NN. Dr. Annie Ray Granted Additional Salary for Teaching Graduate Work

V. Navy V-12 Program

The Board and the President thought it unwise, at the outset, to turn over the total dormitory space of the college to the Navy; but there is a possibility that, if we find we need it, of getting a V-12 program about the middle of the fall.

Since the last meeting of the Board, it was advisable for Dean Nash to be in Washington. While there, he visited the Training Division of the Bureau of Naval Personnel. He was asked if the college would longer be interested in a unit of the naval college training program, provided readjustment be made of quotas assigned currently to certain colleges, or if the demands of the program necessitated the inclusion of an additional college. If the college should be interested, he was told that a statement should be filed to that effect. I have since filed such a statement, offering such instructional and housing facilities as can be used for that purpose.
VI. WTS Program

About the middle of June, the CAA made a resurvey of our airport facilities. We have not learned by what authority, or for what purpose, this survey was made; but we do know that we were recommended for a WTS program. Senator Barkley, Senator Chandler and Representative Gregory have made a vigorous effort to obtain this program, but have met with the same evasiveness and misrepresentations as might have been expected. Senator Barkley remained in Washington a few days after Congress adjourned to work for this program. It is impossible to procure an honest, or frank, statement from the CAA. I have on file the complete record of our negotiations with that organization. Every effort has been made to secure this program; but I, now, feel that there is no hope of securing it. The airport was closed on July 18, after the college had contributed to its maintenance for a month without deriving any income from it.

VII. Swann Dormitory

Congress has killed the NYA. In my judgment, it was a great blunder to do this; but, nevertheless, it was done. This leaves the Swann Dormitory and the adjacent shop unoccupied. Since there is a bond issue on this building, it is imperative that all diligence be exercised in renting this property as advantageously as possible in order to take care of the bond and interest accounts. If we secure a WTS program, the boys taking such training will be housed in this building. If we should secure a V-12 program later in the year, the building will be used to house these trainees; and it is possible that our present naval unit may use this property. Commander Wiley has already made inquiries about the possibility of using it. I am confident that we can work out a plan which will protect our investment here. At present the account has $4,328.57 in it and $4,320.00 must be paid out in bond retirements and interest by the end of the year. The government must continue to pay its monthly rental, amounting to $500.00 a month, until thirty days after we are notified that the National Youth Administration is canceling its contract. At the time these notes are dictated, it appears that we will get at least two months' rent from the National Youth Administration (July and August).

VIII. Fine Arts Building

The WPA discontinued the work on the Fine Arts Building on April 28, 1943. As has already been reported to this Board, application has been filed for funds provided under the Lanham Act for the completion of this building (approximately $30,000.00). This application has been filed in the Louisville Office, checked and approved and forwarded to the Chicago Office of the Federal Work Agency. The Chicago Office has acknowledged receipt of the application, given it Project No. Ky. 15-159 and advised that they are checking this application and will report to us as soon as possible concerning decisions and recommendations with reference to it. This application has been pushed forward as rapidly as possible; and we are hopeful of its ultimate approval. Before work can be started under the provisions of this Act, our application must be forwarded by the Chicago Office to the Washington Office of the Federal Work Agency and approved by the authorities there.
IX. Workshops

The State Department of Education encouraged institutions engaged in teacher education to conduct workshops in neighboring areas, this summer, in order to promote the training of teachers who would need emergency certificates in order to relieve the shortage of teachers during the coming year. This institution sponsored three workshops: at Cadiz, under the direction of Miss Annie Ray; at Princeton, under the direction of Miss Ethelyn Johnston; and at Eddyville, under the direction of Miss Ola Brook. The enrollment ranged from twelve to eighteen. In each case a minimum of fifteen enrollees was guaranteed by each County School System. The teachers pay the regular fee of $20.00 and receive eight hours of credit for the course.

At Princeton, where only twelve enrolled, the additional income was provided by the Board of Education. Good work was done at each of these centers; and I believe this institution made an appreciable contribution to the improvement of teaching in this area by conducting these workshops. Miss Rubie Smith conducted a workshop in Marshall County for the week of July 19 - 24. All the teachers in the County System were required to attend. Two hours of credit was received by each teacher successfully completing the courses, who chooses to pay the usual fee of $5.00 for that amount of credit.

XI. Rental of the Home Management House to Commander Charles L. Wiley

Commander Charles L. Wiley has entered into an agreement with the college for the rental of our Home Management House for his personal use during the months of July and August, 1943, at a rental charge of $75.00 per month, with the understanding that the college will assume the payment of expenses for heat, light, water and telephone charge, with the exception of long distance telephone charges, which will be paid by Commander Wiley. It was further agreed that Misses Wingo and Berry would be privileged to occupy as long as they desired the rooms and bath occupied by them at the time this arrangement was made and, also, that Commander Wiley would make good any damage done to the house or furnishings beyond the ordinary wear connected with occupancy.

XII. Cannery Operated through Cooperation of Vocational Education Division of State Department of Education

At the suggestion of the Division of Vocational Education of the State Department of Education, we have cooperated in the establishment of a cannery for the benefit of the citizens of Murray and Calloway County in the preparation and preservation of all fruits and vegetables possible for winter use. The Business Manager will furnish more specific information about this project.
XIII. Evaluation of Work Done by Cadets in U. S. Naval Flight Preparatory School

I have appointed a committee to evaluate the work done by the Naval Cadets to the end that some of the work might be recognized by our college and filed in our Registrar's Office. Seven battalions (1111 cadets) have been enrolled, and have filled out special cards.

XIV. U. S. Naval Flight Preparatory School Report by Mr. M. O. Wrather

XV. Report of the Business Manager

XVI. Athletics

A few weeks ago I took the liberty of announcing that we would have no college football this fall. Two reasons prompted this announcement: One was that we would have no boys to play, and the other was that we would have no means of travel, if games with other teams could be secured. I noted in the press, recently, that over two hundred American colleges have dropped football for the duration. We will try to have a basketball team, but that is extremely doubtful.

XVII. Enrollment

The enrollment for the first half of the current summer quarter was 280, and for the second half, 168. A total of 320 different students have enrolled at our college for work during this present summer session, which, under the circumstances, is very satisfactory.

Respectfully submitted,

James H. Richmond
President

Airport Leases Authorized Cancelled

Dr. Richmond recommended that, since the WPS program at our college has been discontinued by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the Board of Regents authorize the cancellation of all leases for property for airport use as soon as possible.

Motion was made by Mr. Hart that the President and Business Manager be authorized and directed to cancel immediately the leases for property used by Murray State Teachers College in connection with the operation of the War Training Service program at the Murray Airport. This motion was seconded by Dr. Crume; and the roll was called on its adoption with the following result: Dr. Crume, aye; Judge Ferguson, aye; Mr. Winslow, aye; Mr. Hart, aye; Mr. Brooker, aye.

Contract for Rental of M. G. Thomas House Authorized Renewed

Dr. Richmond stated that since the Fine Arts Building cannot be completed for sometime, it is necessary that we continue to use the M. G. Thomas house as a Practice House for the Music Department; and he recommended that the Board authorize the renewal of the contract for the rental of that house at $100.00 per month as long as it is used as a Music Practice House, as it is now used.

Motion was made by Mr. Hart that the renewal of the contract for the rental of Mrs. M. G. Thomas' house, at $100.00 per month; as long as it is needed as a Music Practice House, as it is now used, be authorized. This motion was seconded by Dr. Crume; and the roll was called on its adoption with the following result: Dr. Crume, aye; Judge Ferguson, aye; Mr. Winslow, aye; Mr. Hart, aye; Mr. Brooker, aye.

Letter from Miss Krystal Smith Re: Classical Dancing

Dr. Richmond reported to the Board that Miss Krystal Smith, of Paducah, had come to see him and discussed the possibility of arranging to schedule regular classes in classical dancing at Murray State Teachers College; and he stated that, in response to his request, Miss Smith had submitted her plan for such work, in writing. He added that, as far as he knew, this particular phase of teaching had not been seriously considered before, at this college; and he recommended that the President be authorized to act upon the proposition submitted by Miss Smith for the opening of dancing classes at the beginning of the fall quarter, if in his judgment the enrollment and the need of the college justify it.

Motion was made by Mr. Winslow that the President be authorized to take such action as he deems necessary and desirable in connection with Miss Krystal Smith's plans to offer classes in dancing at Murray State Teachers College. This motion was seconded by Mr. Hart, and was carried unanimously.

President's Annual Report

Next, Dr. Richmond submitted and read his Annual Report as President, as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

July 26, 1943

Honorable Board of Regents
Murray State Teachers College
Murray, Kentucky

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit my eighth Annual Report:
Enrollment

The enrollment for the fiscal year which closed June 30, 1943 is the smallest since I have been President of the college; and yet, under the circumstances, I consider it an excellent enrollment. It is not necessary to explain to this Board why there has been such a decrease in college attendance. All of us know the reasons. The following table gives the breakdown in the year's enrollment:

Despite the great drop in enrollment, the school has continued to function in normal fashion. Not a single faculty or staff member has been dropped; nor a single basic course has been denied any student; courses necessary for certificates and degrees have been offered, every quarter; the only difference is the classes are smaller. I said that no faculty members, or staff members, had been dropped. This is true; but when one requests a leave of absence to enter some branch of governmental service, that leave has been granted and, whenever possible, the work of that particular person has been absorbed. In a few instances, we have had to employ substitutes; but in the majority of cases, it has not been necessary to do this. By pursuing this policy several thousands of dollars have been saved. At present we have eleven of our organization who are on leaves of absence for governmental service.

Scholarship

Despite the war, which has upset all of us, spiritually and mentally, more particularly in the case of our boys, who did not know from one day to another when they would be called into military service, the scholarship average of our students was approximately what it was last year.

Extra-Curricular Activities

In the main, we have been able to maintain our regular activities. We have a well balanced extra-curricular program, which program contributes much to the attractiveness of our college life. During the coming year it will be our purpose to maintain this excellent set-up even though it may necessarily be on a reduced basis.

It is gratifying to note that our Training School has kept pace with the college proper in this extra-curricular program. As I reported to you a year ago, I can see definite improvement in the morale of the Training School as the result of this; and we are giving all possible encouragement to the school in maintaining and developing their extra-curricular activities.

Library Services

Our library arrangements with the Tennessee Valley Authority continue to be most satisfactory. The Authority is equally as well satisfied. Under the leadership of Miss Berry, our field library service is being extended and strengthened. I am most enthusiastic about this service; and it is my hope and belief that we are laying the groundwork for a splendid, cultural contribution to the people of western Kentucky. I recommend to our Board that we continue to cooperate with the Tennessee Valley Authority. This great enterprise will bring untold blessings to our people.
Graduate Work

Our graduate work continues to develop, even though the enrollment in these classes has dropped off as the result of the war. In the fiscal year just closed, twenty-nine students took graduate work and six received Master's degrees. I predict that when we return to peacetime conditions, our graduate school will become one of the strongest departments in our college. As I reported to you in a recent Board meeting, the American Association of Teachers Colleges has approved our institution for graduate work. Only twenty-nine Teachers Colleges in the United States are thus approved, which indicates the rating of our college.

Alumni Association

Despite the impact of the war, the Alumni Association continues to function in fine fashion. We have nearly two thousand graduates of Murray State; and out of that number about 25% are active members of the Association. Had it not been for the fact that so many of our alumni are actively engaged in war service at the present time, I am sure that many more would, now, be enrolled as active members. A year ago I reported to you that the Alumni Association had provided two annual scholarships. They are continuing to do this; and thus far their selections have been wisely made.

Mexican Scholarships

A year ago, this institution, upon the solicitation of a recognized educational agency in the City of Mexico, approved a year's scholarship for some worthy Mexican, named by that organization. Last year, Miss Irene de la Llata was selected. She was a charming young lady, a brilliant student and a fine ambassador of good will to the United States. I had the honor of conferring the Bachelor's degree on her at our recent Commencement. This year, due to a misinterpretation, or a misunderstanding, in correspondence with the Mexican authorities, there was a mix-up; and in order that everybody might be made happy in this particular situation, I took the liberty of conferring two scholarships. The following people have been offered scholarships: Miss Margarita Estrada, Medellin 251, Mexico, D. F., and Miss Emma Sanchez Ramírez, Ita. Cerrada Calz. Mexico-Tacuba 16-4. If these two girls do half as well as Miss de la Llata did, it will be an excellent investment for the college and the community.

College Farm

Our college farm, under the splendid direction of Mr. A. Carman, is in fine condition, and continues to show a profit. In the year just closed the profit was approximately $3,800.00. I can not speak too highly of Mr. Carman's work. I don't know when he eats or sleeps. Early and late, when not teaching his classes, he is directing the work on the farm; and, now, in addition to his regular farm duties, he is directing our cannery. Not only is he improving our farm and widening our agricultural service but he is developing a wholesome spirit of cooperation between the college and the farmers of our area. As you well know, this was one of the reasons why we wanted a college farm. Our farmers come to Mr. Carman and his aides for counsel; and as the result of these associations, I believe we can see improved farm conditions in many sections of western Kentucky.

U. S. Naval Flight Preparatory School

Early in January of this year, we welcomed to our campus the Naval Flight Preparatory School. This splendid group of six hundred cadets, officered by approximately thirty officers and enlisted seamen, has fully justified our efforts in securing it. We have gotten along with this unit with a minimum of friction, much less than I anticipated. Frankly, after we fully understood the Navy's policies and they became familiar with ours, there has been practically no friction. You may be interested to know that this particular unit is considered one of the best in the United States. I was told this by a high naval officer, in Washington, when I recently visited that city. You may recall I was so anxious to get this unit. Sharp reductions in our college enrollment, thereby causing us to lose thousands of dollars in fees, made it imperatively necessary that we get one of these war units to make up a part of this financial loss. This naval unit, from figures now available, will make it possible for us to have approximately $65,000.00 more in our college treasury, by the end of 1943, than we otherwise would have had. Let it be understood that we haven't made $65,000.00 profit out of the Navy; but it has made possible for us $65,000.00 in money, money that otherwise would not have been available.

Curricular Studies

Much has been said about revamping our college curriculum for our post war world. A lot of this is loose talk; but some of it has merit. A progressive college is revamping its curriculum from time to time whether it is peace or war. Undoubtedly, we will learn some lessons from this war which will be reflected in our college offerings in the years to come; but the fundamental truths which education tries to interpret, reveal and exalt are unchanging and unchangeable. We shall never depart from these truths; but we can associate them with new problems. This will be particularly true in the fields of pure science and social science. As a matter of fact, all the recognized departments of our college are, now, feeling and will continue to feel the impact of this global war. Home economics, mathematics, physical education and fine arts - all of them - must react to it. Realizing this fact, we are, now, breaking our faculty up into committees to study our curricular problems and be prepared to make recommendations about revamping certain of our courses of study in the light of the great world changes that are taking place, today. For example, I can see tremendous possibilities in the field of geography; and in the broad field of social science there are unlimited opportunities for a broader and finer piece of work. The limits of this report prevent me from going into details in this highly important matter; but it is enough to say that our college will endeavor to meet the legitimate demands of youth, many demands crystalized by war experiences.

Finances

I have not incorporated a financial report in this, my Annual Report to the Board. I have left that for our Business Manager to do; but I am happy to inform you that we have started this new fiscal year with approximately $45,000.00 in our Revolving Fund. Our financial condition is excellent; but we must exercise all diligence in conserving every possible dollar. The months ahead are too uncertain to pursue any other policy. I have recommended a few increases in salaries; but we have saved in absorbing the salaries of teachers on leaves of absence five dollars for every dollar's increase. Let me take this opportunity to commend Messrs. Broach and Wrather for their splendid handling of the finances of this institution. In my daily conferences with these gentlemen, and in our almost constant discussion of financial problems, I find their judgments sound. With their cooperation, difficult as this year has been, I have been comfortable in my mind regarding the unusual and perplexing financial problems that have been brought to my desk. While speaking of finances, may I make this statement:
It is imperatively necessary that the Finance Department, at Frankfort, give this and similar institutions and agencies more latitude in handling their own money. Most of the problems and irritations of this, and past fiscal years, are directly traceable to Frankfort. I do not want to be misunderstood, however; we have been treated most fairly and courteously by the Department of Finance; it is not a question of personalities in Frankfort; but it is the question of a system which does not work out as well in practice as in theory. We lose valuable time in making necessary purchases because of Frankfort "red tape"; and we, also, lose money. I would be perfectly willing to recommend to this Board a surrender of at least $7,500.00, annually, in our State Appropriation, if by that surrender we could be given liberty in administering our own financial affairs. The weakness of this system was brought to us most pointedly in the money we were required to spend to get ready for our naval unit. Despite the fact that every dollar of commissioning charge for the naval unit was paid by the Navy, we were compelled to go through the usual "red-tape" experiences so characteristic of bureaucracy, thereby losing both time and money. It is not the function of this Board to make changes in our State fiscal policy; but it is the privilege of every good citizen to study this problem and endeavor to get a greater degree of freedom from our state government in the matter of finances. I do not doubt that if we enjoyed complete freedom in handling our own institutional money, particularly the moneys in our Revolving Fund, we would be $10,000.00 better off, today. As a distinguished military man, in Washington, recently facetiously remarked, it appears that the government will spare no expense to effect an economy.

The First Twenty Years

On August 21, this college will close its twentieth year of service. It has been a glorious twenty years. Starting from "scratch", this institution has steadily grown in influence and size until, today, it has a Two and One-Half Million Dollar plant, a splendid faculty and staff of over a hundred members; has graduated approximately two thousand (1,882) young men and women; has furnished hundreds of teachers for the schools of our area; has enrolled 9,702 different students, 20% of whom have graduated; has won and kept the respect of our clientele and sister institutions of the country; has unimpaired rating in every accrediting association to which it should belong; and, now, faces the future, bewildering as it is, with confidence. Murray State has grown up, and is generally accepted in the sisterhood of colleges as an institution meriting and receiving respect and approval.

Our College and the War

There have been many idle rumors that Murray State would be taken over by the Navy, or that Murray State would close for the duration. Neither statement is true. It is our common determination, I am sure, to keep our college doors open and to render, in so far as it is possible to do so, a normal college service and to be prepared for an upsurge in college enrollments when peace comes. Until the war is over, our regular college enrollments will be small; but that is no justification for closing this college. By the same token, our public schools and churches should be closed. War is an ugly institution; it destroys many of the beautiful things of life; but it must never be permitted to destroy our educational organizations. England has not permitted that to be done; and America will not permit it. If we can continue to maintain one or more governmental activities on our campus, we can weather the storm and be prepared for the great challenge that lies ahead. To close this college, now, or any time in the future, during the war, would reveal a defeatist attitude, cowardly and ignoble. With your cooperation and counsel, we will see this thing through; and we will begin to plan, now, for a greater and better Murray State when the world returns again to peace and sanity.
I can not say to you that this is the greatest year that Murray State has ever enjoyed; but I can say it is one of the most interesting and complicated since my association with the institution. It has been a year of challenge, a year of bewilderment and, in many phases of the work, a year of great satisfaction. The sympathetic cooperation of students, faculty and staff has been most comforting; and the loyal support of this Board has made it possible for your President to face his work with a high degree of courage and serenity.

Respectfully submitted,

JHR:TB

James H. Richmond
President

Adjournment

Motion was made by Mr. Hart that the Board adjourn. This motion was seconded by Mr. Winslow, and was carried unanimously.
