This huge transformer will go into the new TVA sub-station here in Murray and made its way slowly through town this morning, tying up traffic in all directions. The monster electrical unit was on a "low-boy" pulled by a large tractor. The men on top are there to ease telephone and power lines over the top of the transformer as it is moved through town. This unit will replace another one which had been installed, but was found to have some defect in it which had to be repaired. Walkie-talkie radios were used by workmen to make their job easier. Professor Albert Tracy Has Developed Debate Technique

Back in 1961, Prof. J. Albert Tracy, head of the Murray State University speech division, had an idea which he hoped would help him develop better college debaters. The idea was to make his freshmen class in debate available to area high schools for assembly programs. Debating before an audience, Prof. Tracy reasoned, the freshmen would soon develop poise and self-assurance. At the same time, the programs would be both entertaining and educational for the high school students. In the first year of the service, about 12 schools were visited. Fifteen years and 50,000 miles later, Murray State debaters have presented programs in 400 high schools. (Continued On Page Five)

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT - One reason Prof. J. Albert Tracy (foreground), the Murray State University debate coach, has his debaters appear on high school assembly programs is so they won't have to practice too often in virtually empty rooms like this one. The strategy works too, as evidenced by the reputation of Murray's debaters throughout the area. Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man. Through God we shall do valiantly. — Psalm 60:11-12.

The person who puts his confidence in his fellowmen is ultimately bound to be disappointed. God and God alone is changeless, the same yesterday, today and forever.

Phil Cutchin To Stay At Oklahoma

SILLWATER, Okla. — Oklahoma State football coach Phil Cutchin said Wednesday he plans to stay at the Big Eight Conference school next season, ending conjecture that he would take the head coach's job at Vanderbilt University.

"It is my feeling that the future of Oklahoma State is very bright," Cutchin said. "It is my plan to be part of this bright future."

"It is my hope that this statement will end all conjecture where I plan to work next season."

The question of the Vanderbilt job arose Tuesday when The Chattanooga Post said Cutchin was expected to be named head coach there.

Cutchin refused comment on whether he had talked with anyone concerning the Vanderbilt vacancy created by the resignation of Jack Green 11 days ago.

Cutchin, whose team finished with a 4-5-1 record the past season, is serving his first year of a five-year contract at an estimated salary of $20,000 plus annually.

Social Security Tax Began At One % On First $3,000

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Social Security program grew from the wretchedness of the Great Depression, and has come to its fullest flower in the Great Society. The following dispatch, first of three, traces its history.

By LOUIS CASSELS United Press International

WASHINGTON — Thirty years ago, the United States was in the grip of a Great Depression. Ten million men were out of work. Eight million families were on the relief rolls.

Movers were saving away dimes to hire painters. Civilians Conversion Corps CCC boys were building roads in national parks. Works Progress Administration WPA workers were raising leaves in city parks.

Franklin D. Roosevelt had just been elected to a second term by the biggest landslide in U. S. history, carrying every state except Maine and Vermont.

It was in the month of November, 1936, that the United States embarked on a program that was destined to have a more far-reaching effect on its economy, and on the lives of millions of people, than any other action of FDR's "New Deal."

It was called Social Security.

Purpose Explained The purpose was explained on posters which were prominently displayed in every U. S. post office. The posters said:

"There is now a law in this country which will give working people something to live on when they are old and have stopped working."

The "something to live on" was a modest sum by today's standards. The original Social Security Act provided for pensions ranging from $10 to $85 a month for fully-covered workers retiring at age 65.

There was no provision for benefits to wives, widows or children.

But any kind of pension was welcome in the depression days of the 30s, when men were glad to find jobs paying 25 cents an hour, and you could buy a new car for $400 if you had $400.

So there was a good deal of excitement around the country in November, 1936, when the Post Office Department began the painstaking task of registering 26 million work-

American Servicemen Killed In Viet Nam Passes 6,000 Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — The number of American servicemen killed in action in Viet Nam has passed the 6,000 mark, the Defense Department disclosed today.

A casualty summary for the week ending last Saturday showed that the 100 killed in action that week raised the total who had died since Jan. 1, 1961 to 6,046.

Of the total, 4,406 have been killed in action this year.

The Pentagon also disclosed that 1,639 servicemen had died in Viet Nam in aircraft accidents and from other causes not related to combat.

Of those, 898 died this year.

The total suffering non-fatal wounds has reached 94,000, including 50,000 this year.

At the same time, it was announced that the total number of servicemen now in Viet Nam had reached almost 300,000, an increase of 2,000 over last week.

The current service manpower figures: Army, 220,000; Navy, 20,000; Marines, 60,000; Air Force, 51,000, and Coast Guard 400.

The initial tax was 1 per cent on both employer and employee, and it was levied only on the first $2,000 of annual income. This year, if you're covered by Social Security, you're paying 4.9 per cent on the first $6,000 of your income, or else three as much as the initial tax.

Of course, Social Security benefits also have been greatly increased.

Next: How Social Security has changed over the past 30 years.

La Salle Points Toward Top Year; Only UCLA Said Better

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer
What many people considered the second best freshman basketball team in the nation last year is itching to prove it deserves the same ranking on a variety basis this season. La Salle College, which hasn't slipped as high since the heyday of Tom Gola 21 years ago, has numerous reasons to feel it deserves a place in the national ratings, not the least of which is its brilliant sophomore corps.

Only UCLA's freshman team, with 7-foot-1 Lew Alcindor and a host of scholastic hot shots, received more favorable publicity than the La Salle rookies last year and sophomores Williams 6-foot-5, Larry Cannon 6-5, Stan Wlodarczyk 6-8 and Fran Scott 6-8 have given a tremendous lift to an already accomplished team.

The entire starting team has returned intact this season except that three starters have been pushed aside by the sophs.

Veterans In Running
Two of those veterans — Rubie Marshall and George Pugh — are not about to be cast aside for anyone. Paul, a strong 6-4 forward, a scrappy 6-foot senior guard who averaged nearly 27 points per game last year, scored 23 at La Salle drubbed Miami of Florida 90-63 for its second win in two games.

Williams and Cannon, just getting the feel of varsity play, accounted for 17 and 16, respectively. Only one member of the top 10 average-ranked New Mexico — Jerry Adams — on the slim national schedule. The Lobos devoured Loyola of Los Angeles 77-50. In the lone upset of note, Wyoming guzzled down 1965-ranked Nebraska 102-96.

SUBSTITUTE PROPOSAL

WASHINGTON 870 — Civil rights leader Bayard Rustin says he'd trade the whole antipoverty program for a guaranteed minimum wage of $2 an hour.

Rustin, director of the A. Phillip Randolph Institute, told the Union of American Hebrew Congregations conference here Monday that antipoverty programs provide "only temporary solutions to long-range problems."

"A $2 minimum wage would be the most important single factor of significance in American life," he said. "It would do more than the entire antipoverty program."

Calloway Invitational To Be One Of Best Tournaments

This year's Calloway County Invitational Tournament is the strongest one of the history of the school. Calloway County High School, which is located on the outskirts of Murray, has had many outstanding Christmas tournaments, and his year's tournament field proves to be the "push" of them all.

Participating will be the Mayfield Cardinals, who recently won the St. Mary's Invitational tournament. May says that this year's Mayfield team looks the best of any Cardinal team, this early in the season.

Calloway County, a team that has surprised everyone in the first region, won third place in St. Mary's tournament during Thanksgiving holidays. Loves High School was picked by the Courier-Journal in a pre-season poll as the number one team in the first region. Loves, which has already proven itself sports the tallest team in the region, with the tallest player being 6'7" Larry Hill. Calloway County High School has been picked in the top five teams of the first region in every poll since November 1, 1965.

This year's team is considered to be one of the two best teams that Calloway County has produced since consolidation in 1960. Murray High School was one of the powerhouse in the Regional Tournament last year and is considered by basketball experts to be just as good this season. Hickman County, a team that doesn't have a senior on the club, is now known to have one of the best junior clubs in Region One. Sechels and Fulton County kicked out the tournament teams. Both clubs are well respected by fellow schools.

In the opening round, Mayfield plays Murray High (7:00 p. m., Dec. 14). Following this game at 8:30 p. m., Dec. 14, the two powers from District One, Hickman County and Carlisle County, will meet for the second time this year. Hickman County won the first game by a narrow margin.

On December 15 at 7:00 p. m., Sedalia plays Fulton County. This game is considered a toss up. Then at 8:30 p. m., Dec. 15, Loves meets Calloway County for the second time this year. Loves beat Calloway four points at Loves earlier in the season, and Calloway will likely be taking its wounds from that defeat.

December 16, the upper bracket semi-finals, the Mayfield-Calloway High winner will be taking on the Hickman County-Carlisle County winner. Following this game, the Sedalia-Fulton County winner will play the Loves-Calloway County winner. The championship game is slated for 8:00 p. m. Saturday night, December 17.

John West, Gene Woods, B. B. Hooks, and Rex Alexander are the officials. Admission: $1 for adults; 50 cents for students. All students must present their I. D. cards or be charged adult prices.

Racers Downed By Bradley 108 to 85 In Hard Contest

The Murray State Racers played an outstanding first half and trailed the Bradley Braves by only two points, at half time. But the Braves came back in the second half and exploded for 56 points to run away with the game, winning 108 to 85. Bradley was led by Joe Allen with 32 points, as they hit an amazing 70 percent from the field. Murray hit 43 percent from the field.

Herb McPherson scored 25 points to lead the Racers in scoring. Billy Chamberler was next in scoring with 18 points. Dick Cunningham added 13 points, and pulled in 16 rebounds. Murray didn't get as many trips to the charity stripe, but took advantage of the trips that they did receive. They hit five of the six trips to the line. Bradley had 29 attempts and connected on 20 of them.

Murray tied the game at 56 all with 16:30 remaining in the game, but Bradley scored 13 straight points to put the game on ice.

Al Smith scored 24 points for Bradley, while teammate L. C. Brown added 23. Bob Swigrie and Chas Crislike each scored 10.

The thoroughbreds return home Saturday for a game with Louisville College.

BRADLEY (108) — Swigrie 10, Westendorf 2, Allen 32, Smith 24, Crislike 10, Brown 23, Lundstrom 2, Simer 2, Berry 3.

Out with the Old - In with the New

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a saver! He saves old magazines, newspapers, sports equipment, clocks, and all kinds of worthless junk. Our basement is loaded with it and so is our guest room. I am at my wits end. If I so much as ask him when he is going to get around to getting that stuff, he blows up. A year ago his aunt died, and she never threw anything away either, so he had all her junk sent over here, and we have it in our garage. Don't tell me to send him to a psychiatrist. YOU should be so crazy.

SICK OF JUNK
DEAR SICK: Your husband is a pack rat. This is fine if you have no more space or if you have a fire hazard, but that's rarely the case. Give the old hoarder one week in which to clean house, and tell him if he doesn't do it, you'll call the Salvation Army. Good will, or some church auxiliary, to pick up the junk and put it to good use. Then do it.

DEAR ABBY: Recently we were invited to a wedding. For a girl we went a shooting silver candle snuffer I just received a note from the bride, thanking us for the "dancing little gray dipper!"

I was stunned when I read it. Should I call the bride and tell her? I'm sure she'd be very much embarrassed if she had guests for dinner and used a candle snuffer for a gray dipper.

DEAR STUNNED: If you really fear that she will use the candle snuffer as a gray dipper, call her and tell her nicely.

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 and am planning my wedding for next spring. My fiance and I both wanted a large wedding. The problem is his new stepmother. After his mom died his dad remarried. We were all real happy until we met her. She never combs her hair, refuses to wear her false teeth, and she is a mess in general. I would be embarrassed to death to have this woman in front of all my friends. My fiance doesn't care for her at all.

Abby, are we going to have to let all our plans go up in smoke and have a small wedding because of this woman? We would appreciate your advice.

Newly Discovered Rubens Does Not Sell

LONDON 8-8—A newly discovered work by Peter Paul Rubens, once bought from a scrap dealer for the price of his frame failed to get a new owner today when the bids for it at an auction fell far short of expectations.

The final bid for "The Judgment of Paris" at the auction at Christie's Sale Room here was $70,500. This did not make the reserve price and the picture was not sold.

The reserve price was not disclosed but there had been expectations the painting would fetch around $200,000.

Another Rubens, an oil sketch of the masterpiece "Samson and Delilah," was sold in the same auction for $70,000 to a London dealer named Halkborough.

TVA TAXES

(Continued From Page One) million from its wholesale power revenues. The payments have grown rapidly with increasing use of electricity, TVA said. The total of $28 million for the 1966 fiscal year compares with $11 million ten years earlier and $4 million twenty years ago. TVA is the largest "taxpayer" to the state of Tennessee. Similarly, most of the municipal distribution systems (including Knoxville, Chattanooga, and Nashville electric systems) are the largest taxpayers to their city governments. The total TVA-distributor payments amounted to more than 7 percent of the power bills paid by homes, farms, business and industry served with TVA electricity. For neighboring privately-owned power companies, the ratio of state and local taxes to revenues ranged from 4.4 to 10.6 percent in 1965. TVA payments in lieu of taxes in fiscal 1966 were about $1,400,000 more than in the previous year. Preliminary calculations indicate TVA's payments for the current fiscal year (which ends next June 30) will increase by another $1,600,000. Tax and tax equivalent payments by the retail distributors increased by about $1,650,000 in fiscal 1966. These payments also have been increasing every year, although it is 100 cents now to this year's increase, TVA said. In the ultimate distribution of the fiscal 1966 payments, cities and towns received about $11,000,000, counties about $5,700,000, and state governments about $7,800,000. Most of the funds received by local governments come from the retail electric systems, while most of the state funds come from TVA. The pattern of this distribution varies among the seven states where TVA power is sold. Each state has its own laws on tax treatment of electric cooperatives, on the tax equivalents paid by municipal systems, and on the redistribution of funds to local governments from TVA. Income of the local municipal and cooperative systems, like incomes of all 3,000 publicly-owned electric systems in America, are not subject to Federal income taxes. TVA paid about $50 million into the U.S. Treasury during the year in dividends on appropriations invested in power property and in a repayment on appropriations. The following table shows the total amounts received by state and local governments in fiscal year 1966 for each state:

Alabama	$ 4,312,294
Georgia	333,698
Illinois	10,000
Indiana	1,906,575
Kentucky	1,407,453
Mississippi	1,407,453
North Carolina	167,771
Tennessee	19,769,548
Virginia	231,111

MAJOR DISASTER

(Continued From Page One) officers. Police kept them out but the crowds broke windows in the building. The 17-year-old vessel was on a regular run from the island of Crete to Athens' port of Piraeus when a great storm of the type once attributed to the story of Zeus sank her near the rocks of Milos Island, where the Venus de Milo was found. The Heraklion, also listed as the Iraklion, was built in Scotland and converted into a ferry about last year. Lloyd's Register of Shipping withdrew its classification when she was sold to the Aegean Steam Navigation Co. last year but refused to say if this concerned seaworthiness. The Heraklion was ploughing through the Gulf of Candia at the lower end of the Aegean when the bad weather blew up into a full gale - winds up to 62 miles an hour which sent gigantic waves smashing into the ship with such force there was no chance of survival. "Huge waves are smashing our sides and water is pouring in," the captain radioed. "SOS... we are sinking," and then there was silence. At the scene there was only scattered debris and a great quantity of oranges and tangerines from the cargo bobbing about in the waves. All indications were it was the greatest ship disaster since a Japanese ferry sank in Tsushima Strait in 1954 with a loss of 1,172 lives and the greatest Greek ship disaster since the Greek cruise ship Lakonia burned 180 miles north of Madeira in the Atlantic three years ago with the loss of 124 lives. Rescue planes and ships in the area reported that some of the survivors were found clinging desperately to jagged rocks on the uninhabited island of Palosomera nearby. Others were plucked from the pounding seas, clinging to wood and other floating debris. Royal Greek air force planes arrived in the area within 30 minutes of the distress call. But there was no sign of the ship, indicating it went down shortly after the report. Searchers reported that debris was scattered along the surface - among it, large quantities of fruit that had been aboard the steamer. U.S. Ambassador Philip Talbot sent his amphibian plane to the shipwreck area to help in the search. U.S. authorities also made a formal offer of aid, but the Greek government said there was no immediate need. The first group of survivors was taken aboard a small ship which steered for the island of Milos, the nearest area with hospital facilities. Meanwhile the Greek government ordered an immediate investigation of the sinking. The

PROF. TRACY

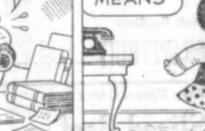

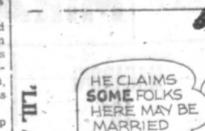

(Continued From Page One) This year's exhibition schedule began October 25 in Murray. Before it winds up on the last day of February, the debaters will have traveled from the Missouri Ozarks to Louisville and from Southern Illinois and Indiana to Western Tennessee. Many of the schools they will visit have been on the schedule in past years. As far as Prof. Tracy is concerned, this is perhaps the biggest indicator of the service's success. "Schools like Louisville, Westwood and Paducah (Virginia don't keep inviting you back if you're not good," he said.

Fins 'n Feathers

By Ed and Lee Smith

We have more new friends, hounds and pictures than you could "shake a 'coon at". We will try to welcome each of you as swiftly as possible. For no earth-shaking reason we can think of off-hand, we feel especially thankful this early a.m. At the risk of repeating ourself to the point of becoming monotonous, our sincerest gratitude to each of you individually and collectively as a group for your daily help and encouragement.

Jimmy Burken and wife, Patsy, have two youngsters — a boy three years old named Ronald Pat, and a 3 months old daughter, La Vonda (pretty and unusual name, huh). When you start naming this boy's dogs it's like calling roll in that one room school house of our time. In the Beagle family he has "Polly", "Sally", "Sarah" — you 'coon hunters who wouldn't know this... Beagles are Rabbit dogs, right? Next he has a Collie named "Maggie", she is trained for Squirrel, and well trained she must be as Jimmie and Erwin Mardis (which we'll tell you more about in a minute) went hunting with "Maggie" Monday and got six squirrels in short order. Jimmy has a young pup which is a Setter bird dog. He is young with not too much training yet, but we'll be watching him. His name is "Rebel". Wonder why we like that name so much? Jimmy and family live at Dexter, on Route One. Welcome to the club young friends and what took you so long?

Erwin Mardis and his son, Gary, have three Beagles. They are "Frank", "Suzy", and "Remus". Erwin, if you're reading us, please call in and fill us in on your family and address. We couldn't find you last night. Mrs. Mardis, you will probably be elected to call us as we've had some knowledge of these shy hunters. Erwin and Gary are Jimmy Burken's hunting buddies.

Jackie Rudolph also hunts with these boys. Jackie owns four Beagles. They are "Buster", "Bettie", "Molly" and "Polly". We didn't find this family either. Please call us and give us the address, phone number and the family's names, etc.

Dr. A. H. Kopperud of 800 Main Street, Murray, and family are proudly welcomed into the "Fins 'n Feathers Club". Dr. Kopperud doesn't actively participate in these sports but he is definitely "in our circle". Thank you sir, we truly appreciate the "roses".

Skip Hale, of Orchard Heights, Murray, the Ledger and Times welcomes you as a new subscriber to our family. You are already a member of "Fins 'n Feathers". It was our pleasure to write your deer and goose story at our very beginning. However you have not been reporting in as we had hoped (how about a story on that big catfish?) We know your hunting partner Gene Pendleton got his deer and some other game. We have paged each of you several times, but no response. Please tell Gene we are awaiting a call from him. Also a report on your latest hunts. This is your club so "cut the modesty bit" and share your fives with the rest of us. PLEASE!

Mr. and Mrs. John Cavitt are working some long hours, therefore Mr. Cavitt isn't getting to hunt much but he says he likes to know what the rest of you hunters are doing. We are ashamed, but we have forgotten his son's name. But we welcome him and Mrs. Cavitt to our club, and thank you all for encouragement. Son, we'll bet you are the first hunter to get your deer next year. You realize it's polite to let your dad have the limelight this year, but you had better watch this boy next season, Mr. Cavitt.

Ronald and Marsha Phillips, it's just possible we have made a mistake in your Beagles names. The ladies are "Suzy" and "Lady", not "Lucy". The first mistake we ever made, huh?

All You Big, Brave Hunters — get your most condescending look ready! We will even pause 60 seconds so you may leave the room. Now, girls, it's your turn. We have received many calls recently from the girls and youngsters, telling us their dogs were smarter than some of the hounds and why can't they be mentioned. We say, why not?

Patsy Burken and children have a beautiful Pekingese lady whose name is "Penny". Patsy and son Ronald Pat are fully convinced she is the smartest dog on the homestead. We're with you, and she doesn't eat as much either. Welcome to the clan, ladies.

Marsha Phillips has a Chihuahua, and she was trying to tell us how smart it is, but as she gave it's name Ronald was making with the "injured husband" sounds in the background and somewhere along the line we lost the doggie's name. Call us again, Marsha, when your brave hunter is hunting a sandwich or something. We have as many girls of all ages and groups as we have men in our little family and we wouldn't have it any other way.

Bonnie Mohundro what are you and the youngsters waiting for?

Bob Miller and Dr. Conrad Jones have duly earned a couple of hours hunting time. By working early and late they managed to get a half day off to bird hunt early in the season. They each bagged their limit and returned to their busy schedule much happier and probably easier to work with, wouldn't you guess. We are still surprised at these two gentlemen being so adept with a gun. Welcome to our Great Society, sirs. Nothing snobbish about these two bird hunters either! We'll have to check again but we believe Bob said we could get some pictures of his bird dogs.

The plan was to run all pictures today but we got so many calls and new members last night that we could not resist the temptation to visit some. We'll print pictures in the little remaining space and try for more tomorrow. But please don't stop calling — we need you! We are getting so much cooperation from you, we could run two or three full newspaper pages daily. As it is, we have already crowded out a number of more important items which isn't fair on our part. We always get so absorbed in our group and activities we forget to leave room for the other fellow and his interests.

SEEN & HEARD

One of the latest articles we have read appeared in the Mayfield Messenger recently. It is a "love letter" from a woman to her husband, who is about to retire. This article was first published in the New Orleans Times-Picayune and is being reprinted here for the enjoyment of our readers.

TO A RETIREE:

"A love letter to a 65-year-old husband who has just retired. "My beloved husband— "I welcome you home with pride and pleasure. There may have been more pleasure in it 30 years ago, but there never would have been more pride.

"And I welcome you with a re-remember of the vow I made to you 43 years ago: I still take you for better or worse. "My pride lies in the fact that you've made it to 65. This is a great achievement, you know. Since you've retired, you must work your way past some formidable dangers—a couple of wars, cancer, heart attacks, automobile crashes, mental breakdowns, and lightning. A man who has survived the perils of these last 50 years is a hero just by still being alive.

"You have survived also the pitfalls of working for a living. There was a frightening period in the Thirties, but you got another job. And from then until now you have held a job against what, at times, must have been rugged circumstances. My life has been good because you did this. At this point I feel only pride that I had a man with the stuff in him to do it.

"Have you realized that by reaching retirement you have brought me — and us — the greatest security we ever had? Always while you were working there was a chance of layoffs, of being fired, of seeing the company go broke, of injury that would make you an invalid, all of which could have stopped our income. None of these things can happen to you any more.

"Now for instructions: "Stay out of my kitchen. "Draw up a chair showing which half of the household chores you intend to take over. "Start cleaning up your ashtrays and other messes you make during the daytime. I'll still take care of your evening and weekend messes.

"Prepare to give me two afternoons a week to be with my women friends.

"Have your eye-glasses checked, then subscribe to a second newspaper, because we're going to have a lot of conversation time from here on and news will help fill it. "Tell Social Security to start sending my check in my own name. It's the first money I've had in my own right in 43 years and I want to see what it feels like.

"Set up in the bank, in your investments, somewhere, at least $250 in my name so I can get it in a hurry if I have any emergency to face alone.

"Read your life insurance policies and let me know what in the world they say, then so make a will. . . that is, if you want your meals on time.

"Be informed that when "retirement letdown" hits you in about a month you will have ten days — no more — to feel sorry for yourself, after which you'll get on with your new life. "I am glad you have come home in retirement, My Dear. As soon as we get acquainted with each other we are going to have a splendid time.

With Love and Kisses,
Your devoted wife."
