Seen & Heard Around Murray

Louis Nizer in Family Circle Magazine says when a woman's husband is leaving her, he advises her to appeal to him with affection and love. "If you want him back use some of the feminine wisdom, the enticing you used when you wooed him. And in so many instances I have found that a woman who is smart enough to do this can actually capture her husband again."

Mr. Nizer did not say so, but we suppose it works the other way around too.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon today said U.S. aerial reconnaissance flights over international waters along the North Korean coast will continue and that they will be protected.

"This is not a threat," Nixon told a news conference in his first public comment on the shooting down of a U.S. reconnaissance plane Tuesday by North Korean MIGs in the Sea of Japan. He added, "This simply is a statement of fact."

He said that as President he could not ask 56,000 American troops stationed in South Korea to be endangered by not having intelligence knowledge which he said the unarmed reconnaissance flights provide.

Luther, Ferguson Presented Certificates Of Recognition

Leonard Vaughn, prominent Murray Civic and governmental leader, was named "Man of the Year" last night at the 42nd Annual Meeting of the Murray Chamber of Commerce. Bob Moyer, the 1967 "Man of the Year" made the presentation before approximately 175 members and guests of the Chamber.

Mr. Vaughn has been a City Councilman for ten years, however he is not seeking re-election this year. He has been Chairman of the Council Water and Sewer Committee during some of the greatest expansion in the system. While Chairman of the council committee the large trunk line south of the city was constructed and the sewerage treatment plant was greatly expanded. Also a new one and one-half million gallon capacity water reservoir was constructed on East Elm Street.

Mr. Vaughn headed this committee when the large sewer expansion was made into Magdowline Subdivision and into the northeast section of the city.

Although leaving the council this fall, Mr. Vaughn's work on the large sewerage trunk line north of the city, the Bee Creek Line, will be paying dividends. The contract has been let and work should get underway soon. This line will serve all the city

Tech. Sgt. Thomas E. Lawrence

Local Man Plays Key Defense Role

PANAMA CITY, Fla. — Technical Sergeant Thomas E. Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Lawrence of 324 Diego St., Fort Myers, Fla., plays a key role in the operation of one of the nation's newest front-line defense facilities.

Sergeant Lawrence is a radar technician at the BUTC III (Back-Up Interceptor Control) site that recently became operational at Tyndall AFB, Fla.

It is one of 15 Aerospace Defense Command high-speed, computerized command and control centers that will be strategically located throughout the country as a standby weapons control network. Using highly-refined equipment that doubles the capability of previous radar monitoring facilities, BUTC III automatically takes over defense weapons control in the event a link in the primary Semi-Automatic Ground Environment system becomes inoperable.

The sergeant is a 1951 graduate of Lynn Grove (Ky.) High School.

His wife, Anna, is the daughter of Arthur Downey of Route 1, Hazel, Ky.

On The Wrong Foot

The ruling board of Harvard University warned this week that the 333-year-old school will be closed if another building is occupied. The warning followed the ejection of student occupation forces by police last week, when 48 persons were injured. Students are now boycotting America's oldest university, and other boycotts, sit-ins and demonstrations were planned at other schools across the nation this week.

History will show that those who condone or support the violence on American campuses and the disruption of educational routine on the grounds of preserving a necessary atmosphere of freedom in institutions of higher learning may just be off on the wrong foot.

Anarchy on the campus has virtually destroyed higher education in Latin America. The decline began in 1918 when students in Argentina were given a voice in running the universities.

The governments of Latin American countries have been trying to reverse the trend, but, in the meantime, standards have sunk so low that a Mexican professor was compelled to admit, "We produce bad doctors, but they displace witch doctors. We produce bad lawyers, but they are going to be clerks anyway, with some legal training. Our brilliant students we send abroad."

In the United States, before the meaning of education dissolves in chaos, it might be well to heed the words of Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black, who recently said, "I have always had the idea that the schools were to educate children and not children to educate teachers."

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Whose Voice on the Telephone?

Rare is the person who has never gotten a playful telephone call asking him to "Guess who this is." But all too often, identifying the caller on the other end of the line is no joking matter.

For example: Who was it that telephoned the parents of a kidnapped child about the ransom money? Who made those obscene calls to a terrified widow? Which bank employee, questioned by telephone, okayed a check that was no good?

Generally speaking, the law puts considerable faith in a listener's ability to recognize the voice he hears on the telephone. The modern instrument works well enough to reveal distinctive vocal characteristics.

Thus, a blackmail victim was allowed to testify that he recognized, from prior acquaintance, the voice that had threatened him on the telephone. As one judge commented:

"The recognition of persons by their voices is a common occurrence, and is often the only means of identification."

Suppose you don't recognize the voice at the time of the call. May you still identify it later? Consider this situation:

The father of a kidnapped child received several ransom calls from someone whose voice was not familiar. Later, when a suspect was arrested, the father talked with him face to face—and decided the man had the same voice he had heard on the telephone. Here, too, the court held the identification was sufficiently reliable to be accepted into evidence.

What if you don't remember what the voice sounded like but do remember what it said? A case like that arose when a lumber dealer tried to collect for merchandise which a customer said he had never ordered.

"I can't remember what the caller sounded like," said the dealer in a court hearing, "but I do recall that he used this customer's name. I had no reason at all to suspect that he wasn't telling the truth."

But the court ruled that this kind of identification of a caller was not adequate as legal evidence. The judge felt that, with no voice recognition or other corroborating circumstances, it was all too possible that the call was indeed a hoax.

NEW YORK UPI - Maury Wills never was one to pussyfoot. He has something to say, he says it. Discretion may be the better part of valor but it was never the better part of Maury Wills. He believes in himself and also in what he says and although some people don't always like what he has to say, he never backs down.

There have been reports lately that Wills' old club, the Los Angeles Dodgers, would like to have him back and are trying to make a deal for him with the Montreal Expos. Wills did not leave the Dodgers under the best of circumstances during the winter of 1966. The Dodgers nearly fell all over themselves getting rid of him, in fact, after he had a falling out with owner Walter O'Malley over a banjo, of all things.

Now that the Dodgers have expressed an interest in getting him back, Wills could start laughing behind his glove if that was his nature. That isn't though, and he's not laughing.

Play Anywhere

Wills had been in professional baseball 12 years or long enough for him not to get all worked up about rumors. He has heard and read that the Dodgers would gladly take him back and regards that as, well, nice. In other words, he isn't jumping up and down in sheer ecstasy nor is he violently objecting.

play baseball this season and I'm looking forward to playing in Montreal," he says. "But if they sent me to Manila I wouldn't quit. I'd play there."

The same thing goes if they send me to Los Angeles. It would be like going back home in a way."

The breach between Wills and O'Malley came about while the Dodgers were touring Japan in 1966 after Baltimore had beaten them four straight in the World Series.

Wills suddenly took off from Tokyo and the next time he was located he was playing the banjo with a Dixieland group in Hawaii. O'Malley was quite angry over the banjo, the episode and everything else. He seemed to have good reason. He said Wills had left without notifying anybody and by his impulsive action he had, among other things, insulted the Japanese Premier.

That was news to Wills, who felt he hadn't insulted anybody and said he was anxious to get back to the U. S. for treatment of a knee injury although that didn't explain the banjo in Hawaii.

Anyway, in no time at all, the Dodgers traded Wills off to the Pirates for whom he played two seasons before Montreal picked him in the expansion draft and that brings us up to an incident at Vero Beach this spring.

The Expos were scheduled for an exhibition game with the Dodgers there and Wills visited the Dodger clubhouse to see some of his old teammates. When he was through talking with them, he turned to leave and saw Walter O'Malley about five feet away.

O'Malley also saw Wills, who walked over to him. Both men extended their hands at the same time and spoke to one another for the first time in more than two years.

No Hard Feelings

"I certainly have no ill feelings toward Mr. O'Malley," Wills says, and when Wills says that you can believe him. He wouldn't hold anything back if he did. By the same token, O'Malley believes in forgiving, too. Time heals most wounds if not all. Wills, at 36, feels as if he's 26. "Physically, I feel great," he said. "I had trouble with my legs in 1966 and 1967 but not last year or this one. If I don't steal at least 50 bases this year I'll be disappointed."

Wills failed to come up with a ball against the Cardinals the other day and felt that cost Montreal the ball game.

"The fans booed me somewhat and I deserved it," he says. "I was embarrassed. I feel I lost the game for 'em, but for every one I lose I'll win 10. So I owe 'em 10."

Montreal's Stone Pitches First No-Hitter Of Season

By JOE CARNICELLI
UPI Sports Writer

Billy Stoneman may have found the formula for instant growth — it's called no-hitter. Stoneman, labeled "too short" to be a major league starting pitcher, turned the tables on the experts Thursday night when he pitched the first no-hitter of the 1969 season as the Montreal Expos ripped the Philadelphia Phils, 7-0.

He made his third start of the season and only the fifth of his career as a major league pitcher, becoming the first pitcher for an expansion team to compile a no-hitter in his team's maiden season.

Stoneman said that he was "very happy to win it for Gene's Mauch homecoming." Mauch, the Montreal manager fired as boss of the Phils a year ago, was making his first appearance at Philadelphia's Connie Mack Stadium since being ousted.

Staub drove in three runs and scored two others with three doubles and a home run in five at-bats besides making a knee-high, one-handed catch of Tony Taylor's looping liner in the second inning. In all, the Phils

Dick Lotz Has Lead, Champions

CARUSBAD, Calif. UPI - Thirty thousand bucks is more than Dick Lotz made all last year as a golf pro but he's got a line on that kind of dough all in one lump sum today.

Anything can happen — like a big earthquake — before Sunday when the $150,000, 72-hole Tournament of Champions ends but Lotz, 26, a stocky, handsome 26-year-old from Hayward, Calif., is champion of champions pro team going into the second round.

He shot a five-under-par 67 for a two-stroke lead over such golfing VIP's as Arnold Palmer, Dave Stockton, Tom Weiskopf, Julius Boros and Gary Player, all at 69.

George Archer, the Masters champion, shot a double bogey six on the first hole when he pushed his tee shot into the right rough. He tried to lash the ball out onto the fairway but it ended up in the rough on the other side. Then he was in a trap with his third shot, hit a good chip but two-putted from eight feet.

He was smiling, however, and came out of the round with a one-under-par 71. At the same figure were Steve Reid, a newcomer to this tournament who got in by winning the Asatoka open; defending champion Don January; and Billy Casper, top money winner last year.

Celtics Are Favored To Win Tonight

By DICK DEW
UPI Sports Writer

BOSTON UPI - The ageless Boston Celtics, once deemed "too old" when they dipped to a fourth-place regular season finish, were favored to win still another championship tonight while entertaining the New York Knicks.

The Celtics, 10-time National Basketball Association playoff champions over the last 12 years, were the choices to wrap up their 12th Eastern playoff crown in a nationally televised game at Boston Garden.

Boston led the Knicks 3-2, going into the sixth game of the best-of-seven series. If a seventh game is necessary, it will be played next Monday night in New York.

Boston's playoff edge is a complete reversal of the regular season form in which the Knicks captured six of seven games with player-coach Bill Russell's team.

But the Celtics, whose fourth-place regular season finish was their lowest since the 1949-50 season, had turned up for the second place Knicks by whipping Philadelphia in five games and raced away to a 2-0 bulge in the eastern finals before dropping two of the last three meetings to New York.

The odds makers already had the Celtics as likely winners in game six before Walt Frazier, New York's high-scoring guard, was listed as a "doubtful" performer.

Frazier, who averaged 22.6 points in the first five playoff games between the two rivals, suffered a pulled groin muscle in the final minute of the Knicks' victory at New York last Monday night.

If Frazier is unable to play, the Knicks will be forced to go to a bench that they have used only occasionally over the first five games.

The Celtics had an injury problem of their own. Reserve guard Larry Siegfried is suffering from a pulled hamstring muscle in his right leg.

Baltimore Trounces Boston Behind Robinsons' Homers

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

The line on the Baltimore Orioles is that they'll go as far as the Robinsons can take them. If Thursday's game and the first 10 days of the season are any indication, that may be a long way in 1969.

Both Robinsons homered Frank collecting his fifth of the young season and Brooks his second as the Orioles clobbered the Boston Red Sox, 9-5, to remain in first place in the Eastern Division of the American League with a 7-3 record.

Jim Palmer, who hadn't done much since he beat Sandy Koufax in Koufax's last game, boosted his record to 2-0 with an 8 2-3 inning stint. Eddie Watt finished up.

MCBEAN TRADED

LOS ANGELES UPI - Alvin McBean, a veteran relief pitcher, was traded by the San Diego Padres to the Los Angeles Dodgers for shortstop Tommy Dean and pitcher Leon Everitt.

McBean pitched for the Pittsburgh Pirates last season, winning nine games and posting a 3.59 earned run average.

Beard Not Just for the Hippies

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Will you please say a few kind words in your column for the thousands of respectable, mature men who wear beards?

I, myself, have a neatly trimmed beard, over which some of my friends have expressed much envy. They would like to grow one, but say their employers won't allow it. While my employer tolerates MY beard, he hasn't forbidden me to wear one.

I am sick and tired of the snide remarks one hears from those who associate beards with hippies, yuppies, beatniks, and subversive characters.

It takes time and effort and manliness to grow a beard, and not every male is endowed by nature with enough hair to develop a presentable looking one.

Perhaps if some prominent figure would grow a beard, he'd get the ball rolling. President Nixon would be a natural! He has a five o'clock shadow at noon, and he'd only be following the example set by another great Republican leader, Abraham Lincoln!

Come on, Abby, give us bearded ones a break.

KELLY

DEAR KELLY: You rattled the right cage! I happen to appreciate clean, beautifully sculptured, well-kept beards. In fact, the men who have contributed most to my happiness were bearded. Moses, Freud, my grandfather, Uncle Sam, Santa Claus—and my husband!

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the man who got jealous because his elderly wife was kissed by her elderly cousin while preparing breakfast (both in their night clothes) prompts me to write about my problem.

We recently rented a furnished room to a divorced man in his mid-forties. I have learned that my wife, who is attractive, friendly and out-going, has invited this man to have coffee with her in the morning. Because of the early hour, she is in her housecoat and he is in his bathrobe.

The other night, before retiring, I heard him call to her, "Goodnight, SWEETHEART."

My wife insists that this was only a harmless gesture of friendship, and I am jealous over nothing. Far as I know she has been loyal for 28 years. What do you think?

LONG ISLANDER

DEAR ISLANDER: I think if your wife were actually this man's "sweetheart," he'd be careful what he called her while you were around. But tell your wife to DRESS up when she GETS up, or cut out the coffee-kitchies with the roomer, as rumors DO fly.

DEAR ABBY: My mother didn't write a "Dear John" letter to my boyfriend, but I wish she had. I am now "John's wife." I left a comfortable home and a mother and father who loved me to get married at 16.

I am 18 now, broke and unhappy. I live in a hole in the wall with no conveniences, no new clothes, and no car to drive.

I agree with that mother who wrote and asked John to wait until he could offer her daughter something better before proposing marriage.

If I could do it over again, I wouldn't have married so young. I would have waited until we both worked and saved a while. It's too late now because I'm pregnant.

Please, Dear Abby, tell girls who think they are in love to wait for a man who thinks enough of them to provide them with a decent future. Love DOES fly out the window when poverty comes in the door.

He said he loved me, but I didn't even get a valentine.

SAD FROM SEATTLE

DEAR SAD: Your letter said it better than I. Thanks for the benefit of your experience. Perhaps other 16-year-olds will brush the star-dust out of their eyes and view the realities of life more clearly.

DEAR ABBY: Is a FIFTH COUSIN far enough away for marriage?

ELOISE

DEAR ELOISE: Genetically speaking, yes.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mrs. C. M. Baker Is Circle Speaker

Circle I of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church held its regular meeting on Tuesday, April 15, at two o'clock in the afternoon in the Senior Youth room of the church.

Mrs. Charles Mason Baker was the guest speaker for the afternoon. She gave a most interesting and inspiring program on "The Three Tenses." These were Easter Past, Easter Present, and Easter Future.

The circle chairman, Mrs. David Henry, presided and opened with a prayer.

A social hour was held with refreshments being served to the twenty-one members by the hostesses, Mrs. Burnett Warfield and Mrs. Virgil Stewart.

Byrn Home Scene Of Genealogical Society Meeting

Mrs. James Byrn was hostess to the Calloway County Genealogical Society Monday afternoon, April 14, at her home in Circumana, with Mrs. Joe H. Allbritten, president, presiding.

Mrs. Humphrey Key, secretary, called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Foreman Graham, treasurer, gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Wesley Waldrop reported that only eight of the society's book "Vital Statistics of Calloway County 1852-1859" remain to be sold.

Mrs. Price Doyle reported that the decorative ancestral charts are selling well. These charts are an original design, printed in black and white on parchment, provide space for five generations and are suitable for framing. Due to an advertisement in "Kentucky Ancestors", a publication of the Kentucky Historical Society, Frankfort, Kentucky, the society has mailed many of these charts to individuals in Kentucky towns and several states in the United States. Some have been re-orders after seeing the charts.

Mrs. Waldrop also gave a progress report on the copying of the Henry County, Tennessee early marriage records. This endeavor has progressed slowly, due to the difficulty of reading this very old script. However, one prefers this slow process to an accelerated one so as to be accurate in copying these records. A committee was appointed to finish this work. Mrs. Doyle is in charge of collecting Bible records for a forthcoming publication of the society. These records are not restricted to Calloway County records. All Bible records are desired. Anyone desiring to have their record included in this book should call Mrs. Doyle at 753-1422 between the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Arrangements will be made to have your record copied.

Mrs. Allbritten reported that the second printing of "Centenaries of Calloway and Adjoining Counties" will soon be off the press. The society members will assemble the book and have it ready for sale in the very near future. Information concerning this book may be obtained by calling 753-1746, 753-1863, 753-6589 and 436-2241. The ancestral charts may also be obtained by calling these same numbers.

The next regular meeting of the society will be a luncheon meeting, May 12, at the Holiday Inn with Marvin Wraether as the principal speaker.

Following the business session the hostess served refreshments to the members present as everyone enjoyed an informal afternoon of genealogical discussion.

Miss Jennifer Kelley George Becomes Bride Of Billy Dan Crouse In Lovely Ceremony At An Indianapolis Church

MRS. BILLY DAN CROUSE

The marriage of Miss Jennifer Kelley George to Billy Dan Crouse was solemnized on Thursday, March 27, at five-thirty o'clock in the afternoon at the North United Methodist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Rev. Bryan F. Stroh performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the families and close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elroy Sykes of Murray and the late Clyde George of Louisville. Mr. Crouse is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crouse of Murray.

The beauty of the historic Franciscan church was enhanced by fan shaped altar arrangements of white mums and the soft lighting of the church. Myriads of candles created an atmosphere of ethereal loveliness.

The bride was radiant in her body-skimming gown of ivory peau de soie which was overlaid with imported Alenconer-embroidered lace. The jewel neckline of the gown was defined by self lace ruching which was repeated on the long sleeves.

She wore a matching Dior bow and carried an unusual bridal bouquet which was fashioned of lemon leaves and arranged into one large duchess rose with a long velvet covered stem and velvet leaves placed on a white Bible.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Sheila Ferlin of Louisville. She wore a camellia pink silk and lace dress which featured long sleeves and a silk band encircling the neck.

Mrs. Ferlin wore a pink velvet headpiece and carried an elongated arrangement of pink carnations nestled in a cloud puff of baby's breath.

Bill-Crouse attended his son as best man.

Mrs. Sykes, mother of the bride, wore a navy silk and worsted wool dress and coat ensemble with matching accessories.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. Crouse, was attired in an after five creation of ice blue raw silk and Chantilly lace with blending accessories.

Later in the evening the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Florida with the bride wearing an imported knit white sleeveless dress topped by a full length matching coat in navy and handstitched in white.

Mr. and Mrs. Crouse are now at home at 3710 North Meridian, Indianapolis, Ind., where the bride is a teacher in the No. 101 School. Mr. Crouse is self-employed.

After June 5 the couple will reside in Murray.

Giving" with her scripture reading from Matthew 25:35-46. She said in learning to give we should always remember "that God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son", and the second greatest commandment, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." She closed with prayer.

Mrs. Evelyn Linn Allbritten presented the program on "Giving." She opened her remarks by saying that a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step, and one does not have to give material things in order to give, but may give time, council, and love. She said if we do not give of selves, it is only surface giving. She said giving is an honor and privilege given from God, and giving is because we love Christ. She said giving demands discipline in forgetting self. She closed by reading from II Corinthians and leading in prayer.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Farmer, Janie Young, Gingles Wallis, and L. J. Horton.

The interview. Question: What do you think of Eugene McCarthy? Answer: Who? Question: Is that your answer? Answer: Yes.

Vice-President Ky of South Vietnam has been described by some as a "pipsqueak" and "noticeably reticent in exposing himself to any danger."

Here's the story. Ky was the first Air Force officer (February 1965) allied or Vietnamese, to lead a combat mission over North Vietnam. In this mission his aircraft was hit before reaching target and despite a wounded right arm, he managed to fly to the target area, discharge his bombs and return to his base. He totaled over 3,000 hours of flight time to become one of the country's Air Force. Ky's awards are numerous and range from the Grand Officer of the National Order of Vietnam (second class) plus Gallantry Cross with Palm, to the Staff Service Honor Medal, First Class.

This reminds us of what George Hart once said about people circulating rumors about him. He said that he ignored them, because his friends would not believe them anyway and his enemies would choose to believe them in spite of the truth.

This is a fact. Those who dislike you want to hear all the "dirt" on you that is possible. Only too willing to believe it. Real friends will choose to ignore the rumors, knowing you for what you are and being satisfied with it.

It has come to our attention that what we meant to say the other day was that we did not write legibly (rather than intelligibly). Legibly has to do with being able to decipher or read writing, whereas intelligibly has to do with how much sense, what has been written, makes. Brother, that sentence construction. However, you get the idea.

No, we did not care for the show the other night by the Monkees. It hurt our eyes, it made no sense, and frankly we did not understand what was going on. Must be the generation gap or something. Whatever it is, we are thankful for it.

We have finally mastered the toaster. The family got for Christmas. It is one of those things that you can turn over and it will cook bacon and things, and if you turn it back over, you make a broiler out of it.

You can set it on any setting you want and when it reaches that heat, it automatically cuts on and off.

If you set it on 250, it will make toast ok, but you have to watch it like a hawk, or the toast will burn.

Now just how can we lick this thermostatically controlled monster, we bowed. We finally reached a solution. What we do is set it on 100. This way the thing no more than turns on, then seconds later, it turns it self off again. This way the toast is gradually browned and never reaches the critical point where it burns. Now we can fix toast that is exactly right.

Once again man conquers the machine.

Our Mystery Snails are growing like weeds. Charlie Blackwell gave us three of them, two about the size of your index finger nail and one tiny one. The two larger ones are bigger than your thumb now and the tiny one has grown to the size of a good size pebble. These little creatures do not lead a wild life. They have a big foot which they stick out of their shell and sort of glide along. We don't know what they get out of life, but apparently things quit them.

THE VOTERS OF CALLOWAY ARE ENTITLED TO THE TRUTH

On May 27, voters of Calloway County will be given opportunity to make a decision on the support of schools for their children.

These fine citizens of a great county are entitled to know all the facts that can be brought out by all the leaders in both the County and City systems.

On Monday night, April 21, a mass meeting of Calloway County citizens will assemble at Calloway County High School at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of discussing the school program.

All members of both the County and City Boards and all interested citizens are urged and invited to come. Whether you feel that you are for or against, come and listen and ask any question you wish. Voters owe it to themselves to go to the polls well informed and with the facts necessary to make decisions.

Herebelow are some of the questions that are being asked throughout the county. If you have a question come along and ask it. We can all try to find the answers together as neighbors and friends:

1. Can existing buildings at Almo, Kirksey, Faxon, Hazel, New Concord, and Lynn Grove be remodeled and repaired to satisfactorily serve the present Elementary County Schools?
2. Is there an estimate on the cost of such a remodeling program?
3. Would the State Board of Education approve the re-working and enlarging of the present buildings? Why? or Why Not?
4. Is there room in the present elementary facilities for the first six grades, and room at Calloway County High for the 7th and 8th grade?
5. What is the estimated tax necessary to build the very minimum facilities for county children if the systems do not merge?
6. Will the Utility tax be needed if the merger is not made?
7. Has the survey made by the State Board of Education of Calloway County system ever been published, or any part of it? Is it available to the public?
8. What would happen to the Boards of Education of both schools if the County and City system were merged?
9. How would the Superintendents and the Faculty of the merged system be selected? Are the present Superintendents and Principals of both systems for the merger? If so, Why? If not, Why?
10. Where would the proposed County Elementary Schools be located?
11. Does the County have enough land for at least one of the sites?
12. What will become of students normally attending Murray State University School, when the school at the University is discontinued? Is there room for them in the County and City systems?
13. Is there any assurance that merger will be honestly attempted by both boards if the 15¢ tax is voted by the county? Has it ever been made officially public by either board?
14. If a merger is made, who would run the schools — city or county?
15. Are all the County and City Board members supporting the merger?
16. Are all the members of the County Board really supporting the tax?
17. Does the County Board have other plans if the 15¢ tax is defeated? If so, what are those plans?
18. Does the City Board have other plans if the 15¢ tax is defeated? If so, what are those plans? When will they be executed?
19. Can the present County School system meet the needs of Calloway County children with the present equipment and on the present income? How? or Why?
20. On how close a margin is the Calloway County System now operating? How much money for repairs to equipment?
21. What are some of the advantages, if any, that would be given to all students in a merged system that are not now given to Calloway County students?
22. Is the 15¢ voted tax to be used strictly and solely for building purposes?
23. In case the 15¢ tax is voted, would the automatic 5¢ cent raise in addition (making a total of 20¢ for the tax-payer) go into the general fund?
24. Would the school taxes of people in town and people in the county be the same if the systems were to merge?
25. Would there be any adjustments up or down of teachers' salaries in either system if merger were made?
26. Would any teacher in either system lose his or her job?
27. Can this school problem wait for a few more years, or does it have to be attended to soon? Why?
28. WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO THE VOCATIONAL SCHOOL IF THE COUNTY VOTES DOWN THE TAX? How much of the Construction costs would be borne by the Federal Government? Who would pay for the operation expense? Where would it be located?
29. What barriers, economic, social, physical, or otherwise exist that would prevent the people of Murray and the People of Calloway County from working together in a school system?
30. What other nearby counties have now, or are working on merged systems of county and city systems?
31. Has the Fiscal Court been legally presented with a petition for placing the tax vote on the May 27 Ballot? Come along, and bring your questions and speak your piece.

INDEX RISES

WASHINGTON UPI - The Federal Reserve Board's index of the nation's industrial production rose from 169.5 to 170.5 during March. Household and consumer goods led the advance, the board said, with iron and steel and other industrial materials showing a slower rate of increases. Textile manufacturing was one of a few manufacturing categories to show a decline.

Barber Pole Is Removed During Night

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — You have read about the student disturbances this week at Harvard, Columbia, Stanford, Oberlin, Purdue, Southern U., Albright and the University of Virginia. To mention a few.

Well, here's an advance story about another campus disturbance that is waiting to happen.

SOUTH BOUNCER, Mont. — Militant students at the south Bouncer Barbers College seized control of the front chair today and forcibly ejected the dean of the school of sideburns.

J. Horace Feathercut, president of the college, threatened to call police to evict the demonstrators unless they called off the strike within 25 hours.

Cause Damage
He said the rebel group already had caused considerable damage by pouring hair tonic into one of the hot lather machines.

But Bouncer Pate, a leader of the Student Barbers for Democratic Haircuts SBDH, vowed that the activists would continue the protest until the college yielded to their demands.

He said the students were demanding a bigger voice in the selection of shampoo, replacement of barbershop quartets by rock guitarists and the establishment of autonomous study programs in beard trimming.

Girls attending the South Bouncer Institute of Manicures, the female branch of the barbers college, walked out of their classes in support of the demonstration.

Mrs. Gladys Emeryboard, a nailfiling instructor, said the girls had been warned that unless they returned immediately they would not be given credit in cuticle removing.

Barberpole Removed
During the night, someone removed the barberpole in front of the college and replaced it with a psychedelic poster.

The protest was the culmination of efforts by SBDH leaders to force the barbers college administration to adopt "meaningful" and "relevant" changes in the curriculum.

Pate pointed out that clipper operation was a required course whereas the department of razor styling was relegated to the back chair.

"The faculty is dominated by the influential department of crewcuts, which is strictly academic," Pate asserted.

He said the college had refused to supply students enrolled in razor styling courses with modern equipment, such as small becoms for whisking away loose hairs from the backs of necks.

Feathercut insisted, however, that the curriculum was accredited by the state Bureau of Barber Licenses.

COME TO WORSHIP

every hour

no time to kill. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," Eccles. 9:10. Constantly strive to be a better father, mother, husband, wife, son, daughter... a better church member. There is always a friend or neighbor less fortunate than you. "He that knoweth to do good and desireth it not, to him it is taken," James 4:17. If you have had a kindness shown, pass it on: 'twas not meant for you alone... pass it on.

Above all, "every hour" is God's gift. Wasting time is wasting God's Bounty. Keep on killing time and time will kill you. "Every man must give an account of himself to God," Romans 14:12. Spend your spare time at home, at Church or on errands of mercy.
