Clem Haskins Will Not Play Here Saturday

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) — Clem Haskins, star basketball player for nationally ranked Western Kentucky has been given the go ahead to play but Hilltopper coach Johnny Oldham said the 6-3 senior would not play in Saturday night's game against Murray.

Oldham said Haskins would need the extra time to get adjusted to the tape. He added the senior would probably play in the Hilltoppers Monday night game with Austin Peay.

Western won the Ohio Valley Conference crown Monday night with a win over Eastern Kentucky.

Says Pilot Was Involved In Events Leading To Killing

By THOMAS K. HARVEY United Press International

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The operator of a private airline service whom Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison said was involved in events leading to the assassination of President Kennedy was found dead Wednesday a few days before Garrison planned to arrest him.

The district attorney called the death of David W. Ferris, 49, apparent suicide.

Coroner Nicholas J. Christa said death resulted from a blood vessel rupture at the base of the brain.

The coroner's office, however, declined to be specific on what might have caused the vessel to rupture pending the outcome of tests.

Lines pilot, was found dead in the bedroom of his apartment in an upper middle-class neighborhood.

Claims Assassination Tie Garrison described the dead man as "one of history's most important individuals" and said he was "involved in events culminating in the assassination of President Kennedy."

Garrison, at a hurried news conference, announced dramatically he now was not even accepting the theory that Lee Harvey Oswald killed Kennedy in 1963.

"I have no reason to believe at this time that Lee Harvey Oswald killed anybody in Dallas on Nov. 22," Garrison said.

The Warren Commission headed by U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren concluded Oswald was the assassin and acted alone.

Garrison disagreed last weekend in announcing his office had been investigating for three months a conspiracy to kill Kennedy hatched in New Orleans.

Ferris' name was mentioned in the Warren Commission Report and he was questioned here shortly after the assassination. He came under investigation again in Garrison's new probe.

Ferris said in a copyrighted interview Saturday with the New Orleans States-Item said he was a "getaway pilot in an elaborate plot" to kill Kennedy.

Garrison said he had feared Ferris might commit suicide. "Because of this... we had reached a decision to arrest him (Continued On Page Eight)

Henry Ward

Henry Ward Files For Governor

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23 — The primary objective of his campaign is to unite people who are devoted to programs for the benefit of all Kentuckians, Henry Ward said here today in filing officially as a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

"I am not interested in developing a Ward faction of the Democratic party," he said. "I want to unite and work with Kentuckians who share the same interests that I have — and these are a continuation of the efforts to make Kentucky a better place in which to live."

"I am gratified that people in every county in Kentucky have responded to this type of campaign objective, and have joined in the movement to win the nomination in May and final election in November. They include Democrats from every segment of Kentucky life and every one of the various groups which make up the Democratic party," Ward continued.

"They also include countless independent voters — both Democrats and Republicans — whose interest in the welfare of their state rises above partisan politics.

"The watchword of my administration will be 'Integrity.' To me that means integrity of purpose and integrity in performance. I do not intend to make a promise that I know cannot be kept. I intend to keep any promises that I make. That's what I mean by integrity."

Chemistry Instructor At MSU Is Winner Of Fellowship Grant

A Murray State University chemistry professor has received a National Science Foundation Faculty Fellowship for graduate study toward the Ph.D. degree.

Beginning in September, Howell R. Clark, assistant professor and member of the Murray faculty since 1962, will be on leave of absence while he attends Vanderbilt University in Nashville.

The fellowship, equal to his regular teaching salary, is for a period of 15 months.

Clark, a native of Calloway County, received his bachelor's degree from Murray State and his M.S. in chemistry at the University of Tennessee. He works research and development for a chemical company in Houston for two years before returning to Murray.

During 1966 Clark served as secretary of the Kentucky Lake Section of the American Chemical Society.

He is the third member of the MSU chemistry and geology department to receive such a fellowship in recent years.

The others are Dr. Donald G. Hicks, now at Georgia State College in Atlanta, who completed his Ph.D. in chemistry at the University of Tennessee in 1964, and Armin L. Clark, assistant professor of geology, who is currently quoted at Tennessee.

Committee Is Formed Here To Aid In The Restoring Of Art

Faculty members of Murray State University have formed a local fund-raising campaign in Western Kentucky for C.R.I.A., the Committee to Rescue Italian Art.

Mrs. Anne Markham, English Department, Dr. Frank Stealy, History Department, and John D. Moorey, local C.R.I.A. chairman, Art Division, have announced that the residents of Murray will have the opportunity of donating to the cause this Saturday evening at the entrances to Murray State Fieldhouse where the Murray-Western basketball game will be held, or by sending contributions to C.R.I.A., 5% Art Division, Murray State University.

Regional chairman for Kentucky, Dr. Dario Govi, University of Louisville estimates that $2,000,000 is needed urgently to begin work of restoration.

The November 4 floods devastated the city of Florence, Italy and caused an incalculable amount of human suffering and loss of the artistic treasures of Western civilization. Some 850 works of art and thousands of volumes of manuscripts and books can be restored if the urgently needed funds can be raised.

Residents of Murray and Calloway County are asked to help in this national campaign to restore the priceless artifacts damaged by flood waters, mud and fuel oil seep.

Student volunteers will be at all entrances to the fieldhouse Saturday evening with containers to collect funds for the massive restoration project.

Recently N.B.C.-TV produced an hour long program, "Bravo Picasso," in which a painting which Picasso contributed, was auctioned for $105,000. Proceeds from this auction went to help the city of Florence.

All contributions are tax deductible.

Elementary School Safe Broken Apart And $300 In Cash Stolen

Thieves entered Kirksey School last night, smashed open a safe in the school office and took approximately $300.

The Sheriff's office is working on the case today with the assistance of Murray Police Chief Brent Manning who took several fingerprints.

Deputy Sheriff Curt Willoughby said this morning that the thieves entered the school by a west window. The window apparently was not locked and was just raised by the thieves. Even had it been locked, the thieves apparently would have broken a glass to gain admittance if it is believed.

Making their way to the school office the thieves used a sledge hammer and literally smashed the front of the safe. The door of the safe was smashed by the sledge hammer until it became concave in shape, pulling the rivets from the hinges. Indentations in the safe door indicate plainly where the sledge hammer hit.

The thieves left by the door and this morning two open doors and an open window were found when school authorities reached the school.

Several filing cabinets were moved in order for the thieves to make room to swing the sledge hammers. Fingerprints were taken from these filing cabinets.

Deputy Willoughby said that no one reported seen in the area although yesterday morning a strange car was seen making one circle of the school.

The thieves completely wrecked the safe and after taking the money left, leaving about five dollars in change scattered on the floor.

The nearest house is about 100 yards from the school and no one reported seeing strange sounds or other occurrences which appeared suspicious.

On Tuesday night three schools at Mayfield were entered and about $25.00 taken from each one. The schools were Lee School, Washington School and East College.

Last night a school at Grand Rivers was entered also with money taken from a cabinet in the school office.

Local authorities found some evidence other than the fingerprints which were taken.

The robbery was discovered by Mr. Riley Carter, school custodian and he notified school authorities who in turn called the Sheriff's office.

Jerry Wallace has been acting as principal of the school since the illness of M. B. Rogers, the principal.

It is thought that possibly the same group or gang is responsible for most or all of the school breaks reported this week in Western Kentucky.

The safe at Kirksey School was smashed by thieves last night and approximately $300 stolen. The safe was beaten open by a sledge hammer.

WHAT BREEDS CRIME?

PRESIDENT Johnson's Crime Commission has completed its twenty months study and has filed its lengthy report and recommendations after investing $1,850,000.00. It is interesting to note that many of the recommendations have been made even while the study was going on. Also that during that same period crime has increased at a much faster rate than ever before. As could easily have been anticipated, the study, whether rightly or erroneously, names poverty and racial discrimination as the two leading causes of crime and the commission recommends that both be eliminated as quickly as possible.

It seems general statistics were used liberally in making the study and one commission member, the chief of police of San Francisco, seems to have been overruled in his insistence that police brutality has been over-emphasized. He insists most police officers are tolerant in the extreme and are victimized by criminals who take advantage of them.

The report says the increasing crime rate among juveniles is due to broken homes (or adult delinquency), but saying forty teen-agers out of every one hundred will be arrested in a non-traffic violation charge before he reaches maturity is a gross error and a direct result of faulty statistics. The simple fact is that more than ninety per cent of present-day teenagers have never been arrested on any charge, including traffic violations. Why the discrepancy? For the simple reason most police records fail to show most teen-age crimes, like all other disorders, are committed by the same infinitesimal minority of unhappy, discontented teen-agers. Out of 360 automobiles stolen last year in one city of less than a hundred thousand, 300 were stolen by one person! Probably many of the other 160 were stolen by repeaters.

With as limited information as we have on the elaborate crime study, it would be presumptuous to brand it as a waste of time and public funds. With crime increasing in leaps and bounds we think President Johnson is justified in using the resources of the nation in an attempt to determine once and for all the causes of crime, then to take steps as rapidly as our resources will permit to reduce it. We seriously doubt sob-sister sentiment for the criminal, while ignoring the suffering of the victim will get us very far towards reducing crime.

Remove fear of the cops from the minds of criminally-minded youth and we make a major contribution in increasing, not decreasing, crime. The same holds true, in multiplied fashion, with the professional member of an organized syndicate.

Three Nashville Men Die In Plane Crash

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) — The bodies of three Nashville, Tenn. men were found today in the wreckage of their small light plane which crashed in a defoliated, hilly section of Southern Kentucky.

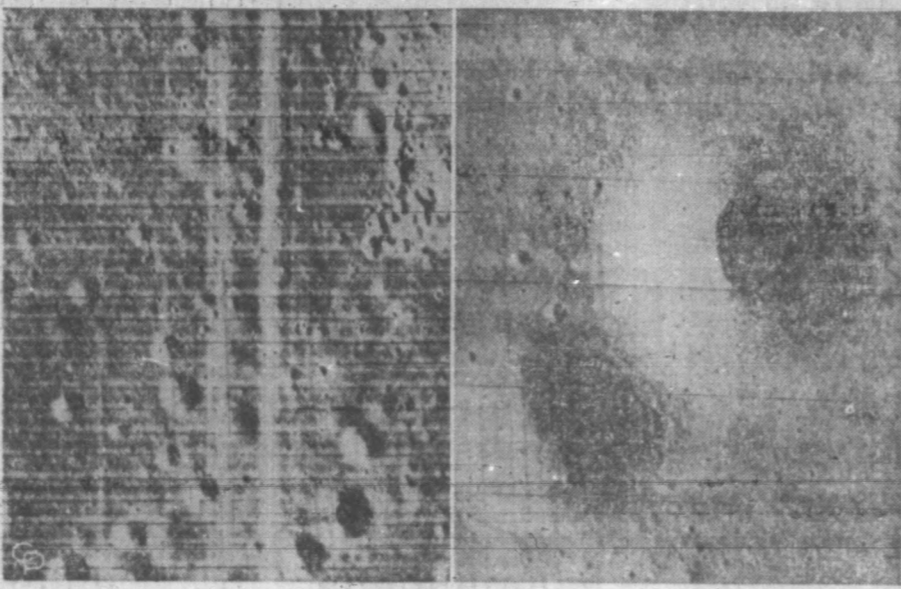

The Civil Air Patrol said the wreckage was first spotted by a helicopter pilot, who reported the location to a ground crew. The crash site was about four miles north of Bowling Green in a heavily wooded area.

Remains of the victims were taken to Morgantown. A CAP spokesman said the wreckage was scattered over a wide area. A Butler County coroner was flown to the scene by helicopter.

Four helicopters from Ft. Campbell, Ky., and Civil Air Patrol units have assisted ground crews in the search since Wednesday night. Rescuers were hampered by snow and muddy roads.

The pilot of the plane, an Aero Commander, was identified as Roddie L. Massey of Donelson, Tenn., a suburb of Nashville. The identification was made by Morris Abernathy, a partner of Abernathy Auto Parts in Nashville, owner of the plane.

The passengers were identified as two Nashville businessmen, George Stein, marketing manager for Ferro Corp., and H. D.

Nose in the Wrong Place, Again!

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of this situation? Elsie is 34. Her mother is 57. Herman is 37. Herman has been dating Elsie for 10 years. Elsie lives at home with her mother and Herman has a room somewhere, but he practically lives at Elsie's.

These three have gone on long trips together, and have been seen at movies and all over town together, but get this: Herman has been seen with Elsie's mother ALONE (marketing and driving around) nearly as much as he has been seen with Elsie. There is something peculiar going on here.

At present Herman is unemployed and is mooching off these two women. The mother is a widow and should be looking out for herself. As a friend of the family, I would like to see this relationship terminated. But how?

INTERESTED PARTY
DEAR INTERESTED: If Elsie, her mother and Herman are happy, I don't see why the relationship should concern anyone else. As I see it, what should be "terminated" is your pre-occupation with somebody else's business.

DEAR ABBY: What would make a 36-year-old man suddenly start wearing elevated shoes?

FLABBERGASTED
DEAR FLABBERGASTED: He probably wants to be an "abc" level.

DEAR ABBY: When a boy is visiting a girl at her house and the girl walks him out to his car, should he walk her back to the door? My boyfriend thinks he should, but I don't.

CURIOUS
DEAR CURIOUS: If you want to be absolutely proper, say your final goodnight at the door, and let the boy walk himself to his car.

DEAR ABBY: My wife has been overweight ever since we have been married, which has been 10 years. She has kept her weight a secret—even from me.

Last week a college friend of mine was visiting us and the subject of weight came up. He asked my wife how much she weighed, and she said she'd tell him "later"—but not in front of me. Then she called him into the kitchen later and told him. After he left I asked her how much she weighed and she refused to tell me.

What do you think of a wife who would keep her weight a secret from her husband, but would humiliate him by revealing it to a stranger?

MAD
DEAR MAD: Your wife, conscious of her overweight, may not want to humiliate HERSELF in front of you—and perhaps invite your critical comment. She needs your help, not your censure.

The Pap test for uterine cancer is a simple procedure your doctor can perform right in his office. It is quick. It doesn't hurt. Most important, it can save your life. The American Cancer Society suggests that all adult women have a Pap test as part of their annual checkups.

Troublesome People Are In Trouble

Troublesome People Are People in Trouble—How Does This Happen? Each one of us is born with the ca-capacity to be gently, friendly, loving, considerate and kind. We also have in us the capacity to be fearful, suspicious, hateful, angry, destructive and cruel. The negative emotions may serve the purpose of self preservation. They act as devices to protect us from physical danger (like an attack by a dog) as well as psychological danger (like an insult, scolding, or insecurity on the job).

Confronted by either kind of threat, we get scared and run, or else we turn on the source of danger and try to destroy or overcome it. If something happens in our lives to make us continually defensive or hostile, then this kind of response becomes more or less fixed as part of our regular way of behavior, even when no real threat is present. These characteristics develop as a result of several different kinds of experiences, especially in early childhood. Among these are:

(1) A long and wearing siege of trouble, sickness, tragedy or hard to be on a constant alert for trouble, trigger-ready to run or fight back.

(2) A constant air of doom and gloom in the home. If from infancy on, a child is surrounded by an air of greeting and complaining, he may grow up with the impression that the world is full of nothing but trouble, and that everyone is trying to take advantage of him. He is conditioned to anticipate trouble even when none exists. This attitude, formed in childhood, will tend to persist in adult life.

(3) Neglect or rejection in childhood. A child who is ignored or disliked may tend to feel this is his own fault, that he lacks the qualities to make him lovable and acceptable. The self-deprecating child becomes an adult full of insecurity, self-doubt and fear, lacking confidence and self-assurance and expecting to be hurt, ignored or rebuffed.

Of course, some children can stand emotional stress better than others and suffer fewer lasting effects.

why does the fish in Cap'n John's frozen fish dinners taste fresh-cooked?

Because you cook the fish. It takes no longer than heating pre-cooked frozen fish...only 20 minutes.

You see, we're sort of fanatics about fresh fish flavor. So we refuse to pre-cook the fish.

Here's what we do: We dip the fillet in milk batter. Bread it. Top it with butter. We blanch the peas. Partly cook the potatoes. So everything's done at once (in only 20 minutes) when you cook it.

The result: A fish dinner that tastes like the fish is fresh-cooked. It should. Because it is.

One important tip: Be sure the oven is really pre-heated to 400° F.

Are our Cap'n John's Frozen Fish Dinners a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

Legend Becomes Easy Since Bill Russell Is In Lineup

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

Indiana basketball coach Lou Watson found it a rather frustrating experience trying to follow a legend — but it's easy now that he's got a guy named Bill Russell in the lineup.

When the faded Branch McCracken retired at the end of the 1965 season, Watson had the unenviable job of trying to replace him in the basketball-mad Hoosierland. It didn't help, either, that the top seven players including both Van Arsdale graduated from McCracken's last team.

The predictable result was that Indiana finished in the Big 10 cellar last year — and wasn't expected to be a title contender this year. But Monday night the surprising Hoosiers took over possession of first place in the top-heavy Big 10 race with a 96-81 triumph over Illinois while Michigan State was dropping an 80-64 decision to Ohio State.

Startling Climax

The Hoosiers climb to first place is even more startling since first string guard Iv Insinger broke his wrist two games ago in an 82-77 loss to Michigan State.

But that's when Watson called on Bill Russell.

Bill Russell? No kidding. This Russell is a 6-2 senior guard from Columbus, Ind., who got his chance to start only because Insinger was injured. He responded with 20 points in the Hoosiers' 81-79 upset of Northwestern Saturday and he added 19 in the rout of Illinois.

"I suffered through last year," Watson admits, "but since the whole team had graduated, I had to play the young kids to give them the experience. We don't have a super star but we got a fine bunch of budding kids and they work well together."

Tough Road Ahead

Indiana still has a tough way to go with five games left. The Hoosiers are 7-2 in league play while MSU is 6-3 and Iowa and Northwestern are 5-3.

Elsewhere in the nation, three of the nation's top 10 teams were victorious. Fourth-ranked Kansas turned back Oklahoma State 80-66, fifth-ranked Western edged Utah State 79-75, in double overtime.

In other key games, Toledo whipped the University of Detroit 110-81, Vanderbilt best Alabama 117-80 and Kentucky drubbed Georgia 101-78.

Indiana showed a balanced scoring attack against Illinois as Vern Payne had 22, Russell 19, Butch Joyner 16, sub Earl Schneider 12 and Bill DeHeer 10.

Ohio State practically ruined Michigan State's shot at a post-season NCAA berth as Bill Hosket led the winners with 20 points. The Spartans trail Indiana by two games and that will be a tough margin to overcome with just five games left.

In the other Big 10 game, Purdue took a 96-87 decision from Michigan as Bill Keiler scored 24 points and Henry Eberhoff added 19.

Collegiate Teams Get Invitations

By BILL OSTHOFF
United Press International

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — As many as 11 at-large invitations could be extended by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) to play in its national college basketball championship tournament.

The NCAA extended its bids at 10 a. m. (EST), one hour before the nation's other college post season basketball event, the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in New York, set out to fill its 14-team field.

A maximum of 25 schools could participate in the NCAA national championships, although a 23-team field competed last year. Each of the last two years, champions from 14 major conferences automatically qualify.

Tournament pairings were not expected to be announced before Friday at the earliest, pending the completion of acceptances.

An NCAA spokesman said the Ivy League champion would definitely receive one of the at-large bids. The Ivy League was denied an automatic berth in the NCAA event when it failed to comply with the NCAA's controversial 1.6 legislation.

Other teams certain of consideration for at-large invitations were defending NCAA champion Texas Western, St. John's Eastern College, Syracuse, Providence, Virginia Tech, Dayton, Marquette, Houston, Utah State, Seattle, New Mexico State, Colorado State and the winner of the Big Sky Conference.

First round games are scheduled March 11 at five tentative sites: VPI in Blacksburg, The University of Rhode Island, the University of Kentucky and Texas Christian University.

The first round sites are subject to change pending the number of at-large entries.

The four regionals — East, Midwest, Midwest and West — will be played March 11-18 at the University of Maryland, Northwestern University, the University of Kansas and Oregon State. The four regional titans will advance to the finals at the University of Louisville March 24-25.

Conference champions from the Southern, Atlantic Coast, Yankee, Middle Atlantic, Ohio Valley, Southeastern, Mid-American, Big Ten, Southwest, Missouri Valley, Big Eight, Western Athletic, Pacific Eight and West Coast Athletic leagues automatically qualify for berths.

Harmon Killebrew In Doubt Of His Season Contract

By United Press International

Harmon Killebrew doesn't think he does enough to deserve a $65,000 contract.

Killebrew only plays first, third and the outfield. He would prefer covering more territory for the Minnesota Twins this year and maybe earn a little more money next season.

The Minnesota musclemen, who signed Wednesday would like to enter the $100,000 bracket reached by Frank Robinson this year. He was second to Robby in homers with 39 and runner-up to the Baltimore Oriole triple-crown champ in runs batted-in with 110. Killebrew batted .281 while appearing in all 162 Minnesota games.

— Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves reportedly confirmed he already is in the hundred grand division. Aaron said he had agreed to a two-year contract at $100,000 a season. The Braves' previous salary high was the $82,500 paid to pitcher Warren Spahn.

Cincinnati signed second baseman Pete Rose, the club's leading hitter in 1966 with a .313 average. The Reds also inked outfielder Vada Pinson, pitchers Gerry Arrigo, Darrell Oates and Aurelio Montesa and catcher John Bench.

The Chicago White Sox corralled righthander Bruce Howard, 9-5 last year, leaving five players still to be signed. They are pitchers John Bushardt and Joe Horan, infielder Dick Kenworthy, catcher Gerry McNetney and outfielder Joe Hicks.

Juan Pizarro, the wandering Pittsburgh pitcher, will be fined each day he is absent from the Pirate training camp. Pizarro, reported staying in Puerto Rico, now owes $500.

The New York Yankees ran into expected trouble when catcher Elston Howard became an official hold-out. Howard is said to have been asked to take a $10,000 cut from his 1966 salary of $75,000 and wants it all restored before he signs. Whitey Ford, not on the roster, is trying to work himself back into pitching shape and perhaps another season with the club.

Washington had better luck in the signing department when pitcher Bob Humphreys came to terms. Cahill Paschal and Bob Friday remain the lone Senators pitching holdouts.

Finally, John Blanchard told Atlanta he would not attempt a comeback because of personal and business reasons.

Death from uterine cancer have been cut 50 per cent in the past 25 years, according to the American Cancer Society. This remarkable decline is due to early detection and prompt treatment. The Pap test can detect uterine cancer even before any symptoms appear—when the di-

All-Jersey Milk provides more body-building nutrients than any other milk!

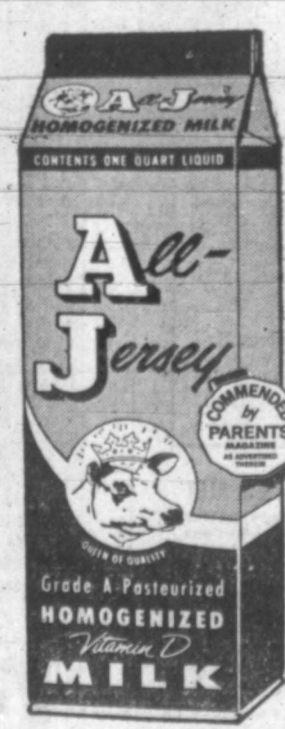

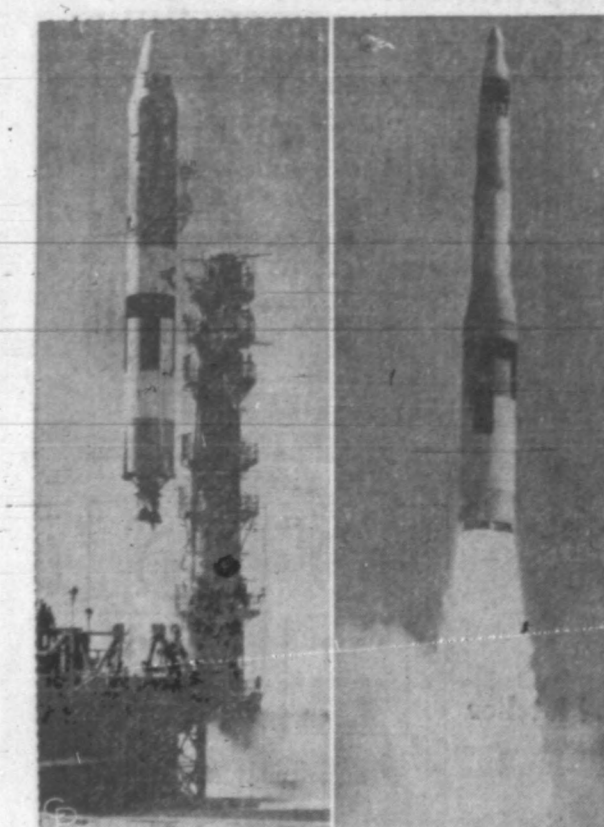

Whether young enough for abc's, or old enough for geometry, they'll study better and have extra energy when they drink All-Jersey Milk regularly. Scientific tests prove that All-Jersey Milk from 100% Jersey herds contains more body-building proteins, more calcium and phosphorus than any other natural milk of the same cream content. This assures stronger teeth and bones. Yet All-Jersey COSTS NO MORE THAN ORDINARY MILK.

The Titans are 10 times more powerful than the Minutemen, but the latter are adaptable to "cluster" warheads, now-favored concept. There'll be about 1,000.

COPY NOT ALL READABLE

In our opinion, everyone reads the Ledger & Times. After checking the mailing list, it would appear to be going to every family, far and wide. However, during a conversation with a lady at Col. Sanders yesterday, we learned her subscription "ran out and she hadn't had an opportunity to renew it yet". If this has happened to you, may we suggest you take care of this bit of business immediately.

Whatever may be your special interest, you will find it, and more, in the Daily Ledger & Times. From past experience you know you get all the news first, plus social and church news and all sports. If it's worth printing... It's in this paper. "Seen and Heard" or "Dear Abby" alone is worth the small subscription rate.

If you want your product or business to be well known everywhere, and if you demand courtesy, accuracy and results, you can't do better than running your ad in your own Ledger & Times.

There! We said it and we're glad!

Fishermen and Ladies: Have you purchased your fishing license? If not, please do so immediately, and save yourself needless delay or added expense.

Our society has attained such heights of sophistication and cynicism a person doesn't dare give credit to a person or animal, unless he happens to be a politician or dead. We figure in either case our small efforts won't help either, so we persist in "marching to a different drummer."

Many people live a lifetime being mentioned twice. They were born. They died. There is generally much good accomplished between those two announcements, which goes unmentioned.

What happened to old fashioned appreciation?

Byron Sykes joined the Ledger & Times staff a couple of months ago. He is circulation manager, as well as handling a number of other duties. The task of keeping so many people happy is an impossible feat.

Mr. Sykes is performing a most difficult task, unusually well. With all of the "daily headaches" he survives, he remains courteous, helpful and a most agreeable fellow. "Out rigger" to you, sir!

We are unable to find the name of two of our friends in that "never ending roll of subscribers". We have been watching for Mr. and Mrs. Macon Clapp of Calvert City to appear in the mailing list.

They have told us they want the paper started. Again we say it isn't necessary to drive 50 miles to come by the office. A letter or call, giving your complete address and zip number will bring us right to your door. We hope you will attend to this business, today!

NEW LAKE BARKLEY IS FISHERMAN'S PARADISE

There are 90 million people within a day's drive of Lake Barkley. This new member to Kentucky's chain of lakes is 118 miles long, with approximately 1,694 miles of shoreline and at normal maximum pool has a surface area of 57,922 acres. It lies alongside famous Kentucky Lake in Western Kentucky.

Bernard Carter, director of the Division of Fisheries, believes that this new addition to the Commonwealth's vast major lake program will afford the best sports fishing in the nation for the next few years.

Carter gave these reasons for his optimistic forecast: First, the water quality is excellent, giving all forms of aquatic life ideal living conditions resulting in a fast fish growth; second, the lake is shallow, thus giving added quarters for good reproduction of fish; third, ample cover of brush, stumps, rocks, and submerged islands throughout the entire lake giving much desired cover for young fish, and fourth, impounded Cumberland River held an excellent stand of fine game and panfish with a population explosion resulting at the time of impoundment.

During the past season excellent strings of large bluegill were harvested by both bank and boat fishermen. Many of these fish weighed from a half to three quarters of a pound. Black Bass have been so common that even a novice fisherman could catch a limit in a short time. Bass fishing has been so outstanding that during peak fishing periods it was not uncommon to catch two black bass at the same time on a single lure.

Most of the black bass caught last year were small. However, one should be braced for a lunker at any time this year. Many bass from two to six pounds have already been taken.

Access to Barkley Lake is available from launching areas in the Land Between the Lakes; through the canal that connects Kentucky and Barkley Lakes, and from commercial, state and public launching sites along the eastern banks of this major impoundment.

Found near Ferris was an unsigned, undated, unaddressed note saying, "To leave this life is for me a sweet prospect. I find nothing in it that is desirable and on the other hand everything that is loathsome."

Garrison said Ferris was a sensitive man, capable of "great intellectual accomplishments" and a "man of surprising intellect in scientific areas."

Plane Inspected

New Orleans police detective Frederick S. O'Sullivan testified before the commission he and another police officer inspected Ferris' airplane to see whether it could have been used to fly Oswald to Dallas. But O'Sullivan said the plane was not in flyable condition.

Ferris was never connected directly with the assassination until Garrison made his announcement Wednesday.

Ferris had been ill for several weeks with encephalitis. He ran a flying service from New Orleans lakefront airport.

He crossed to Windsor, Ont., with a tape recording of one of his lectures and tried to deliver it to a Canadian.

We didn't know what kind of day we were going to have yesterday. Walked in the office with snow all over us and we figured we would take our coat off and shake the snow off before it melted and dropped the coat in the floor. We didn't know whether this was some kind of omen or not. Just got the coat back from the cleaners too.

Italian officials indicate they have a greater appreciation of Columbus Day than does our own Federal government. The Italians are in the process of burning thousands of unsold stamps issued in 1892 and the following few years because if they were sold now it would make collections for the period worthless. Our government lopped the ridiculous when it was discovered that some Dag Hammarskjold stamps were lacking one color. They printed millions more just like them in order to "be fair" to other collectors. The people who had the original stamps, which lacked one color really had something, for a while.

Most are arbitrary dates anyway he points out. The ones he proposes are Thanksgiving, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Veterans Day and Washington's birthday.

Christmas could never be changed from December 25, he says, because of the emotional factor.

Thanksgiving has been observed on several different days, he says, so why not Monday of the week of the 25th. He points out that the Fourth of July actually commemorates an event which occurred on July 2, the date which the resolution of Independence was adopted. Memorial Day and Veterans Day also have no particular date to tie them down. George Washington was actually born on February 11, he says, so this could be changed easily to Monday.

He points out too that no one really knows the day Christ was born. The best guess was in August, he continues.

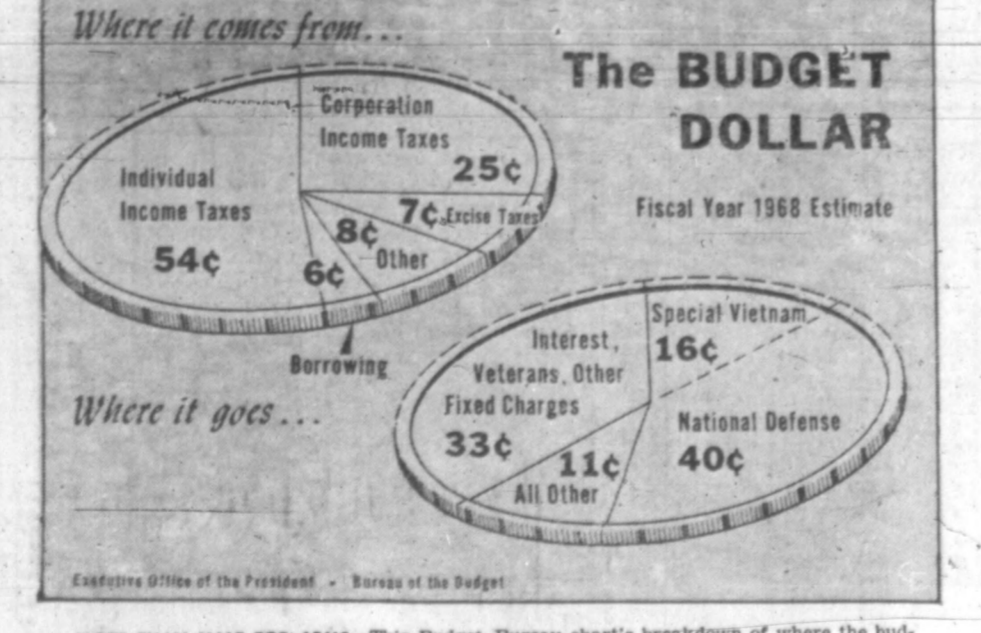

He reports that in a poll taken by the US Chamber of Commerce 85 per cent of its 10,000 members favored changing most national holidays to Monday.

We liked the snow yesterday and preferred it to rain.

It worries us sometimes as to just how birds keep-up with their mates. A pair will be partaking of food out in the back yard when all of a sudden one of them will fly off. After a little while the other one will take off too. We wonder if they keep tabs on one another by sight or just what.

Then too we wonder how they keep-up with one another in a flock when they all look alike. Some birds mate for life, others by the season.
