The show that you are about to watch carries a very powerful punch, and there are obvious reasons for that. The characters within this show were actual people, with their own problems, gifts, and purposes for being on this ship. Some looked at this voyage as a mere vacation, while others looked at this as a chance to start a new life. In any case, this senseless tragedy changed the lives of all on board and left an imprint in the pages of history that will always be talked about and never looked over. To me, the main reason that this ship's fate is so popular doesn't lie solely in the tragic fate that it met, but in the colorful people that boarded from all walks of life. My goal was to use my background in acting to bring these characters to full form by making them seem like actual men and women, and not a wax museum exhibit dedicated to the Titanic.

The cast has shared this labor of love with me and have done all that has been asked of them with smiling faces and professional attitudes. What you see on stage is a product of the dedication and diligence that the cast members devoted to the quality of this show. It has been a pleasure serving Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia as director for their highly respected tradition of Campus Lights, especially with this being the highly anticipated 75th anniversary. I would like to graciously thank these two organizations for giving an outsider a chance at doing it justice, and I will always be eternally grateful for your cooperation and support during this whole process.

Please, enjoy watching the maiden voyage of the world's finest luxury cruise liner as it sets sail for America. I present to you, the cast and crew of Titanic.

Sincerely,

Jody Fleming, Director

Friends and Family,

On behalf of the Board of Producers, the Production Staff, and the brothers and sisters of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Sigma Alpha Iota, I would like to proudly welcome you to the 75th annual production of Campus Lights! This year’s production will feature Titanic: The Musical. Get ready to experience the maiden voyage of one of the greatest ships to sail the sea!

Throughout the show, you will become acquainted with many interesting and complex characters, you will hear intricately scored choral and instrumental music, and you will see thrilling Ragtime choreography. Titanic is an unusual musical in that not only is the story a huge piece of world history, but each character portrayed in the show was an actual passenger on the ship. This is something that most members of our cast have never experienced, and it gave them a much stronger sense of ownership and pride in their characters. The actors felt a duty to these people, whether they perished or survived, to give meaning to their experience and bring it to life for all to see. Throughout the musical, the stories of this glorious ship, its courageous crew, and its hopeful passengers will draw you into them in a way you previously thought impossible. I feel extremely honored to present this show to you!

The active members of the Iota Beta and Gamma Delta chapters, along with the cast, orchestra, and crew have all logged many hours to make this production possible, and I would like to thank all of them for their hard work and dedication to this production. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your patronage. Without the support of the university, the community, and our alumni, Campus Lights and the scholarships that we provide would not be possible. It has been such a wonderful experience to see everything come full circle. I was an incoming music student just a few short years ago, and I received departmental scholarships. Now, I am able to be a part of a wonderful organization that involves students providing scholarships for other students, and I feel so blessed to be doing so!

To everyone involved and everyone in the audience: Again, thank you so much for your participation and support of the 75th annual Campus Lights. Enjoy the show!

Yours Truly,

Hannah Rodgers, Chairman
2012 Campus Lights Board of Producers

To the Supporters of Campus Lights:

Welcome and thank you for attending the 75th annual Campus Lights Production of Titanic: The Musical. This production continues a much loved tradition here on campus that started as a group of gentlemen raising money by writing their own scripts to perform, to the wonderful big named productions that you see today. This production has been a long process in planning for such an event as the 75th year of Campus Lights. The entire Board of Producers, staff, cast, and musicians have such a strong passion and dedication, and have worked extremely hard to produce what you will see tonight. I know this year will show that dedication, as each year does.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the great support we receive from the campus of Murray State and the Murray State Music Department. If it were not for these people, we would never be able to offer the opportunity for the scholarship that this show provides. This show unfolds a well-known historical event that is a great addition to the Campus Lights collection. We hope you sink into the story by connecting with our passengers and having a magnificent time on the R.M.S Titanic! Campus Lights is a timeless tradition, providing a chance for people of all talents to participate. Thank you so much for your support for this year’s show and I hope you choose to come back year after year!

Enjoy!

Love and Roses,

Joelyn Dora

The Campus Lights

The campus lights come gleaming one by one
From out the dim recesses of our minds
And each one lights a scene of yesterday,
A scene that really was, or might have been.
And in each scene we see ourselves go by.
We catch a glimpse of laughs, of sighs, of tears.
And we're this fleeting dream is gone, we fill
Our minds with memories that never die...

Our vision fades. The campus lights dim.
Our hands reach out to grasp and hold each scene,
That passes, never to return except
In fleeting dreams of cherished yesterdays.
Our days of laughs and sighs and years are gone.
Guarded with jealous care through passing years
We keep a golden shrine of memory
Safe locked within a treasure-house of dreams.
