

TRAILS Authors Agreement

The American Sociological Association (“ASA”) is pleased to have the privilege of publishing your contribution (the “Work”) in its digital library, TRAILS: Teaching Resources and Innovations Library for Sociology (“TRAILS” or “Digital Library”). This License Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions regarding the inclusion of your Work in TRAILS.

You retain all copyright rights in and to the Work but you waive any moral rights you may have, if any. You hereby grant the ASA the right to reproduce and publicly display your Work, in whole or in part, as part of ASA’s Digital Library. You also grant the ASA the right to use your name and biographical information in connection with your Work as part of the Digital Library. In addition, you grant the ASA the right to allow users of the Digital Library to reproduce distribute and publicly display your Work, in whole or in part, and to modify your Work and to reproduce, distribute and publicly display modified versions of your Work for their own purposes. Users of the Digital Library who download your Work are required by their User Agreement to provide proper attribution when using the Work or a modification of the Work, and they are required to post any modifications they have made to your Work to the Digital Library.

You hereby waive any claims that you may have against the ASA relating to the use of your Work, your name and/or your biographical information by the ASA and others. You hereby waive any claims that you may have against the users of the Digital Library relating to the use of your Work when used in accordance with the terms of their User Agreement.

You represent and warrant that the Work is original to you, or, if portions are not original to you, that you have the necessary permissions to authorize you to grant these licenses to the ASA. You also represent and warrant that the Work shall not violate any law or infringe the rights of any third party, including, without limitation, that the Work shall not constitute copyright or trademark infringement, violate the rights of privacy or publicity, or defame any person or entity. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the ASA, its officers, directors, employees and agents, as well as any users of the Digital Library that use your Work, for all damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) that may arise relating to a claim that you breached any of the foregoing representations and warranties.

All persons who publish in TRAILS are required to abide by ASA guidelines and ethics codes regarding plagiarism and other ethical issues.
