Forty-fourth Annual Production
Welcome

We, the cast, crew and staff of Campus Lights, 1981, do hereby dedicate this production to the fifty-two Americans who were forced to remain captive in Iran for 444 days. On this 44th anniversary of Campus Lights we say “welcome home!”

We also would like to salute the memory of John Lennon: philanthropist, song-writer and musician. His words and music inspire us still.

Greg Bingman, Chairman
Board of Directors
Campus Lights, 1981

Brothers and Friends,

On behalf of the brothers of the GammaDelta Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, welcome to “Campus Lights” ’81. It is also my privilege to publicly acknowledge the open arms with which my brothers and I welcome the sisters of Iota Beta back into “Campus Lights” as full partners.

I also thank those largely unsung heroes of “Campus Lights” ’81—the writing staff. These four, who are primarily non-fraternity members, worked long hours over the summer and into the fall to revise and finish the script you will see produced; also, special thanks to Larry Pyla for his important contribution.

Finally, it is my sincere wish that this year’s Lights be a true highlight for each of you. Again, welcome to “Campus Lights” ’81.

Relax and enjoy!

Until He Returns,
Oscar D. Turnbow
President, Gamma Delta

The sisters of Iota Beta chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota wish to welcome you to an all new Campus Lights, 1981. We are all very excited about being a part of an innovative and pace-setting year. Since this year’s show is new in format and construction, we all experienced new challenges and ideas as we grew closer to opening night. We are confident that these innovations will continue to grow.

We are very proud to have you in the audience tonight so that we may share both traditions and new ideas with you. Your continued support is what makes this production possible.

So now, all we ask is that you enjoy the show. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Lisa Cates
President, Iota Beta Chapter

Forty-four years of Campus Lights
Forty-four years of Corn-Austin

It is with considerable pride that we have been an advertising sponsor for Campus Lights from its beginning. From the first night, through the war years, and to the present time, we have occupied this page. We are proud of the fact that we have had this association through the years with those who have labored to make this event possible.

To those of former years who have contributed to the success of this production and to those who carry on so faithfully today . . .

Campus Lights

The campus lights come gleaming one by one
From out the dim recesses of our minds,
And each one lights a scene of yesterday,
A scene that really was, or might have been.
And in each scene we see ourselves go by.
We catch a glimpse of laughs, of sighs, of tears.
And e'er this fleeting dream is gone, we fill
Our minds with memories that never die . . .

Our vision fades. The campus lights grow dim.
Our hands reach out to grasp and hold each scene
That passes, never to return except
In fleeting dreams of cherished yesterdays.
Our days of laughs and sighs and tears are gone.
Guarded with jealous care through passing years
We keep a golden shrine of memory
Safe locked within a treasure-house of dreams.
