BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

Music by: Alan Menken
Lyrics by: Howard Ashman & Tim Rice
Book by: Linda Woolverton

Letter from the Director:

When I think of Disney’s Beauty and the Beast, I think beautiful music, astounding images, and the beloved iconic characters. However, the most powerful part of this show is its message. Although the story is a fairy tale, it makes the audience realize the dangers of stereotyping and fear. The mob sings “we don’t like what we don’t understand. In fact, it scares us and this monster is mysterious at least.” If we are to let ourselves stereotype others, we close doors to those that could help us. We lose friends because we cannot accept who they are. But if there is just one person who can see past the stereotypes, who can take the chance for someone, there is a chance that we can learn to find the good in all people.

This is not to take away from the incredibly fun music and dancing in the show. The entire cast has done an exquisite job with their characters. When you watch “Be Our Guest” and “Gaston” you will want to sing and dance with the entire cast.

I hope you enjoy the show, and as Lumiere would say, we invite you to relax, pull up a chair, as Campus Lights proudly presents…. Beauty and the Beast.

Sincerely,

Ashlan Stephenson, Director

To the Supporters of Campus Lights:

Welcome and thank you for attending the 74th annual Campus Lights Production of Beauty and the Beast. This production is a labor of love for both our sisters and the brothers of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. I know this year will show that dedication, as each year does. This being my third year in Sigma Alpha Iota and fourth year as a music major, I have been greatly involved with the production of this show and appreciate the hard work of the entire Board of Producers, staff, cast, and musicians.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the great support we receive from the campus of Murray State and the Murray State Music Department. If it wasn’t for these people, we would never be able to offer the opportunity for the scholarship that this show provides. This show is one story that was meant for the Campus Lights stage. It is a timeless tale of seeing someone for whom they truly are and accepting them as such. Campus Lights is also a timeless tradition providing a chance for people of all talents to participate. Thank you so much for your support for this year’s show and I hope you choose to come back year after year!

Love and Roses,

To the Supporters of Campus Lights:

It has been a distinct privilege to write this letter as the chairman of the 74th Campus Lights at Murray State University as well as the current President of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia's Gamma Delta chapter. The privilege of being responsible for two big parts of Murray State tradition has been a challenge, but a great satisfaction.

To the audience, I sincerely thank you for your patronage tonight and in future years. Portions of the proceeds gathered from these performances benefit the scholarships awarded to Murray State Music Majors. On behalf of the students, faculty, and staff we sincerely appreciate your dedication and hope you enjoy tonight and future performances of Campus Lights.

To the cast, instrumentalists, crew and staff of this production, I cannot thank you enough for your sacrifice and time to help make all of this possible this year. Your hard work has gone unnoticed and I wish you the best of luck in the performances this week. I have great faith in your abilities!

To the brothers of Gamma Delta, I want you to know that I am very proud to serve you as your president. It is a daily challenge leading our organization, but it has been an experience I will never forget or regret. I can't think of a better group of brothers that I could count on. You have always been there for me and I just don't know how I could ever repay you. In years forward, I hope you carry out the ideals set in our Fraternity Object and will always see the best in Sinfonia! OAS AAS ULS!

To everyone reading this letter, I thank you for attending Campus Lights. I know the cast and crew sincerely appreciate performing for you. Enjoy the show!

Thank You.

The Campus Lights

The campus lights come gleaming one by one
From out the dim recesses of our minds,
And each one lights a scene of yesterday,
A scene that really was, or might have been.
And in each scene we see ourselves go by.
We catch a glimpse of laughs, of sighs, of tears.
And e're this fleeting dream is gone, we fill
Our minds with memories that never die...

Our vision fades. The campus lights dim.
Our hands reach out to grasp and hold each scene,
That passes, never to return except
In fleeting dreams of cherished yesterdays.
Our days of laughs and sighs and years are gone.
Guarded with jealous care through passing years
We keep a golden shrine of memory
Safe locked within a treasure-house of dreams.
