Thomas R. Jones Was The Builder Of Several Of The One Dozen Brick Homes In Murray At The Turn Of The Century

Ed Note: This is the second of a two part series written by Dr. Hugh McElrath on brick homes in Murray at the turn of the century.

By Dr. HUGH McELRATH

Before telling something of the first brick house built in my memory I would like to enlarge upon a group of smaller brick houses all built by the same man over a period of perhaps thirty years. The builder was Thomas R. Jones and all the houses were on Walnut Street. One stood where the Bus Station now stands. It was built on two levels with several steerable rooms above and two basement rooms designed for the kitchen and dining room. There was no hall between the two front rooms, but a door to both rooms from the south porch, which was partly recessed. There was a roomy back porch on still another level. At one time it was occupied by Bro. C. C. Bell, pastor of the Methodist Church. This was in the early 90's. Later Prof. A. E. Barnes lived there a short while still later Joe Lancaster, Nace Ryan Jr. and Tom Sammons and Will Ryan and doubtless others too.

The brick house on the corner below the Christian Church was I believe built about the same time as the one above. In the mid-nineties it was bought by A. J. Davis, a livery stable man from Dover, Tenn., and his family lived there several years. There have been many tenants I recall several others, the Langstons, and the Millers both of whom operated a boarding house. Then there was a Mr. Johnson who came from Marshall County and later returned to his native heath. Fred Burton also lived there, also Jimmie Curd and the Doors and another Burton family and perhaps others.

The house soon to be razed is a one story cottage with the entrance in the center. The front porch is somewhat triangular with the entrance recessed. While the Davis lived there it was the scene of many happy parties as Mrs. Davis was always ready to open her home to the youngsters. Before there was any building on this property the Christian Church maintained a pool there in or

65 Die In Crash Of Big Airliner

By FREDERICK M. WINSHIP

United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—A new American Airlines jet - powered Electra airliner missed its LaGuardia Airport runway in fog and rain and plunged into the East River just before midnight Tuesday night, apparently killing 65 of the 73 persons aboard.

A passing tugboat rescued nine persons from the water and the wreckage. One died later in a hospital. By mid-morning, 19 more bodies had been recovered from the shallow muddy waters of the tidal river.

The plane, a new 2-million-dollar jet-powered aircraft put into service only 10 days ago, was the airline's Flight 320 out of Chicago. The Civil Aeronautics Board said the pilot was making a "standard instrument approach" to Runway 22 at LaGuardia.

Its last contact with the airport was a routine acknowledgment of permission to land, made from less than three miles away. The plane apparently smashed into the river in landing position, broke apart and sank quickly in about 20 feet of water. One survivor said he believed the pilot made several passes over the field before the crash, but the CAB statement made no mention of any unsuccessful landing attempts.

It appeared likely the cause of the fatal crash-first of a U. S. made commercial jet-prop in the United States-would not be determined until completion of a CAB investigation, which was begun immediately.

Crawl On Fuselage

"There were only two large pieces of wreckage," Everett Phelps, co-captain of the tugboat H. Thomas Patti, said. "The tail and part of the fuselage. Three people were perched on the fuselage. We hauled them aboard. As I did so, a hand poked through a door in the wreckage. The man inside the fuselage called for help. Crewman yanked on the door and hooks but couldn't get it open. Then the fuselage section pulled away from the hooks. The man's hand disappeared. His cries stopped."

"If only there were more around, more people could have been saved."

These scouts, to earn the right to attend the Roundup, have completed a five point program of aid in hospitals, libraries, working with younger scouts, completing swimming tests and standards and camping requirements.

Two Jets Land But In Trouble

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Boeing 707 jet passenger plane carrying Gene Kelly and 123 other persons from Paris to New York and another 707 operated by American Airlines from New York to Los Angeles both suffered "malfunctions" but landed safely at their destinations.

There were no injuries in either case.

The Paris-to-New York plane, operated by Pan American World Airways, dropped swiftly from a 30,000 foot altitude to 6,000 feet over the North Atlantic when the autopilot that keeps the plane level suddenly went on blink.

Self - Financing T.V.A. Bill Placed By Stubblefield

Congressman Frank A. Stubblefield today introduced in the House of Representatives a TVA self-financing bill. The bill, introduced by Representative Stubblefield is identical with the one that passed the Senate last session and cleared the Public Works Committee on the House side, but did not reach the floor prior to adjournment.

Representative Clifford Davis of Tennessee, and Representative Robert E. Jones of Alabama, both members of the Public Works Committee, introduced the same bill last week. In commenting on the bill, Stubblefield pointed out that supporters of TVA feel that the proposed legislation would permit TVA to operate at maximum efficiency and enable TVA to meet the growing power of the TVA area and particularly the Kentucky Dam area. Expansion of existing plants and location of the plants in the Kentucky Dam area are being held up pending assurance of adequate members of the Public Works Committee.

Reorganization Of Reserve Units In Area Is Planned

PADUCAH, Ky. Feb. 2, 1959— Army Reservist in Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia will be affected by a reorganization of the U. S. Army Reserve, it was announced in Columbus, Ohio, today by Major General Ralph W. Zwicker, Commanding General of the XX U. S. Army Corps (Reserve).

The reorganization, now underway, is expected to be completed by the end of 1960. It carries out a previously announced Department of the Army program for nation-wide reorganization of the Reserves. The Reserve will be patterned after the new pentomic structure of the Regular Army. The reorganization is designed to modernize the Reserve and make it a stronger, more effective fighting force.

The pentomic concept involves streamlining of combat divisions and supporting units. It is the result of a study, research and experiment designed to develop more effective ground forces for national security.

More than 25,000 Officers and men in active Reserve units in the Corps' area will come under the plan. Active units meet one night a week or on week-ends at a local Reserve Center and participate in two weeks of intensive training at a military installation each summer.

Under the new plan, the Corps' present 450 active Reserve units will be consolidated into about 200 fewer units. The reorganization will include the inactivation and consolidation of some units, the redesignation of others and the relocation of still others. Some new units will be organized.

Overall manpower will not be decreased, since reservist in inactivated units will be absorbed by other units.

The 100th Infantry Division, commanded by Major General Frederick M. Warren, with headquarters in Louisville, Kentucky, will become a specialized training division.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

They trusted in thee and were not confounded.
Psalms 22:5.

There is an amazing record of hard-pressed peoples who have found their faith justified. Individuals likewise have had their faith justified.

FULBRIGHT IS QUALIFIED

WITH the appointment of Senator J. William Fulbright of Arkansas to succeed 91-year-old Senator Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island as chairman of the foreign relations committee many Americans will earnestly hope our defensive role in the "cold war" with the Soviet Union will be changed to one of offense.

Senator Fulbright is an outspoken foe of the Eisenhower Administration foreign policy as it has been run almost exclusively by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. He has spoken out on occasion against the Dulles "brink of war" philosophy. He favors closer, and more aggressive negotiations, with the Soviet Union, believing we are going to have to live permanently in the same world with Communists and that it is high time we begin employing our initiative and intelligence to establish formulas for world peace that will be acceptable to both sides.

Foreign relations is, of course, nothing new. What is new is relations with Communism because it is new. Being a revolutionary philosophy it is based on fear and hate. If these can be countered Communism will fall of its own weight, and if we believe in the Christian religion we must believe there are ways to overcome them short of war.

Sometimes it may appear that Communism is spreading, but this could easily be the death struggle of evil forces everywhere. People are learning that it is a failure, not only in Russia where it started, but everywhere else, and Communist revolutions are not as fanatic, nor as lasting, as they once were.

Our foreign policy was much more satisfactory and effective before we aped dictatorships by making it a function of the White House and State Department. The U.S. Senate is supposed to have a great deal more to do with our relations with other countries than it has had since the late Franklin D. Roosevelt took it over, and his successor, Harry S. Truman, ordered our troops into Korea without even asking Congress for its blessing.

We believe Senator Fulbright is qualified to serve as head of the foreign relations committee and we suspect Secretary Dulles will do well from now on to consult him on foreign relations before taking off for Europe, Asia, or wherever to learn what our allies think of some new Communist aggression. It may pay us to adopt some independent policies.

Harry Craft Not Setting A Goal For Athletics In 1959

By HARRY CRAFT
Manager, Kansas City Athletics
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — I'm not setting a goal for the 1959 Athletics like I did last year when we were aiming for 70 victories and beat that by three games.
I won't even say that we will be a first division contender. But we will be shooting for a 300 percentage and, if we hit that, we won't be far out.
I believe we can hit the 500 mark this season with a little natural improvement and the bench we have added.
Additions like Wayne Terwilliger, John Bells and Dick Williams have given us that bench strength we have sorely needed. They and some other young fellows will give us more maneuverability this season and the competition for jobs this spring will be greater than it ever was. And a little competition never hurt anyone.

Battle For First
First base, in particular, will be interesting position this spring. Fellows like Preston Ward, Harry Simpson, Jim McManis, Hal Smith and even Bells and Williams will be out to win it.
If I had to name my first baseman today, I couldn't do it. It wouldn't be fair to those fellows.

Ancient Race
SARATOGA, N. Y. (UPI) — The oldest horse race in America is the Travers, which was established at Saratoga in 1864.

Pretty Good Record
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — Fielding H. Yost's Michigan football teams won 55 games, lost one and tied one in the five-year period from 1901 through 1905. Yost's teams scored 2,821 points and yielded a total of only 40.

BARBECUE SAUCE is poured over lamb ribs browned together with sliced onion. The ribs are cooked over low heat in chill-ketchup-lemon sauce until the lamb is tender.

Try Lamb with Sauces

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Lamb? It is flavorful meat, but are you really taking full advantage of its versatility?

Served Many Ways

In Mediterranean countries, lamb is the mainstay of the meat diet. It's served in such diverse ways, however, that even after four days of lamb dinners you're not really conscious you've been eating lamb, lamb, lamb, lamb!

In America, the reverse is true. Usually when home-makers think of lamb, it's in terms of the phrases that most often go with it, "leg of or, if their budget is handsome, "loin chops."

Budget Buys

Shoppers who are looking for economy buys, think of lamb in other ways. When it's to be on the menu, they have chops cut off it and so are all set with meat for another meal. A rolled shoulder of lamb is another good low-cost buy, and don't overlook lamb ribs or spareribs.

The recipes that follow are for lamb dishes made with steaks, ribs and spareribs, served with sauces that really make them savory and special good!

Broiled Lamb Steaks with Creamy Tomato Sauce: Broil 2 lamb leg steaks, about 3/4 in. thick, with salt and pepper. Broil 3 to 4 in. from source of heat for 5 to 7 min., or until lightly browned.

DINNER'S SERVED: broiled lamb leg steaks with creamy tomato sauce, buttered carrots, orange and grapefruit salad.

Turn Broil 5 min., or until desired degree of doneness.

Flowers Blooming In Arctic Ice

CUT THROAT ISLAND, Labrador - (UPI) - Flowers are blooming smack in the middle of the Arctic ice cap.

From there, the flowers went by plane to Goose Bay, with enough soil for planting, and from Goose Bay a helicopter transferred the cargo to Cut Throat Island.

The mails, carried as SOS to an Air Force wife in Michigan, who talked to her local florist about the problem of getting flowers to the ice cap.

The florist checked the membership list of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association and came up with a dealer in St. John's Newfoundland.
