Seen & Heard Around Murray

Do you remember Ernest Vaughn? He graduated from Murray State then got his master's degree there too.

He was a little fellow so thin he had to stand in the same place twice to cast a shadow. But, he was loaded with talent and had a whole of a personality.

He was in most productions out at the university. Well, anyway, Ernest has written a book called "For You and Me". It is for the little people, pre-schoolers, first and second graders. We got a copy from Exposition Press, the printers and it sells for three bucks.

Ernest taught at Webster County High School in Dixon, Kentucky, then after he got his masters taught at Paducah Junior College in Paducah. He is now teaching at John C. Calhoun Junior College in Decatur, Alabama.

We imagine we'll hear more from Ernest.

We notice in the Murray State News that Dick Gregory has been INVITED to speak at Murray State.

We have always appreciated the good judgment of Murray State officials, but this announcement causes us to wonder.

What can Dick Gregory possibly contribute to Murray, Kentucky?

If we recall correctly violence has broken out in nearly every place that he has made an address.

Murray Schools were integrated easily and smoothly without the help of Dick Gregory, Rap Brown or Stokely Carmichael.

Murray State University was integrated easily and smoothly without the help of the NAACP, CORE, or any other organization. We can handle our own problems.

We do not think Dick Gregory can contribute one thing to the situation here in Murray, Kentucky because we believe that Dick Gregory's vision is clouded by distaste for the white community.

No man who hates another segment of the society can make much of a contribution.

If he was a thoughtful man, if he was a contemplative man, if he was a man who openly and fairly was trying to better race relations, then we would say welcome Dick Gregory.

However his past actions and his past utterances show us that he is the type of a man who does not use merit as a measure. We think he looks at the situation like this: "I've been held down by the white man for 150 years, so now give us everything whether we are responsible or not." (our quotes).

Murray State Officials are in our opinion doing the university, the city of Murray and Calloway County a distinct dis-

Cheerleaders At Murray High Excel In Competition

Murray High School has reason to cheer again—this time for its cheerleaders.

After a week of intense competition, the squad of four seniors and two juniors won high honors Friday in a national cheerleading clinic at the University of Mississippi at Oxford, Miss. They were awarded a trophy for being judged the best among cheerleading groups of six or less.

Squad members: Debbie Edmonds, captain; Cindy Alexander, Anita McDowell and Kathy Ann Lockhart, seniors; and Jennie Barker and Kathy Crider, juniors. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Tommy Shirley.

In addition, the Murray cheerleaders were presented a decorated baton called "the spirit stick" for enthusiasm, personality and willingness to work with other participating groups. It was awarded to a different group daily, along with various ribbons, before being given permanently on the final day to Murray High as the group best exemplifying the characteristics it symbolizes.

Sponsored by the National Cheerleaders Association, the clinic included about 1,500 girls representing about 125 schools and 10 states. It is headed each year by H.L. Herkimer, who is known as Mr. Cheerleader.

During the clinic the Murray High girls competed daily against several squads, as well as attending pom pom and tumbling classes and lectures. "This was my third year," observed Miss Edmonds, "and it was much tougher this year than at any time before."

The girls said the technique being taught is different and this amounts to learning a new way of cheering. They were unanimous that the spirit was outstanding and that the groups got along extremely well with each other.

Big Event Is Set Here For The Weekend

Murray's merchants are ready for one of the largest sales events in their history, with the opening of the Murray Sidewalk Sale on Friday. Indications are that over 80 merchants will participate in the event.

The Murray Sidewalk Sale is entering its 7th year, and has gained in popularity each year, principally through the offering of merchandise at extremely low prices. The stores who participate place tables of merchandise on the sidewalk and on the curbs for sale. Here the bargain hunter finds a bonanza of low prices.

In addition to the bargain tables on the sidewalk, most merchants reduce prices on items inside the store. Here some of the better buys are found.

Store employees will be dressed in the costumes of their choice from shorts to topcoats. The shoppers take advantage of the occasion to wear garb that they would never wear at any other time.

In spite of the great variety of dress worn, the straw hat is almost standard with each outfit.

Murray Merchants are delighted with the Sidewalk Sale. The event gives them an opportunity to clear their inventories of summer items, and slow moving items to make room for new fall merchandise.

The Sidewalk Sale is generally regarded as the kick-off for the fall season, with back-to-school items leading the sales parade.

John Larson Needs Records For Armed Forces Radio

Airman First Class John C. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Larson in Phu Cat, South Viet Nam as an intelligence specialist. Young Larson also is the program director of the Armed Forces Radio at Phu Cat.

He has written his mother asking some help for the radio station. It seems that there is a scarcity of records the playing of which, takes quite some air time on the station.

He asks local people to send him records. Apparently any type of record will do, all the way from Eddie Arnold to the Mills Brothers and back to the Paul Revere and the Raiders.

He urges that the records be packed securely so they will not be broken in transit.

Young Larson reports he is working about ten and one-half hours a day in his dual capacity of intelligence specialist and program director, but that he enjoys it.

Those having any type of record to send Larson may use the following address:

Nunn Family Is Busy In Miami

By MARGARET KILGORE MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — While Kentucky Gov. Louie B. Nunn has been drumming up support for Richard M. Nixon at the Republican National Convention, his family has taken care of his many social obligations.

"He's hardly been to bed at night since we got here," gracious Beula Nunn said. "So the children and I just go our own way and try to take care of the social details for him."

The "social details" for Mrs. Nunn; Jennie Lou, 17; Stephen, 15, and the 64 other women from Kentucky attending the convention have ranged from a continental breakfast with Mrs. Nixon Rockefeller to a delegation lunch at the exclusive Bath Club, at which the Nunn's were host.

Later, Mrs. Nunn took the girls for an afternoon cruise down Biscayne Bay aboard a borrowed yacht.

Among the Kentucky women here is Mrs. Leonard T. O'Hara of Lexington, who has been active in GOP politics for 30 years but is attending her first national political convention.

"I'm just having the most fun in the whole world," Mrs. O'Hara said. She is delighted that Kentucky has promised Nixon 22 votes on the first ballot because she supports the former vice president.

Kentucky has five women delegates or alternates at the convention. They are Edith Napier of Hazard, Mrs. Louise Hill of Hopkinsville, Mrs. Dottie Young of Louisville, Mrs. Clara Epstein of Lexington and Mrs. O'Hara.

New Group Camp Opened In Land Between Lakes

Camp Energy Group Camp, the newest major camping facility in Land Between the Lakes, has been completed and opened for use, the Tennessee Valley Authority has announced.

Available by reservation only, Camp Energy is designed to provide convenient year-round facilities for groups ranging in size from 4 up to 400.

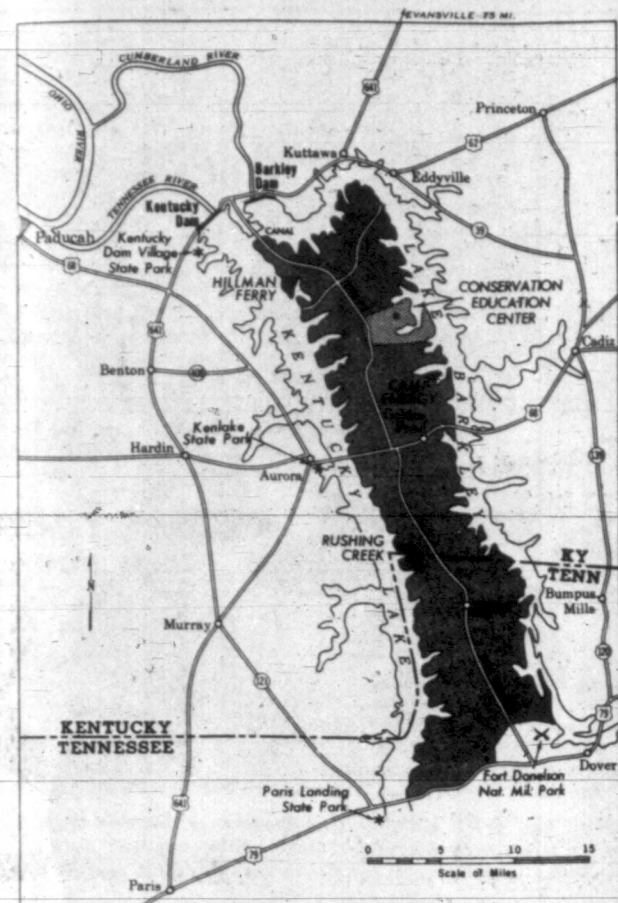

The campground is located on a wooded hillside overlooking Energy Lake, a constant-level subimpoundment on a bay of Lake Barkley.

The camp is arranged so that several groups can use the area at the same time without disturbing each other. Facilities include: shower-toilet buildings with hot and cold water, shelter buildings, drinking fountains, grveled tent pads, swimming beach and recreation field, picnic tables, and cooking grills.

"We feel that Scout groups, nature study and camping clubs, church associations, and other organized groups will find Camp Energy ideally suited for group camping," said W. Sherrill Miliken, operations manager for Land Between the Lakes.

To arrange for reservations in Camp Energy write Land Between the Lakes, P. O. Box 27, Golden Pond, Ky. 42331.

ALMANAC

by United Press International Today is Wednesday, Aug. 7, the 220th day of 1968 with 146 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full stage. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history: In 1782, the Order of the Purple Heart was established by George Washington. In 1947, the raft "Kona Tik" landed on a reef in Tasmot Archipelago after a 4,000 mile trip from Peru.

In 1963, President Kennedy's son, Patrick Bouvier, was born. He died 2 days later.

In 1964, Turkish planes attacked Cyprus for the first time after sharp fighting had broken

Let's say you just bought a used car from a VW dealer. You're driving along a peaceful country road and the motor quits, the transmission drops out, the rear axle breaks and the electric clock starts to work. Don't worry.

We Volkswagen dealers guarantee our used cars.

And the guarantee covers everything that makes a car tick.

So the engine, transmission, and rear axle will all be repaired or replaced free.

In fact, even if the electrical system shorts out, the front axle assemblies become unassembled and the brakes go out of adjustment on that peaceful country road, we'll repair or replace them free, too. Because we guarantee them all 100% for 30 days or 1000 miles. Whichever comes first.

If you know about used cars, you know that this is the period when anything big that's going to go wrong with one will usually go wrong. Though nobody will be more surprised if it does than us.

We completely inspect every car we get as a trade-in. And anything that needs repairing or replacing gets repaired or replaced right then and there, before we put the Volkswagen guarantee on the car. Just so you won't be misled, it doesn't have to be a Volkswagen to rate the guarantee. You'd be surprised at all the big cars people trade in just to get their hands on one of our little ones.

Big or little, any trade-ins with a guarantee on them already have some of our money in them.

Enough for us to want to be really sure the one you drive away in isn't going to come back and cost us more.

But if it should, (1) it's nice to know you have a place to bring it back to, and (2) better us than you.

Rookie Kevin Collins came up out of the dirt in the eighth inning Tuesday night — and wound up floating in the clouds in the ninth.

"I hope the beds in the hotel are tied down because I might dream myself away," the youngster beamed after his first major league homer — a three-run smash in the ninth — snapped a 1-1 tie and gave the New York Mets a 4-1 victory over the Houston Astros.

Collins' first big league homer came an inning after he was almost knocked out of the game when Julio Gotay rammed into him at third base. Gotay, late in tagging up at second on Norm Miller's sacrifice fly tried to bowl over Collins at third — but the youngster held onto the ball during the collision for the out.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Chicago Cubs cut St. Louis' lead to 13 games by topping Atlanta 4-3 while the Cards were losing to Cincinnati 5-0. Pittsburgh edged Los Angeles 4-1 and San Francisco beat Philadelphia by an identical 4-1 margin.

In the American League, Detroit nipped Cleveland 2-1 in 17 innings and led the second game 5-2 after eight innings when it was suspended by the 1 a.m. curfew. Boston routed Chicago 8-2, Minnesota edged Baltimore 5-4, California topped Washington 10-3 but Washington won the second game 1-0.

Jim Maloney pitched a five-hitter and Leo Cardenas homered during a four-run eighth inning as the Reds stopped the Cards. It was the Cards' fourth loss in the last five games.

Steve Carlton went 7 2/3 innings for the Cards and suffered his sixth loss against 11 victor-

Bridal Luncheon Held At Holiday Inn For Miss Russell

Miss Mary Keys Russell, who will be married August 24 to George Shaw, was the guest of honor at a delightfully planned luncheon at the Holiday Inn on August 2 at twelve-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

The charming hostesses for the pre-nuptial event were Mrs. Vernon Stubbfield, Jr., aunt of the groom-elect, and Mrs. Charles J. White, aunt of the bride-to-be.

Miss Russell chose to wear from her trousseau a black linen dress accented with silver buttons. Her corsage, a gift from the hostesses, was of white carnations.

Her mother, Mrs. A. W. Russell, was attired in a dress of black and white chiffon over white taffeta. Her corsage was of red carnations.

Mrs. James G. Shaw, mother of the groom-elect, chose to wear a beige linen two-piece suit accented by a multi-colored scarf at the neck. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Centering the luncheon table was a lovely arrangement of pink August lilies and pom-poms in a silver bowl. Place cards in the bridal motif marked the place of each guest.

The hostesses presented the honoree with an arrangement of tiny yellow flowers contained in a unique turtle planter. Covers were laid for Mrs. Harold Rice, Miss Alice Shaw, Mrs. M. E. Shaw, Sr., Mrs. W. P. Russell, Miss Carol Shaw, Mrs. H. G. Shaw, Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Mrs. Joe Baker Littleton, Mrs. Jack Beale Kennedy, Mrs. A. H. Kopperud, Mrs. James I. Armbruster, Mrs. J. I. Hosick, Miss Cappie Beale, Mrs. Frank Albert Stubbfield, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Genora Hamlett, the honoree, the mothers, and the hostesses, all members of the family of the bridal couple.

Lovely Tea Shower Given In Honor Of Miss Janet Brown

Miss Janet Brown whose marriage to Joe Darrell Ward of Murray will be an event of August 23 was the honoree at a delightfully planned tea shower held at 110 Highland, Princeton, on Saturday, August 3, from four to six o'clock in the afternoon.

The gracious hostesses for the lovely occasion were Mrs. Jack Cunningham, Mrs. Edwin Jacobs, and Mrs. Robert Sears, Jr., all of Princeton.

Receiving the guests with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. Richard Brown of Princeton, and her mother-in-law to be, Mrs. Joe Pat Ward of Murray. For the pre-nuptial event the honoree chose to wear a tulle-trimmed dress of white and gold with a large white roll collar with a bow down the front and long sleeves with white cuffs. Her hostesses' gift corsage was of white and green carnations.

Mrs. Brown wore a navy and light blue linen while Mrs. Ward was attired in a gold knit dress. Their corsages of white carnations were gifts of the hostesses. Lovely decorations were used throughout the living room including the arrangement of pom-poms and baby's breath on the piano, and a gorgeous silver candelabra entwined with lily of valley and ivy with white candles and love birds on another table in the room. The guests were asked to sign the register at the table centered with an arrangement of flowers in a cherub container.

Mason Family Reunion Held At Kenlake Park With Seven States Represented

Kenlake State Park was the site of the "Mason" family reunion held during the week of July 28 to August 3 with Max and Neal Mason as hosts.

Descendants of John Mason, who reared his family near Wheeler, Ill., in Jasper County gathered together this year at Kenlake for this reunion. The week was spent in visiting, swimming, fishing, boating, sight seeing, and golfing. One of the highlights of the week was the gathering of all of flowers in a cherub container.

The many lovely gifts were displayed on tables overlaid with yellow cloths under white net caught up at the corners with white satin bows. A crystal bowl with magnolia blossoms floating in water added elegance to the gift display scene.

Refreshments were served from the beautifully appointed table overlaid with white linen cloth centered with an arrangement of yellow snapdragons flanked by white candles in silver candelabra. All the appointments were in silver.

Misses Daine Jacobs, Janie Cunningham, Beverly Caldwell, and Susie Sears served the guests.

Approximately seventy-five persons called during the afternoon and about that many more persons sent gifts who could not attend.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Ryan Honored With Tea At Home Of Mrs. Johnny Parker

The lovely home of Mrs. Johnny Parker on the Concord Road was the scene of the lovely tea given in honor of Miss Mary Elizabeth Ryan, bride-elect of Richard Hurt.

Mesdames Parker, Carmie Hendon, Nat Ryan, Hughes, Fred Cochran, and J. B. Wilson were the gracious hostesses for the bridal occasion held on Friday, July 26, from two-thirty to four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

Receiving the guests with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. John Ryan, her mother-in-law to be, Mrs. Buford Hurt, and her grandmother-in-law to be, Mrs. Opal Hurt.

The bride-elect chose to wear for the occasion a grey cotton voile trimmed with white lace. Her hostesses' gift corsage was of white carnations with two tiny gold wedding rings attached.

The mothers and the grandmother were presented with hostesses' gift corsages of white carnations. Mrs. Johnny Parker greeted the guests at the door. They were asked to sign the register by Mrs. Harold Hurt and Mrs. Jimmie Ellis at the breakfast table with a yellow rose bud.

The house was decorated throughout with beautiful arrangements of magnolia and summer cut flowers of yellow, white and green used at vantage points.

The beautifully appointed tea table was covered with an imported linen and lace cloth and was centered with a lovely floral arrangement of Bells of Ireland and stock in a silver bowl flanked by white candles in a three branched candelabra. The silver punch bowl and cups were at one end and at the other end of the table were the nuts and tiny squares of white cake topped with yellow rosebuds.

Miss Molly Martin, Mrs. Jerry Matthews, Mrs. Jimmie Ellis, and Mrs. Harold Hurt alternated at serving the guests during the afternoon hours. The hostesses presented the honoree with a silver pitcher as a wedding gift.

Dear Abby

She Has Only Dogs for Grandchildren

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My only son has been married for nearly 5 years, and so far all he and his wife have been able to raise are dogs! All my friends have lovely grandchildren to talk about, and I have nothing. It is breaking my heart. My son and daughter-in-law appear to be very happy and there is never any mention of "hoped for" children. Is this normal? They have two poodles who are treated like babies.

Since I think my daughter-in-law is the one who wears the pants in the family, should I ask her if dogs are the best she can do?

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: No. And don't ask your son either. They are apt to tell you it's none of your doggone business.

DEAR ABBY: Some neighbors who have children about the ages of ours were suddenly called out of town for a family funeral, and they asked us if we would chaperon a teen-age party at their home. We said we'd be glad to and asked them for instructions concerning our responsibilities. We were told, "You don't have to do anything."

I'd like to know what good chaperons are if they "keep out of sight?"

My husband and I sat upstairs in the sewing room the whole time and watched television, and when everything was quiet downstairs and all the kids were gone, we came down and went home.

Is this the way people are supposed to "chaperon" a party? BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: No. A chaperon should have an understanding with the young people as to when the party should end, and a few other specifics, such as where in the house they should be, and the rules of conduct, leaving the premises, etc. Chaperons need not be present constantly, but they should make it clear that they could pop in at any moment.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think I should let my hair grow? SONNY

DEAR SONNY: I don't know how you can stop it.

DEAR ABBY: I usually agree with your advice, but not this time. You seemed to be very sympathetic to the 36-year-old wife and mother who had been corresponding with that young 20-year-old soldier in Viet Nam. Her husband objected when she invited him to visit them when he got out because he was jealous. You said the husband had an evil mind, was sick, immature, and half a dozen other things.

Well, I wonder how that wife would feel if her husband had started to correspond with a 20-year-old army nurse, and invited HER to come to visit them? JUST ASKING Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69706, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK Looking Back to 1868

50-D The attempt to remove President Andrew Johnson by impeachment was not the only preoccupation of Congress in 1868.

John Covode, Congressman from Pennsylvania, obtained approval of the House for an investigation of an action attributed to one of Johnson's predecessors. He himself

Cartoon by the famous Thomas Nast represented Secretary of State William H. Seward as saving President Johnson's ego in inducing him to agree to the Alaska deal.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate was named chairman of the committee that summoned witnesses and took testimony as to whether James Buchanan had used improper influence on legislation in the House affecting Kansas' admission to the Union.

Conflicting State constitutions had been drawn up for Kansas in separate conventions. One provided for legal slavery, the other forbade it. The U.S. Senate approved the exclusion of slavery, but pro-slavery men secured enough votes to defeat the Senate measure. Nevertheless, Kansas was admitted in 1861 under a new constitution adopted at Wyandotte.

The findings of the Covode Commission in 1868 were ignored by the House, with ratification of the 13th and 14th Amendments having outlawed slavery for good.

Meanwhile charges of misappropriations in the purchase of Alaska arose. The Worcester (Mass.) Spy summarized in 1888: "Of $7,200,000 in gold voted for Alaska, the amount it is reported Russia actually got was $5,000,000 in gold, about $1,000,000 sterling. This leaves $2,000,000 to be accounted for."

A Congressional investigation resulted. It was found the $200,000 was allowed for claims of the Russian-American Co., which had administered the territory in return for trading privileges, and that the whole amount was paid in one draft, not two. There was some supporting evidence that the U.S. made a more generous payment to Russia than was necessary, simply because of tactical support given the Federal Government by Russian naval visits to American waters during the Civil War.

McCarthy & Family—Presidential aspirant, Sen. Eugene McCarthy is on the move so much you have to go clear back to 1966 to find this photo of him with his family. Children are Michael, 18, Mary, 20, Margaret, 14, and Ellen, 21.

Weekend Sports Summary

by United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) — Forward Pass, racing for the first time in two months, enhanced his bid for the year's title for 3-year-olds by scoring a three-length victory in the $115,000 American Derby at Arlington Park.

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — The Garden Hills Swim-Club of Sacramento, Calif., led by Debbie Meyer, shattered the world record in the women's 800-meter free-style relay with a clocking of eight minutes, 42.2 seconds in the Amateur Athletic Union swimming championships.

CANTON, Ohio (UPI) — Cecil Turner returned a kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown and the Chicago Bears went on to score a 30-24 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in the annual pro football Hall of Fame exhibition game.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Janet Newberry, a 14-year-old from La Jolla, Calif., won the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association girls' 16 and under championship by defeating defending champion Kris Kemmer, 15, of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-3.

OCEANPORT, N. J. (UPI) — Talustrade, a 33-1 shot, struck quickly from the runner-up spot in the stretch to win the first running of the $75,000 Monmouth Invitational Handicap on the closing day at Monmouth Park.

CHICAGO (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus won his first tournament of the year by capturing the $130,000 Western Open with a 72-hole total of 273.

Seeks 'Lost Art'
RACINE, Wis. (UPI) — A major U.S. business firm is trying to revive a "lost art" of America's cultural heritage. As a result, a nationwide search is under way for some 300 craft objects—from jewelry and silverware to furniture, fabrics and ceramics—made by America's top artist-craftsmen.

The project, sponsored by the Johnson Wax company here, is aimed at providing increased recognition for the master craftsmen and to create a greater public awareness of this art form. The exhibition, to be called "OBJECTS—USA," will tour U.S. museums and college campuses beginning September, 1969. The works of about 100 of the nation's master craftsmen are expected to be represented.

Durable Bollworm
SHAFER, Calif. (UPI) — What happens to bollworms after a cotton field is sprayed with an organic phosphate insecticide?

University of California entomologists say only a small portion of the worms are killed. They say the spray apparently only destroys the adult, egg-laying part of the bollworm population.

Tax Crackdown
MANILA (UPI) — The presidential cabinet has approved a suggestion by vice president Fernando Lopez aimed at increasing tax collections—from tax collectors. Under the plan, pay from government employees would be withheld until they prove they have paid their income tax.

A computer installed at the Bureau of Internal Revenue recently indicated that more than a third of the BIR employees had failed to file income tax returns.

Corn Chewing
WASHINGTON (UPI) — You probably never knew it, but when you chew gum you're also chewing corn—or at least, a substance derived from corn. The Corn Refiners Association, Inc., notes that one use of corn syrup, the largest selling single product of corn refiners, is an agent to improve the "mouth feel" of chewing gum.

A Chinese court official named Ts'ai Lun is credited by historians with devising the first paper, as we know it, in 105 A.D.

MEN'S WEAR Trend-Setting 'In' Tailor Gives Look at the Future

By WALTER LOGAN

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lino Lentini at the tender age of 25 is one of the "in" tailors around New York, and we knew he was different when we dropped by his combination tailor shop and boutique on East 57th Street, one of New York's better addresses for tailors.

Lentini was wearing a silk Nehru jacket he had whipped up out of an Indian sari — a rich navy blue with bands of heavily embroidered gold around the thigh-length hem and the sleeves. It was open at the throat, from which fluttered a red, white and blue scarf tied cowboy fashion.

Lentini, who is small and resembles a well-dressed jockey, was born in Italy and received his training from Angelo Litrico, a Roman tailor who not only has soared to the heights in the field of high fashions but once sold four suits to Nikita S. Khrushchev.

He does, of course, make classic business suits with the classic Litrico touch — wide lapels, a slightly longer body, a fitted waist, deep vents and a hint of flair. But he is a trend setter, a favorite of rich theatrical producers and television people, and this is a report on some of his out-of-the-ordinary creations.

The extraordinary garments of today quite often turn out to be the trends of tomorrow. And as a matter of fact some of Lentini's far out creations such as a Napoleonic velvet dinner jacket with heavily ruffled jabot instead of a necktie are seen frequently around town.

Not at the Plaza Hotel, of course. It does not permit turtlenecks, or for that matter lace jabots in its public dining rooms and Lentini notes sadly that one of his customers, a famous jockey who wore the velvet jacket to a first night on Broadway was politely but firmly turned away by the Plaza which did, however, let in people with Nehru jackets.

"It was a Napoleonic jacket, a new look — an evening wear," Lentini lamented. "It is something new and original, to get a man away from the ordinary single and double-breasted dinner jacket. It has a very high collar and it can be worn with a ruffled shirt instead of a tie. With ruffled jabot at the neck and cuffs it has an authentic 18th century look."

Lentini was married in February to the Coplessa Jennifer Jessica Montes Noya, a 19-year-old Peruvian beauty who has big brown eyes and wears miniskirts the way they should be worn. She was selected "Miss Beach" in Lima in 1964 and "Miss Pantasia" in Rome in 1967. They met in New York at a party and got married at a wedding at which Lentini designed all the costumes for his ushers.

Some of these creations are reflected in some of his trend-setting garments which include: —The midnight blue velvet Napoleonic coat, eight buttons, double-breasted, with very wide lapels and a high standup collar, and a deep center vent. There were many variations. —An outercoat, or topcoat, in a light twill with a Nehru collar, half belted in the back over three pleats. The two outer pleats faded off to the shoulders; the center pleat was full length, giving some flair. —A very military looking tunic, double-breasted with a cadet collar and with 14 brass buttons down the front, something like a bellhop, and with four brass sleeve buttons which open. Two vertical slit pockets, a center vent and flair.

—A walking suit. The jacket midlength length, with in beige wide waist corduroy with Regency collar and lapels, fitted and with a deep center vent. Worn with dark brown pin-striped pants. The neck opening was very low.

And with these Lentini showed shirts in a crepe finish with wide spread collar, very wide flowered ties in wool mohair with a slight three dimensional effect; gold chains, one of which resembled a cascade of gold and red stones down the front of the jacket; large scarves in abstract designs and Italian shoes by Testoni with squared off heels, extremely wide flat toes, squared off, and with such hardware as chains and buckles and straps.

GATHERING UP THE DEAD is underway in Costa Rica following three days of eruptions by 5,662-foot Mt. Arenal, a volcano which had been dormant since before Columbus' time. Bodies of two burned children are seen in both photos.

Priest Nixes Lady Priests

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — A prominent Catholic theologian has turned thumbs down on the idea of women becoming priests.

Writing in the Vatican magazine L'Osservatore della Domenica, Msgr. Ferdinando Lambruschini said he felt such proposals were "pure fantasy and extremely hazardous." He said they could only add to "the confusion in many fields of theology."

Msgr. Lambruschini said the fact women hold high lay positions does not "automatically mean they must or can be called to take part in the priesthood."

He said it was ultimately up to higher church authority to decide the matter but its position "could not help but confirm" his.

Non-Union Germans

BONN (UPI) — Less than one-third of all West German employees belong to a trade union, and total trades union membership dropped by two per cent during 1967, to about 6.4 million.

Discovery

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — An inscription which may prove to be Afghanistan's "Rosetta Stone" was discovered recently on a mountain ridge 120 miles southwest of Kabul, the U.N. Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) reports.

Carved in volcanic rock at a height of 13,000 feet, it comprises three long texts—one in an Indian language and others in Kushan, an Iranian language written in Greek characters still not entirely deciphered.

Invitation

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Robert O. Snyder, Republican member of the Missouri House of Representatives, received an invitation to a Jefferson-Jackson dinner sponsored by neighboring St. Charles County Democrats.

"I'm not sure if they wanted to invite me to dinner or to have me for dinner," said Snyder, a longtime GOP leader.

For Moms

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — The Argentine government has established the "National Family and Woman Service" to let mothers know what state social services are available.

Peruvian Suicides

LIMA, Peru (UPI) — An average of 20,000 persons annually attempt to commit suicide in Peru, according to a report by two psychiatrists, Baltazar Caravedo and Manuel Salcedo Fernandez. The report also said 1 million Peruvians need psychiatric care.

Miss Wool

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (UPI) — The selection was apt—the winner's name is "Smiley." The new Miss Wool of 1968, chosen in June, is Mary Smiley of Englewood, Colo.

Spurring the Spuds

DAVIS, Calif. (UPI) — Scientists at the University of California's campus here have an explanation why farmers have been cutting up seed potatoes for hundreds of years.

They say the cutting or wounding of a potato by dividing it into "seed" stimulates rapid production of growth hormone.

Rockefeller

ROCKY ROAD AT MIAMI BEACH — College students who traveled all the way from Minnesota are busy making posters for Nelson Rockefeller at Miami Beach—and plastering Collins Avenue with them. They made a 46-hour trip in an ancient rented bus to get there.

DOROTHY EDEN'S new bestseller THE SHADOW WIFE

From the novel published by Coward-McCann, Inc. Copyright © 1967, 1968 by Dorothy Eden. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

CHAPTER 30
OTTO WINTHER said he had to throw the small fish back... But had it been alive or dead? Tim would want to know. Tim would say, "What the devil were you doing sitting by the fire while these things were happening outside?" But I don't want to know them, Tim. I know even less why I am being compelled, at this minute, to leave the house and go down to the lake, without even stopping to get a wrap, and hoping nobody will see me go. And it's cold outside, and dark. I can hardly find the familiar path...

"Laise, what are you doing here? Go back to the house at once!" That was Erik Winther. He was one of the three men in the boat. I had never heard his voice so grim.

Erik turned to me, again. His face looked gray and eerie in the moonlight.

"Well, there's someone who won't be reading the marriage service over anyone again."

"Otto's fish," I managed to say. And then, "Is he dead?"

"Hours ago."

"It's no use looking for Otto, because I warned him."

"You - what?"

"I told him a search was going on for the soggeprast."

"You're mad! You've given him a chance to get away."

"I know," I wanted to cry, and couldn't. "I had to, Erik. He was my husband for a little while. That makes a tie - for a woman, anyway."

"And how do you think I feel, having to hunt down my brother?"

"Then give him a chance. Until morning."

Erik was waiting for me in the great hall the next morning. He looked very plain, almost ugly, with the grim set of his mouth and the hollows of sleeplessness beneath his eyes.

"Laise, are you still sure you want to come?"

"Yes."

"It may be distressing."

"Why should I be spared?"

As we crossed the courtyard to the car, Niels' white Mercedes, the one in which I had nearly been killed, two men in heavy boots that made a jarring sound on the cobblestones came toward us.

They spoke to Erik in Danish. They were both shaking their heads. Erik answered them briefly, then opened the car door for me to get in. He shouted something back to the two men before we moved off.

"They've been searching the dungeons," he explained to me. "It was possible Otto might try to hide there, and escape when the search moved farther away. But there was no trace of him. And it would have been very uncomfortable, since the most must have risen in the heavy storms we had last week."

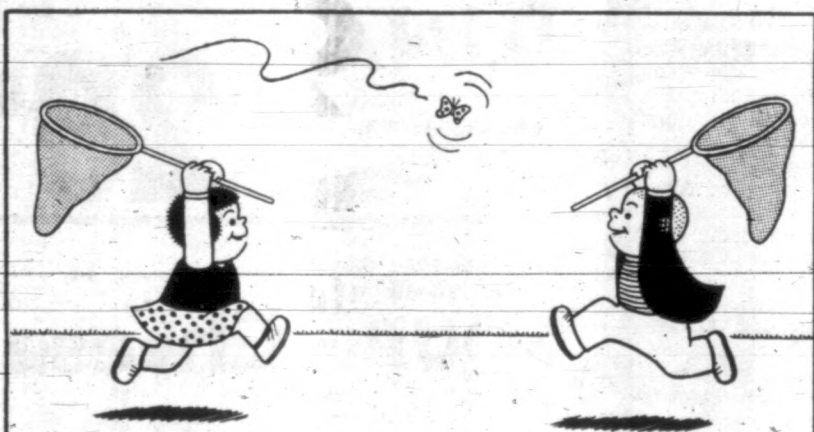

"He would stay out in the air," I said with conviction. "He liked to be outdoors. In Mallorca, we always had to have picnics and sunbaths and be near the sea. He said that was his Viking blood."

Erik gave a short of disgust. "Viking blood. Then he should have been more loyal to his country."

The car swept over the most bridge and down the curving road into the beechwoods.

Erik was driving very surely, with some definite destination in view.

service by inviting this man to speak in Murray.

We have read the United States Constitution. We have read the history of America. We have read the newspapers. We have watched TV. We have listened to the radio.

We understand the integration problem in the United States.

We can say to Murray State Officials that we do not need Dick Gregory nor any of his ilk. In our opinion he is bad news.

Murray State University is a tax supported institution and as such has a responsibility to the people of this area. One of these responsibilities is to not invite anyone to Murray who might, through their speech or action, cause any difficulty or disturbance.

Rev. Coy Garrett Evangelist For Martin's Chapel

The Martin's Chapel United Methodist Church will hold its revival services at the church starting Sunday, August 11, and continuing through Friday, August 16.

Services will be held daily at 7:30 p.m. with Rev. Coy Garrett, pastor of the Hazel and Mason's Chapel churches, as the evangelist.

Ralph Robertson will be the song leader and Glen Hill will play the piano for revival services. Rev. Johnson Easley is the pastor of the church.

Preceding the Sunday night services a fellowship supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. in the social hall of the church. The public is invited to attend the services.

PARIS — Police arrested Monique Gilard, 43 today and charged her with carrying heroin in a suitcase with a false bottom. They said Miss Gilard had worked with Erika Krieger who was arrested by U.S. narcotics agents June 28 at the Boston airport.

Lt. Costello Is Awarded Bronze Star

First Lt. James G. Costello, brother of Mrs. Carolyn Scruggs of Murray Route One, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal with "V" Device for heroism in connection with military operations against a hostile force.

The soldier was wounded in Tay Ninh Province, Republic of Vietnam, on January 1, 1968. Commander B. F. Hood said that "First Lt. Costello distinguished himself by heroic actions on January 1, 1968 while serving with B. 3d Battalion, 22d Infantry at fire support base Burt.

"When the base came under enemy attack many mortar rounds were landing in the vicinity of Lt. Costello's position. With complete disregard for his own safety he moved from position to position directing his platoon's return fire.

"When an enemy ground attack was launched he quickly moved his men to their perimeter where he placed them in good firing positions. He repeatedly exposed himself to intense hostile fire to pull wounded men from their positions and carry them to the rear for aid.

"Lt Costello's personal bravery and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit, the 25th Infantry Division, and the United States Army," Commander Hood said.

The soldier is formerly from Chicago, Ill.
