Baby Surprises His Parents On Arrival

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Patricia Cook, feeling tired and run-down, took the advice of a friend and went to see a dentist. A visit to a doctor would have been more appropriate.

The dentist did his job, though. He pulled Mrs. Cook's teeth, gave her dentures, and had her feeling better in no time. She even started putting on weight.

But missing her husband began to plague Mrs. Cook, mother of three. Late Sunday afternoon, about a month after her dental treatment, she screamed to her husband that she needed a doctor.

B. W. Cook called for an ambulance and ran to the bathroom, where he found his wife holding a newborn 5-pound, 3-ounce baby boy.

"We weren't prepared for anything like this," said the shaken father. "In fact, we gave away baby things several months ago because we figured we'd never need them again."

Mr. Ahart was formerly of Triest County and was a retired farmer. He was in the general merchandise business at Golden Pond.

Two Kentucky Candidates Will Speak At KEA Conference Here

Kentucky's two candidates for Governor—Democrat Henry Ward and Republican Louis B. Nunn—will speak at the annual Kentucky Education Association (KEA) leadership conference at Murray State University.

The conference opens with registration at 2 p.m. August 6 and ends with an August 8 luncheon. Nunn and Ward will speak at separate times on the night of August 7.

Theme of this year's conference, expected to attract some 500 officials from Kentucky education associations at the local, district, and state levels, is "For Every Local Association—All That It Is Capable of Becoming."

The three areas of emphasis will be (1) how to become a better local leader; (2) professional negotiation the united way; and (3) promotion of KEA's 1968 legislative program.

Dr. Cecil J. Hannan of Washington, D. C., National Education Association (NEA) assistant executive secretary for professional development and welfare, will deliver the keynote address at 9 a.m. August 7. Other NEA staff members who will take part in the program are John Starns, director of affiliates and membership, and Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, field representative.

Dr. Thompson's Article Printed In Journal

Dr. James T. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thompson, has had an article printed about his dissertation entitled "Utilization of Urea and Added Fat in Pelleted and Meal Feeding Rations for Beef Steers" in the Journal of Animal Science, July 1967, at the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

Thompson has had eight other papers published concerning his work in various publications.

Dr. Thompson is employed with the Illinois State University, Normal, Ill., in the Animal Science Department where he is doing research this summer.

The young man received his Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture at Murray State University, his Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Kentucky, Lexington, with a major in animal science and minors in bio-chemistry and statistics.

Thompson, his wife, Patricia, and daughter, Lora, reside at 610 Kingsley, Normal, Ill.

Scout Troop 45 Back At Home

Troop 45 recently completed a very successful summer camp at the Four Rivers Scout Reservation. Ninety-two per cent of the troop's members attended under the supervision of Scoutmaster Don Burdick.

On Awards Night, held on the final night of camp, it was learned that over one hundred merit badges were earned by the young men of the troop. These badges were in such fields as nature, aquatics, cooking, conservation, citizenship, and other scouting activities.

When the boys were not occupied with their merit badge instruction they completed pioneering structures such as a signal tower and a monkey bridge. There was also a troop, archery contest and free swim each day.

In competition with five other troops of the council, Troop 45 won the Clean Camp award for the week and also the camp-wide Water Carnival. The carnival consisted of such events as a mud-race, mile swim, cross-country, watermelon, and other contests.

The troop presented Best Camp Award, Jr. to Edward Moore; Best Camper, Sr. to Steve Simmons; Most Cooperative Camper (Continued On Page Six)

U.S. Officials Say About 350 Communists Killed In Battle

By EUGENE V. RISHER

SAIGON 676 — In the greatest allied drive of the war in the Mekong Delta, about 15,000 American and South Vietnamese troops crushed a budding major Viet Cong offensive and killed about 350 Communists, U.S. officials said today.

U.S. Army Lt. Gen. Fred W. Weyand said more than 10 American and 11 government battalions, tipped off by intelligence agents, boated down the Mekong River and charged into the muddy lowlands where hundreds of Communists were massing for the offensive 60 miles below Saigon.

The general said five Communist prisoners said their unit of 700 men "had been decimated."

"I can believe it," he added.

Less Than 200

The air war against North Vietnam returned to full fury Monday with American planes striking near Hanoi and Haiphong during 136 missions over the Communist nation. Ground fire shot down an Air Force Phantom and a Navy Crusader, bringing to 627 the number of U.S. warplanes lost over the North. Both crews were missing.

Air assaults against the North had slackened heavily at the wake of Saturday's traffic fire aboard the carrier Forrestal, one of the three U.S. carriers launching a round-the-clock strikes from the Gulf of Tonkin.

Eight Americans died today when a pair of army helicopters collided in flight near Tuy Hoa on the Central Coast.

Death Toll On Forrestal Now Listed At 129

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The U.S. Navy said tonight that 129 men were known dead, 3 missing and 64 injured in the first that ravaged the carrier USS Forrestal Saturday.

A Navy spokesman said earlier 130 were known dead, but he revised the figure downward and attributed the report to "confusion in the ship."

The Navy meanwhile named three senior officers to investigate the fire that raged and nearly (Continued On Page Six)

Girl Dismissed From Hospital

Little Miss Jeanne Tullington, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tullington, 1006 Sunset Drive, was dismissed from the Murray-Calloway County Hospital after she was injured slightly in an accident last Tuesday at the Murray Ball Park.

Herman Johnson said he was backing his car out of the field when witnesses said the young girl ran out from behind some cars into the Johnson car. It was reported in last Wednesday's Ledger & Times that Johnson had backed his car over the young girl as taken from the Police report.

Steely Family Now Residing At Wise

Mrs. Will Frank Steely and children, Billy and Lisa, will leave Wednesday for their home in Wise, Virginia.

The children have been with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Morris, while they completed their attendance at the Reading Clinic at Murray State since their parents moved from Murray to Wise on July 4.

Mrs. Steely came by plane to Nashville, Tenn., last week and she and her sister, Mrs. George Fletcher and children of Nashville, came to Murray together.

Dr. Steely, former head of the history department of Murray State University, is now dean of Clinch Valley College at Wise, a part of the University of Tennessee. He is now traveling through the state of Virginia visiting colleges and universities there.

Mrs. Steely and children will visit her sister and family at Nashville enroute home.

DETROIT — Robert L. Greene, who claims to have seen a National Guard officer murder two young Negroes, giving his version of one of the deaths:
"This officer took one of the boys into a room and I heard him say 'Take this knife and defend yourself.' Then he pushed the boy out of the room and shot him."

WASHINGTON — President Johnson commenting on speculation that domestic civil rights troubles would cause a drain on Vietnam funds:
"Meeting our problems at home is no indication that we are going to ignore or surrender our commitments abroad."

A Bible Thought For Today

The morning stars are Saturn and Mercury.

The evening stars are Mars and Venus.

Born on this day in 1778 was

"The Star Spangled Banner."

On this day in history:
In 1790, the first U.S. census was taken, counting 3,929,214 persons.

In 1967, the U.S. Air Force was founded with the aeronautical division being set up in the U.S.

In 1946, the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission was established.

In 1966, Charles Joseph Whitman killed his mother and wife, then took a stand on top of a killing 13 others. The sniper also wounded 32 persons before being killed by police.

Russian Does Not Like Method Of Answering In USSR

Valery Tereshchenko returned to his native Russia in 1964 after earning a living in America for three decades as a teacher and economist. "There's still no word in 'Investia' about telephone manners in the U.S.S.R. as compared to those in the United States, reports R. K. Carpenter, Southern Bell's manager.

"I have lived in the U.S.A. for thirty years and saw many extremely equipped plants and farms. To the question of what I consider most remarkable in that country, I reply without hesitation: not the machines, but American methods of organization and management.

"Here is a little scene, authentic, known to our readers, but unavailable in America."

"You call up some institution on the telephone. 'I must talk to Comrade Ivanov.' He's not in' and then you hear the hum of the receiver. You reflect, what does 'not in' mean? Is he ill, has he gone out for a smoke, is he in conference, or is he away on a business trip?"

"You call the number again.
The answer is ruder this time.
I've already told you, he's not in! You ask, 'Who is this speaking, please?' Of what concern is that to you? I repeat, Ivanov is not in.' And again the receiver is hung up."

"You are upset by now and you call for the third time. 'Excuse me, you don't hang up. I sleepily must speak to Ivanov about an urgent matter.' At the other end of the line you hear, 'Comrade, you are holding back my work.
I've told you twice that Ivanov isn't in. He is on vacation and will be back in three weeks.' Well, why didn't you tell me that in the first place? Who is taking his place? And the answer comes, 'I don't know.'"

"That's the whole story.
"In America, such conversations occur quite differently. You telephone, let's say, a company like General Electric. In reply you hear a calm, trained voice. 'General Electric, Miss Jones speak-

Social Security

Charles M. Whitaker, Paducah
Social Security District Manager, today advised Medicare eligibles that some bills that originate with the hospital are not bills for hospital services.

Most eligibles, Whitaker said, know they have hospital insurance under social security and that there is a second part, Medical Insurance which provides payments toward doctors' bills. Many, however, do not realize that certain services provided through the hospital are actually doctors' bills.

Usually when a person is admitted to a hospital, services of doctors on the staff of the hospital are needed. This includes services by pathologists, who interpret the results of tests, or radiologists, who interpret the X-rays given the patient.

The bill for administering the tests or X-rays themselves are part of the hospital charges and the hospital files for any reimbursement which may be due. This is handled under the hospital insurance portion of Medicare. However, the bill for the pathologist's or radiologist's services are not covered by the hospital insurance portion since these charges are physician's charges. Physician's charges must be handled under the Medical Insurance portion of Medicare. In Kentucky, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company pays Medical Insurance claims on Medicare eligibles (Except for railroad beneficiaries).

Since the services of these doctors were performed in the hospital and the doctors are part of the hospital staff, some area hospitals will file the claim with Metropolitan, while others will bill the patient.

When the hospital has claimed the Medicare payment due for staff physicians services, the Medicare patient should not submit a duplicate Medical Insurance claim as the hospital will have already been paid.

So Mr. Member—There is a terse response, 'Mr. Smith has left. Mr.
Caneby can help you, however. His number is so-and-so. Shall I ring him for you?"

"Why this contrast? Is it possible that Miss Jones is a born business woman? No. The secret is that before this young lady is given work, she is trained, taught, given instruction in answering the telephone, in covering and conducting herself with visitors, in addressing correspondence, in doing everything quickly and systematically. The result is an immense saving of time."

As you can readily see from Tereshchenko's article in the Russian newspaper, impressions made over the telephone are quite hating.

Jimmy Foxx, one of the greatest ball players to put on a pair of spikes is dead at the age of 59.

The famed Double-X choked to death on a piece of meat when it lodged in his throat as he was eating dinner at the home of his brother, in Miami, on July 21.

Foxx holds a lot of records for right handed hitters, and is close to several of the others.

He hit 534 homers while playing ball and was second only to the Babe, until Willie Mays passed him last year.

Jimmy and Hank Greenberg were tied as the greatest right-handed sluggers for one season with 58 homers each. Foxx got his in 1932, Greenberg in 1938.

Foxx also holds a major league record with 20 or more homers in 12 consecutive seasons, 1929 to 1940.

Only Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig led Foxx in lifetime RBIs from 1925 to 1945. Jimmy had 1,921 RBIs during his lifetime, while Ruth had 2,209, and Gehrig had 1,991. Foxx was the only right-handed hitter to break into the top five RBI men of all time, all of the others who drove in 1900 or more runs were left-handed swingers, besides the Babe, Gehrig and Foxx. Ty Cobb had 1,954, and Stan Musial had 1,951.

These are just a few of his great records and near records. The Double-X will be remembered for many years to come.

Bill Scarborough of Radio Station WNGO, in Mayfield, has more nerve than I thought he did. Then again maybe he just isn't as smart as I thought he was.

Well, whatever the case might be, he rode in one of King Kovacs' cars during the daredevil's show at the Mayfield fair last week.

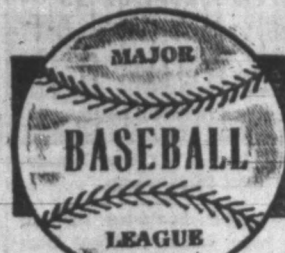

Now I know that those drivers are among the best in the world, and that it is as safe or maybe a little safer on the track than on the highway, but I don't think I want any part of this. It's not that I'm chicken, (not much anyway) but I just think I could enjoy the show better from the stands.

Besides I don't think that any of the fine people in Murray and Calloway County would want me to endanger my life just because some nut from Mayfield did.

A Year Ago In Sports: Pittsburg was .001 percentage points ahead of San Francisco, and Baltimore was 11 games ahead of Detroit. . . . Ron Acre of Louisville won the Murray Invitational Golf Tournament, Dave Barclay of Mayfield was second. . . . Essie Caldwell was named Medalist at The Oaks Golf Day. . . . Twenty-five Murray men were entered in the West Kentucky Open Golf Tournament at Mayfield.

Answer to Last Week's Question: Pitcher Tony Olmon set a new N.L. record when he hit two grand slam homers in one game. He also collected nine RBIs in a 17-3 rout of the Giants in San Francisco.

This Week's Question: Who are the two players who were voted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., last year?

Chicago White Sox Hold On To Lead For The American PennantBy FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Tommy Agee passed across the Chicago White Sox clubhouse and made a comment that is likely to stand as the understatement of the year.

"Boy," said the 23-year old outfielder who is experiencing the pressure of a pennant race for the first time, "just to have these two veterans on the club is a boost."

The two veterans—36-year old Ken Boyer and 33-year old Rocky Colavito—had just shown their young teammates how pennants are won with a pair of late-inning clutch hits that gave the White Sox a 4-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians and increased their American League lead to two games.

Boyer, who is batting .500 since he was acquired from the New York Mets, had tied the score with a ninth-inning single while Colavito, obtained from the Indians last Saturday, had won the game with a two-run homer in the 10th.

Fifth Squeaker
It marked the fifth time this season that the White Sox beat the Indians by scoring in the ninth inning or in extra innings.

Colavito, the one-time bobby sox idol of Cleveland who complained this year because of Manager Joe Adcock's platooning system, delivered the game-winning homer off right-hander Luis Tiant after Wayne Causey led off the 10th with a single and Tom McCraw hit into a force out.

Bob Locker, who pitched the last two innings, received credit for his fifth win while Tiant suffered his seventh loss.

The second-place Boston Red Sox defeated the Minnesota Twins 4-0 and the Kansas City Athletics beat the New York Yankees 5-6 in other American League games. The other teams were not scheduled.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals routed the Chicago Cubs 9-3, the San Francisco Giants downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-4, the Atlanta Braves topped the Cincinnati Reds 5-3, the Houston Astros nipped the New York Mets 3-2 and the Philadelphia Phillies beat the

Cardinals Win
9-2; Hold On
To PennantBy SAM GOLDAPER
UPI Sports Writer

Lou Brock remembers the madness in Busch Stadium in 1965 when the St. Louis Cardinals won the National League pennant.

He has fond memories of his unexpected World Series check of $5,622.19 and that teammate Bill White said, "Without Lou, we might

Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2 in 11 innings.

Lee Stange pitched 6 2/3 innings of perfect ball and wound up with a three-hitter to win his seventh game with the aid of Carl Yastrzemski's three-run homer. Harmon Killebrew's line single to left with two out in the seventh inning was the Twins' first hit and Stange also yielded ninth-inning singles to Sandy Valdespino and Zolfo Vermales.

The 5-foot, 10-inch, 170-pound Stange retired the first 20 batters in order before Killebrew's hit.

have made sixth—if we were lucky."

That was the year Brock, a man with a strong urge to belong, arrived on the St. Louis scene from Chicago and after June 15 stole 33 of his 43 bases, drove in 44 of his 58 runs and raised his batting average from .251 to .315.

It was 1965 all over again Monday in so far as Brock was concerned. The Cards opened a four-game series with the Chicago Cubs, the team which St. Louis will probably have to beat to win another pennant.

The fond memories of 1965 may have flashed back for the speedy leftfielder. Before the day was over, he drove in four runs, three with his 14th homer, his first since June 4th and with the help of Orlando Cepeda's 18th home run, the Cards went home with a 9-2 victory and a 4 1/2-game lead.

Giants To Pirates

Elsewhere in the National League, San Francisco outscored Pittsburgh 8-4; Atlanta defeated Cincinnati 5-2; Houston edged New York 3-2 and Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2 in 11 innings.

In the three scheduled American League games, the league-leading Chicago White Sox downed Cleveland 4-2 on Rocky Colavito's 10th homer; Boston shut out Minnesota 4-0 and Kansas City outscored New York 8-6.

Houston ran its winning streak to seven straight games at the expense of the Mets. Bo Belinsky, who allowed a single to Tommy Davis in New York's two-run first inning and didn't permit another hit until Davis singled to lead off the ninth, needed relief help in the ninth-inning from Larry Sherry to preserve his third victory in nine decisions.

Boyer Homers

Clete Boyer's 15th homer backed Phil Niekro's nine-hit pitching in leading Atlanta to its success over the Reds. Boyer's two-run homer helped tag Mel Queen with his sixth loss against 10 victories while Niekro brought his record to 7-5.

Jack Hlatky's pinch-hit grand slam homer in the eighth powered the Pirates to their success over the Cardinals. Mike McCormick, who pitched eight innings and needed relief from Frank Linzy, became the National League's first 14-game winner. He has lost five.

Gene Oliver, who hit his ninth homer in the seventh inning to give the Phillies a 2-1 lead, started the two-run rally with a single in the 11th inning. Oliver moved to second on a sacrifice and after Gary Sutherland walked, he scored on pinch hitter Tony Taylor's single.

Woman's World

Reason Enough to Cool It

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a single girl, recently employed by a large firm. Since coming to work here, a co-worker and I have become very good friends during office hours. He is a happily married man and the father of two, and I am engaged. Because of the way we have hit it off together, we've been getting the cold shoulder from many of our co-workers, and I understand some ugly talk has developed about us.

I don't believe in breaking up an innocent friendship for no good reason at all, but I would like your opinion on this matter.

DEAR CHICKY: I don't believe in breaking up an innocent friendship "for no good reason at all" either, but if ugly talk has developed, perhaps that's good enough reason to pay a little attention to the false impression you are creating. If only to spare his wife needless humiliation about how well her husband has "hit it off" with the advice from here to cool it.

DEAR ABBY: I read your column. The question of whether or not the minister's wife should receive an invitation to the wedding at which her husband officiates interested me, since I am a minister. Just as the doctor's wife is not invited to the operation, nor the lawyer's wife invited to the trial, a minister's wife is not of necessity invited to each wedding at which her husband officiates. The minister is there in his official capacity, not as a guest.

Very truly yours,
W. A. H.: Sao Paulo, Brazil
DEAR REV. H.: "Michas gratias per se carta. Es veritas!"

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been running around with a 16-year-old girl. I have had this kind of trouble with him before but never with anybody so young. Is there anything I can do because of this girl's age? I know there is a law against fooling around with minors.

DEAR WIFE: There is plenty you can do, and I suggest you ask your lawyer how to do it. I don't know what you mean by "running around," but if it can be proved that your husband has had relations with this girl, he can be locked up.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "TROUBLED AND MIXED UP" IN LA CROSE: Small wonder. You are tormented needlessly with guilty feelings because you have confused sex with love. In Father James Kavanaugh's book, "A Modern Priest Looks at His Outdated Church," he says, "The Catholic girl has heard so much more about sex than about love that love becomes an unattainable ideal and sex the forbidden path that leads to misery. Read the book, young lady. It will help you."

Miss Butterworth Honored At Shower

Miss Carolyn Butterworth, August 19th bride-elect of Steve Section, was complimented with an informal bridal shower held at the home of Miss Pam Garland on South Ninth Street.

The charming hostesses for the occasion were Miss Garland and Miss Tonda Parker. For the pre-wedding event the honoree chose to wear an ensemble of a brown skirt with matching shell. She was presented with kitchen gadgets for her matching accessories.

A special feature of the party was the waste paper can filled with small gifts from the hostesses and guests that were presented to the honoree along with many nice gifts which she opened for the guests to view.

The hostesses' special gift to Miss Butterworth was a time green package set. Refreshments of punch and party sandwiches were served from the table overlaid with a bright orange cloth. Orange candles in gold candlesticks decorated the table.

Those present were Misses Sharon Williams, Barbara Brown, Pam Clark, Linda Brownfield, Rita Hurd, Sue Ann Watson, Lynda Albritton, Patricia Doran, Mary Jo Oakley, Jan Jones, Phyllis Mitchell, Carolyn Wilson, Debbie Dible, Mary Robbins, Mrs. J. Rodney Scott, Mrs. Steven Theisner, the honoree, and the hostesses.

Walter Blackburns Hosts At Party For Bridal Couple

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Blackburn entertained with an informal dinner party on the patio of their home on Hickory Drive on Friday evening.

The dinner was in honor of Miss Melissa Sexton and George Belose who will be married on Saturday, August 6.

For the occasion the bride-elect chose to wear a pink print cotton frock with a hostesses' gift corsage of pink carnations. The mother, Mrs. Charles Sexton, wore a royal blue linen dress with a hostesses' gift corsage of white carnations.

The bride couple was presented a cup and saucer in their chosen pattern of china. The dinner was served buffet style on the patio of the home.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mason, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cheaney, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sexton, the honored couple, and the hosts.

Mrs. Nadine Downey And Earl Copus Are Married On July 24

The marriage of Mrs. Nadine Downey, 400 South Sixth Street, Murray, to Earl Copus of Cleveland, Ohio, and Pine Bluff, Ark., was solemnized on Monday, July 24, in Paris, Tenn.

Announcement of the marriage was made to their friends and relatives at a garden party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Woods at their home on Lakeshore Drive at Pine Bluff, Ark., on Tuesday evening, July 25.

After the main part of the meal was served at the dinner, the guests were told that a special dessert was to be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Copus then brought in their beautifully decorated wedding cake and told the group of their marriage on Monday.

Mr. Copus is a retired railroad engineer. They will be at home at 400 South Sixth Street, Murray, and at their trailer home at Pine Bluff, Ark.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Darrell and daughter, Linda, have returned home from a vacation in Florida. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hargis and children, Darin and Lisa, of near Tampa. Other places they visited were Clearwater, St. Petersburg, Daytona Beach, Silver Springs, and St. Augustine.

Toy Lee Barnett of Murray Route Five has been dismissed from the Western Baptist Hospital, Paducah.

Mrs. H. M. Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn, and Mrs. Whit were among those attending the wedding of Miss Brenda Wain to Arthur Daniel Wright on July 29 at the Central Church of Christ, Paducah.

Engagement Announced

Miss Cathy Luther

Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Luther, 6714 Road, Murray, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Cathy, to Ray Glenn Boren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boren, Story Avenue, Murray.

An August wedding is planned. Miss Luther will be a junior at Murray University High this fall. Mr. Boren was graduated in the Class of 1965 at Murray High School. He will be a sophomore at Murray State University this fall.

Shirley Outland Is Complimented With Household Shower

Miss Shirley Outland who was married recently to Doug Ladd was honored on Friday, July 14, with a household shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Outland on the Bellon Road.

Games were played with Miss Julie Jones and Doug Ladd winning the prizes. The door prize was won by Mrs. Christine Graham.

The honoree opened her many gifts and refreshments were served.

Those present were Miss Julie Jones, Mercedes Lewis Zambella, Sandy Outland, Grace Walston, Christine Graham, Cordie Murphy, Loretta Barrow, Darla Antill, Flossie Outland, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Larson, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Outland, and the bride couple.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Miss Cynthia Jones, Mrs. Louella Blakey, Mrs. Essie Blakey, Mrs. Sue Vance, Mrs. Lillie Buchanan, Messrs and Messdames Ray Hill, Bill Maupins, Virgil Stewart, Paul Sturm, Lawrence Overbey, Wayne Outland, Eugene Snyder, Cliff Campbell, William E. Dunn, Buddy Boyd, Rudy McDougal, Bill McDougal, and James Futrell.

He Was Dragged By Wife, Too!

ST. LOUIS 8P — Jerry Dunlap, St. Louis Cardinal baseball fan, said his wife "dragged" him to a St. Louis Symphony concert, and thereby he learned a lesson — shouting isn't confined to baseball fans.

Dunlap, in a letter to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, told how he helped open the baseball season in Busch stadium with Cardinal Lou Brock hitting home runs.

"I thought the best show in town was at Busch Stadium with the Cardinals knocking the ball all over the lot," Dunlap wrote. "I was wrong; that was the second best show."

Dunlap said that the "best show" was in Kiel Opera house.

"My wife dragged me to the concert," Dunlap said. "That (Dunlap) Serkin was great . . . so was the orchestra . . . and the fans . . . they yelled louder for Serkin than the stands did for Brock's homers."

Dunlap closed, "why didn't somebody tell me there's so much action at the symphony concerts?"

Andrea Lassiter Is Honored At Supper At Belote Home

A luncheon supper was held at the home of Miss Marion Belote on Friday, July 27, in honor of Miss Andrea Lassiter, bride-elect of Ben Haganacamp.

The gracious hostesses for the supper were Misses Belote, Barbara Brown, Nancy Sharp, and Kaye Wallis.

The guests were sorority sisters of Miss Lassiter and included Barbara Bod, Shirley Craven, Lyllia Whitford, Jean Ballard, Judy Curt, Pam Mulford, Genevieve Adams, Mary Jo Oakley, Linda Brownfield, Doris Elliott, Barbara Latta, and Sally Woodward.

Also attending the supper were Mrs. Lynn Lassiter and Mrs. Thomas Haganacamp, mother and mother-in-law to be respectively of the honoree. Miss Lassiter was presented an

Advanced Unit Helps Patients

SAN FRANCISCO 8P — A new intensive care unit at the University of California's Moffitt hospital has incorporated some of the most advanced design concepts.

The unit was designed after consultants made a tour of units in other parts of the world.

The 12-bed unit uses a Danish invention of using venetian blinds between two glass panels, coping with the nurse's dilemma of keeping the patient in view while insuring privacy and isolation.

The glass-enclosed blinds minimize cleaning problems.

Patients are watched through a television monitoring system in two isolation rooms. This permits constant surveillance without risk

In memory of F. J. Irvin and wife Fannie who have passed away. Father seven years ago this July and mother four years ago this July. The depths of sorrow, we cannot tell. Of the loss of ones we loved so well. And while they sleep a peaceful sleep. Their memory we shall always keep. Dear Father and Mother. A Daughter, Myrtle ITC

IN MEMORY
In memory of Lucie Underhill, who passed away just a month ago, June 11. How we do miss you dear Mother. And how we did hate to see you go. But just one glimpse of Him in glory will. Repay all sorrow here below, no one knows. Our heartsache, no one knows the pain. Until a loved one has gone and left. Then in this cold world alone. But the happiness of meeting Jesus. And just shaking his hand. Is worth all the sorrow and tears shed. I know it was a joy to meet dear Father. Whom had left us years ago. But today it's all over and Mother and Dad. Freight Rates Railroads Up

By ROY MCGHEE
WASHINGTON 575 — The Interstate Commerce Commission gave the nation's railroads permission today to raise freight rates by $300 million a year.

The ICC action tentatively allows an increase averaging about 3.5 per cent. The last such increase, set at 1.7 per cent, was granted in 1960.

In its request for higher rates, the lines pleaded increased operating costs and lower profits in invested capital.

The ICC action was seen as a shot in the arm for the rail industry, already plagued this year with a brief strike and now under the gun of federal legislation calling for a possible compulsory settlement with six unions.

In announcing its decision, the ICC said: "The commission found that the nation's railroads are in immediate and urgent need of additional revenues to cover at least their increased wage costs amounting to approximately $184.4 million and a substantial part of their increased payroll taxes of approximately $53.1 million."

The ICC order approved an increase only in general terms, and did not go into how much more it will cost to ship individual items.

The order covers all class 1 railroads and many class 2 lines in the Eastern and Western parts of the country. It partially affects Southern railroads.

RACIAL VIOLENCE

arrested more than 40 persons as bands of youths roamed a 25-block area throwing bottles, breaking windows within a mile of the White House, and snarling police. The two-hour rampage, broken up by police and a rainstorm, started when firemen answered an alarm at a hardware store and a crowd pelted them with rocks. The crowd split up into small gangs and roamed the area. Several other blazes also broke out.

Third Milwaukee Death
Sulphur fire crackled through Milwaukee for the second straight night and the city counted a third death as a 34-year-old woman who suffered a heart attack while fleeing from her home in a neighborhood that had been scorched by firebombs.

Despite a total curfew, broken only for a two-hour period to permit residents to buy groceries, there were scattered snifflings, fires and looting during the night. Shortly after midnight, however, cool winds swept the city and the number of incidents dropped sharply.

The Milwaukee outbreak marked the third week in succession that a major northern city has been hit by massive racial violence. Rioting killed 40 persons in Detroit last week and 27 died in Newark two weeks ago.

Political Controversy
As Detroit rebuilt Monday, a major political controversy broke into the open when Michigan Gov. George Romney accused President Johnson of delaying the deployment of federal troops in the city in order to "play politics in a period of tragedy and riot." Romney said he had to wait 22 hours for federal troops.

Other major developments:
Providence, R. I. — Bands of Negroes spilled into streets throwing stones and bottles in 35-block area; force of 350 heavily armed police restored calm; at least two persons shot and four stabbed.
Erie, Pa. — Negroes hurled rocks and bottles at firemen answering call at a set fire, but police using dogs restored order.

West Palm Beach, Fla. — Small fires set in what police termed "minor" incidents.

Washington — President Johnson told impromptu news conference that the racial troubles will not hamper the Vietnam war effort. "Meeting our problems at home is no indication that we are going to ignore or suppress our commitments abroad," he said.

DEATH TOLL

sank the supercarrier in the Navy's worst combat disaster since World War II.

The fire, worst combat disaster at sea since World War II, killed at least 129 men and injured 97. Another 12 were missing and presumed dead.

Pacific Fleet headquarters at Pearl Harbor said the board of inquiry would be headed by Rear Adm. Forest M. Massey, commander of fleet air at Quonset Point, R.I. The other board members are Capt. Albert K. Earnest, commander of the navy's air station at Oceana, Va., and Capt. Martin Stack, commander of the naval air station at Jacksonville, Fla.

The three, all of whom have had extensive service aboard carriers, were ordered to the American base at Subic Bay immediately.

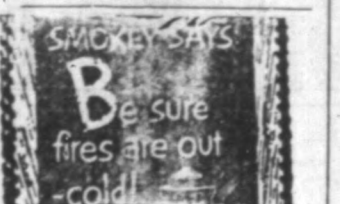

The carrier arrived at Subic Bay Tuesday with the remains of 53 of the men killed in the holocaust Saturday. It also carried 64 of the injured men. The Navy hospital ship Bagley, which met the USS Forrestal off the Vietnamese coast after the fire, put into the American base at Da Nang, South Vietnam, with the 77 other bodies and 33 of the injured.

Small fires still plagued the Forrestal's crew through the night. A smoldering mattress was discovered on the twisted flight deck and another small blaze was found in the charred ruins of the ship's post office. A third small fire triggered an alarm.

Navy authorities said none of the fires was serious. Navy officials said 57 planes were destroyed or damaged. The cost of repairing damage to the ship and replacing the planes was put at $135 million.

All Aboard With Some Easy-Do Recipes

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

UNLESS your pleasure craft boasts a chef, steward and mess boy, or unless you're serviced by a floating caterer twice a day, you have to resign yourself to being something of a galley slave. It will be smooth sailing, though, if you put a little planning into your menus, the food you take along and the utensils you use in the galley.

To keep meal preparation and cleanup to a minimum, stock up on convenience foods (canned items, in particular) and use easy-to-clean Teflon-coated aluminum pots and pans.

Galley Utensils
Choosing utensils for your galley is most important. Since storage space is limited, they must be versatile for double and triple duty. They must also have good heat conductivity, as aluminum does, for maximum heating efficiency on the ship's stove, which is primitive compared to a kitchen range.

A good basic galley collection would include: Teflon-coated cookware, including a one, two and three-quart covered aluminum saucepan; a 10- or 12-inch skillet, and, of course, a coffee maker.

What to whip up in these pots and pans? Here are some imaginative recipes, utilizing canned goods, for two main dishes and a luscious dessert.

MARINERS CHILI COMBO

2 (15½-oz.) cans chili con carne
1 (12-oz.) can corn, drained
1 (12-oz.) can frankfurters, sliced
1 (8-oz.) can tomato sauce
6 corn toasters

Combine chili con carne, corn, sliced frankfurters and tomato sauce in 3-quart non-stick coated aluminum saucepan. Heat.

Serve over corn toasters. Makes 6 servings.

EASY SEAFOOD NEWBURG

2 (11-oz.) cans cheddar cheese soup
1 (7-oz.) can crabmeat, flaked
2 (4½-oz.) cans shrimp
1 (4-oz.) can sliced mushrooms, drained

Combine soup, crabmeat and shrimp in 3-quart non-stick coated aluminum saucepan. Heat.

Serve over corn toasters. Makes 6 servings.

Combine all ingredients in 2-quart non-stick coated aluminum saucepan. Heat.

Serve over parried rice or rusk rounds. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

CHERRY-PINEAPPLE COBBLER

2 (1½, 6-oz.) cans cherry pie filling 1 (12-oz.) can pineapple juice
1½ c. biscuit mix
½ c. water
½ t. cinnamon
¼ c. finely chopped nuts

Combine pie filling and pineapple juice in non-stick coated aluminum saucepan; heat.

Combine biscuit mix, water, cinnamon, chopped nuts. Stir to soft dough with fork. Beat vigorously, about 20 strokes.

Drop, by teaspoon, on top of boiling cherry mixture. Cover. Simmer 15 minutes or until biscuits are done. Serves 4-6.

MARITIME MENU that's easily assembled in galley stars Seafood Newburg made with canned soup, crabmeat and shrimp; also Parried Rice; for dessert, always popular Apple Pie.
