MOSCOW — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, vacillating from his vitriolic attack on the Red Chinese earlier this week:

"What we shall do is not to plume ourselves on our successes but to fight and go ahead, not to break off relations with those with whom we have no full unity now, but always leave an opportunity for a rapprochement and understanding."

GARY, Ind. — Negro comedian Dick Gregory, a leader of a school boycott against alleged de facto segregation in schools:

"If Lyndon Johnson and his wife, Lady Bird, woke up in the morning as black as me and my wife, they would demonstrate too."

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, telling newspaper editors of the dangers of the atomic age:

"We must either love each other or we must die."

NEW YORK — Attorney Roy Cohn, after a jury trying him was still unable to reach a decision following two days of deliberations:

"If you ever get 12 people to agree about me on anything, I'd be very much surprised."

"Home Run Rabbit" In National Is Not Dead As Parade Of 18 Homers Hit By Sluggers

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD

United Press International

The "home run rabbit" which National League pitchers thought they laid to rest last season has returned, very much alive and hopping.

Frank Bolling of the Milwaukee Braves and Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs led an 18-homer parade Friday by NL sluggers with two home runs apiece.

The onslaught was aided by a 24-mile an hour wind at Wrigley Field in Chicago where eight circuit blows were struck, including five in one inning which equaled a major league record.

After a record high 1,449 homers were struck in the NL in 1962, the total fell by 234 last season, silence — temporarily — most complaints about the "live" or "rabbit" ball.

Bolling's solo blasts gave right-hander Hank Fischer all the support he needed to stop the Houston Astros, 5-2. Bolling also singled home another run off loser Skinny Brown.

Art Mahaffey's three-run homer in the fifth inning for Philadelphia triggered the fifth-inning explosion at Chicago. Rookie Richie Allen and Roy Sievers followed with back-to-back homers and the Phils went on to a 10-8 triumph. Williams and Lou Brock connected in the Cubs' half of the inning. Ron Santo and rookie Billy Cowan also cleared the fences for Chicago.

Mahaffey was the winner and Dick Ellsworth, a 22-game winner in '63, was the loser.

Joey Jay, a 21-game winner in 1961 and '62 before a disappointing season last year, survived homers by Ron Fairly and Tommy Davis to post a 7-3 victory over the Dodgers at Los Angeles for Cincinnati. Jay allowed only four other Dodger safeties. Vida Pinson and Deron Johnson contributed home runs to Cincinnati's 12-hit attack against loser Pete Richer and two relievers.

Willie Mays' three-run clout in the sixth inning broke up Roger Craig's bid for a shutout and the Giants went on to break a 4-4 tie in the 10th inning on a bases loaded walk to defeat St. Louis, 5-4. Reliever Ron Taylor issued the pass to Chuck Hiller to middle Bobby Shantz with the loss. Mays' homer was his fourth in four games.

Bob Shaw, who shut out the Cardinals on four hits in four innings of relief work, was the winner.

Bill Mazeroski, who makes a habit of spelling big days for Casey Stengel, singled home the winning run in the ninth inning to give Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory over the New York Mets in the formal opening of $25 million Shea Stadium.

The defeat was the third straight for Stengel's Mets before a near-capacity crowd of 46,796 in the plush new park. Willie Stargell collected four hits, including a home run, and scored the winning run.

Mazeroski beat Stengel and the New York Yankees with a dramatic seventh-game homer in the 1960 World Series.

Bob Friend, who has yet to lose in nine decisions to the Mets, gained his first triumph and reliever Ed Baute lost it.

In the American League results, Friday, Los Angeles whipped the Tigers at Detroit, 8-3; host Boston stopped Chicago, 4-1; Baltimore opened its home season with an 11-inning 4-3 triumph over the New York Yankees; the Indians clipped Kansas City at Cleveland, 6-4; and Minnesota bowed to the Senators at Washington, 4-3.

RED CROSS BLOOD SAVES LIVES

The newest sneakers bear little resemblance to their bulky, white canvas cousins of yesteryear. Current styles include pointed, tapered, or square toes and conventionally laced, high-top, or slip-on models. Unusual fabrics for sneakers include velvets, corduroys, tackle twills, and patterns in stripes, plaids, floral designs and fake fur prints. One manufacturer even has introduced a roughly textured starlite which catches the light and makes the feet glow. Other glitter surrounds sneakers made of gold flax burlap.

Perfect for storing razor blades in your sewing basket is a small aspirin box.

NEW for the HOME

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

SPRING is the time of year when draperies appear dingy, upholstery seems dull and, all through the house, everything has a dreary look. It's a new season and old things suddenly start showing their age. Spring-clean? What you want to do is clean out—get rid of old things and stock up on new.

Time For A Change

It's a lovely thought, but who can afford to carry it out? Still, a few changes can be made.

If you're contemplating them, have a look at some of the products that have come along to brighten the old homestead with new interest.

Shades of interest, for example, are just the things to dress up windows for hot days ahead. The shades we have in mind are special. They come in textured patterns and are topped off with matching or contrasting valances made of shade cloth.

No Further Need

They really cover windows beautifully. Nothing more is needed in the way of dressing—and that's great in warm weather because the shades just solo give rooms a cool look.

Beauty for the bedroom is superbly supplied by a new bedspread made of glass fibers.

This is a first, for glass fibers, which have many practical virtues, have heretofore not been soft or flexible enough to use for anything save draperies.

Now a new process has produced a glass fiber fabric that's soft rather than stiff. It has all the assets of the old glass fibers. It's shrink-proof, stain-resistant, fire-safe, machine-washable and needs no ironing. It also spreads beautifully over a bed. These new glass fiber spreads are quilted and come in solid colors. They'll shortly be available in patterns, too. They're pretty and they're very practical, too, especially if there are children in your house.

Luxury Towel

A new towel—the most expensive and luxurious ever made—supplies beauty for the bathroom.

It's exquisitely soft and so 64 x 72 inches, provides a colorful accent to a bedroom's color scheme.

Dear Abby . . .

She Learned A Lesson!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Over the past five years I have done so many favors for my neighbor I can't count them. I have kept her children weekends while she went on trips with her husband. I've been a free taxi service for her because she had no car. I've given her at least a dozen home permanents, and I have never asked her for one favor until yesterday. She sews well, so I asked her if she would help me make some kitchen curtains. I thought she would be glad at the chance to repay me for some of my favors. She said she would, for 300 TRADING STAMPS! I went right out and bought some curtains. What do you think of that?

FLABBERGASTED
DEAR FLABBERGASTED: I think it was appropriate "trading stamps" for your friendship. Next time you do a favor, don't assume it puts her in your debt, and you won't be flabbergasted.

DEAR ABBY: For the past two weeks a man has been calling my home. As soon as he hears my voice, he starts with a string of filthy questions. I hang up on him. Now when my phone rings I can tell that someone is on the other end, but he never says anything. He just ties up my line. Should I report this to the police, or to the telephone company?

NOT LOOKING FOR TROUBLE
DEAR NOT LOOKING: The next time he calls, send someone quickly to the neighbors and have them report it to both the telephone company and the police. If this can be done while he is still on your line, the call can be traced.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is the obvious favoritism shown for our first-born by his paternal grandmother. We lived with my in-laws when he was born, and my husband's mother went completely overboard about the child. When our second baby came along, Grandma was so partial to the first that we had to be constantly on our guard, so the little one would not be hurt. It's not my imagination, Abby, everybody notices it, and many have commented. She'll go all out for gifts for the big one, and gives the little one some cheap little trinket. I am mostly interested in having both children love their Grandma. Should I mention it to her? If so, how should I phrase it?

NAMELESS, NATURALLY
DEAR NAMELESS: Ask your husband to tell his mother what she is doing, perhaps unwittingly, YOU keep out of it. Eventually the children will make their own evaluation, on their own terms and in their own way.

DEAR ABBY: What makes a pastor think he can stand in the pulpit and insult a member of his parish week after week, and get away with it? I have sat there, fighting back the tears while he has aimed his remarks directly to me and to me alone. He has done everything except mention my name. I am getting tired of this. What do you suggest?

INSULTED
DEAR INSULTED: There is an old saying, "If the shoe fits—wear it." Too many shoes fit. Perhaps you should do a little "soul-searching."

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
