"I AM A TIRED AMERICAN"

By ALAN MCINTOSH

Publisher, The Star Herald, Laverne, Minn.

I am a tired American.
I'm tired of having the world panhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.
I am a tired American—wary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict.
I am a tired American—choked up to here on this business of trying to intimidate our Government by placard, picket line, and sit-ins by the hordes of dirty unwashed who rush to man the barricades against the forces of law, order, and decency.
I am a tired American—wary of the beatniks who say they should have the right to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.
I am a tired American—fed up with the mobs of scabby-faced, long-haired youths and short-haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of America and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity, and morality on which America grew to greatness.
I am a tired American—wary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.
I am a tired American—nauseated by the lazy-do-nothings who wouldn't take a job if you drove them to and from work in a Rolls Royce.
I am a tired American—who is getting madder by the minute at the filth peddlers who have launched Americans in an obscenity race, who try to foist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture.
I am a tired American—wary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit-ins who prefer Chinese Communism to capitalism—who see no evil in Castro, but sneer at President Johnson as a threat to peace.
I am a tired American—who lost all patience with that civil rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college campuses from coast to coast—movies denouncing the United States, movies made in Communist China.
I am a tired American—who is angered by the self-righteous breastbeaters of America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States, but who never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.
I am a tired American—who resents the pimply-faced beatniks who try to represent Americans as the "bad guys on the black horses."
I am a tired American—who is weary of some Negro leaders who, for shock purposes, scream four-letter words in church meetings.
I am a tired American—sickened by the slack-jawed bigots who wrap themselves in bed sheets in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.
I am a tired American—who dislikes clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their own children to private schools.
I am a tired American—who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed. They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.
I am a tired American—who gets more than a little bit weary of the clique in our State Department which chooses to regard a policy of timidity as prudent—the same group which subscribes to a "no-win" policy in Viet Nam.
I am a tired American—real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in all the world—a generous-hearted nation—a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.
I am an American—who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the "Star Spangled Banner" and who holds back tears when he hears those chilling high notes of the brass trumpet when Old Glory reaches the top of the flag pole.
I am a tired American—who wants to start snapping at those phony "high priests" who want us to bow down and worship their false idols and who seek to destroy the belief that America is the land of the free and the home of the brave.
I am a tired American—who thanks a merciful Lord that he was lucky to be born an American citizen—a nation under God, with truly mercy and justice for all.

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, urging that a vote be taken in Congress to gauge support of administration policy in Viet Nam.

"Before the vote is taken, I hope Congress and the Senate will go into a quiet corner and quietly and deeply think what we have been through . . . and then decide which is a vote for war and which is a vote for peace."

MIAMI — Former Ambassador to Cuba Spruille Braden, charging that Russia has recently unloaded missiles in Cuba and warning that the war in Southeast Asia is linked with Western Hemisphere revolutions.

"We cannot separate the Communist war in Viet Nam from what was declared Continental Congress last month for the success of one is predicated on the success of the other. The battle is worldwide."

WASHINGTON — Dr. Raymond Dwell, vice president for research at the University of New York at Buffalo, warning that future world food shortages will foment political upheavals.

"It seems unlikely that stable governments can be maintained where a large part of the population is starving."

CHICAGO — Heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay, alleging that he should be draft exempt because the Black Muslim religious sect, of which he is a member, is against war.

"We don't go to war unless they are declared by Allah himself."

A Bible Thought For Today

And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? — Genesis 3:9.
This is the story of Adam and Eve's fall into sin. Adam accuses Eve and Eve the snake. But God, who knows all, accuses each of them and us. Penitence and a contrite heart, O God, Thou dost not despise.

FALSE WAYS OF SALVATION

Text: And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. (John 3:14-15)
Let us consider several attitudes the serpent-bitten Israelite might have taken toward the serpent of brass which God told Moses to set up in the midst of the camp, that all who looked upon it might live.

Some might have said: "I don't believe it. Snakes would have soon died of the serpent's poison. There are multitudes today who do not believe on the Lord Jesus Christ who was lifted up on the cross to save sinners. Eternal death is the result."
Others might have said: "I don't understand how it can work. It seems unreasonable and unscientific. There is no precedent for such procedure. Death would have been the result. God did not ask the serpent to explain the remedy, any more than He asks us to explain all the principles of the redemptive work of Christ; but to look and live."

Today is Saturday, Feb. 19, the 50th day of 1966 with 315 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase.

The morning star is Venus. The evening star is Jupiter.

On this day in history: In 1878, Thomas Edison received a patent for his invention of the phonograph.

In 1941, Radio Berlin's propaganda division short-circuited an appeal to the United States to send messages to Germany. More than 1,000 Americans responded, most of whom were highly critical of the Nazi regime.

In 1948, American Marines landed at Iwo Jima, beginning a bloody World War II battle for the Japanese-held island.

In 1964, French and Algerian negotiators agreed on preliminary terms of a truce to end the long Algerian civil war.

A thought for the day — Invention: Thomas Edison: "Genius is 10 per cent inspiration and 90 per cent perspiration."

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

by United Press International

WASHINGTON — The Federal Reserve Board reports industrial output in January hit a record 149.9 per cent of the 1957-59 average, up from 148.5 per cent, seasonally adjusted, in December, and 11.3 points above the previous year.

Business inventories rose in December by $1.18 billion, the widest gain in a year.

NEW YORK — The State Banking Superintendent rejected Chase Manhattan Bank's application to become a bank holding company and buy Liberty National Bank of Buffalo. Superintendent Frank Wille said to permit the action would have been to pose a threat to the dual banking system in New York.

NEW YORK — W. R. Grace & Co. has offered to buy up to 700,000 shares or 37 1/2 per cent of Rubenoid Co. at $50 a share. Rubenoid makes roofing and floor tile.

INSULT TO WORKING PEOPLE

The great marvel of the free enterprise system in America is that it is actually guaranteeing a reasonable annual income to everyone in this country, providing he or she is willing to work. No country in history has been so successful in creating job opportunities for its people.

But our society has one criterion, namely, that the individual have a willingness to work. Our economic system is not designed for the drowsy, for the shiftless, and for the fellow who wants to be able in the morning while others are out on the job.

Yet there are some people in this country—people who should know better—who want to redesign our system so that it gives the drowsy equal weight to the worker. In early February, the National Commission on Technology, Automation, and Economic Progress came with a 210-page report endorsing a guaranteed minimum annual wage for every American.

Miss Anna Mae Trevathan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Trevathan, was married to Howell Thurman, son of Mrs. Perry Thurman, on February 15 by Rev. J. H. Thurman at his home.

Death would have been inevitable to such as eternal death is the result. The sinner who fancies he is doing the best he can in spite of what God's Word says to the contrary.
Some might have looked at others and congratulated themselves that they were not so far gone. Others saw a look heal them of the venom? We are not saved because others are greater sinners.
Others might have said: 'Perhaps if I help others worse than myself, the effort will save me.' However commendable from a human standpoint, would it have healed either the helper or the one helped? Good works cannot save the sinner. Looking by faith to Christ who died for us will.

MURDER, MURDER, MURDER

COED MURDERS — James C. Cross Jr., 23, is led handcuffed to court in Austin, Tex., where he is on trial in the "irresistible compulsion" murder of two U. of Texas coeds, Shirley Ann Stark and Susan Rigney. They went to his apartment to shower and change their clothes last July.

GIRL MURDER — Russell Dewey, 26, is handcuffed in San Diego, Calif., after his arrest in the inept murder of Susan Brady, 11, in Rockford, Ill. The twice-married high school dropout worked at landscaping in Rockford, Susan never left home from school Dec. 20.

portant as is personal hygiene. One thing of great importance to me is leadership. I am a Marine officer, and the men instinctively turn to the officers and NCOs for leadership. Once again my Scout Training comes in handy.

The list is endless. Little things like knowing how to sew up a hole in your trousers, sharpen your knife or bayonet, make a sleeping bag out of a blanket and many others. Scouting teaches all of these things. They can make things a lot pleasanter but, more important, they can make life a lot longer. The battlefield is where a man's character really shows up. It separates the men from the boys they say. These "men" out there are 18, 19, 20 years old. We sent our 17-year olds home a few days ago. In 4 or 5 years your Scouts could well be in their shoes.

A boy is made and shaped by the people around him. His parents have the biggest part; but your part as a Scoutmaster is equally as important. Don't ever forget the boys you are teaching today are the men of tomorrow. A boy can only see the present perhaps a bit of the future. It's up to the men around him to guide him on the right path. Today he could be on a hike with you tomorrow he could be on a patrol with me. Things happen that quickly.

This is one place I could bring everything I learned in Scouting to bear. It's been really paying off, yours in Scouting.

There was more to this letter but space would not permit. I think you get the idea.

A victory tonight would even Louisville's conference record at 6-4.

Lakers Win Over Lowes

By GALE GARRISON
The Lakers just did win a real cliff hanger last night, as they defeated Lowes 69 to 67. And if I remember right, this is the first time that Calloway has defeated the Blue Devils at Lowes. I stand to be corrected if I am wrong.
The game was tied 5 times and the lead changed hands 9 times. The longest lead that either team held was 11 points, which Calloway held in the fourth quarter with 6:32 showing on the clock. Lowes biggest lead was 7 points. But most of the time the score was more like one and two points difference, or so it seemed to me.
Lowes began to eat away at the Lakers lead in the fourth quarter with about five minutes left to play, and pulled to within one point in less than three minutes, but were never able to get that much needed basket, before the clock ran out.
Stan Key fouled out with almost 3 minutes left in the fourth quarter, but still led both teams in scoring with 24 points. Donnie Caldwell was high point man for Lowes with 21.

Chrysler Unveils "X"perimental Car

Chrysler has introduced a new research car, the 300X, which offers clues to the future of interior automotive design and driver controls. It is steered with retractable handgrips, instead of a steering wheel. Seats have rubber-diaphragm suspensions, replacing seat springs, and are adjustable with air cells. Key punch cards are used to operate door locks, ignition and radio. There are two TV sets—one to entertain passengers and another to inform the driver on traffic conditions to the rear of the car. Among the convenience items are push button emptying of ash trays by vacuum action and an audible clock which gives the time by tape-recorded voice. The front passenger seat rotates to a rear facing position. All seats have retractable arm rests and integral safety belts which retract out of sight when not in use. SALES TAX DEDUCTIONS—This table is to be used by Kentuckians who itemize sales tax deductions on their 1965 Kentucky individual income tax returns. It is identical to the Federal table for deducting sales tax. In issuing this table, the Kentucky Department of Revenue said previous deductibility tables are now obsolete. If this table is used no additional deductions for sales tax payments will be allowed. If sales tax deductions are made without use of the table, an itemized list of sales tax payments must accompany the return.

Mrs. June Crider Honored At Special Party Given By Murray Star Chapter Eastern Star

A lovely party honoring Mrs. June Crider was given by members of Murray Star Chapter No. 433 Order of the Eastern Star at the Masonic Hall on Saturday evening, February 12.

Mrs. Crider is past worthy matron of the Murray chapter and is also an officer this year. She is presently the grand representative of the grand chapter of Georgia to the Grand Chapter of Kentucky Order of the Eastern Star.

The Murray worthy matron, Mrs. Alice Moffett, welcomed those present and introduced the following distinguished guests: Bill Cates of Mayfield, past grand patron of the OES of Kentucky; Howard McNeely of Murray, deputy grand patron of District 2; Mrs. Nina Lee Hall of Mayfield, Mrs. Shirley Bruce of Cuba, and Mrs. Bagwell of Mayfield, grand representatives; Mrs. Allene Morris of Cuba and Mrs. Geraldine Merryman of Fulton, worthy matrons; Joe Morris of Cuba, worthy patron.

Mrs. Alma McNeely escorted Mrs. Crider to a seat of honor where she was pleasantly surprised by an addendum performed by members of the Murray Assembly No. 19 Order of the Rainbow for Girls. They were beautiful pastel formal and formed a large heart with Mrs. Crider at the point. Each girl paid tribute to the honoree by presenting her with a red, satin heart edged in white lace containing a gift. Mrs. Frances Churchill invited Mrs. Crider to be seated in front of a huge Valentine's card. She was given a corsage of white carnations and tiny red hearts as a gift of the chapter. Mrs. Anna Kahn took each letter of the word, "My Valentine," and composed a reading with each letter forming a word relating to Mrs. Crider. Special gifts were presented by friends to the honoree.

The chapter room was decorated with red roses and hearts carrying out the St. Valentine's motif. The refreshment table was overlaid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of red roses and red hearts flanked by red candles. Individual cakes in the color scheme, red heart mini, red punch, and coffee were served by Mrs. Irene Mitchem, Mrs. Delva Dill, and Mrs. Burlene Lovins.

Mrs. Robbie Wilson and Mrs. Gussie Geurin kept the guest register.

Dear Abby . . .

Let It Be Known!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am almost 30, and for nearly five years I have carried one of your columns in my wallet. It is so worn I can scarcely read it, but it's done me more good than any single thing I've ever read. Please reprint it, Abby, for girls who need the advice as much today as I did then. I am enclosing the column. I am the girl who wrote the letter signed "Mother Hater."

Sincerely yours,
"WISER NOW"

DEAR "WISER": Yes, I'll reprint the column. And here it is: April 2, 1961

"Dear Abby: You will probably think I am a monster, but I am a girl of 14 and I hate my parents. Especially my mother. She is so old-fashioned it's pitiful. She wants to pick out all my clothes and tell me how to wear my hair. And I am the only girl in our crowd who doesn't wear eye make-up. She won't let me go in cars with boys. All she worries about is my reputation, and I swear I haven't done anything wrong. She is killing my chances to go with the right kids and be popular.

Don't tell me to talk it over with her because she will only give me a long lecture on this bull about how it's all for my own good."

I would like to be able to tell her things but, heck, I don't want to get killed. I hate to sneak behind her back, but I have no choice. I am sure I had a different mother, Mother Hater."

"Dear Mother Hater: Girls your age, who feel as you do, regard all adults as the enemy. Perhaps a letter from a girl your age with a different point of view on the same subject will help you more than any advice I could offer.

"DEAR ABBY: I am 14 and think more girls my age should appreciate mothers who love them enough to care about what they do. I feel sorry for young girls my age whose mothers let them go in cars with boys, wear eye make-up and hair, do that are too old for them.

I am not allowed to go on car dates until I am 16. My mother helps me select my clothes. I wear no make-up to school, and only a little on special occasions. My mother has lived a lot longer than I have, and have learned from experience that when she forbids me to do something she always has a good reason for it. I am thankful that I have a mother who loves me enough to raise me right."

FOURTEEN AND LUCKY"

DEAR ABBY: Why doesn't some smart jeweler design a ring to be worn by widows and divorcees to let men know that they are available? It could be some simple little band with a heart or some other symbol on it. One look at that and a man would know at once that there is no husband on the scene.

NEW IDEA
DEAR NEW: An eligible man with sufficient interest in a woman to find out whether there is a "husband on the scene" ain't, and will.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "REVEREND F. IN TULSA: No one said it better than Harry Emerson Fiedler: "Vital religion is the good music. It needs no defense, only rendition. A wrangling controversy in support of religion is as if the members of the orchestra should beat the folks over the head with their violins to prove that the music is beautiful."

Arta Dunn Circle Hears Program By Mrs. McCullough

The Arta Dunn Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Hazel Methodist Church held its regular meeting at the church on Wednesday, February 16, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The circle chairman, Mrs. Onaide Anderson, presided at the business meeting and opened with prayer. She read an interesting article on "What Is the Most Beautiful Thing of Our Life?"

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. McCullough.

During the social hour refreshments were served in the social hall by the hostesses, Mrs. Claude Anderson and Mrs. H. A. Newport.
