WEEKLY NEW ERA

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1910

VOLUME XXIV NO. 2

POOR COMMISSIONER'S APPEAL THROUGH NEW ERA IS FRUITFUL

MONEY, CLOTHES AND PROVISIONS ARE RECEIVED.

MUCH MORE GREATLY NEEDED.

Mr. Randle Besieged By Distress of the County.—Won't You Help Relieve Suffering?

(From Saturday's Daily.)
The call sounded yesterday through the New Era by Poor Commissioner W. F. Randle for donations from the citizens to supplement the county funds in caring for the poor and destitute during this bad weather, is meeting with a hearty response from the generous people of the city and county.

Telephone New Era.

Long before the carrier boys had returned to the office from delivering the New Era yesterday afternoon, the telephone began ringing, people desiring to know where Mr. Randle's office was located. Before he left his office last night a donation of a hundred bushels of coal and cash to the amount of $10 had been handed to him. This morning the contributions of clothing, provisions, fuel and money began to pour in early and there has been a steady stream of callers all day adding to the supplies sent to Commissioner Randle for distribution. Sometimes the contribution is money, sometimes it is an order on some storekeeper for provisions, clothing or other supplies and then again it may be for coal. Commissioner Randle's office now resembles a store house for Santa Claus, there being bundles of every conceivable size and shape deposited there.

His office is located in the county building, in the rear of the county school superintendent's apartments.

Needs Are Numerous.

But there is a place for everything waiting. The calls made on the charity fund are increasing rather than diminishing today and some of the cases are indeed pitiable. Sometimes they want clothing and the garments that have been so generously donated are rapidly being distributed. Perhaps the next one will want coal, groceries or something which has to be bought and here the orders for such things or the money comes in handily. Through it all the county funds being issued as usual.

The call was made this morning for old white man who is deaf and whose foot are drawn and misshapen having been frozen prior to this. Neighbors found him destitute and provided for him until this morning when the case was reported to Commissioner Randle who attended the case at once, sending him clothes and provisions.

The case of the family of Lee Gray, the negro whose house was burned Thursday night, is a sad one. The negroes escaped in their night clothes as detailed yesterday in the New Era, not even having time to put on shoes. When the mother discovered the absence of the youngest child and rushed back into the house and saved it, her feet were badly burned and a physician is now attending her.

No one answered the calls of the homeless family and they walked a distance of three or four hundred yards through the snow, barefooted, to the home of a brother of Gray.

Many Want Coal.

Owing to the overwhelming lot of orders on the books of the coal dealers, they were unable to deliver the coal ordered for the poor as rapidly as it was needed and this morning Commissioner Randle hired an express wagon to make these deliveries. This wagon is now doing nothing but hauling this coal. The price of coal advanced this morning two cents per bushel and this has further decreased the purchasing power of the money available.

HELPING THE POOR

(From Monday's Daily.)

The contributions for the poor continue to come in to Poor Commissioner W. F. Randle at his office in the rear of the county superintendent's office. The bundles of every conceivable size and shape got so in the way that, assisted by his wife and Miss Mary Park, they were opened by Mr. Randle, the contents tabulated and the clothing hung about on everything possible.

Good Clothes.

While most of the clothing is second hand all of it is in good shape and the garments are warm and good. Many of them are exceptionally heavy and in good repair, this being especially true of the men's clothing and the ladies' and children's cloaks. Nearly everything conceivable is contained in the bundles, there being much underclothing, shoes, caps and hats, suits for men, women and children, etc. In one bundle there was a Teddy Bear, in another there was a cake of Ivory soap while a third contained two hogs heads ready for cooking.

In addition to the clothing, bed clothing, etc., donated by the generous people several have given cash, bakers' bread, coal, orders for groceries, etc.

Starts Distribution.

Today Commissioner Randle is arranging the distribution of the donations. There are destitute families in which there is serious sickness and these are being cared for first. Lee Gray, the negro whose home was burned, has been well fitted up with household supplies and clothing. The chief trouble today is in getting coal hauled to those who need it, the offices being unable to make the deliveries themselves and there being a dearth of wagons to be secured for this purpose. Many of the poor are in bed today in order to keep warm while still others are visiting among their more fortunate neighbors until the coal they need is gotten to them.

Following is a partial list of those who have contributed to help out in the relief of the poor. This list is necessarily far from complete, for in many instances bundles have been sent to Commissioner Randle's office without anything to indicate from whom it came while still others have asked that their names be withheld.

List of Donors.

So far as is known the list is as follows:

Sam Frankel, 100 bushels of coal. Clerks in Frankel's store, $10 in cash.
Mrs. H. D. Wallace, clothing and provisions.
Unknown contributor, $5 in cash.
W. T. Tandy, $5 in cash.

PINCHOT GETS HIS

OUSTED FROM OFFICE BY THE PRESIDENT.

Forestry Service Is Given a Shake-up. Sensation Created By the Action.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Following a letter to Senator Dilliver, read before the senate, in which Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot defended men who had attacked Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, and intimated that President Taft had erred in dismissing the Glavis charges as false, Pinchot was removed from office yesterday by the chief executive.

Almost at the same time Overton W. Price, associate forester, and Alexander C. Shaw, assistant law officer of the forestry bureau, were handed letters of dismissal.

Determination to depose Pinchot, Price and Shaw was reached at cabinet meetings of over four hours' duration, at which every phase of the matter was gone over.

The action has created a sensation in official circles at the capital.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14 1909

Anyway, we don't have to worry about delayed street cars.

We are perfectly willing for the deep snow record not to be broken.

Adjutant General Johnston's whereabouts is not known. You can search Denny Goode.

Favorite song: "O, we never care to wander from our own fireside: we-never care from that dear old place
to roam."

A poll of Hopkinsville folks, who have been strenuously struggling through the snow, would probably result in a verdict that Cook and Peary are both eligible to membership in the Ananias club.

The making of wife desertion a felony, punishable by a fine of $500 and imprisonment at hard labor for a period of not exceeding twelve months, or both fine and imprisonment, is the object of a bill introduced in the house by Representative Robert L.
Harris, of Louisville.

Indiana is looking forward to one of the liveliest political campaigns that the state has seen in many years. Though the election is still a long way off, both parties are already preparing for the campaign.
The Democrats will start the ball a-rolling tomorrow, when the state committee will meet for reorganization. At the same time there will be a conference of the party leaders and general discussion of the lines on which the campaign will be made.
Encouraged by their success in the last election, when they elected the governor and nearly the entire congressional delegation, the Democrats are looking forward to even greater victories in the coming contest. Present indications point to the re-election of U. S. Jackson as chairman of the Democratic state committee.
While Thomas Taggart, former chairman of the Democratic national committee and still one of the controlling factors in Indiana politics, is believed to be a none too ardent supporter of Jackson, it is thought he will acquiesce in the desire of the majority of the party leaders, who believe that the state chairman should be re-elected as a reward for his successful management of the last campaign.

FROM GUTHRIE.

Two Members of Board Resign.—Reduction of Salaries Considered.
—Pledges for Crop.

GUTHRIE, Ky., Jan. 7.—The headquarters of the Dark Tobacco Planters' Protective Association is to be moved from here to Clarksville, Tenn.
in the very near future, the offices to be located in the Masonic Temple building there. This decision was reached by the board of directors of the association, now in session here.
Reports show that 30,000 hogheads of the 1909 crop were pledged to the association and that the price paid last year for independent tobacco in each county marked a high record.

A committee was appointed to consider the matter of reducing expenses, including the salaries of officers.
It was also decided to restrict the number of sales places to three and Clarksville, Tenn., Springfield, Tenn.,
and Paducah, Ky., were designated.
G. B. Winston and W. B. Finch resigned as members of the board.

FIRE OCCURRED AT MIDNIGHT.

Woman and Two Children Were Out in Zero Weather in Their Night Clothes.

(From Friday's Daily)
A cabin just north of Riverside cemetery, occupied by Bennie King, colored, and her two children, was burned last night. The woman and her children barely escaped with their lives, not being able to save any thing at all from the house, and were dressed only in their night clothes.

Heroic Rescue.

The woman and one child got out first, and, discovering the absence of the other child, the mother heroically dashed into the burning building and rescued her offspring.

Today they are being cared for by the people of that vicinity. They are entirely destitute.

The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The woman says that when she awakened the flames were almost licking her in the face, and the cabin was completely enveloped.

After Midnight.

She does not know what time it was, but thinks it was some time after midnight. Owing to the fact that all houses were so closed up last night to keep out the cold and there was no alarm turned in, very few knew anything of the fire until it was reported this morning.

Urgent Call on

Citizens to Help

the Destitute

In an interview with a New Era representative, this morning, Mr. W. F. Randle, commissioner of the poor fund, sounded a call upon the people of the town, and county to assist the county in providing for the poor people who are suffering greatly during the cold weather. Mr. Randle said:

Funds Insufficient.

"The county is doing all it can to provide for the poor people who are destitute at this time, but for many reasons the money at hand falls short and the citizens are urged to help out in the cause. The price of provisions, clothing and everything else has advanced to such an extent that the usual amount of money given to a person buys only a fraction of the things it formerly did or that they need. Then, too, many more people are dependent this time than before for the reason that the high prices have taken all they made and they have been unable to save anything for emergencies. Deserving people are asking aid for the first time in their lives.

"Under the law, $5 is the maximum I can issue to a person and in only extreme cases can I do this, for fund would soon be exhausted at that rate. The list of paupers furnished me by the magistrates alone numbers 143, and this is only the beginning of the calls made upon me.

Knows the Situation.

"I am thoroughly in touch with the situation and know just how to make the best disposition of any donations that may be made and if the people will bring the things they can spare to my office I will see that they reach those people, who are most in want. Clothing, for either children or grown people, fuel, provisions of any kind, bedclothing, even old stoves that are still capable of being used, money or anything that can be turned to account by the poor will be welcome and will carry joy to the hearts of the recipients. The call is urgent and I hope the people will not lose any time in making their donations if they have anything to give."

STRONG FIRM

Winfree & Sons Company, Real Es-
state, Insurance and Loans.

Winfree & Knight having dissolved their real estate partnership, W. P.
Winfree & Sons Company (incorporated) will carry on the business of real estate, insurance and loans at the old stand in W. P. Winfree's block, No. 17, Webber street, just back of the courthouse.

Judge W. P. Winfree, the head of this new firm, is the veteran real estate and insurance man of the city. Having been in the business for more than forty years, he brings to it a rich store of experience which will be of great value to the patrons of the firm. He probably has the widest range of acquaintance of any man in the county and his reputation for integrity and square dealing makes him an invalua-of business.

His sons, who are associated with him, are young men of exceptional ability and experienced insurance men, each with a host of friends, and we predict for them a most promising future.

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony
she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

SICK WOMEN WELL.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson III.—First Quarter, For Jan. 16, 1910.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. iv, 12-25. Memory Verse, 23—Golden Text, Matt. iv, 16—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Luke tells us that Jesus, being full of the Holy Ghost, was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the devil, and that after the temptation Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee (Luke iv, 1, 2, 14). If we desire a sequence of the events in His life we may have to consider before His return to Galilee the whole of John i, 19, to iv, 54. But, confining ourselves as far as possible to our lesson portion, we should consider John's brief ministry and the reason of his imprisonment. He was filled with the Holy Spirit from his birth, and Jesus said of him, "Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist" (Luke i, 15, vii, 28). He was a Spirit filled, God sent man, in very truth the Lord's messenger. Yet his ministry was not what men count a success. Just a few months' public ministry, then imprisonment because he dared to rebuke sin in high places (Mark vi, 17-19), and then his martyrdom to please a wicked woman. But he was approved of God from first to last, and some time we'll understand. The devil could not conquer Jesus Christ, but he was permitted to torment and to kill His faithful messenger.

In connection with Jesus leaving Nazareth to make His home in Capernaum we must read Luke iv, 16-31, and note how, after He had in the power of the Spirit read the Scripture and spoken in the synagogue at Nazareth, His own townsmen thrust Him out of the city and attempted to kill Him. Then He came and dwelt in Capernaum, and great was the privilege of that city; yet see His words concerning it in Matt. xi, 23, 24.

Notice the oft-repeated phrase "that it might be fulfilled" (chapters i, 22, ii, 15, 23, iv, 14; viii, 17; xxi, 4; xxv, 32, etc.) and remember His resurrection words in Luke xxiv, 44. "All things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses and in the prophets and in the Psalms concerning Me." The quotation in our lesson from Isa. ix, 1, 2, leads on to verses 6, 7, and the King and the kingdom. So also in Isa. xlii, 6, 7, where He is spoken of as a light of the gentiles, the context says that He shall not fail nor be discouraged. He have set judgment in the earth (verse 4), or, in other words, till His kingdom comes. The darkness is everywhere, and is increasing, and we are right into the apostasy of unbelief and the settling aside of the written word and the living word of which we have in the word been forewarned. "For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness the people, but the Lord shall arise upon them, and His glory shall be seen upon them, and the nations shall come to thy light and kings to the brightness of thy rising" (Isa. ix, 1-3). Jesus preached, as John had done, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matt. iii, 2); but both John and Jesus were slain and the kingdom was postponed till the risen and ascended Christ should come again in power and glory preceded by the real Elijah, as foretold by Malachi and confirmed by Jesus (Matt. iv, 5, 6; Matt. xxiii, 35). Read the last passage most carefully and see how the real Elijah shall be to Christ's second coming what John was to His first coming. Acknowledging that John had come in the spirit and power of Elijah and had been rejected, He says in unmistakable words, "Elijah truly shall first come."

Meanwhile He is calling unto Him self out of the world those who are willing to remain in the world as His witnesses, counting all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Himself and the glory of His kingdom. If we will follow Him it must be by denial or renunciation of self and a willingness to die daily that His life may be seen in us (Matt. xvi, 24, 25; I Cor. iv, 11). But He does not call us to this unworldly life without setting before us the kingdom, the glory and the rewards (Matt. xvi, 27, to xviii, 3). When Peter on one occasion said, "Behold, we have foregone all and followed Thee—what shall we have, therefore?" Jesus told him of a new earth with the Son of Man in the throne of His glory and the twelve apostles on twelve thrones ruling the twelve tribes of Israel (Matt. xix, 27, 28). But listen to the last of the seven promises to the overcomers in Rev. iii, 21, and think of being with Him on His throne. He told Abram of the city which hath foundations; Moses had respect unto the recompense of the reward; and said that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us, but to the majority of believers today there seems to be no future glory worth mentioning, nothing and no one for which or for whom it is worth while to renounce the follies of this ungodly age and the pleasures of sin for a season. As Jesus went about all Galilee accompanied by His few faithful followers, He preached the gospel of the kingdom and healed all manner of

Saved at Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers, of Trans-act Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Violent liver trouble pulling the down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine—Electric Bitters—cured me. I regained the 40 pounds lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. 50 cents at Cook & Higgins (Incorporated).

Pleasant to take; sure in its action. Price 25 cents. Sold by Cook & Higgins (Incorporated) Druggists.

A Wild Blizzard Raging

brings danger, suffering—often death to thousands who take colds, coughs and laGrippe—that terror of winter and spring. Its danger signals are "stuffed up" nostrils, lower part of nose sore, chills and fever, pain in back of head, and a throat-grinding cough. When grip attacks, as you value your life, don't delay getting Dr. King's New Discovery. "One bottle cured me," writes A. L. Dunn, of Pine Valley, Miss., "after being laid up three weeks with grip." It is a dangerous thing to take a cough medicine containing opiates that merely stifle your coughs instead of curing it. Foley's Honey and Tar loosens and cures the cough and soothes the inflamed throat.

Ladies First!

"Scratch a southerner and you find a knightly soul" might be said to be one of the morals of the Chicago Record-Herald story below. The second moral is reasonably obvious. "What is the reason," begins the irritated traveler from the north, "that the trains in this part of the country are always behind time? I have never seen one yet that ran according to its schedule."

"That, suh," replied the dignified Georgian, "is a matter that is easily explained. It is due to southern chivalry, suh."

"Southern chivalry! Where does that come in?"

"You see, suh, the trains are always late in this country because they wait for the ladies. God bless them!"

The Patient Man.

Mr. Henneke had hesitated a long while about doing this bold thing, but he felt that now was the time or never. "Dear," he said, in a very timid voice, "I wish you wouldn't call me 'Loo' any more."

"Why not?" demanded his wife explosively. "Loo is your given name."

"I know, my dear, but it makes my friends laugh when you call me that. I was thinking you might call me 'John,' just for a pet name."

PEOPLE'S

Sermon by
CHARLES T. RUSSELL
Pastor Brooklyn
Tabernacle.

Toronto, Canada, January 3.—Pastor C. T. Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle, New York, preached twice here today to large and very attentive audiences. We report one of his discourses from the above text, as follows:—

The word "winked" in our text is used in a figurative sense to signify that God took no notice of, paid no attention to, that long period of time from the flood to the First Advent of our Redeemer. During those twenty-five hundred years the world of mankind lay in ignorance and weakness and vice, but, as our text declares, God took no notice of it as a whole. He gave his attention entirely to the little nation of Israel, the descendants of Abraham, with whom he made a special Law Covenant. Israel entered upon a great sojourn in Egypt; and later, under the command of Moses, passing from Egypt to Canaan, with a wandering of forty years in the wilderness; still later under judges, and then under kings, etc., God did not wink at sin amongst the Israelites, whom he adopted as his "peculiar people" under the Law Covenant mediated by Moses. We read that every disobedience received a "just recompense of reward" (Hebrews ii. 2). Stripes, punishments, captivities, under Divine supervision and predicted through the prophets, was the portion of the chosen people of the Lord. Obedience on their part brought blessing and disobedience and idolatry brought chastisement—God winked at nothing as respects his chosen people.

At first glance this is perplexing. Not understanding the Divine Plan we would be inclined to expect that the favored nation would be excused more than others—that it would be the people whose imperfections would be winked at. But not so; Israel was chosen for a purpose. And in order to prepare them for their mission and to fit them to fill it, the Lord chastened and scourged them for their sins, and thus educated and assisted them more than others out of creation. As a result, when our Lord came into the world to be man's Redeemer, Israel, under the chastening, scourging, instructing experiences of many centuries, was by far the most advanced nation in the world along religious lines.

Thus it was that when the Redeemer presented himself, some, "a remnant," were "Israelites indeed" and ready to receive him five hundred years before his earthly ministry and several thousand more at the following Pentecostal season. It is but reasonable to suppose that no other nation in the world would have furnished any such numbers ready of heart for Messiah, and consecrated fully to him. Note, for instance, that St. Paul's preaching to the Athenians on Mars Hill apparently touched not a single heart nor head.

The Justice of the Wink.
The Almighty informs us that Justice is the very foundation of all of his dealings. He cannot be less than just, although through Christ he has provided to be more than just—that is, loving and merciful. There must have been a justice in this winking mentioned by the Apostle. What was it?

The Apostle explains that owing to a death sentence that was upon the world in general, and no provision having yet been made for a redemption from that death penalty and a resurrection deliverance, it would have been illegal for God to give laws to the world of mankind commanding repentance, etc. Why? Because they were already condemned to death by the extreme penalty of the Divine Law. No more could be done to them than to destroy them, however badly they lived. And nothing that they could do would make them deserving of eternal life. So long as that death sentence rested upon them and no prospect was offered even of release from it, God let them alone, and justly enough "winked" at their imperfection and did not lay it specially to their charge.

With the Jew it was different. God instructed that nation through the Law and the prophets and the chastenings for their wrong doings, and thus prepared in them a "little flock" of "Israelites indeed" ready for spiritual things. Additionally he wished to use them and their experiences as types or lessons for Spiritual Israel yet future. These types, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit through the New Testament, have constituted very helpful lessons to the Church of this Gospel Age—Spiritual Israel—"For the Law Covenant was a shadow of good things coming after it."

But before having this dealing with Israel, God made a Covenant with Adam, promising them life-eternal if they would obey. They gladly accepted the proposition and strove to live righteously, strove to keep the Law. They did not gain eternal life under the Law, because they could not keep it; not that the Law was defective, but that they, like all other members of Adam's fallen race, were imperfect. God knew of their weakness and allowed them to be disappointed in the outcome of their Cov-

PULPIT...

What God Winked At

"The Times of This Ignorance God Winked at; but Now He Hath Commanded All Men Everywhere to Repent, Because He Hath Appointed a Day in the Which He Will Judge the World in Righteousness by That Man Whom He Hath Ordained" (Acts xvii, 30, 31).

must, nevertheless he made it a great blessing to them—a means of instruction, which, as we have seen, ultimately prepared several thousand to be of so ripe a condition of heart as to be ready for the Savior and become his disciples. The Jew then had this advantage over the Gentile up to that time. He had God's promises. He knew the Law of God. He was profited by striving to do the impossible thing of keeping it perfectly. Had God not chosen the nation of Israel to bring them under the schooling processes of the Law Covenant (Galatians iii, 24) he would have "winked" at their ignorance, etc., as he did with the transgressions of other nations up to that time.

"Now Commandeth All Men."

What is the secret of this change on God's part—from winking at the sins and imperfections of the world to commanding them to repent? If it was just to wink at their sins for thousands of years, why did not God continue to wink at them? The Apostle answers the question, telling us, that this change in God's dealing which sent forth the message that the world should repent was based upon the fact that his eternal purposes had by that time reached the stage of development which justified such a message. The Son of God had left the glory of the Father which he had before the world was; he had humbled himself to become a man. As the man Christ Jesus he had been obedient to the Heavenly Father's wish and had laid down his life sacrificially—that it might first benefit consecrated believers during this Gospel Age; secondly that it might bless the world of mankind during the Millennial Age.

For a time these good tidings were confined to the Jewish nation, but three and a half years after the crucifixion the limit of Israel's favor respecting the message came to an end, and then the good tidings of great joy was permitted to go to all the Gentiles on the same terms that the Jews had enjoyed.

The Gospel or "good news" consists of the information that God in his mercy has provided that the death sentence upon Adam and his race shall not be perpetual; that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust; that the provision for this has already been made in and through the death of the Redeemer. Is it inquired what advantage would there be in a resurrection of the dead if thereafter all were to be placed back just where they are at present? The answer is that there would be no advantage in such a resurrection. If the Jew could not keep the Law, and if the very best-intentioned of the Gentiles have found themselves to be imperfect and their efforts to stand approved before God in the present life to be failures, what good could result from merely awakening them from the sleep of death? Would it not be wiser and better every way to let them perish like the brute beast? We answer that God's Word reveals a very grand outcome to his Plan of Salvation. The word, resurrection, as Scripturally used, signifies much more than to be merely resuscitated. It signifies awakening and more—uplifting out of all sin and death conditions, up, up, up to perfection—to all that was lost by Father Adam and redeemed in the Calvary sacrifice.

"God Hath Appointed a Day."

This, then, is the meaning of the Apostle's argument. By providing the Lord Jesus Christ as the Redeemer of the Church and the world God has made possible a fresh trial or judgment for Adam and his race. Adam's first judgment or trial day was in Eden. There he lost everything by his disobedience and brought upon himself and all of his race Divine sentence to death. Christ has appeared that he might redeem Adam and his race, for the very purpose of giving them individually another full, fair trial or judgment for life everlasting or death everlasting.

That general judgment day mentioned by St. Paul in our text is neither a damnation day nor a twenty-four hour day. It is the thousand-year day of Christ—the period of his mediatorial reign, in the which Satan will be bound, all evil influences be removed, and the light of the knowledge of the glory of God be made to fill the whole earth. St. Peter reminds us, "Beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day with the Lord is as a thousand years" (II Peter iii, 8). This is the key to the expressions, "The day of Christ," "The day of judgment," etc. The Millennial day will be a day of judgment or trial in the sense that all mankind, the living and the dead, will then be brought to full knowledge of God and to full opportunity to regain uplift from all weaknesses, imperfections, etc., which have resulted from our share in Adam's sin and our own weakness and ignorance. Sins to the extent that they were wilful will to the same extent be punishable and receive a "just recompense of reward" (Hebrews ii, 2). Every good endeavor will be rewarded and every shortcoming will be punished.

From this standpoint we see the force of the Apostle's argument, that it is the Divine intention to grant to every member of Adam's race another trial, another judgment, to determine afresh and individually the worthiness or unworthiness of each to have eternal life. For why should this not be any difference to the world in the present life? Why did not God wait until the Millennial Age and give them all a surprise? Why did he send them the message of his love and a revelation of this knowledge of his future dealings? Did he not know what the past eighteen centuries has proven, namely, that few of mankind would have the "hearing ear," and so have righteousness and so have immortality, as to sacrifice the interests of the present life by espousing the Gospel message, repenting of sin, and seeking to live a saintly life, in opposition to all unrighteousness?

Yes, we answer, it is written, "Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world" (Acts xv, 18). God surely knew that the message of his grace would generally fall upon ears that were dull of hearing. That we might know this, he caused it to be written in the prophecies in advance, that few would have the hearing ear for his message of love and mercy. Why, then, did he send the message? We answer that there were two reasons for his so doing.

(1) He intended that a witness should be given so that those comprehending would have no incentive to a reformation of life. He wished all to know that their responsibility in life would be proportionate to their knowledge of this fact of redemption. This principle is stated in the Scriptures by our Lord. He declares that he who knew not and was disobedient would be punished with fewer stripes and a lighter punishment for his transgressions, while those who knew better and sinned with deliberation would be punished with many stripes—in that Millennial day.

(2) Another reason for the promulgation of this good tidings of the Millennial Day of the Lord's Judgment is that God wishes to use this message as a primary lesson to do a primary work of instruction for a special class of "elect" characters, whom he is seeking in the present time before the inauguration of the Mediatorial Kingdom. He calls these his "jewels," the "Bride of Christ," the "converts." This class is specially called out of the world now, in advance of the millennium, that they may eventually be God's Royal Priesthood, or priestly kings, in association with their Redeemer. These, according to the Scriptures, are to be associate judges of the world with Christ. St. Paul asks, "Know ye not that the saints shall judge the world?" (I Corinthians vi, 2). We do know it, thank God! And we know that they will be thoroughly competent for that work. Their experiences in the present life, in battling against the world and the flesh and the devil and coming off conquerors through the assistance of the great High Priest, will make them competent judges of the world; competent priests to assist and to bless the world; competent under-priests to govern the world from the Spirit plane.

"Building Up Yourselves."

To this special class I particularly address myself. I am glad to warn all men everywhere to repent, and glad also to give them the good reason why they should repent—to them of God's appointed time, the Millennial Epoch, in which all shall have a full opportunity of gaining eternal life through Christ. I am glad to assure them that every endeavor for righteousness put forth now will bring large returns of character development and better position then. I warn them that every wilful transgression, all wilful ignorance, will react upon them to their disadvantage and make for shame and lasting contempt on their part, under the glorious sunlight of that Millennial day. It will search out and expose to all humanity their weaknesses, their sins, to the extent that these have been accepted or approved or have not been resisted.

But as I said before, I trust that amongst the ten million readers reached by my sermons every week there are some who are of the saintly class, "called, chosen and faithful"—some of this jewel class, whose judgment or trial is in progress now. I trust that these are striving with might and main to make their calling and election sure through faith in the Redeemer's sacrifice and obedience to his Law of the Spirit of life—the Law of Love. Now is our judgment day, our day of testing or trial. We will not stand or fall as congregations and denominations or lodges or societies. Our testing is an individual one and nothing short of loyalty of heart to the Lord, to his Truth and to the brethren, will make us as the Lord's jewels, "meers of God, and joint-heirs with Christ our Lord; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together" (Romans viii, 17). Such have my special sympathy, my special endeavors, my special love and my special prayers. And the prayers of all such I solicit on my part that I may continue faithful to the end of the journey and with you all hear the Master's precious words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things; I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joys of thy Lord" (Matthew xxv, 21).

MAKES SUGGESTION

CONCERNING MEETING OF GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION.

Now is the Time, Says Mr. Barker, to Put in Claim for National Aid.

Charles E. Barker, of Pembroke, writes as follows in the current issue of the Farmers' Home Journal:

"I notice in a late issue of your paper that Rural Free Delivery is talking back at W. C. of Harned, Ky., about roads generally and good roads in particular, and the road to heaven locally. W. C. had better keep an eye on this Rural Rooster. He may know about some roads—such as those made of nigger heads in Warren county, but when he comes to the road to heaven he does not know which end to take—never having made a start—not able to find the place in the prayer book and trusting solely to what Joe Blackburn said to Jim McKenzie—'That what was to be, would be, whether it came to pass or not.' R. F. D. and I went up to the good roads executive meeting on the 17th and banquet that night at the Seelbach.

"Am sure after the speeches we heard we are more set in our way than ever, and that way leads away from mud roads and W. C.'s moaning. The passage of the good roads amendment need not effect W. C. or the poor boy at all. It does not put a tax on his county—only gives its tax payers the privilege to vote a tax on themselves of 5 cents on $100.00 for building good roads. This vote must carry by a two-thirds majority.

"If more than one-third of the voters are of W. C.'s way of thinking there will be no tax levied and there will be no good roads built. As a matter of interest, how many miles of pike has Breckenridge county? What is the value of lands on these pikes and adjacent thereto, compared with those away from and not available for travel on pike.

"Here in Christian county where the pikes have been built out to state and county lines, the farmers from Tennessee and the counties of Todd, Trigg and Muhlenburg are hauling their tobacco to Hopkinsville, our county seat, and as a consequence our merchants are doing a record breaking Christmas trade. I am sure there is not an unprejudiced man in Kentucky who will carefully consider the provisions of this good road amendment but will endorse it.

"When the discussion of the removal of the six cent tax on tobacco in its natural condition was on, Congressman Stanley arranged a hearing for the tobacco growers before a sub-committee of Mr. Dalzell's ways and means committee at Washington, with the result that after four years of persistent effort the tax was removed.

If the Kentucky Good Roads Association will call a meeting at Frankfort during the next session of the legislature—while the Farmers' State Institute is in session—and ask that the ways and means committee give them a hearing on national aid for good roads—it can be easily arranged by our representatives at Washington and instead of so much money going to national banks, rivers and harbors, some of it can and will be diverted to highways that will enable the producer—the real creator of wealth—to reach the waterways and railroads and thence the markets. That batch of millionaires composing the United States senate will at once sit up and take notice when the producer tells them they must deliver the goods—as in the Sulzer bill offered some years ago—permit the state to borrow from the U. S. treasury as the national banks do now at 2-1/2 per cent. interest and loan to the counties.

The counties issuing 25 year bonds as collateral and creating a sinking fund that will cancel them when due.

"Under this good road amendment this is now possible, while it was not before. No county that does not avail itself of the benefits of the amendment should be aided by the state. President Roosevelt and gentlemen of the Good Roads Association what about it? Is it practical? If not, why not? If it is, let's do business."

The name of the Association shall be The Joy Company, Unlimited.

ARTICLE II.—OBJECT.

The object of this association, in furtherance of the rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness and in the interest of good comradeship, is to promote the use of the easy chair, the stein, the soothing weed, and the story; by means of crackling logs in a broad fireplace, to incite to the geniality that knits closer the group of hearty talkers and contented listeners; to induce boisterous laughter, merry song, lusty choruses, and strange, brave and romantic stories; to journey in the world of imagination, and, though there be snow and storm outside, to wander in green forests, to gather the blossoms of the peach and hawthorn, to breathe the perfume of scented shrubs, to hear the night birds sing, the streamlets purl, the far-off harmony of piano and voice, to gaze on stars as thick as leaves of Vallombrosa, to have fond sweethearts, and to enjoy the lunarian rights and privileges of an Italian night in June; to enjoy all these rights and privileges in their seasons; to use such nicknames, terms of affection, handclaps, and caresses as will promote good feeling and show the love and regard in which companions are held; to give words of praise and encouragement to one another, to assist one another in every way possible not inconsistent with our personal sense of justice and to foster one another's confidence in the strength of manhood and one another's hope of living up to high ideals and attaining high accomplishments; to preserve pleasant memories of the swimming pools and sand banks of our youth, the coasting hills of winter days, the Crusoes and Alices of Wonderland that whiled away our evenings, the games of ball and the athletic contests, the riding hunting and fishing parties, the luring dances, the lyric thrills of first love, the poets that expressed for us the bright and happy colors of life and the beauties of crowded hours, and all those caressing or inspiring memories of larger experiences, deeper emotions, more vivid passions and more intellectual avocations that make life rich, colorful and epic in our maturity; to do all these things, and to do them before the world, so as to invite competition on the part of all mankind, that the profits of this association may be cumulative and perpetual.

ARTICLE III.—HOME OFFICE.

The home office of this association shall be any place where there are a sufficient number of good fellows, two or more, to create warmth and delight by their presence.

ARTICLE IV.—CAPITAL STOCK.

The capital stock of this association shall be unlimited, but an amount necessary to create an atmosphere of good cheer shall be sufficient for working capital, and shall be contributed by the members in such ways and proportions as they may see fit—provided the total is always enough to keep the association alive—and the profits shall be distributed according to each member's capacity to contribute and enjoy. All surplus profits shall be turned over to the world at large.

ARTICLE V.—SEAL.

The seal of this association shall consist of the expression of faith and love, showing through a cordial smile, and shall be used whenever it is necessary to validate any of the acts of this association or of any of its members.

TO BEGIN SENTENCE

MORGAN IS TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY.

Governor Willson Declines to Interfere With Verdict of Christian Circuit Court.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

R. B. Morgan, the negro who shot and killed James Morris in a card game in a box car on the Illinois Central railroad last summer, and who was found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, was taken to Eddyville this morning by Sheriff Johnson to begin his term.

Ever since the trial diligent effort has been made to have Gov. Willson extend executive clemency to Morgan but he did not do so. Yesterday was really the last day, but Morgan's friends were granted a stay of another day in which to make a final appeal to the governor. It was fruitless and the negro was taken to the penitentiary this morning.

BUY STORE HOUSE

Sam and Henry Frankel have purchased the store on Main street adjoining their present clothing department, and which is now occupied by P. J. Breslin. The consideration is given in the deed as $4,000.

Clements at Home.

(Owensboro Inquirer.)

LaVega Clements will poll an enormous vote in Daviess county in the Democratic congressional primary on February 2. And why not? He is a home man, which is not the only reason Daviess county Democrats will vote for him, but he is well qualified for the duties of the office. By the way, Daviess is not the only county that is going to give him a big vote.

BUCKNER LEAVELL

AFTER LONG ILLNESS ANSWERS DEATH'S SUMMONS.

Former Asylum Steward, City Judge, Treasurer and Useful Citizen of Wide Popularity.

(From Monday's Daily.)

After long illness and great suffering from acute Bright's disease, borne with unflinching fortitude, Judge Buckner Leavell, one of Hopkinsville's prominent and popular citizens, is at peace. At half past ten o'clock this morning his eyes were closed in death at his home on South Virginia street.

Universally Liked.

Few men have died in the community whose passing away occasioned a feeling of such personal loss among a host of citizens. His was a winning personality and he possessed

JUDGE BUCKNER LEAVELL.

all traits of a noble-hearted gentleman, sincere and loyal, a man who never forgot and never failed to consider the due of others. He was cordial, generous and lovable, a devoted and affectionate husband, the best of friends and a patriotic and useful citizen. His sorrowing wife and relatives have the consolation that husbands mourn with them the loss they have sustained.

The Leavell Family.

Judge Leavell's family is of French origin and emigrated to the United States previous to the revolutionary war and settled in Virginia. The great-great-grandfather of Judge Leavell was a general in the war for freedom. Lewis Leavell, grandfather of the deceased, came to Kentucky at an early date and settled what is now the town of Trenton, in Todd county. Here Lewis Livingston Leavell, father of Judge Leavell, was reared. He was given a fine education and graduated in the profession of law, but preferred farming to pleading before the bar and devoted his time to agriculture. He was the largest landowner in Christian county, had a large number of slaves and dealt extensively in tobacco, making his shipments direct to Liverpool.

Buckner Leavell was named for his mother's family, she being Miss Mary Ann Buckner, a member of one of Christian county's most prominent families.

Judge Leavell was born June 24, 1852, and after reaching maturity his life has been an active one, and he had ever been prominently identified with the best interests of the town and county. Beginning farming on his own account at the early age of seventeen, he followed this for thirteen years when he moved to Hopkinsville, but he never disposed of his farm and always gave a large share of his attention to it.

As Public Official.

For several years he dealt in real estate and insurance, and during that time he served one term as city treasurer. He was then elected as city judge for four years and served with great credit, but when he was appointed as steward of the Western Kentucky Asylum for the Insane he resigned the judgeship. As steward he gave the same excellent service to the state that he had to his own private business or as an official of the city of Hopkinsville.

Judge Leavell's wife, who survives him, was Miss Anna Monroe, daughter of Judge James Monroe, of Frankfort, and she is of the same family which gave the United States its president of that name.

He was a Christian and a member of the Westminster Presbyterian church. He was also identified with a number of benevolent and secret societies, among them the Odd Fellows, Ancient Order of United Workmen and Woodmen of the World. Funeral services have not been announced.

LONG AN INVALID

MISS OLLIE TYSON GOES TO THE BEYOND.

(From Monday's Daily.)

After being confined to her bed nine months by a complication of diseases Miss Ollie Tyson died last night at 10 o'clock at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Sue A. Willis, on South Campbell street. She was thirty-seven years of age and a young Christian woman of lovely character.

Miss Tyson's parents died in her infancy and she had always made her home with her aunt. She was a member of the Methodist church and was educated at McLean College.

Several years ago, much interest was attached to the young lady by the announcement from England that she was probably one of the heirs to the immense estate of the multi-millionaire, John Tyson, who died in Australia. She was not able, however, to establish direct connections with this branch of the Tyson family.

The remains will be taken tomorrow morning to Trenton and thence to Bell's Chapel, her former home, for interment.

Succumbs to Pneumonia.

Mrs. Sarah White died Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of her son about six miles from town on the Bradshaw road. Her death was due to pneumonia from which she had been ill for several days. She was sixty-one years of age and a member of the Baptist church at Casky and a most estimable lady and devoted Christian. She leaves seven children, one of whom is John White, formerly of this city.

Interment took place Sunday afternoon in Riverside cemetery.
