COUNCILMEN VOTE TO TAKE ANNEXATION SUIT TO HIGH COURT

Five members of the city council held a meeting last night and voted to carry the annexation case to the court of appeals. At the time of the meeting other business came up and Attorney W. J. Webb, who has been assisting in the case, was allowed $150 on his fee in the case. Those who were present at this meeting were Councilmen George, Stroup, Joiner, McGee and Albritton.

LIVESTOCK

Cattle—Medium killing steers about 10c lower than last week close, but the general market on good steers and the rank and file of cows and heifers is 25c lower, but at the prices the outlet is broad enough to clear the yards. Stocker and feeder cattle in moderate supply and the demand is thoroughly ample to maintain the market at a steady basis.
Beef steers 6.50 and 10; stock cattle 6.50 to 7.75; stock cows and heifers 4.50 to 7; yearling butcher cattle 6.50 to $10; beef cows 6 to 7.50.
Hogs—Good demand for butcher hogs and underweight stuff 210 lbs and down, market active with sales 15 to 25c higher. Strong weight stuff slow with limited demand, and sales affected no better than yesterday.
Bulk of the fat 50 to 175 pound hogs sold at 10.35 to 10.50; 185 to 210 pound sold at 10.10 to 10.25; 225 to 250 pound quotations at 9.25 to 9.40; heavier hogs at 9.15 to 9.35; pigs over 90 pounds at 8.25 to 8.40.

TOBACCO MARKET

There were 28 loads of tobacco sold through the chute today. The highest price paid was $12.25 and the lowest $5. The tobacco was sold at a good average price.
PADUCAH—Approximately 20,000 pounds of tobacco were sold at the Broadway hose room yesterday. Leaf ranged from four and one-half to 14c a pound. Lugs 1c to 2c.
Weaker trend was noticed on the lower grades of leaf and lugs yesterday. The good prices of Tuesday were not reached nor is it probable that 35c, the top price of the season, will be reached within the next few days.

MURRAY—A well known local contract buyer's authority for the statement that fully 60 per cent of the Gateway crop was sold. He added that it was his opinion that fully 95 per cent of the best tobacco had been sold. These statements are about in line with the views of all the dealers in the city and the movement continues at the rate deliveries have been made the past week it will not be many weeks until the entire crop has found its way to market.
Since last Monday prices have ruled from $1 to $3 under prices of two weeks ago. Offerings have been heavy and the bulk of the weed was of low grades. The Ledger is informed that one load sold through the chute for $10. That does not mean $10 per hundred pounds by $10 for the entire load of tobacco.

APRIL FOOL

This is the day upon which is tacked the custom of sending one on fruitless errands, deceiving him with false appearances, and then crying out the senseless "April fool." Foolish and silly as this is, it has been universally practiced all over Europe since the middle ages. France seems to have originated it—Only the French after debauching his victim with some nonsensical belief, calls him an "April fish." Scotland with all her characteristic seriousness, and John Bull with his perpetually solemn mien, both keep this day with great gusto of enjoyment, even staid elderly folks. In America it is largely left to the children, who everywhere indulge in jokes and pranks of leading some body astray, or on an unnecessary errand, or to attend a false engagement, and always the fun lies in the laughing sally, "April fool."
The word April, derived from aperie, means "to open." The name is therefore appropriately applied to the month in which Nature begins to open the buds of all her vast treasure of bulbs, vines, flowers, shrubs, trees.
April may be a "fool" but there is not much fooling about the business she transacts. She gets up and gets busy with a marvelous skill of workmanship and a rare sense of fitness to make the world beautiful. —By and by, when she has run her thirty days, the job is complete—a wonderful panorama of gorgeous color and graceful form and motion spread out over hill and field, mountain, lake, stream, gorge, canyons, off fence post, garden wall, thicket and hedge, all gaily dressed, and alive with whirling wings, glittering fireflies and the songs of birds.
A wise and sweet fool, April.
—Eugenia Parham.

NEW PASTOR AND FAMILY ARRIVE

The Rev. E. A. Dubber and family arrived last midnight from Electra, Texas, and are temporarily installed at Hotel Hall.
The Rev. Mr. Dubber is the new pastor of the First Christian church and upon the arrival of the household goods within the next few days they will occupy the parsonage on South street.
There are six in the Dubber family. Arriving last night were the pastor and his wife, who before marriage was a Kentucky girl of Bowling Green and Russellville. Miss Cora Line Dubber and A. E. Dubber, Jr., both high school students. An elder daughter, Miss Bessie, will arrive the latter part of May, she at present being at Electra as teacher of Latin and English in the high school. Also accompanying the family is Gilbert Dubber, a world war soldier. He saw eight months of hard service in Europe, when he was invalided home, during which trip his ship was torpedoed. The family has been in Texas for the past year for the benefit of the young man's health, which is improved.
The Rev. Mr. Dubber has already made a splendid impression upon the First Christian congregation here.
He is a thirty-second degree Mason and a Shriner.
The Messenger, in behalf of the First Christian church and Mayfield, welcomes the pastor and his family to our city.

Mrs. Stillman Wins Temporary Verdict

By Associated Press
POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y.—Temporary alimony of seventy-five hundred dollars a month, thirty-five thousand dollars counsel fees and twelve thousand and five hundred dollars for expenses, was fixed by the supreme court Justice Morshauer for Mrs. Anne O. Stillman in her suit for divorce in a judgment against her by James A. Stillman, president National City Bank of New York.
Justice Morshauer ruled out the divorce suit, as confidential and private, and the alleged confession written to Stillman by his wife. He also ruled out letters alleged to have been written to Mrs. Stillman by Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, named by the banker as correspondent, and accused of being the father of Mrs. Stillman's infant son, Guy.

NEW REGULATIONS ON WHISKY LISTS

WASHINGTON—Regulations limiting withdrawals of liquor by retail druggists to 100 gallons each of spirit or wine for each quarter were issued by the bureau of internal revenue. While intended to clarify previous orders, the new regulations were said to serve in a way as a relaxation of restrictions, limiting withdrawals to 75 cases of all kind of liquor under one permit. There was no determination of the number of such permits to be issued for any retail druggist.
Officials said that where proof was given, a larger quantity than 200 gallon maximum might be withdrawn by investigation of sales by the average retail druggist had convinced officials that the limit set was sufficient to meet the average needs.

FREIGHT CARS IN NATION INCREASE

WASHINGTON—The greatest number of surplus freight cars in the history of American railroads was recorded on March 23, the car service division of the American Railway Association reported. The number at that time was 458,411, an increase of 35,000 over March 15, and 7,627 more than the former high record of March 1, 1919.
The increase in surplus cars, the report said, was due almost entirely to a falling off in shipments of coal. The surplus coal cars on March 23, is said to total 30,334, an increase of 28,000 over the week before and 57,544 over March 1.

W. B. RUSSELL FOR MAGISTRATE District 5

To the Voters of District No. 5:
Ladies and Gentlemen: I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate to represent your interests as magistrate from our home district, in Graves county, in the Graves County Fiscal Court, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, in August.
I am asking the men and women to vote for me for this office, and in doing so, I am ever mindful of the responsibility that rests with me if I am elected.
I want to promise you that if I am elected I will strive by all honorable means to discharge the duties of the office to the best interests of the district.
Thanking you for your support and influence in this race, I beg to remain,
Yours very respectfully,

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN—

—Jake Johnson made all the coffins for Mayfield and Graves county, and had to work nearly every night to keep up with the business. His little shop was near what is now 5th and Broadway, and in the ears of many residents their still resounds the hammering of the nails into the walnut coffin in the dead hours of night.
—The I. C. Railroad used to be called the P. & O. and the engines were fired with wood, which the train men had to gather along the road. Each car had its own set of brakes and a brakeman, and with all that equipment the train sometimes would un for a considerable distance past the depot before it could be brought to a standstill.
—Doug West and others used to conduct the still house on Kees creek, about a mile south of town, and sold over the bar in a shack that very much resembled the present day saloons shown in western moving pictures. At times it was dangerous to pass the still house on Saturday afternoon, as the pond was filled with men and horses and mules, and sometimes there were a few fights.

XIV—A Fresh Complication

Sunday was not the quiet day that Nancy had anticipated wherein Edith and Major Desmond could be thrown constantly together. She was awakened early by a summons to the phone. It was Chicago calling, the maid said.

In response to Nancy's sleepy hello there was a brief buzzing and grinding and finally a voice with a timbre which set her heart fluttering.

Nancy, it said softly, how are you sweetheart? Who gasped Nancy who are you? That's a nice question to ask your husband how many others call you sweetheart?

Gerry, cried Nancy. Where are you? A laugh came over the wire, a loud boisterous laugh.

Foiled you that time, didn't it, chucky? So here I am, manacled in this God forsaken city over Sunday! Have a heart, can't you?

Nancy's spirits sank. Curtis Stanley was the last person in the world she wanted to see that weekend.

His perverted sense of humor would be all the more to her and he would make her life and Desmond's miserable.

But what to do? How did you find me? she demanded.

Oh, Connie told me to look you up. She isn't jealous of you, curious to know about you, or anything like that. What's their names that you're visiting me out? I am curious to see the doctor—heard a lot about him. Hes a ray Lothario from all reports. I'll bet hes crazy about you.

Curtis, for Heaven's sake, dont talk like that over the phone. You dont know who may be listening. He chuckled.

So its got to that point, eh? he inquired. Sometimes I wish you'd strangle your own wittle lips, said Nancy as calmly as she could.

Her heart grew heavier and heavier at the thought of the day that confronted her. I dare say I can't do anything but ask you out, she sighed. But I'll tell you frankly that I'd rather spend the day at the dentist and incidentally Major Desmond is here, too.

A long whistle from Stanley, followed by a delighted chuckle, came over the wire. Desmond's a ruffian, wont he say that for him. I told Connie that business trip of his was significant. Must be a great little house party you're having this week-end.

Nancy controlled her anger with a superhuman effort. Hold the wire a moment until I ask Edith if we may have another guest? she asked stoically.

She returned in a few moments to report Edith's cordial invitation to Stanley.

CLARKE URGES LIGHTER TAXATION FOR FARM LANDS

LOUISVILLE—Heavier taxation for undeveloped mineral resources of the state and lighter taxation of farm lands, even to the extent of abolishing all taxes on farm property, was urged by P. N. Clarke, secretary of the Kentucky Tax Reform Association, in an address here before the second annual convention of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation.

Production taxes on coal, which have been proposed in some quarters, he said, would retard development and should not be resorted to. They would only result in profits being passed along to the consumer alone, with possibly larger taxes for the producer, he said.

Mr. Clarke reviewed the tax laws of Kentucky from the beginning up to the present, telling how in his opinion the constitutional General Property Tax of 1891 had retarded the growth of the state and caused property to be sent outside.

This law, he said, resulted in the greater part of property, not paying any taxes and thus creating an annual deficit that had led to a $5,000,000 state debt.

The present tax law passed in 1917, Mr. Clarke said, is not all that could be desired but it is much better than the tax laws in many other states and has resulted in millions of dollars of hidden property being brought out.

The tax rate has been lowered from 55 cents to 25 cents. The old tax law resulted in map counties not being enough for their own expense but as a result there were $1,000,000 of undeveloped lands.

Complaints regarding the present law he said are due largely to misunderstanding. It has produced revenue sufficient to meet state needs and promises a surplus to pay off the debt. Real estate now pays only 57 per cent of the taxes, whereas under the old law it paid 80 per cent.

There is no discrimination in the tax laws of Kentucky, said Mr. Clarke. It is in favor of farming property, which enjoys some peculiar privileges not permitted to other property, for instance.

Agricultural products grown within the year are exempt from all taxes. Unmanufactured agricultural products pay only a nominal city and county tax.

Agricultural implements and machinery are exempt from local taxes. Livestock is taxed at only 10 cents on each $100 by the state and over one third in value pays no taxes.

Farming lands have no city taxes and pay only a nominal city and county tax. Money, bonds, stocks, mortgages, notes and accounts are taxed the same by whomsoever owned and farmers who have such property pay only the state taxes thereon as do other owners of such property.

These advantages, Mr. Clarke said, are fair enough and altogether proper, but they should go further as land used for farming purposes and residential property should not be taxed all as it is now. The real estate in this state is no the same as that in other states.

Money, bonds, stocks, mortgages, notes and accounts are taxed the same by whomsoever owned and farmers who have such property pay only the state taxes thereon as do other owners of such property.

Increase in Assessments of Kentucky Property

FRANKFORT, March 31—An increase of $1,074,771 in the assessment for taxation of the entire state of Kentucky is shown in returns made by assessors from all of the 120 counties it was announced at the office of the state tax commission.

The last county sent in its assessment recapitulation yesterday. The total assessment for the state is $1,772,388,425 in 1920, the announcement stated.

Increase in assessments are shown according to the statement in every item of taxation except mineral rights and livestock. The latter item decreased $11,745,582, as compared with the 1920 assessment and the former $428,899. The greatest increase was in intangible personal property which gained $2,931,684 over the 1920 assessment.

The assessment for 1921 as compared with 1920 no increase ordered by the state tax commission being included are: Lands $26,855,470 compared with $26,199,912; mineral rights $14,494,224 compared with $15,378,193; town lots $8,083,974 compared with $3,872,463; tangible personal property $226,149,729 compared with $228,621,771; livestock $86,920,371 compared with $106,765,753; intangible personal property $9,841,551 compared with $7,449,887; bank shares $51,407,227 compared with $17,057,719; escheat $61,468,594 compared with $67,629,501.

CEMETERY BEING VISITED BY THIEF OF LOWEST TYPE

A good many graves in Manleswood are being systematically rifled of flowers and shrubs. The thief is content to take the cut bouquets away and stock and branch in one instance all the bulbs which were blooming in profusion on a grave were entirely removed to the last one. Another plot the owner had a magnificent cluster of purple flags of five years growth which were dug up and carried off. Another had a beautiful lilac completely devastated of all its bloom branches and so it goes. Flowers are disappearing and plants being carried away frequently.

Whoever is doing this stealthy work needs no mercy shown him. Of all the robberies, stealings, looting and plunderings that have been going on over the country, robbing the dead of flowers is the meanest and lowest.

Not the intrinsic value, but the thing itself, planted in memory of one, is what makes the loss not easily received if the cemetery is the rendezvous of thieves, then the thieves are our neighbors, living in the community, or one of us; for an outsider would not steal stuff like this to be carried away to another community.

We trust the officers will take some steps to apprehend the marauder and to see that our community is not soiled by an offense so heinous and unnecessary.

Overland To Resume TOWN, March 30—Deputy Sheriff J. H. Wilson will return to work at the Overland Annuity plant at Monday, 30, Vice President Charles B. Wilson announced today. The plant closed down November 1, 1920.

In the Second District Edith is remaining up in the Second district Judge Bush is a candidate for circuit judge. He lives at Louisville. Deputy P. Smith of Co. 11, who has been Commonwealth attorney, is also a candidate for circuit judge. J. H. Wilson, of Louisville and the Colonel of Merce have looked over the job of Commonwealth attorney in that district.

Kentucky Livestock Industry Be Promoted By Association

LOUISVILLE, March 31—The Kentucky Pure Bred Livestock Association and the Louisville Livestock Exchange, with the support of the Kentucky State University College of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture Bureau of Animal Industry Division, are engaged in a movement to promote the breeding of better livestock and to increase production of better grade animals in Kentucky.

Figures show an alarming falling out of meat animal production throughout the country in this state, once a leader in the field, this slump is particularly serious. This, despite the fact that there is nothing produced by the careful farmer that is as great an asset and source of revenue as his livestock. It is always salable and convertible into cash.

In an effort to reawaken the farmer to the importance of livestock production and to stimulate better grade animals, the association and the exchange will hold a Farmers' Better Stock Sale at the Bourbon Stock Yards here June 2. Two hundred or more of the best bred bulls of the state will be auctioned to the farmers at the prices bid it will be apparent to you that the animals cannot bring anything like what they are actually worth sold under such conditions.

The sale will mean that these animals will be disposed of at reasonable prices that the farmer of limited means will have an opportunity to purchase a satisfactory figure.

The association and the exchange will receive absolutely no profits from this sale. To the contrary, the sale will represent the expenditure of a considerable sum of money.

The main desire of the two organizations is to obtain the widest possible distribution over the state of these pure bred bulls, whose in the course of time their influence will be felt in improved quality of animals produced.

Back of this movement will be all of the best interests of the state. Farmers last year lost more than $1,250,000 at the Bourbon Stock Yards alone in added profits that they might have earned had their cattle been of better grade.

Fans have received news that Jake Hurt, star third baseman with the Dyersburg club last season has signed with Terre Haute in the Three Eye League. Hurt is with the St. Louis Browns on their training trip in Louisiana, and will be farmed out to Terre Haute.

Hurt was the youngest player on the Browns team last summer and Louisville fans who watched him prosper realized that Brock had uncovered a real star. It is predicted that Hurt will soon break into the big league company permanently.

KENTUCKY BRIEFS

Irving—The woman vote in Kentucky at the approaching August primary and at the succeeding November election continues to be a subject of interest to candidates Hiram Lynch of 18th county in his announcement for sheriff says it is the first time they have been allowed to vote in the county races and that he is right glad they have gained the right and appeals to them to cast their ballots for him.

Fallouth—When the tobacco market closed here Thursday it was stated that about 4,000,000 pounds had been sold on the floors during the season. Many farmers it was said, whose crop was free of damage and substance realized $18 to $45 a hundred pounds for their products.

Even Irving has not escaped the crime wave. Five residences were entered in one night while their occupants were attending the picture show. The loot was small, however, consisting of a small amount of money and a few trinkets.

Bardwell—A bulletin from the census bureau at Washington shows that Carlisle county in ten years has lost more than 700 in its population. In 1920 the record shows the county contained 8,231 persons in 1910 the population was 9,018. Both are decreases under 1900 when the census showed 10,195.

Pineville—This community deeply stirred by the death of Levi L. Mason, who was shot from ambush and killed on Florence creek, has organized a fund with which to purchase a home for the dead man's family. Mason was known as one of the most fearless officers of the mountains. He was slain while raiding for moonshiners.

Thirty-three Years of Saving the Surface

"Saving-the-surface" by the use of Hanna's Green Seal Paint, you do "save all." Moisture, decay, deterioration cannot get at the wood surface kept properly protected by Green Seal.

The national campaign for "Saving-the-Surface" started only recently, but Hanna's Green Seal Paint started accomplishing this result over thirty-three years ago, and it has been at it ever since.

You want the best paint on your property. Therefore insist that your painter use only Green Seal. This will not only "save the surface," but it will also save after-regrets, and will save you money.

Wisdom and Predictions In Ancient Almanac

KEENE, N. H., March 21—Quaintly phrased weather warnings interlarded with old-fashioned words of wisdom, include a prediction of a successful revolt in America, while the colonists were still paying for the health of their English ruler, are contained in a collection of almanacs owned by M. E. Daniels of this city. Some of the paper-bound booklets date back to 1754.

The prophecy dealing with the Revolution was printed in a copy issued about the time Washington was following the peaceful pursuits of a surveyor. It was made by Lord Kamea, a British nobleman who said our North American colonies are in a prosperous condition increasing rapidly in population, in commerce and in opulence and they have the spirit of a free people and are enflamed with patriotism. Their population will equal that of Britain and Ireland in less than a century and they will be a match for the mother country if they choose to be independent. A people animated with the new blessings of liberty will not incline to a kingly form of government.

Young men are urged to go west into the wilds of Ohio and purchase land at 20 cents an acre in Scioto. METHODIST PASTOR RECEIVES SPLENDID TOKEN FOR SERVICES

The Rev. John T. Myers, pastor of the First Methodist church, was very pleasantly surprised yesterday afternoon upon the receipt of the letter reproduced below, accompanied by a $100 Liberty bond. The letter and financial remembrance came from the congregation of the First Christian church. It reads:

Mayfield, Ky., March 20, 1921
To Brother John T. Myers, Pastor First Methodist Church, Mayfield, Ky.
In obedience to the trust committed to us by the membership of the First Christian church through its Official Board, as a committee, hereby tender to you and to your brethren the most sincere thanks and the highest appreciation of our brotherhood, for the exercise of your kindly offices during the time we have been without a pastor. In visiting our sick with messages of comfort and cheer to the afflicted; in burying our dead and speaking words of consolation to wounded and sorrowing hearts; holding up Jesus of Nazareth, the man of sorrow and acquainted with grief, and passed thru the trying ordeal of Calvary, who was buried and was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father and now liveth forevermore. But, as the words of our mouth vanish and passeth away, we have thought to associate with these a more definite and lasting token of our appreciation of your kindly offices and ministrations, and to assure you that whatever changes time may bring to you, or to us, the membership of the First Christian church, of Mayfield, Ky., will ever hold you in the bonds of love and Christian fellowship.

But, as the words of our mouth vanish and passeth away, we have thought to associate with these a more definite and lasting token of our appreciation of your kindly offices and ministrations, and to assure you that whatever changes time may bring to you, or to us, the membership of the First Christian church, of Mayfield, Ky., will ever hold you in the bonds of love and Christian fellowship.

HOWARD BRAZELTON PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN STANFORD

The sad news of the death of Howard J. Brazelton son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brazelton of Stanford, Ky., has fallen like a pall over our city. In the brief eight months of his residence here, during which time his father supplied the pulpit of the Christian church, he won a host of friends who are mourning now with his devoted parents over their great loss. Howard was a boy that any community might feel proud of. Possessing a fine mind, he had applied himself well to his studies, and would have graduated in high school in June at 17 years of age. His faculty for making and keeping friends are remarkable and he was a universal favorite both among the young and the old, as was attested by the fact that every business house in his home town closed for the funeral.

His happy genial nature literally shed a glow of sunlight in any company, that was as refreshing as it was attractive, and left one with the feeling that God's in His Heaven, all's right with the world. Howard was a boy of many splendid qualities embodied in one so young. He was reticent in the discharge of every duty, both secular and religious; he was the soul of honor in matters of even the smallest detail; he was a dutiful and devoted son, and above all a consistent Christian, giving cheerfully of his young life to the promise, to

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

The following beautiful composition was found in Charleston, South Carolina during the war. It was printed on very heavy yellow satin, and is quite a literary curiosity:

Then to the mercy-seat our souls dost gather,
To do our duty unto thee... OUR FATHER,
To whom all praise all honor should be given;
For thou art the great God... WHO ARE IN HEAVEN.
Thou, by thy wisdom, rulest the world's whole frame,
Forever, therefore... HALLOWED BE THY NAME;
Let nevermore delay divide us from
Thy glorious grace, but let... THY KINGDOM COME;
Let thy commands opposed by none,
But thy good pleasure and... THY WILL BE DONE.
And let our promptness to obey be even
The very same... IN EARTH AS 'TIS IN HEAVEN.
Then for our souls, O Lord, we also pray,
Thou wouldst be pleased to... GIVE US THIS DAY
The food of life, wherewith our souls are fed,
Sufficient raiment, and... OUR DAILY BREAD;
With every needful thing do thou relieve us,
And of the mercy, thy... AND FORGIVE US
All our misdeeds, for Him whom thou didst please
To make an offering, for... OUR TRESPASSES.
And forasmuch, O Lord, as we believe
That thou wilt pardon us... AS WE FORGIVE,
Let the love teach, wherewith thou dost acquaint us,
To pardon all... THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US;
And though, sometimes, thou find'st we have forgot
This love for thee, yet help... AND LEAD US NOT,
Through soul or body's want to desperation,
Nor let earth's gain drive us... INTO TEMPTATION;
Let not the soul of any true believer
Fall in the time of trial... BUT DELIVER,
Yea, save them from the malice of the devil,
And both in life and death keep... US FROM EVIL.
Thus pray we, Lord, for that of thee, from whom
This may be had... FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM,
This world is of thy work its wondrous story,
To thee belongs... THE POWER AND THE GLORY;
And all thy wondrous works have ended never,
But will remain forever, and... FOREVER,
Thus we poor creatures would confess again,
And thus would say eternally... AMEN.

POISON IS FOUND IN THE STOMACH OF JOE DANIELS

PADUCAH, April 1—Poison was shown to be contained in the stomach of Joe Daniels by the chemical analysis of the contents in the Gradwohl laboratory in Chicago yesterday.

The information was received in a brief telegram late yesterday afternoon and the officials are awaiting the results of the analysis of the analysis, which should reach the city today, before making the kind of poison used public.

The kind of poison shown by the analysis was kept secret as the prosecutor will make an investigation of the poison by the registers of all the local druggists today in an effort to connect up the sale of the poison.

It is said that the analysis showed symptoms of wood alcohol poisoning. This coincides with one of the first theories advanced as to the cause of the death of Daniels as empty bottles were tossed out of the automobile of his son, Van, before his arrest. These bottles since have been found and are being held as evidence.

A substance supposed to be vomit was found near the spot where Van Daniels claims his machine became disabled, will be forwarded to the laboratory for examination since the report of poison being found in the stomach has been received.

Efforts to keep the receipt of the telegram a secret was made by county officials on the Friday pretext that Van Daniels, the son, might meet with mob violence.

According to medical authorities the taking of large quantities of alcohol produces death in a few hours. The victim becomes comatose or purplish and there is complete muscular relaxation, weak heart action, and collapse, ending in death through paralysis of the heart or of respiration or both.

In the case of Daniels, when removed from Clarks river, his body was limber. There has been one unusual feature of the case, a rigidity of the body usually occurs within a few hours after death and would likely have been hastened by immersion in cold water. Alcohol also does not produce any burns or leave any trace in the mouth or throat.

One feature of the case was a rigidity of the body usually occurs within a few hours after death and would likely have been hastened by immersion in cold water. Alcohol also does not produce any burns or leave any trace in the mouth or throat.

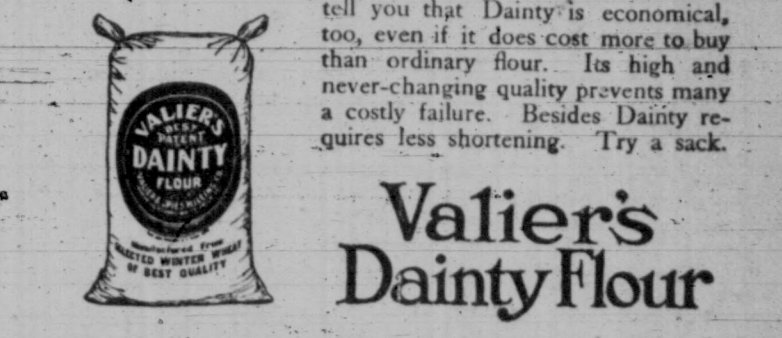

Some of the county officials who have taken the lead in the investigation of the case were not told that the poison was found. Dr. Bass stated that the name of the poison would not be divulged for several days.

An unofficial version of the telegram received from St. Louis is: "Metley has the poisoning developments forwarded mail."

This means that the detailed report of the analysis under the certification of the chemist will reach the city today.
