The groups sang many of the beautiful carols that are familiar and in addition sang several carols from other lands. Rotarians Hear District Governor

Granville Clark, District Governor of Rotary District 671, was the guest of the Murray Rotary Club yesterday on his annual visit to the club.

He was introduced by Joe Dick, president.

Clark talked to the club about Rotary, its meaning, its growth, and the part that it can play in international peace and understanding.

He related several of his experiences at Lake Placid where incoming district governors of Rotary meet in the spring for two weeks to build their Rotary knowledge.

Today Rotary is spread into 120 countries of the world with about 600,000 members, Mr. Clark told the local Rotary Club.

He pointed out the many fields where Rotary has had an effect, such as the improving of business ethics and practices, the emphasis on service above self, international understanding. "Rotary has nothing to sell but service," he told the club.

He indicated that Rotary must accept the responsibility of the times.

After the regular meeting Mr. Clark held a short session with club officers, directors and committee heads.

Murray Turner was introduced as a new Rotarian. E. M. Gilliam of Mayfield was a visiting Rotarian. Johnny Graham was a guest of Joe Dick. E. B. Howton had as his two guests Russell Nichols and Dr. Richard Thornton of the American Cyanamid Company.

New members will be initiated into the club next week.

Funeral For Mrs. Allie Crain Will Be Held Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Allie R. Crain will be held tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. at the Farley Funeral Home in Battle Creek, Mich., with Rev. James Myers officiating.

Mrs. Crain, age 73, died Wednesday, December 2. Her body was discovered Wednesday, December 9, in a cabin near her home on the Ledbetter Church Road. Coroner Max H. Churchill held an inquest with death being attributed to suicide by hanging and strangulation. She had been the object of a search by Sheriff Woodrow Rickman and a search party after she had been reported missing.

Survivors were two sons, three sisters, three brothers one of whom is R. C. Casey of Hardin Route One, and one granddaughter.

Mrs. Crain retired after 30 years employment at the Kellogg's Company in Battle Creek, Mich., before coming to Calloway County three years ago to make her home near Kentucky Lake.

Interment will be in the Memorial Park Cemetery in Battle Creek. The Max H. Churchill Funeral Home had charge of local arrangements and took remains to Fulton last night at 7:30 to be shipped by train to Battle Creek.

Budget For Next Year Will Be Increased By About $14,000

The City Council last night passed a budget for next year, and increased the salaries of department heads and employees of the Police Department, Fire Department, Street Department, and Sanitation System.

They also increased the salaries of the Superintendent of the Murray Natural Gas System and the Superintendent of the Murray Water and Sewer System and the assistant superintendent of the Water System.

The budget, as explained by Finance Chairman Joe Dick, will amount to $324,200.00 as opposed to the 1964 budget of $310,700.00.

It was noted that the revenue for next year is expected to increase by about $14,000. This increase comes mostly from property and poll taxes, franchise taxes, with some slight increase in income from privilege licenses, auto licenses, cemetery lots, and the Sanitation Department.

On the expenditure side of the ledger, the city expects little change, the city expects little change on the expenditure for administrative and executive expenditures. Last year this department spent $27,835.00 while next year the cost is expected to be $28,335.00.

The expenses in the Police Department will jump from $64,820.00 to $71,850.00. This comes about mostly because of salary increases and the addition of a new policeman.

The Fire Department expenses for 1964 were $50,800.00 while the new budget calls for expenditures of $58,250.00. Here again salary increases and the addition of one new fireman is responsible for most of the increase. General expenses in this department will jump from $3,500 to $5,500.

The Street Department expenditures under the new budget will be $65,100.00, only a slight increase from 1964's $64,500.00. Salaries in the department will jump from $24,500 to $30,100, however the budget calls for less expenditures for maintenance, materials, supplies, street paving, and equipment commitments. Payments are complete on some equipment and most of the expense for administrative and executive expenditures.

Infantryman Foiled Hitler At Bastogne Says McAuliffe

By PATRICK J. SLOVAN
Special Staff International
WASHINGTON 679 - Gen. Anthony C. McAuliffe, a veteran of the historic Battle of the Bulge, credits the doggedness of the American infantryman with foiling German plan to give Hitler the strategic town of Bastogne for a Christmas present.

McAuliffe and other veterans of the battle attended a meeting of the U.S. Army Association Thursday night to mark its 20th anniversary. The retired general praised the performance of the individual soldier during the two-week long siege.

"A commander can only put his troops in position and hope they stay there," McAuliffe said. "And that's what they did."

Last Big Offensive
McAuliffe was commander of the 101st Airborne Division in December, 1944, when it was thrown into the breach to stem the last big offensive of the German war machine. The peppery paratrooper general rained a place in history by his answer of "nuts" to a German demand for surrender at the height of the fight.

In an interview with United Press International, McAuliffe told how the Germans secretly massed 250,000 men around the Allied front in Belgium. About 75,000 U.S. troops, thinly spread along an 85-mile defense line, faced them.

Within a week after the Nazi push began, Panzer tank units and infantry had bulged 60 miles into Allied territory and had cut off the road center of Bastogne, where McAuliffe had his headquarters.

"The Germans hit us here one day and somewhere else the next," the general said.

Informal Reply
"The offer to surrender came on the 22nd."

Col. Joseph H. Harper, who delivered the famous answer to the Germans, said "nuts" was decided on after attempts at a formal reply failed.

The next day the skies cleared, allowing planes to drop supplies to McAuliffe's tough paratroopers. The lifting fog also allowed devastating Allied air attacks on the Nazi counter-offensive.

But Hitler still wanted Bastogne, and rumors said his troops wanted to give it to him for a Christmas present.

At 3 a.m. on Christmas Day, the Germans launched an all-out assault on Bastogne. Panzer tanks and infantry were followed by troops with flame-throwers.

When the battle was over - early in January - 8,000 Allied troops were dead and 21,000 missing or captured and 48,000 wounded. The Germans lost 90,000 men.

By United Press International WASHINGTON — The nation's export drive received a slight setback in October as imports neared about steady while exports dropped 6 per cent from September, according to Commerce Department figures.

Department analysts said much of the October decline stemmed from curtailed shipments of auto parts to Canada by strike-bound General Motors. Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges said "much more" government action is needed to encourage exports.

A combination of vacation and training for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorer leaders and their families in the Four Rivers Council, Boy Scouts of America, is offered at the Philmont Volunteer Training Center in New Mexico. About fifty men, women, and children from the Four Rivers Council, Boy Scouts of America, will travel to the 138,000-acre ranch in the Rocky Mountains near Cimarron, New Mexico, next summer to take part in the unique training experience and family vacation. Ed Hank, chairman of the council's leadership training committee said.

Information about the leadership training conferences is available from the Scout service center, 1501 Broadway, Paducah, Kentucky, telephone 443-6269.

The leaders with their families live in a modern tent city and eat meals served cafeteria style. Trained leaders take care of activities for the children, and there are special programs for the ladies.

Activities available to families during free time include horseback riding, hiking, fishing, square dancing, handicraft, tours to scenic spots on the ranch such as Kit Carson's home, and trips to historic Taos and Santa Fe.

The Philmont Volunteer Training Center is a part of the Philmont Scout Ranch which also attracts more than 10,000 high-school-age boys and leaders each year for hiking and camping experiences.

The Four Rivers Council expects to have 40 high-school-age Explorers attend Philmont next summer as a part of the council's high-adventure camping program. The 1965 trek will leave Paducah early in August and return by August 25.

Teams Invade State For Cage Play

By United Press International
Basketball teams from opposite corners of the nation invade Kentucky tonight in an already brief schedule curtailed even further by cancellation of a Kentucky State College game because of the death of a player in a traffic accident.

Kentucky State cancelled both tonight's game against Jameco Saints of Chicago and Saturday night's contest with Villa Madonna due to the death of starting guard James Barlow one of three Kentucky State students who died in a Thursday night collision near Versailles.

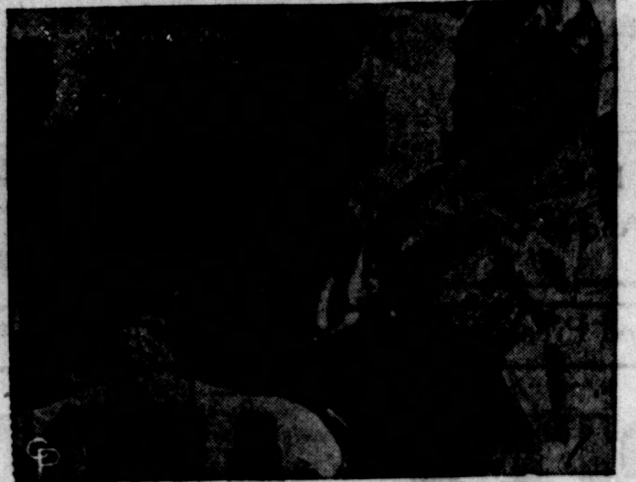

Tonight's remaining schedule has Idaho State playing at Morehead, Oglethorpe College of Georgia at Murray, and Chattanooga at Kentucky Wesleyan.

Union College continues play in the Western Carolina Tournament, at Asheville, N. C. where Thursday night the Bulldogs won a first-round victory over Campbell College of North Carolina, 66-43.

In other Thursday night action, Georgetown romped over Campbellsville, 97-78, with Tom Trippman and Dewaine Brice each netting 50 points; Pikeville plastered Asheville-Biltmore of North Carolina, 108-79, with Terry Epling pouring in 32 points, and Louisville's freshmen buried Kentucky Wesleyan's freshmen, 129-81.

Louisville's greatest prospect, Westley Unsell, rolled up 43 points and scored 20 rebounds. Unsell now has more than 80 rebounds in three games.

Bellarmine coach Alex Groza learned that his unbeaten Knights may have to get along for several weeks without their top rebounder and second leading scorer, Tom Hugenberg of Covington Catholic. The Bellarmine captain is in a hospital with a severe ankle-sprain suffered in practice Wednesday.

Dear Abby . . .

She Really Slipped!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Recently the janitor who works in the office where my sister is a secretary told her in front of some other employees that her slip was showing. My sister became very angry and told him that she thought he was out of line to have made such a personal remark to her. As a result of this, many unpleasant things have developed which I do not care to go into here. But our family is now arguing about it at home. Some of the members of our family say that a person who is in a lower class should not make personal remarks to someone who is in a higher class. Your opinion is needed.

ELECTED TO WRITE

DEAR ELEGANT: I am a janitor does not mean that he is of a class below that of a secretary. The poor man was probably only trying to be helpful. Your sister showed more than her slip—she revealed her ignorance and arrogance as well.

DEAR ABBY: Our son married a girl with two children. He legally adopted these children. It has been almost two years now and the wife and children have never called us anything but "MR. AND MRS. SO-AND-SO." It is a very embarrassing situation. Perhaps his wife is shy and has been waiting for you to invite her to call you something more personal. Give her the benefit of the doubt. But ask your son to straighten her out.

"MR. AND MRS. SO-AND-SO" DEAR MR. AND MRS.: Your son is half to blame. And since you are closer to him, he is the one to approach about remedying this unfortunate situation. Perhaps his wife is shy and has been waiting for you to invite her to call you something more personal. Give her the benefit of the doubt. But ask your son to straighten her out.

DEAR ABBY: What does a girl do when she is smarter than every boy she knows? I am a rather pretty (I am told) girl of 15 and I have never had a date in my life. I am sure it is because I am so smart in school that I scare all the boys away. It is very embarrassing always to get the highest grade in the class. How can I solve this? I don't want to let my grades drop just to be popular. Can you offer a suggestion? Tagged—

"THE BRAIN" DEAR BRAIN: Use that superior brain of yours to noodle

Hostesses for the luncheon were Miss Kathleen Patterson, Miss Regina Senter, Mrs. M. G. Ingram, Mrs. Russell Terhune, and Mrs. Seburn White. An investment in Your Future ...ATTEND CHURCH

"For when your treasure is, there will your heart be also"

the Long Arm of God

There may be times when your church seems to be growing slowly, when you become discouraged because your work seems to bear no fruit. Don't be discouraged. The Lord would say to you in Deut. 1:21, "Fear not, neither be discouraged," for I am with you.

During the very time you are discouraged, the Lord may have good news for you. This period of time may be more spring than winter. It is an open secret that God's arm is not shortened that he cannot save; neither is his ear heavy that He cannot hear.

Therefore, let us keep on working and praying that we may in our hearts possess the land of rest and comfort and peace with God. "The glory of the Lord shall be thy reward." He tells us in Isaiah 58:9, "Then thou shalt call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and He shall say, Here I Am."

We pray that the church and its fellowship will be your dearest treasure. May the church be the place where your "heart interest" lies. We invite you to attend services this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
