COURT OF APPEALS PASSES ON PEMBROKE MURDER CASES.

GEORGE HOLLAND'S SENTENCE UPHeld.

VERDICTS REVERSED

In the Trials of Frank Meriwether and Dick Carney.

GROUND FOR APPEAL.

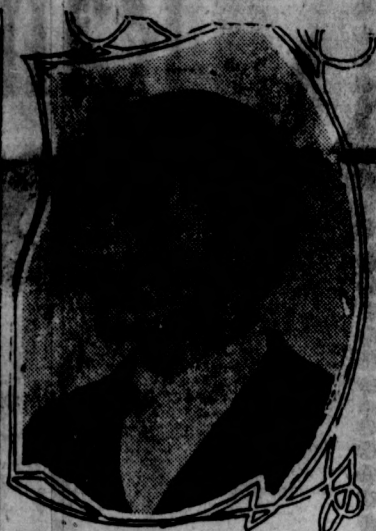

(Special to New Era.)
FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 28.—The Kentucky court of appeals rendered decision today in the Pembroke murder cases appealed from the Christian circuit court.

The verdict of the lower court sentencing George Holland to be hanged by the neck until dead is upheld.

The cases of Frank Meriwether and Dick Carney, who also received death sentences, are reversed and will have to go back to the Christian circuit court for another trial.

Holland, Meriwether and Carney were members of a gang of desperate negroes who, it is alleged, brutally murdered and mutilated an unidentified man who was sleeping by a fire in some woods near Pembroke on the night of November 14 of last year. The men charged with participation in the crime were arrested by Marshall Jackson and Detective Lawrence Moore, and several of them made confessions. At their trial, which occurred at a special term of the circuit court in January shortly after their arrest, four were sentenced to death, two received life sentences and cases against the others were continued. Charles Finch, one of the prisoners, was granted a new trial. On Monday last the cases against him and Ed Moseley were called but, owing to the absence of important witnesses, the commonwealth was not ready, and the cases were postponed until the next February term of court. Finch was returned to jail, and Moseley is out on bond.

Robert Lander, colored, attorney for the defense in cases against Holland, Meriwether and Carney, made a motion for new trials, which was overruled, and he was given until the following regular term of court in which to file his appeal. The reasons given for a new trial were: First, that the court erred in permitting the testimony of witnesses, who claimed to have heard the statements, or alleged confessions, of part of the defendants, to be used as evidence against others who did not seem to have heard such statements; second, in instructing the jury the court did not give the proper instructions according to law in regard to accomplices; third, that the cases were prejudiced on account of the excitement incident to the murder and wholesale arrests, the trial being held as soon as possible after the negroes were arrested; fourth, that the evidence was not sufficient to justify the extreme penalty given in the cases.

In the case of Frank Meriwether, it was also alleged by the defense that he was not allowed a constitutional jury as, when the panel was made up, there were no colored men on it.

BRIBERY WAS RESORTED TO BY ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION

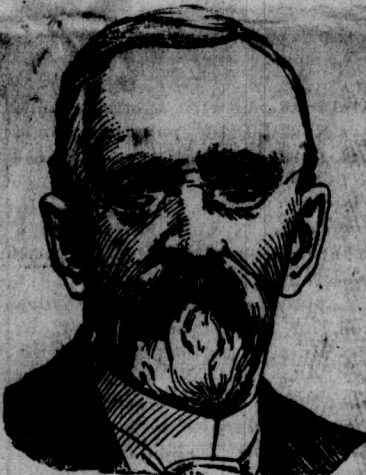

Quarter of a Million Dollars Paid to Former President Marroquin to Effect That Panama Revolution.

(Special to New Era.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—That the Roosevelt administration paid in secret $250,000 to Marroquin, formerly president of Colombia, as a bribe to secure his co-operation to effect the revolution which resulted in the United States grabbing the Panama canal zone is the sensational revelation promised by the Democratic leaders.

A documentary proof of this is now being brought to this country by an agent of the Democratic National committee. He is Clarence Smythe, who, it appears, recently informed the committee to its satisfaction that he could get the evidence that the amount named was paid over to Marroquin to bring about the revolution.

Smythe proceeded to Panama, charged with the responsibility of

EX-PRESIDENT MARROQUIN.

IN THE PEST HOUSE

SMALLPOX PATIENTS TO BE CONFINED.

Order Issued By Secretary McCormack, of State Health Board.

The county board of health is having the pest house, located north of the city near the poor house, cleaned and renovated, and as soon as it is put in condition all persons having small pox will be confined therein. This action is the result of specific orders from Dr. J. N. McCormack, secretary of the state board of health. He was the recipient of many letters from persons in this county who alleged that the small pox situation was serious and insisted that the pest house be again established.

The building which did service a few years ago in the previous scare will be used this time. It will probably be ready for occupants by the first of next week. The members of the county board state that they will see that the order of Dr. McCormack, in regard to having all persons with small pox kept there until they are recovered, is rigidly enforced.

She was born August 19, 1878, and was married June 4, 1900, to Rufus Sinclair Wootton, to which union two children were born, the eldest, a son, predeceasing his mother to the grave two years ago. A little daughter, nine months old, survives with the bereaved husband.

ROBS POSTOFFICE

BUT ONLY TWENTY CENTS STOLEN.

Stock of General Merchandise Store of John Hawkins Picked Over.

The postoffice at White Plains was robbed last Thursday night. While only twenty cents of the government's money was taken from the place, $80 worth of dry goods and notions were removed from the store of John Hawkins, the postmaster.

Entrance into the building was, according to the Madisonville Hustler, gained by the thief's removing a pane in the window at the rear of the store. The goods were removed from the shelf and the thief evidently took his time in going over the stock to secure what he most needed. The money drawer in the postoffice contained only a few cents.

It is thought it will be comparatively easy to catch the thief on account of the character of the goods which he carried away.

GREAT BRITAIN IS AROUSED OVER THE NORTH SEA INCIDENT

King Edward Addresses Strongly Worded Protest to Russia.—Horrible Blunder Was Committed.

LATEST NEWS FROM THE SCENE OF WAR

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Great Britain has sent a long and urgent note to the Russian Government detailing the circumstances of the attack on the British fishing boats in the North sea by the Russian second Pacific squadron. The text of the note has not been made public, but it is said to contain the statement that the situation is one which does not brook delay. Russian officials at St. Petersburg freely express their regrets, but say that no formal action can be taken until the official report of Admiral Rojestomsky has been received.

Desperate Situation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—A despatch received from Gen. Stoessel, in command at Port Arthur, dated Oct. 20, gives details of the desperate situation there. The despatch says: "The chief suffering among the members here is due to lack of warm clothing. The soldiers are manufacturing for themselves shoes of all kinds of material. There is still an immense quantity of flour, but only a little horse meat. The garrison is determined to fight to the last man and the last drop of blood."

Gen. Stoessel expresses the hope that Gen. Kuropatkin will arrive in time to aid them.

43,000 Losses.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—The following official list of Russians killed and wounded in the fighting at Shashke from Oct. 11 to Oct. 19 was given out today:

Killed—One general, 237 officers and 17,850 men.

Wounded—Three generals, 302 officers and 24,780 men.

Guns lost, 91; guns taken, 37.

The Russians captured 302 prisoners, and lost 187, taken prisoners by the Japanese.

Great Suffering.

MUKDEN, Oct. 25.—There has been no resumption of fighting of a general character on the Shashke river. Both Russians and Japanese are entrenching their positions. The outposts are within 700 yards of each other, and less than four miles separates the main armies. A scarcity of fuel is causing the soldiers to suffer greatly since cold weather set in. St. Petersburg has information that the Japanese army confronting Gen. Kuropatkin is receiving heavy reinforcements from the Port Arthur army and direct from Japan.

THREE NEW GIFTS

IN NEW ERA'S GREAT
FREE DISTRIBUTION.

Kodak, Dental Work and Adding Machine Complete List of 30 Prizes.

In today's issue of the New Era, besides the large page advertisement giving the full particulars of the New Era's Gift Distribution, there appears another advertisement containing a supplementary list of premiums which have been added. When the list were first made up it was thought that twenty-seven premiums was enough, but this was an odd number and so many had taken advantage of the offer and had already placed their tickets in the wheel that it was decided to round the number up at thirty and incidentally make three more people happy by winning the extra premiums.

In this supplementary list of premiums is $5 worth of dental work to be had at the Louisville Dental Parlor, a Brownie Kodak complete with view finder and roll of film all ready for making pictures, to be selected at the store of E. M. Moss & Co., and, third, a Locke adding machine which is a great labor and time saver to one who has any adding to do. These premiums do not conflict with any in the original offer and will doubtless prove most attractive.

Never before in the history of this city has an offer been made by any newspaper which equals the one now being made by the New Era. It costs absolutely nothing for chances in the great distribution of thirty valuable articles which will be made on December 28. If you have not already become fully acquainted with the plan and the list of premiums be sure to read the two advertisements which appear in this issue of the paper.

WANTED HERE FOR A MURDER.

"TISSUE PAPER" JACK
HARDISON ARRESTED.

WILL BE BROUGHT BACK

Was Captured at Pontiac
and a Pal Gave Him Away.

(From Saturday's Daily)

"Tissue Paper Jack" Hardison, colored, who is wanted here for murder has been arrested at Pontiac, Ill., and Deputy Sheriff Jack Tate has gone there after him and will probably return with his prisoner tomorrow morning. Hardison was arrested at Pontiac for an alleged holdup at Dwight, Ill., and gave his name as Frazier. Another party was arrested was arrested with him for the same offense, who was afterward liberated, and who told the officers there that the supposed Frazier had told him he was wanted in Kentucky. The sheriff then wrote Sheriff Davis with the result that Deputy Tate is now making the trip. Hardison at first refused to come here without a requisition but afterward agreed to waive this formality.

The crime for which Hardison will have to stand trial was committed near Empire in this county last February. At a colored festival Hardison shot three times at a negro named John Carter, but the balls missed his intended victim and wounded Charles Johnson, an innocent bystander, so severely that he died from the effects the next morning.

"Tissue Paper Jack" made his escape that night and nothing further had been heard from him since that time until the news of his arrest at Pontiac was received. An indictment charging him with murder was returned on March 8 last. Johnson, the negro who was killed, was an important witness in the cases against the men who were tried here charged with the murder of Officer Robt. H. Coffey, at Empire, during the strike at the mines of the Empire Coal & Mining company in 1900.

BLOOD WILL TELL

It takes lots of vitality, nervous force and strength to win a race. Blood success is pure and good.

Without good red blood a man has a weak brain and poor nerves. Thinness, the blood, or anemia is common in men and young women, and all those who work indoors, who do not get enough good food, and whose blood is consequently poor, have very white blood corpuscles.

Keep the nerves nourished, the heart strong, the blood pure, the stomach active, the liver active with a tonic which has stood the test of time and has a wide reputation, such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Tonic consisting of large portions of alcohol, iron or cod liver oil, do not bring the desired change in the blood, because they do not enter the system and are not absorbed into the blood, with the exception of the alcohol, which derives its red blood corpuscles when it does come in contact with them. Therefore do not allow the dealer to hawk your intelligence by telling you he has something better than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and excite the glands to secrete much mucus, thus causing the condition of natural indigestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage, D.D.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 23.—To give congratulations to the successful and sympathy with the sorrowing and the distressed is urged by the preacher in this sermon. The text is Romans xii, 15, "Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep."

Perpetual segregation, isolation, separation, seclusion, voluntary exile, were considered by many of the ancients as necessary adjuncts to the attainment of the highest earthly development of Christian perfection. Because Christ fasted and prayed in the wilderness for forty long days many disciples of old believed that to be like Christ they must continually live in a wilderness, wear sackcloth and ashes and do nothing but pray and starve and fast and pray. They tried to walk with God, to be like Enoch, by refusing to walk with their fellow men. They tried to live with Christ by sleeping on stone couches and shivering in damp cells and clothing themselves in coarse woollens, by tramping through snows with naked feet and by mumbling daily prayers with sepulchral countenances, while they refused to smile an encouragement to the little children playing in the street or to help carry a heavy pack under which a poor, tired peasant was staggering on his way to town; hence the monasteries and the nunneries and the cloisters and the abbeys and the priories, which are only a few of the many names given to the ancient buildings within which the monks and nuns imprisoned themselves for separation from sinful men, of whom they did not wish to be a part. But away back in the time of creation God said, "It is not good for man to be alone." And what God spoke to Adam, our first ancestor, God is speaking to us now.

Not Good to Be Alone.

"Not good for man to be alone." Yes, we know it. We know it in spite of the fact that the cloister has segregated some good men from contact with the busy, anxious, sinful world. Thomas a Kempis was a hermit, a recluse. Thomas a Kempis was a good man. Within the gloomy walls of the Augustinian convent of Zwolle, in the dark recesses of an ascetic's cell, he wrote the wonderful pages of "De Imitatione Christi." But, though his book is a wonderful guide to Christly life, Thomas a Kempis' cell is a poor place in which a modern Christian could practice the gospel truth. By all odds the best place to translate the teachings of Thomas a Kempis is not in an ascetic's cell, but in God's sweet, pure, golden sunlight, among just such rough, horny handed men as the fishermen with whom Jesus Christ associated.

San Marco convent of Florence is a poor nursery for spiritual life. There Fra Angelico has drawn the students of art to come and study his figures of Christ which he painted upon the cold walls nearly 600 years ago. But the best place to be a modern Fra Angelico and to paint Christ in the hearts of living men is to do as Paul did on his missionary tours. It is to do as Christ did when talking to men. It is to do as your mother and father did in the parental sympathy of a Christian home. It is to do as we ourselves can do by being Christ's disciples and true joys and worshipping with them in their true sorrows.

My text teaches the same kind of a consecrated active existence as did a brother minister who lived a few years ago in a great Chicago center. I speak thus about him because he is now far across the sea, working as a missionary in foreign fields. After the Rev. George William Wright had been for some months in the Philippines the superintendent of his old Sabbath school of Bethlehem church was trying to draw a verbal picture of Jesus Christ. The only being he had in mind at the time was our Saviour. During his talk the superintendent practically said these words: "Children, who am I now talking about? Who has always been willing to join with you in your fun and be happy with you when you had a right to be happy? Who has always been a friend, a loving, forgiving friend, when you have done wrong? Who has for years gone in and out among us as a gentle, kind example—one who never did wrong, who never spoke harshly against any one, who was always ready to lead us and to love us? Tell me, children, who is he?" With a mighty chorus the little children began to call: "I know, sir. I know. It is Mr. Wright." That encomium of these little Sunday school children is the best illustration I know of what my text means.

Value of Christian Sympathy.

Christian sympathy is a necessary gospel attribute. In the first place because no human power on earth does so much to make a good man or even a bad man as to live better as to know that other lives are wrapped up in his life. "Sympathy," wrote the lexicographer, "is literally a fellowship with others in their various conditions of joy or of grief." It is the power which a Christian man has of putting his hand through another's arm and saying: "Old fellow, you are not alone in this world. My interests are combined in your interests. When you are happy I am happy. When you are sad I am sad. When you are in trouble I am in trouble. When you are in danger I am in danger. When you are in need I am in need. When you are in pain I am in pain. When you are in sorrow I am in sorrow. When you are in grief I am in grief. When you are in death I am in death. When you are in hell I am in hell. DO YOU NEED A MEDICINE?

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO INVESTIGATE.

There is no one who does not need a Liver Medicine occasionally. The symptoms of Liver Complaint are well known to every one, such as constipation, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, headache, a tired feeling and many others of a similar nature. Thousands die annually by not heeding the warnings of nature. Many acquire some chronic disease which they never recover. Many of these could be spared for years of usefulness, by keeping in the home one reliable remedy.

We believe that we can convince any minded person that there is no better remedy for the Liver known, than Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. The formula is known, consisting of: Ichn, Hydrangea, Mandrake, Yellow Dock, Dandelion, Sarsaparilla, Gentian, and Iodide of Potassium. You know just what you are taking. How many other formulas of a liver medicine are published? Ask your druggist about this. It is already prepared and can be taken immediately.

The strength is extracted in the most skillful manner, certain superior to any powdered preparation known. (We also manufacture a Liver Medicine in powder form, with which any druggist can supply you, but this like all other dry Liver Medicines requires preparation.)

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is pleasant to take, does not lose its strength, as Liver Medicine in dry form, and will keep in any climate.

Your doctor, however skillful, could prescribe nothing better.

There is no opportunity for a doctor to make a mistake in writing a prescription, or a drug clerk to make a mistake in compounding the same, (besides a doctor's bill and the cost of the medicine.) You can be absolutely sure of the proper proportion being in every dose.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has been used with the greatest confidence and success in thousands of homes for 25 years, and is prepared by a pharmacist of 25 years' experience, in a laboratory equipped with the most modern appliances for the most perfect safety.

If you do not understand your own body, or do not know how to take medicine, ask your druggist for advice. We simply ask that you try it at our expense. We know what it will do.

WANTS FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR ALLEGED BREACH OF CONTRACT

SUIT IS FILED BY MR. E. B. TYLER

JUDGMENT FOR BIVINS

Awarded $75 For Injuries
Received in a Runaway Accident.

E. B. Tyler has filed suit against the Ideal Construction company, of Lima, O., for alleged breach of contract.

The plaintiff alleges in his petition that he had a contract with the defendant company by the terms of which he was to secure contracts for new telephone systems throughout the south. For his services he claims he was to receive five per cent of the contract price on all contracts which he secured or was instrumental in securing. He states that he came to Hopkinsville and organized the Home Telephone Co. which placed the contract for their system with the Ideal Construction company, the contract price being $100,000. He claims that by the terms of his contract he is entitled to five per cent of this amount or $5,000.

Mr. Tyler is well known here, having spent several months in Hopkinsville working in the interest of the independent telephone company.

In the suit of F. B. Bivins against Clark & Williamson for damages for injuries which the plaintiff claimed to have received from a runaway horse hitched to the delivery wagon of the defendants, the jury returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $75. The defendants have filed a motion for a new trial.

MR. BRYAN

Adds an Immense Crowd at Louisville.

(From Friday's Daily.)

William J. Bryan spoke at Louisville and New Albany last night to crowds that exceeded all expectations. His Louisville audience packed Phoenix Hill Park. Not less enthusiastic was his New Albany reception, where in the open air between 10,000 and 15,000 people heard him.

At Louisville he said that were he needed he would be glad to make a speech in every congressional district of the State, because a Democratic Congress would be needed to assist Judge Parker and help him carry out Democratic policies. He was glad to say that he did not believe he was needed in Kentucky, and it had been thought better to have him speak elsewhere.

The burden of his speech was delivered in the next sentence, which he delivered in his most impressive manner.

"I want every Democrat who voted for me to vote for Parker," he said. "Our platform does not contain one thing that I would strike out of it. I want to tell every silver Democrat that, while Parker will not give you all you want, Roosevelt will give you nothing that you want. I, for my part, will not take the responsibility of four years more of Theodore Roosevelt."

Registration Dates.

The registration law makes provision for the registration of all legal voters in incorporated towns who were absent from home on the regular registration day. The voter must go to the county clerk's office in this city upon the dates fixed by law and there register. He can do this without any cost. It is only in case where a certificate has been lost that any charge is to be made by the clerk.

The law fixes "Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday preceding November election in each year" as the days for such registration.

This will throw the registration at the county clerk's office on Monday, Oct. 31, and Tuesday and Wednesday Nov. 1 and 2.

The installation of Dr. Frederick W. Both the southern and northern synods of Kentucky attended in a body. Dr. H. G. Rout, of Versailles, presided over the ceremonies. The social feature was a brilliant banquet at which many prominent men responded to toasts, including Gov. Beckham.

BECAUSE OF WOMAN

FATAL ENCOUNTER OCCURS NEAR LAFAYETTE.

Tragedy Enacted Just After
Two Negroes Had Left Church.

At Rocky Hill, near Lafayette, Frank Dyeus and Hurley Wilson had fatal encounter just as they were leaving church, the trouble resulting, it is said, from jealousy that had arisen between the two over a woman to whom both had been paying attention. Dyeus pulled a pistol and fired once at Wilson and wounded him fatally, death following within a few hours. Dyeus was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury. The parties were negroes.

Silver Medal.

The Kentucky State Board of Health was signally honored at the distribution of awards at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The board received a handsome silver medal for its exhibit of "preventive disease literature." The part of this exhibit, which elicited especial praise and mention by the judges was the circular on the prevention of smallpox and the photos and statistics touching on the necessity of vaccination. This is quite a compliment to the Kentucky board as exhibits of literature bearing on the same subjects from state boards over the entire union were in competition with their display.

One of Many.

H. A. Tidale, of Summertown, S. C., suffered for twenty years with the Piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many, many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ringworm, skin diseases, etc. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Bill Nye's Cow Ad.

Bill Nye, the humorist, once had a cow to sell, the story goes, and advertised her as follows: "Owing to my ill health, I will sell at my residence in township nineteen, range eighteen, according to the government survey, one plush raspberry cow, aged eight years. She is of undoubted courage and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home by a stay chain, but she will be sold to anyone who will treat her right. She is one-fourth shorthorn and three-fourths hyena. I will also throw in a double barrel shotgun, which goes with her. In May she usually goes away for a week or two and returns with a tall red calf with wobbly legs. Her name is Rose. I would rather sell to a non-resident."

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Ray & Fowler's.

COUNTY ATTORNEY ANDERSON ASSAULTED BY GEORGE MERRITT

WHO CLAIMED HE HAD BEEN "HUMILIATED."

WILL BE PROSECUTED

In the Serious Charge of Striking a Public
Officer.

LAWYER KNOCKED DOWN

(From Thursday's Daily.)
This morning, on Virginia street, near the post office, County Attorney Otho H. Anderson was assaulted by George Merritt, a bar tender and a powerful athlete, who accused the lawyer of humiliating him in a trial in circuit court. On cross examination, yesterday, Mr. Anderson asked young Mack Horn, charged with the murder of his father, if "Rose Merritt," who accompanied him to Hopkinsville from Paducah on the day of the tragedy, was not related to a man who lives in a disreputable part of the city. Horn had stated a few minutes before, during direct examination, that the girl was kin to respectable citizens here. The chafe between Horn and his father, culminating in the fatal shooting, is said to have grown out of the young man's taking the girl to his father's home and introducing her to his sister and stepmother. This morning Merritt upbraided the county attorney for calling the girl Merritt instead of Emmett, the name of the divorced husband, and then knocked the attorney down. Mr. Anderson says he was dealt three terrible blows, and that he had no chance to defend himself, having a bundle of laundry in his hands and not expecting the assault. Merritt surrendered and was released on bond to appear before City Judge Knight this afternoon. He will be prosecuted, it is stated, for assaulting a public officer.

Mr. Anderson's Statement.
County Attorney Anderson said to a New Era representative this morning:

"I was taken entirely by surprise by Merritt's unprovoked and inexcusable attack. I was on my way from home down town and had a bundle of laundry under my arm. On Virginia street, when I reached the alley in the rear of the postoffice, Merritt approached me. He had a smile on his face, and that he was offended with me in any way never entered my mind. He is a cousin of mine by marriage. His first remark was, 'Otho, what made you humiliate me in the courthouse yesterday?' I told him I was not aware of having done so. 'Yes, you did,' he replied, still smiling. 'You called that woman a Rose Merritt, while I was in the courtroom, and you knew that was not her name.' I assured him that I did not know he was in the courthouse, and that I thought the name of the woman he referred to was Rose Merritt."

"'You didn't,' said Merritt and without warning struck me a hard blow on the eye. I was dazed, and a second later another blow knocked me down. While I was prostrate he stood over me and struck me a third time, the blow falling on the back of my head. 'For God's sake don't do that George,' I said. 'I've done nothing to you.' Then he walked away. I had no opportunity to defend myself, and when I fell my arms were still hampered by the bundle of laundry. In the trial, yesterday, the defense was apparently endeavoring to establish the character of the girl Mack Horn brought here from Paducah by showing that she was related to respectable people. On cross examination, I asked Horn if the young man, Rose Merritt, was not the same woman who lived in Black that Merritt says. Mack Horn, who assaulted the county attorney, is a bartender at W. R. Long, where Mack Horn killed his father. He made the following statement in regard to the affair:

"I was in the court house yesterday listening to the trial. When the name of Rose Merritt was brought in, Mr. Anderson persisted in calling her by this name when he should have called her by the name of her husband, who was named Emmett. By his following this course I was greatly and publicly humiliated. I tried to see Mr. Anderson yesterday afternoon in order to talk with him about the matter, but failed to find him. This morning I waited for him on the street and when he finally appeared I went up to him and asked him why he followed such a course in his examination which was so humiliating to me. He answered in a sneering way and I struck at him. My first blow, delivered with the left hand, was dodged, but the second, with the right, caught him fairly on the face and knocked him down. I am sorry, indeed, that the affair occurred, but still think that Mr. Anderson was unwarranted in persisting in calling the woman by the name of Rose Merritt, when her right name now is Rose Emmett, although she has separated from her husband."

LONDON, Oct. 27.—As Russia shows no disposition to punish the offenders in the North Sea outrage, her offer of apology is not satisfactory, and an ultimatum may be issued today. Leading newspapers are predicting an early declaration of war. It is announced that France will take no sides in the matter. There is much impatience here over Russia's delay in forwarding an official report of the matter and a full answer to the British demands. The British admiralty is actively engaged in preparing for any possible emergency.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 27.—Vice Admiral Rojestvensky states that the fishermen were fired upon because the Russians believed they were being attacked by Japanese torpedo boats. He expresses sorrow over the result and says full reparation will doubtless be made by Russia.

MUKDEN, Oct. 27.—Fighting in this vicinity has been resumed. The Japanese have captured the village of Juda Yan.

(Special to New Era)
FRANKLIN, Ky., Oct. 27.—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of Kentucky, this morning, accepted the invitation extended by the representatives of Evergreen Lodge No. 88, and the next annual meeting will be held in the city of Hopkinsville. The most important business transacted was the selection of Lexington as the location for the new Widows' and Orphans' Home to be erected by the body, and the election of grand lodge officers.

The board of control of the Widows' and Orphans' home recommended that the proposed home be located at Lexington. The report stated that the Gibson farm was worth $50,000 and could be purchased for $30,000. On the farm is a frame building with fine barns in good condition, and the city promised that all beneficiaries should attend public schools free of charge.

The master of the exchequer has $22,000 paid in with which to purchase the home.

Grand lodge officers were elected as follows: Grand chancellor, W. T. Schuerman, of Carrollton; grand vice chancellor, T. G. Stewart, of Winchester; grand prelate, M. H. McLean, of Covington; grand master of exchequer, Jule Plummer, of

OPHTHALMOSCOPE AND RETINOSCOPE COMBINED.

An up-to-date instrument for the diagnosis of the pathological condition of the interior of the eye without the use of a dark room or mydriatics to dilute the pupil. By its use all errors of refraction are detected and measured to an absolute certainty without asking the patient any questions, thereby leaving the operator independent of the intelligence of the patient. (Great for children.) It is the latest and most wonderful production of optical science. By its use the retina (veins and arteries) is seen as clearly as the patient's face. This is a costly instrument, but as I have been always deeply interested and made a specialty of examining and fitting of glasses to the eye, I have kept up-to-date with the latest and best methods and instruments and feel that the best is none too good for my patrons. They may rest assured that they will get the latest and best service obtainable anywhere—derived from long years of practical experience with up-to-date appliances and for the least money.

The question: Is the United States
being prepared for war? may well be asked. Joseph Pulitzer in his open letter to President Roosevelt, says:

"We are spending more money now
on our navy than any other country in the world, except England; a third more on our army than Austria-Hungary, with nearly 400,000 men under arms, and twice as much as Japan in time of peace, and more of army, navy and pensions than is spent for the same purposes by any of the over-landed military powers of continental Europe without exception. Our navy costing us $200,000,000 this year.
France, hitherto the second naval power in the world, is spending $41-000,000 on hers, and Germany, under four illustrious counterparts, the Emperor, $50,000,000. On its face, our activity looks as if we were preparing for certain war.

"We are building thirteen battleships to England's ten, Germany's six and France's six, and thirteen great armored cruisers, practically, battleships, to England's sixteen, France's six and Germany's two. We are just finishing half a dozen smaller cruisers.
We have more first-class battleships
already built than any other country in the world except England, and the English editor of Brassey's Naval Annual says that in ten years at the present rate we shall displace Great Britain as the first naval power of the globe. Yet you keep prodding us on.
How much do you want? Fifty years ago our navy consisted of a few wooden frigates, and our peaceful merchant fleets covered the seas. To-day we have over 500,000 tons of steel battleships and cruisers, and our merchant marine in the foreign trade has shrunk until it is hardly larger than the navy that is supposed to protect it."

"I am not speaking to Democrats—this is not a party matter. Your schemes are personal, not national.
Your boasted Americanism is really Europeanism. It is the very antithesis of the true American spirit. You are proposing to Europeanize our institutions. Not content with the extraordinary increase in the powers and patronage of the President of the United States, you propose to become practically the President of the whole Western Hemisphere. The accidental head of one republic, you would make yourself the head of twenty-one. In the name of James Monroe, the strict constructionist of the Constitution, and under a hypocritical pretense of duty, you assume prerogatives that would turn Hamilton pale and that would make Monroe rise in his grave. I defiantly and distinguishedly Whitelet Red downward, to show one line in the writings of any previous President of any party justifying your proposed superiority over the Western Hemisphere. But if you fail to find any warrant for your policy in the Constitution of the United States or the practice of your predecessors, you may find it abundantly in the quarter from which you borrowed the policy itself—in Europe." (Joe. Pulitzer in New York World.)

Deafness can not be cured
by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition,
hearing will be destroyed forever.
Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON V, FOURTH QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 30.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings vi. 8-23.
Memory Verses, 15-17—Golden Text,
Ps. xxiv. 7—Commentary Prepared
by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

A good title for a large part of the Bible would be "The Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things," and every devout heart should cry: "Blessed be His glorious name forever, and let the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen and amen" (Ps. lxxii, 18, 19). From beginning to end His name is wonderful, and He is ever doing wondrous things in love and grace for and through the sinful sons of men.
Elisha, the man of God, is still before us as a sample of what man might be, for while there is but one perfect pattern, the man Christ Jesus,
there are many who may be followed as far as they follow God, but the very blessed way is to see no one but Jesus
only, to run with patience, looking unto Jesus (Mark ix, 8; Heb. xii, 1, 2); to cease from man, and behold the Lord
(Isa. li, 22; iii, 1).

The opening verses of our chapter tell of the new house by Jordan which the sons of the prophets started to build because the place where they dwelt with Elisha was too strait for them. Whether there is a hint here or not that Elisha's holy life was too
narrow a way for them I cannot say, but one cannot forget the incident of the search for Elisha, because they were not in full fellowship. There is many a holy life today that is too great a trial even for other believers in the same household, and God does not compel holiness, so Elisha let them go and even went with them to help them, for love is always kind even to those who cannot see as we do.

Our lesson proper concerns the deliverance wrought by God through Elisha for the king of Israel, and also Elisha's own deliverance from the king of Syria, reminding us of Ps.
li, 1-4; xxxiii, 10, 11. The child of God may well take real comfort from such words as these: "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper."
"They that war against thee shall be as nothing and as a thing of naught" (Isa. li, 17; xli, 12). The king of Syria thought to trap the king of Israel, but the latter being warned by Elisha, the man in fellowship with God, saved himself from the hands of the king of Syria more than once, so that the king of Syria thought that there must surely be a traitor in his camp who in some way communicated his plans to the king of Israel. When one of his servants assured him that it was not so, but that there was a prophet in Israel who could tell the king of Israel his most secret words, then he determined to lay hands on the prophet, and, hearing that he was at Dothan, he sent thither a great host of horses and chariots, which came by night and compassed the city about,
that they might capture the man of God, but how vain are the thoughts and purposes of men who know not God. The humble man of God is perfectly quiet and unmoved, for he sees another host of horses and chariots which ordinary eyes cannot see. His heart could truly sing, "I will not fear though an host should encamp against me" (Ps. xxvii, 3). "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid" (Isa. xli, 2).

Not so his servant who cried, "Alas, my master! how shall we do?" As Gehazi had become a leper, it was probably some one in his place, yet even Gehazi might well have been afraid, for he, too, if a child of God, was also out of fellowship. Elisha did not reason or argue with his servant, but with these words assured and comforted him, "Fear not, for they that be with us are more than they that be without" (verse 16), and then he asked the Lord to open his servant's eyes that he might see, and he, too, saw the mountain full of horses and chariots of fire roundabout Elisha.
In Rom. vii, 26, 31, 34, we see God
for us, Christ, for us, the Spirit for us, and we have the beautiful assuring words, "If God be for us, who can be against us?" Yet we are slow to believe that all things are just as God says, and we do well to pray that God would enlighten the eyes of our understanding that we may know what is the hope of our calling and the riches
of the glory of His inheritance in us, that He would open our understandings that we might understand the Scriptures (Eph. i, 18; Luke xxiv, 45).

God can see easily blind as open eyes,
so, at Elisha's request, He blinded these Syrians, and Elisha brought them to Samaria, to the king of Israel, whom they were really seeking, for they only wanted Elisha because he kept them from the king of Israel. Again at the request of Elisha the Lord opened their eyes and they found themselves in the hands and at the mercy of the king of Israel, who, instead of smiting them, as his own heart suggested, at the word of Elisha, fed them and sent them home, thus conquering them so that, for a time at least, the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

They acted according to Rom. xii, 20,
"If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink, for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head." The Lord's further deliverance and His kindness through Elisha to the woman of Shunem are recorded in the next two chapters, but whether famine or deliverance, it is God working in all and through all for His people and against His enemies.

LAST YEAR we distributed twenty-five premiums among our subscribers, and although the time given for the contest was only two months the interest aroused was so great and the appreciation of the presents so general that we have decided to conduct a similar distribution this year only on a much larger scale and giving more time for those wishing to enter to take advantage of the offer. In selecting these premiums great care has been exercised and the list made varied as possible so as to appeal to the greatest number of people. We have tried to include in list, articles which would attract and be useful to everyone. In making the selection the question of merit has been uppermost at all times and nothing but the very best is included. THE LIST OF PRIZES IS AS FOLLOWS:

PREMIUM NO. 2.
Riding Bridle.
This premium will appeal to those who live in the country as are lovers of horses. This bridle is of the very best quality and may be selected by the winner.

BEHIND PRISON BARS ALLEGED MURDERERS AWAIT THEIR TRIAL.

ONE GRIFFIN WAS CAPTURED IN BED KILLED HENRY WARNER

Deputy Sheriff Tate is Back From Illinois With "Tissue Paper Jack."

(From Monday's Daily.)

When Lem Davis, E. E. Armstrong and W. E. Nixon last night captured Gip Griffin, the alleged slayer of Henry Warner. The arrest was made at the home of Bud Hudson, near Haley's mill, the father-in-law of Griffin. The officers went to the house shortly after 9 o'clock and found Griffin in bed with his wife. They compelled him to dress and brought him here and lodged him in jail.

The crime for which Griffin will now stand trial was committed some time ago on Warner's place, near Haley's mill, where Griffin was employed as a cropper. The men had had a previous difficulty and while Warner was at work in his field Griffin approached with a shot gun and fired two charges into his victim and then stabbed him over the head.

Warner lived for several weeks but finally succumbed to his injuries. Griffin made his escape and, though it was thought that he was in hiding near the scene of the killing, the officers were unable to arrest him, despite numerous efforts. A reward of $100 had been offered for his capture.

Deputy Sheriff Jackson Tate returned Sunday morning from Pontiac, Illinois, with "Tissue Paper Jack" Hardison, the negro who was wanted by the local authorities on a charge of murder. Hardison had been arrested at Pontiac for implication in a highway robbery, but for lack of evidence he could not be held.

The man robbed had $40 taken from him by hold-up men. Hardison says that he had nothing to do with the robbery but that the highwaymen gave him 15 cents of the money stolen. Hardison is charged with killing Charley Johnson at Empire while shooting at John Carter at a colored festival. He asserts he did not have a pistol the night of the killing.

WORSE EVERY YEAR

Plenty of Hopkinsville Readers Have the Same Experience.

Don't neglect an aching back. It will get worse every year. Backache is really kidney ache. To cure the back you must cure the kidneys.

If you don't other kidney ills follow—Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease.

A Hopkinsville citizen tells you how—the cure is easy. Mrs. John Coombs, of 1295 S. Virginia St., says: "For a great many years I suffered with a persistent aching across my loins and through the kidneys. At times my back was so bad that I could hardly turn in bed and I could hardly lie on my back at all without placing my hand under it which seemed in some measure to relieve the pain. A friend of Mr. Coombs told him about Doan's Kidney Pills and he got a box for me at Thomas & Trahern's drug store. On using them I steadily improved until the dreadful aching was relieved and I could attend to my household duties without any inconvenience. They did me more good than any medicine I ever used and I gladly recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

At Hartington yesterday G. G. Reader was run over by a freight car and his leg cut off and the other broken in two places. It is estimated that the car had been so badly damaged so that it would not be run into but a new engine back of the engine against it. The other workmen saw the engine and managed to get out of danger and Mr. Reader had almost gotten out when the wheels caught him. The left leg was taken off just below the knee. DEADLY DISEASE

ATTACKS THE CATTLE IN SOUTH CHRISTIAN.

Black Leg In Church Hill Vicinity--Vaccination Is Reported To.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
A deadly disease has appeared among the cattle in South Christian and the farmers of that section are much disturbed over it. The disease has been pronounced black leg and when an animal is attacked death invariably results within a few hours. So far, it has only been reported on the farm of Mr. E. D. Jones, but already he has lost nine head of fine cattle. The state veterinary surgeon has advised that the cattle be vaccinated in order to prevent a spread of the disease. The vaccination is generally done on the leg of the animal and has the effect of vaccination for small-pox among people. Dr. R. L. Bradley, the local veterinary surgeon, is engaged in the work of vaccinating the cattle of that section today and the work will be kept up until they are all rendered immune to the disease.
