By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, telling a Senate committee hearing why he thought Russia agreed to the limited nuclear test ban:

"In the past year, for the first time, the nuclear powers had a look at nuclear exchange as an operational matter. Man had a chance to look into the pit of the inferno."

LONDON — Det. Sept. Gerald MacArthur, who is directing the search for the perpetrators of the $7.1 million train robbery:

"It is my hope that the money is within 30 miles of the robbery scene."

LOS ANGELES — Billy Graham, the evangelist, who is returning this week to the scene here of his first triumph:

"There may be more logic and reason in my sermons now, but I still preach the same Gospel. That doesn't change."

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Stan Musial, announcing he will retire at the end of the current season:

"Baseball has been my life. I love baseball."

Stan "The Man" Musial Will Hang Up His Spikes After This Season Comes To An End

By LEO SOROKA

United Press International

ST. LOUIS, Mo. 8-13 — This is the final season for Stan "The Man" Musial.

Musial, one of the greatest hitters in baseball history, announced Monday night he will retire as an active player at the end of the current season.

The 42-year-old Musial, who spent a quarter of a century in the Cardinal organization as a player, will continue to work for the Red Birds in an executive capacity.

When the Cardinals retire the familiar No. 6 this fall it will complete the longest playing career of any major league player with one team.

Owens Many Records

The lithe, slightly stopped slugger, with the unique "corkscrew" batting stance, will bow out with complete or partial ownership of 58 major league, National League and All-Star records.

The surprise announcement at a Cardinal picnic at the palatial home of club owner August A. Busch Jr. came only a week after Musial said he would not make a statement concerning his retirement until the end of the current season.

"Baseball has been my life," Stan told the gathering of players, their wives and children, and a few newsmen. "I love baseball. I like nothing better to do than play baseball."

"Nothing beats playing in the big leagues and putting on that big league uniform."

"I came in with a winner in my first full year with the Cardinals in 1942 and I'd like to go out the same way. I've dreamed for a long time of playing one more World Series. I think we still have a chance to do it."

Loss To Game

General manager Bing Devine called Musial's decision "a great loss to the playing end of the game but a gain to the executive side."

"It's a sad thing for baseball, for Stan's wife and family — but a happy one for the Cardinals who need someone like Stan to step into our midst," Devine said.

Indication that Musial's retirement was imminent came when his batting average continued to tumble this season. Musial went for a week at a time without being in the lineup, then when he was put in he would be lifted often for a pinch-runner or defensive replacement.

Asked if anything particular made him decide to quit, Musial said: "I just think I've had enough, regardless of what kind of year I've had. I'll be 43 next winter and by next baseball season I'll be heading for 44."

Break Into Tears

Musial's wife, Lil, who said she never wanted Stan to quit, and two of his daughters, Gerry, 18, and

Stan Musial Cards

Jenett, 13, broke into tears when the announcement was made.

Mrs. Musial said she had not known about Stan's decision until "just a day or so ago."

Musial, smoking a cigar, tried to relieve the tension.

"If I had known this would cause such a commotion, I would have announced it in New York City and it would have been over in two minutes," he cracked.

Musial, who said he expects to be a grandfather before he retires officially on Sept. 29 in St. Louis, established or tied 17 major league records, 30 National League standards and nine All-Star Game marks.

He helped the club win four pennants and three world championships.

Musial has appeared in 85 games this season, batting .360, well below his career average of .333. He has collected 64 hits, including nine home runs, scored 24 runs and knocked in 44.

Tagged By Fans

The Donora, Pa. native gained the tag of "Stan, The Man" from the fans at old Ebbetts Field in Brooklyn for his hitting feats against the Dodgers. He appeared in his first World Series with the Cardinals in 1942 — his first full season — and helped the Cards down the New York Yankees for the world championship.

The left-handed slugger has captured seven batting titles, was chosen the National League's most valuable player three times and appeared in 20 All-Star games. Musial's greatest season was in 1948 when he batted .376 — his career high — knocked in 131 runs, hit 39 homers and scored 135 runs.

This season Musial went over the 6,000 mark in total bases, and eclipsed Babe Ruth's major league record of 1,256 extra-base hits.

Other major league records held by Musial include most home runs in a doubleheader (5), most total bases in a doubleheader (21), most years playing 100 or more games (20).

His National League records include most games (2902), most at-bats (10,835), most runs (1915), most hits (3,544), most doubles (715), most runs batted in (1893) most consecutive games (865).

Short, Never Outstanding, Big Obstacle To NL Contenders

By TIM MORIARTY

United Press International

OF THE SHORT stands 6-4 and weighs 205 pounds, but he has never ranked too tall among National League pitchers.

Yet, the only reason—if you can call it that—he has gained in five seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies came in 1961 when he led the league in wild pitches.

Yet in the last month Short twice has short-circuited the pennant hopes of the two leading NL contenders.

The southpaw from Milford, Del., beat the Los Angeles Dodgers in their own park July 26 to launch Walt Alton's men on their current skid. And Monday night he turned back the San Francisco Giants, 3-1, with the help of a two-run, eighth-inning homer by Johnny Callison.

Short called Monday night's performance his "biggest thrill in baseball" and "the best game I ever pitched. Nobody was ready to argue with him on either count, least of all the Giants, who missed a great opportunity to pick up ground on the idle Dodgers."

First Over Giants

It was the first time in his career that Short beat the Giants. He defeated Jim Duffalo through seven scoreless innings until Jim Ray Hart, playing in his first full big league game, doubled home Harvey Kuenn for a San Francisco run in the top of the eighth.

The Phillies, though, bounced back with three runs in their half of the inning. Tony Taylor opened the frame with a single and Callison followed with a homer into the light tower above the right field wall.

Roy Sievers singled home the Phils' final run off reliever Bob Bolin.

Duffalo wound up with his first defeat in five decisions this year and the Giants dropped four games back of the pace-setting Dodgers.

For Short, who scattered eight hits and fanned eight, it was only his fourth victory against nine setbacks.

The Pittsburgh Pirates turned back the Houston Colts, 4-2, in the only other NL game. In the only American League action, the Boston Red Sox snipped a nine-game losing streak by edging the Minnesota Twins, 5-4.

Take Early Lead

The Pirates staked Bob Friend to a 3-0 lead in the first inning with the help of a two-run single by Jerry Lynch with the bases loaded.

Roy Face, appearing in his fifth straight game, saved Friend's 14th victory by turning back a strong Houston threat in the ninth inning.

Lou Clinton, benched since Aug. 4, batted a pair of two-run homers for the Red Sox to prevent Minnesota from moving into a second-place tie with the Chicago White Sox. The Red Sox, who committed four errors, wiped out a 4-2 deficit in the sixth on a solo homer by Felix Mantilla and Clinton's second blast of the game with Carl Yastrzemski aboard.

BACK TOGETHER—Rosemary Clooney and Jose Ferrer arrive in Cincinnati, O., where the singer announced that she and Ferrer not only did not go through with their divorce plans, but are reconciled and back together. They went there to visit their five children and relatives.

Concrete for Kentucky Interstate highways is saving millions of dollars in future expenditures

With all its advantages of long life and low maintenance cost, concrete costs no more to build than asphalt on Interstate highways. Construction costs for the two pavements are virtually equal. And remember, on every mile of Interstate highway, the Federal Government pays 90 percent of the construction cost, the State pays 10 percent. Kentucky, in selecting modern concrete pavement, is building a network of super-highways that is equal to any in the nation.

The big savings come in upkeep. Once these highways are built, Kentucky will pay 100 percent of all resurfacing costs as well as routine maintenance.

Performance studies on concrete highways prove concrete will need no significant upkeep for decades.

These same studies show asphalt highways in Kentucky require not only continuing maintenance, but complete resurfacing 8 to 12 years after they are built. To resurface just one mile of Interstate highway with a two-inch layer of asphalt will cost about $24,000. That is as much as Kentucky's 10 percent share of the cost of building it in the first place.

With approximately 1,000 miles of Interstate highways and turnpikes to be completed in the next 10 years, the resurfacing dollars saved with concrete will be an important contribution to the modernization of the farm to market roads.

FIRST COST SAVINGS WITH CONCRETE ON KENTUCKY I-75
Mileage awarded	Average paving cost per mile
Asphalt 9.9 mi.	$245,500
Concrete 78.7 mi.	241,100
Concrete's first cost advantage $ 4,400 per mile

Dear Abby . . .

"Mentally" Disturbed!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Are you a psychiatrist? If not, what gives you the right to determine whether or not people need professional care in this field? On several occasions you have advised that some friend or relative be examined by a head doctor. I assume you would have all humans conform to one pattern. Did it ever occur to you that some people LIKE being different, and are not mentally disturbed? Take that woman who wears muu muu on the street and likes to talk to bus drivers. Couldn't she simply be trying to show society that we are not all puppets of conformity?

DEAR ABBY:

I have been married for 17 years and have three children. My husband left for a fishing trip for a week and when I asked him to give me an address or phone number where I could contact him in case of emergency, he said, "I'll be 'around' Rice Lake, Wisconsin, and if I give you more information you'll find an emergency to call me back and spoil my vacation." What do you say to a man like that?

Shirley-Fain Vows To Be Solemnized On Friday Evening

Plans have been completed by Miss Patricia Ann Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Shirley of Murray, for her wedding to Jimmy Fain, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fain of Lynn Grove.

Dr. H. C. Chiles will perform the double ring ceremony on Friday, August 16, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist Church.

Miss Shirley will be given in marriage by her father. Her attendants will be Mrs. Jimmy Herndon, sister of the groom, as matron of honor; Misses Neil Pugh and Donna Kimbro, bridesmaids; Miss Donna Shirley, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid; Misses Patricia Paschall and Beverly Paschall, cousins of the bride, as flower girls.

The best man for Mr. Fain will be his brother, Bobby Fain. The ushers will be Tom Shirley, brother of the bride, Jimmy Herndon, Gerald McNutt, and Dan Gardner.

A program of wedding music will be presented by Miss Lillian Wattles, organist, and Gus Robertson Jr., soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in the fellowship hall of the church. All relatives and friends are cordially invited to attend both the wedding and the reception.

Telephone Talk

by TOM BREWER

Your Telephone Manager

IF YOU'RE A DOODLER, be careful of the kind of scribbles you leave around while making phone calls. You may give away some personal secrets. According to psychologists, if you doodle animals or birds, you're affectionate and understanding. Squares and checks show logic and emotional stability. Circles mean you're a daydreamer; staircases mean you're ambitious.

THIS IS THE NEW TOUCH TONE PHONE . . . with buttons instead of a dial, and musical tones for each signal sent. The new phone has undergone two years of testing, and users are so enthusiastic it will be introduced to the public on a limited basis some time in the next couple of years. One of its chief advantages is faster dialing . . . as one test-user said, "It's like magic!" The Touch Tone Phone—another result of continuing Bell System research and development.

FROM LUXURY TO NECESSITY . . . that's the kind of progress your telephone has made. Back in the late 1900's when telephones were first coming into use, a phone call anywhere at all was a big event! Today, phone calls are as much a part of life as going to work in the morning, or sending the children off to school. A telephone call is no longer a major project! It's simply an easy, pleasant, low-cost way to get things done, keep friendships warm, stay in touch with the world. Use your telephone . . . for all it's worth.

TEEN-AGERS ARE SPECIAL PEOPLE! (Any one of them will be glad to tell you so!) They have special problems and needs and likes and dislikes. If you have teens in your house, why not consider giving them the privacy and sense of importance provided by an extension phone of their very own. It'll be good for them, and for the rest of the family, too.
