved it off and was at Princeton recently disguised as a negro woman.

He called on the people to organize for protection and the enforcement of law; that soldiers could not be kept always, and the first thing some of the counties knew soldiers would be withdrawn from their confines.

He had never sent, he said, soldiers anywhere they were not needed and then only as many as were actually necessary.

As to a Pardon.

He denied that he had offered a general pardon for the killing of a person thought to be a Night Rider, but that he had distinctly stated that such a killing would be at the peril of the man who fired the weapon. He had said, however, that whoever killed in the defense of his home he would protect, and that he had the power to do so, and that if the assailant was masked no further inquiry need be made.

Gov. Willson said that Congressman Stanley could make glib speeches for law and order when stenographers were present, but there were persons in the audience who knew that he had made another sort when he knew they would not be reported in the newspapers. He appealed to the voters to support Worsham for congress and Prowse for county judge in the interest of law and order.

Gov. Willson touched but lightly on national politics.

In closing his speech he said: "A man came to me this morning—and he was a good man too, and said, 'My house has been burned down; don't you think I had better take my family and my business and go across the river to a state where a man is safe?' and I said, 'Don't you do it; you are a Kentuckian; stand on your birthright.' I have kept trusting in Providence and believe in Kentucky manhood and good sense; I believe in the Lord and the right against the devil and the wrong. I know things are going to come right, and so do you. It is in my heart, it is in yours. Let us go forward with a new hope, with a new determination that we will bring Kentucky to the front of the procession of the United States of America. Oh, my neighbors, I cannot tell you how this reception has touched my heart. I cannot tell you how I have felt about the great trust you have imposed in me. I have talked to you until you are almost blue and I am just going to thank you and to wish you good luck, prosperity and happiness and—goodbye."

JURY IS COMPLETED

AND THE TAKING OF TESTIMONY IS BEGUN.

First Witness in Winfree Case Is Mrs.
Hord, Widow of the Dead
Policeman.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

The jury in the case of W. P. Winfree, Jr., was completed this morning with the acceptance of three men. The jury is composed of—Thompson Cavanaugh, J. H. Johnson, Carl Long, J. West, W. S. Henderson, Jim McKinney, J. G. Yancey, J. A. White, F. A. Yancey, G. M. Lacey, J. B. Anderson and A. B. Johnson. The work of impaneling the jury was begun Saturday, when seven men were accepted. Monday two more were added and the list was completed this morning.

The first witness introduced was Mrs. Hord, the widow of the dead officer. She testified to statements her husband had made before his death. Dr. R. L. Woodard described the condition of Policeman Hord when he reached him at Underwood's coal office after the shooting and the nature of the wounds.

There are quite a number of witnesses to be examined upon each side and the trial will probably consume two or three days.

(From Saturday's Daily)

The case of W. P. Winfree, Jr., charged with the murder of Policeman Charles Hord, was taken up in circuit court this morning. Both sides announced ready, and the impaneling of the jury is in progress. Congressman A. O. Stanley, who was chief counsel for the defense at the former trial, will probably not be in the case, owing to his being busy prosecuting his canvas for reelection. The defense is represented by C. H. Bush, Joe McCarroll, W. P. Winfree, Sr., and John Feland. The prosecution is being conducted by Commonwealth Attorney Smith and City Attorney Knight. At the trial of this case at the last term of court the jury was unable to agree.

The case of Gano Warder, or Waters as it appears on the court records charged with being implicated in the Hopkinsville raid, was called yesterday but upon the statement of the prosecution that they had learned of new and important evidence to their side, the case was continued until the thirtieth day of the present term to allow them to present the witnesses in court.

The case against the International Harvester company, indicted for being an unlawful corporation, was continued to the February term.

Mrs. Ethel Everett came into open court and resigned her position as official stenographer and Miss Mattie Brown, of Eddyville, was appointed.

The six vacancies remaining on the panel of the petit jury, was completed by the impaneling of Bill Pendleton, W. B. Henderson, J. H. Pike, W. H. Shanklin, J. A. Witty and Joe Buckner.

Mass of Itching, Burning Humor on Ankles—Feet Fearfully Swollen—Opium Alone Brought Sleep—Many Treatments Failed but

TORTURES OF ECZEMA YIELDED TO CUTICURA

"Cuticura Remedies are all you claim them to be. I had eczema for over two years. I had two physicians, but they only gave me relief for a short time and I cannot enumerate the ointments and lotions I used to no purpose. My ankles were one mass of sores. The itching and burning were so intense that I could not sleep. I could not walk for nearly four months. One day my husband said I had better try the Cuticura Remedies. After using them three times, I had the best night's rest in months unless I took an opiate. I used one set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, and my ankles healed in a short time. It is now a year since I used Cuticura, and there has been no return of the eczema."

"I had a small lump in the corner of my eye for over a year which was very painful and got larger all the time. I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment on it, and now it is gone. I am seventy-three years old and have lived on the farm I now occupy for twenty-seven years. Cuticura Remedies are the safest and most reliable I have ever used for all skin humors. CHAT ABOUT PEOPLE AND THINGS

Rush C. Watkins, formerly of Hopkinsville, who was president and general manager of the Kentucky Paving and Provision company, at Louisville, which has been acquired by the Armour interests, and who has been as largely instrumental, probably, as any other one man in raising Louisville into prominence as a live-stock and meat products market, has gone into the real estate business. Beginning today he will be connected with the real estate department of the Columbia Trust company.

A Princeton dispatch says: The Henrietta, Princeton's new and large up-town hotel, changed hands today. Mr. C. Doyle, having sold to Mr. J. N. Brewer, the veteran hotel man of Princeton. Mr. Brewer for many years owned and conducted the Palace Hotel, but upon the removal of the Illinois Central depot Mr. Brewer closed up the Palace and went to Hopkinsville, taking charge of the Hotel Latham and conducting it until a few months ago.

Frederick Innes, the well known eastern bandmaster and musical director of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, is lying dangerously ill in the Savoy Hotel at Seattle, Washington, suffering from a fever contracted since his arrival. Mrs. Innes is with him. Mr. Innes conducted a music festival here last year.

Nobody enjoyed the circus more than Ed Lindsay, of Elkton—all ex-one incident. When a big woman on the hippodrome track had an altercation with a clown policeman, Ed's chivalry was stirred. "Boys," he said to the friends around him, "I can't set her and see that lady insulted. I'm going to take her part, and smash that Yankee fool one good one in the nose." Jim Cook says he had to hold Col. Lindsay in his seat until the woman smacked the policeman over and turned a somersault herself and demonstrated to the galling Toddie that it was all "a part the show."

Mr. Frank Lewis and wife, who have been residing in Hopkinsville for the past year, arrived in Auburn Tuesday morning and are the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Sarah Monroe. Mr. Lewis will leave in the near future for Brinkley, Ark., and engage in the lumber business with G. E. Bayless, who was once here. He will be gone for several months and it is probable that his wife will spend most of her time there with him.—Auburn Advocate.

AFFIRM JUDGMENT

OF LOWER COURT IN STANDARD OIL CASE.

Opinion In Interesting Suit Is Handed Down By the Court of Appeals.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct.—The court of appeals today affirmed the judgment of the Christian circuit court in the case of the commonwealth against the Standard Oil company.

When this case was tried here it attracted considerable attention. It was the result of C. O. Prowse's (the official gauger at that time) allowing the oil company to bring a tank of oil here which had been condemned at Cadiz, and by mixing it with the supply of oil which was in the tank here, raise its quality until it stood the required test, as was shown by Mr. Prowse's test. The commonwealth contended that after the oil had been once condemned no other inspector had a right to allow it to be mixed with other oils and sold; that once condemned it could not be sold until returned to the refinery and raised to the proper standard. The decision of the court here was that Mr. Prowse had not exceeded his authority and that after it had been mixed with a higher grade oil and the mixture then stood the test prescribed by law, the company had a right to sell it.

KELLY CASE

Will Be Continued At Paducah Until January.

The case against John W. Kelly, which was transferred from the Trigg circuit court to the McCracken circuit court by Special Judge Sims, of Bowling Green, some time ago, which was set for trial today, will be continued until the January term of court by agreement of both parties.—Cadiz Record.

FOR BETTER ROADS

INTELLIGENT AND SYSTEMATIC EFFORTS ARE PLANNED

Each Congressional District to be Organized—Aid of The Newspapers to be Enlisted.

Charles E. Barker, of the Pen-broke vicinity, who represents the Second Kentucky district on the board of directors of the Kentucky Good Road association, attended an important meeting of the board at Louisville this week.

The board, by a unanimous vote, adopted a resolution commending the State University for the establishment of the department of highway engineering. It was brought out at the meeting that under the law regulating the state university that each county in the state, was entitled to send two students to the state university yearly free of tuition. The students are to be appointed by the fiscal court. While many of the counties in Kentucky have been taking advantage of the law yet others have paid no attention to it. The object of the board now engaged in the work is to work upon an interest that all of the 119 counties in the state will have two students in the college getting an education at the expense partially of the state, as provided in the law establishing the university.

The members of the board contended that the money was appropriated looking to the end of paying for the tuition of students sent by the counties, and if the counties would not take advantage of it the money would be diverted to some other source. It is supposed that many of the students sent by the counties will take a deep interest in engineering and the good roads movement. In fact that is what the extra scholarships were created for.

A resolution was adopted asking that each member of the board call a meeting in his congressional district for the purpose of perfecting a working organization in each county in the state. This is to be done as early as possible. The object is to get the people interested in the movement before the winter months set in so that all interested may read and study the questions during the winter and be ready for active work in the spring.

Another feature of the meeting was the appointment of Harry Sommers as chairman of the press committee, who will enlist all the editors of the Kentucky papers in the good road movement. The aim of the committee is to work up interest in the proposed constitutional amendment, which is to be voted on at the November election, 1909, asking for state aid in the building of good roads throughout the state. This, the members of the board think, is the most important work now before the board. It is argued by many that a good system of roads can never be built unless aid is derived from the state. The plan of this aid and how the money is to be expended will be worked out later.

The board will likely have another meeting this fall, at which the members will report as to the proposed organizations in the counties in the state.

The A B C and X Y Z of ADVERTISING

A SERIES OF TEN TALKS ON ADVERTISING written by Seymour Eaton of Philadelphia No. 8

Most department store advertising may be divided into three classes: bad, very bad, and damned bad.

Bargain advertising is in the first class. It does sell goods; but if well done it could easily make three blades of grass grow where one grows now.

The "worth-$20-now-$12.50" bargain offer has been done to death. The people buy the $12.50 article because $12.50 is as much as they want to pay; because, they have seen the goods; because they have intelligence enough to know that they are getting good value for the price; but for every one who buys there are two others shooed off by the roll-up, tumble-up, throw-up-your-money hurrah.

An honest bargain properly announced is always good advertising. If I controlled a newspaper page I should use one-third of it, down the side, for legitimate bargains. I should put the word "Bargains" or "Today's Bargains" at the top and with the descriptions of the articles I should give selling prices only; say nothing in figures about values or cost prices; use that space for describing the goods. I should make the descriptions as brief as possible, leave everything to the imagination of the customer except the selling price; and now and then I should omit that; let the customer come to the store to find out. Then I should make these bargains look like charity by very contrast; by using the remainder of the page to advertise my regular-priced, always-in-stock clothing and dress goods and carpets and furniture and all that sort of thing; and I should make this department so full of life and spirit and enthusiasm for the goods as to make my customers irresistible.

The store that preaches is in the second class. Preaching isn't advertising. It may be entertaining and instructive; it may analyze to a nicety the ethical policy of the store; it may impress the weak-minded with the fact that this store is a great public benefactor, a powerful influence for good in the community, a sort of merchandise university which ought to be endowed by the State. But preaching doesn't sell goods; it doesn't even draw a crowd.

The formal, refrigerator, my-brass-plate-is-sufficient advertising is in the third class. It has all the dignity and drawing power of a corpse. Mark you, I am not criticising the idea. The idea is fine. To be a chosen people clothed in purple and fine linen; to bask in the sunshine of wealth, or of aristocracy, or of fame; to eat where it eats, to drink what it drinks, to wear what it wears, to buy where it buys, to talk what it talks, to dress your poodle dog with what it dresses its poodle dog; to be somebody exclusive, even one or two removed or second hand; that is greatness; and people pay big money for greatness, even for the varnish or veneer. It is the advertising that is bad. It might easily quadruple the trade and yet keep within the boundaries of the elect. Exclusive people don't think. You don't need to put salt on their tails. They follow a leader like a lot of sheep. Your business as an advertiser is to capture the leader; the bellwether of the set. The rest is easy. The others will pay for the privilege of standing in line.

Emblem and bury the brass-plate advertising. Use the space to talk to your customers. Some of them read advertisements. If a poor plebeian should happen to read about your goods and wander into your shop by mistake let him do the worrying.

THE TAFT CAMPAIGN.

The press bureau of the Republican campaign committee started in upon its work promptly, vigorously and, we are bound to say, artistically. The "literature" which it supplies is attractive, anecdotal, intimate and readable. But on the more serious lines it is hardly convincing even when it is entertaining.

Take, for instance, the matter of the southern vote. It is gravely predicted that Taft will break up the "solid south," and business men here are quoted as favoring Taft "because the south owes its prosperity to a Republican regime."

This is probably intended for encouragement up in the north. But the imagination of the Taft boomers does not go so far as to point out a single southern state that will give Taft an electoral vote. The solidity of the south will not be shaken.

The battle for the presidency is not to be fought in this section, but in the great and middle west, where the Bryan sentiment is surging over the land.

THE DYNASTIC SPIRIT

Of course. Two terms for Taft and then two more terms for Teddy. That is what Son-in-law Nick Longworth says. When the children prattle we get at what the old folks think.

The dynastic principle is to be started with Taft. If he can be elected any body can be, and once within the portals of the White House, having served his eight years, he will gracefully give way and Roosevelt will come in for life. "Tis as easy as lying, or falling off a log." The big stick, having done its perfect work once, twice, thrice, can do it as it pleases. The steam roller will never lose its power to crush.

Yet is there many a slip twixt the cup and the lip. Everything depends upon the result of this presidential campaign. It is to settle the question whether the people, without money or discipline—the raw militia—can successfully go against organized power, hedged round by a fortress and defended by limitless resources. If they cannot do this now they will never be able to do it.

Republicanism has come to a parting of the way. One signboard reads, "Autocracy, Absolutism, Corruption," the other, "The Constitution, Popular Government, Reform." Fate says to the voters as the showman says to the little boy, "yer pay yer money an' yer take your choice."

It is written that to every people is given the government which they most deserve. We shall believe that the people of the United States deserve free government until they themselves order otherwise. This is the last chance they will ever get short of some direful cataclysm to make a change of parties by the simple, lawful and peaceful agencies of the ballot box, and our faith is sure that they will not let it pass them by; at the command of "Big Chief," that they will not choose a "Me, too," lying down flat upon their bellies whilst Aldrich and Cannon, Sunny Jim Sherman and High Tariff Payne and Dalsell, corrupt officials and wanton wealth, to say nothing about the rant and cant of Roosevelt and Rooseveltism, flourish over them.—Courier Journal.

EAST AGAINST THE WEST.

The high tariff is the special privilege of the east against the west. It forces the west and the middle west to pay unduly high prices to the big factories, mills and foundries of the east. By guaranteeing exorbitant profits in the home market it enables the manufacturer to slaughter goods abroad. The foreign consumer reaps the benefits of low prices, and the American consumer is taxed for the foreign consumer's benefit.

The people demand a change and are ready to vote for whichever party will guarantee it.

Good Way to do Business.

In ordering a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at 25 cents, L. L. Elgin is giving one of the greatest trade chances ever offered to the people of Hopkinsville.

Even though offered at half price for introductory purposes the specific is sold under a guarantee to cure or the money will be refunded.

If food does not digest well, if there is gas or pain in the stomach, if the tongue is coated and the breath bad, if there is constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, you have a druggist's personal guarantee to return your money.

This remarkable remedy comes in the form of tiny granules, and can be carried in the vest pocket or purse. It is very popular in New York City, and it is not unusual to see someone after a meal at one of the large hotels or restaurants, take a dose of this specific, knowing that it will prevent the uncomfortable feeling which frequently follows a hearty meal.

Dr. Howard's specific give quick relief and makes permanent cures of constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles.

BANQUET FOR BAND

GIVEN AT HOTEL LATHAM BY MR. W. A. WILGUS

An Enjoyable Entertainment, Which Was Followed by Delightful Concert in The Lobby.

A banquet in honor of Lebkeuchner's band was given Monday night in the ordinary at Hotel Latham by W. A. Wilgus as a testimonial of the pride and interest he felt in the organization as a citizen of Hopkinsville.

MR. W. A. WILGUS, THE HOST.

It was a most delightful event.

The speakers expressed to the band the gratitude that the entire city felt in their splendid progress and achievements. Mr. Lebkeuchner made a feeling response, thanking all who had contributed in any way to the success of the band concerts of the past summer, and in conclusion said that no one had done as much in this regard as Mr. Wilgus, whose words of encouragement and ready aid at all times had been a source of

TRIAL OF WILL WINFREE IS NEARING ITS END

Taking of Testimony Will Be Completed Today And The Arguments Will Be Made Tomorrow.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
The testimony for the defense in the Winfree trial was concluded today at noon and this afternoon the evidence in rebuttal is being heard. This will probably be concluded before adjournment today. Tomorrow will be occupied with the speeches.

The testimony in the case does not differ materially from that introduced at the former trial. The prosecution is endeavoring to show that the defendant was intoxicated and with some companions was acting boisterously early in the morning of the day of the killing. That before he was arrested Policeman Hord went to him and warned him to get off the street. They also contend that Mr. Winfree, after leaving the police office, armed himself and sought the officer for the purpose of killing him.

The defense deny that Mr. Winfree was intoxicated or that he was acting in an unseemly manner. They also claim that in making the arrest the officer was brutal and jerked and pulled the young man about and forced him to ride to the police station in the patrol wagon after he had consented to walk or to hire a closed carriage. They also claim that the policeman applied the vilest epithets to the young man. They further claim that Mr. Winfree only sought the policeman to discuss the matter and that he did not pull his pistol and shoot until the officer raised his mace in a threatening manner, and that he then fired in self-defense.

constant inspiration. Quite to the surprise of the host, the band presented him with a handsome gold handle umbrella as a token of their affection and appreciation. Mr. Wilgus was deeply touched, and heartily thanked the donors for the beautiful gift.

At the conclusion of the banquet, the band gave a concert in the lobby of the hotel which was greatly enjoyed by a large audience.

IS CASE OF COMMONWEALTH VS
W. P. WINFREE, JR.Arguments Were Completed Before Noon.—Mrs. Charles Hord Faints
in The Courtroom.

(From Thursday's Daily)

The Winfree case was brought to a close at noon today by the speech by Commonwealth's Attorney Denney P. Smith. Two speeches were made yesterday afternoon, the first by John Feland, for the defense, and the second by City Attorney Walter Knight, for the prosecution. This morning Judge C. H. Bush spoke for the defense and the argument was closed by Mr. Smith. The speeches upon both sides were very strong.

Mrs. Hord, widow of the dead of fleet, fainted in the courtroom this morning. Commonwealth Attorney Smith was describing incidents of the shooting, and had put on the overcoat worn by Policeman Hord at the time. Mrs. Hord fell from her chair near the table used by the attorneys for the prosecution. She was taken into one of the consultation rooms where physicians attended her.

FEUDISTS ARE FREE

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 8.—In the circuit court the cases against Elbert Hargis, Ed Callahan, Alex Hargis and Jesse Spicer, all charged with the assassination of James Cockrell in Breathitt county, were dismissed on motion of the commonwealth. State's Attorney Allen announced that the cases had all been tried before and no conviction secured, and that he did not think they could be convicted. The order of dismissal was accordingly entered. A similar charge against Bill Britton for the same murder, was continued until the next court term.

OUT FOR GOVERNOR

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 8.—Congressman A. O. Stanley, of Henderson, Ky., who was here today, announced that he would seek the Democratic nomination for governor of the Blue Grass state in the next state campaign.

VOTERS REGISTER

The figures of the registration in precinct No. 2 in Hopkinsville show a gain for the Republicans. Compared with last year's figures there are now 83 more negroes in that precinct and 115 more Republicans. Last year there was a large percentage of negroes who registered as independents. Exactly the same number of white voters registered this year as did last, but the Democratic column shows a decrease of 11.

Compared with last year's figures the total registration shows an increase of 184. Of this the white column shows a gain of 97, colored a gain of 87. The Democrats show a loss of 58 while the Republicans show a gain of 171 and the independents, this including those registered as Populists, Prohibitionists, Socialists, etc., a gain of 67.

The supplemental registration is expected to bring in considerably over a hundred which will make the total registration unusually heavy.

CELEBRATED BAND

IS ORGANIZATION HEADED BY FREDERICK PHINNEYGrand Opera Singers Will Be a Striking Feature of Concerts in Hopkinsville.

Phinney's U. S. Band is a larger organization than Innes' Orchestra Band; it compares in size and magnificence with the John Phillip Sousa band. Bandmaster Phinney is new in the south, but in the north and east, he is a great favorite, because he is not afraid to cater to the popular taste in musical matters. Mr. Phinney with his great band augmented to 125 pieces, has entire charge of the music being produced this week at the great Philadelphia 225 celebration. His band was chosen for this event over all the bands and bandmasters of this country. Phinney's band was the official band of World's Fair Chicago, 26 weeks; Mid-Winter Fair, San Francisco 20 weeks; Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha 16 weeks; Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo 12 weeks; Jamestown Exposition 6 months; St. Louis World's Fair 7 weeks; he has appeared in all the principal cities in the north and east. He will bring for the Hopkinsville engagement eight (8) grand opera singers, the same singers he is using this week at Philadelphia. This is what we know of Frederick Phinney and his band, and we also know you will enjoy both performances, which will be given Thursday afternoon and night, Oct. 15. Popular prices will prevail and we hope to have large audiences on both occasions. If tickets cost say one dollar each, only a few people can attend, but at the prices proposed for the Phinney engagement, the whole family can attend.

Prices for the afternoon will be 25c and 50c for the night performance the price of tickets will be 50c, same may be reserved for 25c extra. This will be the musical event of the season, and if you fail to attend you will regret it.

Operatic singers presenting scenes from grand opera with Phinney's United States band. Frederick Phinney, conductor; Prima donna soprano, Mme. Dora de Philippe; Contralto, Miss Annie Laurie McCorkle; Tenor, Signor D. Pezzetti; Baritone, Signor L. Quaretti; Soprano, Miss Maria Scharff; Contralto, Miss Guaro; Tenor, Mr. Bauermeister; Basso, Signor Dragoul.

The party was headed by Warner Moore, Jr., a well known newspaper man of this city. There were several Catholics in the party, who will establish a colony in Texas.

MR. WARFIELD DEAD ON UNWRITTEN LAW

HAD JUST BEEN ELECTED AS AN ASSOCIATION GRADER

Passes Away at Sadlersville.—Had Been a Sufferer of Lung Trouble.

GUTHRIE, Ky., Oct. 8.—Mr. W. C. Warfield, of Sadlersville, Tenn., died at his home yesterday. He had been suffering for a long time from lung trouble. Friday night he was taken with a sinking spell and gradually became worse, until the end came.

Mr. Warfield was elected only Tuesday as one of the graders of the Farmers' association. As soon as the board of directors heard of his death they adjourned, and suitable resolutions were adopted.

Mr. Warfield was sixty years of age and a consistent member of the Methodist church. He was the son of Charles Warfield and was born and reared on the place at which he died. He was a cousin of C. P. Warfield, of Clarksville. A wife and six children survive him, three sons and three daughters. The death of Mr. Warfield will cause much sorrow all over the Black Patch; particularly among members of the Planters' Protective association, of which from the day of its organization, he was a staunch supporter.

SOCIETY OF EQUITY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 8.—

The future of night riding in the tobacco districts of Kentucky will doubtless be the greatest item of business to be discussed during the convention here this week of the American Society of Equity, the so-called Farmers' Trust. The main object of bringing the national convention to Milwaukee was, it is said, the carrying out of a campaign to win Wisconsin for the Farmers' Trust and to secure an extension to this state of the price agreements ruling in Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and other states where the farmers are well organized.

There seems to be no question that the convention will before its adjournment declare itself against the law breaking methods of Kentucky Night Riders, although there is an element which wishes the repudiation of night riding to be combined with a declaration that Night Riders were driven to their course by the aggression of the Tobacco Trust.

The convention held only a formal session yesterday, the real work coming today.

Work for the unemployed and regulation of prices on all farm products will be discussed by the convention.

The regulation of the prices of farm products is expected to be accomplished by the erection of elevators where farmers may store their grain and other products, selling it according to demand. These co-operative elevators are working with marked success in Chicago and Minneapolis. Farmers say that at the present time their product is entirely in the hands of speculators, who gamble with no respect for supply or demand.

Labor for the unemployed is to be furnished through the co-operation of labor unions. The plan is to have unions submit a list of the men who are out of work and the secretary of the American Society of Equity will endeavor to find employment.

Miss Susie May Boyd, of Elm Creek, Nebraska, and Mr. E. D. Gregory, of this county, were married Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the residence of J. M. Adams at Church Hill. Only a limited number of friends were invited to the ceremony, which was solemnized by Rev. W. T. Miller, of the Methodist church. After the wedding a sumptuous supper was served to the party after which the bride and groom went to the residence of the groom's mother where they spent the night. The bride is an attractive and charming young woman, who, with her step-mother, Mrs. J. L. Boyd, formerly Miss Joe Sivley, of Elm Creek, has been visiting in this county for some time. Mrs. Boyd will return to Nebraska in a few days and will go from there to California to be with a sister. The groom is a son of the late H. C. Gregory and is one of the most energetic and popular young farmers of the Church Hill neighborhood.

Mrs. Gus T. Brannon and children and Mrs. J. G. Bramham have taken rooms at St. Charles flats, where they will be about two weeks before removing to Birmingham, Ala.

DAWSON SLAYER MAY MAKE HIS PLEA

According to the Madisonville Hustler, information received from Dawson Springs says that it is thought there that Floyd Snyder, who shot and killed John Holeman at that place Saturday night, will surrender in a few days and stand trial.

Holeman was a livery man of Dawson and was fatally wounded by Snyder last Saturday night. It is claimed that Holeman, having heard of threats on his life, went to Madisonville to escape being murdered, and that on his return home he was waylaid and shot down.

The Hustler says: "It is said that Snyder is hiding at or near his home in Caldwell county and is waiting for the excitement to subside, after which he will surrender. There is a reward offered for his arrest, and it appears as if it will be only a short time until he is in custody."

"If reports are true, a new phase has developed concerning the cause of the tragedy, for it is currently reported that Snyder claims that Holeman ruined his home. On the other hand, it is understood that Holeman's friends claim that the killing was cold-blooded and unjustifiable. If Snyder is apprehended the reason why he shot and killed Holeman will probably be brought to light at his trial.

The cause of the tragedy remains a mystery."

LEBKUECHER'S BAND.

Genesis and Development of an Organization of Which Any City in Kentucky Might be Proud

The series of outdoor band concerts closed with the one of Tuesday night. Twelve in all having been given, this is the first time that such an attraction was ever given to the people of this region absolutely free of charge, but so heartily did they respond each time and so evident was their enjoyment that the success of the venture was complete in every way and nothing less is expected in the future.

This success is due to Lebkuecher's band, to the business men and citizens who so liberally supported the concerts with their money in the shape of voluntary contributions, to W. A. Wilgus, who was very instrumental in arranging the attraction and the citizens generally who boosted from the very first. Next year it is proposed to start the concerts much earlier in the season and to have them take place at some point where seats can be provided. This place has not yet been selected but several are being considered.

By their magnificent work during the series, Lebkuecher's band thoroughly demonstrated their ability a member of the band since it was first organized, playing first a tuba and then a clarinet, then assumed the leadership. About three years the band was re-organized and made up as it now is and since that time it has made great strides in every way. Since he first took charge of the band Mr. Lebkuecher has remained at its head, and its present high standing is due to his untiring efforts at organization and instruction in music. In this he has been ably seconded by the players, all of whom have exhibited an enthusiasm second only to that of their leader, in the monotonous work of "practicing." Their fidelity in this now shows the perfected fruit of his borne. Instead of playing a clarinet in the band and leading the other musicians with this as a baton, Mr. Lebkuecher now directs them in the most approved style and with a grace and expertness which would do credit to any of the noted leaders. His men show their long and conscientious training by the ready response which they make to every move of their leader.

HARRY L. LEBKUECHER, DIRECTOR

to fill any important engagement which might come their way, and there is not a citizen of the town who is not proud that such an organization exists here and who is not ready to advance its interests whenever possible. Many times visitors from a distance, traveling men and other strangers would be among the crowd which gathered at the concerts and instead of listening to the discordant notes generally produced by the average band in the smaller cities they were without exception delighted with the harmony and sweetness of the music and never failed to speak in the most complimentary terms of the band, and to speak for them a future of increasing popularity.

The career of this band has been one of ups and downs. In the dim and misty past, the exact time being unknown, the first band was organized by Prof. V. F. Ward, who kept it together with varying success for several years. When he surrendered it, it was taken in charge by F. M. Girard who developed it considerably. He surrendered it about five years ago when he removed from Hopkinsville.

Harry Lebkuecher, who had been

Not only is the organization perfected in the shape of a brass band, but they also have an orchestra which is equal to any of the same nature. Rapidly has the popularity of this orchestra grown and now no big social event, dance, etc., is complete without it.

The members of the band as it is at present composed, and the instruments which they play, are as follows:

Leader, Harry L. Lebkuecher.
Carl Witty, cornet.
E. C. Bush, cornet.
Charles Lewis, cornet.
Jack Mitchell, clarinet.
Luther Gresham, clarinet.
Dulin Anderson, clarinet.
Ralph Lewis, trombone.
Thomas Overshiner, trombone.
W. D. Ennis, alto horn.
Paul Witty, alto horn.
John Schrode, flute and piccolo.
William Grau, Jr., baritone.
Clyde Lewis, baritone.
J. E. Anderson, tuba.
Lyman Lygan, tuba.
J. L. (Pat) Sims, bass drum.
Herman Wettstein, snare drum.
Al Inman, of Evansville, instructor of the Pembroke band, assisted the local band during the series of concerts and played a cornet.

Child Labor Law

The idea having gotten abroad that Kentucky's new child labor law applied to factories, workshops, mines and mercantile establishments only, State Labor Inspector Thomas A. Davis has secured from Attorney General Breathitt a written opinion, which makes it plain that children between fourteen and sixteen years of age throughout the state must be provided with employment certificates before they can be employed in any capacity in any establishment not interdicted by the law itself.

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to weary and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our backs, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach is utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page Illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

ON FAT OF LAND

COMMISSIONER MILWARD, REPUBLICAN, IS LIVING.

Commissioner Stanley Milward, of the state board of control of charities, according to the Lexington Herald, admits that he has had his laundry done at the Lexington asylum, and also uses ice from the plant there and vegetables grown in the asylum gardens.

"There neither is, nor has been any secret about this," Says Mr. Milward in an interview concerning a report embracing the facts. "Before availing myself of these privileges I laid the matter before the board of commissioners. Other members were one in the opinion that it was both proper and right."

"The officials and about eight families whose heads are employees of the asylum have the privilege of using ice from the plant at the institution; have their laundry done there, and use vegetables from the gardens."

No question of expense to the state is involved. More ice is produced than is needed at the asylum, and every day we send extra cakes to the Feeble Minded Institute at Frankfort. As the wagon carrying the ice goes to the station a piece is dropped off at my home."

"I was told that the working force of laundry could accommodate any washing, and this was done there. Several weeks ago I was advised that more help would be required. I then withdrew the laundry of my family to help reduce the work, being unwilling that any perquisite might entail the expense of a cent to the state. I was told that my collars and cuffs could easily be taken care of with the present force and that work continues to be done there. No precedent has been established by me in this matter, and those who have criticized are welcome to whatever satisfaction they may enjoy."

6 Pieces "Sanito" Cooking Ware

Absolutely
Given Away!

FREE

Absolutely
Given Away!

What "Sanito" Is

It is the ware you see advertised in all the leading ladies magazines, especially those dealing with the culinary art. It is never sold at retail and you cannot buy it from the manufacturers for a penny less than $2.50 per set and expressage. The great excellence of earthenware cooking vessels over tin or iron is known to all, but the difficulty has always been the increased cost of the earthenware. By using Sanito earthenware cooking vessels you secure the very best results, the food will not burn or stick, there is no danger of ptomaine poisoning and no odor remaining in the vessel.

Sanito ware, produced by a skillful blending of clays, is mechanically perfect, of convenient sizes and shapes for all ordinary purposes. Sanito will cook food evenly and without burning it. It has an inside lining burnt right into the clay, which is absolutely acid proof, and never cracks nor scales. You can cook anything from strawberries to cabbage in Sanito without one kind becoming tainted or discolored from what proceeded.

Doctors, hospitals, sanitariums and thousands of progressive housekeepers use it exclusively. Its cleanliness and wholesomeness makes it especially valuable in preparing food for the sick, while for all general cooking purposes it should displace unwholesome and dangerous metal vessels.

The fact that Sanito is a non-conductor of heat makes it more economical to use than other ware. It retains heat much better than metal. It will be particularly welcome in homes where the difference between "cooked" and "well cooked" food is appreciated.

How To Get It

To every person who subscribes to the Weekly New Era, paying $1.00 for one year in advance and 98c for expressage and packing charges, we will give ABSOLUTELY FREE a full set of this $2.50 ware—the genuine Sanito.

To every person who is now taking the New Era and who pays up all arrearages, if y, and one year in advance and the 98c for the expressage and packing charges, we will give a set of Sanito.

Orders given to agents will not be accepted on this offer—everything must come direct to this office. We are making an unusual concession in offering this ware and cannot afford to pay agents' commissions too.

Every set comes packed in a separate box and we have a supply on hand, so that when your order is received it can be delivered promptly. This ware is delivered free of all charges at this office. If further express or freight charges are necessary they must be borne by the purchaser.

MURDERED BY MOB

THREE KILLED, ONE A BABY IN ITS MOTHER'S ARMS.

Seven Negroes Shot and Another May Have Been Burned in House Scoundrels Fired

HICKMAN, Ky., Oct. 6.—One of the most horrible affairs that ever happened here was a raid made Saturday night at 12 o'clock by Night Riders on the family of Dave Walker, a negro. Walker had cursed a white woman and drew a gun on a white man. The mob came to give him a whipping, ordering him from the house. Walker refused to come and fired into them. The mob coal-oiled and set fire all around the house, as the negroes came out, shot them down. Dave Walker, his five year old daughter and a small baby were killed outright, the baby being killed in its mother's arms as she came from the burning house. The mother was shot through the stomach, and will die. Three other children were shot down and will possibly die. The oldest son is missing, and it is supposed he was burned.

The band numbered about fifty. They took Joe Williams, a white man, from his house to hold their horses while they did the work.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the headache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dries up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which print their formula on the bottle-wrappers, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners add writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is advised.

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER FOR KILLING NIGHT RIDER

Jury at Clarksville Sentence Gardner and Hunt to Ten Years in the Penitentiary.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 3.—John Gardner and Walter Hunt, charged with the murder of Vaughn Bennett, a young Night Rider who was killed while returning from the whipping of a man by a masked band, were found guilty in the second degree by the jury this morning.

They were sentenced to [the penitentiary for ten years.

The jury took the case at 5:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The trial lasted 25 days and was the hardest fought in the history of the county. Motion for a new trial will be made.

Trial By Jury.

(Near Special)

CLERKSTOWN, Ten (years) Nov. 1, 1908.—The trial of John Doe, a deputy, for arresting a burglar was held here today.

Considerable trouble was experienced in securing a jury entirely friendly to the burglar.

The public, after being searched and its valuables confiscated, was excluded from the courtroom.

The first witness was sworn and, after the jury had retired, testified that his house was broken into by masked men who ransacked the drawers, filled a bag with money and jewelry and escaped through a window. Witness was powerless to prevent the robbery, as one of the intruders kept him covered with a pistol. He looked out of the window, when burglars left, and saw Deputy Sheriff Doe arrest one. The others ran. (This evidence was excluded, on grounds that witness was personally interested in the case.)

Several other witnesses, in the absence of the jury, described the arrest, and stated that the burglar captured was wearing a mask and was carrying the bag of stolen goods. Attorneys for prosecution objected to this testimony, arguing that if witnesses had been at home asleep, like the constable and other officials, they could not have witnessed the arrest. Motion to exclude the testimony was sustained.

The jury was recalled and the prosecution introduced three men who confessed they were among the burglars who robbed the house. They were, they said, just playing. While running down the street, Deputy Doe had grabbed one of them. All expressed indignation at being interrupted.

The case was ably argued, after which the jury, without leaving the box, returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant, Deputy John Doe, guilty in the second degree of cruelty and with malice aforethought, interfering with a foot race, and sentence him 99 years at hard labor in the state penitentiary."

The case will be appealed.

From Day to Day

(From Saturday's Daily)

Mrs. Cassandra Emily Carr announces the marriage of her daughter, Joy May to Mr. Willard Fay Moore, of Blytheville, Arkansas, Oct. 29th, 1908.

Earl Broadus, who had been visiting his mother for several days, left this morning for Dalton, Ga., where he has accepted a position as linotype operator. Mr. Broadus has been making his home at Henderson for some time.

Invitations as follows have been received in the city:

Mrs. Carnes Henderson Alexander requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter,

Lizzie Lou,

to Mr. Charles Harris Nash, Jr., on the evening of Thursday, the twenty-second of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at six o'clock, Middleton, Tenn.

At Home, Temple, Texas.

William Collins, who has had charge of the Pembroke exchange of the Cumberland Telephone company, has resigned his position and the resignation became effective yesterday, says the Pembroke Journal. Mr. Collins has many friends here who will regret that he is to leave the city. He is at present suffering from a dislocated shoulder and for the present will not engage in any business. Mr. Trotter, of Clarksville, has taken charge of the exchange.

George W. Griffey and Miss Maie E. Bard were married today at the home of a relative on Jessup street. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Harry D. Smith in the presence of a number of invited guests. The couple lived in Montgomery county, Tennessee.

Miss Fannie E. Joslin and Mr. Carl W. Keach went to Nashville on an early train Thursday morning where they were married at 9 o'clock that day by Rev. R. Lin Cave at the home of Mrs. S. R. Hays, 236 Woodland street. The ceremony was witnessed by a small company of friends. The bride and groom remained in Nashville until last night when they returned to Hopkinsville. The wedding was not an elopement, although it was somewhat of a surprise just at this time. The young people decided to have the ceremony performed in Nashville in order to avoid the details of a home wedding. The bride is the handsome and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Joslin, of North Main street. The bridegroom is a son of O. Keach and is associated with his father and brother in the Keach Furniture company.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hurst Rodman have returned here after a month's stay in Louisville and will be at home with Mrs. F. M. Byars on South Main street this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Rodman are Louisville people but are making their headquarters here and intend to remain here indefinitely. They have many friends in Hopkinsville.

MAKE PROPOSITION

LOOKING TO CONTROL OF COLORED SCHOOLS

Referred to Special Committee.—Sewer Matter is Adjusted.—Accounts Are Allowed.

One of the important features of the meeting of the city council last Friday night, was the submission upon the part of the colored people of a proposition whereby the white school board should take over the control of the colored schools of this city. Under the new school law the colored school, not being attached to any common school district and not being a graded school, it is without trustees.

In this dilemma the colored people want to vote a tax upon themselves and be taken under the same supervision as the white schools. There are many things to be considered in a step of this importance, and a committee was appointed from the council to look into the matter and to report to the November meeting of the council. The annual appropriation of $1,500 was made to the colored schools, but it is to be held in abeyance to the action to be taken on the proposition.

The sewer matter was reported to have been amicably settled, the owners of the private sewer having agreed to a connection with the system of the sewerage company. It is probable that the private sewers will now be plugged up.

A budget of accounts amounting to about $1,000 was allowed. Cemetery committee was authorized to make some needed repairs at the cemetery and the street committee was instructed to have the names of the newly named streets posted at the principal corners in the business section.

S.S.S. HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

Sores and Ulcers are indications of impure blood. They show that the circulation has become infected with germs and poisons, which are being constantly discharged into the open place to irritate the delicate nerves, tissues and surrounding flesh and keep the sore in a state of inflammation and disease. Whether these impurities in the blood are the result of some debilitating sickness, an old taint from a former disease, or whether it is hereditary bad blood, there is but one way to cure sores and ulcers, and that is to purify the blood. Washes, salves, lotions, etc., are often beneficial because of their cleansing, antiseptic effects, but nothing applied to the surface can reach the blood, where the real cause is, and therefore cannot cure. S. S. S. is the remedy for sores and ulcers of every kind. It gets down to the very bottom of the trouble and removes every trace of impurity or poison, and makes a lasting cure. S. S. S. changes the quality of the circulation, so that instead of feeding the diseased parts with impurities, it nourishes and heals the irritated, inflamed flesh and causes the ulcer to fill in with healthy tissue by supplying it with pure, rich blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

"LEAF, LUGS AND TRASH."

Some News and Notes of Interest About Tobacco

Last week's business on the local tobacco market was of that steady kind which, while not exhibiting any sensational features, was of sufficient scope to be very satisfactory. Sales were not quite as heavy as the week proceeding.

The Planters' Protective association sold 75 hogsheads of low grade leaf. The stock of high grades has all been exhausted, and the demand for lugs seems to be weakening, leaving only the lower qualities of leaf sought after. More than half the amount on hand has been sold.

At the Society of Equity warehouse no report of the week's business was issued.

For the week ending Oct. 1st, the sales all over the dark tobacco district showed a big increase over the preceding week. At Clarksville and Springfield the stocks have been practically sold out. At the other salesrooms considerable tobacco, about 25,000 hogsheads in the district, is yet on hands, but indications are that it will be disposed of soon.

The report of Auditor Scales for the week in question is as follows:

The business for the month on the Hopkinsville market is summarized by Broker M. D. Boales, as follows:

The market for the past month has been quiet and easy, with small sales for the season. Regrading has ruled throughout the month, and material changes have been made, except in low lugs. Prices ruled as follows:

Lugs—Low $7.00; common, $7.00@7.50; medium, $7.50@8.00; good, $8.00@8.50; fine, $8.50@9.00.

Leaf Low, $7.00@8.00; common $8.00@8.50; medium, $8.50@9.50; good $10.00@12.00; fine $12.00@12.50

Cigar fillers, $7.00@8.50; binders, $8.00@9.00; wrappers, $10.00@12.00.

The offerings were liberal. The new crop is all housed, and largely cured. It is quite leafy, smooth, clean and well colored, and will be twenty-five per cent larger than last year.

REGRET IS GENERAL

OVER DECISION OF DR. MILLARD A. JENKENS

Will Accept Call From Church At Athens, Ga.—Bible Conference To Be Held Here.

The Rev. Millard A. Jenkins, D. D., announced Sunday morning to the congregation of the First Baptist church that he would accept the call extended to him by the church at Athens, Ga., but that he had written to the Georgia church that he would not leave here until the membership had united on another pastor. There is general sorrow in the city over Dr. Jenkins' decision, for the regard and admiration in which he is held extends far beyond denominational lines, and he is as widely useful as he is greatly beloved. However regretful the Baptists of Hopkinsville feel, Athens deserves the heartiest congratulations in securing a minister of the gospel so able, gifted, eloquent and consecrated.

Dr. Jenkins announced Sunday that a Bible conference, participated in by some of the most distinguished Baptist ministers in the south, will be held here October 16-25. The speakers will be Rev. R. V. Miller, Rev. J. C. Massie, D. D., Rev. W. A. Nelson, D. D., Rev. Julian S. Rogers, Rev. B. D. Gray, D. D., Dr. Joseph Broughton, Rev. Win H. Smith, D. D., and Rev. W. D. Powell, D. D. The singing will be led by Prof. Altha Ira Ruby.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

BRISTOL, Tenn., Oct. 8.—One of the bloodiest tragedies in the history of east Tennessee occurred at Johnson City early Sunday morning when Squire L. A. Bales, of Embreeville, who was at the home of a brother-in-law, Bernia Bayless, residing in that city, attacked the latter while he was asleep in bed and chopped his head almost off with an ax.

Bales then attacked the wife of Bayless, fatally wounding her with the ax. He sought his own wife, who was in the house, and struck her several blows with the bloody weapon, seriously wounding her. He was locked up in the calaboose and half an hour later was found dead, having hanged himself in his cell.

I now take them as a tonic and they keep me strong and well." 50c at Cook & Higgins and Cook's Pharmacy.

SQUIRE W. B. BREWER HAS PASSED AWAY.

Veteran Newspaper-man, Prominent Lodge and Business Man and Politician Dies at Fairview of Paralysis.

(From Monday's Daily)

Squire William B. Brewer, editor of the Fairview Review and one of Todd county's most prominent business men and Democratic politicians, died this morning at his home in Fairview of paralysis.

He had a host of friends and admirers in this city and the news of his death has been received with universal regret.

Squire Brewer was one of the originators of the plan, which has been made his home. He was a magistrate of Todd county twelve successive years, and held many positions of trust and honor. His first wife, Miss Martha Norman, died in 1881. Three children of this union survive. He was married in 1884 to Miss Baird, who survives him. Squire Brewer was very prominent in secret society circles. He was a member of the Knights Templar, Royal Arch Masons F. & A. M., Knights of Pyadopted by United Confederate Veterans' association, to convert the Jefferson Davis birthplace into a Confederate Memorial park.

The deceased was a native of Virginia, being born in Buckingham county on October 29, 1849. He lived in Alexandria, Tenn., in the early 60's and then moved to Allensville, Ky. He resided a short time there and later at Allegree and in 1889 located in Fairview where he had since lived and the Elks, and had held the highest offices in most of these lodges. He was master of the Fairview Masonic lodge at the time of his death, and past eminent commander of the Hopkinsville lodge, Royal Arch Masons.

Funeral services, conducted by the Knights Templar will be held at Fairview tomorrow afternoon, and the remains will be interred at Goshen burying ground.

MR. BRYAN SEES VICTORY AHEAD.

Trend is All in That Direction—Expects Majority of Both Popular and Electoral Votes.

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb. Oct. 8.—Hon. W. J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for president, stated last night that advice received by him from the party workers indicate the increasing Democratic sentiment throughout the United States.

"A candidate can only form opinions as to his chances," he said, through reports made to him by party workers. Every report made to me indicate that not only is the trend among the voters towards Democracy this year, but the sentiment for our candidates and our party is increasing. My advice is that not only will our candidates for president and vice-president have a large majority of the popular vote,

WILLIAM J. BRYAN. but we will also have a majority in the electoral college."

PLEDGES FOR LIFE

URGED BY MEMBER OF CHRISTIAN COUNTY COMMITTEE

Salesman Buckner's Theory of Slow Sales.—Interesting Meeting is Held in This City.

The meeting of the Christian county executive committee of the Planters' Protective association, which was held at the city court-room Saturday afternoon, was a very interesting session. This was the first official business meeting of the committee as made up at the election of precinct committeemen in September. Dr. J. L. Barker, chairman, R. R. McGaughey, vice-chairman and M. B. King, secretary, these being the newly elected officers of the committee, were in their places, as were nearly all of the committeemen. Quite a number of citizens of the town and the county were also in attendance. Bradley Wilson, chairman of Hopkins county was present and was frequently called on for information or his views upon the questions brought up.

Reports from the various precincts of the county showed that the association was in very satisfactory condition; that the tobacco was all housed and about cured up.

R. F. Rives broached a question to the committee which provoked lengthy discussion. According to his idea the association should have a statistical bureau which would keep up with the condition of the growing tobacco crop, the various markets of this country and the world and the future outlook so that they could furnish information to any member who applied. Everyone agreed that this would be a good thing, but it was called to mind that the state and the national government would furnish such information to a large extent free of charge to anyone who asks for it.

To this the objection was raised that the government reports came too late to be of much service.

Salesman S. G. Buckner reported that the business was dull; that he was at the salesroom at all business hours ready and willing to show the tobacco on hand but that the buyers were lacking. He gave it as his opinion that they were being held off by the trust in order to embarrass the organization. He stated that all of finer grades had been sold and that only lugs and low to medium leaf now remain on hand.

Someone offered a motion that the chairman be instructed to advocate before the meeting of the district committee today, that pledges should be taken at once for the 1900 crop; that the very fact that the 1900 crop was unpledged in any degree was, in his opinion, one of the chief reasons why the companies which ordinarily take dark tobacco are holding off; that by this course they may spread discontent among the members to such an extent that many of them will refuse to sign again when the new pledges are taken. According to this member, it was high time to take the new pledges and by getting the coming crop signed up force the buyers to take that which is already on hand.

This member said he could not see the wisdom or necessity of taking pledges for two, three or five years and having the trouble of renewing the pledges at that time to be gone through with again at the expiration of the time, but thought it would be the best idea to make the pledges for the life of the association and once these had been signed the trouble would be done away with so long as the organization held together. In response to this it was stated that the district executive committee had already discussed this feature of the work and had decided that it should be taken up the first thing after the new executive committee had organized and officers for the association had been elected.

In the afternoon, the business not having been completed at the morning session, the committee held an executive session to which none but the members were admitted.

Today the meeting of the district executive committee is being held at Guthrie. Quite a number of the members of this committee spent last night here en route to Guthrie. Besides the election of officers for the ensuing year, including inspectors, graders, etc., much business of importance will come up before this committee and the meeting will probably last through tomorrow at least.

Stomach trouble would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Says the Pembroke Journal: Constable Link Morrison made another of his famous raids Sunday, capturing 14 violators of the law. The raid was made near Bell station. Sunday he swooped down on the game and caught 14. All gave bond and were released.

HIS MIND AFFECTED

IMAGINES NIGHT RIDERS HAVE WOUNDED A BROTHER.

Well Known North Christian Citizen in Distress at Evansville.—Will Be Brought Home.

(Evansville Courier.)

Worry over the night riding outrages near his home caused James A. Boyd, a well-to-do old farmer living near Hopkinsville, Ky., who came to Evansville Friday, to become temporarily deranged and spend Friday night wandering in the country, trying to locate a relative whom he believed had been wounded by the Night Riders. The old man thought he heard the voice of a wounded man calling him and, following it, he wandered as far as Stacer's station on the E. S. & N. traction line. He was found Saturday morning by Eugene Angel, a farmer, who brought him to the city yesterday afternoon.

Boyd is 61 years old. He is a fine looking old man with a fresh, ruddy face and neatly trimmed beard. He wore a black suit and in every way he looked like a prosperous farmer. When taken to police station yesterday afternoon by Angel, he protested and won the regard of the officers by the courteous way in which he argued against being held.

Boyd belongs to a family prominent in Hopkinsville and the vicinity. He is an old friend of John W. Logsdon, superintendent of the St. Louis and Henderson division of the L. and N. railway.

"Boyd was standing in my yard when I got up this morning," said Angel yesterday. "He asked me for a cup of water, saying, 'John is lying down there wounded. I must take him a drink of water.'"

"His manner was nervous, but quiet. I went with him, and he led me almost a half mile down the road before I realized that his mind was deranged. He began talking about the Night Riders and said they had shot John."

"They put burning stuff on me," he told me.

"What sort of stuff, I asked. "I don't know what you call it," he said, passing his hand over his brow, bewilderedly. "But it burns one's flesh off. And they can shoot it seventy-five miles."

"I persuaded the old man to come back to the house and lie down," said Angel. He slept for an hour and then jumped up saying he must catch the 2:35 L. and N. train to his home.

"I gave him dinner and then drove him to town. On the way he told me things about his farm between Kelley's station and Hopkinsville. He said he had a wife and five children."

Angel took the old man to police station, fearing to trust him on the train. When Boyd found that Angel was driving to the police station he tried to seize the reins and turn the horse toward the L. and N. depot.

"My wife will be so worried if I do not come home," he pleaded. Captain Stockmeyer questioned the old man. When Boyd said that he knew Superintendent Logsdon of the L. and N., Stockmeyer telephoned the L. and N., official. Logsdon sent his friend, J. F. Campbell, a Hopkinsville man, to the police station.

When Campbell reached the station, Boyd was sleeping quietly, having been persuaded by the officers to lie down and rest. Campbell and Logsdon will arrange to have him returned to his home.

"Boyd belongs to a splendid family," said Logsdon last night. "He has always taken an important part in the politics of the county. I never knew a Boyd of that vicinity who was not a splendid man. The old man has become temporarily deranged through worrying over the Night Rider depredations."

How to Cure Indigestion

Well Known Family Physician Gives Good Advice

"When a person cannot eat ordinary food without discomfort afterward, when he has heartburn, sick headache, gas on the stomach, water brash, belches up sour food, and this condition has continued for a week or more, it certainly is time to do something and do it quickly." That's what a popular physician recently said to the writer. "First thing you know you'll have dyspepsia if you don't," said he.

The quickest and best way to regain your normal condition is to step into the drug store and buy a 50c bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It gives natural, daily movements to the bowels, and that is usually where more than half the trouble lies. Then it aids digestion, sweetens the stomach, acts on the liver and is a general system tonic.

Postmaster Ridgill, of Bruceville, Tex., had such a severe attack of dyspepsia that his stomach, liver and bowels seemed almost paralyzed, but a few doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin relieved him and today he is well as ever. Maude Hall, Alpena, Mich., says that one bottle cured her of a very severe case of indigestion. A. L. Esplen, Chief of Police, New Philadelphia, Ohio, says: "I find Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy for indigestion I ever used. I would not be without it." Rev. A. J. Fletcher, Rutherford, Tenn., is now 80, and yet it cured him of stomach trouble of 60 years' standing. Mrs. Mattie Crouch, Tiptonville, Tenn., cured her five months' old baby of indigestion with it, so you see that while it is so effective it will cure cases of long standing of dyspepsia and constipation in old people, it is perfectly safe for babies, and it is pleasant to take, and does not pain or gripe.

All druggists sell it at 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Syrup Pepsin Co., 307 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., are glad to send a free sample to any one who has not used it and will give it a fair trial.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Fourth Quarter, International Series.

Text of the Lesson, I Chron. xvii, 1-14. Memory Verses, 13, 14—Golden Text, I Kings viii, 56—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

(Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.)

Our lesson today has for its topic the covenant with David concerning the kingdom, the third unconditional covenant in Scripture. A covenant generally has two parties to it, and if either party fails the matter falls through. But on three different occasions God promised for His own sake to do certain things without binding man to anything on his part, and because of His faithfulness these covenants stand, and Isa. xiv, 24, will apply to each of them, "The Lord of Hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought so shall it come to pass, and as I have purpose so shall it stand." The first was with Noah concerning the earth, the second with Abraham concerning the land and his seed and this third one with David concerning the throne and the kingdom, to be established forever. That we may look beyond David and Solomon to the everlasting kingdom of which God spoke notice Acts ii, 30, where we learn that David knew that God spoke to Him of the Messiah, who, raised from the dead, would sit on his throne.

Although our lessons will continue for a few weeks yet in Samuel, we are asked to turn to Chronicles for this lesson. It matters little, as I Sam. vii and I Chron. xvii are almost word for word identical. The two chapters should be carefully compared. A sentence at the beginning of the Samuel chapter should be given special attention, "The Lord had given him rest round about from all his enemies." Compare I Chron. xxii, 9, 13; xxiii, 25; I Kings v, 4; Matt. xi, 28, 29, and other verses on the rest and peace and quietness which the Lord alone can give. "But which He loves to give to all who truly come to Him." Ps. xviii should be read carefully, for see its title. Neither prophets nor apostles have always the mind of the Lord, but sometimes speak from themselves their own thoughts, as when the disciples found fault with Mary of Bethany. See also Jer. xxiii, 15, 17, 21, 22, etc. Preachers are often tempted to agree with those to whom they are indebted for favors or position. Nathan's "Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee," was not of God, for that same night a different message came from God to Nathan for David, and that message is our lesson portion. Both David and Nathan were truly the Lord's servants, but even such need to remember Isa. lv, 8, 9.

The thought of a habitation on earth for God is seen in Ex. xv, 2, and is endorsed by God in Ex. xxv, 8, but He had been content to dwell in a tent among them and had not yet spoken of any more permanent dwelling. The time for such had not fully come, but later we shall see that He gave to David by His Spirit the plans for the temple and permitted him to provide very largely for it (I Chron. xxviii, 11, 12, 19; xxix, 1-5). In the Lord's service all must be of Him—time, place, circumstances, provision, all. We need to remember in what condition He found us and to what He had raised us and His purpose concerning us in order that we may walk worthy of Him (verses 7-9; see also Ps. xi, 1-3; Eph. ii, 4-10; v, 1, 2; Rom. xii, 1, 2). The words in verse 9 of our lesson concerning the place and the planting point us onward to the one thing that God says He will do with all His heart and soul at the time of the kingdom (Jer. xxxii, 41). See also the quietness and assurance that shall be forever when the death this (Isa. xxxiii, 17, 18).

We have seen at the beginning of our lesson that the seed of David here spoken of was not Solomon, but Jesus Christ raised from the dead, for only an immortal man could reign forever. See Rom. i, 4; Rev. v, 5, 6; xii, 16. The saying in I Sam. vii, 14, "If he commit iniquity," is perplexing as it reads in our version, for we know that Jesus knew no sin and did no sin and there was no sin in Him, but there is good authority for this reading of that sentence. "When iniquity shall be laid upon Him," and that makes all clear, for we know that our iniquities were laid upon Him, and He bore our sins in His own body on the tree. But, while receiving all possible comfort concerning our own individual salvation from the great truths concerning Him and His suffering in our stead, we must never forget that He suffered also as Israel's Messiah and that through Israel as a nation when converted it is the purpose of the Lord to bless all nations. Read Ps. lxxvii in that light and all is clear.

We can take individual comfort from much of Isa. lili and xli and similar portions, and yet the former will be peculiarly Israel's national confession and the latter their national anthem when the kingdom comes. As David hears of the kingdom and his seed to sit on his throne forever he is impressed with his own nothingness and the greatness of Jehovah, who unconditionally covenants to do all this (verses 10-22; I Sam. vii, 18-26), and he can only say, "Do as Thou hast said that Thy name may be magnified forever" (verses 23, 24). Seeing the glorious future assured to his people, he finds comfort in the fact that God has promised it notwithstanding all his unworthiness. "Thou knowest thy servant" (verse 18).

JONAS ON STANLEY

FORMER EDITOR OF HENDERSON JOURNAL MAKES A REPLY

Claims Congressman Is in a Panic And In Desperation Sacrifices Even the Truth.

Henderson, Ky., Oct. 1, 1908.

I learn from a summary of Mr. Stanley's recent speech in your city, that he has seen fit to drag me into his controversy with Mr. Worsham, and I am, therefore, constrained to ask for space to put myself right with your readers.

The accusation he made was an unworthy one, and the advantage he sought to take is in the last degree mean and despicable. Inconsistency alike with any regard for veracity or for the dignity of his high office. The conclusion forces itself upon one that he is yielding to panic, and, in his desperation, is willing to sacrifice anything, even the truth. But the public can no longer be tricked by his tearful hysteria; it refuses to be led astray by noisy tin-horning. It asks for facts—not declamation; and the facts are plain, convincing and of common knowledge.

Mr. Stanley says the report of his speech at Cynthiana as published in the Henderson Journal, was, in his opinion, concocted by me and that, and to use his own words "He made Jonas swallow it." Both these statements are falsehoods; unqualified, deliberate and made with full knowledge. The "raise hell" speech appeared in a Louisville paper, at greater length in a Cynthiana paper; it cannot be denied and has frequently been vouched for by credible witnesses. From that date to this I have neither withdrawn the item nor retracted a single word of my comment.

But I am no longer editor of the Henderson Journal, as is well with in Mr. Stanley's knowledge, and he sees in my misfortune occasion and opportunity for a cheap attack and a cheaper taunt. That is all there is to it.

I will not follow him into that coarse abuse which seems to be his element, and can only wish that his pronounced distaste for fair play and for the courtesies of debate were less frequently reflected in his utterances.

I have the honor to remain, Yours truly

Edward A. Jonas.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

When we get home and take stock of our chiggers, blisters, burns and bills we are inclined to be glad to think it is over.

Queer that your next door neighbor should think you are a mean, interfering wretch when you tell her that little Johnnie has a fire under the front porch.

Between being overfed and underfed we seem to be a much distressed and long suffering people.

A burned child dreads the licking he's going to get when dad finds out he has been playing with matches.

The man who tells a secret to a woman isn't foolish, but just diplomatic and crafty. It is his way of announcing it to the world.

Lots of girls are as mild as milk and as sweet as honey, and still they may have the tabasco sauce up their sleeve.

Many a holo would make a good emperor, but the distressing thing about it is that there is more call for harvest hands in this country than for emperors.

Women as well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were unanimously passed by Highland Chapel Sunday school, Sunday Sept. 27th, 1908:

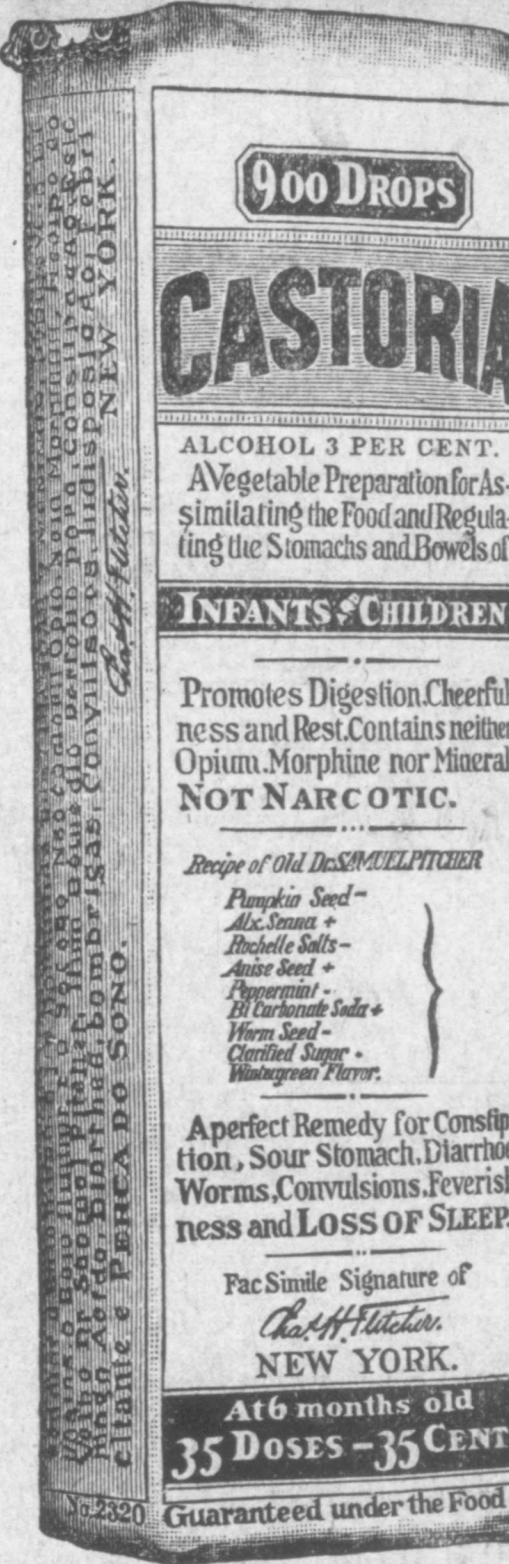

Whereas, we learn with deep sorrow of the death of our first superintendent and beloved co-worker in Sunday school, at his late residence in Cleveland, Ohio, Brother Cortez Leavelle.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we as a school tender his beloved family our heartfelt sympathy and assure them that we will revere the memory of our deceased brother, and cherish a fond recollection of his Christian manhood and the noble good work he did among us while he was with us, and took such an active interest in the welfare of the school and community.

It is also resolved a copy of the above be given the Daily New Era for publication, also a copy be forwarded the family of the deceased.

Facts

About the Majestic

Range

It is the only range in the world made of Malleable and Charcoal Iron.

It has, beyond any question of a doubt, the largest and best reservoir.

It uses about half the fuel used on other ranges, and does better work by far.

The Majestic All Copper Nickled Reservoir heats the water quicker and hotter than any other. It is the only reservoir with a removable frame.

The Charcoal Iron Body of the Great Majestic Range lasts three times as long as a steel body.

Being made of non-breakable material, there is practically no expense for repairing Majestic. As for baking, it is perfection; not only for a few months, but for all time to come.

A great Majestic Range lasts three times as long as a cheap range, but don't cost three times as much.

PROOF—We don't ask you to take our word for any of the above statements, but if you will call at our store, a man from the factory, where Majestic Ranges are made, will prove to your satisfaction that these are absolute facts, and will show you many more reasons why the Great Majestic Range is absolutely the best that money can buy.

PRaise FOR THE CARNIVAL

FROM ALL THE CROWDS THAT SEE THE SHOWS.

Attractions ARE EXCELLENT

Free Acts Daring And The Numerous Shows Are Enjoying a Fine Patronage.

The carnival is the thing. All this week, Mercer park is the mecca of people who enjoy clean and clever entertainment and wholesome fun.

The Pythian carnival is pronounced by everybody as pleasing and high class, and the members of the uniform rank are receiving congratulations on having secured so excellent an attraction as the Cosmopolitan Shows.

There were good crowds Monday and yesterday, and prospects are rosy for greatly increased numbers all the rest of the week.

The carnival spirit last night was rife. Everybody was out for a good time and everybody had it. The best of order prevailed.

Business people laid aside their cares and perplexities, folks from the country came to town to enjoy the amusements, and the youngsters were in a state of happiness unalloyed.

One of the features was the music of the carnival band. It is a large and proficient organization, and plays a class of music particularly suitable to festive occasions—the sort that puts all the hearers in a jolly good humor and sets feet to tapping time.

The free acts were all excellent and were witnessed by big crowds. There are some very daring performers, and their acts never fail to elicit admiration and applause.

The shows are numerous and they enjoyed fine patronage, which they undoubtedly merited.

The biggest is the wild animal show, and this is highly instructive as well as interesting. The arrangements in this big tent for the accommodation of the people make it especially attractive, and the performance is one of the best of the kind ever witnessed in this region.

The visit to the Alps is also a favorite. It is a beautiful reproduction of the city of Geneva, and some lovely electrical effects are used.

The Old Plantation introduces a troupe of colored singers and dancers and comedians who give a lively and entertaining performance.

"The Crazy House" is one long scream of fun, and the Ghost Show is as mysterious as it is amusing. "Superba" presents a highly diverting vaudeville bill. "The Outlaw" is an exciting moving picture entertainment.

There are numerous other attractions and all well worth seeing. The big Ferris wheel, merry-go-round and scores of vendor stands, can-can and all the other usual, and some very unusual, features of a modern carnival are included in the great circle of amusement.

The popularity of the Pythian Uniform Rank and the genuine merit of the entertainments offered by the Cosmopolitan shows should keep the carnival grounds filled with crowds.

NIGHT RIDER ISSUE

BIG CROWD HEARS STANLEY AND WORSHAM.

Debate The Question at Length at Henderson And Some Ugly Charges Are Made.

HENDERSON, Ky., Oct. 7.—Three thousand people heard last night the joint debate on the Night Rider issue between John C. Worsham, the Republican nominee for congress, and A. O. Stanley, the present Democratic congressman and nominee in the Second district. It was clearly a Stanley crowd, but Worsham was given good attention. The Hon. Malcolm Yeaman presided as chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers. Mr. Worsham spoke first, consuming about an hour and a quarter, during which he reiterated practically of the same statements made in his Hawesville speech of a few weeks ago. He read extensively from Collier's, the Courier-Journal, the Hopkinsville New Era and Kentuckian as well as from both local papers. He strongly censured Stanley, upon whom he laid the blame of nearly all the outrages in this part of the state, citing particularly the speeches made at Cynthiana, Hopkinsville, and Sturgis.

Stanley came back in a speech of an hour and a quarter in which he handled his opponent without gloves, stating that Mr. Worsham had produced no proof that he, Stanley, was an incendiary and that he had incited lawlessness. He stated that Worsham was a pupil of Frank's and Gov. Willson, and that he, Worsham, took his cue from them. He charged, incidentally, that Worsham's campaign was financed by the American Tobacco trust. Mr. Stanley also paid his respects to Franks and Willson.

Mr. Worsham had a fifteen-minute rejoinder in which he reiterated his former statements.

Mr. Stanley, before closing his remarks, invited his opponent to speak with him in every county seat in this district and that he, Stanley, would pay his way. Neither of the speakers touched on national issues. The discussion closed amidst great cheering of the adherents of both speakers.

VETERANS MEETING

COL. YOUNG, DECLINES TO BE COME LIFE COMMANDER.

Biggest Rally of Boys in Gray Ever Held in State is Planned.

High tribute was paid to the worth of Col. Bennett H. Young by his former comrades in arms, the United Confederate Veterans of the division of Kentucky, in the annual reunion at Pewee Valley, when he was without dissent elected for life as major general of the Kentucky division, says the Louisville Times. Moved almost to tears by the motive that actuated this action on the part of his comrades, Col. Young declined the high honor of serving as their commander for life, and asked that he be allowed to serve for one year only. This was finally agreed to and he was unanimously chosen to command the Kentucky veterans for another term.

Forty-five camps were represented at the reunion and the attendance was the largest ever known in the history of the organization. In addition to the veterans there were close to 1,000 visitors. Among the distinguished visitors were Mrs. Ben Hardin Helm, widow of General Helm, and her two daughters. They were presented to the veterans and were royally received.

A brief business session was held during the day at which Col. Young was elected division commander; Gen. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, commander of the Second brigade; Gen. James R. Rogers, of Paris, commander of the First brigade; Gen. Samuel H. Buchanan, commander of Third brigade, and Gen. P. P. Johnson, adjutant general of Kentucky, commander of the Fourth brigade. Col. Young made his report and reviewed conditions for the past 12 months. He told of the work that is being accomplished and urged every Confederate veteran to assist in providing monuments to the memory of Gen. John H. Morgan, at Lexington, and President Jefferson Davis, in Todd county.

J. H. Hollingsworth offered a resolution providing for a grand rally of all the camps in Kentucky. The motion was unanimously adopted and steps will be taken to revive all of the old camps and make the rally the biggest event in the history of the Confederacy in Kentucky.
