LOVELY LIFE ENDS
MRS. MANNING BROWN PASSES AWAY UNEXPECTEDLY

One of the Brightest and Most Useful Young Women in City Answers Its Final summons

[From Father's Diary]

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, the beloved wife of J. Manning Brown and eldest daughter of G. L. Long, president of the First National land bank of Hopkinsville, has passed away unexpectedly in her home.

The end came with shocking suddenness. She was only 38 years of age, and her death was a profound shock to all who knew her. Mrs. Brown was a member of the First National Bank and had been an employee of the bank for several years.

Mrs. Brown was born in Hopkinsville and lived there all her life. She was a member of the First Methodist Church and was a beloved member of the community.

The funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church at 2 p.m. on Monday, December 28th. The interment will be at the Hopkinsville Cemetery.

SALE PROMPTLY COMMENCES
Friday, December 4th, 1908, at 9 A. M., Sharp!

And Lasts Only 15 Days. A Majestic Proclamation to the People of Christian County and Adjoining Counties.

Whereas, the undersigned, E. Tanner, has definitely decided to reduce his entire stock, this is to advise and command you and every woman and child within a radius of 50 miles to attend this mighty bargain event. It will be the greatest sale ever attempted in the State of Kentucky. Being forced to reduce my stock, I put on this early fall sale, and announce the most magnificent bargain event ever attempted in this part of the country. Thousands of people are going to flock to this event. If you cannot come send your friends.

This Entire Stock Has Been Surrendered to the Cincinnati Wreckage and Salvage Company, Who are under contract to sell out three-fourths of entire stock in 15 days.

The hour is set, the date is appointed. Let nothing keep you away from this sale. Remember the place, HOPKINSVILLE BARGAIN HOUSE, 226 Ninth Street, or corner Ninth and Clay. Look for the Red and White Banner signs, with the imprint, "SURRENDER SALE," on same.
