CARNIVAL COMING

The annual carnival will be held at the Hopkinsville public park on Saturday, October 30. The event will feature various rides, games, and food vendors. Admission is free to the public, and the proceeds will go to support the local youth center. The carnival will run from 10 am to 9 pm, and visitors are encouraged to come out and enjoy the festivities.

SCHOOL PER CAPITA

The school per capita for the county was $80. This figure shows an increase from last year, indicating a positive trend in educational funding. The per capita is calculated by dividing the total tax revenue received by the school district by the number of students enrolled. It is an important indicator of the financial support provided by the community to its education system.

JEWISH NEW YEAR WILL BE CELEBRATED TOMORROW.

Many members of Jewish citizenship will do the usual services of the day. They will fast, make the proper offerings and recite the Order of the Day, as prescribed by the law of Moses, in the Temple of Israel. As in the days of old, the feasts and festivals of the Jewish people are observed with great devotion and piety. The services at the Temple of Israel will be conducted by the rabbis, and the congregation will be present in their usual numbers.

Both will attend.

N. L. Campbell and George C. Foster.

Jewish New Year Will Be Celebrated Tomorrow.

The Jewish New Year, the first day of the Hebrew month of Tishrei, is a time of great religious significance for the Jewish people. It is a time for reflection, repentance, and commitment to the principles of Judaism. The New Year is often referred to as Rosh Hashanah, and it is celebrated with special prayers and rituals.

The Jewish New Year is a time of great rejoicing and jubilation. It is a time for the Jewish people to reflect on the past year, to repent for their sins, and to make a fresh start. The New Year is celebrated with special prayers and rituals, and it is a time for the Jewish people to come together in community to mark the occasion.

On the first day of the New Year, the Jewish people gather in the Temple of Israel to hear the reading of the书 of Esther, which tells the story of the salvation of the Jewish people from the clutches of Haman. The book of Esther is read in its entirety, and the congregation sings and dances in joy and jubilation.

The New Year is a time of great hope and promise. It is a time for the Jewish people to look forward to the future with optimism and confidence. The New Year is a time for the Jewish people to make a fresh start and to strive to do better than they did in the past year.
