It is God that girdeth me, and maketh my way perfect. Psalm 19:32.

He provides armor also. It is not enough to be pretty good, we should aim at perfection. A tiny wound from a rye straw caused the death of a supreme court judge. We are wrong to say we do not need God's armor.

David Burpee Says To Forget The Snow With His Magazine

By C. B. ENGELKE

United Press Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA (U. P.) — David Burpee believes that this is the time of year when millions of Americans try to forget snow, ice slush and heating bills by curling up with a good book about seeds.

So, beginning in a couple of weeks, his firm, the W. Atlee Burpee Co., will begin mailing out about four million flower and vegetable seed catalogues.

His theory is that the longer the average American home gardener has to study such a catalogue, the bigger his seed order will be. It must be a sound theory, too, because the Burpee Company is the world's largest mail order seed house.

We had a peek at an advance copy of the 1958 catalogue today, and it makes exciting reading. For the benefit of the more than 30 million Americans who are home gardeners (according to National Garden Bureau), here's a sneak preview of what they can expect in this year's edition.

First of all, Burpee is offering 11 new flowers and four new vegetable varieties.

Show piece of the catalogue is the new climax Marigolds. The climax of the first giant American first-generation hybrid Marigold ever developed.

It took 20 years and $50,000, plus the assistance of 600,000 bees, to create, and it's worth it. Burpee, long known as "Mr. Marigold" by flower growers, is the man responsible for solving the complex problems involved in creating a Marigold hybrid.

The big trouble is that Marigolds are self-pollinating. So Burpee first had to develop a strain that was male sterile. Eventually he succeeded. Then he planted alternate rows of the new male-sterile Marigolds and regular self-pollinating Marigolds.

Then the bees were brought in to cross-pollinate the two strains.

This sounds easier than it was, of course, but after 20 years Burpee came up with his Climax Marigold—tremendous, almost globular blooms that get to be nearly five inches across and almost as deep. Burpee is offering Climax seeds to enthusiasts this year in two colors—pale yellow and bright orange. Maybe next year there will be other colors.

Burpee is proud of Climax. It's the climax of many years.

of breeding Marigolds. Burpee was the first to develop the odorless Marigolds, the Tetra-ploid Marigold, and dozens of other varieties both giant and dwarf.

Among the other flowers being introduced this year are two Zinnias—Rose O'Grady, described as a hybrid bi-color, and giant Tetra in shades of rose; the Orchid Beauty Aster with a brand-new color; and the Super Frills Petunia, an extremely frilled flower like an all-double in Burgundy, Salmon - pink, Mauve and white.

If your thoughts are more on the vegetable line, Burpee is introducing Fordhook hybrid watermelons described as a family size fruit weighing between 12 and 14 pounds; honeycrisp sweet corn, peppercorn corn, and early popcorn, and greenback broccoli.

If you have plenty of money, you can always buy the most expensive seed in the world—the Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower All-double Petunia. The Mrs. DDE retails for $5,600 an ounce, but Burpee puts it up in smaller packages. You might try 100 seeds for $2.00 or a thousand for $16.50.

Almost as expensive is what is probably Burpee's most famous vegetable hybrid—the Big Boy tomato. Although Big Boy seeds sell at 20 for 50 cents, they are a consistent best seller. D & S, Duke of Dickson County, Tenn., has obtained, as much as 150 pounds of tomatoes from one cross.

Big Boy stays high priced because as a hybrid it cannot reproduce itself. Each year's crop of seeds must be obtained by hand pollination of the original cross.

NEW YORK — The college basketball season is barely under way but you can just about fill out your All-America ballot to-day for five exceptional stickouts who figure to rule the roundball court come winter ball or spring high water.

Collectively they represent every section of the nation. Yet, if you'll observe their home towns, you'll notice that the East still is turning out the finest crop of basketball players.

The team which figures is composed of: Forward — Elgin Baylor, Seattle, 6-6, 225 pounds, 22, Washington, D. C.

Forward — Frank Howard, Ohio State, 6-8, 219 pounds, 20, Columbus, Ohio.

Center — Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, Kansas, 7 feet, 214 pounds, 20, Philadelphia.

Guard — Tom Kearns, North Carolina, 5-11, 191 pounds, 20, Bergenfield, N. J.

Guard — Guy Rodgers, Temple, 6 feet, 180 pounds, 21, Philadelphia.

Experts Favor Cable

The man with the best chance to crack into this lineup would appear to be 6-foot-7, 7-inch Barney Cable of Bradley, if you listen real closely to the basketball aficionados. And there also are glowing words for such as 6-4 Johnny Cox of Kentucky; 6-8 Archie Dees of Indiana; 6-4 Arlen Bockhorn of Dayton, and 6-2 Gene Brown of San Francisco.

Other threats are Cory Freeman of Xavier, Ohio; Arby Arnold, Memphis State; Alex Ellis, Niagara; Tom Hawkins, Notre Dame; Johnny Green, Michigan State; Bailey Howell, Mississippi State; Johnny Lee, Yale; Temple Tucker, Rice; Dave Gambee, Oregon State; Earl Robinson, California; Milt Kane, Utah; Tony Windis, Wyoming, and Ron Loneski, Kansas.

But the big five, barring injuries will be Baylor, Howard, Chamberlain, Kearns and Rodgers.

One thing you can say for such a quintet is that any coach in the country would take it without making a substitution because it forms such a well-balanced team. Each is in his natural position.

Take Charge — Guys Kearns and Rodgers both are extremely fine backcourt men who are labeled as "take charge" guys. While "only" six feet tall, Rodgers is known as the "collegiate Bob Cousy" because of his all-around ability. Kearns gives away ordinarily vital inches yet has the speed and talent to make up for that deficit.

Baylor and Howard both are tremendous rebounders who can run with blazing speed, jump like jack-rabbits and shoot with uncanny accuracy.

Chamberlain is, of course, the pros right now and make the grade without any question. Although several times he is extremely fast and agile. As an indication, he ran the 440 in 49 seconds flat and high jumps six feet, five inches.

One thing that any All-American candidate needs without letup is publicity. These five are certain to get as much as anybody in the land. The fact that it isn't merely publicity makes their chances extremely bright.

SAVE On men's suits, sport coats, topcoats. As Eastern factories representative I can save you from 1/3 to 1/2.

Open Nights and Sunday By Appointment. 816 So. 1st Phone 1236 Mayfield, Ky.

Brown Heavy But Fast Jim Brown, remarkable rookie fullback of the Cleveland Browns, now weighs 230 pounds. But he's just as fast as when he ran the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds at Syracuse U., where he sealed 218. He's the leading ground gainer in the National Football League, with 826 yards on 171 attempts for a 4.8 average.

And on the Cleveland baseball front, Frank Lane is trying hard to get Bobby Richardson, 22-year old Yankee second baseman, to tighten the Indian infield.

Smallish Bobby is brilliant on defense but only a fair hitter, who batted .254 for 305 tries in 96 rookie games this year. Dickers for Richardson are nothing new to Casey Stengel, who says, "three clubs tried everything to get him from us in a trade before he ever played a game for us."

Here are the latest bowl odds: (Rose) Ohio State 18 points over Oregon; (Sugar) Of Miss one over Texas; (Cotton) Navy and Rice at even money; (Gator) Oklahoma 12 over Duke; (Gator) Texas A&M five over Tennessee.

Irish Attendance Mark — A new Notre Dame attendance record for 10 games was expected to be set today as the Irish played Southern Methodist at Dallas, Tex. Only about 41,000 were needed to set the record of 610,704 set in 1953. The first nine games this season drew a total of 569,749.

Two of the six coaches in the National Hockey League failed to perform in that circuit during their playing careers. They are Jimmy Skinner of Detroit and Tommy Ivan of Chicago. Skinner played several years among the minor pros, but Ivan was with amateurs only.

Columbia University won one football game and lost eight this season, but the Lions expect their fencing team to take the national-collegiate championship.

HONORS FOR BRUNDAGE — The Sportsman's Brotherhood will honor Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, and Dan Ferris, Secretary of the AAU, at its annual award luncheon on Jan. 23.

Rodney Warren fired in 42 points and Lynn Grove went home a three point, 64-61, winner over the host Almo Warriors Monday night.

Warren, the leading scorer in the Purchase, caged 19 field goals and four of six foul shots in amassing his total.

Almo moved into a first period lead, 23-19, but fell behind in the second quarter of play to trail, 36-44, at halftime. Entering into the third stanza the Warriors were able to narrow the margin to two points, 56-54, but were unable to completely overhaul their foe as the Wildcats survived their final canto to win, 64-61.

It was Lynn Grove's second victory in the inter-county play. Tom Lamb sparked the Almo attack with 20 points.

North Carolina Gets Big Vote Of Confidence In Poll

By FRED DOWN

NEW YORK — North Carolina's defending national championship, received a solid vote of confidence from the United Press Board of Coaches today before taking on their toughest assignment since the 1956-57 NCAA tournament.

Coach Frank McGuire's Tarheels, about to risk their 36th game winning streak in the Kentucky Invitation Tournament held a 40-point lead over Kansas in the United Press college basketball ratings.

Behind Kansas in the current ratings came Kansas State with 222 points, San Francisco with 199, Michigan State with 192, Kentucky with 116, Cincinnati with 91, Seattle with 66, Maryland with 64 and UCLA with 58.

North Carolina had 22 first-place votes, Kansas had eight and Kansas State, San Francisco, Michigan State, Kentucky and Cincinnati one each.

Maryland, Cincinnati Gain The big winners were seventh-ranked Cincinnati, which came up from 17th, and Maryland, which rose to No. 9 after being unranked.

North Carolina, which has beaten four southern opponents in relatively easy victories this season, will take on 16th-ranked Minnesota (3-0) on the first round of the Kentucky Invitation Friday night. Should the Tarheels win that one, they'll face either sixth-ranked Kentucky, extra tough on its home court, or 14th ranked West Virginia, Saturday night.

Maryland's advance was made primarily on the basis of its 71-62 triumph over Kentucky at Lexington, Ky., last Monday and means that North Carolina has a new challenger for national honors right in its own Atlantic Coast Conference back yard.

Cincinnati crashed the top 10 on the strength of its victory in the Cincinnati Invitational Tournament last weekend and also boasts a brilliant newcomer in sophomore Oscar Robinson.

Seattle moved up from 13th to eighth after upsetting Bradley. Bradley now 11th.

Bradley, Temple and Notre Dame all lost their places in the top 10, Bradley dropping to 11th, Temple to 13th and Notre Dame to a tie for 19th.

Kansas, which has not led since the ratings of last Jan. 14, plays Washington and California next Friday and Saturday and then comes the Big Seven Tournament. Kansas State plays the same two Pacific Coast Conference opponents this weekend.

San Francisco and Seattle collide in the Bluegrass Tournament at Louisville, Ky., Friday night.

It's entirely possible, therefore, that the ratings will undergo one of their biggest shakeups

Not All Over In National Grid League

By HARRY WISMER

NEW YORK — It still isn't all over in the National Football League. Next Sunday afternoon in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium the Detroit Lions and the Forty-Niners will square off in that sudden death contest to decide which eleven will meet the Cleveland Browns on Sunday, Dec. 29 for the world's title.

It should be a sensational contest from any viewpoint. The Lions have come along like the comeback square of the year in the West. After a slow start, and despite the fact that Bobby Layne is out with a broken ankle, they have a solid bone crushing attack, and a great defense that should carry them to the title.

George Wilson has turned in an exceptional job in grooming and handling his material. Tobin Rote has stepped into Layne's shoes without missing a beat, and "Hopalong" Cassidy has proved to be a sparkling in gaining in the open field.

The Forty-Niners are a great scoring team, but their defense isn't of the best and although the game will be played in San Francisco, the Lions have the stuff to take them.

While all that is going on Paul Brown will be slowly and carefully reworking his eastern championship for the title. They wound up the season with the best win and loss record in the entire league. And their comeback after that bad 1956 year entitles Paul Brown to be tabbed as the "coach of the year" among the pros. He has had a record second to none in his professional career. Football is his life, and the results indicate just how good he is at his chosen profession.

Oaks-Austin Wedding Solemnized On Saturday

Mrs. Clegg Farmer Austin

The wedding of Miss Janice Dean Oaks, daughter of Mrs. James Martin Oaks, and the late Mr. Oaks of Louisville, and Dr. Clegg Farmer Austin, son of Mrs. A. B. Austin and the late Mr. Austin, was solemnized on Saturday, December 14, at seven o'clock in the evening in the candle lighted sanctuary of the Douglass Boulevard Christian Church in Louisville.

Dr. Thomas H. Giltner, minister of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony which was read before an altar flanked by burning candles in tall silver candle holders and the family pews were marked with arrangements of white gladioli.

Proceeding in matrimony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Walter Kennedy, church organist, and Mrs. Charles Waldrop of Murray and Louisville. Mrs. Waldrop sang "The Wedding Prayer" (Dunlop).

preceding the pledging of the vows and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) as the couple knelt on a red velvet kneeling bench for the benediction. Mrs. Kennedy's selections were "Chante Russe" (Cahoy); "Joy, Joy of Mary's Dearly" (Bach); "A Lovely Rose is Blooming" (Brahms); and "Bridal Chorus" (Wagner) (Blackburn). The traditional wedding march was used as the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Woodrow W. Bernard of Louisville, wore a gown of white silk tulle and a long train. The bride's hair was styled in a princess style. The fitted, buttoned bodice featured a portrait neckline in shirred tulle and lace and was adorned with seed pearls. The long sleeves were tapered over the hands and were marked at the wrist with self-covered buttons. The bouffant skirt was enhanced by appliques of lace and seed pearls at the hipline and down the back with a shirred, bustle, back interest. It extended into a chapel sweep train. Her finger-ring veil of misty French illusion extended from a crown of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried white rose buds arranged on white tulle.

Miss June Peterman of Louisville was maid of honor. Miss Betty Bernard of Russell Springs, Ky., cousin of the bride and Miss Fedelia Austin, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of white-length-white lace which featured a bright red satin cummerbund ending in a large folded bow at the back. The bodices were fashioned with slightly off-the-shoulder necklines and cap sleeves. The bouffant skirts were worn over crinolines. They wore pleated white satin headpieces designed with short tails of illusion which extended over their faces; short white gloves, gifts of the bride; and white satin shoes. Their flowers were groups of red poinsettias.

Mrs. Oaks, mother of the bride, wore a sheath dress of green peau de soie with three-quarter length sleeves. The dress had diagonal folds at the hips and a pleated fullness at the back. Her hat was of small, white feathers and she wore white gloves. Her corsage was made of white gladioli.

Mrs. Austin chose for the son's wedding a dress of champagne lace over matching tulle and taffeta which featured a large brown taffeta bow at the waist and a full skirt. Her champagne taffeta hat was embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. She wore matching shoes and gloves and her flowers were white gladioli.

Mr. O. B. Boone Jr. served as best man. Mr. Hal Houston, Mr. Gary Oaks, of Louisville and brother of the bride; Dr. San Burke and Dr. Duval Bushong of Louisville, and Mr. William Cooper of Paxton, Ill., were groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Oaks entertained with a reception at the Bouchel Woman's Club in Louisville. The club house was decorated throughout with the Christmas motif. The bride's table was overlaid with an imported lace cloth and was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake. At the base of the cake were arranged small cherubs set in greenery. Burning tapers in candelabras and two crystal punch bowls completed the table appointments. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. Ray H. Carter of Jeffersonville, Ind., and Miss Jackie Bernard of Russell Springs, Ky.

Following the reception, Dr. and Mrs. Austin left for a southern wedding trip. For her going-away outfit, Mrs. Austin wore a sage wood suit with a narrow pink collar and a beige feather hat. Her other accessories were brown.

Dr. and Mrs. Austin will make their home in Louisville where Dr. Austin is internist at Louisville General Hospital.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Corn, Dr. and Mrs. James Hart, Jimmy Hart, Bill Hart, Nancy Hart, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Boone, Jr., Mr. Hal Houston, Misses Rosemary Jones, Peggy Sue Shroat, Donna Tuck, Jenny Sue Stupfield, and Mr. A. W. Simmons of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper, Paxton, Ill.; Mr. N. N. Austin, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. G. W. Bernard, Miss Betty Bernard, Miss Jackie Bernard, Mrs. C. P. Bottom, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Phelps, Mr. John Phelps, and Mrs. Lucy Rine of Russell Springs, Ky.

THE Christmas Story

"And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."
So the Holy Book tells us of shepherds who watched by night, and of One who came to earth with a glorious message,
with hope and joy for all mankind.
It is our sincerest wish that the wonder of the Christmas story bring to you spiritual riches to cherish now and forevermore.

After emerging from heavy clouds the Atlas, a thing of impressive beauty, zoomed into the blue high in the sun-kissed skies.

The Atlas, with a range believed to be around 3,000 miles, was visible to beach observers.

The 90-foot Atlas, trailing a tail of orange flame, was clearly visible long after it broke from its curiously confined seemingly with reluctance in its slow departure, and departed on its course down the Atlantic tracking range.

There was no Earth Satellite in this missile, which still is being tested purely as a military move.

But the possibility arose that the Atlas may be converted for carrying a U.S. moon should other missiles prove incapable of orbiting a satellite.

J. R. Dempsey, manager of the Astronautics Division of Convair, makers of the Atlas, said in Washington he believes the missile could put a half-ton satellite into orbit in a year after getting a government go-ahead.

Dempsey said he expects Convair to get a satellite order soon.

Under the plan, entering freshmen will be offered six half-hour courses daily from 2 to 4 p. m. in history, English, Psychology, theology, and a modern language via ultra high frequency (UHF) TV receivers installed in their homes. Credits will be accumulated toward a Bachelor of Philosophy degree.

Enrollers will be given certificates enabling them to purchase low-cost UHF receivers with an antenna for about $142. They will pay $100 for the course instead of the customary $250 if taken on campus.

University administrators have arranged with manufacturers to place about 1,000 low-cost TV sets on Detroit market to permit almost immediate expansion of the experimental program.

"We believe the time has come when every home must have at least two television receivers — one for family entertainment and the other for serious study," said President Fr. Celestin J. Steiner of the university.

Freshmen Will Get TV Bargain

DETROIT — One hundred University of Detroit freshmen will be given $150 tuition cuts in order to buy television sets for study purposes.

The tuition credits will go to the freshmen participating in the university's pioneer study-at-home by television program, which starts in September.

Working...

quirement is that it immediately attracts the eyes and that all other elements be subordinated to it.

Secondary points of interest that help to carry out the theme should not compete for attention with the focal point. They should be so related that the picture would seem to be incomplete without them. Slightly subdued illumination should be used on these features.

Unifying all elements is the job of your general illumination. Using diffused light over the entire area from floodlamps is a good solution to this problem. Unity can be obtained with strings of lamps forming lines or paths of light, or by a combination of the two. This should tie the entire picture together, and when glare, sharp unwanted contrast, and hazardous shadows are eliminated, the picture is complete.

Remember, it is what you do with what you have: the artistry, originality, ingenuity and lighting techniques you show, that our judges will take into account.

where the average rose $2.90 and Glasgow which had an advance of $1.99.

Losses in the burley belt Monday ranged from $1 to $6 on three-fourths of the grades — the biggest drop of the season. Lower quality red and green leaf bore the brunt of the drop.

The amount of burley going under government loans ranged as high as 15 per cent of sales at some markets, the Federal-State Market News Service said.

Sales of Green River — 26 tobacco Monday at Henderson, Madisonville and Owensboro brought an average of $36.21 on 647,079 pounds. The Mayfield and Russellville markets had an average of $36.62 on sales of 685,134 pounds on One Sucker — 35.

WORD ON SUKARNO — Indonesian Premier Djuanda (above) told parliament in Jakarta that Indonesia's President Sukarno goes to India soon for vacation. It was denied Sukarno was being deposed. (International)

Ways Sought To Protect Bears

WASHINGTON — The Fish and Wildlife Service is trying to find new ways to protect the polar bear. Legislation may be necessary to give the service authority to afford the bears more protection.

The service said hunters have been using planes to locate the bears on ice floes in the Arctic, then landing to make the kill. Because the hunting is far beyond the territorial limits of Alaska, there is a jurisdictional problem that is complicated by lack of specific legislation and by the practical difficulties of enforcement.

Telephone Talk

by F. H. RIDDLE
Telephone Manager

WE'LL BE HERE FOR CHRISTMAS! You know that wonderful feeling that comes on Christmas Eve when every one is bustling around and hurrying home with waves and shouts of Merry Christmas? You may be surprised to learn that for us in the telephone family it keeps up throughout the holiday season. Many of us stay on the job, but we still get a share of the Christmas spirit. It comes with the happy calls and messages you make through us to friends and family. This is one of the reasons I'm glad I'm a telephone man, one of many who think the best way to wish you Merry Christmas is by saying, "We'll be here for Christmas!"

LAST MINUTE SHOPPING If you're like me, you probably still have some presents to get, even at this late date. If that's the case let me suggest you look around in some of your friend's homes, and see if they could use an additional phone or two. Then give extensions in colors to mix and match with the colors in their rooms. Call us now, tell us your color choices, and we'll gift wrap and deliver before Christmas, or, if you prefer we can furnish gift certificates. Of course phones you give can be exchanged for different colors after the holidays. Mrs. Crago and Mrs. Beale our service representatives, telephone number 9000, would appreciate your call and gladly assist you with color selections.

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM US TO YOU! This is my last Telephone Talk for the year, and while writing it I've been looking back to see what kind of a year 1957 was. Most ways for us at the telephone company it was a good year. We've been able to bring more telephone services to more people than ever before. We plan to do even better next year. We hope your year has been good, too, and that in some small way your telephone and your telephone company have helped you make it fun to phone. Until 1958 then, Merry Christmas, Happy New Year from all of us to all of you.

Great Race Horses At Station

AVON, N. Y. — Some of the world's best-known race horses now graze contentedly in the heart of New York State's Genesee Valley.

The valley, long famous for the quality of horses bred and raised here, is the home of Lookover Station, owned and operated by the Breeding Bureau of the Jockey Club.

Former champions on the turf in this country and elsewhere are to be found at Lookover. "Pleasant" are "Pleasant," one of the all-time great two-year-olds; Fenchon, top American horse of 1941; and Amphitheatre, another son of the great Sir Galahad.

Rich Feed Source

The Lookover station is located on Route 39, about three miles south of this Livingston County village. The valley's rich hay and grain were important factors in the Jockey Club's selection of the site for its only station.

Practically every farm in the valley has one or more mares in its pastures, and there are colts and fillies of various breeds—including thoroughbreds, standard-breds and "heavy" breeds.

"New York State, where horse racing was introduced on this continent and the home of Saratoga, the nation's oldest race track, has a long record for producing fine thoroughbreds," Estate Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson said. "It is fitting that the nation's foremost horse racing body should select the Genesee Valley for its breeding farm."

Skin Divers Used In Jet Tests

SAN FRANCISCO — The building of jet airliners now requires "frogmen" who also are engineers.

The Boeing Airline Co. has a new method of pressure testing done in a giant tank. The plane bodies are submerged in the water, but they must be escorted in the dunking.

Boeing discovered that several of their skin-divers, at present about 12 men are taking a special course in the use of face masks, rubber fins, and oxygen tanks.

The $100,000 test tank is 130 feet long and holds 400,000 gallons of water for the aquatic engineers to get around in.

Artist Rockwell Kent and stage designer Jo Mielziner teamed up to paint the mural on the ceiling of the Cape Cinema at Dennis, Mass.

The Charlemont Inn in Charlemont, Mass., built in 1787 and since restored was a principal overnight stop for travelers between Boston and Albany, N. Y.

Asks Bundling Boards For Modern Couples

BOSTON — An auto-club executive here is in favor of "bundling boards" in automobiles for love-smitten youngsters.

At least, said Philip C. Wallwork of the Automobile Legal Association, that would keep them apart.

"There is nothing more disconcerting," he said "than to watch a young driver in the car ahead trying to steer while in the octopus-like grip of a sweet young thing."

"Needless to say, the recipient of such loving attention is probably even more disconcerted."

Stole Fence Stones, Must Replace Them

FITCHBURG, Mass. — An admitted fence thief was given one week to replace the barrier or face the consequences.

Fotos H. Xarras, 34, of Leominster pleaded guilty to larceny of $25 worth of stones from the fence of Albert A. Houghton. Judge A. Z. Goodfellow continued the case with the proviso that Xarras rebuild the fence. The judge named a committee of Houghton and two policemen to supervise the job.

Town Relieves Tale Of Billy The Kid

OLD LINCOLN, N. M. — An Old Lincoln resident here is re-enacting each summer in this quiet ranch town in southern New Mexico.

Violent days of the notorious outlaw, William Bonney, are relived in a historical pageant, "The Last Escape of Billy the Kid."

Townpeople, 150 strong take part in the three-day festival (August 2-4).

The Kid was imprisoned in Lincoln by Sheriff Pat Garrett for the murder of Major William Brady. Billy starved himself for several days while chained in his second floor cell to make his wrists smaller. He slipped out of his manacles and galloped out of Lincoln with the chains still binding his ankles.

His dramatic escape made headlines all over the country as did his death several months later when Sheriff Garrett tracked him to nearby Fort Sumner and shot him.

Our thanks and best wishes for a Happy Holiday to all of you whom it has been our great privilege and pleasure to know and to serve.
