PEMBROKE BARS CONTINUE OPEN

Three Saloonkeepers Reap Harvest By Defiance of Closing Pact.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 4.—Pembroke saloonists today continued to treat their agreement to close as though it were only a scrap of paper. The three barrooms there are said to be doing a land office business.

It is understood the Pembroke Board of Trustees is considering passing an ordinance formally demanding surrender of the licenses and their cancellation.

This comes under the clause of the first paragraph of the agreement, which was signed by the saloonists, and which reads:
"We hereby agree, bind and obligate ourselves licenses to the proper board for cancellation April 1, 1919, and this shall be irrevocable authority on said board to cancel said license on said date."

As yet this ordinance has not been passed, as the board is today getting legal advice to determine the extent of its authority.

If the saloonists persist in running prompt court proceedings will follow, according to prohibition leaders.

Judge W. T. Fowler, attorney for the prohibitionists, returned today from Chicago and was appraised of the situation and said he had had not had time to formulate a definite plan of action.

He expressed full confidence in the binding power of the agreement, and said the prohibitionists would spare no pains or expense to enforce it.

KENTUCKY MARE FOALS TRIPLETS

Paris, Ky., April 4.—W. B. Crouch, of North Middletown, Bourbon county, has a Percheron mare with a record unequalled in the world in the opinion of many Kentucky horsemen.

At four births the mare has produced eight colts and a few days ago which Bourbon county horsemen say have never been heard of in the horse world.

Twice before she gave birth to twins and on another occasion was the mother of one colt.

COULD NOT DO WITHOUT IT

A prominent citizen of the south part of the county subscribed for the Messenger Thursday saying that he stopped it a short time ago but found that he could not do without it. "Send it today and do not let me miss a single copy," he said. There are hundreds of others who are doing the same thing.

LYCEUM COURSE.

The Club Women met Thursday afternoon at the Christian church in call session, with a young lady representative of the Redpath Chautauqua, and arrangements were made to take a $600.00 Lyceum course for this winter, to consist of three lecturers and one musical number. This is a very laudable undertaking on the part of the ladies in bringing a series of high class entertainment to the citizens of Mayfield, and it is to be hoped that they will be rewarded for their efforts, by large and appreciative audiences.

NEW MAN OUT FOR GOVERNOR

Thomas S. Rhea, Russellville, Is the Latest Entry.

IS FORMER TREASURER

Just What Effect His Announcement Will Have Not Now Known.

Louisville, Ky., April 4.—Thomas S. Rhea, of Russellville, late Thursday afternoon formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor of Kentucky. The announcement came as a bomb in the camps of the three men who previously had announced their candidacy. H. H. Cherry, of Bowling Green; Judge John D. Carroll, of New Castle, and Lieut. Gov. James D. Black, of Barbourville. When a Courier-Journal reporter called on Seldon R. Glenn in his room, at The Seelbach he found the manager of the Cherry campaign stretched out on his bed. He explained, however, that his prone position was not the result of Mr. Rhea's announcement.

When questioned regarding the platform on which he will make his race, Mr. Rhea said he would be ready to announce it within the next few days.

"I have been contemplating making the race for some time," he said, "but held off as long as I thought there was a chance that Percy Haly would announce as a candidate, as I would not oppose him. When I learned definitely that he would not make the race I decided to announce immediately."

Ideally Situated.
Mr. Rhea, according to students of Kentucky politics, is ideally situated to enter the race for governor. The recent successful race of Gov. Stanley for the United States senate was managed by Mr. Rhea, who also successfully managed the race of J. C. W. Beckham for the United States senate a few years ago. This, according to the wisacres in politics, assures Mr. Rhea the support of all elements in the Democratic party in November, in the event he wins the nomination in August.

Whether Mr. Cherry will continue in the race, now that Mr. Rhea has formally announced his candidacy, is a question no one seemed able to answer Thursday. The head of the Western Kentucky Normal school was at his home in Bowling Green when Mr. Rhea's announcement became public, and an effort to reach Mr. Cherry over the telephone failed. It is understood that he has not been well for several weeks, however, and shrewd politicians were prophesying that he would drop out of the contest. He had intended opening state campaign headquarters at The Seelbach April 1, but because of the crowded condition of that hotel, owing to the fact that the United Daughters of the Confederacy were holding their convention there, the headquarters opening was deferred indefinitely.

Effect Not Known.
Mr. Glenn said he did not know just what effect the announcement of Mr. Rhea would have on the candidacy of Mr. Cherry. He said that with Mr. Cherry out of the race he would rather see Mr. Rhea the nominee than anyone else. Mr. Glenn and Mr. Rhea have been close personal friends for some time, and it was at the suggestion of Mr. Glenn, it was said Thursday, that Mr. Rhea was chosen manager of Gov. Stanley's race for the United States senate.

Politicians were betting Thursday that the announcement of Mr. Rhea would have the effect of sidetracking the budding candidacy of Col. H. H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green. The latter was in Louisville Thursday, but left the city for his home before the announcement of Mr. Rhea became public.

Robert Lee Page, Louisville lawyer, who probably is as close to Col. Denhardt as any man in the state, when informed of the announcement of Mr. Rhea, said he did not believe it would have any effect on the intention of Col. Denhardt.

Gets Pleasing Reports.
"I talked to him yesterday," he said, "just before he left the city for his home, and he expressed keen gratification over reports he had received from throughout the state regarding the attitude he had received toward his probable candidacy. He will return to Louisville today, and unless he changes his mind, it is my firm belief that he will announce his candidacy during the early part of next week."

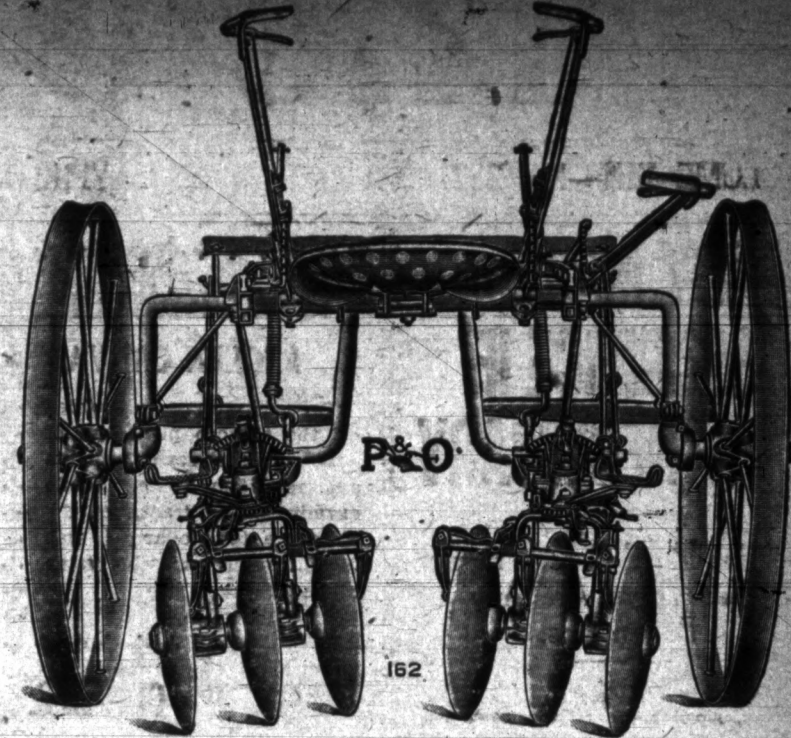

Mr. Rhea, whose announcement at the eleventh hour created a sensation among Democratic politicians, is 47 years old and has a wife and baby. He has served as sheriff of his county and as state treasurer. It was confidently believed by Democratic politicians, or the majority of them rather, that Mr. Rhea would be satisfied with the nomination for state auditor in August, and he could have had it for the asking. Now that he has announced for governor, however, there will be a scramble for the nomination which he has "passed up." Among those mentioned as probable candidates for state auditor Thursday, following the announcement of Mr. Rhea, were Henry Bosworth, former state auditor, and former State Senator George G. Speer, the latter of Frankfort.

Conference With Beckham.
Before he announced his candidacy Thursday, it is understood that Mr. Rhea had a conference with United States Senator Beckham, who is spending a few days in Louisville, and also with Governor Stanley. While the latter has never announced himself regarding the race for the gubernatorial nomination, it has been understood that he leaned toward Mr. Cherry. With Mr. Rhea in the race, however, he may feel called upon to throw his support to him, inasmuch as Mr. Rhea was largely instrumental in bringing about the governor's elevation to the senate.

As far as Senator Beckham is concerned, it is known that he has always been an admirer of Mr. Rhea, who, in turn, was always a strong Beckham man, supporting the latter in his race for the Democratic nomination for the United States senate against Stanley.

IN MEMORY WILLIAM

HENRY CAMPBELL

Death has again visited our midst and took from us one among the best men that we have ever been permitted to know.

Will was born near Woodberry in Butler county, Ky., on July 25th, 1870, and came with his parents to Ballard county and settled near Kevil in 1904. He was married to Mattie Riley, daughter of the late Anderson

Riley. They lived in Ballard until seven years ago, when they moved to the Riley farm two miles from Mayfield and were living there when death claimed him March 1st, 1919, making his stay on earth 48 years, 8 months and 4 days. He leaves a devoted wife, and four small children, four brothers to mourn his loss. Jim and Earl, of Garner, Ark.; Herman, of Kevil; Ben, of Dublin, Ky. Therefore great sorrow and sadness filled the hearts of not only his family but of the entire community. He was a true and devoted husband, a kind and loving father, a loyal friend to every one and he numbered the funeral was held at Pottsville Tuesday at 11 o'clock. The remains were laid to rest at Old Union graveyard.

A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is still, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

We loved her, yes, we loved her, But angels loved her more, And they have surely called her, To yonder shining shore.

The golden gates were opened, A gentle voice said "Come!" And with farewells unspoken, She calmly entered home.

Farewell, Dear Daisy, farewell; Your troubles on earth are over, We are waiting and longing to meet thee, When life's toils are over— A FRIEND.

OBITUARY.

The death angels visited at the home of Mr. Lyke Davis Sunday night and took from him his loving wife. She leaves a husband, one little girl, father, step-mother, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death. The cause of her death was flu and pneumonia. She was sick only a few days until the dear Lord called her home to rest. She was a member of the Pottsville Christian church and a true and devoted christian. I will say to the husband and relatives weep not as those who have no hope, for you know dear Daisy is at rest. She cannot come back to you, but you can live to meet her in the sweet bye and bye. She was too pure a flower to live on this sad earth, so God took her home to rest.

Just another instance of violation of the law by "totin' a pistol."

A Chicago paper contains the picture of one Wm. Hale Thompson with the caption: "Big Bill's smile in honor of his re-election." Yep, "Big Bill" should "feel honored" greatly—to know that there are 250,000 people in Chicago fools enough to vote for him. We are sure he "feels honored," too, because of the scant plurality of slightly over 17,000 over his nearest competitor as compared with 147,000 four years ago.

REPUBLICAN RESPONSIBILITY.

Proof that the filibuster which ended in the wholesale obstruction of vital legislation in the last days of the recent session of congress was in pursuance of a Republican plan concocted in November, and followed to its consummation on March 4, is afforded by the statements of Senators Martin and Simmons. These senators were in charge of important bills and had ample opportunity to observe the Republican tactics of delay and hindrance. They openly accused Republican leaders of designing the defeat of measures which the administration favored because the country needed them.

Lack of this legislation and the appropriations which many of the bills contained is a serious detriment to the conduct of the nation's affairs. It is besides a hardship to private business which required some such stimulus as would have been given by the government's expenditures for materials, supplies and labor. The period of industrial and commercial instability has doubtless been prolonged by the failure of congress—because of Republican opposition—to restore our legislation and internal administration to a peace-time basis.

Heavy damage has been done by this filibuster and the onus is upon the Republicans. Their offense is all the greater because their motive was of the unworthiest. They hoped to compel President Wilson to convene congress in extra session so they might hamper and harass him during his efforts to effect a just settlement of the latest war and bind the world by a solemn covenant to guarantee permanent peace. They hoped by this scheme of obstruction to get another chance for opposition.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

J. E. Warren, Plaintiff, vs. T. E. Rhodes, etc., Defendants, Judgment.

This cause this day coming on regularly for trial, Seth T. Boaz, warning order attorney for the non-resident defendants, having filed his report herein and the master commissioner's report of liabilities having been duly confirmed, the cause being submitted to the court upon the pleadings, proof and exhibits and said report of liabilities and the court being therefrom fully advised, it is now ordered and adjudged that the estate of Clemmie Dunn Rhodes, deceased, is indebted to the plaintiff, J. E. Warren, in the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125.00) and that said decedent left no personal estate with which to pay said demand but was at the time of her death the owner of the following-described real estate in Graves county, Kentucky, to-wit:

An undivided one-third interest, subject to the life estate of W. T. Dunn, in 30 acres of land lying west of the Mayfield and Paducah dirt road, beginning at the S. E. corner of B. H. Adams' land at that road; thence west to Bert Sanderson's land; at the S. W. corner of said B. H. Adams' land; thence south between the said public road and Sanderson's land a sufficient distance to make 30 acres of land, same being in the N. W. Qr. of Sec. 4, T. 4, R. 1 E., in Graves county, Kentucky.

And it is adjudged that said real estate is subject to the payment of said demand and the costs of this action; and it further appearing that said real estate can not be divided without materially impairing its value is ordered and adjudged that same be sold as an entirety and in one body or tract and M. E. Sullivan, master commissioner of this court, is hereby ordered and directed to make said sale and he will make same at public outcry at the court house door in Mayfield, Kentucky, on the first day of some regular term of circuit or county court held in and for Graves county and on a credit of six (6) months and the purchaser thereof being required to execute bond for the purchase price thereof with security to be approved by the commissioner and payable to said commissioner, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from date of sale and having the force and effect of a replevin bond upon which execution may issue if not paid at maturity. Before making such sale however he will first advertise the time, place and terms thereof in the same manner and for the same length of time as is required by law in sales of similar property under execution, and will cause same to be appraised as required by law.

It further appearing to the court that said decedent, Clemmie Dunn Rhodes, left surviving her her husband, T. E. Rhodes, and a son, Thomas B. Rhodes, as her only heirs at law and that owing to the existence of the outstanding life estate of W. T. Dunn in said property and same not having been therefore in the possession of said decedent, it is adjudged that said surviving husband, T. E. Rhodes, has no interest as such in the said real estate herein ordered sold and that the entire proceeds, if any, remaining after payment of the plaintiff's demand and costs as herein adjudged belong to the infant defendant, Thomas B. Rhodes, and it is further adjudged that such portion of the proceeds of sale be not collected by the commissioner but that same shall remain in the purchaser's hands and as a lien on said property bearing legal interest until the arrival of said Thomas Brooks Rhodes at the age of 21 years or until the appointment and qualification of a guardian for him and the execution by such guardian of a bond in this court as required by law; said commissioner will collect at maturity so much of said sale bond as is necessary to satisfy plaintiff's debt and costs and will make deed to the purchaser and report his acts hereunder to this court; for further orders this cause is now continued.

TROUBLE OVER FENCE

Garland Farmer Shoots Negro in Farm Difficulty.

Covington, Tenn., April 4.—Henry Fleming, prominent white farmer of Garland, several miles from this place, this afternoon shot and killed Will Hall, negro, aged 25. The trouble came up over a fence location and, according to officers had been brewing for some time.

Fleming came to Covington and surrendered to Sheriff Beaver. He was released on $1,000 bond which he easily made. According to reports here Fleming was making some repairs on the fence in question when approached by the black who threatened him. A shotgun was used with deadly effect.

It is said that the negro had previously threatened Fleming, it being alleged that Hall said he would kill Fleming if the latter attempted to change the fence.

COULD NOT BE WHOLE CHEESE

Hence Marse Henry Quits Fifty Year Old Job.

THE REASON IS GIVEN

Criticism of President Wilson Was Not Published By Courier-Journal.

Louisville Ky., April 4.—Henry Watterson, veteran editor of the Courier-Journal, and since the change in management and editorship, "editor ermitus," yesterday resigned, thus severing of connection more than fifty years with Kentucky journalism.

Conflict of views regarding the League of Nations caused his resignation, is the gist of an announcement, "officially made."

Since the organization of the national association which is opposed to the league, Mr. Watterson has taken an active part in it. Recently he was elected to its presidency. Friends who consistently followed the policy of the editor and of his paper foresaw a break in the long connection as they had predicted a severance of relations since the paper changed hands.

Several days ago Mr. Watterson sent to several papers, including the Courier-Journal, a statement in which he excoriated President Wilson. The interview was carried by eastern papers but failed to appear in the Courier-Journal.

Calls Wilson "Adventurer." The New York Herald's published interview, dated Miami, Fla., in part was as follows:

"In response to the Herald's inquiry, 'What of the President's course in Europe?' Henry Watterson, detained in Miami by a recent indisposition replied: 'I think that events, helped along by the President himself, will verify my forecast that he is not merely a candidate for a third term in the White House, but that for a nomination to such he holds all the winning cards in his hands.

"Your mean that he controls the Democratic machine?"

"Why, yes," he answered, "if you care to put it in that way. The Democratic party, so-called he long ago abolished, having previously much debauched it. Nothing of it survives, except the tattered label, and he holds that betwixt his thumb and forefinger I am inclined to believe, however, that he has eliminated the United States from his immediate activities as an established conquest and is now giving his mighty thought to the sublimation of the world."

Victim Of Foreign Lure. "The suggestion, Mr. Watterson," interjected the reporter, "would seem to require elaboration if not explanation."

"Mr. Wilson,"—the editor resumed, "like more of those whose ambitions outrun their talents, has become the victim of the contingencies he has himself raised up. He has been caught by the foreign lure. He sells the blue of the Empire. The son of a race of religious fanatics and rustic scholars, his commonplace mind grew to be overtrained, and heretofore manhood already a dangerous intellectual adventurer."

"Such characters seem strangely favored by fortune. The powers of evil delight in exploiting them. With in less than a decade, advanced from a university professor to the chief magistracy Woodrow Wilson has so thrust himself into the affairs of his own land, and other lands, as to be at this moment the most conspicuous figure at the forefront.

OLD FEUD DAYS IN KENTUCKY RECALLED

How Boone Logan Wiped Out Craig Tolliver and His Band; One Oasis In Christian.

Louisville, Ky., April 4.—Clarence E. Walker, of Louisville, who was an intimate friend of Boone Logan, of Pineville, Ky., who died at his winter home in St. Petersburg, Fla., tells the story of how Logan wiped out Craig Tolliver and his band who had caused a reign of terror in Rowan county more than thirty years ago, Walker says.

"Craig Tolliver, the leader of the band of desperadoes, had conceived the idea of running for county judge. It was in the days of viva voce voting. Logan, a young lawyer, quiet and unassuming, stood beside Tolliver and voted for his opponent. Tolliver said, 'I'll give you until Saturday to get away.'"

"Logan knew it meant trouble. He went home and strapped on a gun for the first time in his life. On his wife's plea he went away ostensibly to Cincinnati on business. Tolliver sent an insulting message to Logan. "The latter went to Frankfort, where he saw Gov. Knott, then to Cincinnati where he purchased two cases of Winchester rifles and plenty of ammunition. He assembled twenty men in a ravine 100 yards from the Morehead depot and armed them.

"When Craig Tolliver and his gang came down to the depot waiting to look over the new arrivals, Logan and his men waded into them. A shot from Logan's gun knocked off Tolliver's hat; two others found their billet. Several more of the gang were killed by the vigilance committee, one of them a Tolliver boy of 14.

"Logan, himself, saved the life of little Tige Tolliver, 9 years old, though the agreement had been 'to kill every Tolliver.' Little Tige was sent 200 miles away to grow up out of the feud influence.

"Twelve years later one of the vigilance committee was riding along a road when he was fired on. The bullet missed. He turned and fired into the thicket when the shot came killed Tige Tolliver, then a young man who had returned after all these years to avenge his kinsmen according to the code that then prevailed in the mountains."

Mrs. Cordeita Broadbent, whose husband, the late James A. Broadbent, died on the third day of last February died Tuesday morning at her home near Glenwood Mills, five miles east of Cadiz of pneumonia. She was taken ill on Wednesday before and lived less than a week after being stricken.

Mr. Hoy Hall, a splendid young man and son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hall, who resides four miles north of Cadiz, died last Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the family home after an illness lasting two weeks from flu and pneumonia. His condition had been quite serious for several days before his death.

BARDWELL ITEMS.

(Carlisle Co. News.)

The work of razing the livery stable on Elm Street was begun Monday, thereby removing from the history of Bardwell one of the oldest landmarks. The lot and building were purchased by W. R. Haselwood for the purpose of constructing thereon a modern garage.

From one of the county's best financiers and leading business men the news learned yesterday that there is a strong prospect of a banking and trust company being organized at Bardwell in a short time.

Wearing upon his body the scars of twenty-two wounds he received in battle with the Huns, in France DeWitt Winslow has arrived at home. He was wounded last October and from that day until just a few days before

Now that the wartime use of the periscope has passed it is finding adaption in a variety of ways. Among the latest is a collapsible periscope, shown in the April Popular Mechanics Magazine, designed to give a short person in a crowd a view of a passing parade. It consists of a case having a mirror set at the proper angle at either end, which can be extended to a length of two or more feet by reason of a bellows connecting the two ends. With the device lengthened the mirrors are exposed so that the user can see over the heads of a crowd without difficulty.

After the "Flu" —Fever or Cold

Clean the Acidity and Toxic Poisons
Out of the Digestive Tract

Millions are now suffering from the after effects of the deadly "flu," a fever or a cold. Their appetites are poor; they are weak, and they are waiting for their strength to come back.

If these people could only realize that the return to health and strength would be greatly helped by giving attention to the stomach—that is, removing the acidity and toxic poisons from the entire digestive tract, making it act naturally, so that the body will receive the full strength of the food eaten—a great deal of suffering would be saved to humanity.

Everyone knows that the disease itself, and the strong medicines that have been taken, upset the stomach, leave it hot and feverish, the mouth dry, the tongue coated, a nasty taste, and no desire to eat. This is a poor foundation to build new strength on.

Now, tens of thousands of people all over this country are using EATONIC for the purpose of cleaning these poisonous after-effects right out of the system and they are obtaining wonderful results—so wonderful that the amazingly quick benefits are hardly believable, just as shown in the remarkable letter which is published upon the request of this sturdy old Civil War veteran. He is 77 years old. Read what he says EATONIC did for him:

"I am an old soldier, past seventy-seven years. I had the Spanish influenza and it left my stomach in an awful shape. I tried three different doctors but got no relief. As a last resort I sent and got a box of EATONIC and to my greatest surprise the very first tablet I took helped me. I can now eat anything I want and feel fine."

Yours faithfully,
Fowler, Indiana
Dec. 4, 1918
C. S. Martin

P. S.: If you can make any use of this letter for suffering humanity, you are at liberty to do so. O. E. M.

This is only one case out of thousands. You should make the EATONIC test in your own case at once. You have everything to gain—not a penny can you lose, for we take all the risk. Your own common sense, your own feelings, tell you that a good appetite, good digestion, a good stomach, with the fever poisons and effects of strong medicines out of your system, will put you on the road to strong, robust health again.

You want to enjoy life again after you have battled with the "flu," fever or colds, or any other illness that has taken your strength. You want to get back your old-time vigor, be full of pep and enthusiasm—be able to work with ease, instead of listlessly, half-heartedly dragging out a mere existence.

So be sure to take a box of EATONIC home with you today. We cannot urge this too strongly. If EATONIC fails to give you positive beneficial results, it will not cost you a penny. There is no risk—the benefit is surely all for you.

TAKE EATONIC TODAY FOR YOUR ACID-STOMACH

NOTE—Over 25,000 drug stores throughout the United States sell and guarantee EATONIC. If you cannot obtain EATONIC quickly at your drug store, do not be without it. Dear Ferna:—

How is all at home now? I hope you are all well. I am well and feel good. I have been eating every day. I am using my pocket book to pick out what she wanted and went away proud to know that I was smart enough to order a meal in France.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS.

A porch climber may be a crack, but you will have to admit that he is anxious to rise in the world.

Another careful citizen is the man who carries a gun, but one day at a time so he can't get a gun.

No matter how long a boy may be, he is always getting to get up.

Another good thing to remember is that when you are young, money is not all that counts.

When you are young, you are always thinking of running up your bills.

And the best thing is that the girl who carries a gun is the kind of a girl you don't want to marry.

When Mrs. A starts to tell Mrs. B something that has been told her in confidence, it makes Mrs. A mad all over to find that some big-mouthed woman who can't keep a secret has already told Mrs. B all about it.

Two many men imagine that the way to make a noise in the world is to speak out your mouth.

A girl may be prostrated when a man breaks his promise to marry her.

Then they looked as if they had just woke up. "Wee, wee, compree." They brought the eggs in and I picked out what I wanted, carried them to the kitchen and after pointing out the stove and skillet I made

Debs and a General Strike.

(Commercial Appeal)
The threat of Eugene V. Debs to call a general strike if he is compelled to serve his sentence is an insult to honest, law-abiding workmen, who are also good and loyal American citizens. It is a gratuitous slap in the face to labor and is as meaningless as it would be ineffective.

If we do not meet the temper of the solid citizenry constituting the working class of the country, we are in a serious predicament. Debs thinks he could delude into blind subservience to his will.

There is not the slightest issue of the rights of labor involved in the conviction and sentencing of Debs. He was found guilty of disloyalty to the country in the prosecution of the war at a time when many thousands of workmen were offering their lives to their country and when other thousands were exerting every energy they possessed to support the men who were on the firing line.

While the war was in progress the loyalty of labor was never questioned. Now that the war is over we do not think that the leaders of the great army of honest workers will permit this aspersion on their Americanism to go unanswered.

The very fact that Debs seeks to intimidate the great judicial branch of our government is proof in itself of the reign of disorder he would invoke were it in his power to do so.

He had a trial by a jury of his peers and was convicted. He carried his appeal to the supreme court of the United States, and his conviction was affirmed.

Because he could not bend the jury and the courts to his disloyal way of thinking he now seeks to terrorize them. However, he is speaking without the shadow of a mandate from those whom he Ruling of Judge Advocate General is Approved by Secretary of War Baker.

Washington, April 3.—So far as the army is concerned, any beverage containing 1.4 per cent of alcohol will be considered "intoxicating." This decision of the judge advocate general was approved by Secretary Baker. The official ruling was made in answer to requests from camp and organization commanders for an interpretation of section 12 of the selective service act governing the prohibition of alcoholic liquors in or near military camps. Vendors of dozens of brands of near beers, so-called beverages and other drinks alleged to be non-intoxicating, are said to have taken advantage of the fact that no definite line was drawn as to alcohol content to dispose of their wares not only to establishments within military reservations, but even to the camp exchanges.

The decision that 1.4 per cent of alcohol would be considered the deadline by the military authorities is understood to have been based on an opinion of the army medical experts that this would intoxicate the average healthy soldier. If sufficient quantity of the beverage was imbibed.

Sale of intoxicating liquors to discharged soldiers, away from reservations or military dry zones, even if they are in uniform, is not unlawful, the department holds, in a separate opinion of the judge advocate general, approved by Secretary Baker.

"To come within the prohibition of the law," the statement said, "the person in uniform must be a member of the military forces, and a discharged soldier is not a member."

Under Food Administration regulations, one-half of 1 per cent alcohol made a beverage officially intoxicating. This standard has been adopted in many states, although in some as much as 2 per cent is allowed. The question of what is an intoxicating beverage is pending in the courts as a result of the decision of brewers in New York and elsewhere to make beer containing 2 1/4 per cent alcohol.

Welcome!

In thousands of homes these days, there's a reunion going on in the kitchen with the return of Valier's Dainty Flour.

And hosts of good things to eat are coming out of the oven and going onto the table to delight Daddy and the kids. Biscuits that melt in the mouth, white, light, fluffy—delicious! Cake that looks like fairies made it! But why try?—you can't describe that kind of baking; you have to experience it.

Valier's Dainty Flour is made to give the highest quality baking results—and it does. It's an ideal in flour-making—always maintained. When it couldn't be maintained, due to war milling regulations, it wasn't made at all.

If you haven't learned what a joy it is to bake with this superlative flour, start now. Let the grocer send a sack of Valier's Dainty today.

Hoover's Plan Calls for Partial Truce With Bolsheviks: Russia May Cease Fight.
Paris, April 3.—The first meeting of the representatives of the financial commission of the supreme council with the German financial delegates, who arrived at the Chateau Plessis Villette in Senlis Tuesday, took place in the chateau. The conference was limited to an exchange of views. The conference will be continued tomorrow.

Paris, April 3.—With the definite rejection of Marshal Foch's plan to make the fight against Bolshevism a military operation, the council of four has under consideration a plan that shows surface indications of eventual adoption. It is the outcome of a detailed suggestion made by Herbert C. Hoover, and has won the favor of the American and British missions and the qualified assent of the Italians and the French.

In brief it provides that Russia is to be treated as was Belgium and that a commission for Russian relief is to be organized under the auspices of some northern neutral, such as Denmark, which will assume the responsibility of imposing and distributing foodstuffs and raw materials that shall feed and provide work for the millions now starving and idle in Russia.

These supplies are not to be given in charity, but are to be paid for by the Russians themselves, who, under the spur of need will, it is hoped, rise to the occasion and make good. The plan does not call for outward recognition of the Bolshevik government except in so far as it may be necessary to treat with the ruling forces, which will be equally true of those other governments now contesting for supremacy in the empire.

"The intimate article of dress known as the corset which the majority of women wear but know very little about"

Alice S. Cutler, M. D.

In this pertinent way the well-known medical authority, Alice S. Cutler, M. D., describes the most important garment in the wardrobe of women.

"Buy your corset carefully," warns Dr. Cutler. "No one wants to be ill, and when women realize that the constant wearing of an ill-fitting corset helps to keep our hospitals open they will insist on being properly fitted to corsets instead of buying them hit or miss."

We unreservedly recommend Gossard Corsets, the original front-lacing corsets, as the complete expression of modern corsetry. Every Gossard Corset is hygienically correct. If properly fitted to the figure for which it was designed, and carefully adjusted each time it is worn, it will mould that figure to the ideal proportions of its type. It will give a priceless all-day comfort. It will safeguard the wearer against those bodily ailments that are often the result of improper corsetry. It will render a wearing service that alone is worth the price paid for the garment.

If possible, the new Spring and Summer Gossards are superior to those of the past season, which were generally acknowledged to be without equal in meeting the needs of active womanhood from the standpoint of comfort, hygiene, wear and figure improvement.

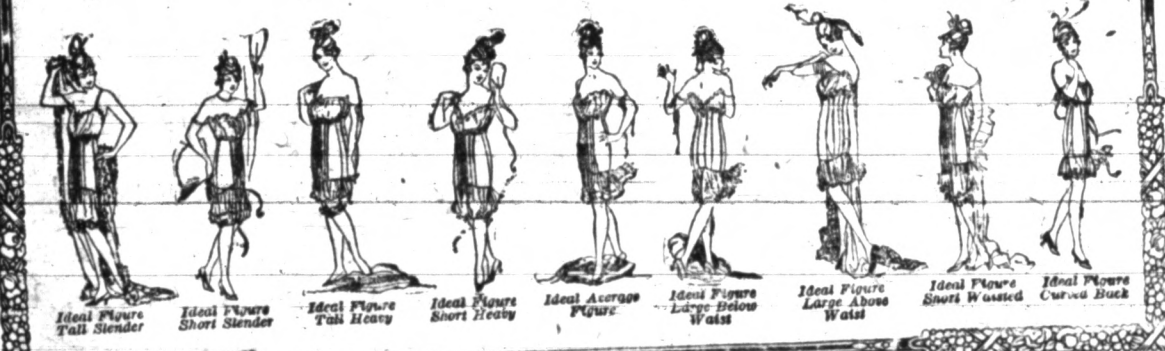

Our highly specialized fitted service reflects our sincere appreciation of the important relation a correctly fitted corset bears to your health, and to that perfect figure poise that gives the elusive charm of style.

McELWRATH & BROOKS

Just to say that had not the opposition been divided between five other candidates the man who branded Chicago "the sixth German city" would have been overwhelmingly defeated. Thompson had control of the municipal machinery and all reports agreed he used this to the very limit. He had behind him also all the disloyalists and pro-Germans. With all these unwholy elements combined he was able to defeat his nearest competitor by a scant 17,000 plurality, as compared with his 147,000 plurality received four years ago.

The ignominy that attaches to our second greatest municipality, however, is that there should have been found in it as many as 250,000 voters who would endorse the man who refused to invite Gen. Joffre to the city he misgoverned, who threatened to use the city's police to protect a meeting of anti-war agitators and who refused to allow liberty bonds to be sold in the city hall. Nothing can wipe away this damning record. If we admit the claims of Thompson's friends that he was not disloyal at heart, we convict him of an even more grave offense. Such an admission would be but an acknowledgement of the fact that for mere selfish, political advantages he would be willing to betray his country into the hands of those who sought its undoing. It must take some time for Chicago to live down the infamy of this latest shame. In the meantime we hope that the south-hating publication, the Chicago Tribune, will at least have common sense enough to realize that there is fertile field for missionary work at home. Until this paper can cleanse a large percentage of its people of the odium of treason to their country any advice from it will be as tainted as it will be unwelcome to the section of the United States lying below the Mason and Dixon line, which has demonstrated in every way possible that it is 100 per cent American.
