ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT
July 21, 1947

To the Board of Regents
Murray State Teachers College

I present herewith a report on the status and progress of Murray State Teachers College for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947.

The year 1946-47 has been a difficult but yet a successful one. We have had a splendid group of students. The faculty and staff have worked diligently. One of our faculty members, Mr. Merle Kesler, a victim of polio, was taken from us in October, 1946. Another of our faculty members, Mr. E. H. Smith, Director of Extension, has retired. Mr. Smith has been with the college longer than any person here with the exception of Dr. Carr, and I am sure that his tireless and effective efforts will continue to bear fruit for many years to come.

Since the founding of the institution, 2172 people have been graduated with the bachelor's degree and 24 have been graduated with the master's degree.

In addition to the above, approximately 62 people will receive the bachelor's degree and 9 will receive the master's degree at the close of the present summer school.

EXPANSION OF INSTRUCTIONAL OFFERINGS

The courses that were dropped during the war period have been restored. One new department, Industrial Arts, has been added, and the success of the program during its first year has been gratifying. A program in ceramics was started last September, designed to meet the needs of teachers and to furnish a limited number of technicians for the ceramics industry. It is also felt that the ceramics program will stimulate the development of desirable industries in this area. The progress made this year is most encouraging. College courses in radio and electronics have been offered as well as additional courses. in chemistry, physics, and other sciences. The division of speech has been revitalized and, during the year, approximately fifty students have been organized into a student speakers bureau and are prepared to speak to luncheon groups and other organizations.

Arrangements have been made with the State Division of Vocational Education and the University of Kentucky whereby students completing their work in agriculture may take their methods and practice teaching in agriculture at the University of Kentucky and transfer credit on these courses to Murray and be graduated and fully qualified as teachers of vocational agriculture.

Two workshop courses were in operation during the first summer term. One was under the direction of Miss Rubie Smith, and assisted by Miss Lottye Suiter, Dr. Annie Ray, and Miss Mary Crenshaw, a staff member of the State Board of Health. In addition to these and other members of our own staff, there were several consultants, including: Mr. Stewart B. Hambleton, American Association of Teachers Colleges; Miss Jeannette Molloy, Bureau of School Service, University of Kentucky; Dr. Alice Chenoweth, Division of Maternal and Child Health, State Department of Health; Miss Virginia White James, Education Specialist, Mr. Collos Johnson, Agriculture Relations Division, Mr. Clifford Seeber, Reservoir Property Management, all of the Tennessee Valley Authority; Mr. James Burdette, Head, Education Section, Regional Information Office, Soil Conservation Service, Spartanburg, S. C.; Miss Annie Mary Botts, State Supervisor School Lunch Program, State Vocational Education Department; Mr. Roy McGee, Communicable Disease Center, Paducah; Mrs. Jane Callaway, Art Demonstrator, Louisville; and Miss Rosemary Forsythe, Eastern Area Office of American Red Cross.

The second workshop ran for two weeks under the direction of Miss Jeannette Molloy, staff member of the University of Kentucky, who was furnished to us by Dr. Maurice Seay, Director of the Sloan Foundation in Kentucky. She worked intensively with all the faculty from the schools of Lynn Grove, Dexter, Golden Pond, and Unity (Marshall County), on needed emphases in applied economics, food, clothing, and shelter, in the elementary and secondary schools.

The high school offerings in the Training School have been organized on a tri-semester basis, dividing the school year of thirty-six weeks into three divisions rather than the usual plan of two semesters of eighteen weeks. The class periods are eighty-five minutes in length with five minutes between periods. Science and other laboratory courses are offered throughout the year. Non-laboratory courses are offered for two of the tri-terms. During the other tri-semester, a variety of courses may be offered such as journalism, dramatics, physical geography, and others which cannot be ordinarily included in the small high schools. Students and faculty have enjoyed and benefited by this new plan of organization.

FACULTY ENLARGED AND STRENGTHENED

The strength of any college is directly proportional to the strength of its faculty. During the past year, 32 new faculty members have been employed. These have been added to the Departments of Agriculture, Art, Biological Sciences, Commerce, Education, English, History, Home Economics, Industrial Arts, Mathematics, Music, Physical Education, Physics, and the Training School. Included in this number were four department heads, namely: Dr. Edward L. Pross, Head of Department of Languages and Literature, Dr. Ed J. Carter, Head of Department of Education, Miss Ruby Simpson, who has completed all her work for the doctorate except her dissertation, Head of Department of Home Economics, and Mr. H. L. Oakley, Head of the Department of Industrial Arts. Murray is proud of the caliber of the faculty she has maintained through the years, and she is also proud of her new faculty members, many of whom bring exceptional training and experience to their new duties here. At the present time, our faculty consists of twenty members holding Ph. D. degrees, sixty-eight holding master's degrees, and eleven holding bachelor's degrees. Our faculty and staff have been trained in more than fifty of the leading colleges and universities of America and abroad. Since I came to the institution, the amount going into salaries for the teaching staff has been increased 46%, yet all employees of the institution have found that incomes have not advanced as rapidly as the cost of living.

OFF-CAMPUS SERVICE

Off-campus workshops are now in session or have been planned for the counties of Ballard, Caldwell, Carlisle, Christian, Hickman, Marshall, McCracken, and Trigg. A film library has been operated by the college in cooperation with forty-seven high schools. Each high school bought four films and the college became the depository and distributing center for these films. The college provides a person to service films, keep necessary records, and mail out films as per the distribution schedule, and for this service has the use of the films for classes on the campus. The program has been under the general direction of Mr. M. O. Wreather, Director of Public Relations, and has been most successful.

Two hundred and sixty-seven students have been enrolled in extension courses in various study centers and more than three hundred have been enrolled in correspondence courses.

The Tennessee Valley Authority has withdrawn all support from the Regional Library. Three counties which have been participating in this program were contacted and asked to pay, at least, one-half of the money necessary to operate the Regional Library. Marshall and Calloway counties decided that they would not have funds to continue this program. Graves County has the money and will provide the funds to continue her part of the program. The total program has not been abandoned, but no plans have been made to operate in Calloway and Marshall, however, the college has agreed to provide the bookmobile one week each month so that Graves County can go forward with its program. The officials of Marshall and Calloway counties have been apprised of the fact that Graves County desires to continue the program, and Marshall and Calloway counties have agreed that the entire collection of books of the Regional Library be made available to Graves County for use during the year, with the understanding that books purchased this year and paid for out of funds provided by Graves County be added to the total Regional Library book collection.

BUILDING PROGRAM

Housing for Veterans. Within the year, 64 apartments for married veteran students and their families were completed with the assistance of the Federal Public Housing Authority. These apartments are all occupied as well as the 33 additional houses and the 17 trailers which were secured during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1946. This makes a total of 114 dwelling units available for married veterans attending college. Also four temporary dormitories, housing 60 single veterans, have been completed with the assistance of the Federal Public Housing Authority. Including these temporary dormitories, Murray has dormitory space available on the campus for 300 single men.

Technical Training Building. At the last session of the Legislature, a request for an appropriation for capital outlay with which to construct a Science and Mechanical Arts Building was made. The Legislature provided $425,000.00 for capital outlay but the Governor vetoed $225,000.00 of the total amount passed, leaving only $200,000.00. Realizing that building costs were increasing and because of the pressing need for space to house Industrial Arts classes, an application was made to the Federal Works Agency for aid in constructing a Technical Training Building. This building is now nearing completion and will be available for use at the opening of the Fall Quarter. The college has provided the windows and reinforcing steel for the floor. The college will in the future have to add brick veneer to this building. When this is done, Murray will have, at a very low cost, one of the best Industrial Arts Buildings to be found anywhere in the state or in the South for that matter.

Auditorium Addition. The addition to the Auditorium Building has been completed with the exception of the brick veneering. This addition has been used for wood and metal shop work, mechanical drawing, and dramatics workshop. As soon as the Technical Training Building is completed, it is planned to use this addition for dramatics workshop, for some veterans courses, and as an operation and maintenance shop, for storage, and other purposes.

Science Building. The plans for the Science Building should be completed soon, and as previously authorized by the Board, the plan is to advertise for the construction of the foundation and one floor of this building with the hope that additional funds will be provided by the Legislature so that it can be completed and made available at the earliest possible date. Our laboratories in the present Administration Building are inadequate, and it has been necessary to run certain laboratory classes at night. The most pressing building need is the Science Building. In addition to the funds available for this building, an additional appropriation of $300,000.00 will be required to complete the entire structure.

Additional space is needed for the administrative staff, especially the Registrar's Office and the Business Office. This can be cared for when the science laboratories are moved out of the Administration Building.

New Heating System. A new heating system is a "must". Our boilers are in bad repair. We are operating a high pressure boiler on a low pressure basis, using too much coal and too much labor. To install new boilers and to change heat lines will require a capital expenditure of at least $130,000.00.

Future Needs. In the future, we will need to look forward to building a Student Union Building and to make an athletic field north of the old athletic field and west of Fifteenth Street and south of Chestnut Street.

The employment of a Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds and provision for a central supply room has added greatly to the efficiency and economy of maintaining the buildings and grounds. An effort is being made to paint and repair the buildings and keep them in good condition.

EQUIPMENT SECURED

Every effort has been made to secure needed equipment from Army and Navy installations through War Assets Administration and Federal Works Agency. Considerable equipment has been secured for Industrial Arts, Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Agriculture, Home Economics, and Commerce departments, and for kitchen and cafeteria. Tables, chairs, desks, typewriters, and filing cabinets have been secured for offices and departments. The equipment secured thus far has made possible an enriched program of instruction.

ACQUISITION OF REAL ESTATE

During the fiscal year, the college purchased out of the capital outlay account approximately three acres of land lying between the heating plant and Fifteenth Street and north of the old athletic field from Mrs. Onie Bailey for the sum of $30000.00. With the acquisition of this property, the college owns all the land lying between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets from Main Street to Chestnut with the exception of a plot 220 feet north and south and 205 feet east and west, fronting on Chestnut street, which is now owned by Mrs. Onie Bailey. The college also purchased a lot on Fifteenth Street, lying between Ordway Hall and the Health Building and immediately north of the Otry Paschall dwelling. The purchase price of this lot was $2050.00.
There are two remaining lots, fronting on Fifteenth Street, between Ordway Hall and the Health Building which should be eventually acquired by the college. The lot on which there is no building should be acquired at the earliest possible date.

COLLEGE FINANCE

With frugal handling of the funds available, the college has been able to achieve the foregoing enumerated accomplishments and to close the fiscal year with a balance of $23,865.10 which is on deposit with the State Treasurer. This amount is carried forward and is available for expenditures in the 1947-48 fiscal year. In the adopted budget for 1947-48, $15,000.00 of this amount was definitely budgeted.

Attached hereto is the financial statement of the Business Manager setting forth a more detailed report of the financial operations.

✓ GRIFFENHAGEN & ASSOCIATES' REPORT

Governor Willis employed Griffenhagen & Associates to make a survey of the State Department of Education, one or more local school systems, the University of Kentucky, and the four state teachers colleges. The report on Murray has been received. In general, it is constructive. Many of the recommendations have already been instituted during the past year. Other phases of the report will serve as a guide to future planning and development. Some of the recommendations will require legislative action and increased appropriation if they are to be carried out. Some of the recommendations are of debatable merit when applied specifically to our situation.

WHAT OF TOMORROW?

We should look forward to becoming a functional regional college to serve the higher educational needs of the people of the area. This should be our goal. With an anticipated enrollment of more than 1500 students, the state appropriation for operation and maintenance should be in excess of $500,000.00 for each year of the next biennium. According to the figures included in the Griffenhagen & Associates' report, the average annual appropriation per student for the three other teachers colleges, based on enrollment for the fall and winter quarters of 1946-47, was $380.00. Murray's average annual appropriation per student, based on enrollment for the fall and winter quarters of 1946-47, was $214.00. Assuming that we will have an enrollment of 1500 students and if we expect to reach the 1946-47 appropriation average of the other teachers colleges, our appropriation for each year of the next biennium should be, at least, $570,000.00.

We must increase salaries and continue to strengthen our faculty and staff and we should look forward to building the complete science building, improving the heating system, and building a practice field for the Health and Physical Education Department to take the place of the field being utilized by the Technical Training Building and the Science Building.

We should look forward also to building a Student Union Building as well as reconditioning the Administration Building for more effective use. Even with the present enrollment in all colleges, not more than half of the most talented high school youngsters are going to college. With close cooperation between the high schools of the area and the public in general, it would seem that Murray should plan for an enrollment somewhere between 1500 and 2000 students.
