Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

Somebody asked us what the breather on a car is. This is the term commonly given to the air filter, the big round gadget which sits on top of the carburetor.

Its purpose is to filter the air which goes into the carburetor to keep out dust, dirt, sticks, etc.

It's not what a person does that counts, it's how other folks take it.

You can give one fellow a dollar bill and he will cuss you because it's not a five. Give it to another person and he will thank you.

The moral to this bit of philosophy is to do the best you can and let the chips fall where they may.

Congratulations to the Delta Department of the Murray Woman's Club for winning statewide recognition for their Cancer Clinic.

Youngster heard his mother say that all people come from dust and they would return to dust. Seeing some dust under his bed, he announced that somebody was under his bed but he didn't know whether they were coming or going.

A mother is not a person to lean on, but a person to make leaning unnecessary — Dorothy Canfield Fisher.

Best wishes to Myrtle Farmer. She's had a tough time. Someone remarked that Ellie Able, the NBC TV-caster has not looked any better since she was hit by a car. The only thing we can think of is that maybe he is sad.

The house has been moved from the Murray High campus.

Haven't seen Bill Ed Wheeler, Mr. Rivers of Stars in My Crown, but we read in the Ledger and Times where he's back. He made a lot of friends while he was here in Murray the last season.

If you saw Stars in My Crown last year, plan on going again this year, because it has been changed up a lot. If you didn't see it, be sure to see it this year.

"No wonder they wear masks in the operating room," said the surgical patient when he received his bill.

Hardly any woman ever reaches thirty without being asked to marry at least twice, once by her father and once by her mother.

Golf is no longer a rich man's game. There are millions of poor players.

New Mathematics Program To Be Used In The City Schools

Next fall, more than 430 elementary students will begin working with a major new modern mathematics program that will permit them to "discover for themselves" the fundamental principles of mathematics, Fred Schultz, superintendent of Murray City Schools, announced today.

Attacking problems as though they hadn't already been explored by the great geniuses of the past, first-, second-, and third-grade children will learn to see the relations inherent in mathematical problems, to understand the symbolism needed to express these relations in a meaningful way and, in a very real sense, to play a part in "making mathematics," he said.

The new program — The Greater Cleveland Mathematics Program (GCMPP) — was developed by the Educational Research Council of Greater Cleveland over a period of three years, and is being published and distributed nationally by Science Research Associates, Inc., noted publisher of modern curriculum materials in reading, spelling, science, and guidance. Its development involved use by more than 100,000 children in 27 public, private, and parochial school districts in suburban Cleveland, Ohio; Owatonna, Minn.; Hanover, N. H.; and other communities throughout the nation.

"This is one of the most important curriculum revisions ever attempted in our schools," Schultz said. "The shift from the traditional mathematics program, which has been used until now, will affect more than 800 children and 30 teachers," he said, "and will involve an extensive program of parent and teacher re-education before it becomes fully effective." There are presently four elementary schools in the Murray City system.

"We feel it is essential that this new program be put into operation as rapidly and as broadly as possible," the superintendent said, "so that our children will be able to hold their own in the highly technical world in which they will live as adults." He said recent advances in mathematical knowledge and the increased emphasis on mathematics made the change necessary. The program, he said, is concept-oriented, and the stress is always on why and how things happen in mathematics, rather than on the traditional memorization of rules.

"Testing," he said, "has shown that students taught in this way learn more mathematics and learn it better than those taught in the traditional manner."

Schultz said the City system has arranged a carefully-planned program of teacher training which has State Department approval under Title III NDEA, mathematics. Tom Forrest of the Murray High School faculty is conducting an eight week in-service training program with 24 hour sessions in which 30 teachers are participating. This program began in February and will be completed in April. A special program will be presented for parents and other members of the community to explain the new mathematics curriculum.

April Is Teaching Career Month Over United States

April is Teaching Career Month throughout the United States, Vernon Stovon, principal at Murray College High, announced today.

Teachers of Murray College High School will take part in the observance, he said.

These local individuals and groups will join with the National Education Association, which established Teaching Career Month in 1968, to focus public attention on the need for getting and keeping the best possible instructors in elementary and secondary schools and colleges.

The theme this year is "The Teacher: Molding the Future"—as educator of the children from kindergarten upwards, as a builder of free and democratic citizens, as an advisor who may guide a student toward a worthwhile career, and as a friar who may help a worried student solve a knotty personal problem, or persuade a student not to become a dropout.

The men and women teachers in the teaching profession, including those in colleges, make up a working force of more than two million. They form the largest professional group in the United States, outnumber the Federal Post Office Department about four to one, and just about match the number of civilian employees in the Federal Government.

Even with so large a number, however, more qualified teachers are needed to fill vacancies now and in the future, NEA Research studies show.

In the public elementary schools, adequately trained instructors are urgently required to handle the increasing number of pupils. These pupils now total nearly 27,000. Their teachers, says NEA Research, have the largest class loads, are responsible for the background upon which further education depends, and often lack adequate professional preparation.

In the public high schools, with a current enrollment of nearly 15,000,000, the situation is different. The problem is not the number of teachers available, but one of distribution. There is an excess of instructors in some fields. There is a shortage in special fields, including science and mathematics, English and foreign languages, physical and health education for women, and home economics.

In its campaign for better schooling where needed, the National Education Association is using Teaching Career Month:

1. To show that for our nation's survival, teaching must be the pre-eminent profession in American life.

2. To improve our nation's schools by providing increasing numbers of fine teachers.

3. To do this by encouraging qualified young people to consider teaching as a career.

4. To urge tonight teachers to remain in the profession.

5. To inspire teachers to speak out for their profession and encourage others to join it.

6. To inform parents and other citizens of the opportunities and rewards the teaching profession offers today's youth.

Little League Signup Monday At City Park

All boys in Calloway County who are interested in playing Little League Baseball this summer must sign up on Monday, April 20, at 4:30 p.m., at the Little League Field in the Murray City Park.

Boys who will attain the age of nine (9) years before August 1, and those who will not attain the age of thirteen (13) years before August 1, 1964, are eligible to sign up for Little League Baseball.

All boys should be accompanied by one parent in order to certify their correct birth date.

Little League try-outs will be held Tuesday, April 21, at 4:30 p.m. for the 9 and 10 years age group. Tryouts for the 11 and 12 years age group will be held Wednesday, April 22, at 4:30 p.m.

All try-outs will be held on the Little League Field in the Murray City Park. Each boy trying out for play will have the opportunity to demonstrate his running, throwing, and batting ability before the Managers and Coaches of the six Little League teams.

The Team Managers and Coaches will hold an auction to bid for players to complete their team rosters of fifteen (15) players per team for the 1964 season. Bidding will be based upon player tryouts, according to Ken Wingert, Little League President.

22-Year-Old Rookie Causes Problems For Manager

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD

United Press International

Rookie Tony Oliva is hitting .500 for the Minnesota Twins and is causing Manager Sam Mele nothing but problems.

Oliva is trying to crash an outfield which boasts such power hitters as Bob Allison, Jimmie Hall and Harmon Killebrew. No easy task for anyone, especially a 22-year-old rookie.

But the left-handed Cuban slugger has drilled five hits in the Twins' first two victories, including a single, double and triple good for two runs batted in Thursday night as the Twins clipped the Washington Senators, 6-2, at Washington.

Mele now figures he must find a place for Oliva, but where? He could move Allison to first base, but then he would have the best defensive first baseman in the league, Vic Power, on the bench. And the Twins need all the defensive help they can get.

Played Right Field

Mele played Allison at first base in Minnesota's opener but shifted him back to centerfield Thursday night and benched Hall, who slugged 33 homers as a rookie last year. Oliva played right field both games.

Zola Versalles' bases loaded triple broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth inning to give Minnesota the victory. Jim Kaat went the distance for the Twins, allowing only six hits and fanning seven. Starter Carl Boudin was the loser, Don Lock and Ken Hunt homered for the losers.

The Boston Red Sox ruined the official managerial debut of Yogi Berra with the Yankees, clipping New York, 4-3, in 11 innings. Baltimore defeated the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, in the only other scheduled game in the American League.

In the National League, Milwaukee tripped the Colts at Houston, 6-5. St. Louis shut out San Francisco, 5-0, and Cincinnati defeated the Dodgers, 5-2, at Los Angeles. The other four NL teams were idle.

John Orsino capped a four-run fifth inning for Baltimore with his second home run of the season, a two-run blast. Three of the tallies off starter Ray Herbert were unearned, following an error by rookie second baseman Don Buford of the White Sox.

Hansen Homers

Ron Hansen accounted for two of the Chicago runs with a homer off winning pitcher Dave McNally in the second. McNally went seven innings on a yield of six hits with Harvey Haddix and Stu Miller finishing up for the Orioles.

Wesley Ford, trying for his 20th major league victory, wild-pitched the winning run home for Boston in the 11th. Ford's 24-game winning last year, pitched his way out of numerous jams until Bob Tiltman tripled to center for his fourth hit the day in the 11th. Roman Mejias, running for Tiltman, then scored on the wild pitch.

Dick Radatz, second of three Boston pitchers, gained the victory. Starter Bill Monbouquette had to leave the game in the seventh inning when he suffered a bruised right elbow fielding Ford's sacrifice.

Opening Day Of World Fair To Highlight TV Fare: Grouch, Carney, Lucille Ball, Hope

By JACK GAVER
NEW YORK (AP) — Don't fret about not being able to make the opening day of the World's Fair here next Wednesday. There is going to be a 90-minute colorcast of this premiere.

The week's attractions include Groucho Marx and Art Carney in plays, Lucille Ball and Bob Hope teamed in comedy and an exclusive one-hour look at Cuba and Castro.

Highlight details April 19-25:

A one-hour special is scheduled called "Cuba and Castro" featuring new interviews with Castro and other leaders and recent photos of housing and farming developments. King Hussein II of Jordan will be interviewed on "Meet the Press". Walt Disney has a cartoon show called "Toot, Whistle, Hunk and Boom," which deals with the origins of musical instruments from the cave era to the present.

The special, "The Lucille Ball Comedy Hour," preempting Ed Sullivan's show, has Miss Ball playing

George Hay Laid Basis Of "Opry"

By JIM EVANS
UNITED PRESS International
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A radio pioneer laid the foundation for "Music City, U. S. A." on Nov. 26, 1925, when the first broadcast of the WSM barn dance was aired.

The show was the realization of a dream for George D. Hay and the beginning of the "Grand Ole Opry" now in its 39th year. Earlier that year, Hay, known as the "solemn old judge" of WLS, Chicago, had been voted America's most popular radio announcer.

He attended the dedication ceremonies for a new radio station here along with other notables of the early broadcast world. Hay remained, however, to become the first director of WSM radio.

His dream was born while Hay was a working newspaperman for the Memphis Commercial Appeal. He was assigned to cover the funeral of a World War I hero in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains near Mammoth Springs, Ark. Hay attended a Saturday night hoedown in a small log cabin there after he had filed his story.

"No one has ever had more fun than those Ozark mountaineers had that night," Hay said. "It stuck with me until the idea became the 'Grand Ole Opry' seven or eight years later."

That first show, on a chilly November evening, featured only one performer, a fiddler named Uncle Jimmy Thompson.

The almost experimental program came to an end after Uncle Jimmy had played for an hour. "A man can't hardly get warmed up in an hour," Uncle Jimmy complained.

From that beginning, the famous Saturday country music show has grown to include a cast of about 125 persons, and it now consumes more than four hours of air time. Perhaps, even more important, the show has drawn more than 1,600 artists, 1,100 professional musicians and a long list of publishers and writers to Music City, U. S. A.

the head of a studio who wants Bob Hope to star in a comedy for her. In a play-within-a-play format, she and Hope appear as a top television team known as "America's Sweethearts."

Art Carney stars in "A Day Like Today." He plays a lonely widower under great pressure who fights a lonely battle for his life.

Monday

"Monday Night at the Movies" screens "Seven Cities of Gold" starring Anthony Quinn and Rita Moreno.

Neville Brand is guest star in "The Zebbed Tins Story" for "Wagon Train." A famed but aging scout hired by the train proves to be a handicap instead of a help.

"Hollywood and the Stars" provides an inside look at the making of a recent movie, "What a Way To Go!"

Tuesday

"Bell Telephone Hour" has Donald O'Connor at the head of its cast. Dianna Carroll, Gretchen Wyler, Pianna D'Angelo and the Pete Fountain quintet appear with him.

In "The End Game" on "The Fugitive" the hero narrowly escapes capture after police see a sidewalk photographer's snapshot that reveals him in the background.

"The Virginian" is preempted for a 90-minute introduction of the New York World's Fair. Henry Fonda will serve as host and be aided in the video tour of the fair by such "guides" as Carol Channing, Lorne Greene, Fred MacMurray, Mexico's Cantinflas and Marian Anderson.

"Chronicle" will be a 30-minute profile called "Huntington Hartford: The Reluctant Millionaire." It observes the A & P heir in his many artistic and business activities.

Wednesday

The "Today" show will devote two hours to reporting on Wednesday.

257 SUMMONSES—Attorney Hermene Permuter of Elizabeth, N.J., doesn't seem too unhappy as she stands outside Magistrate's Court in New York after pleading guilty to 257 traffic summonses. She got an option to pay $3,410 or serve 285 days. She'll pay. Her attorney said the tickets were issued to persons using her car after she was immobilized by a skiing accident in Vermont two years ago.

day's opening of the New York World's Fair.

"Their Own Executioners" is the drama on "Kraft Suspense Theatre." Dean Stockwell, Hershel Bernard and Lilla Skala head the cast. An attorney doddly awaiting death from an incurable disease is aroused to one last legal effort in behalf of a confessed wife-murderer who also wants to be left alone to die.

Friday

"Chrysler Theater" presents a comedy entitled "Time For Elizabeth," starring Groucho Marx and his wife, Eden. The story is adapted from a stage play of some years ago written by Marx and Norman Krasna. A long-suffering business manager decides to retire and runs into other problems.

Bette Davis and tenor Sergio Franchi are guests of Jack Paar.

Saturday

Glynis Johnson and Laurence Naamath co-star in "The Thief" for "The Defenders." The lawyers of a female kleptomaniac, who faces life imprisonment, seek her estranged father in an effort to help their troubled client.

"Saturday Night at the Movies" screens "The Reluctant Debutante," starring Sandra Dee and Kay Kendall.

Kentucky Bell News

Another hello to the good ol' Ledger and Times and to all in Murray, Davis and in St. Louis for treatment at the Barnes Hospital for a while.

So sorry of the death of Mr. Carl Kings. My sympathy goes to the family.

Mrs. Myrtle Spinks of Bowling Green and Mr. and Mrs. Nolte Smith of Paducah spent Sunday with me before I departed from Murray.

Mrs. Rosa Edwards of Murray is spending a few days with relatives in Paducah, Ky.

Everett Bucy, who had surgery last month, isn't so well at this writing.

If anyone knows the hospital Mrs. Myrtle Farmer is in, I would appreciate it if you would write and tell me. I heard she was in St. Louis and I'd like to visit with her. My address is Katie Simmons, 3125 S. Broadway, St. Louis 18, Missouri. Carl Todd is expected to visit in St. Louis with the Bucy family soon.

Mrs. Katie Leet of Utica, Ky. is still in a hospital at Owensboro, Ky. where she underwent surgery. The Earl Presson family from Paris, Tennessee who has been living in St. Louis has moved to Fulton, Ky. I met Mrs. Presson and we had a good chat. She knew several people that live in Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Tyler of North 5th St. moved the past week to the housing project on Vine Street.

Mrs. Mary Barton who entered a hospital when I was here last month has returned home. Linda Bucy attended a Drive-In movie with friends Saturday night. So Long—See you later...

PLANT BED MANAGEMENT
Don't apply insecticides too frequently to tobacco planted sites or fields. Plants eventually may be harmed. Such materials as Aldrin, Dieldrin and Heptachlor are not water soluble. Thus, they will stay in the soil for long periods.

If applied every year, the material may build up. They may become toxic to plants. This also may help develop a highly resistant strain of insects.

Most soil insecticides will last two or three years in one location. Thus, yearly application isn't at all necessary. They should be used about every three years broadcast and only if insects are or were a problem. Work them into the top two to five inches of soil. Do not leave them on the surface. And don't apply them to the top of the ground in hopes that rainfall will carry them down.

Use 3 pounds actual Aldrin, Dieldrin or Heptachlor per acre, and 6 pounds an acre of actual chlordane. Apply only once every three years.

Soil insecticides will not kill cutworms feeding above ground. And vegetables should NEVER be planted in plant bed sites or fields treated with soil insecticides because of the residue problem on the vegetables after harvest.

Ditching tobacco plant beds properly is an important practice in preventing three plant bed diseases. One of the three is anthracnose. This disease occurs every year in a few beds and sometimes causes severe damage; the fungus is washed into unditched plant beds by water flowing from sod areas. Proper ditching will prevent this infestation.

The other two diseases are wild-fire and angular leaf spot. The bacteria causing these diseases live on roots of grasses, weeds or small grain crops. Proper sterilization of plant bed sites kills these bacteria, but they can be washed into unditched plant beds from nearby areas.

A ditch of sufficient depth over the bed should be dug and round beds immediately after irrigation. It will prevent or lessen the chance of any of the three diseases being washed into plant bed sites by surface water.

Billington Home Is Scene Of Meeting

Circle I of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Owen Billington on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Charan Mercer had charge of the program on the theme, "Baptists Emerge Into Modern History," with each one present taking part in the group discussion.

The opening and closing prayers were led by Mrs. Graves Hendon and Mrs. George Upchurch. Refreshments were served by the hostess to the thirteen members present.

Household Hints

Use a cotton swab to vary colors of Easter eggs. The swab serves as a disposable brush for each color used.

Don't buy frozen food which has a torn package. The tear allows air to enter, causing loss of color, absorption of other flavors and loss of vitamins.

To keep the vitamin A in green leafy vegetables, store them at a low temperature until they are used. Wilting causes loss of carotene, the substance that supplies three-fifths of the vitamin A in normal diet.

A little paste wax on the screw top of a nail polish bottle will make the cap easy to remove.

Dear Abby . . .

What's In A Name?

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The woman who was "DISGUSTED" because her son and his wife named their little boy "HARRY" after having named their first two boys "TOM" and "DICK" apparently has never heard of the famous BYRD brothers of Virginia. TOM was a very successful fruit farmer and businessman who looked after his family's interests. "DICK" was none other than the famous explorer, ADMIRAL BYRD of South Pole fame. And "HARRY" has been a United States Senator for many years.

PROUD VIRGINIAN

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with naming three sons TOM, DICK and HARRY? I named our first son Dick. The second boy I named after his father, whose name was Harry. Then everyone kept asking me, "Where's Tom?" So when we had our third son, "That settles it. There's Tom!" I can't see where there was anything "disgraceful" about it.

MRS. H. H. SKANEATELES, N. Y.

DEAR ABBY: If that grandma got all steamed up over her daughter-in-law naming her three sons, TOM, DICK and HARRY, I wonder what she would have thought of the woman in our town who named her three daughters, FAITH, HOPE and CHARITY.

MOLLY IN BALTIMORE

DEAR ABBY: Speaking of inflicting peculiar names on helpless infants, my cousin in Birmingham named her daughters, DAISY, PETUNIA, GLADIOLA and ZINNIA. The next time she expected a baby, she was all set to add another flower to her garden of girls, but the baby was a boy. It didn't stop her. She went ahead and named him IRIS. How do you like that?

WILLIE MAE

DEAR WILLIE: The boy was lucky she didn't name him PANSY.

DEAR ABBY: I was interested in the mother's comment about her son naming his three boys TOM, DICK and HARRY. I think all three names are sensible. What would she think of a trio of little girls in Independence, Mo., who were named WELCOME, JOY and PLENTY? (Their father named the last one.)

DEAR ABBY: Twenty-four years ago I married a man named Harry. He had two brothers whose names were Tom and Dick. Tell "disgusted" not to worry. If her son's boys turn out to be half as wonderful as these three boys, she will be lucky.

Church Topic

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject at Christian Science churches next Sunday. Golden Text: "All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation" (II Cor. 5:18).

The following citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be read:

"Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems from the law of matter, sin, and death by the law of Spirit—the law of divine Love" (p. 19).

New Canadian Films Are At Local Library

Armchair travelers, take notice! The last shipment of Canadian travel films for the year 1963-64 has arrived at the Public Library.

Of the three new movies, perhaps the most exciting is "Yukon Old, Yukon New," which lets the viewer enjoy Discovery Day in the fabled Mecca of gold-fever days. Dawson City. He may follow the camera eye up creeks like Bonanza, Eldorado, Gold Bottom, and Last Chance, that gave up millions of dollars in nuggets in the days when reaching the pot of gold took a toll in human lives and energy.

"City of Many Faces" is an action portrait of a city of glamour, magic, and charm, a city of romance and adventure—Vancouver, in British Columbia. Not only is Vancouver by nature endowed with beauty, with its fringe of mountains, its profusion of flowers, its magnificent parks, and its golden beaches, but its constant flow of activity delights the eye and pleases the fancy as well. For this city of contrasts is known for its lovely summer skiing, its yachting, its plays and concerts, and the spectacular sights and sounds of the Pacific National Exhibition.

From the shores of the Pacific the viewer can travel to eastern Canada, to the province of Quebec, where skiing seems to have been in mind when the Laurentian slopes were created. "Laurentians in White" tells how to pack with fun a stay in the Laurentians. The skiing is perfect, but there is even more activity available—everything from curling, swimming, sleigh-riding to square dancing, evenings by the fire in a cozy "pension," or a dinner of "haute cuisine" in a fashionable Laurentian hotel.

These lovely color movies will be available only until June 1, following which time there will be a slack until the film cycle begins again in the fall. So take advantage now of any or all of the films, which are available as always to individuals or civic groups at the Public Library.

HUMPHREY GETS AWARD

WASHINGTON 17P — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., a registered pharmacist, received the American druggists' "Man of the Year" award Wednesday at a dinner of the National Association of Retail Druggists.

EASY DOES IT — Michelangelo's "Pieta" is craned from deck of the Cristoforo Colombo in New York, bound for the World's Fair. The famous marble masterpiece from Italy depicts the crucified Jesus on Mary's lap.

...ATTEND CHURCH

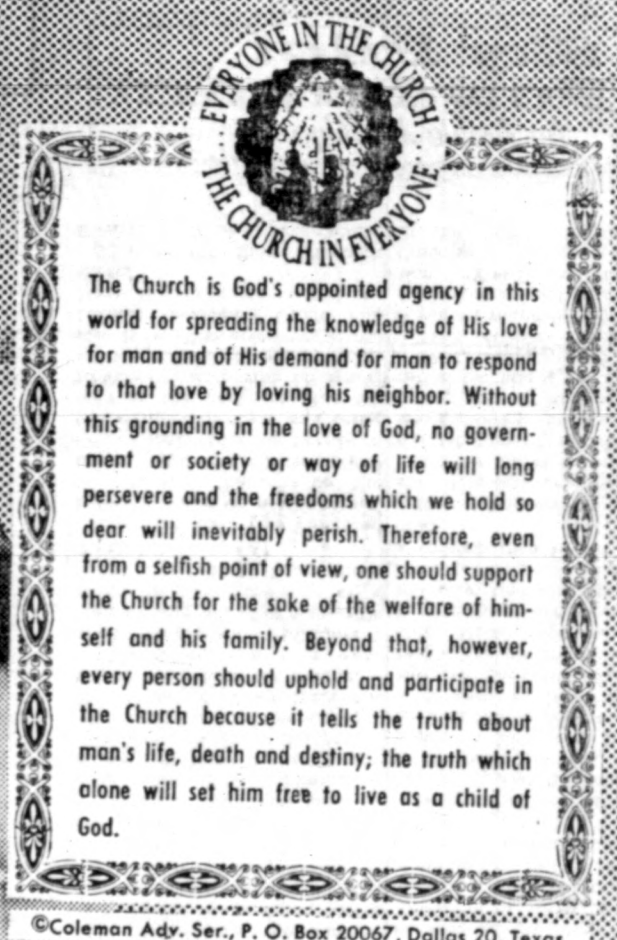

NEEDED — TIME FOR MEDITATION

Every working Mother and housewife will admit that there is never enough time — time for being the mother and wife she'd like to be, time for mending, time for planning well balanced meals. Certainly never enough time to meditate on God and His laws — to think on day by day happenings and consider whether or how they affect God's plan for her life.

One way for her to assure herself this time of needed meditation is to make it her habit to visit the church of her choice each Sunday. The quiet atmosphere of love and peace and prayer will restore a feeling of oneness with God and His plan, and give her strength for the work ahead.

"Be still and know that I am God". Psalms 46:10

"He restoreth my soul". Psalms 23:3
