Human Heart Is Transplanted By Surgical Team

By JOHN SCOTT

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (UPI) — Doctors tending a middle-aged grocer given a young woman's

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

We picked up a couple of items from the Princeton Leader.

In the column Little Chicks by John Hutchinson, Jr. he had the following:

"Since this is the end of the football season, this amusing story is told about one of our local boys, Johnny Jaggars, who is playing on the Western team. Several Western won the game, 42-18, against Murray, November 18. After the game Dr. Craddock Jaggars, Johnny's father, was talking with the Murray coach, who commented 'We could have been the same if it hadn't been for my wife's relatives.' The coach's wife is a cousin of Dr. Jaggars. Johnny had played such a good game against Murray, even intercepting a pass, Johnny, incidentally, has been named 'All-American' by his fraternity, Phi Delta Theta."

And, here is a paragraph from an editorial in the editorial column of the same newspaper.

Mrs. Zorah Hendon Dies Last Night

Mrs. Zorah Hendon of 502 South 6th Street, age 88, succumbed Sunday at 12:30 a.m. at the Convalescent Division of the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

The deceased was a member of the Cherry Corner Baptist Church. Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Dona Bauman of Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. Guy Edwards of Oklahoma City, Okla.; two sons, Graves Hendon and Perry Hendon of Murray; one sister, Mrs. Goldie Outland of Akron, Ohio; three brothers, Quiller Knight of Murray Route Five, Aubrey Knight of Cincinnati, Ill., and Tocco Knight of Akron, Ohio; eight grandchildren; ten great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today at 1:30 p.m. at the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with Rev. Lawson Williamson officiating.

Palbearers were Luther Nance, Charles Mercer, James McKinney, Ovie Lee, Sam Calhoun, and Charles Bonduant.

Burial was in the Hicks Cemetery with the arrangements by the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home.

Calloway Students Attend Tournament

Four Calloway County High students attended a debate tournament at University High School on Saturday, December 2.

Varsity debaters, Mike Wilkerson and Barbara Holsapple, and novice debaters, Joan Robinson and Barbara Beaman, participated with eighteen other schools from the tri-state area.

The Calloway students were accompanied by Larry Dunn, debate coach. They won five of the eight rounds debated. The topic of the tournament was "Resolved: That the Congress of the United States Establish Rules Regulating Criminal Investigation Procedures."

Two Are Struck By Automobile Last Night

Two persons were hit by a car last night at 10:57 on North 14th Street between Payne and Wells Boulevard, according to Sgt. James Witherspoon and Patrolman Dan Kelly.

Jennifer Atkins, Woods Hall, received bruises and was treated at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

Police said Lynn Williams Lane of Wickliffe, driving a 1966 Chevy II four door, was going south on North 14th Street, and said she did not see the pedestrians who were walking south on North 14th. The car hit them and knocked the two people down, police said. The driver of the car stopped and rendered aid.

Earlier at 8:27 p.m. Sunday Will Stanton Rogers, 1612 Hamilton, driving a 1969 Station Wagon, was backing out of his driveway and backed into the 1967 Pontiac owned by James Townsend Roberts of Dixon Route Two that was parked on the side of the street, according to Patrolman Moe Phillips and Sgt. James Brown.

Damage to the Rogers car was on the rear end and to the Roberts car on the left side.

Saturday at 6:45 p.m. R. H. Godin, driving a 1966 Volkswagen, owned by E. E. Hume of Frankfort, was going west on Main Street at 16th Street and pulled into the 1964 Buick owned by Larry Hart and driven by Joan McDougal Hart of 1706 Calloway Avenue, Murray, who was going east on Main Street, according to Patrolman Dwayne Elkins and Dale Spain.

Police said Godin was cited for driving while intoxicated. Damage to the Volkswagen was on the left front fender and to the Buick on the left rear fender.

Another accident occurred at 9:50 a.m. Saturday on Highway 681 South at Johnson Boulevard. Marbeth Y. Mathis, 1555 Johnson, driving a 1961 Rambler station wagon, was leaving the Sears parking lot, crossing 641 going into Johnson Boulevard, failed to see the 1964 Chevrolet going south on 641, because of the rain and fogged windows, and struck the Chevrolet in the right rear, according to Patrolman H. E. Wilson and Alvin Harris.

The Chevrolet was being driven by Ronald James Gardner of 502 Elm Street.

No One Is Hurt In Collision Which Involves Three Cars

A three car collision involving Kenneth C. Adams of Murray, Stephen P. Jones of Mayfield, and William E. Britt of Wingo Route Two occurred about 4:38 p.m. Wednesday in Mayfield, according to the Mayfield Messenger.

All three autos were traveling south on South 8th Street when the collision occurred, the police report said.

Adams stopped in the line of traffic on South 8th Street when Jones struck the rear of his auto and Britt collided with the rear of the Jones auto, the police report said.

Richard Bellando, director of the Kentucky Guild of Artists and Craftsmen will be in Murray on Tuesday and all members of the Guild are urged to be at the gallery to meet with him at 10:30 a.m.

Sorority In Charge Of Story Hour

The Alpha Omicron Pi social sorority of Murray State University has been in charge of the story hour at the Murray-Calloway County Library the past several weeks.

Members have chosen this as their community project and will continue helping in this capacity. Each Wednesday afternoon children are entertained with stories, movies, and games for one hour.

This Wednesday a movie, "A Visit From St. Nicholas" will be shown and stories will be told by three members of this organization. Miss Nancy Stow, Murray State University senior, is the AOPi president.

Open House At Art Guild Is Success

The open house of the Murray Art Guild was held yesterday with about 200 people attending.

Those attending saw approximately 250 paintings on display that had been painted by some 35 local artists.

The Guild was formed only a few months ago and occupied only one room, but has now grown to occupy six rooms above Douglas Hardware.

It was planned to have the Guild open every Saturday until Christmas, but the first showing was such a success the members are now keeping the rooms open every afternoon until Christmas, for the public to attend.

Mrs. Edna M. Miskin, president of the Guild and the member of the Guild who is in charge of the Guild's work, said that the Guild is now planning to have an afternoon between now and Christmas.

Richard Bellando, director of the Kentucky Guild of Artists and Craftsmen will be in Murray on Tuesday and all members of the Guild are urged to be at the gallery to meet with him at 10:30 a.m.

Bob Considine To Speak At Auditorium Here Tuesday Night

Bob Considine, widely-known newspaper columnist and radio commentator, will appear at Murray State University at 8 p.m. Tuesday night.

Considine, long a familiar personality on the Louisville scene, writes a syndicated column which appears in more than 250 newspapers and has a weekday radio program that is heard on more than 400 stations.

He is being brought to MSU by Student Council. He will appear in the ballroom of the student union building. Admission is free and the public is invited.

Considine began his news career as a sports reporter, but over the years he has handled all types of news assignments. He was a foreign correspondent during World War II, and his appearance at Murray follows closely his return from a recent trip abroad.

The award-winning reporter is the author of a number of books, including an autobiography, "It's All News To Me."

Cable Car Loses Grip, Careens Down Hill; 43 Are Injured

By PATRICK J. SULLIVAN
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A rainy night excursion on a cable car turned into a fiery horror for dozens of passengers Sunday when the tiny vehicle careened out of control through a maze of cars at the bottom of one of the city's steepest hills.

The cable car smashed into the side of one automobile containing seven members of one family, setting it ablaze and slamming it into another car and critically injuring its two occupants. Two other cars were damaged in the wreck.

Forty-three persons were injured, including six children. Four of the twelve persons hospitalized were in critical condition.

Comes Off Cable
The grinding accident resulted when the car lost its pincer-like grip on the twisted steel cable that buzzes under the tracks at a continuous nine miles an hour. It was one of the most spectacular mishaps involving cable cars since the colorful full-clippers went into service nearly a century ago.

Report Plane Crash

American spokesman also revealed the crash Nov. 30 of an Air Force twin-engine C7A carrying 26 persons and "classified material." All 26 were found dead but the secret material was recovered, they said.

Spokesmen said the Caribon crashed due to "unknown causes."

SMOKE DAMAGE

The Murray Fire Department was called to Richmond Hall on the Murray State University campus Saturday at six p.m. This was a fire in a trash can on the second floor. Only smoke damage was reported.

PERFORMANCES, Two Operas Rescheduled

The performances of two contemporary operas at Murray State University have been rescheduled for January 9-10, it was announced today.

The opera, "Slow Dusk" by Carlyle Floyd and "Comedy on the Bridge" by Bohuslav Martinu, were to have been staged December 7-8, according to R. W. Farrell, chairman of the fine arts department. He said the dates were shifted because of scheduling difficulties.

Farrell also said the productions would be in the recital hall of Price Doyle Fine Arts Building instead of the university auditorium, as previously announced.

The opera, with all roles taken by students, will be performed in the Round with the Murray State orchestra conducted by Lyle Blair. Directing the productions are Carl Rogers and Henry Bannan. Technical director is Lawrence Clark.

Both operas will be staged each night, beginning at 8 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained by writing to R. W. Farrell in care of the fine arts department at Murray State. They will also be available at the door.

Cong Attempt To Cut Supply Line Smashed Today

By EUGENE V. RISHER

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. troops and South Vietnamese Marines operating in the Mekong Delta from civil war-type gunboats today smashed a Viet Cong attempt to cut Saigon's main food supply line and inflicted a major defeat on Red forces.

A U.S. military spokesman said the Viet Cong had suffered at least 199 killed in a battle that still raged at sundown. American and South Vietnamese casualties were not announced pending outcome of the battle, but U.S. losses were two dead and several wounded in the early stages.

The spokesman said the battle was shaping up as a major defeat for the Viet Cong who hold numerous strongholds in the water-lagged delta barely 60 miles south of Saigon but who cannot cope with the armor-plated, air-conditioned gunboats.

In other action, guerrillas struck America's largest war base at Long Binh, lighting huge fires that lit up Saigon's northern horizon and ate into piles of building material and clothing. U.S. spokesmen also reported the loss of 26 men aboard a plane that went down with secret material over guerrilla-infested jungles.

Near the Demilitarized Zone U.S. officials said the 7th Fleet destroyer USS Osborn took a direct hit from a North Vietnamese shore battery.

Two Sailors Killed
"The projectile penetrated the main deck and detonated in a compartment," a communiqué said. The Osborn remained operational, but two sailors were killed and three wounded, the spokesman said.

In the delta, 50 miles southwest of Saigon, armored Navy gunboats called Monitors because of their resemblance to civil war monitors churned up the Cochien River. U.S. troops aboard the air-conditioned battleboats spotted the guerrillas caking in on highway four.

The Communists opened fire, hoping to chase away the Americans. The U.S. forces unleashed their full firepower and the troops stormed ashore.

Earlier today guerrillas fired rockets into the Long Binh base which sprawls five miles along a main highway 15 miles north of Saigon. The rockets wounded no GIs but ignited a field of 40,000 55-gallon drums of liquid asphalt, starting a fire U.S. commanders said will take three days to douse.

Spokesmen said the Caribon crashed due to "unknown causes."

Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

WASHINGTON — Edward Schwartz, president of the National Student Association, referring to Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey's directive that student antiwar protesters be stripped of the draft deferments:

"I think it destroys the whole notion of military service being a privilege and an obligation and not a punishment; I think it bypasses all the normal administrative protections of the process of law; and I think it acts as a real damper on free discussion and dissent."

WASHINGTON — Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, saying the price increase announced by U.S. Steel is inflationary and harmful to the industry's competitive position in the world market:

"The way for steel to solve its problems is not to raise its prices but to lower its costs through improved technology and productivity."

CAPETOWN, South Africa — Dr. Christian Barnard, announcing history's first cardiac transplant operation in which a heart was transplanted into the chest of groceryman Louis Washkansky:

"If it had not been for this man's courage and will to live this operation would never have succeeded."

WASHINGTON — The father of Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, telling reporters about his and his wife's stay at the White House prior to his son's marriage to Lynda Bird Johnson Saturday:

"Living at the White House is delightful. And the service is good."

Income Tax Questions & Answers

Q — I don't have a maid anymore but you've still deducted the Social Security tax from I used to fill out for her. How can I get this stopped?

A — If you do not expect to be paying any taxable wages to household help in the future write "final return" on the bottom of the Form 942 you received in the mail and send it back. Your name will then be removed from the mailing list.

Q — I've been renting a house to a couple for less than I usually would get. Can I deduct as a loss on my tax return the difference between what they pay me and what I would otherwise receive?

A — No. The difference is really a contribution to your parents' support and is not deductible. In addition, depreciation and other expenses of property rented to a relative or friend at less than a rental value may only be deducted to the extent of the rent received.

Q — I'm a recent widow. Is there any change I should make in my withholding?

A — No. You need not make any change in your withholding in the year of your husband's death. However, if your husband was claiming withholding exemptions for you, your dependents (if any) and himself, you may file a new Form W-4, claiming such withholding exemptions yourself. Of course, you may not claim a withholding exemption for your husband after the year of his death. Furthermore, for withholding purposes if you qualify as a surviving spouse for the two years after your husband's death the tax will be withheld at the same rate as for married persons.

Q — Is there any penalty for not paying your estimated tax?

A — Yes. There will be a charge of 6 percent per year on the unpaid amount of any installment.

Q — Our church is having a special offering this Thanksgiving and is asking for contributions in food as well as money. Will either be tax deductible?

A — Yes. Contributions of food or money to a qualified organization, such as a church, will be deductible. Gifts to individuals are not deductible.

Q — My return was audited and the agent wouldn't accept checks paid out to a qualified organization, such as a church, will be deductible. Gifts to individuals are not deductible.

A — To substantiate a deductible expense your records must indicate, among other things, the purpose of the expense, and to whom paid, as well as the amount. A check made out to cash or to yourself gives no indication by itself of the nature of the expense. This kind of check must be supported by other records, such as receipts, to be useful in proving any deductions you claim.

A check made out to a specific organization or person, a charity or a doctor for example, may well be sufficient to establish that a deductible expenditure has been made.

Q — I'm working part-time to earn some extra spending money this Christmas. Can I stop Social Security withholding on the second job since my regular employer already withheld the full amount?

A — No. Each employer is required to withhold Social Security taxes on the first $6,600 of income paid each employee during 1967. If, so you say, more than $320.40 is withheld from your wages for Social Security in 1967, because you worked for two or more employers, then the excess should be taken as a tax credit on your 1967 income tax return.

Q — I was left some property by an uncle. Is there any federal income tax on this?

A — There is no Federal income tax on gifts, bequests, or inheritances. However, if property so received later produces income of a taxable nature, interest, dividends or rentals, for example, the income is taxable to you.

COEDS COMPLAIN

CANTERBURY, England (UPI) — The coeds of Canterbury University today protested the high cost of birth control pills.

An article in Medical News said the girls were asking a half-cent discount on oral contraceptives that sell for 5 cents each. There is a 10 per cent discount on other locally sold items and the girls want it applied to the contraceptives.

Stan Key was named in the "Top 500 High School Players in the Nation by the Basketball Annual, published by Complete Sports Publications, Inc.

This is a real honor, but if the order they listed them in means anything, they don't know as much about basketball as they think they do. They listed players such as Jerry Dunn, of Glasgow, Tom Hoffman of Butler, and several more that I know can't be as good as Stan, above him, in the Kentucky list.

The drawings were held last night, for the Calloway County Christmas Tournament at the Holiday Inn, in a meeting of the coaches of the schools that will be playing in the tournament.

In the first game, to be played at 7:00 p.m. on December 13, Lowes will meet South Marshall. In the night cap Hickman County will play Tilghman, with game time set at 8:30.

On December 14 Murray High will play Mayfield in the first game and Carlisle will play host team Calloway County in the last game of the first round.

The semi-finals will be played on December 15th and the finals on Saturday night, December 16.

This should be one of, if not the best tournaments that will be played in this area, this year. If I had to rate the top ten teams in the first region, there is a real good chance that these eight teams would be rated.

Tilghman and Hickman played Saturday night with Tilghman winning 77-74. Hickman has defeated two other teams in the tourney, Calloway 81 to 66 and Carlisle 84 to 68. Calloway has lost to South Marshall also. Murray High will play Mayfield and Tilghman between now and tournament time.

Carlisle holds a win over Lowes also. As it stands now Murray High and Tilghman are the only two undefeated teams that will play in the tournament, but this will be changed on the eighth, when they meet.

How would you like to have a team with Rick Barry and Jerry Lucas at forwards, Bill Russell at center, and Oscar Robertson and Jerry West at guards? And have some sub like Wilt Chamberlain, Elgin Baylor, John Havlicek, Willis Reed, Adrian Smith, Sam Jones, and Len Wilkens. Should win a few games.

CATHY HARRIS

Cathy Harris is the seventeen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Harris of Lynn Grove. She is a senior at Calloway County High School.

Cathy has been a cheerleader for three years and was attendant to the basketball queen during her sophomore year. She is presently the president of the Calloway County Chapter of Future Homemakers of America, state song leader, and represented Kentucky in the All-States Chorus at the National FHA Convention in Los Angeles, California.

Cathy participates in various other school activities. She is the vice-president of the Calloway County Beta Club. She is also an active member of FBLA, NFL, Laker Chorus, and the 1967-68 Quad-State Chorus.

Cathy likes all sports but her favorites include basketball and baseball.

She enjoys playing the piano and singing with the Beta Five.

Cathy is a member of the Williams Chapel Church of Christ and teaches a Sunday School Class.

The Elementary School of the Week is the Lynn Grove Wildcats, coached by Buddy Edolo.

Rentz May Beat Spurrier Out On Sat.

By DAVID M. MOFFITT
UPI Sports Writer

ATLANTA (AP) — Slender Larry Rentz of Florida will have put in only six games as an offensive back this season; but if he comes up with an "average" performance against Miami Saturday, he can succeed former teammate Steve Spurrier as the total offense champ of the Southeastern Conference.

Rentz didn't take over as quarterback of the Gators until the fourth game of the season and then missed a game because of an injury. But he's averaged 211 yards per game when he has been at the Gators' helm and needs 227 Saturday to overtake pace-setting Loran Carter of Auburn.

Carter wound up his season this past Saturday with 1,373 yards when he passed for 117 yards in the teeth of a driving rain and a stiff wind in Auburn's 7-3 loss to seventh-ranked Alabama. Rentz has 1,147 yards to show for his part-time work.

Yale Wins Title

Elsewhere Saturday, second-ranked Tennessee routed Vanderbilt 41-14 to wrap up the SEC championship. Mississippi beat Mississippi State 14-3 and Ole Miss edged Florida A&M 28-25 in the Orange Blossom Classic at Miami.

That was the only action in the South this past weekend and now the only remaining regular season game is the nationally televised Miami-Florida clash.

After that come the bowls. Georgia meets North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl Dec. 16; Miami takes on Colorado in the Bluebonnet Bowl Dec. 23; Florida State plays Penn State in the Gator Bowl and Mississippi goes against Texas-El Paso in the Sun Bowl Dec. 30; and Tennessee plays third-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

Alabama plays Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl and Louisiana State plays unbeaten Wyoming in the Super Bowl on Jan. 1.

Auburn dominated play by logging several good scoring chances against Alabama Saturday. Stabler won it to ride Tide when he rolled out on a routine option play and found a clear path to the Tiger goal.

The victory gave Alabama an 8-1-1 season and second place in the SEC. Auburn wound up at 6-4, losing three of its last five games.

Tennessee simply outclassed Vanderbilt while winning its first SEC championship since 1956. Quarterback Dewey Warren passed the Vol to a 24-0 halftime lead, then retired for the afternoon. Alabama's Walter Chadwick scored his 10th and 11th touchdowns of the season to take second place in SEC scoring behind Kentucky's Dick Lyons who had 73 points.

Goodridge Pade Records Vanderbilt's Bob Goodridge, the former defensive player, who became an all-conference offensive end, tied the SEC record by catching 13 passes for 106 yards. That gave Goodridge 79 receptions and 1,144 yards for the season. The former record, set last season by Florida's Dick Trapp, was 637.

Tennessee finished with a 9-1 mark while Vanderbilt was 2-7-1 in coach Bill Pace's first season. Mississippi junior tailback Steve Hindman gained 60 yards to wind up with 829 yards rushing for the season. Florida's Larry Smith, last year's rushing champ, is runner-up with 713 yards and that Miami game yet to play.

Hindman broke an SEC record Georgia's Frankie Sinkwich set in 1941, carrying the ball 215 times this season. Sinkwich carried 209 times.

Mississippi had a 6-3-1 record; Mississippi State, which scored only 10 points while losing all six of its conference games, ended with a 1-9 mark. This, the first year Charlie Shira has been head coach, was the worst Mississippi State showing since 1949 when the Bulldogs were 0-8-1.

Navy Upsets Army On Saturday 19-14

By STU CAMEN
UPI Sports Writer

The "rattler" struck Saturday and its victim was the Army football team.

For three years Navy quarterback John Cartwright lived with the charge that he rattled when he directed his team against Army. Prior to this year's game, Army captain Bud Newsham was quoted as saying, "Cartwright always rattles against Army."

Following Cartwright's rattling performance in the 68th renewal of the service academy clash, won by Navy 19-14, Newsham had changed his tune and the Midshipmen's quarter back proved he can be as dangerous as the rattler of the snake family.

Cartwright completed 19 of 29

National Champions, Big Lew Alcindor Headed For Let Down

By STEVE SMILANICH
UPI Sports Writer

The reign of Lew Alcindor and UCLA as kings of college basketball could be shorter than expected but don't count on an early abdication by the Bruins.

Rival coaches and teams, many of them living in dread of UCLA, got some hope the opening weekend when the defending national champion Bruins were nearly knocked off the throne by Purdue before pulling out a 73-71 triumph.

While Purdue's ability to nearly upset the invincible Bruins demonstrated UCLA will have an uphill battle shooting for its fourth national title in the last five years, it also showed the Los Angeles club still has depth and poise to go all the way.

Long Jumper Wins

Bill Sweek, an unknown in a lineup consisting of such stalwarts as Alcindor and supporting cast members Lucius Allen, Lynn Shackelford, Ken Heltz, Mike Warren, Edgar Lacey and Mike Lynn, hit a 34-foot jumper with two seconds remaining to edge the Boiler-makers.

The close victory enabled UCLA to stretch its winning streak to 35 games over a three-year period.

The close contest highlighted the opening weekend of the new season in which every team in the top 20 except seventh-ranked Boston College saw action.

All of the ranked teams with the exception of 19th-ranked Niagara came through with victories. Long Island University upset Niagara 84-79 despite a 41-point performance by sophomore Calvin Murphy.

Second-ranked Houston rallied to a 110-79 win over Sacramento State, third-ranked Kansas crushed Utah State 84-55, fifth-ranked North Carolina defeated Virginia Tech 88-78, sixth-ranked Dayton topped Northern Michigan 78-61 and Vanderbilt, tied for ninth, beat Southern Methodist 88-84.

Indiana Winner

In other big opening games Indiana beat Northern Illinois 71-65, Davidson downed VMI 90-73, Texas A&M Texas Western defeated U. Texas at Arlington 90-65, Wyoming trounced Nevada Southern 120-47, Brigham Young downed Denver 88-78, New Mexico edged Seattle 68-63 and Washington nipped Miami Fla. 81-60.

Defending NIT champion Southern Illinois trounced Mac-Murray 75-51, Notre Dame beat St. Joseph's Ind. 97-72, Illinois downed Butler 75-57, St. John's N. Y. beat Virginia 82-63 and Connecticut stopped Yale 70-62.

Second-ranked Houston plays tonight, taking on Atlanta Christian and Colorado meets Utah at Salt Lake City.

Art Guepe Is Disappointed In Small Crowd At OVC Tourney

NASHVILLE (AP) — OVC Commissioner Art Guepe expressed disappointment Sunday at the small crowds attending the conference basketball tournament here Friday and Saturday.

However, Guepe would make no prediction about the future of the conference tournament.

"We'll just have to wait and see. We'll talk about that later," said Guepe.

Tennessee Tech stormed past Murray 67-50 Saturday night to take its first Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship in the school's history.

Tech gained the finals by knocking East Tennessee State 64-62 in an afternoon game, and Murray pulled the upset of the meet by knocking off defending league champion Western Kentucky 83-75 to win its final berth.

Ron Sutton led the Golden Eagles in the championship game with 21 points. His brother, Jim, hit for 17 and Frank Bartleson rimmed 14.

Murray's Tommy Moran scored 28 points to pace the losers. Dick Cunningham, who hauled in 34 rebounds in the win over Western, was limited to nine by Tech.

Voted the outstanding player in the tournament was Cunningham.

Others making the all-tournament team were Murray teammates Billy Chumler and Moran; Tech's Bartleson and Jim Sutton; MTSU's Willie Brown; Western's Wayne Chapman; and Butch Kaufman; ETSU's Harley Swift; and Larry Jordan of Morehead.

TRAIN-TRUCK COLLISION

Household Hints

Almost anything can serve as a toy for a youngster. To encourage creativity, try giving a small boy a few scraps of wood, hammer, saw and nails. For a small girl, scraps of material, needle and thread, scissors and a doll will keep her busy for hours.

New latex house paints can be applied even if the day calls for light showers. The house paint actually spreads more easily on damp wood.

Since slide and window fans exchange inside air for outside air, they work to best advantage whenever the temperature inside the house is higher than the temperature outside.

Give Him Facts, Not the Brush

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is an executive who must make occasional business trips. I have been kidding quite a bit lately about his new red-headed secretary. She's Australian, around 30, supposedly very pretty and married, which may or may not mean anything.

Anyway, my husband recently returned from an out-of-town business trip and when I unpacked his things, as I always do, I found a red hair in his hairbrush. I am keeping it as "evidence" in case I need it.

Have you any ideas on how I can get a hair out of his secretary's head without her knowing? I would like to send both hairs to a chemist to determine whether they are from the same head.

My husband's hair (what there is left of it) is decidedly gray. Thank you. SUSPICIOUS IN SYRACUSE

DEAR SUSPICIOUS: The obvious solution would be for you to engage the red-head in a hair-pulling contest, but I wouldn't recommend it. (I hear the "Aussies" are excellent fighters.) Why not confront your husband with the "evidence." Don't give him the brush. Just ask him to explain it.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem that concerns not only me, but all the other kids who ride my bus. It is my bus driver, a woman. First of all she drives a little too fast, and second, when she has to put on her brakes because the car in front of her puts on his brakes, she waits until she is about a foot away from the car she is trying not to hit.

How can I tell her she does these things without hurting her feelings because she is really a very nice lady? I am surprised we didn't have an accident yet, but some of the kids have black and blue marks all over from where she slammed on her brakes and everybody went flying.

DEAR ABBY: First, tell the woman bus driver what you've said me. If that doesn't slow her up, tell your mother.

DEAR ABBY: For reasons which you will understand when you read this letter, I cannot ask anyone I know to help me with this problem. You are my last hope, so don't let me down, Abby. I want to get a social security card, but I understand to get one I have to present my birth certificate.

Here's my problem: I am an illegitimate child and I don't have a birth certificate.

Worse yet, there is a question as to who my father was. My mother says one thing, and my relatives say something else. (To be truthful with you, I don't think my mother knows for sure.)

Anyway, I was told that the birth certificates of illegitimate children are looked up somewhere, and it would take an act of Congress to get one out. So what do you suggest I do now?

DEAR ABBY: I read of the difficulty encountered by young brides replacing what to call their mothers-in-law. Recently a friend's son married, and her new daughter-in-law calls her "mamma-law." I think this is a wonderful solution. It is respectful and has a feeling of warmth and love. I hope this will solve someone else's problem. I am sure it would have solved mine 40 years ago. I. M. G.

Cook Up A Present

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Now's the time to start cooking up ideas for Christmas presents—the homemade kind. Take your choice of the sweet treats suggested today and do let the children help you make them, for Christmas cooking makes pleasure today and happy memories tomorrow.

PARTY BROWNIES

1/2 c. sugar
1/2 c. shortening
2 tsp. water
1 (2 1/2) 6 oz. pkg. moist mix
1 tsp. vanilla
2 eggs
1/2 c. flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. soda
1/2 c. coarsely chopped nuts
Combine sugar, shortening, and water in saucepan. Bring just to a boil; remove from heat. Add chocolate morsels and vanilla. Stir until blended. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Sift in flour, soda, and salt. Add nuts. Mix until blended. Spread in greased 9-in. square pan. Bake in a 325°F. oven 25 minutes. Cool. Frost with Confectioners' Glaze. When frosting is set, cut into 36 (2-in.) squares.

CONFECTIONERS' GLAZE

1 c. sifted confectioners' sugar
2 tsp. light corn syrup
1 tsp. milk
1/2 tsp. vanilla
1 or 2 drops green food coloring
Combine and stir ingredients until blended. Spread on cooled brownies.

FLORENTINE Dainties

2 eggs
1/2 c. sugar
1/2 c. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1 (6 oz.) pkg. semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1/2 c. finely cut dates
1/2 c. chopped walnuts
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
Combine eggs and sugar and beat until thick and lemon colored. Sift in flour and salt. Stir in remaining ingredients. Drop by rounded teaspoons, 2 inches apart, on well-greased baking sheet. Bake in 325°F. oven 12 to 15 min. Remove immediately.

GIFT BASKET holds two chocolate-favorite treats: Party Brownies with Confectioners' Glaze; Florentine Dainties.

WHIP UP a batch of candies for Christmas

Unadorned molasses flavors peanut butter, taffy, popcorn balls.

from baking sheet. Cool.

MOLASSES TAFFY

1 c. West Indies molasses
1 c. sugar
1 tsp. butter or margarine
Combine all ingredients in a 2-qt. saucepan. Place over low heat; stir until sugar is dissolved. Cook over medium heat until syrup reaches 272°F. on a candy thermometer, or when small amount of syrup dropped in cold water separates into threads which are hard but not brittle.

Four onto greased platter. As edges cool, fold toward center or they will harden before center is ready to pull. When candy is cool enough to handle, press into ball with lightly buttered fingers.

Pull until candy is light in color and ready to harden. Stretch into long rope 1/4 in. wide. Cut into 1 in. pieces. Wrap each piece of taffy in wax paper.

MOLASSES PEANUT BUTTLE

1 c. West Indies molasses
1 c. sugar
1 tsp. butter or margarine
1/2 tsp. baking soda
2 c. chopped peanuts
Combine molasses, sugar and butter in a 2-qt. saucepan. Place over low heat; stir until sugar is dissolved. Cook over medium heat until syrup reaches 270°F. on a candy thermometer, or when small amount of syrup dropped in very cold water separates into threads which are hard but not brittle.

Remove from heat, stir in baking soda and nuts. Turn into greased 8-in. square pan; spread quickly. When slightly cool, cut into squares.

Yields 1 1/2 lbs. candy.

POPCORN BALLS

1 c. West Indies molasses
1 c. sugar
1 tsp. butter or margarine
4 qts. unsalted popped corn
Combine molasses, sugar and butter in 2-qt. saucepan. Place over low heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Cook over medium heat until syrup reaches 270°F. on candy thermometer, or when small amount of syrup dropped in very cold water separates into threads which are hard but not brittle.

Four syrup over popped corn, stirring to coat each kernel.

When cool enough to handle, shape into balls with lightly buttered hands. Wrap each popcorn ball in waxed paper.

Yields 2 doz. popcorn balls.

Fashionettes

If the currently fashionable mini-bag leaves you wondering where to store all the usual handbag trappings, one long-time designer of purses has the answer. Own a mini and a tote bag. To insure smartness, Gracie of Gracie Originals, New York, styles the tiny purses and the large ones to match. For spring, they're made up in assorted colors of patterns.

A full line of nationally-branded jewelry features fine natural stones of diamond, ruby and sapphire plus the man-made "luxe emeralds." Styles of the line of rings, pins, pendants, earrings and brooches range from classic to avant garde and have been chosen from 20,000 designs submitted by leading French and Italian jewelry designers. Most of the items are priced below $1,000, but special items ranging up to $20,000 can be ordered. A custom service also is available.

One of fall's most popular handbags is the shoulder style, shown usually with hardware trim. Chains, bits and buckles are used for trim or closings. They're a hit especially with the high school and college set.

The choice of neckline patterns by any man can be influenced by the shape of his face. The American Institute of Men's and Boy's Wear, Inc., made these suggestions: A man with a long, thin face looks well in polo dot and circular patterns; a man with a round face will appear to be less so if he wears diagonal or vertical stripes.

Should a man's hat match his overcoat or suit? The fashion experts say the hat should blend with the coat, not match. For example: a gray or black hat with a blue coat.

TO DEPORT SAILORS

LAOS, Nigeria 270 — Nigeria will deport seven Dutch sailors convicted of smuggling guns to the secessionist eastern region of Biafra, the government said Friday. The seven crewmen of the vessel Josna were sentenced to 12 years in prison but Maj. Gen. Yakubu Gowon said it had been decided to deport the men rather than imprison them.

The busy gal who wants to run up a dress in a hurry now can do so without touching the sewing machine. The secret: the new paper materials available by the yard and new kinds of pressure-sensitive tapes. One tape manufacturer tells how. Cut the paper into a simple pattern, say an A-line without belt. Close seams, and do hem and facings with a double-faced adhesive tape, made of cloth, and coated to shed water. Let yourself go on trimmings. For instance, using a bouquet of plastic colored tapes, lay out a large flower across the front. Or, make a big patch pocket. Or, make a series of the tape up and down or on the diagonal. Some inventive types make a headband of the material and hold it under the hair with tape.

If you want a cleansing sponge to look like something else, how about this version: One maker does a novelty in foam called "ham on rye" that resembles a sandwich. Outer layers are light rye color, the center is pink.

Especially for holiday meals are deep dish bowls of plastic. Designs feature poinsettia, elves and reindeer and with the set is a sectional holly leaf serving bowl.

For the cooks who like Oriental touches, there is a special three-piece hibachi tool set of mini-size fork, tongs and spatula. They're of stainless steel with blackwood handles and sealed to hibachi cooking.

Handy for entertaining but taking up little space is a portable, sliding-top buffet cabinet of white metal. Its sliding top opens to 46 inches, the cabinet has a drawer and two doors and the works is set on casters.

CHAPTER 15
The next morning provided a rude shock.
At half past nine, when Andy Buchanan's girl, Linda Hill, was going to Wells's store to do some shopping, she stopped at a sharp crack sounded and on the roadside earth erupted into the air. She screamed, and someone shouted to her to take cover. That was a shell that had just fallen. The terrible threat had really happened. The Boers had kept their promise to begin shelling the town.

Minutes later the alarm bells rang, and as the shelling began in earnest there wasn't a person to be seen. The Boers had moved forward two light guns and were aiming their fire at the railway station. They failed to hit it, but two shells struck the Convent, in spite of the Red Cross flag displayed.

Presently a new trouble occurred. The water taps ran dry. This could only mean the Boer patrols had taken possession of the water reservoir some two and a half miles out of the town. However, this move had been anticipated. Householders had been warned some days ago by Mayor Hepworth to fill every possible receptacle they had, and as a precaution several wells had been dug to provide drinking water. For additional supplies, the Molopo was conveniently handy. It would have to be the last of the women to see that their supplies of water were replenished at night or in the early morning before shelling began. Provided, of course, that the Boers kept their activity to the daylight hours.

At the time they were given, the women had latched calmly enough to these instructions, but now they must actually be put in force. There was panic. What with the intermittent sounds of exploding shells and the tap running dry, Mrs. Ryan began to scream the Boers were poisoning the water and they would all die of thirst.

Alice Partridge, who at the sound of shelling had made the little girls hide under her bed, pretending it was a game they were playing, began to weep silently when she found what had happened. She had to stand still for several minutes, willing herself to be calm, until Panny's plaintive voice—"Mama, when are you going to find us? We think this game is rather tedious"—made her quickly dry her eyes and go back to the bedroom.

Bertie had told her that when the alarm bells rang she must take the children to the nearest bombproof shelter, but there hadn't been time. The shells had begun to fall before the alarm bells had rung. An alarm bell had rung. An alarm bell had rung. An alarm bell had rung.

The man, bearded and almost as dirty as his makeshift flag, looked surprised and said he preferred to deliver his message first. General Smyman wanted Colonel Baden-Powell to know that the Boers were wanted. Making in force, with artillery, and he would like to give the Colonel an opportunity to surrender now and avoid further bloodshed.

"Bloodshed?" inquired the Colonel, his jaunty ginger eyebrows lifted. "Ask General Smyman when the bloodshed is going to begin. You can scarcely give us a chance to come firing when we haven't begun."

He calmly gave orders that the envoy be given a substantial lunch, to show him there was no lack of food. Then the puzzled man, who must

Billy Ryan is faced with a shocking discovery.

HONORED SILENCE
Since it appears to me that there is no other chance of taking Mafeking than by means of a bombardment, I have to adopt that course with regret. I have to allow you my night's sleep, to prepare your people black and white. You have to see that your combatants have Mafeking before the explosion of that mine. If you go not comply with this I will not be answerable for the result.

The allowed to you I reckon from Saturday 21st, at 6 a. m., till Monday morning, the 23rd at the same hour.

There was no doubt about this. The armor train, setting out on torpedoes, had been all too successful in picking off Boers, who had no weapons which were effective against its armor.

Moreover, the Boers had a healthy fear of the mines rumored to be laid. They had no experience of night fighting, which was the only time they might successfully have penetrated the defenses, and before they could decide to embark on such a perilous action, the ingenious British had devised another weapon, a system of searchlights, which were merely a couple of incandescent bulbs welded together with an acetylene burner inserted and made to swing on a pole.

There was a sudden storm that night, with wind and lashing rain. But the morning dawned fair and hot, and the presence of the air lifted people's spirits. Cronje was bluffing, just as Baden-Powell was bluffing about the number of minefields. He would never turn a big gun on a helpless town and massacre everybody in it.

Billy Ryan is faced with a shocking discovery.

"Social security has become the greatest social welfare program ever undertaken involving some 180 million U.S. citizens. The appalling fact is that most of the people now under social security and these paying the taxes to support it, probably do not realize that they are not buying an insurance policy, that they have no contract of any sort which guarantees payment of benefits of any certain amount, that funds are not set aside for the payment of benefits and that current benefits are paid out of current social security taxes, if from funds which the government borrows. If obligations to pay benefits outrun the willingness of working people to pay taxes and budgetary limitations prevent other financing, Congress can, at any time, change the law to redistribute, withhold or discontinue benefits conferred. The fact is that the description of the program given in the official booklet, 'Your Social Security', to the effect that 9 out of 10 working people, 'are now building protection for themselves and their families under the Social Security program', and that 'the amount will depend on your average earnings' is just plain poppycock."

J. Edgar Hoover places organized crime in a separate category from the run of the mill criminal art. He says even the vicious killer and the hapless repeater continually encountered by law enforcement officers do not fall in the same category. He lists the Com. Norsa as the most powerful group of hoodlums in the country. Being a leader is a lonely role. A leader can ask for advice, listen to various measures and counter measures, but in the final analysis, he must make a decision and rise or fall with it.

We appreciated Mayor Holmes Ellis' position the other night at the council meeting. The council had voted on whether to place bumpers on South 11th Street to slow the traffic and had come up with a 6-6 tie. This is the first tie vote during Mayor Ellis' time in office, to the best of our recollection.

In the event of a tie vote, the mayor votes. This is the only time he does vote.

Mayor Ellis did not equivocate, but voted no on the issue.

Residents of South 11th Street can rest assured that if he had considered the traffic control bumpers a worthy thing, he would have voted yes. These bumpers were tried out on North 14th a couple of years ago and proved to be such a bad move that residents asked for their removal.

Police simply cannot be everywhere at the same time and it is becoming increasingly necessary for citizens to cooperate more fully with police in apprehension of law breakers.

The taking of license numbers by citizens on a street and the filing of a complaint will go far in breaking up speeding on any street in town. It is as if the police are everywhere at the same time.

We must say that Mr. Porter,

HUMAN HEART

cepted the new heart. Mr. Washkansky is conscious.

Anne Washkansky, the grocer's 53-year-old wife looked radiant today.

"A Miracle"

"A miracle has taken place," she beamed. "I knew that if the operation were not performed, my husband would be dead within a matter of weeks."

Jonathan Van Wyk, a 10-year-old colored boy was given a kidney from the dead young woman whose heart was implanted in Washkansky, was reported progressing satisfactorily at Karle Remer Hospital in Bellevue, 20 miles from Cape Town. "Colored" in South African terminology means racially mixed.

The heart belonged to Denise Darvall, 25. She died moments before the surgery of injuries suffered in a Saturday night traffic accident. Her 38-year-old mother was killed by the automobile that also hit her. Her sobbing father could just shake his head and say "Yes" when doctors quietly asked, "will you do us and humanity a favor?"

Heart Functioning Normally

Denise's heart was functioning normally in Washkansky's chest, doctors said.

Doctors said Washkansky was doing "very well." They appeared almost confident of his full recovery. American doctors had been speaking for the residents on the street in question, did a bang-up job of presenting the problem, answering questions posed to him by the council, and maintaining a sense of calm which added prestige to his request.

preparing similar surgery. But chance gave the South Africans the first opportunity.

Before surgery Washkansky had been suffering heart trouble for seven years and, doctors said, he was a dying man. Denise may have saved another life too.

Doctors removed a kidney from her body. It was rushed 20 miles to Bellevue where it was transplanted into the body of a 10-year-old Negro boy.

Kidney transplants are a decade old. But heart transplants are only as old as Sunday, Dec. 3. "It was like switching on the ignition of a car," marvelled one doctor who watched.

Quick Decision

The operation in Grootte Schuur Hospital began after Barnard told Washkansky a heart was available.

Barnard Sunday gave Washkansky two days to decide. The grocer's wife said he decided "in two minutes."

"If it had not been for this man's courage and will to live the operation would never have succeeded," Barnard said. He immediately called in a platoon of specialists. Squads of doctors lined the operating chamber, waiting for history.

Barnard had five teams set up. The first team connected heart and lung machines to Washkansky and the body of Denise.

The second team removed Denise's heart and connected it to a pump to keep blood circulating in it.

The third team removed Washkansky's heart.

The fourth team placed Denise's heart into Washkansky's chest cavity. The medical team connected it to veins and arteries.

The fifth team placed electrodes against the transplanted heart and applied a short burst of electricity.

The heart began to beat on its own.

Other surgeons kept the heart and lung machines going, helping the "new" heart for an hour.

Then it was on its own.

Dr. Jacobus Burger, the hospital chief, told newsmen stories, normally used in cancer treatment, were being given to prevent Washkansky's body from rejecting the new tissue.

Normally, a person's natural immunity of bacteria and cells would cause him to reject a major transplant.

ANOTHER QUAKE

MOSCOW (AP) — The 6.03rd earthquake in the past 19 months shook the central Asian metropolis of Tashkent Friday. No injuries or damage was reported. Tass, the Soviet news agency, said the tremor measured four points on the 12-point Mercalli scale. The April 27, 1966 quake at Tashkent leveled a third of the city and killed eight persons.

Jewel Box Lovelies

Suggested For Holiday Wear
And Gifts

TAJ MAHAL, an exotic necklace, has suspended from three pseudo turquoise bead chains a plaque of flashing pretend cabochon turquoise and rubies plus pave rhinestones. Bracelet completes the set but can be bought separately.

GALAXY, a rhinestone and bright stone studded jewelry set, combines a choker necklace and long drop earrings. It is available in several stone combinations with and without rhinestones as well as in a glowing all rhinestone version.

FORE-AND-AFT platinum and gold earrings have fine tassel chains cascading down in front and back of ear lobes. The matching tassel necklace is a perfect foil for a simple solid colored dress. The set comes also in all platinum.

By TAD ROWADY:

WOMAN is a natural show-case for jewelry. She wears earrings in her ears; necklaces around her neck; bracelets on her arms, wrists and ankles; brooches on her bosom; jeweled belts around her waist; rings on her fingers and a tiara on her hair.

Wouldn't it be gauche to wear all these at once? What a sight! What a thought! Fortunately the lady of fashion wears no more jewelry than is permitted by good taste but even though she has a good supply of jewels—real or otherwise (costume pieces)—she welcomes receiving still more, preferably of the "otherwise."

Since the giving of jewels on special occasions to a beloved one is a custom as old as mankind, the gift of jewelry at Christmas is a charming way to express your fond sentiments.

These fine sets from Trifari's extensive collection for all types of apparel are designed to complement late-day and evening wear and will make exciting gifts.

You will find, also, in Tri-fari's jewelry collection a bonanza of gold and glitter to scintillate with the new blacks, browns and various shadow-tone colors.

Because tailored clothes need a colorful touch of fine jewelry as a counterpoint, there are many divinely simple items for suits and casual wear.

However, selection must be made carefully and must suit the individual for whom it is intended. For example: Don't select long earrings for a woman who has a short neck, or chunky bracelets for thin arms. Remember rhinestones are not appropriate for all women. So use discretion. Jewelry is not returnable.

"Social security has been the greatest social service ever undertaken involving 100 million U.S. citizens. The fact is that most people now under social and these paying the support it, probably do not realize that they are not by insurance policy, that is no contract of any sort. The fact is that the government's payment of benefits is not set aside for the payment of benefits and that current are paid out of current security taxes or from the government's general fund. The government's willingness to work for the payment of benefits is not a tax and budgetary provisions prevent other Congress can, at any time, the law to restrict or discontinue benefits. The fact is that the program given in the booklet "Your Social Security" is the effect that 9 out of 10 people, "are now building on for themselves and their families under the Social Security plan", and that "the amount depend on your average is just plain poppycock."
