Last Two Portions Of Tax Relief Plan Are Introduced

By CHARLES PENTECOST
FRANKFORT, Ky. (UPI) — The final portions of the Nunn administration's tax reduction program were introduced in the House of Representatives Monday in a 39-minute session preceding a Democratic caucus on budget reallocations.

Rep. W. Harold Demaree, House minority leader, said the measures contained in HB 340 are designed to provide tax relief by raising the standard state income tax deduction from $500 to $800 and by increasing the minimum filing requirement from $1,000 to $2,000.

It also provides for increase in the present $20 tax credit.

$809,806 Is Spent By VA In Calloway

Olney B. Owen, manager of the Kentucky Veterans Administration Regional Office in Louisville, disclosed today that the VA spent $809,806 in Calloway County to aid veterans during Fiscal Year 1969. This includes $63,987 in compensation and pensions.

Administrative Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson revealed at the same time the total VA funds expended in the state of Kentucky during the same period amounted to about $134,461,678, of which $94,225,732 was in compensation and pension payments.

Funds spent in Calloway County, Owen said, also included $38,738 for readjustment and vocational rehabilitation, and $70,531 for insurance and indemnities. Regional office expenditures and hospital operating costs in the state of Kentucky amounted to $20,671,503. The VA also spent $105,589 in Kentucky for construction and related costs.

According to Owen, the VA is the third largest Federal Agency and operates the largest hospital network in the free world, as well as administering one of the biggest insurance programs in the nation.

Democrats Propose Monday That $37 Million Be Reallocated To Give Boost In Pay To Teachers

By GLEN CARPENTER
FRANKFORT, Ky. (UPI) — Democratic leaders of the General Assembly proposed Monday that $37 million of Gov. Louie B. Nunn's $3.1 billion biennial budget recommendation be reallocated including a "bare cost of living" pay boost for public school teachers.

The Democrats recommended teachers receive a total of $16.6 million in pay boosts over the next biennium, beginning July 1, or a hike of $200 during the first year and an additional $100 the next.

Other significant shifts included $2 million for crime control, $5 million more for the University of Louisville, $3.8 million for the General Assembly, $200,000 for a drug-abuse education program, $200,000 for air and water pollution control, $180,000 for consumer protection and $350,000 for low income housing.

The Democrats said they would move to amend their bill which would eliminate the five cents on the dollar sales tax from prescription medicine and certain medical items. The bill, which passed the Senate, and is now before the House, would have resulted in an $11 million biennial revenue loss.

The proposed amendment would result in a loss of $7.2 million by delaying the effective date of the bill six months and by requiring eye glasses and dentures to be taxable.

More Changes

To relocate the $37 million, the Democrats proposed the present tax on distilled spirits be increased to provide an additional $6.2 million in revenue. The present consumption tax of $1.28 per gallon would be increased to $1.92.

The Department of Highways through its road fund would be required to contribute an additional $4.6 million for a total of $7.8 million to other state agencies which perform services for it.

The appropriations to the teacher retirement system would be increased to $900 million.

KEA Threatens Assembly With Work Stoppage

By GLEN CARPENTER
FRANKFORT, Ky. (UPI) — The policy-making body of the Kentucky Education Association voted overwhelmingly Monday night to authorize a "work-stoppage," tantamount to a statewide teachers strike, if a four-point legislative program it is demanding is not adopted by the General Assembly.

The Delegate Assembly of the KEA also threatened educational sanctions against the state if its demands are not met.

A strike by the majority of the 33,000 public school teachers in Kentucky would virtually close all public elementary schools. The KEA membership totals 32,000 of these teachers and 535 members of the 887-member of the delegate assembly were on hand for the special meeting here at Franklin County High School, despite snow and cold temperatures.

The primary plank in the KEA's 14-point legislative program calls for $1,000 dollar increases in teachers' salaries over the next biennium. But the Delegate Assembly decided that a four-point "equal priority" program would be stressed.

Little Satisfaction

Faced with little satisfaction from Republicans or Democrats over salary levels, the Delegate Assembly said it would accept no less than a six per cent "cost of living" hike per year in teachers' salaries which would call for state expenditures at $27 million along these lines. It would amount to a $300 dollar pay boost the first year of the next biennium followed by another $300 boost the following year, or $900 total.

Legend Of "Pistol Pete" Gets Better Every Game

By GREG GALLO
UPI Sports Writer

The legend of Pistol Pete Maravich gets better with each succeeding game.

The gangly 6-5 guard, who broke Oscar Robertson's college career scoring mark Saturday night with a 53-point game against Mississippi, surpassed the 3,000 point plateau Monday night when he tossed in 49 points to lead LSU to a 100-91 victory over Mississippi State.

Maravich, whose sensational offensive shows during the past three years at LSU have made him Mr. Basketball of the Bayou and the most exciting college player in the country, scored his 3,000th point on a free throw with 7:17 left in the first half. He then gunned down 36 more points to raise his record total to 3,036.

Maravich still has 12 games left to play during the regular season and if he can continue to score around his 47 point per game average he can reach the 3,600 mark.

But while most people have been counting points, the post season tournament committees have been watching the won-lost records. And at this rate LSU (11-5) can be considered as a definite candidate. The Tigers are still alive in the Southeastern Conference race with Georgia, Kentucky and Auburn. The winner of the SEC is eligible to go to the NCAA championships while the runner-up is likely to be invited to the National Invitational Tournament in New York.

Terry Mills' 30-foot jump shot with nine seconds remaining gave second-ranked Kentucky an 84-83 victory over Auburn. It was Mills' 30th point of the game but his only basket of the second half. Auburn's Henry Harris missed a desperation shot at the buzzer.

Artis Gilmore, scored 29 points and hauled down 26 rebounds to pace sixth-ranked Jacksonville to a 110-75 thrashing of overmatched Iowa.

Henry Jordan Announces His Retirement

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Henry Jordan, one of the names synonymous with the Green Bay Packers' domination of pro football in the 1960s, announced his retirement Monday.

And if Herb Adderley has his way, he will join Jordan among the familiar faces missing when the Packers regroup for training camp in July.

Jordan, a five-time All-Pro defensive tackle whose effectiveness was sharply reduced by injuries the past two seasons, announced at a news conference here that he was becoming executive sales director of Summerfest, Milwaukee's annual festival.

The new job, he said, will mean the end of a National Football League career that began in 1957.

Adderley, still considered one of the best cornerbacks in the league, told Bud Lea of the Milwaukee Sentinel Monday that he will quit rather than return to Green Bay in 1970.

Adderley, who holds the NFL record for pass interceptions returned for touchdowns, publicly assailed the Packers coaches a month ago. He was upset at not being named to the Pro Bowl squad this year and contended coach and general manager Phil Bengtson had not recommended him for the honor. On Monday he still was miffed.

"My mind is made up," said Adderley, 30, and All-Pro three times. "I won't go back to Green Bay."

Bengtson said the Packers are "not calling up the league advertising Adderley. He's available if the price is right."

The price, he said, would be another cornerback with Adderley's ability.

Bengtson said he had recommended Adderley for the Pro Bowl squad but that NFL coaches could not vote for their own personnel. Two other Green Bay defensive backs — Willie Wood and Bob Jeter — were chosen for the NFL West squad.

Verga Holds Lead, ABA Scoring Race

NEW YORK (UPI)—Bob Verga may give up eight inches in height to Spencer Haywood, but he refuses to concede a point to his shadow from Denver in the American Basketball Association scoring race.

Verga, Carolina's prolific scorer, has a 27.4 point scoring average that kept him in front of Haywood today for the fourth consecutive week. The margin isn't much, less than a point, but enough to stay atop the 6-9 Haywood's 26.8 mark.

Haywood, who leads the ABA in total points with 1,338 through last Sunday's games, maintained his rebound lead last week with 998 for a 19.9 average. His superior board work precipitated a 15-game Denver winning streak that fell one short of the league record when the Rockets lost to New York last Friday.

Jeff Congdon of Denver leads in three-point field goal percentage with a .486 mark, but Louie Dampier of Kentucky is the actual gunner from beyond the 25-foot line with 111 three-point baskets.

Bill McGill of Dallas is tops in two-point field goal percentage at .553. Darel Carrier of Kentucky has an .891 foul shooting percentage and Doug Moe of Carolina paces the league with 276 assists for a 6.3 average.

West Is Top Scorer For Second Week

NEW YORK (UPI)—The National Basketball Association is in a rut. For the first time in many weeks the departmental leads failed to change hands.

Jerry West of Los Angeles heads the NBA in total points with 1,605, but his average dropped a bit from 31.6 to 31.5 in games through last Sunday.

Johnny Green of Cincinnati is enjoying one of his best pro basketball seasons and proves it every game. His 42 for 69 last week boosted his field goal percentage from .557 to .573.

Elvin Hayes of San Diego, who gained the rebound lead the previous week, increased his career average to four-tenths of a point over Wes Unseld of Baltimore. The Bald E is averaging 16.4 rebounds a game.

Len Wilkens of Seattle increased his assists average, but Flynn Robinson of Milwaukee lost ground at the free throw line. Wilkens went from 8.8 to 9.1 in scoring feeds, while Robinson's lead at the charity stripe dipped from .903 to .900.

Kentucky Drops To Third In This Week's UPI Poll

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—UCLA, sailing along with a 16-0 record, missed by a single point today being the unanimous choice as the No. 1 team in the country in the United Press International board of coaches major college basketball ratings.

As the nation's only major unbeaten team, following losses by St. Bonaventure, Kentucky and Jacksonville, UCLA was the No. 1 choice of 34 coaches and the No. 2 choice of the 35th coach in the ninth week of ratings. That gave UCLA 349 of a possible 350 points and a huge lead over the field.

South Carolina, which scored three victories during the week, jumped from fourth place a week ago into second place. Kentucky, the No. 2 team a week ago, slid to No. 3 and St. Bonaventure, No. 3 last week, dropped to No. 4. Jacksonville fell from No. 6 to No. 8.

Rounding out the top 10 were New Mexico State (No. 5), North Carolina (No. 6), North Carolina State (No. 7), Illinois (No. 9) and Marquette (No. 10). The second 10 was composed, in order, of Drake, Utah, Southern California, Pennsylvania, Kansas State, Davidson, Florida State, Utah State, Santa Clara and Columbia and Houston which were tied for 20th.

UCLA, with a two-year winning streak of 20 games and loser of only two games in the last four seasons, remained unbeaten last week with an 87-72 victory over California and a 102-84 triumph over Stanford. UCLA had 28 first-place votes in last week's survey while Kentucky had six and St. Bonaventure had one.

Kentucky lost to Vanderbilt, 89-81, St. Bonaventure bowed to Villanova, 64-62, and Jacksonville was beaten by Florida State, 89-83, during the week in the key games which shook up the ratings.

The 35 coaches on the UPI board, five from each of the seven geographical sections of the country, rank the teams each week during the season.

Points are allotted on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for a second, eight for a third and so on down to one point for a 10th-place vote.

More than 3.5 million acres of public lands are open to hunting in New York State.

Dear Abby

He chews on rubber?
Don't you believe it!

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You are my last hope. I can't consult anyone else about my problem because it is so embarrassing. I have been married for three years to a wonderful woman, but she is now threatening to divorce me for what I am about to relate to you. I swear that this will be the weirdest letter you have ever received.

Ever since I was a baby, I liked to chew on rubber things. Toy boats, rubber ducks, etc. It seemed to calm my nerves. All through school I chewed on pencil erasers to relieve tension, and it always worked.

I am now 35 years old, and I always carry an art gum eraser with me in case things get tense. After chewing on it for five minutes, I am relaxed and calm again.

Well, the other night my wife and I were at my boss' home for a dinner party. I felt myself getting a little tense so I reached for my rubber eraser and discovered that for the first time in my life I had forgotten it! I became panicky, so I went into the bathroom in search of a rubber object to chew on. Fortunately, I found a rubber duck belonging to their baby. Not wanting to remain in the bathroom, I took it to the hall closet and started chewing on it frantically.

Suddenly the door opened and I saw my boss standing there! He demanded that I return the rubber duck. I refused. Harsh words followed. Naturally, I lost my job, and now my wife wants to divorce me.

Don't tell me to see a psychiatrist. I can't afford it. I am depending on you, Abby. If you don't help me I will commit suicide. Help!

RUBBER CHEWER

DEAR CHEWER: Yours may not be the "weirdest" letter I've ever received, but it could be one of the phoniest. Realizing how costly psychiatric treatment is, I am sending you a check for $10,000. It's rubber! Chew on THAT for a while.

DEAR ABBY: Before I met my husband I had an affair with a married man. I foolishly "confessed" this to my husband before I married him and was told "it didn't matter now." I believed him.

I have been married to this "elephant" for four years, and now every time we have an argument he brings up "the other man."

Lately, it has become unbearable because he now tells me that I have been talking in my sleep about this man. I have no way of knowing if I really do, or if he is trying to torture me.

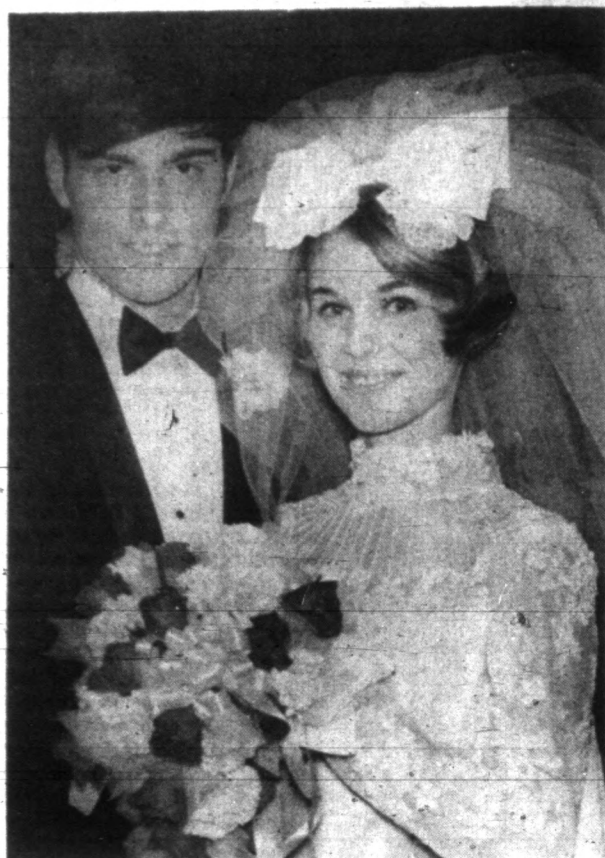

Now I try to keep from falling asleep before my husband, but in the morning he tells me I have talked about "him" again.

I have led a good life since my marriage, Abby. I haven't looked at another man—or cared to. But I cannot undo what has been done. So why should I be tortured for something over which I have no control? Can you help me?

MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: You could rent a tape recorder and find out whether you really do talk in your sleep. I'll bet you don't. Or you could put a piece of adhesive tape over your mouth before retiring. But your problem is NOT what comes out of YOUR mouth, it's what comes out of your husband's. If he's determined to "torture" you, he'll find other ways.

Miss Susan Melita Snyder Becomes Bride Of Joseph Lee Maxey In Ceremony At First Baptist Church, West Memphis

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee Maxey

Miss Susan Melita Snyder became the bride of Joseph Lee Maxey on Saturday, December 20, in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church in West Memphis, Ark.

Rev. Tommy Hinson, pastor of the church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Snyder of West Memphis, Ark., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Maxey of Memphis, Tenn.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Raymond Faulk, organist, and Miss Cecil Hudson, vocalist.

The church sanctuary was enhanced by the combination of Christmas greenery and white flowers. On the highest level of the pulpit area, two baskets of white chrysanthemums and greenery flanked a large memory candle. At the base of the steps were two candle trees and two candelabra to provide the candlelight for the setting.

Placed at the wooden outermost focal points were two brass urns on wooden stands which held urns and greenery. The pews reserved for the family were marked with poinsettias for red and green velvet.

Bride's Gown

Given in marriage by her father.

table was covered with a yellow satin cloth and yellow net. Smilax was entwined with yellow carnations and yellow satin ribbon across the front and down the center of the table. It was caught at the center and at the corners with yellow carnations and ribbon tied in love knots. Centering the table was a five branched silver candelabra with a floral arrangement of yellow carnations, snapdragons, daisy pompoms and baby's breath.

Smilax and daisy pompoms were arranged around the punchbowl. Individual cakes decorated with yellow roses were also served along with nuts and mints. The appointments were in silver.

Small tables covered with linen cloths and holding bud vases of yellow roses were arranged throughout the room where the guests might be seated after being served.

Miss Diane Beale presided at the register table which also held a bud vase of yellow roses. One hundred and fifty people were included in the guest list. The hostesses presented the honoree with a place setting in her chosen pattern of sterling.

lowed persons blind and over 65 years old to $40 and from $40 to $80 if the taxpayer is both blind and over 65.

The provisions of the tax reduction proposal will apply to taxable years beginning after January 1, 1971.

Damascus last week had introduced the first of the state administration's tax relief proposals. They would remove the five cents on the dollar sales tax from prescription medicines and lift the five per cent motor vehicle usage tax from the transfer of automobiles within a family, by will, or between merging corporations or in partnerships.

Gov. Louie B. Nunn said in outlining his tax reduction program last fall that it would result in a biennial revenue loss of from $18 to $20 million, if approved.

In other House action Monday, Rep. W. Terry McBrayer, D-Greenup, introduced a bill raising the state tax on distilled spirits from $1.28 per gallon to $1.92 per gallon.

It also would raise the rate of the excise tax on spirits sold in one-half pint containers to 12 cents, compared with the present eight cents. The bill would bring in an estimated $3 million for the first fiscal year in the next biennium and $3.2 million the second year.

A companion bill was introduced Monday in the Senate.

The bill would bring Kentucky's distilled spirits tax to approximately the national average.

Fourteen Others

Fourteen other bills were introduced in the lower chamber before adjournment Monday. The House will reconvene at 1 p.m. EST today.

In an unusually rapid-fire session, the House Monday passed three bills and adopted one resolution.

House Bill 32, relating to the purchase of rifles and shotguns by Kentuckians in adjacent states, sponsored by Rep. Darvin Allen, D-Royaltown, was passed by a vote of 84-0.

HB 35, allowing resident voter registration on primary election day at precincts in counties containing a city of the first class, was passed, 86-1.

And HB 111, extending a veterans preference under the merit system to wives, widows or mothers of disabled veterans or deceased veterans, passed, 90-0.

House Resolution 30, directing the Legislative Research Commission (LRC) to study the establishment of a Kentucky family court system and report its findings to the 1972 legislature, was adopted by voice vote.

Senate Bill 4, exempting prescription medicines from the state sales tax, was posted in the House for action today.

HB 67, a workmen's compensation bill, passed by both the Senate and House, was ordered recommended to the House Labor and Industry Committee.

per cent are over people's criticisms of us, 12 per cent are over old decisions, 10 per cent are about our health. That accounts for 92 per cent of our concerns about which we can do little or nothing.

On Attitude: Separate the facts from the opinions. People say "I never do anything right" which is incorrect when they do a number of things right. They say "I'm a failure" which is just an opinion. No one is a failure until they give up completely.

On discouragement: If at first you don't succeed... you're running about average.

Thomas Edison sought a substitute for lead in the manufacture of storage batteries, and conducted 20,000 unsuccessful experiments. A reporter asked him "Aren't you discouraged by all this waste of effort?" Edison said "Waste, nothing is wasted. I've found 20,000 things that don't work."

A famous critic once called the great violinist Sarasate, a genius. "Genius," he snorted, "for 37 years I've practiced 14 hours a day, and now they call me a genius."

Building confidence is a lifetime job they say. How to build self-confidence is the question, and here is the answer.

First: take a mental inventory of recent accomplishments as well as your assets as a leader. This will boost your morale.

Second: isolate one personal deficiency or weakness and concentrate on removing or improving it.

Third: Increase your knowledge of the area you are involved in. Lack of information can often prevent us from tackling something new.

Fourth: Take on an assignment once considered too tough. This will test how well you have completed the first three steps.

Fifth: Work on your personal appearance. The way you dress, walk, talk, etc. reflects the opinion you have of yourself.

In harnessing the potential within oneself, the Christians point out that God's help should be used. They quote the old preacher who greeted each day with "O Lord, help me to remember that nothing is going to happen to me today that You and I together can't handle."

So you can see from all the above, that it is not what the situation is that counts, it is merely your attitude toward it that is important.

be reduced by over $2 million during the second year of the biennium. Democrats said they would not affect the "actuarial soundness" of the system.

Capital construction would be cut by $300,000, the state fire and tornado insurance fund would be trimmed by $300,000 and the Department of Public Information would have its budget sliced $100,000 in the second year of the biennium.

Appropriations to the Tuberculosis Hospital Commission would be reduced by $250,000 and the Hazelwood Hospital at Louisville would be transferred to the Department of Mental Health for operation for mentally retarded children.

The Democrats noted the occupancy of tuberculosis hospital beds has declined and asserted the transfer of the hospital for mentally retarded children would better utilize vacant beds. It would also require an appropriation of $1.39 million to renovate and change-over the facility.

Funds for operation of the Kentucky Science and Technology Commission, the Kentucky Commission on Women and the Lincoln School would be eliminated, thus causing them to be disbanded.

The $37 million includes the $18 million in "uncommitted reserve for legislative disposition" of the governor's proposed budget.

The Democratic proposals call for reallocation of $13,243,877 in 1970-1971 and $23,743,877 more in 1971-1972. The proposals would be financed to provide an expected surplus the first year of $70,000 and $600,000 the second.

The Democrats said if there is a substantial surplus above the predicted levels, they believed the priorities for additional funding should be:

1. Additional teacher pay boosts.
2. Teacher retirement system.
3. Capital construction.

"No Fat"

The Democratic proposal was unveiled at a press conference in the Senate chamber and followed three weeks of budget hearings by the Joint House-Senate Appropriations and Revenue Committee. Rep. William Curdin Jr., D-Frankfort, heads the House committee and Sen. C. Gibson Downing, D-Lexington, the Senate.

Downing admitted the committee has found no "fat" in Nunn's budget.

"We haven't found a dollar under the rug or a dollar anywhere else," he said candidly. Nunn administration officials said they would not immediately comment on the proposal, wishing to have time to study it.

Curdin said the proposal would be substituted in his committee today for the administration bill. He expected House passage by Friday, where Democrats hold a 72-28 margin, and Senate action to begin early next week.

In the Senate, however, the Democrats only hold a 23-14 margin and a floor fight is expected.

Downing said he didn't think the proposed salary boosts for teachers would "pacify" the Kentucky Educational Association. But he hoped teachers would study the proposal closely and said there were simply no funds for further hikes.

"This is all we can do," he added. The Democrats made no provision for aid to private colleges or universities in Kentucky or for non-public elementary and secondary schools.

temperature at eight o'clock this morning was five above.

Scott said 4 inch of snow fell in the Murray area yesterday.

The weather observer said that during January there were twenty-nine days with below freezing temperatures. The normal temperature for January is 38.4 degrees and the average for this year was 28.2.

The high temperature for January of this year was 71 degrees on January 28 and the low was five below in the early morning hours of January 7. The record high for Murray was recorded as 76 degrees on January 16, 1952, and the record low was reported as twenty below on January 18, 1930.

During the month of January a total of 4.13 inches of snow was reported and the precipitation was .77 inch which is the lowest on record, according to Scott. It broke the previous low record for precipitation when .86 inch was recorded in January 1943.

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI) - The strong, hot, dry winds that blow out of California canyons are called Santa Ana winds after the canyon in which they were first discovered by Spanish explorers. The winds suck moisture from vegetation and can cause raging fires in the tinder dry brush.

Bad for the birds

HONOLULU (UPI) - Zoologists say more birds have become extinct in Hawaii in the past century than in any other area of the world in the last 2,000 years. In 1966 the federal government listed 50 birds as rare and endangered species. Of them, 22 were Hawaiian birds.

lice report. The Hornbuckle car also hit ice and slipped into the Grogan car that was sitting parked on the road, the police report said.

Damage to the McGary car was on the rear end, to the Grogan car on the front end, and no damage was reported to the Hornbuckle car.

Cars involved in the collision at 4:45 p.m. on Glendale Road were a 1964 Volkswagen two door driven by Marsha Kay Hosford of 1611 Belmonte Drive, and a 1963 Chevrolet owned by Ula Mae Garland and driven by Judy Garland of 519 South 13th Street.

Police said the Hosford car, going east on Glendale Road, attempted to make a left turn onto the first road east of Stations Used Cars, and lost control of her car because of the ice on the road. The Garland car, directly behind the Hosford car, could not stop and hit the Hosford car in the rear end, according to the police report.

Damage to the Hosford car was on the rear end and to the Garland car on the front bumper.

The intersection of Mulberry and South 12th Streets was the scene of the collision at 4:12 p.m.

Involved were a 1964 Rambler two door sedan owned by Myles Todd and driven by Linda Pittman Todd of 1407 Cardinal Drive, and a 1969 Ford four door driven by Roy L. Lassiter of 408 South 8th Street.

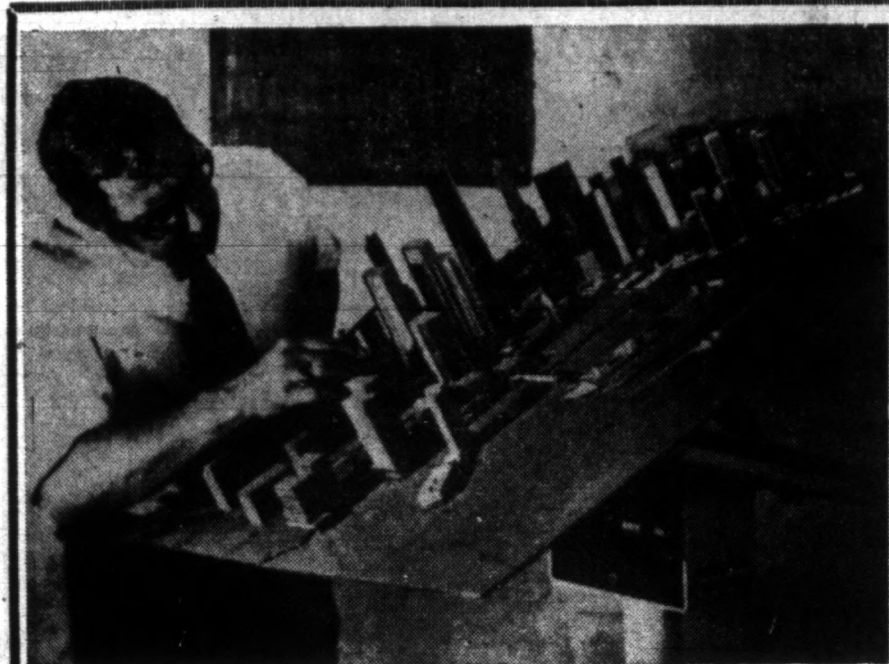

Police said Mrs. Todd, going west on Mulberry, was making a left turn onto South 12th Street and pulled out in front of the Lassiter car going north on South 12th Street.

Damage to the Todd car was on the left side and front and to the Lassiter car on the front.

Unwanted decoration

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Peter the Great tried to encourage sobriety among 18th century Russians by insisting that men jailed for drunkenness had to wear a "medal for hard drinking" around their necks all the time they were imprisoned, says the National Geographic. The medal weighed 18 pounds.

The mosquito's life span ranges from several weeks to a year.

When the deep purple falls over sleepy building walls, architects can know where with the aid of the Heliolux. It is demonstrated here with a small model of downtown San Francisco.

City Sun Lovers Get New Shadow Predictor

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) - The girls watching the boys watching the girls during the lunch hour break outside today's towering office buildings sometimes see a patch of blue sky but never feel the warmth of a sunbeam.

That's because the men who designed the buildings rarely worry about the shadow pattern they cast on sidewalks, patios and pocket parks.

Now a San Francisco man has developed a relatively simple device that plots the year-round shadow pattern of proposed buildings.

THE MACHINE, called the Heliolux, was developed by E. Clifford Potter, a former naval architect. A selector tips the platform to receive the exact angle of the sun's rays and matches the tilt of the earth's axis relative to the sun for the appropriate time.

In a recent demonstration, Potter attached a miniature cityscape of downtown San Francisco to the 40 by 40-inch platform and adjusted the setting for a December day between noon and 2 p.m., when lunch time crowds are looking for some sunshine to bathe in.

SOME OF THE projected buildings for the city were absolved from undue interference with natural light and warmth. But not all. The device also indicated that the shadow patterns of the proposed Embarcadero Center could give city planners cause to reconsider its layout.

Potter's device isn't the first of its type, but he claims it's the first portable and inexpensive model. It weighs 55 pounds and costs $1000.

'Big Ox' rides the river

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) - Football fame is fleeting, but a gridded name is bound to last longer if he happens to have a ship named after him.

Few football bans may remember Harry E. Zinn, who was known as "Big Ox" when he was a tight end clearing the way for running backs at Arkansas A & M and the Los Angeles Rams.

Biggest bell is silent

NEW YORK (UPI) - The largest known bell in the world is in the Kremlin in Russia. It was cast in 1733, weighs 193 tons and has never been rung because a fire destroyed its supports, and it was partially broken in the fall, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Seek Student And Faculty Vote Act

FRANKFORT (UPI) - A state Senate committee was told that granting voting rights to student and faculty representatives on governing boards of state institutions would satisfy a hunger of many students who want to play a more meaningful role in the affairs of their schools.

Tim Futrell, student government president of the University of Kentucky, urged the Senate Education Committee to give a favorable recommendation of Senate Bill 75.

IT WOULD grant such voting rights to the student and faculty representatives on the governing boards of seven state-supported colleges and universities.

"It would help satisfy a hunger of many students to play a more meaningful role," Futrell said. He added the current non-voting status makes the representatives feel like they are "half-on, half-off" the boards.

and one faculty representative on the boards of regents of the regional universities and Kentucky State College. Two faculty and one student representative (Futrell) serve on the University of Kentucky board of trustees.

The new Northern Kentucky State College would also have one student and one faculty member on its board of regents.

The committee decided Thursday to delay action on reporting the bill out pending statistics Futrell is to furnish concerning the history of campus elections and voting trends among independent and fraternity-sorority groups at the state institutions.
