Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi party says he wants to improve his party's image. He is going to call his party the National Socialist White People's Party and the rallying cry will be changed from "Sieg Heil" to "White Power".

We do not see that he has improved things very much. He is still the same bigoted no good he has always been and his followers are composed of similar dregs.

Mrs. Johnny Anderson has a Mason jar with the patent date on it.

Mrs. B. H. Cornett has three good ones and one with a little crack in it. She has several others which she is proud of. Uses some of them for vases.

All of these jars are of some value of course, but the only thing (Continued On Page Five)

Two Counties Are Inducted Into Army

Donnie Gale Easley and Bobby Dwan Bassell were the two persons inducted into the United States Army in the December draft call from Calloway County, according to Mrs. Gusie Adams, chief clerk of Local Board No. 10 of the Selective Service. Easley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Easley of Farmington Route Two and Bassell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bassell of Farmington Route One. Both young men were sent to Fort Campbell, but are now home on the Christmas leave granted to all servicemen during the holidays.

$39.54 Average Is Reported For Friday

An average of $39.54 was reported in the sale of air-cured tobacco on the Murray Market on Friday, according to Ollie Barnett, reporter for the local market. Barnett said 100,648 pounds of air-cured tobacco were sold Friday for a total of $3,974.73. Sales were reported to be good for this type of tobacco. Another sale of air-cured will be held on the four Murray floors, Don's, Farris, Growers, and Planters, before Christmas, Barnett said.

Children Urged To Attend Story Hour

Children of ages five and older are urged to attend the special event on Tuesday, December 20, at three p.m. at the Murray-Calloway County Library, when Mrs. Harlan Hodges, popular and talented book reviewer, will tell a story for children. Mrs. Hodges enchants her audience with her warm and appealing way and all children are urged to attend. This will take the place of the regular story hour on Wednesday, Mrs. Margaret Trewhan, librarian, said.

Gasoline Truck Explodes; 5 Die

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — A gasoline truck crashed in heavy rush hour traffic today, splashing flaming gasoline over several automobiles and trapping the drivers. Police said five persons were killed. The coroner's office carried an earlier report that eight bodies had been recovered and announced that only four bodies had been counted. Police ordered a mile and a half area evacuated because of the danger of sewer fumes, exploding. Fingers of flame spread over the crash area and one witness said it was as though a napalm bomb had blasted the neighborhood. Flames shot 50 feet into the air. The crash occurred on the city's northmost side just across the street from St. Andrew's Catholic Church and school. Police said they had not determined how the accident occurred. Sgt. R. Petrusi told reporters he had just let his two children out of his station wagon at the school when the truck jackknifed, overturned and exploded. "It shook me up good," Petrusi said. "In one more second my car would have been involved in the pile-up. I started to get out of the car and then the flames shot up everywhere. I thought the whole neighborhood was going up in flames."

Leslie Jean Clark Orchestra Member

MUNCIE, Ind. — Leslie Jean Clark, Murray, Kentucky, graduate student, is a member of the Concert Orchestra which will perform with the Ball State University Concert Choir and present "The Messiah" at 8 p.m., Sunday, December 18, in Emens Auditorium. This is the traditional Christmas concert given annually by the choir before the Ball State Christmas recess. Don Neuen, director of choral activities at the university, will conduct the 74-voice choir and the 42-piece Ball State Concert Orchestra in singing the famous Handel oratorio. Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larris Neil Clark, 811 Sha-Wa Court, Murray, Kentucky. Tickets for the Christmas program are on sale at the Auditorium box office between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily and will be available at the door prior to the 8 p.m. program Sunday.

Gets Record Of Her Rock And Roll Song

Mrs. Julius Sharpe of Murray has received a record of her two rock and roll songs for which she wrote the words. The songs were published by the Globe Recording Company of Nashville, Tenn., with Ronnie Lane as the vocalist. "Don't Come Back Again" and "Just Hold Your Tater" are the titles of the two songs on the record published by the Nashville company.

The For God and Country Award of the Boy Scouts of America was presented to Alan Weatherly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Weatherly, right, and Jimmy Ramer, son of Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Ramer, left, Sunday at the morning worship at First Methodist Church. Both are members of Troop 45, which is sponsored by the Methodist Men of First Methodist Church. The awards were presented by the minister, Rev. Lloyd W. Ramer. The scouts have spent a year of special study under the direction of the minister and have rendered special service to the church. Don Birchfield is Scoutmaster of Troop 45 and Earl Douglass is Chairman of the Troop Committee.

Dr. Kopperud Chairman Of Dimes Group

Dr. A. H. Kopperud, local real estate developer, today was named chairman of the Business and Industry Committee for the 1967 March of Dimes campaign in Murray. Accepting the chairmanship of the group which will seek individual and corporate contributions for the fight against birth defects, Dr. Kopperud quoted from a recent address by George Champion, chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank: "Business, small and large, should actively set an example of good citizenship and do everything possible to encourage more of their people to participate in civic activities . . . to take a more active role in the affairs of their community."

Two Car Accident Occurs On Sunday

A two car accident occurred at 11:40 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of Main and 12th Streets, according to Sgt. James Whittemore and Patrolman Ed Knight of the Murray Police Department. James Riley Crum, C-1-506 Airborn Inf., Fort Campbell, driving a 1968 Oldsmobile four door, was going east on Main Street and ran a red light, according to the Police. Mrs. Ruby Adams Tallaferr, 1006 Vine Street, driving a 1967 Chevrolet two door hardtop, going north on 12th Street, hit the Crum car in the right rear end as it went through the red light, according to the Police report. Two persons were arrested for public drunkenness and two persons were cited for speeding on Saturday and Sunday by the Police Department. Four persons were arrested for shooting out street lights on Saturday night. They have been turned over to the Calloway County authorities.

Cong Oil Dump Is Hit Near Hanoi

By Bryce Miller United Press International
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes bombed the Ha Gia oil dump 14 1/2 miles from the center of Hanoi today, a U.S. spokesman announced. Communist MIGs rose to intercept the American planes but there were no dogfights. It was the first time American fighter-bombers have returned to the Hanoi area since the raids of last Tuesday and Wednesday when the Communists charged the Americans hit Hanoi residential areas. The previous raids were disclosed first by the Communists in broadcasts which gained them a propaganda edge. The Americans announced the latest raids before Hanoi and Peking radios could react. The Tuesday-Wednesday raids were directed against the Yen Vien railroad yard six miles north-east of the city and the Van Dien truck park five miles south. The raids touched off outcries from throughout the Communist world. Hanoi charged the bombers hit the center of the city and killed or wounded 100 civilians. Communist China and Romania said bombs hit their embassies. Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba said in a speech early today that American bombers hit a few hundred yards from the Cuban Embassy. Announcement of the raids came shortly after 1,400 men of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division landed in South Vietnam to build U.S. troop strength to near the 372,000 mark. It was believed the new division — with the rest of the troops landing soon — might open a whole new chapter in the war by being the first American ground troops to challenge the Communists in their Mekong Delta stronghold. The arrival of the 1,400 fresh troops at the resort port of Vung Tau, 45 miles south of Saigon, brought American forces in Vietnam to more than 370,000 men, an all-time high. Arrival of more elements of the division was expected to lift troop strength to over 380,000 by the time the Christmas and New Years' holiday ceasefire ends. American officials refused to comment on where the new troops would be stationed. But there was

J. C. Emerson of South Second Street, Mayfield, father of Mrs. L. D. Miller of Murray, died Saturday at three p.m. at his home at the age of 83.

Hardin Woman Killed In Benton Wreck

Mrs. Vera Copeland Walston of Hardin, age 60, was killed Saturday in a head-on collision near Benton. She was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Copeland of Kirksy Route Two. The Hardin woman died instantly when the car she was driving collided with a car being driven by Johnny Russell Washburn, age 32, of Benton Route Five, according to Kentucky State Trooper James Barnett. Mrs. Walston was the widow of Roscoe Walston who died in August of this year. She was an employee of the Ken Bar Inn and was enroute home from work when the fatal accident occurred. Washburn was admitted to the Benton Municipal Hospital with compound injuries of the leg and other parts of the body. The accident happened Saturday at 2:30 p.m. on U.S. 641 in the south city limits of Benton. Trooper Barnett said both drivers were traveling alone and Mrs. Walston was traveling south. Funeral services for Mrs. Walston were held at 1:30 p.m. today at the Hardin Baptist Church with J. R. Hale officiating with burial in the Marshall County Memory Gardens. Pallbearers were Les Myers, Corbett Tucker, Lesman Miller, John Grody, Hershall Wyatt, and Tom Pace. Survivors are her mother; three sisters, Mrs. Woodrow Norworthy of Kirksy Route Two, Mrs. Polk Jones of Tipp City, Ohio, and Mrs. John Paul of Clawson, Mich.; four brothers, Tom Copeland of Benton, Norvie Copeland of Detroit, Mich., Rev. Wade Copeland and Rev. Paul Thomas Copeland of Fredonia. The Linn Funeral Home of Benton was in charge of the arrangements. (Continued On Page Five)

Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

WASHINGTON — Michigan Gov. George Romney, commenting on President Johnson's position in the 1968 elections: "I think there is a basis of beginning to wonder whether circumstances might develop as a result of which he (Johnson) would decide not to run."

MOSCOW — One of four American women visiting North Vietnam to inspect bomb damage and talk with President Ho Chi Minh and captured American pilots: "I left my four children to make this trip. The American people are not getting the facts. The press and television are controlled. I'm going to find out what the facts are."

NEW YORK — William Manchester, the author of "The Death of a President," denying Kennedy family charges that he brok an agreement requiring approval of the book before publication: "I am confident that my book can withstand any objective test—particularly the test of time. I ask only that it be given the chance."

LUND, Sweden — Ex-Catholic Priest Harold M. Koch, announcing he will return to the United States after a three-month defection to the Soviet Union: "I'm an American with a great love for my country. But when you love somebody you are apt to criticize. I have only exercised my right of free speech and, since I believe every American has this right, I see no reason why I should not return."

A Bible Thought For Today

O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? Why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture? —Psalm 74:1.

The Psalmist describes the destruction of the temple and prays God for redress. He is not discouraged, nor should we ever be. We can trust Him to help us.

Kennedy Defends Lottery System

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Edward Kennedy Tuesday defended his proposed lottery as a replacement for the present draft system, saying his proposal cured many of the ills of the Selective Service System.

The Massachusetts Democrat said at a news conference a lottery "does not distinguish between the rich boy and the poor boy, between the college boy and the non-college boy — after the age of 18 — the married boy and the unmarried boy."

He said that under the present system, American youth is forced to "play a crap game of chance" under a system that lacks the elements of fairness, flexibility and "a degree of predictability."

Kennedy's lottery and anthropologist Margaret Mead's system of "universal voluntary service" were the principle alternatives to the present draft system advanced at the national conference on the draft which wound up recently.

Final three-hour session was scheduled with any conclusions reached tonight to be forwarded to the President's Advisory Commission on the Selective Service. The current Selective Service Act expires June 30, 1967, and will be a top item on the agenda of the 90th Congress.

Miss Mead said a system of universal voluntary service would enable 18-year-olds of both sexes to choose between two years of military service and two years in one of many "approved" social service programs "in what the country felt was important."

She said overseas duty would be involved in the type of national service she proposed and that women could be used "in support positions."

"I do not believe in using women in fierce defense fights, because women are too fierce."

She said the removal of the possibility of being "drafted" would eliminate tensions young men face today and give all young people "a chance to make up anything they've lost."

Under a six-year plan to combat juvenile delinquency announced by Governor Edward T. Brooke III, 21 new buildings will be constructed and four will be renovated, so that 1,337 children may be accommodated at one time.

Ambulance Service To Continue

MCKENZIE, Tenn. (AP) — A group of West Tennessee funeral home directors agreed Thursday to continue to provide ambulance service to six West Tennessee counties.

Directors from Henry, Carroll, Gibson and Benton counties agreed to increase service rates to a common level effective Jan. 1 to offset increased operation costs.

Representatives of funeral homes in Weakley and Henderson counties, however, refused to agree on a standard increase but said they would continue the operation of ambulances on a temporary basis only.

"There is no city or county agency which could take over ambulance service from the funeral homes in this locality," said spokesman John Fitzgony, president of Ridgeway Morticians of Paris. "As funeral directors, we feel a definite duty to the public and will not endanger the welfare of our people by any hasty action."

Jack Brummitt, who operates funeral homes in McKenzie and Trezevant, said the federal minimum wage laws are not the sole reason for the discontinuance of ambulance service by many funeral homes.

Dear Abby

Far Better To Give Than to Receive

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Now that Christmas is nearly here, I want to air something that has irritated me for a long time.

It's people who don't send Christmas gifts anymore. Instead they send you a tacky card informing you that "a gift in your name" has been sent to THEIR favorite charity. That way they don't have to bother shopping for Christmas gifts, and all their "gifts" are listed as a deductible expense on their tax return. Pretty cute, if you ask me.

"WISE" IN NEW HAVEN
DEAR WISE: Sorry, but I disagree. I think one of the more civilized practices of recent years is donating to charity instead of sending extravagant gifts to people who already have more than they need.

Knowing that a contribution to a worthy cause had been made in my name would be "gift" enough for me. He who takes but never gives may last for years, but never lives.

DEAR ABBY: Seven years ago I did a terrible thing. I had an affair with a man. His wife sued him for divorce, but they went back together again, thank God.

My wonderful husband forgave me, and we moved out of town. I have found God now and am leading a good life.

I am a teacher's aid at school. When school started last fall I found out that the wife of the man I had the affair with is our student counselor. She can ruin my whole life by telling the others teachers about my past.

Should we move again? The dear Lord knows I have suffered enough for my sins. I am getting very nervous over this. Please answer soon.

DEAR DESPERATE: Hands off the panic button. Stay where you are for the present. In all probability she will not disclose your past because her husband's role in it. Forget it and continue to lead the good life.

DEAR ABBY: We have some friends whose teen-aged son was killed recently. Wanting to be of some help, I fried three chickens, wrapped them in aluminum foil and sent them to their home in a large cardboard box. I thought that poor mother had enough on her mind without worrying about returning a fancy platter or tray.

A friend told me that I shouldn't.

Because if you want all these features in one car, you've got to want a '67 Ford. Your Ford Dealer can give you the uncombed story. But here's an idea of what Ford offers.

SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic transmission really gives you two shifts in one. It shifts automatically or lets you shift manually. That way you can pick the right gear to suit road conditions or just shift for fun (standard on XL and LTD).

The strongest, quietest, best built Fords in history offer you a variety of exclusive features to make your driving easier and more enjoyable. Like doors that lock automatically and Comfort-Stream Ventilation that exhausts stale air with windows closed. Add to this Ford's durability and famous quiet ride, and you've got a lot of good reasons to visit your Ford Dealer before you buy any new car.

Convenience Control Panel reminds you to fasten seat belts, warns you if a door is ajar or fuel is low.

Found a fly in the house yesterday. Figured they had all been caught by the freezing weather, but this one had made it through.
Put more bulbs in the ground yesterday afternoon. Perfect day for it since the ground was soft, but not muddy.

Mr. Andrew Wilson comes in with some news of Fort Hyman. Says folks have been asking him about the Fort and where it is. The Fort is located high on the limestone bluff overlooking the Tennessee River, sixteen miles southeast of Murray in the corner of Calloway County.

was in these river bottoms all the way to the Kentucky-Tennessee border that General U.S. Grant gained ground.
Fort Henry was poorly located at best, he says, but in February 1861 the Tennessee River was at flood stage, forcing the Confederates to leave the entrenchments to seek higher ground. When General Grant's 15,000 men marched down both sides of the river on February 6, they found Fort Henry to be a shambles but Fort Hyman was in good shape with trenches already dug. The Federals also had gun boats in the river at Fort Henry. One gunboat was sunk on the west side of the river at Old Angela Landing 600 or 700 feet west of the Rainey Wells house on the Bluff Rocks.

Mr. Wilson says that old people said there was a large safe containing money which went down with the boat and as far as is known it never was found.

There is a marker on Highway 121 at New Mt. Carmel Church. The Fort is located south east and is on private property and not marked. It is in a woods filled with pine trees and the old brass works still are there.

Thanks Mr. Wilson for this report on Fort Hyman. Mr. Wilson brought in a perfectly formed slug from guns which were used on the gunboats. Looked to be about 45 to 55 caliber. Don't know what caliber was used in the Civil War.

Did you hear about the mail boy who put a dollar into the Xerox machine and made a copy? He took the copy of the dollar and put it into a change machine at the airport. Know what came out? Xerox copies of four quarters.

Letter To The Editor

As you know, I am now a candidate for the office of state school superintendent. Under these circumstances it may be in conflict with your editorial policies to publish a weekly column that is prepared by and credited to an announced candidate. I can understand your thinking -- if that be the case -- and I personally feel that it would be in bad taste for me to continue the circulation of such a column. Consequently, this is the last week that my column will be issued. In order to service the many Kentucky newspapers that have carried the column to be noteworthy, the department's information sessions will continue to issue weekly news packets that your readers might find of interest. The format will be the same and the title will be the same; but I will no longer be identified in the column heading.

I hope that you will continue to find useful information in the column and, at any rate, let me express my sincere appreciation for your support during the past three years of my term as commissioner of agriculture.

serve as honorary chairman of the Board of Advisory Editors for the publication, has said the book is especially meaningful to her because the achievements and abilities of women is a subject close to her heart.

Selections for Outstanding Young Women of America are made by the Board of Advisory Editors. Mrs. Dexter Oles Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is chairman.

United States Senator Margaret Chase Smith, in her introductory message for the 1965 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America, said, "This book calls attention to the great capabilities of our young women and their ability to get things done."

Miss Edna Adams, Director of the United States Mint, says the women included in the 1965 edition "are marked for recognition because they shunned mediocrity." The publication was conceived by the leaders of the nation's women's clubs. They felt that young women who give their time for community projects should be recognized. The recognition of these outstanding women can serve to inspire others to give their time to additional civic responsibilities. Local women's clubs throughout the country submit nominations for the book each year. A different group of outstanding young women is included each year. Guidelines for selection include unselfish service to others, charitable activities, community service, professional excellence, business advancement, and civic and professional recognition. The book is 7" x 10" in size and contains 800 pages. The binding is blue with gold embossing.

WHAT'S GOING ON HERE

In looking back over the Department's work of the past year, I am pleased with the new service and promotional programs that were initiated. For example, two major shows were added for the promotion of Kentucky livestock.

This year the Department sponsored the first state-wide show for 4-H and FFA beef breeding animals. The event was held at Elizabethton and received a good response among youths with beef projects. Shows for exhibiting steers have been held for a number of years. However, Department personnel and various agricultural leaders felt that a show should be staged for 4-H and FFA members engaged in building a livestock herd. Needless to say, we hope to expand this program.

Another cattle show, the Louisville Steer and Carcass Show, will be held in March. Plans for this event were started early this year. It will replace the old Bourbon Beef Show which was held in Louisville for a number of years.

Plans for another district barrow show were made this year. This show, the Blue Grass Barrow Show and Carcass Contest, will be held at Paris in January.

A total of 59 fairs received financial aid for agriculture during 1966. Participating fairs had an average expenditure of $2,000 for crops and livestock, one of the highest averages the program has ever enjoyed. Last year, 26 fairs received the $1,500 maximum in State aid.

In the area of marketing, the Division of Markets has made a number of changes during the past year. Division specialists are now doing work in more than one specialized area. For example, the dairy specialists might work with poultry. This plan allows the Division to give a wider range of services with the same number of people.

A grain market news report was started this fall. Daily reports are being issued on price, volume and market trends. This new service has been well received by all factions of the grain industry. A number of publications have been prepared by the Department. These include two books on honey; a report on marketing of livestock; the second annual tobacco market report, and a report on dairy products. A new brochure on the Department was published and I feel that it will get a wide acceptance throughout the State, particularly among students. It not only gives a full report on the activities of the Department of Agriculture, but also gives much general information about the Commonwealth.

CHAPTER 26

AT ONE MINUTE before eleven, Dr. Clark Fowler stopped at Harry Noble's office. "Can you come down to my office for a few minutes, Noble? There's—there's something kind of strange going on. Want to talk to you about it?" "Can't we talk here?" "I've got some lab work going. It's important, Noble. Especially to you."

"Yes, that's right," Harry went to the door. "Thanks again." He went out. After a moment Fowler said, "He just left. I didn't know what to say to him after I told him what you said for me to say, Karen, are you sure it's going to work? I—after all kidnapping is—" "It's not kidnapping, you idiot! She's sitting right out there in the car of her own free will. Now hang up and get started up here."

"All right... I'll be there," Karen Rogers put the phone on the hook and went back to the car. "I tried my office and the apartment and still no answer. I think Clark's doing some lab work at his office. I'm going to phone him and tell him to keep an eye out for Harry. She went back inside the station and dialed the number of Harry Noble's office. It was answered on the first ring. "Harry? This is Karen Rogers. I've got a business proposition for you. We're on the way to Margarette Swallow's place at Lake Sidney. We want you to come up, Harry, and we want you to bring the money with you. All two hundred and seventy-five thousand of it."

"What was that again?" he asked now. "Dr. Clark Fowler had the drawn expression of a man caught in a swift current, fast, unthinkingly stepping off into deep water. Margarette Swallow's recounting of what had just taken place did nothing to alleviate his uneasiness. "She—she acts so peculiar. Dr. Fowler, the girl was simply asking a question and the very next thing I knew Karen had actually shot at her. "If I had shot at her, Margarette, I wouldn't have missed." She lifted the little automatic, looked at it and then dropped it into her purse or a table. "My father never quite got over the shock that I was a girl. I knew how to swear, fish and shoot long before I knew there was more difference between boys and girls than the length of hair or the sort of clothes they wore."

"What—what did—now did Noble react?" Fowler asked. "He'll be here with the money." Karen looked at her watch. It was already one o'clock. "He should be here soon."

"Harry needed some sort of trump of his own, and the sack of money was the only card he had." The story reaches a climax tomorrow.

Veterans Questions & Answers

Q - I draw $66 a month from Social Security, but $3 is deducted for Medicare. Do I report the full amount when I turn in my income to the VA? A - Yes. You report the full amount before any deductions. Q - If a veteran's child marries is he or she still eligible for compensation from the VA? A - No. Q - What procedures are necessary to have other than honorable discharge reviewed in accordance with the new laws signed by President Johnson? A - An exemplary rehabilitation certificate may be issued when certain requirements are met, such as evidence that over a period of not less than 3 years the veteran has rehabilitated himself. This evidence includes notarized statements from employers, law enforcement officers, and not less than 3 persons who have known the veteran for this period, to the effect that he is of good character and has shown exemplary conduct. Applications and instructions will soon be available at U.S. Employment Service offices, and will be handled by the Department of Labor, not the Veterans Administration.

PEANUTS

COPY NOT ALL READABLE

The Twin Lakes Coonhunters Club held its monthly Coon Hunt last Saturday night. This month we had a Buddy Hunt. Twenty dogs were entered in this hunt.

The first place winner was Ted Atkins and Terry Edwards, Hardin, 350+ plus points. The second place trophy was won by Elvin Thompson and Bill Mohundro with 350+ points; the third place trophy was won by Leon Andrus, Hardin, and Pat Pierce, Benton, 150+ points.

The Twin Lakes Coonhunters Club would like to thank the men from Calloway County for their help in making this hunt a nice hunt to end the year with. The Twin Lakes fellows said that they would like to wish each and everyone a Very Merry Christmas and hope to start the New Year with a bang!

Starting January 21 the Twin Lakes boys are holding a Free Coon Supper, Wild Coon Hunt and the drawing for the $50 or the Wheat Light, whichever the winner chooses.

Judges for the hunt Saturday night were: Joe Pat Jones, Leon Andrus, Joe McKinney, Lowell O'Daniel and Ted Atkins. Master of Hounds was Macon Clapp.

Patsy Pierce, wife of Pat Pierce reported the above information for the club.

Our very special thanks to Henry Major, from Concord, R. J. McDougal, Almo, Bill Mohundro and Bill Etheron from Martin Oil Co., W. F. Glover, Hardin, and Red Thompson, Murray. Also to all the other Calloway boys we didn't know. Our thanks to our buddies who figure "two Coon in the hand is worth one in the tree". These boys and hounds will never miss an opportunity to capture ole ringtail. They made their appearance and that's all we ask. The reason these guys deserve and get special thanks is they are the "non glory seekers". They don't have the need to prove anything to anybody.

The trophies are nice but prove absolutely nothing! We knew before the hunt these were good dogs and hunters and we know the losers are just as good and better than some of the winners.

Boys, you came through in fine style, just as we knew you would. You're on your own now, and thank you!

Bad luck seems to be hounding Ted Atkins. His big beautiful Walker hound, "Spot", died Friday night. We are indeed sorry. We are very pleased to report that "Black Jack", Ted's Black and Tan, is home again. He was lost and we sweated the weekend out hoping for him to be found. Ted's little daughter, called us early yesterday morning to tell us "Black Jack" is safe.

Help Friends! Another hound has been stolen. Ronald Phillips' Black and Tan hound was taken from their home about two weeks ago. The hound's name is "Dan". He wasn't wearing a collar at the time. This hound is very dark in the face which gives him a mean look. Please help us find "Dan". Call us any hour (753-2450) or Ronald Phillips 753-7789. We are fond of this youngster, his wife Marsha, and their real 'Cooner, young Jamie. We want "Dan" returned to this very nice family.

We got our first good look at a Redtick hound without being bothered by owners. This very well mannered gentleman is "Jackson", owned by the Pat Pierce family. He is beautiful friendly and a real dog. He has trophies galore for those of you who feel this proves something. This big fellow was standing in a truck, untied, and had the opportunity to leave at any time. He didn't budge, just poked his head out and accepted all the attention available. Patsy Pierce has a nice family and home. Thank you for the help and hospitality.

We knew in advance the Ted Atkins family had to be nice. We had met Gary, Sammy and the hounds, so we knew Dorothy Nell, Ted and the young ladies would be just as helpful and friendly. If we ever get the pictures back we'll tell you about the hounds. That will take some doing.

We missed our greatest chance to get a picture of "Mama Me'o". Ned went home and got all prettied up 'cause he knew "Mama Me'o" was gonna get that first place trophy, then he and Mrs. Edwards went home before the hounds came in. Ned, why don't you bring your bride and "Mama Me'o" by the office? We'll fight that camera until we get at least one good picture.

We have missed a lot of nice people we're sure, so let's just say Thank You to all the fellows, their wives and children we met Saturday night. More than three people in a crowd at once scares us to death! Maxine Jones and Eva Andrus are nice and friendly. Seems there were seven wives there, but we're hopelessly lost. Our apologies to each of you, but don't feel badly. We only got to see about three hounds up close. These ladies and children stayed with us until nearly 3 a.m.

We saw Dale Garland's "Little John". Guess Linda stayed home with the three boys and "Big John". We're told you about these hounds but we enjoyed the brief visit with "Little John" who, by the way, is not so little.

Neil York and Norma and youngsters are as nice as people can be. Neil York and Ronald Phillips are always "grinning" like the possums they hope their hounds won't chase. These young men are always courteous.

Calloway Lakers Win Tourney Over Mayfield Here 58-53

By GALE GARRISON
The Calloway County Lakers won their own Christmas Tournament Saturday night, by defeating Mayfield, in a real cliff hanger, 58 to 53.
Mayfield jumped out to a four to nothing lead, on back to back field goals by Harold Blythe and Keith Hill, just a little over a minute after the start of the game.
Henry Armstrong broke the ice for Calloway with a 6-7 left in the quarter, but Walter Clapp put Mayfield four points out in front again.
Calloway kept cutting away at the lead, and with 1:15 on the clock, Stan Key gave the Lakers their first lead at 11 to 16. Dennis Williamson scored for the Cards, to take the lead back, Clayton Hargrove scored, making the score 13 to 12. Three straight steals by Calloway resulted in four points, and the Lakers led 17 to 12, at the quarter.
The Lakers led-by as much as five points in the second quarter before Mayfield made a comeback, to tie the ball game up, and take a one point lead, four different times, before the half. But Calloway also came back and led by three points at half time, 30 to 27.
The third quarter was tied three

Racers Riding Three Game Win Streak

Murray State's Racers, riding a three-game winning streak and 5-2 for the season, will tangle with powerful Western Kentucky in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament tonight.

Western, heavy favorite to win the tournament as well as the OVC season championship, was 3-1 going into its game with Butler Saturday night. The Hilltoppers won both the tournament and season championship last season, and four of the five starters of that team are back.

Racer Coach Cal Luther saw Western beat a strong Pan American team Thursday night and reports that it would take "the best possible effort" from his team to beat the Toppers.

Murray won the conference tournament two years ago beating Western 77-69 in the finals. Last year, the Racers were edged by Eastern Kentucky in a first round game. Since losing its opener to Vanderbilt 76-70, Western has beaten Memphis State, Tampa, and Pan American. Murray's wins have been over Georgia Southern, Southwestern of Memphis, Louisiana College, Oglethorpe, and Kansas State of Emporia.

Murray's Don Duncan will take a string of 25 consecutive free throws into the tournament. The 5-11 Racer guard hit his last 5 attempts against Louisiana College, hit 14 against Oglethorpe, and 6 of 6 against Kansas State. His string broke the Murray record of 20 consecutive free throws which he set last year and is only three shy of the OVC record. His 14 of 14 against Oglethorpe set Murray and OVC records for consecutive free throws in a single game. He has hit 45 of 48 for the season and should rank in the top five in the nation in next week's report.

Herb McPherson continues to pace the Racers in scoring with a 23.9 average. Billy Chumler is averaging 15.9 points, Duncan 15.3, Dick Cunningham 11.6, and Rick Haverstock 8.7.

Cunningham, who was eighth in the nation this week in rebounding pulled in 29 against Kansas State and raised his average to 18.9. The Murray-Western game is scheduled for 9 p. m. and will be last game of the opening round. Other first round games will be between Middle Tennessee and Austin Peay at 1 p. m.; East Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky at 3 p. m.; and Morehead and Tennessee Tech at 7 p. m.

Tickets for the tournament will be available at Convention Center. Reserved seat single-session tickets are $3, $2.50, and $2. General admission tickets are $1. Reserved seats for the entire tournament are $11, $9, and $7.
A reception for Murray alumni is scheduled from 4-7 p. m. in the Kentucky Hotel, Monday.

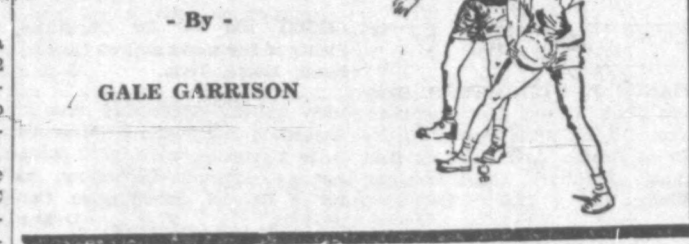

TOURING ROYALTY

MONTE CARLO (UPI) — Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco will travel to several nations in west Africa next February.

An announcement from the royal palace said the couple would make the trip as tourists.

Time Out

The Calloway County Lakers took to the floor with revenge written on the wall, and victory in their hearts and found both, much to the dismay of Mayfield, Saturday night as the Lakers won their own tourney for the second time in the six years that it has been played. This may not be a record but it is a very good average.

As a matter of fact there seems to be an unwritten rule that the host team never can win their own tourney. Maybe the Lakers don't know about this rule. If they don't, PLEASE, don't anyone tell them.

The tournament was one of the best that has ever been held at Jeffery Gym. All the games were good ones and fairly evenly matched teams playing each other. This fact was really brought out in the finals. The attendance was a record breaking number, and it was handled as well as any tourney that I have been to. Congratulations to all the personnel at Calloway County High School who made this tourney possible.

While we're saying nice things about nice people, congratulations to the Mayfield Cardinals for their fine performance in the tourney by reaching the finals. Coach Don Sparks has a real fine team, and he is a real fine fellow also.

This week's cheerleader is Phyllis Cunningham. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finney of 1712 Calloway Ave.

This is Phyllis' second year as Varsity Cheerleader, and says she enjoys it very much. She also enjoys many sports, but her favorites are basketball, skating, and swimming. She is a member of F.H.A., F.B.L.A., and the Pep Club.

After graduation Phyllis plans to attend college and major in physical education.

Kim Eddie keeps on picking them, and doing a pretty good job of it. He missed two Tuesday night and one in the Christmas Tourney.

There are not many games this week, but here are the Washington Prognostications for the week. Wingo over Fulton County, North over Symsonia, Benton over Murray High, Mayfield over South, and in the only Thursday game, Cottage Grove over Farmington. Friday, Fredonia over Farmington, and Mayfield over Martin, Tenn.

I don't like to go out on a limb, or to disagree with Kim, because he is hitting a high average, but I say Murray over Benton.

Now the way I look at it, this is the first time I have picked one team over the other this year, so I will be batting a thousand or zero, after the game. So Tigers don't let me down, go to Benton tomorrow night and come back with a win.
