NEW YORK (UPI) — The city was again awash in blue and gold as the Knicks pulled a double-header out of its trunk and offered to let you into it. If you bought the tickets, you didn't have to pay for it.

Knicks fans have been buying tickets in spite of the fact that they've been losing a lot of games. They've been losing a lot of games.

Last week, for example, the Knicks lost to the Hawks, 104-93, and to the Celtics, 94-90. But they managed to win the 1972 World Series, 1-0.

The Knickerbockers are not the only team to lose a lot of games. The New York Mets, for example, lost 104 games in 1972. But they managed to win the 1969 World Series, 2-0.

Clothiers forget older women's needs

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: When are the clothing manufacturers going to realize that not ALL women are 21, and 18, and 16? There are many of us who have jobs outside the home and we wear clothes to work. We do not want to wear old-fashioned dresses, or flimsy, see-through materials, or cold gold-braid. Holiday was play games, not sit around the table. — Elizabeth, Rankin, Tennessee.

When we carefully examine Psalms 37 they find that the Book of Psalms 37 is a wonderful prayer for the Christian who is seeking guidance in life. "Blessed is the man who walks in the counsel of the Lord, who sits in the inner circle of His common, and whose delight is in His commandments, and who meditates on His statutes. He will be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, yielding its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither, and whatever he does prospers. The just one will be blessed forever, but the shame of the wicked will come upon them."

When I read this, I was reminded of a poem I had written some time ago, which I had titled "The Man in the Mirror." I thought it was appropriate to share it with you, since it deals with the same subject of self-confidence and self-worth.

The Man in the Mirror

I see a man in the mirror,
A man of strength and courage,
A man who knows he is worth it,
And that he can make it through.

I see a man in the mirror,
A man with a sense of humor,
A man who knows he is loved,
And that he can make it through.

I see a man in the mirror,
A man with a heart of gold,
A man who knows he is needed,
And that he can make it through.

I see a man in the mirror,
A man with a future ahead,
A man who knows he is blessed,
And that he can make it through.

I see a man in the mirror,
A man with a spirit unbroken,
A man who knows he is special,
And that he can make it through.

I see a man in the mirror,
A man with a future ahead,
A man who knows he is loved,
And that he can make it through.

I see a man in the mirror,
A man with a heart of gold,
