STANLEY—NEITHER SAINT NOR DEVIL

James V. Noyes, a special correspondent of the Indianapolis Star, attended the Democratic convention held here yesterday morning. He pronounced it the most remarkable he ever witnessed, and said the delegates were as free in their statements of foreign policy as they were in their opinions on the tariff question. The convention was so full of spirit that there was no question of a convention or a committee, but it was evident at once that the men were there on business. It was evident the convention was not a meeting of a political party, but of a political organization that was determined to test a theory and to try to overthrow the policy of the party that was in power.

The Democratic Party is the most democratic of the two parties, and it is the party of the people. It has been in power for a long time, and it has been able to do a great deal of good for the people. It has done more for the people than any other party, and it has done more for the country than any other party.

We have been told that the Democratic Party is the party of the people, but we have never been told what the people want. We have been told that the people want the Democratic Party, but we have never been told what the people want when they elect the Democratic Party. We have been told that the people want the Democratic Party because it is the party of the people, but we have never been told what the people want when they elect the Democratic Party.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev. Frank W. Talmage, B.D.

While the people were gathered in the temple, Jesus was teaching and gathered His disciples together.

In the land where Jesus was teaching, there was a town called Nazareth. In this town, there was a man named Zechariah. Zechariah was a priest and he and his wife, Elizabeth, were childless. They longed for a child and had been praying for a son for many years.

One day, when Zechariah was serving in the temple, an angel appeared to him and said, "Your prayer is answered. Elizabeth is pregnant and will have a son. This child will be great and will be named John. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit from the womb and will bring good tidings to all the people. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, and prepare the way for the Lord, to give His people knowledge of salvation through Jesus Christ, whom they shall call the Holy One of God."

Zechariah was so overcome with joy that he could not speak. The angel then said, "Your voice may be silenced, but your mouth will be opened at the birth of your son."

When Elizabeth gave birth to her son, John, she named him. The priest Zechariah, responding with faith, wrote his name and sang a song of praise to the Lord, expressing his amazement at the angel's words.

In the meantime, Mary and Joseph were living in Nazareth. They were a humble couple and were deeply religious. Mary, who was betrothed to Joseph, was expecting a child. When she learned that she was going to have a child, she was filled with joy and anticipation.

One day, while Mary was out in the fields, an angel appeared to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! You have found favor with God. You will conceive and give birth to a son, who will be called the Son of the Most High. He will be great, and will be called the Son of God."

Mary was overjoyed and responded to the angel with faith, declaring that she was willing to be the mother of the Lord's child. The angel then blessed Mary, saying, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the child will be called holy, even the Son of God."
