MEETING IS HELD TODAY ON PUEBLO

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

You all remember Franklin Jones. He used to live at the corner of Seventh and Sproun with his family and he was the principal at Faxon School. He left Faxon to work on his Ph.D. degree which he now has. He is an instructor at David Lipscomb College at Nashville.

Well, anyway, Franklin sends us a clipping from the Nashville Banner which carries the expression of a father about his son who is serving in Viet Nam. The father is a WW II veteran, an officer in the Pacific, who thought that he was fighting a war which would keep his son from going through the same thing. One of the brothers of the man who wrote the proud words below, fought to the bitter end on Iwo Jima, was held prisoner for several years, and died on a prison ship bound for Japan. Before we forget it, Franklin's address, for those who would like to write him is 1110 Morrow Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37204.

Stubblefield Scores Food And Drug Head On Statement

Congressman Frank A. Stubblefield has come out in defense of the "former drug store" and has taken issue with Dr. James Goddard, federal Food and Drug Commissioner who has advocated that such stores be closed down within twenty years.

Congressman Stubblefield said that Goddard "has turned the clock back 50 years on progressive and high quality medical care and demonstrated an unawareness of the health needs of this country."

Commissioner Goddard has proposed that corner drugstores be closed down that prescriptions be filled only in the physician's office and the hospital.

Stubblefield said Goddard's statements "show a disregard for the American free enterprise system that has produced the world's best system of drug distribution through the nation's 50,000 drugstores."

"I am appalled by Dr. Goddard's remarks. Millions of people daily seek medical and public health advice and counsel in our drugstores."

Accidents Are Investigated Over Weekend

Three traffic accidents were investigated by the Murray Police Department over the weekend, according to the reports filed by the investigating officers. No injuries were reported.

Sunday at 4:30 p.m. William R. Clark of 809 E. Waterford, Wadesboro, Ind., driving a Triumph two door, and William H. Fennell of 215 North 13th Street, Murray, driving a 1961 Chevrolet four door sedan, were both going south on Highway 641.

The intersection of Story Avenue and Highway 641 was the scene of the collision Sunday, 2:15 p.m., as C. E. Ewin of Cincinnati Drive, driving a 1965 Chevrolet four door sedan, was going west on Story, stopped for the stop sign at 641; but did not see the 1968 Chevrolet pickup driven by Robert C. Spann of Hazard Route One, going south, and pulled into the side of the truck, according to Sgt. Max Morris and Patrolman J. P. Witherspoon.

A three car collision occurred Sunday at 12:15 p.m. and was investigated by Sgt. Morris and Patrolman Witherspoon.

Cars involved were a 1959 Chevrolet four door driven by Ronald James Gardner of 502 Elm Street, Murray; a 1965 Pontiac four door sedan, owned by Murray Wholesale and driven by Lyman Albert Jones of 803 North 19th Street, Murray; and a 1967 Mustang two door owned by L. A. Sykes and driven by Pamela Kaye Sykes of 2819 Rosslyn, Garden City, Mich.

All cars were going west on Chestnut Street. Gardner and Jones had stopped for the traffic light at 12th and Chestnut. The Sykes car could not stop quick enough to avoid hitting the Jones car knocking it into the Gardner car, according to the police.

Art Work By Young People On Display

The Bank of Murray for the second year is sponsoring the young artists of Calloway County by displaying their work in the lobby of the Bank during the months of February and March.

The exhibit will be changed weekly. Murray High, Calloway High, and the University School will participate in this program.

"The pen and ink sketches of horses by Barbara Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones (Industrial Arts Instructor at MSU) are typical of all her work. She has a horse, rides with the Wranglers Club and can handle a pencil, pen or paint brush as well as some college senior although she is only a sophomore. She had junior high art and is now taking Art I. It is students like these that makes you wish we had the funds to offer an Art II class. She plans to major in art in college."

Charles Anderson did the weaving in a small unit before Christmas. It is done on a homemade loom and designed by himself. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Anderson. He is a sophomore and is interested in Biology.

Jerry Smith, a senior, painted the black and white modern art with the new Polytone Emulsion Liquitex. Acrylic paints are cheaper than oils, they dry in an hour and the clean up is with water instead of turpentine. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith and is interested in Industrial Art.

Viet Cong Still Hold Hue Area

SAIGON (U.P.) — U.S. Marines fought their way deeper into Hue today in costly house-to-house combat but the Viet Cong flag still flew over the Citadel tonight.

In the Khe Sanh area, in the extreme northwestern part of South Vietnam, North Vietnamese attacked a Marine outpost at Hill 981 in human wave assaults, broke through the outer defense perimeter there were smashed when the Leathernecks called in artillery on their own positions.

Viet President Nguyen Cao Ky warned that new assaults on the cities could come at any time and it was believed they would be timed to coincide with a major offensive along the Demilitarized Zone DMZ from Khe Sanh to the coast. The attack on Hill 981 could be the beginning of that offensive.

High Cost

UPI correspondent Alvin C. Wells Jr., reported from the ancient Imperial city of Hue on the northeast coast of South Vietnam that Marines had now captured eight more blocks of the city in savage fighting and now held a total of 16. The cost was high. Fourteen Marines were killed when they ran into a Communist gun position hidden in a house.

Capt. David P. Gunnels of Jacksonville, Fla., a U.S. adviser, estimated the Vietnamese had about 2,500 troops in and around the Citadel and the Viet Cong, about 2,000 inside the ancient fortress. South Vietnamese have control of the northern third and paratroopers are inching their way southward but the Viet Cong barrier still fires.

News Agency Reports Release Of Ship And Crew Is Imminent

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The United States and North Korea held a third meeting today on the Pueblo incident, the State Department reported, but cautioned that a "breakthrough or settlement" on the return of the ship's crew is not yet in sight.

A department spokesman, Robert J. McCloskey, said that the meeting was held at 2 a.m. EST.

North Korea's claimed 12-mile territorial limit.

North Korea has contended from outset that "the intelligence vessel was in its territorial waters when it was captured Jan. 23. A report circulated today in South Korea that the Communists might release the Pueblo's 83 men soon, presumably in exchange for a U.S. admission that the ship violated North Korean waters.

William P. Bundy, an assistant secretary of state, said there was no foundation to the report.

"What is the truth?" Ford asked in a statement. "Members of Congress have called for a full congressional investigation of the Pueblo affair. . . this apparently is the only way the Congress can learn the truth."

Speculation that North Korea might be preparing to free the men came with the first public concession by U.S. officials that the Pueblo conceivably could have strayed into North Korea's territorial waters at some time during a two-week period while an intelligence mission in the Sea of Japan.

But U.S. officials insisted that when the Pueblo was captured, it was outside the 12-mile limit claimed by North Korea, as Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg documented before the United Nations Security Council several days ago.

A report spread through South Korea as well as elsewhere that American and North Korean representatives had reached some kind of understanding at Panmunjom on release of the Pueblo crew.

Asked about this in a television interview today Show — NBO, Bundy said the report "has no foundation, I'm sorry to say." He said there had been "no progress" in efforts to get the men and the ship back.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said Sunday that it was not possible to rule out absolutely the possibility the Pueblo might have at some time entered the 12-mile territorial limit claimed by North Korea before the Pueblo was seized Jan. 23.

Bundy said today, however, that officials were absolutely sure the ship was in international waters both when she was first challenged by a North Korean gunboat and when she was seized by an armed boarding party.

BULLETIN

TOKYO (U.P.) — The Japanese news agency Kyodo and the newspaper Mainichi Shimbun reported tonight from Seoul that the United States and North Korea have agreed to release of the entire crew of the captured intelligence ship USS Pueblo.

Kyodo said the release was agreed upon after the United States "virtually agreed" to accept a North Korean condition that it admit that the Pueblo was in North Korea's territorial waters when it was captured by four motor torpedo boats and escorted into Wonsan.

He said the fact that representatives of the two sides were continuing to talk at Panmunjom suggested an element of progress. But he said this should not be construed as meaning "we feel that we are in a breakthrough or a settlement of this problem."

McCloskey spoke with reporters and reports in Seoul, Tokyo and elsewhere of an agreement on freeing the 83 men of the Pueblo, captured on Jan. 23.

Asked about this, McCloskey said: "I know of no foundation of such reports."

On Capitol Hill, House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford said it appeared the United States was getting ready to "Confess" that the Pueblo intruded into North Korean territorial waters before its seizure by the Communists.

Ford said this was a shock to members of Congress who had accepted earlier administration denials that the ship had violated

The Almanac

By United Press International
Today is Monday, Feb. 5, the 35th day of 1968 with 330 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and the first quarter.

The evening stars are Mercury, Mars, Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history: In 1681, British coveysman Roger Williams, founder of the colony of Rhode Island, arrived in Salem, Mass., seeking religious freedom.

A thought for the day: English writer George Payne Rainsford James said, "Age is the most terrible measure that can happen to any man; other evils men, this is every day getting worse."

Porsche Comes In First To Win At Daytona

By CHARLES S. ALDINGER

Three sleek Porsche 907's from Stuttgart led the Sunday for a sweep of the top three positions in the 24 hours of Daytona Track and Road Race.

Behind the fantastically durable German automobiles were the hulks of one American and two British cars which took a shot at them and fell down the mountain.

The Alfa Romeos and the few Ferraris entered never had a chance.

Year of the Porsche

Ahead of Porsche is in the words of a little German mechanic following this first race in the new world manufacturer's championship series, "Porsche Jahr" the year of Porsche.

The 22 liter Porsche 907's which will be flown back to Germany to be torn apart and rebuilt before returning for the Sebring 12-hour race March 23, picked up nine points toward the manufacturer's title.

As it appears that nobody—not even the little Alfa Romeos—who at 1.9 liters finished 8th, 9th and 10th behind a Ford Mustang—can knock Porsche off the top of the new three-liter standings.

The Ferraris, which aren't competing on a factory level after the International Automobile Federation ruled out their big P4's in November, appeared ready for the Porsche domination in the three-liter class for now.

Twelve Car Weeks

A crowd estimated at over 25,000 saw the long race, which was close until the Porsches methodically ground down two British-built five-liter Ford GT40s and the radical Howmet turbine car. The two Ferraris were forced out before the race ended and the Howmet wrecked at dusk Saturday while running in the standings.

The winning Porsche was driven by Briton Vic Elford and Jochem Neuenhuyzen of Germany. It was followed by identical 907 prototypes Hans Herrmann-Jo Sifert and Joe Buzzetta-Joe Schlesier.

The lead car averaged 106.67 miles per hour around the high-backed track and road course here and traveled 2,526 miles during 3 p. m. Saturday and 3 p. m. Sunday.

It was more than 150 miles back to the 4th place Mustang prepared by Shelby-American and driven by Jerry Tins, Sherman Oaks, Calif., and Ronnie Mackman, Lancaster, Calif.

Maravich Goes For Record In Tonight's Tilt

By DAVID M. MOFFITT

ATLANTA (AP) - Sophomore Pete Maravich's quest for a national scoring record faces its sternest test tonight when Louisiana State hosts the Tennessee Volunteers, the defensive masters of Dixie basketball.

Tenager Maravich, the slender 6-foot-3 LSU cage coach Pres Maravich, is averaging a sensational 45.2 points per game, above the record set by Furman's Frank Selvy back in 1964.

But the sixth-ranked Vols have been held below the 42 mark only three times in 16 games. Alabama held him to his season-low of 30 just after hot a season-high 56 against Mississippi State; Florida held him to 32 just after he got 50 against Auburn and Clemson held him to 32.

The 6-foot-3 195-pound Maravich has been held below the 42 mark only three times in 16 games. Alabama held him to his season-low of 30 just after hot a season-high 56 against Mississippi State; Florida held him to 32 just after he got 50 against Auburn and Clemson held him to 32.

Average (Been Rising)

In his three outings since the Clemson game, Maravich, a ninth-ranked Kentucky but the Wildcats got a combined 70 points from their three sophomore starters—Mike Pratt 20 and outscored the high-scoring Bengals 109-96.

Tennessee, starting tonight on a two and half week road trip that could wrap up its second straight SEC championship, tuned up Saturday by crushing Mississippi 84-46. It was the 33rd consecutive home win for the Vols who were last beaten on their own court 53-50 by Vanderbilt on Dec. 7.

In other action Saturday, second-place Florida 10-3 in the SEC got 35 points from 6-foot-10 Neal Walk and surprised Vanderbilt 91-85 at Nashville; Georgia got 77 points from three players—Jim Youngblood 30, Ray Jefferson 26 and Bob Lienhard 20—while leading Alabama 96-81 in the Crimson Tide's brand-new 15,000-seat coliseum.

FSU Tops 800

Among the independents, it was Florida State 180 Beat Carolina 100, Tulane 99 Miami Fla. 88 and Virginia Tech 76 Toledo 65.

Maravich will be host to Mississippi, the team which gave Wildcats coach Adolph Rupp his record-setting 77-nd victory last Monday, Florida will be at Alabama and Georgia will be at Vanderbilt.

Florida and Kentucky desperately need help from the also rans if they are to catch defending champion Tennessee in this year's SEC race. The Vols, 8-1 with two less losses than their leading contenders, have only one more game with Kentucky next Monday at Lexington and none with Florida, only league team to beat Tennessee this season.

Walk, who leads the SEC in rebounding with an average of nearly 20 per game, scored his scoring average to 26.8 with his performance against Vanderbilt. His 510 total, with six games to go, is a Florida record. But there's a catch. Maravich caught up with the hot-shooting Maravich who is running 18.4 points ahead.

Cats Roll To Big Win Over LSU 109-96

By GLEN CARPENTER

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) - If you thought Houston's Elvin Hayes was beautiful in victory over UCLA, you should have seen Louisiana State's Pete Maravich in defeat Saturday night.

Some 11,500 Wildcats fans were witnesses to the Southeastern Conference game at Memorial Coliseum which ninth-ranked Kentucky won 109-96, despite 44 points by the baggy-kneed LSU sophomore.

Maravich, who leads the nation in scoring, slipped in and around and through Kentucky's 13-1 zone to hit 16 of 38 shots from the field. His quickness and fluid style impressed fans and sportswriters alike.

Backed by three fine sophomores, UK held a 20-point lead at one point in the first half and led by as many as 15 in the final period in running its SEC record to 7-3. The loss dropped LSU out of the title picture at 5-4.

The week before, at Baton Rouge, Kentucky had disposed of LSU 121-96. But the T-ears hung in here and made a game of it till UK's Mike Casey produced a three-point play to make it 96-90 with 4:29 left in the game.

"They didn't play any different than last time," Wildcat coach

Racers Trounce Governors 85-70; Near Margin In OVC Race

The Murray State Racers, who beat Austin Peay 85-70 Saturday have another must game in their immediate future, a road game against arch-rival Western Kentucky tonight.

Since OVC co-favorite East Tennessee beat the Hilltoppers at Bowling Green, it is almost imperative that Murray does likewise.

Murray is now 7-1 in the OVC and 13-4 overall. East Tennessee who lost to Tennessee Tech 63-62 Saturday night, is 5-2 in the league and 11-4 overall.

Monday's game will be the second between Murray and Western this season, Murray taking the first in the OVC Tournament 83-75. A third game will be played Feb. 24 at Murray. In the tournament game, Tom Moran had his top scoring game of the season with 29 points and Dick Cunningham his last night on the boards with 34 rebounds.

Western carried an 11-6 overall record and a 2-3 conference mark into its game with Middle Tennessee Saturday night. The Racers have been most impressive against non-league foes this season and hold wins over St. Francis, Butler, San Francisco, Indiana, California, Dayton, and LaSalle.

Leading scorer for the Racers is Wayne Chapman with a 21.6 average. Butch Kaufman is averaging 16.1, Rich Hendricks 13.9, Greg Smith 11.4, and Walker Banks and Wayne Bright, 5.2 each.

Leading scorers for Murray are Claude Virden (16.2) Moran (15.4), Cunningham (15.8), Billy Chumbley (15.2) and Don Funneman (7.3).

Although Western leads Murray 65-31 in the series between the two, a Murray win tonight would give Cal Luther a 12-13 split with the Hilltoppers since he has been Murray's coach. Last year, the Racers lost to the Toppers in the OVC Tournament and in an overtime at Bowling Green and then knocked them from third place in the nation and ended their 28-game winning streak by beating them 75-60 at Murray.

Lakers Snap Losing Streak 71-65 Over Fulton County

By GALE GARRISON

The Calloway County Lakers got back on the winning side of the score Saturday night as they defeated Fulton County 71-65. Calloway seemed to be on their way to their second straight loss, as they trailed most of the game, but came from behind within the last four minutes of the last quarter to win the game.

Mike Ernsterberger scored the first two points of the game on his first shot from the field, nine seconds after the Lakers had taken the tip-off.

Tony Jones was fouled after the ball had changed hands twice without either team scoring. He hit one of his two shots to take a three point lead.

Darrell Cleaver hit a two-point shot to take the lead back and Calloway led the rest of the first quarter, except when Martin Warren tied the game up with a field goal, but the Lakers took the lead back and was ahead by three 16-13 at the end of the stanza.

With 5:23 remaining in the first half, and Calloway leading by half, at 20-19, Stan Watts hit a field goal to put the Pilots out in front by one point.

Stan Key came back with a two-point shot and regained the margin for the Lakers. Tom Hepler hit a field goal and John Bacon hit two free throws to send Fulton back in front and they were leading by four points, 24-20, at the intermission.

The two teams scored on an even basis in the third quarter, with each team scoring 14 points, and the stanza ended with Fulton County still leading by four points, at 48-44.

Calloway started to catch up in the last part of the fourth quarter, caught and passed Fulton with just over two minutes of play left in the game.

Tony Jones tied the score at 63 all with a field goal, and Stan

Adolph Rupp said, "We just didn't play as well."

Following the game, LSU coach Pres Maravich, Pete's father, at first would not talk to writers. He would still rate over two technical fouls called on him during the game.

The first game at 8:30 in the first half when Papa Press thought UK center Dan Isel should have been called for goad-tending. Maravich—figuratively—flew off the bench and heaped wrath on official Harold Johnson, to no avail.

The second naughty game at 17:00 when Press' son was called for walking. Again he lost the dispute.

Kentucky's superstars, led by Casey's 29 points, more than offset "Pistol Pete's" scoring. Isel had 21 points and Mike Pratt added 20. The next outing, for Kentucky will be an SEC encounter with Ole Miss at Oxford Tuesday.

DR. MARY ELIZABETH BELL

By Mary Crowell

Dr. Mary Elizabeth Bell, Professor of Education at Murray State University, is co-author of the 1968 Revised Series of Handwriting Books and Teachers Manuals for The Bobbs-Merrill Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

Dr. Bell was made co-author with the express responsibility of revising the total series from the Kindergarten through the eighth grade. The series format is published by the E. C. Steele publishing company, is being used in public schools throughout the United States.

The Bobbs-Merrill Co. bought the series approximately two years ago and the current revised edition is being more specifically help to the classroom teacher. Also the series is bringing about a more meaningful and interesting as well as a more colorful book for the children's use.

The revised series "I Learn To Write" is now on the market and may be placed on the adoption list in the State of Indiana as well as in several other states where handwriting books are being studied for adoption.

Dr. Bell stated her philosophy of the Handwriting Program and it follows the specific objectives in each Revised Teachers Manual at each grade level. According to Dr. Bell, effective written communication is dependent upon ability to express good language habits; correct spelling; and capitalization, and punctuation; and neat, legible writing. Only through consistent practice can accurate, fluent, intelligent writing be developed.

According to the author, writing is an important part of a total language arts program that includes thinking, speaking, and reading and listening. If boys and girls are to achieve any degree of usefulness, enjoyment and

Minister Should Heed His Preachings

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd be writing to you for advice, but I need help and I can't go to my friends. Besides, I need help, not pity.

My husband is a minister, about middle-aged and average looking. About a year ago he met an attractive young woman while sitting on the sick in a hospital. They developed quite a friendship because after she went home he continued to visit her at home. (She is not even a member of his church.) I told him that I didn't like the looks of it, which only made matters worse. He became very angry with me and insisted he was doing nothing wrong, but I believe he visits her only when his husband is at work.

People are beginning to talk. Abby, and I am worried. What should I do?

DEAR NOWHERE: Pastors have been relieved of their duties for this kind of thing, which your husband surely knows. Even if he is doing nothing "wrong," remind him to "abstain from all appearance of evil." (New Testament, 1 Thessalonians, v 22) in case he wishes to practice what he preaches.

DEAR ABBY: I'm in love with a married man. We've been seeing each other for over a year now. He told me that he and his wife weren't actually living as man and wife, although they shared the same house for appearances sake. Also, because they have five children, he didn't want to break up the marriage just yet. But Abby, he promised that in due time he would divorce his wife and marry me.

I have been 100 per cent true to this man, Abby, since the day I realized I loved him. He said he loved me, too, but now he gives me the news that his wife is expecting! I don't know what to think. I need your opinion.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is that I am a very poor hostess—at least I think I am. It's not that I can't relax around people because when I'm a guest, I'm perfectly relaxed and have a wonderful time, but when guests are in my home, I am nervous and tense and I am just not "myself," not pity.

I am not the husky kind of hostess who runs around emptying ash trays all the time, but if there's a lull in the conversation I feel embarrassed, and worry that I'm not giving my guests a good time.

When I invite people over, they say, "Why don't YOU come HERE instead?"—which leads me to believe that they have noticed my nervousness, too, and would rather spare me the agony. What's wrong with me? And is there a solution?

DEAR HOSTESS: Guests can't relax unless the hostess is relaxed. The secret to being a good hostess is in getting comfortable people together in a comfortable atmosphere. No host or hostess can give his guests a good time. The guests must make it themselves.

DEAR GOSPIP: To paraphrase a little gem of philosophy I learned years ago: "He who steals my gold steals trash. But he who gossips about me and steals my good name strikes himself dead."

DEAR MIXED UP: I think you should thank your lucky stars for two things. One, that you discovered early in the game that the "love bug" that bit you was a louse. Two, that if he had to get out of you pregnant, it was his wife.

Budget Is Program In Dollars

By DAVID NYDICK, UPI Education Specialist

School systems throughout the nation are in the process of preparing their budgets for the 1968-69 school year. The development of a budget is a complex matter ordinarily involving many members of the staff along with the school board.

A budget is the translation of the total school program in terms of dollars. It represents buildings, salaries, equipment, books along with the many other items necessary for the operation of a school system.

Passed Several Tests: The superintendent of schools, after extensive discussion and evaluation, compiles a proposed budget which he presents to the board of education. Board members examine the recommendations in order to consider the total cost, maintain a balanced program, and judge the effect on the educational philosophy. Special citizen advisory committees are often appointed. Changes are made. Public meetings are usually held to explain the budget to the citizens.

After any additional changes, the board of education adopts a final budget.

This may be the last step, or the budget might be presented to the community for a public vote, or it may be presented to another governing group such as a city council for approval. The procedure will depend upon the particular laws of the state and community.

Regardless of the method of approval, the school budget is an important responsibility for every member of the community. It determines in many ways the quality of the educational program. The cost should be realistic. False economy is as bad as wasteful spending.

Attend All Meetings: How can local citizens make proper judgments concerning the school budget? They must learn the meaning and purpose of each expenditure. They should attend all budget meetings as well as regular board meetings throughout the year. A full understanding of the school's activities cannot be obtained at a few budget hearings. Many decisions and reports are made during other meetings during the year. A budget is only an estimate of expenditures. The actual purchases are made during the school year. Many costs are determined by competitive bidding.

The board also has a responsibility to provide the opportunity for citizens to learn about the budget and the schools. Budget meetings should be open to the public. Sufficient written materials should be provided for the community.

Remember that many portions of the budget are required by law or contract. A rising cost of living means that a budget must also rise to maintain the program.

TIME OUT

GARRISON

Drawings for the Fourth District Tournament will be held on Saturday night, February 17, just before the Murray State East Tennessee game.

The tournament will start on February 29, with the semifinals on Friday night, March 1, and the finals on Saturday night March 2, in the Murray State University Field House.

The Fourth District is very lucky in being able to have such a fine gym, which to play their tournament. The other three districts in the First Region have to play in smaller gyms with less seating capacity, and many have to play one game a night and start on Monday night.

They also must move from one school to another, each year, which gives the home team a slight advantage by playing on their own court.

The First District will be played at Fulton County this year, and the Second will be played at Paducah Tilghman, and the Third at Sedalia.

Tilghman has a nice gym, with a large seating capacity, but it not near what Murray State has, and Tilghman will have a real advantage, since they have the best team in the district, and are playing in their own back yard.

Fulton County, or Sedalia are not too strong this year, but playing at home will be an advantage to them and this could be enough for them to knock out a better team from reaching the Regional.

And now sport fans, while we are on the subject of the district and regional tournaments, may I repeat something that I have said several times in the last few years. I think that one of the teams from each district that advances to the Regional should be picked via the conference type play.

In other words, every team in each district would be required to play two games per season, one at home, and one away with each of the other teams in the district. Take the Fourth District for an example. Calloway would have to play every team in both Calloway and Marshall Counties two games. Murray High would have to play each of the teams in both Calloway and Marshall Counties two games, as would University School, North and South Marshall, and Benton.

The team won-lost record in these games would count toward going to the Regional, with the one with the best record being the teams that will play in the regional.

The games played outside the district would not count toward the district, just as Murray State's record outside the OVC doesn't count toward the OVC championship.

The other district representative would be selected by the District Tournament. Now, we know that many times the one that had the best season record would also win the tournament, but, when that happened the runner-up for the season would advance to the Regional along with the season champion.

This system has its drawbacks, but so does the present system, and this would eliminate the biggest one of all. The part where a weak team could draw a bye, and luck into a better team in the semi-finals, and regardless of how bad they were defeated the next night for the championship game, they still go to the Regional, because of being runner-ups.

What happens then is that they are defeated the first night in the regional without making a good showing for their district, and I think that each district has the right to be represented by the best two teams they have. Besides it would make for a much better tournament.

If anyone has any comments on this system, good or bad, be sure to let me know about them, by phone, card or letter, or in person.

There are several Calloway fans that thought that the Lakers got some bad calls during the Caldwell County game, this may have been true, but the Tigers got a few bad ones also.

It seemed to me that almost everyone was having an off night, the Lakers most of all, and the Tigers next and the Refs next.

I know that Caldwell looked like they were playing a good game, but they lost the ball 35 times on their end of the court, due to either floor errors or on rebounds, several coming before they had a chance to get a shot off.

Calloway was even worse, as they lost the ball 45 times in their end of the court. At one point in the second quarter, Caldwell made eight trips down the floor and Calloway made nine without either team scoring.

Now for the officials, I think that they did a fairly good job of calling the game. Of course I did a much better job, from where I was sitting, but they wouldn't listen to me.

SEEN & HEARD

pride is a deadly sin. And yet I wonder, is it a sin to be proud you're rational as a man?

Who in this winter time is far away in Vietnam. Who endures tropic heat and jungle rot.

Who lives with death all about him: Who is only twenty-one? Yet never complains, much less whimpers.

A son who says, "this is where I should be." A son whose only desire is to live at home in peace.

But knows he first must win a war? Is it a sin?

Is it pride to remember the generations who have gone before? And to know that from such a son there will be generations to come?

To whom liberty will be more than life? Surely, he could have stayed at home.

He's smart, and college is a haven. Or he could have married some sweet girl, and hid behind her skirt.

The draft wouldn't catch him, and he could have used the old excuse: "I'm ready when they send for me."

Many boys do. But this man of mine knows privilege beyond duty: Knows liberty must be earned with bullets and danger and blood; He knows those who truly deserve liberty, preserve it.

So he left the haven, and is there in Vietnam. While amiable youths dance and study and wait for the draft at home.

He claims they are too good to go to war. May God protect him.

No one can pluck him out of the Father's hand. This we know, and in this we both
